Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Subtitle A—Office of the Secretary of Agriculture

PART 11—SALES OF AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES FOR FOREIGN CURRENCIES

Subpart A—Regulations Governing the Financing of Commercial Sales of Surplus Agricultural Commodities for Foreign Currencies

IMPORTERS OF COTTON; FOREIGN QUALITY ARBITRATION

Basis and purpose of amendment. Section 11.13(f) of the regulations sets forth the requirement that importers of cotton obtain foreign quality arbitration upon request by CCC. This section further provides that any costs of arbitration incurred by the importer pursuant to request for arbitration by CCC which are in excess of the award be refunded to the importer in foreign currency. The purpose of this amendment is to provide that such excess costs may at CCC's discretion be reimbursed in dollars.

Section 11.13(f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) An importer of cotton shall, if requested by CCC, obtain foreign quality arbitration under the specified market rules. If the contract provides for USDA Form A Certificates, CCC will not request such arbitration. The arbitration award may be appealed by the supplier or the importer upon request of CCC, under the applicable rules specified in the contract. If the costs paid by the importer for an arbitration or appeal requested by CCC are in excess of the award, CCC will authorize the refund of foreign currency, or at its discretion reimburse the importer in United States dollars, in an amount equal to such excess, upon submission to the Director, CSS Commodity Office, New Orleans, Louisiana, of documentation showing the amount of costs paid by the importer and the amount of the award. These provisions shall not alter the rights of the importer and supplier to effect adjustments by arbitration or otherwise in accordance with the provisions of the contract or customs of the trade for other than quality deficiencies, or for quality deficiencies if CCC does not request arbitration.

(Sec. 102, 63 Stat. 455, as amended, 69 Stat. 44; 7 U.S.C. 1702, E.O. 10560, 19 F.R. 5927, 3 CFR, 1954 Supp.)

Done at Washington, D.C., this 20th day of December 1960. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Chapter VII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Farm Marketing Quotas and Acreage Allotments), Department of Agriculture

PART 728—WHEAT

Subpart—1961 Marketing Year

DETERMINATION OF COUNTY NORMAL YIELDS

The regulations contained in § 728.1108 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the determination of county normal yields of wheat for 1961, including the appraisal of yields for years in the ten-year period used in determining county normal yields for which the data are not available, or in which there were no actual yields.

Prior to preparing the regulations in § 728.1108, public notice (25 F.R. 218) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act. No data, views, or recommendations pertaining to the regulations in § 728.1108 were submitted pursuant to such notice.

§ 728.1108 Determination of the county normal yields for the 1961 crop of wheat.

(a) A county normal yield shall be determined for each wheat-producing county except counties in States designated by the Secretary as being outside the commercial wheat-producing area. The county normal yield for 1961 shall be determined on the basis of the average of the yields per harvested acre of wheat for the county during the ten calendar years, 1950 through 1959, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions and trends in yields. In adjusting for abnormal weather conditions: (1) If the yield for the crop for any year of the ten-year period 1950 through 1959 is less than 75 per centum of the average of the remaining nine years, such year shall be eliminated in calculating the normal yield per acre; (2) if the yield for the crop for any year of the ten-year period is determined to be abnormally low due to abnormal weather conditions, and is 75 per centum or more of the average of the remaining nine years, such yield shall be adjusted by substituting therefor the average yield for the years remaining after the elimination of any of the annual yields required to be eliminated under the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; (3)(i) if the yield for the crop for any year is determined to be abnormally high due to abnormal weather conditions, such yield shall be adjusted by substituting therefor 125 per centum of the average yield for the years remaining after the elimination of any of the annual yields required to be eliminated under the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; (ii) if five or more years of the ten-year period are eliminated as required under the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and it is determined that the yield for any other year is abnormally high due to abnormally favorable weather conditions, and that the adjusted yield as determined under the provisions of subdivision (i) of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph is inappropriate because of the elimination of five or more years of the ten-year period, the yield for such year shall be adjusted by substituting therefor 128 per centum of the unadjusted ten-year average yield.

(b) The adjustment for trend in yields shall be made by averaging the ten-year average of the annual yields as adjusted for abnormal weather conditions as described above with the average of the annual yields for the five-year period, 1955–59 inclusive, adjusted for abnormal weather conditions as described above, giving equal weight to each. No adjustment for trend shall be made in those counties in which it is determined that due to abnormally unfavorable weather conditions it is impossible to determine if there has been any trend in yields for the county.

(c)(1) If for any year of the ten-year period 1950 through 1959 the yield data are not available, or there was no actual yield, the yield for such year shall be appraised, taking into consideration the yields for years for which data are available and the yield for such year in nearby or adjacent counties or crop reporting districts recognized by the Agricultural Marketing Service in which the production of wheat is similar.

(2) In those counties in which the production of wheat is partially on irrigated land, partially on summer fallow land, and partially on continuous cropping land, a normal yield computed in accordance with the method described above shall be determined for the land devoted to irrigation, summer fallow, and continuous cropping cultural practices, respectively. The normal yield for the land devoted to each of these practices shall be averaged, using for weights the latest data available as to the acreage devoted to each practice.

(d) County Normal Yields are as follows:

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 989—RAISINS PRODUCED FROM GRAPES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

Subpart—Administrative Rules and Regulations

MONTHLY REPORT OF DISPOSITION OF FREE TONNAGE RAISINS

Notice was published in the December 6, 1960, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 12476), that consideration was being given to a proposal to amend the reporting requirements in § 989.173(d) of the administrative rules and regulations, as amended (Subpart—Administrative Rules and Regulations; §§ 989.101–989.180, as amended), effective pursuant to, and for operations under, Marketing Agreement No. 109, as amended, and Order No. 89, as amended (7 CFR Part 989; 25 F.R. 12813), regulating the handling of grapes produced from grapes grown in California. The said amended marketing agreement and order are effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674). The proposal was recommended by the Raisin Administrative Committee established under this regulatory program.

In said notice, interested persons were afforded the opportunity to submit written data, views or arguments with respect to the proposal; and views thereon were received. In such views it was suggested, in substance, that the words "file with the committee on or before the fifth day of each month" appearing in the first sentence of § 989.173(d) should be changed to state that the reports are to be received by the committee not later than the seventh day of each month. According to the definition of "file" in § 989.23, the filing of a report (as presently required by § 989.173(d)) may be accomplished at the time shown by the postmark, in case submission is by mail. The suggested change is designed to assure that the required reports of handlers will be in the hands of the committee by the seventh day of the month—a time reasonably close to the end of a month and within which the report could be prepared and delivered to the committee. The committee could thus promptly utilize the information. Moreover, handlers would, in the main, be afforded some additional time for preparation of the reports.

The amendatory action relates to the monthly reports of the disposition of free tonnage raisins by handlers who are not processors. In addition to requiring that the reports of all of the handlers be received by the committee not later than the seventh day of the month, such action requires the aggregate quantity of the raisins in consumer packs, as currently reported, to be segregated according to the quantity shipped in consumer cartons and the quantity shipped in bags having a net weight content of four pounds or less. The more detailed information on consumer packs is expected to provide the committee with a better basis on which to formulate its marketing policy, and to determine the need for, or to cause to be carried out, research on the marketing, distribution, and consumption of raisins. In compiled form, it will show the trends in the use of the two types of the containers and thus provide guides as to the growth or decline of market outlets for each of the two types of packed raisins.

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposal set forth in the notice and the data and recommendation submitted by the committee, it is hereby found that to amend, as hereinafter set forth, § 989.173(d) of the administrative rules and regulations will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Therefore, it is ordered, That § 989.173(d) of the administrative rules and regulations, as amended (Subpart—Administrative Rules and Regulations; §§ 989.101–989.180, as amended), shall be, and it hereby is, amended to read as follows:

(d) Monthly report of disposition of free tonnage raisins. Each month each handler who is not a processor shall furnish to the committee, on an appropriate form provided by the committee and so that it is received by the committee not later than the seventh day of the month, a report showing the aggregate quantity of each varietal type of free tonnage packed raisins and standard natural condition raisins which were shipped or otherwise disposed of by him during the preceding month (exclusive of transfers within the State of California between the plants of any such handler and from such handler to other handlers). Such required information shall be segregated as to: (1) Domestic outlets (exclusive of Federal Government purchases) according to the quantity shipped in consumer cartons, the quantity shipped in bags having a net weight content of four pounds or less, and the quantity shipped in bulk packs (including, but not limited to, those in bags having a net weight content of more than four pounds); (2) Federal Government purchases; (3) export outlets according to the quantity shipped in consumer cartons, the quantity shipped in bags having a net weight content of four pounds or less, and the quantity shipped in bulk packs (including, but not limited to, those in bags having a net weight content of more than four pounds); and (4) each of any other outlets in which the handler has made disposition of such raisins other than by any transfer which is excluded by the preceding sentence. For the purpose of this paragraph, Canada shall be considered as a domestic outlet and not an export outlet.

It is hereby further found that good cause exists for making this amendatory action effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER and for not postponing such effective time until 30 days after such publication (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that: (1) This action does not require handlers to report prior to January 7, 1961, and the initial report will not require any information of handlers which will not be available to them promptly after December 31, 1960; (2) the content of the report required pursuant to this action differs in only a minor respect from that of the report presently required to be furnished under § 989.173(d); (3) unless this amendatory action is made effective prior to January 6, 1961, information concerning disposition during the current month will have to be filed by January 5, 1961, and in the manner currently prescribed; (4) the time intervening between the publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER and January 7, 1961, will afford handlers ample time for the preparation and delivery of the initial report to the committee; (5) since the disposition of raisins by handlers during the month of December of a crop year is a substantial portion of all such dispositions for the crop year, it is necessary that the report covering December 1960, which is presently required to be filed not later than January 5, 1961, include the information required by this amendatory action so as to make information as to dispositions during the 1960–61 crop year more significant; and (6) in light of the foregoing, no useful purpose would be served by postponing the effective time of this action beyond its publication.

Dated December 20, 1960, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

FLOYD F. HEDLUND,
Deputy Director,
Fruit and Vegetable Division.

PART 1032—CARROTS GROWN IN SOUTH TEXAS

Limitation of Shipments

Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 142 and Order No. 132 (7 CFR Part 1032; 25 F.R. 9523), regulating the handling of carrots grown in designated counties in South Texas, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of recommendations and information submitted by the South Texas Carrot Committee, established pursuant to said Marketing Agreement and Order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the following amendment to the limitation of shipments regulation will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is hereby found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule making procedure, and that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that (1) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available, and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, is insufficient, (2) more orderly marketing in the public interest than would otherwise prevail will be promoted by regulating shipments of carrots in the manner set forth below on and after the effective date of this amendment, (3) compliance with this amendment will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (4) reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances for such preparation, and (5) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area, and (6) this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of carrots grown in the production area.

Order, as amended. In § 1032.301 (25 F.R. 11207, 12828), delete paragraph (b) and substitute in lieu thereof a new paragraph (b) as set forth below.

§ 1032.301 Limitation of shipments.

* * * * *

(b) Sizing requirements—(1) Small-to-medium. ⅝ inch minimum diameter to 1¼ inch maximum diameter, 4½ inches minimum length;

(2) Medium-to-large. ⅞ inch minimum diameter to 1½ inches maximum diameter, 5 inches minimum length;

(3) Jumbos. 1 inch minimum diameter to 3 inches maximum diameter, 3 inches minimum length.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Effective date: This amendment shall become effective December 21, 1960.

Dated: December 20, 1960.

FLOYD F. HEDLUND,
Deputy Director,
Fruit and Vegetable Division.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER C—AIRCRAFT REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 605; Amdt. 237]

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Bendix Scintilla Magnetos

An excessive number of difficulties with Bendix Scintilla magneto models used in engines rated at 400 h.p. or less have been reported. Several of these have resulted in forced landings of the aircraft. The difficulty has been traced to improper lubrication of the magneto distributor shaft and bushing. Accordingly, it is necessary to accomplish relubrication to preclude damage to the distributor gear and finger assembly.

In the interest of safety notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective upon date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 6489), § 507.10(a) of Part 507 (14 CFR Part 507), is hereby amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

BENDIX. Applies to the following Scintilla magneto models with Serial Numbers 635577 and below. These magnetos are used in engines rated at 400 or less h.p.

S4LN and S4RN–20, –21, –200 and –204.

S6LN and S6RN–20, –21, –22, –23, –25, –200, –201, –202, –204, –205 and –206.

Compliance required within 25 hours' time in service after effective date of this amendment.

Service information indicates that the distributor gear shaft and distributor block bushing of the above magnetos require additional lubrication to preclude damage to the distributor gear and finger assembly. Accordingly, unless already accomplished, these magnetos shall be relubricated as follows:

(a) Disconnect the ignition harness from the magneto. Apply enough SAE No. 30 lubricating oil to the distributor shaft felt washer to completely saturate the washer.

(b) Rotate the "tru-arc" distributor shaft retaining ring until the ring gap is straight up. Carefully apply one or two drops of SAE No. 30 oil in the gap of the ring and allow it to seep into the space between the distributor gear shaft and the distributor block bushing.

(c) Carefully clean off any oil which may have run on to the distributor block. Do not blot or wipe any oil from the felt washer.

(d) Identify magnetos lubricated in accordance with this directive by painting a ¼-inch diameter white dot on the housing between the timing window plug and the high tension outlet. This dot will indicate the lubrication has been accomplished and need not be lubricated again until regular magneto overhaul.

(Scintilla Service Bulletin No. 459, Lycoming Service Bulletin No. 277 and Continental Service Bulletin M60–11 cover this same subject.)

This amendment shall become effective December 23, 1960.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 603; 72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 16, 1960.

Acting Director, Bureau of Flight Standards.

Title 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

Tolerances for Residues of Biphenyl

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration by Crown Zellerbach Corporation, 343 Sansome Street, San Francisco 19, California, requesting the establishment of tolerances for residues of biphenyl (also known as diphenyl) in or on citrus citron, kumquats, limes, tangelos, tangerines, and other hybrids of citrus fruits at 110 parts per million.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful for the purposes for which tolerances are being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerances established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408(d)(2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U.S.C. 346a(d)(2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (25 F.R. 8625), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR 120.141) are amended by changing the name "diphenyl" to "biphenyl" to conform with the American Chemical Society's nomenclature and by adding to the list of raw agricultural commodities the items citrus citron, kumquats, limes, tangelos, tangerines, other citrus fruits, and hybrids thereof. As amended, § 120.141 reads as follows:

A tolerance of 110 parts per million for residues of biphenyl (also known as diphenyl) is established in or on each of the following raw agricultural commodities: Citrus citron, grapefruit, kumquats, lemons, limes, oranges, tangelos, tangerines, other citrus fruits, and hybrids thereof.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

The following corrections are made in F.R. Doc. 60-11167, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER December 1, 1960 (25 F.R. 12288):

1. The tolerance of 1 part per million for residues of DDT on potatoes was inadvertently omitted from the above-cited document. Section 120.147 should read as follows:

Tolerances for residues of DDT (a mixture of 1,1,1-trichloro-2,2-bis (p-chlorophenyl) ethane and 1,1,1-trichloro-2-(o-chlorophenyl)-2-(p-chlorophenyl) ethane) are established in or on raw agricultural commodities, as follows:

7 parts per million in the fat of meat from cattle, hogs, and sheep and in or on sweetpotatoes (from postharvest use).

3.5 parts per mission in or on the fresh vegetable sweet corn (determined on kernels plus cob after removing any husk present when marketed).

1 part per million in or on potatoes (determined after washing off any soil present when marketed).

§ 120.147a [Amendment]

2. In § 120.147a(a), the references in the first and second sentences: "§ 121.101 (b)(43)" and "§ 120.147(b)", are corrected to read "§ 120.101(e)(43)" and "§ 120.147", respectively.

3. In § 120.147a(b), the reference in the first sentence, "§ 120.147(a)" is corrected to read "§ 120.147".

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart C—Food Additives Permitted in Animal Feed or Animal Feed Supplements

ZOALENE IN MEDICATED FEEDS

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, having evaluated the data filed by the Dow Chemical Company, Midland, Michigan, has concluded that the following amendment should issue in conformity with section 409 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act with respect to the food additive zoalene in chicken feed, to provide for the addition of certain antibiotics. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the act (sec. 409(c)(1), 72 Stat. 1786; 21 U.S.C. 348(c)(1)), and under the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (25 F.R. 8625), the food additive regulations (21 CFR 121.207) are amended as set forth below:

1. Section 121.207(a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 121.207 Zoalene (3,5-dinitro-o-toluamide) in medicated feed.

* * * * *

(a) It is used or intended for use in the prevention and control of cecal and intestinal coccidiosis in chickens caused by Eimeria acervulina, Eimeria brunetti, Eimeria maxima, Eimeria necatrix, or Eimeria tenella. The zoalene is used:

(1) As the sole medication in the feed; or

(2) In combination with the following antibiotic as an aid in stimulating growth and improving feed efficiency in growing chickens:

Penicillin: Not less than 2.4 grams nor more than 50 grams of master standard equivalent per ton of finished feed.

2. Section 121.207(b), the introduction to paragraph (c), and paragraph (c)(1) are amended to read as follows:

(b) The quantity of the zoalene to be used or to remain in the finished medicated feed shall not exceed 125 parts per million (0.0125 percent), but may be used at lower levels in accordance with and under the labeling provided for by § 146.26(b)(45) of this chapter.

(c) To assure safe use of the additive zoalene and antibiotics in medicated feed, the label on the additive container or any intermediate mixes shall contain, in addition to the other information required by the act:

(1)(i) The name of the additive, zoalene.

(ii) The name of any antibiotic added as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

3. Section 121.207(d)(1) is amended to read as follows:

(1)(i) The name of the additive, zoalene.

(ii) The name of any antibiotic added as provided in paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Title 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER F—NAVIGATION REQUIREMENTS FOR WESTERN RIVERS

[CGFR 60-79]

PART 96—INTERPRETIVE RULINGS

Subpart 96.10—Steering and Sailing

MOVING A VESSEL FROM HER DOCK OR ANCHORAGE

An interpretive ruling designated 33 CFR 96.10–1(a), regarding the meaning of the phrase "when a steam vessel is moved from her dock, or anchorage" in Rule Numbered 24(c) (33 U.S.C. 349) of the Western Rivers Rules, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of October 8, 1960 (25 F.R. 9681). The rule numbered 24(c) reads as follows: "When a steam vessel is moved from her dock, or anchorage, she shall give the same signal as in the case of a steam vessel nearing a bend, but she and any approaching vessel shall be governed by rules 25 and 26 until her course is apparent, and then both vessels shall be governed by the other steering and sailing rules."

This interpretive ruling provided that the phrase "when a steam vessel is moved from her dock, or anchorage" should mean "* * * moving from a mooring to a riverbank or from a mooring of any type." Since then information has been received indicating that this interpretive ruling still leaves a doubt about what is meant because the phrase "mooring to a riverbank" may be construed as meaning either a "riverbank mooring" (which was the meaning intended), or it may express the relation of direction, approach and arrival, as from a "mooring" to a "riverbank." This Rule Numbered 24(c) requires a prescribed signal of three distinct blasts on her whistle shall be given when a vessel is "moved from her dock, or anchorage," and this phrase should be interpreted to mean when a vessel is "moving from a mooring of any type."

Because the regulation in this document is an interpretation, it is hereby found that the Coast Guard is exempt from compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act (respecting notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedures thereon, and effective date requirements thereof).

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Orders 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 6521), and 167–17, dated June 29, 1955 (20 F.R. 4976), to promulgate regulations in accordance with the statutes cited with the regulations below, § 96.10–1 is amended to read as follows, effective on and after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

§ 96.10–1 Vessel moved from dock or anchorage.

(a) Rule Numbered 24(c) of section 4233 of the Revised Statutes as amended (33 U.S.C. 349), requires "when a vessel is moved from her dock, or anchorage," to give a prescribed signal of three distinct blasts on her whistle. The phrase "moved from her dock, or anchorage," includes moving from a riverbank mooring or from a mooring of any type.

Partly Revoking Stock Driveway No. 10, Arizona No. 1

By virtue of the authority contained in section 10 of the act of December 29, 1916 (39 Stat. 862; 43 U.S.C. 300) as amended, it is ordered as follows:

1. The departmental order of March 18, 1918, creating Stock Driveway Withdrawal No. 10, Arizona No. 1, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands:

GILA AND SALT RIVER MERIDIAN

T. 14 N., R. 19 E.,
Sec. 6.

Containing 651.12 acres.

2. Subject to valid existing rights, the requirements of applicable law, and the regulations in 43 CFR, the lands are hereby opened to application, selection, and location under the public land laws. Applications and selections received at or before 10:00 a.m. January 24, 1961, shall be considered as simultaneously filed at that time. Those thereafter received will be considered in the order of filing.

3. Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

4. The lands have been open to location under the U.S. Mining laws, and to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws (43 CFR 185.35–185.36).

5. The State of Arizona has waived its preference right of application under the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851, 852).

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Phoenix, Arizona.

SUBCHAPTER C—THE NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE SYSTEM

PART 33—SPORT FISHING

Seney National Wildlife Refuge, Michigan

The following special regulation is issued.

§ 33.5 Special regulations; sport fishing; for individual wildlife refuge areas.

MICHIGAN

SENEY NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Sport fishing on the Seney National Wildlife Refuge, Michigan is permissible only under the following conditions:

(a) Species permitted to be taken: As prescribed by State regulations.

(b) Open season: Daylight hours during the period from January 1 through February 28, 1961.

(c) Daily creel limits: As prescribed by State regulations.

(d) Methods of fishing: As prescribed by State regulations.

(e) Description of areas open to fishing: Fishing is permitted in accordance with the above on the posted area which comprises approximately 4,200 acres and 4.5 percent of the total refuge and which is described as follows:

In Unit I—those pools designated as B, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, Upper Goose Pen Pool, and Show Pools; in Unit II—that pool designated as M pool; and those waters of the Manistique River which lie within the Seney National Wildlife Refuge. These areas are delineated on maps available at the refuge office and from the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, 1006 West Lake Street, Minneapolis 8, Minnesota.

(f) Other provisions:

(1) The provisions of this special regulation supplement the regulations which govern fishing on wildlife refuge areas generally which are set forth in Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 33.

(2) Travel shall be restricted to routes designated and posted by the refuge officer in charge. Roads in Unit I will be cleared of snow periodically during the winter fishing season.

(3) A Federal permit is not required to enter the public fishing area.

(4) The provisions of this special regulation are effective January 1, 1961, through February 28, 1961.

PART 269—UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF FROZEN OCEAN-PERCH FILLETS AND FROZEN PACIFIC OCEAN-PERCH FILLETS [1]

On October 21, 1960, a notice and text of a proposed new Part 269 of Title 50, Code of Federal Regulations was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 10064). The purpose of the new part is to issue United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Ocean-perch Fillets and Frozen Pacific Ocean-perch Fillets under the authority transferred to the U.S. Department of the Interior by section 6(a) of the Fish and Wildlife Act of August 8, 1956 (16 U.S.C. 742e).

Interested persons were given until November 20, 1960, to submit written comments, suggestions or objections with respect to the proposed new part. No comments, suggestions or objections have been received. The proposed new part is hereby adopted without change and is set forth below. This part shall become effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION AND GRADES

§ 269.1 Product description.

The product described in this part consists of: (a) Clean, whole, wholesome fillets, cut away from either side of the ocean perch, Sebastes marinus, which are packaged and frozen in accordance with good commercial practice and are maintained at temperatures necessary for the preservation of the product; or (b) clean, whole, wholesome fillets, cut away from either side of the Pacific ocean perch, Sebastodes alutus, which are packaged and frozen in accordance with good commercial practice and are maintained at temperatures necessary for the preservation of the product.

(a) "U.S. Grade A" is the quality of frozen ocean-perch fillets that possess good flavor and odor; and for those factors of quality which are rated in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this part the total score is not less than 85 points.

(b) "U.S. Grade B" is the quality of frozen ocean-perch fillets that possess at least reasonably good flavor and odor; and for those factors of quality which are rated in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this part the total score is not less than 70 points.

(c) "Substandard" is the quality of frozen ocean-perch fillets that fail to meet the requirements of U.S. Grade B.

WEIGHTS AND DIMENSIONS

§ 269.6 Recommended weights and dimensions.

(a) The net weights and dimensions of packaged frozen ocean-perch fillets and Pacific ocean-perch fillets are not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since net weights and dimensions, as such, are not factors of quality for the purpose of these grades.

(b) It is recommended that the net weight of the packaged frozen ocean-perch fillets and Pacific ocean-perch fillets be not less than 12 ounces and not over 10 pounds and that the product be classified as large, medium, or small as classified by common commercial size classification practices.

FACTORS OF QUALITY

§ 269.11 Ascertaining the grade.

The grade of frozen ocean-perch fillets is ascertained by examining the product in the frozen, thawed, and cooked states. The following factors of quality are evaluated in ascertaining the grade of the product: Flavor and odor, appearance, size, absence of defects, and character. These factors are rated in the following manner:

(1) Flavor and odor. This factor is rated directly by organoleptic evaluation. Score points are not assessed (see § 269.12).

(2) Appearance, size, absence of defects, and character. The relative importance of these factors is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given each of these factors are:

Factors:	Points
Appearance	15
Size	20
Absence of defects	50
Character	15
Total possible score	100

§ 269.12 Evaluation of the unscored factor of flavor and odor.

(a) Good flavor and odor. "Good flavor and odor" (essential requirement for a Grade A product) means that the fish flesh has good flavor and odor characteristic of the species (either Sebastes marinus or Sebastodes alutus) and is free from staleness, and off-flavors and off-odors of any kind.

(b) Reasonably good flavor and odor. "Reasonably good flavor and odor" (minimum requirement for a Grade B product) means that the fish flesh may be somewhat lacking in good flavor and odor; and is free from objectionable off-flavors and off-odors of any kind.

§ 269.13 Evaluation and rating of the scored factors: Appearance, size, absence of defects, and character.

The essential variations in quality within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. Point deductions are allotted for each degree or amount of variation within each factor. The net score for each factor is the maximum points for that factor less the sum of the deduction-points within the factor. The total score for the product is the sum of the net scores for the four scored factors.

§ 269.14 Appearance.

(a) The factor of appearance refers to the color of the frozen fish flesh, and to the degree and amount of surface dehydration of the frozen product.

(b) For the purpose of rating the factor of appearance the schedule of deduction-points in Table I apply. Frozen ocean-perch fillets which receive 15 deduction points for the factor of appearance shall not be graded above Substandard regardless of the total score for the product. This is a limiting rule.

TABLE I—SCORED DEDUCTIONS FOR APPEARANCE

Color of frozen product	Deduction points
No discoloration	0
Slight yellowing	4
Moderate yellowing	9
Excessive yellowing and/or rusting	15

Degree of dehydration of frozen product	Surface area affected (percent)		Deduction points
	Over—	Not over—
Slight—Shallow and not color masking	0	1	5
	1	50	10
	50	100	15
Moderate—Deep, but just deep enough to easily scrape with fingernail	0	25	15
	25	50	15
	50	100	15
Excessive—Deep dehydration not easily scraped off	0	5	15
	5	100	15

§ 269.15 Size.

(a) The factor of size refers to the degree of freedom from undesirably small fillets.

(b) For the purpose of rating the factor of size, the schedule of deduction-points in Table II apply. Ocean-perch fillets which receive 20 deduction-points for this factor shall not be graded above Substandard regardless of the total score for the product. This is a limiting rule.

1½ square inches in area; each bruise larger than 1½ square inches is considered as two instances of bruise. An "instance of black-belly lining or membrane" is any piece of black-belly lining or membrane not less than ½ inch and not more than 1 inch in length; each additional ½ inch length of individual pieces of black-belly lining or membrane longer than 1 inch is considered as an instance. Each aggregate area of identifiable fin or parts of any fin up to 1 square inch is considered as one "instance of fin". One "instance of scales" is an aggregate area of scales greater than ½ square inch per fillet. One "instance of skin" consists of one piece of skin at least ½ square inch in area; except that any skin patches larger than 1½ square inches are considered as two instances of skin.

(4) Bones. One "instance of bones" means an objectionable bone or group of bones occupying or contacting a circular area up to 1 square inch. An objectionable bone is any bone of such size and rigidity as to remain objectionable after cooking. Bones which will soften or disintegrate after cooking are not considered objectionable.

(b) For the purpose of rating the factor of absence of defects the schedule of deduction-points in Table III applies.

TABLE III.—SCORE DEDUCTIONS FOR ABSENCE OF DEFECTS

Subfactors	Method of determining subfactor score	Deduction points

	Moderate defects, noticeable but not affecting the useability of any fillets.	4
	Excessive defects impairing:
	(a) the usability of up to ¼ of the total number of fillets.	8
	(b) the usability of over ¼ but not more than ½ of the total number of fillets.	16
	(c) the usability of over ½ of the total number of fillets.	40

§ 269.17 Character.

(a) General: The factor of character refers to the tenderness and moistness of the cooked fish flesh.

TABLE IV—SCORE DEDUCTIONS FOR CHARACTER

1. Texture:
(a) Firm, but tender and moist	0
(b) Slightly tough, dry, and/or fibrous, or mushy	4
(c) Moderately tough, rubbery, and/or fibrous	8
(d) Excessively tough, rubbery, and/or fibrous	15

DEFINITIONS AND METHODS OF ANALYSIS

§ 269.21 Cooking in a suitable manner.

"Cooking in a suitable manner" shall mean that the product is cooked as follows: Place the thawed unseasoned product into a boilable film-type pouch. Fold the pouch over a suspension bar and clamp it in place so that a loose seal is maintained. Immerse the pouch and its contents in boiling water and cook until the internal temperature of the fillets reaches 160° F. (about 20 minutes).

LOT CERTIFICATION TOLERANCES

§ 269.25 Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples.

The sample rate and grades of specific lots shall be certified in accordance with Part 170 of this chapter (Regulations Governing Processed Fishery Products, 23 F.R. 5064, July 3, 1958).

MILK IN COLORADO SPRINGS-PUEBLO MARKETING AREA

Notice of Hearing on Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Continental Denver Motel, Valley Highway, Denver, Colorado, beginning at 10:00 a.m., local time, on January 7, 1961, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, regulating the handling of milk in the Colorado Springs-Pueblo marketing area.

The public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the economic and emergency marketing conditions which relate to the proposed amendments, hereinafter set forth, and any appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order.

The proposed amendments, set forth below, have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Proposed by the Colorado Springs Milk Producers' Association and the Pueblo Dairymen's Cooperative Inc.:

Proposal No. 1. Amend § 994.9 by the addition of the following:

(d) A cooperative association with respect to the milk of its member producers which is delivered from the farm to the pool plant of another handler in a tank truck owned or controlled by such cooperative associations, if the cooperative associations notifies the market administrator and a handler to whom the milk is delivered, in writing prior to the first day of the month in which the milk is delivered, that it wishes to be the handler for the milk. In this case, the milk shall be deemed to have been received from producers by the cooperative associations at the location of the plant to which the milk is delivered.

Proposal No. 2. Amend § 994.42 to provide for a shrinkage allowance of 0.5 percent to a cooperative association which is the handler on bulk tank milk in the same manner as now provided for milk transferred in bulk from pool plants of other handlers.

Proposal No. 3. Amend § 994.80 to provide for payments on the basis of class utilization to cooperative associations with respect to milk for which such cooperative associations are the handlers, and increase the rate of the advance payment now provided in § 994.80 (a) from the Class II price for the preceeding month to the uniform price for the preceeding month.

Proposal No. 4. Establish in § 994.41 a Class II(a) utilization for milk used in the manufacture of cheddar cheese and in § 994.51 a price for Class II(a) milk at a level 20 cents less than the established price for Class II milk for each month.

Proposal No. 5. Review the pool plant standards for cooperative associations operating supply plants.

Proposed by the Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Service:

Proposal No. 6. Make such changes as may be necessary to make the entire marketing agreement and the order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and the order may be procured from the Market Administrator, 121 East Boulder, Colorado Springs, Colorado, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 112, Administration Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C., or may be there inspected.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 20th day of December 1960.

ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator.

[Airspace Docket No. 60-NY-122]

FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROL AREAS AND REPORTING POINTS

Revocation and Alteration

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 409.13), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 600.16, 600.6020, 601.16, 601.4016, 601.6020, and 601.7001 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

Green Federal airway No. 6 extends in part from Greensboro, N.C., to Richmond, Va. VOR Federal airway No. 20 extends in part from South Boston, Va., to Flat Rock, Va. The Federal Aviation Agency is considering revoking this segment of Green 6. It is the policy of the Agency to revoke L/MF airways wherever adequate VOR airways are available, and it appears that the route from Greensboro to Richmond would be adequately served by Victor 20. Therefore, it appears that the retention of this airway segment is unjustified as an assignment of airspace. Accordingly, the Federal Aviation Agency proposes to revoke the segment of Green 6 and its associated control areas from Greensboro to Richmond. Adoption of this proposal would not necessarily result in discontinuance of the low frequency navigational aids associated with this segment of Green 6. Any proposal to discontinue one or more of these aids would be processed in accordance with current Agency procedures. In addition, the Richmond, Va., radio range station would be revoked as a designated reporting point on Green 6.

Concurrently with these actions, the Federal Aviation Agency is considering alteration of the segment of Victor 20 from South Boston, to Flat Rock. It is proposed to redesignate this airway segment and its associated control areas from the South Boston VOR direct to the Richmond VOR where it would terminate. Also under consideration is the designation of Victor 20 north alternate and its associated control areas to extend from the South Boston VOR via the intersection of the South Boston VOR 042° and the Flat Rock VORTAC 234° True radials; Flat Rock VORTAC; to the Richmond VOR. The proposed altered segment of Victor 20 from Boston to Richmond would provide a replacement route for the segment of Green 6 proposed for revocation. The designation of the proposed north alternate segment to Victor 20 from South Boston via Flat Rock to Richmond would provide an additional route for the air traffic management of aircraft operating between the Richmond, Danville, Va., and Greensboro, terminal areas. In addition, it is proposed to designate the Richmond VOR as a domestic VOR reporting point.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 19, 1960.

J. R. BAILEY,
Assistant Chief,
Airspace Utilization Division.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Part 230]

DELAYING AMENDMENTS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Section 8(a) of the Securities Act provides that registration statements filed under that Act shall become effective on the twentieth day after filing or such earlier date as the Commission shall determine. The filing of an amendment to the statement establishes a new filing date and starts the twenty-day period running anew. In order to prevent registration statements from becoming effective through the lapse of time and before they have been amended to cure any deficiencies therein, it has been the practice of registrants to file technical or so-called "delaying" amendments to start the waiting period running again.

The Commission has from time to time been requested by attorneys and other representatives of registrants to adopt a rule which would make unnecessary the filing of delaying amendments. In view of the increased volume and backlog of statements filed under the Act, the Commission has determined to give consideration to the problem of eliminating delaying amendments, or at least reducing the number of such amendments filed. The Commission is moved to consider the matter both in the interest of expediting its own work and in the interest of reducing, insofar as possible, the work involved in the preparing and filing of papers by registrants.

In an effort to meet this problem, the Commission is considering an amendment to Rule 473 proposed by the staff which would provide for the filing, either with a registration statement or at a later date, of an amendment delaying the effective date until the registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that the earlier amendment shall no longer operate to delay the effective date of the statement. The proposed new procedure would not be mandatory, although it is expected that registrants would find it to their advantage to follow it in order to avoid the necessity of preparing and filing successive delaying amendments.

Rule 473 (§ 230.473) as proposed to be amended would read as follows:

§ 230.473 Delaying amendments.

(a) An amendment in the following form filed with a registration statement, or as an amendment to a registration statement which has not become effective, shall be deemed, for the purpose of section 8(a) of the Act, to be filed on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay the effective date of such registration statement until the registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that the earlier amendment shall no longer operate to delay the effective date of the registration statement:

The registrant hereby amends this registration statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this amendment shall no longer operate to delay the effective date hereof.

(b) An amendment pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section filed after the filing of the registration statement, or an amendment altering the proposed date of the public sale, may be made by telegram or letter. Each such telegraphic amendment shall be confirmed in writing within a reasonable time by the filing of a signed copy of the amendment. Such confirmation shall not be deemed an amendment.

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the proposed rule, in writing, to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C., on or before January 16, 1961. All communications in regard to the proposed rule will be considered available for public inspection.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION AS INVESTMENT ADVISER

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposal to amend its Form ADV (§ 279.1), the form of application for registration as an investment adviser, or for amending such an application, and to amend Rule 204-1 (§ 275.204-1), which provides for the filing of supplements and amendments to such an application. The proposal also contemplates the adoption of Form ADV-SUP, which would be required to be filed within 60 days after the proposal becomes effective, by investment advisers already registered and by those who have an application pending on such date.

Public Law 86-750 passed by the Second Session of the 86th Congress amends the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 in many important respects. Among other things, the amendments provide new grounds for denying, suspending or revoking the registration of an investment adviser. Before the amendments were adopted the provisions of section 203(d) of the Act provided, in substance, that the Commission could deny, suspend or revoke the registration of an investment adviser if it found that such action was in the public interest and that the investment adviser, or any partner, officer, director or controlling person: (1) Within 10 years of the order, was convicted of a felony or misdemeanor involving the purchase or sale of a security or arising out of activities as an investment adviser, underwriter, broker or dealer, or as an affiliated person or employee of an investment company, bank or insurance company; or (2) was subject to an injunction based upon similar conduct or activity; or (3) had wilfully made any untrue statement or misleading omission of a material fact in any application or report filed with the Commission. As amended, the Act now provides additional bases for denial, suspension or revocation of registration: (1) conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving mail fraud; fraud by wire, radio or television; or embezzlement, fraudulent conversion or misappropriation of funds or securities; (2) wilful violation of any provision of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, or any rule or regulation under any of such acts; or (3) aiding or abetting any other person's violation of any of such acts, rules or regulations. The amendments also provide that any of the above disqualifications by a controlled person (as well as by a partner, officer, director or controlling person) may also be a basis for denial, suspension or revocation.

As proposed to be amended, Form ADV would require the furnishing of information to disclose whether any of the persons mentioned above are subject to any disqualification under the Act, as amended. Thus, Item 8 has been expanded to reflect the new bases for denial, suspension or revocation of registration. Some other changes have been made to Form ADV, however, to obtain certain additional information, to clarify the instructions, and to simplify its use and its processing at the Commission. For example, Item 10 requests more specific information concerning the investment adviser's business. Item 11 has been revised to reflect the amendment of section 208(c) of the statute which changes the conditions under which an investment adviser may use the designation or title "investment counsel". Item 9 will require the furnishing of information concerning the education and experience of key personnel.

The principal reason for amending Rule 204-1 is to require every investment adviser whose registration is effective when the proposal is adopted or who has an application for registration pending on that date, to file a supplement to his application on Form ADV-SUP within 60 days thereafter. Form ADV-SUP would be substantially the same as Form ADV, as amended, except that the first page would be modified to serve its use as a supplement.

The proposed amendments would be adopted pursuant to the provisions of Sections 203, 204 and 211(a) of the Act.

A copy of Form ADV as proposed to be amended is attached hereto.[1]

The text of proposed Rule 204-1(a) as it is proposed to be amended is as follows:

§ 275.204-1 Supplement and amendments to applications.

(a) Supplement. Every investment adviser whose registration is effective on _____ (the date this amendment becomes effective), or whose application for registration is pending on that date, shall file a supplement to such application on Form ADV-SUP not later than _____ (60 days after the date this amendment becomes effective).

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the proposal in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. on or before January 16, 1961. All such communications will be available for public inspection.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Coast Guard

[CGFR 60-78]

KAPOK BUOYANT CUSHION

Termination of Approval

Various items of lifesaving equipment used on certain motorboats and other pleasure craft are required by the act of April 25, 1940, as amended (46 U.S.C. 526–526u), other navigation and vessel inspection laws, and various regulations in 46 CFR Chapter I to be of types approved by the Commandant, United States Coast Guard. The procedures governing the granting of approvals and the suspension, cancellation, termination or withdrawal of approvals are set forth in 46 CFR 2.75–1 to 2.75–50, inclusive. With respect to kapok buoyant cushions, a specification has been prescribed by the Commandant and is published in 46 CFR Part 160, as "Subpart 160.048—Buoyant Cushions, Kapok or Fibrous Glass, for Motorboats of Classes A, 1, or 2 Not Carrying Passengers for Hire" (Subchapter Q—Specifications).

The Commandant's approval of a specific item is intended to provide a control over its quality. Therefore, such approval applies only to the item constructed or installed in accordance with the applicable requirements and the details described in the specific approval. If a specific item when manufactured does not comply with the details of the approval, such item is not considered to have the Commandant's approval, and the certificate of approval issued to the manufacturer does not apply to such modified item.

The purpose of this document is to notify all concerned that Approval No. 160.048/170/0 for a kapok buoyant cushion for use on motorboats of Classes A, 1, or 2 not carrying passengers for hire is terminated. Since the kapok buoyant cushions manufactured by the Protection Products Company, Division of Ero Manufacturing Company, Hazlehurst, Georgia, and marked with Approval No. 160.048/170/0 did not perform satisfactorily under service conditions and failed to comply with applicable requirements for construction and workmanship, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, United States Coast Guard, Savannah, Georgia, notified the Protection Products Company, Division of Ero Manufacturing Company, Hazlehurst, Georgia, by a letter dated September 22, 1960, that this approval was suspended and production of buoyant cushions manufactured under this approval number must cease immediately, and at the same time giving the manufacturer until October 27, 1960, to show why this approval should not be terminated. No written objections to the suspension and proposed termination of this approval were received. Neither did the manufacturer submit reasons in protest to the termination of the approval, as set forth in this document.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Order No. 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 6521), and R.S. 4405, as amended, and 4462, as amended, and sections 6 and 17, of the Act of April 25, 1940, as amended (54 Stat. 164, 166; 46 U.S.C. 375, 416, 526e, 526p), and implementing regulations in 46 CFR Chapter I, it is ordered that the following approval shall be terminated, effective October 27, 1960, because the specific kapok buoyant cushion manufactured thereunder does not comply with present Coast Guard requirements for construction and workmanship:

BUOYANT CUSHIONS, KAPOK OR FIBROUS GLASS

Termination of Approval No. 160.048/170/0, special approval for 15" x 15" x 2" rectangular buoyant cushion with heat-sealed seams, 20-oz. kapok, dwg. No. 2–B.C.S. dated November 10, 1959, and sketch No. 2–B–C–S dated October 15, 1959, manufactured by Protection Products Co., Division of Ero Manufacturing Co., 2637 West Polk Street, Chicago, Ill., and Hazlehurst, Ga. (Approved FEDERAL REGISTER March 16, 1960, 25 F.R. 2170. Termination of approval effective October 27, 1960.)

Notwithstanding this termination of Approval No. 160.048/170/0, as set forth in this document, all kapok buoyant cushions bearing a label showing this approval number which may be in service on board motorboats of Classes A, 1, or 2 not carrying passengers for hire may be continued in use so long as such equipment is in good and serviceable conditions.

Dated: December 16, 1960.

HAIR OF CERTAIN ANIMALS, COTTON AND SILK WASTE AND CARPET WOOL; IMPORTATION FROM COUNTRIES NOT IN AUTHORIZED TRADE TERRITORY

Applications for Licenses

Notice is hereby given that the Treasury Department is now prepared to consider applications for licenses under the Foreign Assets Control Regulations (31 CFR 500.101 to 500.808) for the importation during 1961 of limited quantities of the following commodities from countries (other than Communist China and North Korea) not in the authorized trade territory:

Badger hair
Camel hair
Carpet wool
Cotton waste
Goat hair
Horse mane hair, horse tail hair and other horse hair
Silk waste
Yak hair

Applications must be filed on or before January 11, 1961.

Any person interested in importing any of the above-named commodities from a country (other than Communist China and North Korea) not in the authorized trade territory may obtain additional information and license application forms from the Foreign Assets Control, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D.C.

Attention is directed to the fact that the term "authorized trade territory" is defined in § 500.322 of the Foreign Assets Control Regulations and that the term "countries (other than Communist China and North Korea) not in the authorized trade territory" as used herein includes Albania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, the Eastern Zone of Germany, the Eastern Sector of Berlin, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Outer Mongolia, Poland, Rumania, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, and Viet-Nam (only those areas under Communist control).

CALIFORNIA

Small Tract Classification Order

DECEMBER 16, 1960.

1. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the California State Supervisor, Bureau of Land Management, under Part II, Document 4, California State Office, dated November 19, 1954 (19 F.R. 7697), I hereby classify the following described public land, totaling approximately 160 acres in Shasta County, California as suitable for title transfer under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609, 43 U.S.C. 682a), as amended:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN

T. 31 N., R. 5 W.,
Sec. 9: W½NE¼, W½NW¼SE¼, N½SW¼SE¼, SW¼SW¼.

Containing approximately 160 acres of which 60 acres are covered by 12 applications from persons entitled to preference under 43 CFR, 257.5(a).

2. Classification of the above described lands by this order segregates them from all appropriations, including locations under the mining laws, except as to applications under the mineral leasing laws.

3. The lands classified by this order shall not become subject to applications under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U.S.C. 682a), as amended, until it is so provided by an order to be issued by an authorized officer, opening the lands to application or bid.

4. All valid applications filed prior to December 16, 1960, will be granted, as soon as possible, the preference right provided for by 43 CFR, 257.5(a).

GRUNDY COUNTY AUCTION CO. AND CROSBY'S LIVESTOCK COMMISSION SALE

Deposting of Stockyards

It has been ascertained, and notice is hereby given, that the stockyards named herein, originally posted on the respective dates specified below as being subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U.S.C. 181 et seq.), no longer come within the definition of a stockyard under said act for the reason that they are no longer being conducted or operated as public markets, and are, therefore, no longer subject to the provisions of the act.

Name and location of stockyard:	Date of posting
Grundy County Auction Co. (formerly Trenton Livestock Market), Trenton, Mo.	June 11, 1959
Crosby's Livestock Commission Sale, Leicester Junction, Vt.	Nov. 20, 1959

Notice or other public procedure has not preceded promulgation of the foregoing rule since it is found that the giving of such notice would prevent the due and timely administration of the Packers and Stockyards Act and would, therefore, be impracticable and contrary to the public interest. There is no legal warrant or justification for not deposting promptly a stockyard which is no longer within the definition of that term contained in said act.

The foregoing is in the nature of a rule granting an exemption or relieving a restriction and, therefore, may be made effective in less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. This notice shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TRANS-PACIFIC PASSENGER CONFERENCE

Notice of Agreements Filed for Approval

Notice is hereby given that the following described agreements have been filed with the Board for approval pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (39 Stat. 733, 46 U.S.C. 814):

Agreement No. 131-233, between the member lines of the Trans-Pacific Passenger Conference, modifies the basic agreement of that conference (No. 131, as amended), to include a new By-Law providing that passengers utilizing the services of more than one member line on a one-way or round trip voyage entirely within the jurisdiction of the conference, may be granted reduction from published fare as may be determined unanimously by the member lines.

Agreement No. 131-234, between the member lines of the Trans-Pacific Passenger Conference, modifies the basic agreement of that conference (No. 131, as amended), with respect to the interchange of tickets and/or orders on interocean, round-the-world, circuit tours of the Pacific, one-way and round trip passenger traffic.

Interested parties may inspect these agreements and obtain copies thereof at the Office of Regulations, Federal Maritime Board, Washington, D.C., and may submit, within 20 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, written statements with reference to these agreements and their position as to approval, disapproval, or modification, together with request for hearing should such hearing be desired.

Notice of Agreements Filed for Approval

Notice is hereby given that the following described agreements have been filed with the Board for approval pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (39 Stat. 733, 46 U.S.C. 814):

Agreement No. 8372-1, between A. Kirsten, Sartori & Berger and Ahnenkiel & Bene, modifies approved Agreement No. 837, covering an arrangement for the scheduling of their vessels operating as the "Hamburg Chicago Linie", in the trade between U.S. Great Lakes ports and ports enroute, on the one hand, and ports on the continent of Europe (Bordeaux/Hamburg Range), on the other hand, and in the trade between any two of said ports which are in the Western Hemisphere (not including transportation within the purview of the coastwise laws of the United States). The purpose of this modification is to provide that the agreement may be cancelled on March 31st of any year, by any party giving written notice to the other parties on December 15th of the preceding year, rather than on November 1st of the preceding year as presently provided.

Agreement No. 8501-1, between Weaver Bros., Inc., Puget Sound-Alaska Van Lines, Inc., and Puget Sound Tug & Barge Co., modifies approved Agreement No. 8501, between Weaver Bros., Inc., and Puget Sound-Alaska Van Lines, Inc., which covers a through billing arrangement on cargo between Seattle, Washington and places in the interior of Alaska, with transhipment at Seward, Alaska. The purpose of this modification is to substitute Puget Sound Tug & Barge Co., as a party to Agreement No. 8501, in lieu of Puget Sound-Alaska Van Lines, Inc.

Interested parties may inspect these agreements and obtain copies thereof at the Office of Regulations, Federal Maritime Board, Washington, D.C., and may submit, within 20 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, written statements with reference to these agreements and their position as to approval, disapproval, or modification, together with request for hearing should such hearing be desired.

WATERMAN STEAMSHIP CORP.

Notice of Application and of Hearing

Notice is hereby given that in connection with the application of Waterman Steamship Corporation for written permission of the Federal Maritime Board, under section 805(a) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, 46 U.S.C. 1223, to continue, if and after it is awarded a subsidy contract, to operate in certain domestic coastwise services, the Federal Maritime Board has set down for further hearings the question of continuing the permissions granted in the Board's Order served on September 13, 1960, insofar as they involve service between Jacksonville, Florida and New York (Port Newark).

In accordance with Rule 6(d) of the Board's rules of practice and procedure (46 CFR 201.94), a pre-hearing conference will be held before an Examiner on January 10, 1961, beginning at 10:00 a.m. in Room 4519 of the New General Accounting Office Building at 5th and G Streets NW., Washington, D.C. Any person, firm, or corporation having any interest (within the meaning of section 805(a)) in this matter and desiring to be heard on issues pertinent to section 805(a) must, before the close of business on January 4, 1961, notify the Secretary, Federal Maritime Board, in writing, in triplicate, and file petition for leave to intervene which shall state clearly and concisely the grounds of interest, and the alleged facts relied on for relief. Notwithstanding anything in Rule 5(n) of the rules of practice and procedure, Federal Maritime Board, petitions for leave to intervene received after the close of business on January 4, 1961, will not be granted in this proceeding.

PROPOSED AIR STAR ROUTE

Description

In accordance with Public Law 277 of the 81st Congress (approved August 30, 1949), notice is hereby given that the Civil Aeronautics Board has received a request from the Postmaster General (Docket No. 11993) for certification that the proposed air star route, hereinafter described, does not conflict with the development of air transportation as contemplated under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended.

The route proposed is as follows: Willow Run Airport, Detroit Metropolitan-Wayne County Airport, and a downtown point in the City of Detroit, Michigan.

Under the provisions of the said Public Law 277, the Postmaster General is required to obtain the certification of the Board prior to advertising for bids for the carriage of mail by aircraft on any star route. Any contract which may ultimately be awarded by the Postmaster General under such law will not confer authority to carry persons or property (other than mail) by air.

Prior to reaching its decision as to whether the requested certification should be issued, the Board desires to afford interested persons an opportunity to comment thereon through the submission of written data, views or arguments, in triplicate, addressed to the Docket Section, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D.C. All relevant matter in communications bearing the above docket number received on or before January 20, 1961 will be considered by the Board before taking final action on the request of the Postmaster General.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-3921]

ATTLEBORO ELECTRIC CO. ET AL.

DECEMBER 16, 1960.

In the matter of Attleboro Electric Company, Northampton Electric Lighting Company, Northern Berkshire Electric Company, Quincy Electric Company, Southern Berkshire Power & Electric Company, Weymouth Light and Power Company, Worcester County Electric Company, New England Electric System; File No. 70-3921.

Notice is hereby given that New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, and seven of its electric utility subsidiary companies, namely, Attleboro Electric Company ("Attleboro"), Northampton Electric Lighting Company ("Northampton"), Northern Berkshire Electric Company ("Northern Berkshire"), Quincy Electric Company ("Quincy"), Southern Berkshire Power & Electric Company ("Southern Berkshire"), Weymouth Light and Power Company ("Weymouth"), and Worcester County Electric Company ("Worcester County"), have filed a joint application-declaration with this Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder and have designated sections 6(a), 7, 9(a), 10, 12(d) and 12(f) of the Act and Rules 43, 44 and 50(a) as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to the application-declaration on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Attleboro, Northampton, Northern Berkshire, Quincy, Southern Berkshire, and Weymouth, all of the common stocks of which are held by NEES, will be merged into Worcester County, all of the common stock of which is also held by NEES. In order to carry out such merger Attleboro, Northhampton, Northern Berkshire, Quincy, Southern Berkshire, and Weymouth will transfer all of their utility properties and related assets to Worcester County which will assume all of the liabilities of such companies. Concurrently, Worcester County will issue 376,420 additional shares of its $25 par value common stock, having an aggregate par value of $9,410,500, in exchange for all of the stocks of the other six subsidiary companies having the same aggregate par value as the additional shares of Worcester County to be issued therefor. Such exchanged stocks will be cancelled. In connection with the merger, it is proposed that the capital stock account, premium on capital stock account, and surplus accounts of Worcester County each will be equal to the aggregate amount of those respective accounts on the books of the seven subsidiary companies and that the common stock of Worcester County to be received by NEES will be entered upon its books in the same amount as the aggregate of its present investments in the common stocks of the other six subsidiary companies.

The application-declaration states that the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities has jurisdiction over the proposed merger and the issuance of Worcester County common stock in connection therewith and other related matters; that a copy of that State commission's order will be filed by amendment; and that no other State commission and no other Federal commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions if they are passed upon by this Commission.

The total estimated expenses of $46,000 in connection with the proposed transactions include $25,000 as the estimated cost of services to be rendered by New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company, and $21,000 for taxes, including recording charges. Of such fees and expenses $45,500 is applicable to Worcester County and $500 is applicable to NEES.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 4, 1961, request in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the filing which he desires to controvert, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date, the declaration, as filed or as it may be amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, or the Commission may grant exemption from such rules as provided in Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as it may deem appropriate.

By the Commission.

MOTOR CARRIER TRANSFER PROCEEDINGS

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

Synopses of orders entered pursuant to section 212(b) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and rules and regulations prescribed thereunder (49 CFR Part 179), appear below:

As provided in the Commission's special rules of practice any interested person may file a petition seeking reconsideration of the following numbered proceedings within 20 days from the date of publication of this notice. Pursuant to section 17(8) of the Interstate Commerce Act, the filing of such a petition will postpone the effective date of the order in that proceeding pending its disposition. The matters relied upon by petitioners must be specified in their petitions with particularity.

No. MC-FC 63064. By order of December 16, 1960, The Transfer Board approved the transfer to Wayne Bell, doing business as Wayne Bell Trucking, El Paso, Tex., of the "grandfather" operating rights claimed to have been performed by Ray Burke and Gene Crutcher, El Paso, Tex., under section 7 of the Transportation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 574), for which a certificate is sought in Docket No. MC 118076 for the transportation of bananas between El Paso, Amarillo and Midland, Tex., Denver, Colo., Los Angeles, Calif., and Tucson and Phoenix, Ariz. Joe A. Morgan, Bassett Tower, El Paso, Texas, for applicants.

No. MC-FC 63786. By order of December 16, 1960, The Transfer Board approved the transfer to Robert C. Sorensen, doing business as Sorensen Transport, Woodbridge, Conn., as the purchaser of the rights sought in Docket No. MC 118080, in lieu of Gerald Don and Seymour Bloom, doing business as D & B Produce, Bridgeport, Conn., for the right to transport bananas, from Weehawken, N.J., to Waterbury and Bridgeport, Conn., under the "grandfather clause" of Section 7 of the Transportation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 574). George D. Shamiss, 308 Security Building, 1115 Main St., Bridgeport 3, Conn., for applicants.

Washington, Friday, December 23, 1960

Uniform System of Accounts for Class D Natural Gas Companies

Title 18—CONSERVATION OF POWER

Chapter I—Federal Power Commission

SUBCHAPTER F—ACCOUNTS, NATURAL GAS ACT

[Order No. 228; Docket No. R–187]

PART 205—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR CLASS D NATURAL GAS COMPANIES

This Commission has under consideration in this proceeding the revision of Part 204—Application of Uniform System of Accounts to Class C and Class D Natural Gas Companies of Subchapter F—Accounts, Natural Gas Act, of Chapter I—Federal Power Commission, Title 18—Conservation of Power, of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), to prescribe a revised Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Natural Gas Companies Subject to the Provisions of the Natural Gas Act (Class D). That revised System of Accounts, as set forth in the attachment to the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in this docket (25 F.R. 7955–7970) is prescribed hereinafter to become effective January 1, 1961, as a new part of the CFR, Part 205.

Part 204, §§ 204.1 through 204.8, of said Title and Code correspond to, and appear at pages 179–200 of the Commission's pamphlet publication of its Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Natural Gas Companies Subject to the Provisions of the Natural Gas Act, effective January 1, 1940, revised to January 1, 1954,[1] as amended by Order No. 203 issued May 29, 1958 (23 F.R. 4164, June 12, 1958). That System of Accounts, as revised and prescribed hereinafter, follows the numbering system (accounts, instructions, definitions, etc.) used in the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking referred to above.

[1] The Uniform System of Accounts effective January 1, 1940, was prescribed by Commission Order No. 69 dated November 3, 1939 (4 F.R. 4764, December 5, 1939); and was contained in the codification and reissuance of the Commission's general rules promulgated by Commission Order No. 141, December 11, 1947, effective January 1, 1948 (12 F.R. 8461).

Important developments in the natural gas industry since the adoption of the Uniform System of Accounts effective January 1, 1940, and the experience of the Commission over the past 20 years indicated the need for a revision of the System of Accounts. Accordingly, this proceeding was commenced by Notice of Proposed Rulemaking served upon interested parties, including State and Federal regulatory agencies, and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 17, 1960 (25 F.R. 7954). Copies of the proposed revised System of Accounts were served and published as a part of the general notice, as heretofore noted.

The revisions of the Commission's System of Accounts, as then proposed are prescribed hereinafter as a part of the Commission's Uniform System of Accounts to become effective January 1, 1961.

Heretofore, the Commission has not had a separately issued Uniform System of Accounts for Class D Natural Gas Companies, as such. The accounting requirements presently effective for small utilities (Class C and Class D), consist of an abridgment of the accounts for large natural gas companies by means of account charts appearing as Appendix II of the pamphlet version of the Uniform System of Accounts. In these account charts, the condensed accounts applicable to the small utilities are indicated by bracketing related account titles applicable to Class A and Class B utilities. The result is that small utilities have had to work with an inordinate amount of textual materials designed for larger utilities. An objective of the System of Accounts, prescribed hereinafter is to relieve small utilities from that burden. It is believed that the revised System of Accounts provides these smaller utilities with a simplified System of Accounts appropriate for the magnitude of their operations. The revised System of Accounts prescribed herein reflects the basic principles found in this Commission's recently issued revised Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Class A and Class B Natural Gas Companies Subject to the Provisions of the Natural Gas Act, Docket No. R–174. The revised System of Accounts introduces the following important improvements in this Commission's small utility accounting requirements:

a. New size classifications for gas utilities;

b. Simple plant and expense classifications for manufactured gas;

c. Certain necessary new accounts;

d. New arrangement of balance sheet and certain other accounts to make them more informative;

e. A reduced number of expense account classifications, mainly but not entirely, by the discontinuance of segregations of numerous functional accounts as to labor and other expenses;

f. Expanded items lists of account texts and clearer description of such items according to their functional nature, to facilitate use and consistency of respective account classifications; and

g. Restatements of the accounting aspects of certain accounting interpretations issued in the past.

In recommending the form of revised System of Accounts accompanying the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in this proceeding, the staff of this Commission correlated its activities with the activities of the National Association of Railroad and Utility Commissioners (NARUC) which has recently prepared a form of NARUC Uniform System of Accounts for Class D gas utilities. This was done to promote continued consistency and uniformity of approach to the common problems with which the two accounting systems are concerned; and to assure a minimum amount of deviation where the two accounting systems do differ. The staff's activities in this regard were undertaken mainly with the Committee on Statistics and Accounts of the NARUC.

The aforesaid Notice of Proposed Rulemaking provided for the submission of data, views, comments, or protests in writing not later than September 19, 1960. To date no such data, views, comments, or protests have been received.

The Commission recognizes that some burden and expense will have to be borne by the accounting and reporting parties affected in connection with the transition from the present to the revised System of Accounts. However, the Commission is of the opinion that the physical burden and monetary cost of the changeover is of minor importance when viewed in relation to the immediate and future benefits to be derived from the revised System of Accounts, as prescribed herein.

For the convenience of all parties concerned, Appendix A set forth below correlates the account titles of the Commission's Uniform System of Accounts applicable to Class D Natural Gas Companies, effective January 1, 1940, with the revised System of Accounts prescribed herein effective January 1, 1961. Being a schematic presentation only, and of a very general nature, nothing contained therein shall be construed as in any way modifying the general or specific account titles, texts, and instructions of either of the Systems of Accounts.

Also, it should be noted that for the period of time required for the preparation and publication of the revised System of Accounts prescribed herein in pamphlet form, the revised System of Accounts (18 CFR Part 205) will be available in the printed form set forth below as Appendix B.

The Commission finds:

(1) In view of the foregoing, and upon consideration of all relevant matters presented, it is necessary and appropriate for the purposes of the Natural Gas Act, that the proposed revised System of Accounts as set forth in the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (25 F.R. 7955–7970), be adopted and promulgated as this Commission's revised Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Natural Gas Companies Subject to the Provisions of the Natural Gas Act (Class D), effective January 1, 1961, all in the manner as hereinafter provided.

(2) Good cause exists for the adoption of the revised System of Accounts set forth herein to be effective as of January 1, 1961.

The Commission, acting pursuant to the Natural Gas Act, as amended, particularly sections 8(a), 10, and 16 (15 U.S.C. 717g, 717i, and 717o) orders:

(A) Effective January 1, 1961, Subchapter F—Accounts, Natural Gas Act of Chapter I—Federal Power Commission, Title 18—Conservation of Power, of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended by the addition of a new Part 205 to read as set forth in Appendix B below.

(B) Effective January 1, 1961, all Class D Natural Gas Companies under the Natural Gas Act shall keep their accounts in the manner set forth in the revised System of Accounts appearing in Appendix B below.

(C) The Secretary of the Commission shall cause prompt publication of this order.

Issued: December 23, 1960.

By the Commission.

APPENDIX B—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS PRESCRIBED FOR NATURAL GAS COMPANIES SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE NATURAL GAS ACT (CLASS D)

Definitions

When used in this system of accounts:

1. "Accounts" means the accounts prescribed in this system of accounts.

2. "Amortization" means the gradual extinguishment of an amount in an account by distributing such amount over a fixed period, over the life of the asset or liability to which it applies, or over the period during which it is anticipated the benefit will be realized.

3. "Book cost" means the amount at which property is recorded in these accounts without deduction of related provisions for accrued depreciation, amortization or for other purposes.

4. "Commission," means the Federal Power Commission.

5. "Cost" means the amount of money actually paid for property or services. When the consideration given is other than cash in a purchase and sale transaction, as distinguished from a transaction involving the issuance of common stock in a merger or a pooling of interest, the value of such consideration shall be determined on a cash basis.

6. "Cost of removal" means the cost of demolishing, dismantling, tearing down or otherwise removing gas plant, including the cost of transportation and handling incidental thereto.

7a. "Depletion," as applied to natural gas producing land and land rights, means the loss in service value incurred in connection with the exhaustion of the natural resource in the course of service.

7b. "Depreciation," as applied to depreciable gas plant, means the loss in service value not restored by current maintenance, incurred in connection with the consumption or prospective retirement of gas plant in the course of service from causes which are known to be in current operation and against which the utility is not protected by insurance. Among the causes to be given consideration are wear and tear, decay, action of the elements, inadequacy, obsolescence, changes in the art, changes in demand and requirements of public authorities, and, in the case of natural gas companies, the exhaustion of natural resources.

8. "Investment advances" means advances, represented by notes or by book accounts only, with respect to which it is mutually agreed or intended between the creditor and debtor that they shall be settled by the issuance of securities or shall not be subject to current settlement.

9. "Minor items of property" means the associated parts or items of which retirement units are composed.

10. "Natural gas" means either natural gas unmixed, or any mixture of natural and artificial gas.

11. "Natural gas company" means a person engaged in the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce, or the sale in interstate commerce of such gas for resale.

12. "Net salvage value" means the salvage value of property retired less the cost of removal.

13. "Original cost," as applied to gas plant, means the cost of such property to the person first devoting it to public service.

14. "Property retired," as applied to gas plant, means property which has been removed, sold, abandoned, destroyed, or which for any cause has been withdrawn from service.

15. "Replacing" or "replacement," when not otherwise indicated in the context, means the construction or installation of gas plant in place of property retired, together with the removal of the property retired.

16. "Retirement units" means those items of gas plant which, when retired, with or without replacement, are accounted for by crediting the book cost thereof to the gas plant account in which included.

17. "Salvage value" means the amount received for property retired, less any expenses incurred in connection with the sale or in preparing the property for sale; or, if retained, the amount at which the material recoverable is chargeable to materials and supplies, or other appropriate account.

18. "Service life" means the time between the date gas plant is includible in gas plant in service, or gas plant leased to others, and the date of its retirement. If depreciation is accounted for on a production basis rather than on a time basis, then service life should be measured in terms of the appropriate unit of production.

19. "Service value" means the difference between original cost and net salvage value of gas plant.

20. "Utility," as used herein and when not otherwise indicated in the context, means any natural gas company to which this system of accounts is applicable.

General Instructions

1. Classification of Utilities.

A. For the purpose of applying systems of accounts prescribed by the Commission, natural gas companies are divided into four classes as follows:

Class A. Natural gas companies having annual gas operating revenues of $2,500,000 or more.

Class B. Natural gas companies having annual gas operating revenues of $1,000,000 or more but less than $2,500,000.

Class C. Natural gas companies having annual gas operating revenues of $150,000 or more but less than $1,000,000.

Class D. Natural gas companies having annual gas operating revenues of $25,000 or more but less than $150,000.

B. This system of accounts applies to Class D utilities. Those applicable to Classes A and B and to Class C utilities are issued separately.

C. The class to which any utility belongs shall originally be determined by the average of its annual gas operating revenues for the last three consecutive years. Subsequent changes in classification shall be made when the annual gas operating revenues for each of the three immediately preceding years shall exceed the upper limit, or be less than the lower limit, of the annual gas operating revenues of the classification previously applicable to the utility.

D. Any utility may, at its option, adopt the system of accounts prescribed by the Commission for any larger class of utilities.

2. Records.

A. Each utility shall keep its books of account, and all other books, records, and memoranda which support the entries in such books of account so as to be able to furnish readily full information as to any item included in any account. Each entry shall be supported by such detailed information as will permit a ready identification, analysis, and verification of all facts relevant thereto.

B. In addition to prescribed accounts, clearing accounts, temporary or experimental accounts, and subdivisions of any account, may be kept provided the integrity of the prescribed accounts is not impaired.

C. Each utility shall keep its books on either a monthly or quarterly basis. Each utility shall close its books at the end of each calendar year unless otherwise authorized by the Commission.

3. Item Lists.

Lists of "items" appearing in the texts of the accounts or elsewhere herein are for the purpose of more clearly indicating the application of the prescribed accounting. The lists are intended to be representative, but not exhaustive. The appearance of an item in a list warrants the inclusion of the item in the account mentioned only when the text of the account also indicates inclusion inasmuch as the same item frequently appears in more than one list. The proper entry in each instance must be determined by the texts of the accounts. In cases of doubtful interpretation, the matter shall be submitted to the Commission for decision.

4. Distribution of Pay and Expenses of Employees.

The charges to gas plant, operating expenses and other accounts for services and expenses of employees engaged in activities chargeable to various accounts, such as construction, maintenance, and operations, shall be based upon the actual time engaged in the respective classes of work, or in case that method is impracticable, upon the basis of a study of the time actually engaged during a representative period.

5. Gas Well Records.

Each utility with natural gas operations shall maintain operating or accounting records for each well showing (a) acreage on which drilled, (b) dates of drilling period, (c) cost of drilling, (d) depth of well, (e) particulars and depth of each stratum drilled through, (f) geological formation from which gas obtained, (g) initial rock pressure and open flow capacity, (h) size of casing used and the lengths of each size, (i) total cost of well as recorded in gas plant accounts, (j) date well abandoned, for wells once productive, (k) date transferred to underground storage use, for wells converted to storage use, and (l) date drilling discontinued, for wells determined to be nonproductive. The foregoing data, as appropriate, shall also be maintained for each subsequent change in the depth of each well.

6. Functions and Accounts Not Included.

A. If the utility is a Class D utility for the purposes of this system of accounts but derives the major portions of its revenues from the extraction of gasoline or other products from natural gas, it shall incorporate in its accounting classifications the accounts of the Class C system of accounts for these functions as follows:

Plant: Accounts 340 to 347, as appropriate.
Revenues: Account 490, Sales of Products Extracted from Natural Gas.
Expenses: Account 712, Extracted Products Supplies and Expenses, and Account 718, Maintenance of Products Extraction Plant.

B. If the utility has underground gas storage operations but is a Class D utility for the purposes of this system of accounts, it shall account for the inventory of gas stored underground and the inputs to and withdrawals from storage in accordance with the provisions of the accounts relating thereto of the Class C system of accounts. It is not required, however, that Class D utilities utilize the Class C plant and expense accounts for underground storage operations unless underground gas storage is a major activity or unless required by the Commission for other reasons.

C. If the utility contemplates or is following accounting for deferred taxes on income it shall use the accounts for deferred taxes on income prescribed for Classes A and B or Class C natural gas companies and comply with the related instructions and account texts of such Class A and B or Class C Uniform System of Accounts as though such accounts and instructions were a part of this system of accounts.

Gas Plant Instructions

1. Gas Plant To Be Recorded at Cost.

A. All amounts included in the accounts for gas plant acquired as an operating unit or system, except as otherwise provided in the texts of the intangible plant accounts, shall be stated at the cost incurred by the person who first devoted the property to utility service. All other gas plants shall be included in the accounts at the cost incurred by the utility. Where the term "cost" is used in the detailed plant accounts, it shall have the meaning stated in this paragraph.

B. When the consideration given for property is other than cash, the value of such consideration shall be determined on a cash basis. (See, however, Definition 5.) In the entry recording such transaction, the actual consideration shall be described with sufficient particularity to identify it. The utility shall be prepared to furnish the Commission the particulars of its determination of the cash value of the consideration if other than cash.

C. When property is purchased under a plan involving deferred payments, no charge shall be made to the gas plant accounts for interest, insurance, or other expenditures occasioned solely by such form of payment.

D. Gas plant contributed to the utility or constructed by it from contributions to it of cash or its equivalent shall be charged to the gas plant accounts at cost of construction, estimated if not known. There shall be credited to the accounts for accumulated depreciation, depletion, and amortization the estimated amount of depreciation, depletion, and amortization applicable to the property at the time of its contribution to the utility. The difference between the amounts included in the gas plant accounts and the accumulated depreciation, depletion, and amortization shall be credited to account 271, Contributions in Aid of Construction.

2. Components of Construction Cost.

The cost of construction of property chargeable to the gas plant accounts shall include, where applicable, the cost of labor, materials and supplies, transportation, work done by others for the utility, injuries and damages incurred in construction work, privileges and permits, special machine service, interest during construction and such portion of general engineering, administrative salaries and expenses, insurance, taxes and other analogous items as may be properly includible in construction costs.

3. Land and Land Rights.

A. The accounts for land and land rights shall include the cost of land owned in fee by the utility and rights, interests, and privileges held by the utility in land owned by others, such as leaseholds, easements, rights-of-way, natural gas rights, and other like interests in land.

B. Where special assessments for public improvements provide for deferred payments, the full amount of the assessments shall be charged to the appropriate land account and the unpaid balance shall be carried in an appropriate liability account. Interest on unpaid balances shall be charged to the appropriate interest account. If any part of the cost of public improvements is included in the general tax levy, the amount thereof shall be charged to the appropriate tax account.

C. The cost of buildings and other improvements (other than public improvements) shall not be included in the land accounts. If at the time of acquisition of an interest in land such interest extends to buildings or other improvements (other than public improvements), which are then devoted to utility operations, the land and improvements shall be separately appraised and the cost allocated to land and buildings or improvements on the basis of the appraisals. If the improvements are removed or wrecked without being used in operations, the cost of removing or wrecking shall be charged and the salvage credited to the account in which the cost of the land is recorded.

D. When the purchase of land for gas operations requires the purchase of more land than needed for such purposes, the charge to the specific land account shall be based upon the cost of the land purchased, less the fair market value of that portion of the land which is not to be used in utility operations. The portion of the cost measured by the fair market value of the land not to be used shall be included in account 394, Gas Plant Held for Future Use, or account 121, Nonutility Property, as appropriate. Regarding land and land rights held for the production of natural gas, account 100, Gas Plant, shall include (1) the cost of the lands owned in fee upon which producing natural gas wells are located or lands owned in fee which are being drained through the operation by the utility of wells on other land, and (2) the first cost of lands held under lease upon which the utility pays royalties for the natural gas obtained therefrom. The cost of all other land and land rights held for the production of natural gas under a definite plan for such use shall be included in account 394, Gas Plant Held for Future Use.

NOTE: In addition to the accounting records prescribed herein, supplemental records of land and land rights held for future use shall be kept in such manner as to permit the segregation within a reasonable time of the land and land rights constituting (1) productive but nonproducing fields, (2) unproven or undeveloped fields, and (3) storage fields, and to show the following data with respect to each natural gas lease, regardless of the accounting treatment accorded the lease costs: (a) name of lessor, (b) location of leasehold and number of other identification assigned thereto, (c) date and period of lease agreement, (d) first cost of lease including details of the elements of such cost, (e) annual rental provisions, (f) date and cost of drilling, (g) date gas determined to exist, (h) date of completion of first well drilled by the utility in each pool of gas, (i) royalty provisions, (j) amortization and depletion provisions, and (k) date of abandonment of lease.

E. Provision shall be made for amortizing amounts carried in the accounts for limited-term interests in land, so as to apportion equitably the cost of each interest over the life thereof. For the purposes of amortization of natural gas rights, separate interests in land which comprise an interest in a production area may be grouped to form a depletion unit. (See account 403, Depreciation and Depletion Expense, and account 110, Accumulated Provision for Depreciation, Depletion and Amortization of Utility Plant, for the accounting for depletion of producing natural gas lands and land rights. See also account 722, Abandoned Leases, for the accounting for abandonments of natural gas leases which have never been productive.)

4. Structures and Improvements.

A. The accounts for structures and improvements shall include the cost of all buildings and facilities to house, support, or safeguard property or persons, including all fixtures permanently attached to and made a part of buildings and which cannot be removed therefrom without cutting into the walls, ceilings, or floors, or without in some way impairing the buildings, and improvements of a permanent character on or to land.

B. The cost of specially provided foundations not intended to outlast the machinery or apparatus for which provided, and the cost of angle irons, castings, etc., installed at the base of any item of equipment, shall be charged to the same account as the cost of the machinery, apparatus or equipment.

C. Where furnaces and boilers are used primarily for furnishing steam for some particular department and only incidentally for furnishing steam for heating a building and operating the equipment therein, the entire cost of such furnaces and boilers shall be charged to the appropriate plant account, and no part to the building account.

5. Equipment.

A. The cost of equipment chargeable to the gas plant accounts, unless otherwise indicated in the text of an equipment account, includes the net purchase price thereof, sales taxes, investigation and inspection expenses necessary to such purchases, expenses of transportation when borne by the utility, labor employed, materials and supplies consumed, and expenses incurred by the utility in unloading and placing the equipment in readiness to operate.

B. Exclude from equipment accounts hand and other portable tools, which are likely to be lost or stolen or which have relatively small value or short life, unless the correctness of the accounting therefor as gas plant is verified by current inventories. Special tools acquired and included in the purchase price of equipment shall be included in the appropriate plant account. Portable drills and similar tool equipment when used in connection with the operation and maintenance of a particular plant or department, such as production, transmission, distribution, etc., or in "stores," shall be charged to the plant account appropriate for their use.

C. The equipment accounts shall include angle irons and similar items which are installed at the base of an item of equipment, but piers and foundations which are designed to be as permanent as the buildings which house the equipment, or which are constructed as a part of the building and which cannot be removed without cutting into the walls, ceilings, or floors, or without in some way impairing the building, shall be included in the building accounts.

6. Gas Plant Retired.

A. When depreciable gas plant is abandoned, destroyed, withdrawn or otherwise retired from service for any cause, the book cost of the plant shall be deducted from the gas plant accounts and charged to accumulated provision for depreciation. The cost of removing such plant (except customers' meters and house regulators) shall be charged to accumulated provision for depreciation and the amount received for any materials recovered and sold, or salvage value if returned to stores, shall be credited to the accumulated provision for depreciation. It is not intended that the above procedure shall be followed in the replacement of minor items of plant, the replacement of which is charged to operating expense accounts.

B. The book cost of land retired shall be credited to the appropriate land account. If the land is sold, the difference between the book cost (less any accumulated provision for depreciation, depletion, or amortization therefor which has been authorized and provided) and the sale price of the land (less commissions and other expenses of making the sale) shall be included in account 434, Miscellaneous Credits to Surplus, or account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, as appropriate. If the land is not used in utility service but is retained by the utility, the book cost shall be charged to account 394, Gas Plant Held for Future Use, or account 121, Nonutility Property, as appropriate.

C. The book cost of gas plant retired shall be the amount at which such property is included in the gas plant accounts, including all components of construction costs. The book cost shall be determined from the utility's records and, if this cannot be done, it shall be estimated. When it is impracticable to determine the book cost of each unit, due to the relatively large number or small cost thereof, an appropriate average book cost of the units, with due allowance for any differences in size and character, shall be used as the book cost of the units retired.

Balance Sheet Accounts

ASSETS AND OTHER DEBITS

1. UTILITY PLANT

100 Gas plant.

A. This account shall include the book amount of gas plant, included in the plant accounts 301 to 397, inclusive, prescribed herein, and having an expectation of life in service of more than one year from date of installation, including such property owned by the utility but held by nominees.

B. The cost of additions to and betterments of property leased from others, which are includible in this account, shall be maintained in subdivisions separate and distinct from those relating to owned property.

110 Accumulated provision for depreciation, depletion and amortization of gas plant.

A. This account shall be credited with the following:

(1) Amounts charged to account 403, Depreciation and Depletion Expense, to account 404, Amortization Expense, to account 413, Expense of Gas Plant Leased to Others, to account 416, Costs and Expenses of Merchandising, Jobbing, and Contract Work, or to clearing accounts for currently accruing depreciation, depletion, or amortization of plant.

(2) Amounts charged to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, for past accrued depreciation, depletion, or amortization.

(3) Amounts of depreciation, depletion, or amortization, applicable to gas properties acquired as operating units or systems.

(4) Amounts chargeable to account 182, Extraordinary Property Losses, when authorized by Commission.

(5) Amounts of depreciation, depletion, or amortization applicable to gas plant donated to the utility.

B. At the time of retirement of gas plant, this account shall be charged with the book cost of the property retired and the cost of removal, and shall be credited with the salvage value and any other amounts recovered, such as insurance.

C. The credits and debits to this account shall be so kept as to show separately: (1) The amount of accrual for depreciation, depletion, or amortization, (2) the book cost of property retired, (3) cost of removal, (4) salvage, and (5) other items, including recoveries from insurance.

D. The utility is restricted in its use of the accumulated provision for depreciation, depletion, and amortization to the purposes set forth above. It shall not transfer any portion of this account to surplus or make any other use thereof without authorization by the Commission.

E. Subsidiary records shall be maintained in accordance with the provisions of this account for accumulated depletion and amortization provisions for natural gas lands and land rights in service.

118 Other utility plant.

This account shall include the balance in accounts for utility plant, other than gas plant, such as electric, railway, etc.

119 Accumulated provision for depreciation and amortization of other utility plant.

This account shall include the accumulated provision for depreciation and amortization applicable to utility property other than gas plant.

2. OTHER PROPERTY AND INVESTMENTS

121 Nonutility property.

This account shall include the book cost of land, structures, equipment or other tangible or intangible property owned by the utility, but not used in utility service and not properly includible in account 394, Gas Plant Held for Future Use.

122 Accumulated provision for depreciation and amortization of nonutility property.

This account shall include the accumulated provision for depreciation and amortization applicable to nonutility property.

124 Other investments.

A. This account shall include the book cost of investments in securities issued or assumed by other companies, investment advances to such companies, and any investments not accounted for elsewhere. Include, also, the off-setting entry to the recording of amortization of discount or premium on interest-bearing investments owned by the utility. (See account 419, Interest and Dividend Income.)

B. The records shall be maintained in such manner as to show the amount of each investment and the investment advances to each person.

125 Special funds.

This account shall include the amount of cash and book cost of investments which have been segregated in special funds for bond retirements, property additions, and replacements, insurance, employees' pensions, savings, relief, hospital, and other purposes not provided for elsewhere. A separate account, with appropriate title, shall be kept for each fund.

NOTE: Amounts deposited with a trustee under the terms of an irrevocable trust agreement for pensions or other employees' benefits shall not be included in this account.

3. CURRENT AND ACCRUED ASSETS

131 Cash and working funds.

This account shall include the amount of cash on hand and in banks and cash advanced to officers, agents, employees, and others as petty cash or working funds. Special cash deposits for payment of interest, dividends or other special purposes shall be included in this account in separate subdivisions which shall specify the purpose for which each such special deposit is made.

NOTE: Special deposits for more than one year, which are not offset by current liabilities, shall not be charged to this account but to account 125, Special Funds.

132 Temporary cash investments.

A. This account shall include the book cost of investments, such as demand and time loans, bankers' acceptances, United States Treasury certificates, marketable securities, and other similar investments, acquired for the purpose of temporarily investing cash.

B. This account shall be so maintained as to show separately temporary cash investments in securities of associated companies and of others. Records shall be kept of any pledged investments.

141 Notes receivable.

This account shall include the book cost, not includible elsewhere, of all collectible obligations in the form of notes receivable and similar evidences (except interest coupons) of money due on demand or within one year from the date of issue..

NOTE: The face amount of notes receivable, discounted, sold, or transferred without releasing the utility from liability as endorser thereon, shall be credited to a separate subdivision of this account and appropriate disclosure shall be made in financial statements of any contingent liability arising from such transactions.

142 Customer accounts receivable.

A. This account shall include amounts due from customers for utility service, and for merchandising, jobbing, and contract work.

B. This account shall be maintained so as to permit ready segregation of the amounts due for merchandising, jobbing, and contract work.

143 Other accounts receivable.

A. This account shall include amounts due the utility upon open accounts, other than amounts due from customers for utility services and merchandising, jobbing, and contract work.

B. This account shall be maintained so as to show separately amounts due on subscriptions to capital stock and from officers and employees, but the account shall not include amounts advanced to officers or others as working funds.

144 Accumulated provision for uncollectible accounts—Cr.

A. This account shall be credited with amounts provided for losses on accounts receivable which may become uncollectible, and also with collections on accounts previously charged hereto. Concurrent charges shall be made to account 778, Uncollectible Accounts, for amounts applicable to utility operations, and to corresponding accounts for other operations. Records shall be maintained so as to show the writeoffs of accounts receivable for each utility department.

B. This account shall be subdivided to show the provision applicable to the following classes of accounts receivable:

Utility customers.
Merchandising, jobbing, and contract work.
Officers and employees.
Other.

NOTE A: Accretions to this account shall not be made in excess of a reasonable provision against losses of the character provided for.

NOTE B: If provisions for uncollectible notes receivable are necessary, separate subaccounts therefor shall be established under account 141, Notes Receivable.

150 Materials and supplies.

A. This account shall include the cost of fuel on hand and unapplied materials and supplies (except meters and house regulators). It shall include also the book cost of materials recovered in connection with construction, maintenance or the retirement of property, such materials being credited to construction, maintenance, or accumulated depreciation provision, respectively, and included herein as follows:

(1) Reusable materials consisting of large individual items shall be included in this account at original cost, estimated if not known. The cost of repairing such items shall be charged to the maintenance account appropriate for the previous use.

(2) Reusable materials consisting of relatively small items, the identity of which (from the date of original installation to the final abandonment or sale thereof) cannot be ascertained without undue refinement in accounting, shall be included in this account at current prices new for such items. The cost of repairing such items shall be charged to the appropriate expense account as indicated by previous use.

(3) Scrap and nonusable materials included in this account shall be carried at the estimated net amount realizable therefrom. The difference between the amounts realized for scrap and nonusable materials sold and the net amount at which the materials were carried in this account, as far as practicable, shall be adjusted to the accounts credited when the materials were charged to this account.

B. Materials and supplies issued shall be credited hereto and charged to the appropriate construction, operating expense, or other account on the basis of a unit price determined by the use of cumulative-average, first-in-first-out, or such other method of inventory accounting as conforms with accepted accounting standards consistently applied.

C. Inventories of materials, supplies, fuel, etc., shall be taken at least annually and the necessary adjustments shall be made to bring this account into agreement with the actual inventories. In effecting the adjustments, large differences which can be assigned to important classes of materials shall be equitably adjusted among the accounts to which such classes of materials have been charged since the previous inventory. Other differences shall be equitably apportioned among the accounts to which materials have been charged.

ITEMS

1. Invoice price of materials less cash or other discounts.
2. Freight, switching or other transportation charges when practicable to include as part of the cost of particular materials to which they relate.
3. Customs duties and excise taxes.
4. Costs of inspection and special tests prior to acceptance.

5. Insurance and other directly assignable charges.

NOTE A: Where expenses applicable to materials purchased cannot be directly assigned to particular purchases, they may be charged to a stores expense clearing account and distributed therefrom to the appropriate account.

NOTE B: When materials and supplies are purchased for immediate use, they need not be carried through this account but may be charged directly to the appropriate gas plant or expense account.

165 Prepayments.

A. This account shall include the amount of rents, taxes, insurance, interest and like disbursements made in advance of the period to which they apply. As the periods covered by such prepayments expire, credit this account and charge the proper operating expense or other account with the amount applicable to the period.

B. This account shall be kept or supported in such manner as to disclose the amount of each class of prepayments.

170 Other current and accrued assets.

This account shall include the book cost of all other current and accrued assets, appropriately designated and supported so as to show the nature of each asset included herein.

4. DEFERRED DEBITS

181 Unamortized debt discount and expense.

A. This account shall include the total of the unamortized balance of discount and expense for all classes of long-term debt.

B. The discount and expenses shall be amortized over the life of the respective issues under a plan which will distribute the amounts equitably over the life of the securities. The amortization shall be charged to account 428, Amortization of Debt Discount and Expense. The utility may, however, accelerate the writing off of discount and expense where the amounts are insignificant.

182 Extraordinary property losses.

A. When authorized or directed by the Commission, this account shall include extraordinary losses on property abandoned or otherwise retired from service which are not provided for by the accumulated provisions for depreciation, depletion, or amortization and which could not reasonably have been foreseen and provided for, and extraordinary losses, such as unforeseen damages to property, which could not reasonably have been anticipated and which are not covered by insurance or other provisions.

B. The entire cost, less net salvage, of depreciable property retired shall be charged to accumulated provision for depreciation. If all, or a portion of the loss is to be included in this account, the accumulated provision for depreciation shall then be credited and this account charged with the amount properly chargeable hereto.

C. Application to the Commission for permission to use this account shall be accompanied by a statement giving a complete explanation with respect to the items which it is proposed to include herein, the period over which, and the accounts to which it is proposed to write off the charges, and other pertinent information.

183 Other deferred debits.

A. This account shall include the following classes of items:

(1) Expenditures for preliminary surveys, plans, investigations, etc., made for the purpose of determining the feasibility of projects under contemplation. If construction results, this account shall be credited with the amount applicable thereto and the appropriate plant accounts shall be charged with an amount which does not exceed the expenditures which may reasonably be determined to contribute directly and immediately and without duplication to plant. If the work is abandoned, the charge shall be to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, or to the appropriate operating expense account.

(2) Expenditures for preliminary surveys, plans, investigations, etc., made for the purpose of determining the feasibility of acquiring land and land rights to provide a future supply of natural gas. If such land or land rights are acquired, this account shall be credited and the appropriate gas plant account (see gas plant instruction 3) charged with the amount of expenditures related to such acquisition. Such preliminary survey and investigation charges transferred to gas plant shall not exceed the expenditures which may reasonably be determined to contribute directly and immediately and without duplication to gas plant. If the project is abandoned, the expenditures related thereto shall be charged to account 723, Other Exploration.

(3) Undistributed balances in clearing accounts at the date of the balance sheet. Balances in clearing accounts shall be substantially cleared not later than the end of the calendar year unless items held therein relate to a future period.

(4) Balances representing expenditures for work in progress other than on gas plant. This includes jobbing and contract work in progress.

(5) Other debit balances, the proper final disposition of which is uncertain, and unusual or extraordinary expenses, not included in other accounts, which are in process of being written off.

B. The records supporting the entries to this account shall be so kept that the utility can furnish full information as to each deferred debit included herein. The records supporting entries for preliminary natural gas surveys and investigations shall be so kept that the utility can furnish, for each investigation, complete information as to identification and location of the territory investigated, the number or other identification assigned to the land tract or leasehold acquired, and the nature and respective amounts of the charges.

LIABILITIES AND OTHER CREDITS

5. PROPRIETARY CAPITAL

201 Common capital stock.

204 Preferred capital stock.

A. These accounts shall include the par value or the stated value of stock without par value if such stock has a stated value, and, if not, the cash value of the consideration received for such nonpar stock, of each class of capital stock actually issued, including the par or stated value of such capital stock in account 217, Reacquired Capital Stock.

B. When the actual cash value of the consideration received is more or less than the par or stated value of any stock having a par or stated value, the difference shall be credited or debited, as the case may be, to the premium or discount account for the particular class and series.

C. When capital stock is retired, these accounts shall be charged with the amount at which such stock is carried herein.

D. A separate ledger account, with a descriptive title, shall be maintained for each class and series of stock. The supporting records shall show the shares nominally issued, actually issued, and nominally outstanding.

NOTE: When a levy or assessment, except a call for payment on subscriptions, is made against holders of capital stock, the amount collected upon such levy or assessment shall be credited to account 207, Other Paid-In Capital; provided, however, that the credit shall be made to account 213, Discount on Capital Stock, to the extent of any remaining balance of discount on the issue of stock.

207 Other paid-in capital.

This account shall include the balance of all other credits for paid-in capital not includible in the capital stock accounts, and shall be kept so as to show the source of the credits includible herein.

ITEMS

1. Premium received on original issues of capital stock.
2. Donations received from stockholders or reduction of debt of the utility, and the cash value of other assets received as a donation.
3. Reduction in par or stated value of capital stock.
4. Gain on resale or cancellation of reacquired capital stock.
5. Miscellaneous paid-in capital.

NOTE: Premium on capital stock shall not be set off against expenses. Further, a premium received on an issue of a certain class or series of stock shall not be set off against expense of another issue of the same class or series.

212 Installments received on capital stock.

A. This account shall include in a separate subdivision for each class and series of capital stock the amount of installments received on capital stock on a partial or installment payment plan for subscribers who are not bound by legally enforceable subscription contracts.

B. As subscriptions are paid in full and certificates issued, this account shall be charged and the appropriate capital stock account credited with the par or stated value of such stock. Any discount or premium on an original issue shall be included in the appropriate discount or premium account.

213 Discount on capital stock.

A. This account shall include in a separate subdivision for each class and series of capital stock all discount on the original issuance and sale of capital stock, including additional capital stock of a particular class or series as well as first issues.

B. When capital stock which has been actually issued is retired, the amount in this account applicable to the shares retired shall be written off to account 207, Other Paid-In Capital, provided, however, that the amount shall be charged to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, to the extent that it exceeds the balance in account 207.

C. The utility may amortize the balance in this account by charges to account 425, Miscellaneous Amortization, or it may write off capital stock discount in whole or in part to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus.

214 Capital stock expense.

A. This account shall include in a separate subdivision for each class and series of stock all commissions and expenses incurred in connection with the original issuance and sale of capital stock, including additional capital stock of a particular class or series as well as first issues. Expenses applicable to capital stock shall not be deducted from premium on capital stock.

B. When capital stock which has been actually issued by the utility is retired, the amount in this account applicable to the shares retired shall be written off to account 207, Other Paid-In Capital, to the extent of gains on resale or cancellation of reacquired stock includible therein: Provided, however, That the amount shall be charged to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, to the extent that it exceeds the balance in account 207, from such source.

C. The utility may amortize the balance in this account by systematic charges to account 425, Miscellaneous Amortization, or it may write off capital stock expense in whole or in part by charges to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus.

NOTE: Expenses in connection with the reacquisition or resale of the utility's capital stock shall not be included herein.

215 Appropriated earned surplus.

This account shall include the amount of earned surplus which has been appropriated or set aside for specific purposes. Separate subaccounts shall be maintained under such titles as will designate the purpose for which each appropriation was made.

216 Unappropriated earned surplus.

This account shall include the balance, either debit or credit, of unappropriated surplus arising from earnings. It shall not include items includible in any subaccount of account 207, Other Paid-In Capital.

217 Reacquired capital stock.

A. This account shall include in a separate subdivision for each class and series of capital stock, the cost of capital stock actually issued by the utility and reacquired by it and not retired or canceled, except, however, stock which is held by trustees in sinking or other funds.

B. When reacquired capital stock is retired or canceled, the difference between its cost, including commissions and expenses paid in connection with the reacquisition, and its par or stated value plus any premium and less any discount and expenses applicable to the shares retired, shall be debited or credited, as appropriate, to account 207, Other Paid-In Capital: Provided, however, That debits shall be charged to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, to the extent that they exceed the balance of gains on resale or cancellation or reacquired stock included in account 207.

C. When reacquired capital stock is resold by the utility, the difference between the amount received on the resale of the stock, less expenses incurred in the resale, and the cost of the stock included in this account shall be accounted for as outlined in paragraph B.

NOTE: The accounting for reacquired stock shall be as prescribed herein unless otherwise specifically required by statute.

218 Noncorporate proprietorship.

This account shall include the investment in an unincorporated utility by the proprietor thereof, and shall be charged with all withdrawals from the business by its proprietor. At the end of each calendar year the net income for the year, as developed in the income account, shall be transferred to this account. (See optional accounting procedure provided in Note C, hereunder.)

NOTE A: Amounts payable to the proprietor as just and reasonable compensation for services performed shall not be charged to this account but to appropriate operating expense or other accounts.

NOTE B: When the utility is owned by a partnership, a separate account shall be kept to show the net equity of each member therein and the transactions affecting the interest of each such partner.

NOTE C: This account may be restricted to the amount considered by the proprietor to be the permanent investment in the business, subject to change only by additional investment by the proprietor or the withdrawal of portions thereof not representing net income. When this option is taken, the surplus accounts shall be maintained and entries thereto shall be made in accordance with the texts thereof.

6. LONG-TERM DEBT

221 Bonds.

A. Separate accounts shall be maintained hereunder for unmatured bonds of each class and series. Each such account shall be subdivided so as to show: (1) the face value of the actually issued and unmatured bonds, which have not been retired or canceled; also, the face value of such bonds issued by others, the payment of which has been assumed by the utility, (2) the face value of bonds actually issued or assumed by the utility and reacquired by it, not paid, retired, or canceled. The account for reacquired debt shall not include securities which are held by trustees in sinking or other funds.

B. When bonds are reacquired, the difference between face value, adjusted for unamortized discount, expense or premium and the amount paid upon reacquisition, shall be included in account 434, Miscellaneous Credits to Surplus, or account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, as appropriate.

223 Advances from associated companies.

A. This account shall include the face value of notes payable to associated companies and the amount of open book accounts representing advances from associated companies. It does not include notes and open accounts representing indebtedness subject to current settlement.

B. The records supporting the entries to this account shall be so kept that the utility can furnish complete information concerning each note and open account.

224 Other long-term debt.

A. This account shall include, until maturity, all long-term debt not otherwise provided for. This covers such items as receivers' certificates, real estate mortgages executed or assumed, assessments for public improvements, notes and unsecured certificates of indebtedness not owned by associated companies, receipts outstanding for long-term debt, and other obligations maturing more than one year from date of issue or assumption.

B. Separate accounts shall be maintained for each class of obligation, and records shall be maintained to show for each class all details as to date of obligation, date of maturity, interest dates and rates, security for the obligation, etc.

NOTE: Miscellaneous long-term debt reacquired shall be accounted for in accordance with the procedures set forth in account 221, Bonds.

7. CURRENT AND ACCRUED LIABILITIES

231 Notes payable.

This account shall include the face value of all notes, drafts, acceptances, or other similar evidences of indebtedness, payable on demand or within a time not exceeding one year from date of issue.

232 Accounts payable.

This account shall include all amounts payable by the utility within one year, which are not provided for in other accounts.

235 Customer deposits.

This account shall include all amounts deposited with the utility by customers as security for the payment of bills.

236 Taxes accrued.

A. This account shall be credited with the amount of taxes accrued during the accounting period, corresponding debits being made to the appropriate accounts for tax charges. Such credits may be based upon estimates, but from time to time during the year as the facts become known, the amount of the periodic credits shall be adjusted so as to include as nearly as can be determined in each year the taxes applicable thereto. Any amount representing a prepayment of taxes applicable to the period subsequent to the date of the balance sheet shall be shown under account 165, Prepayments.

B. If accruals for taxes are found to be insufficient or excessive, correction therefor shall be made through current tax accruals. However, if such corrections are so large as to seriously distort current expenses, they shall be included in account 434, Miscellaneous Credits to Surplus, or account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, as appropriate.

C. Accruals for taxes shall be based upon the net amount payable after credit for any discounts and shall not include any amounts for interest on tax deficiencies or refunds. Interest received on refunds shall be credited to account 419, Interest and Dividend Income, and interest paid on deficiencies shall be charged to account 431, Other Interest Expense.

D. The records supporting the entries to this account shall be kept so as to show for each class of taxes, the amount accrued, the basis for the accrual, the accounts to which charged, and the amount of tax paid.

237 Interest accrued.

This account shall include the amount of interest accrued but not matured on all liabilities of the utility, not including, however, interest which is added to the principal of the debt on which incurred. Supporting records shall be maintained so as to show the amount of interest accrued on each obligation.

238 Other current and accrued liabilities.

This account shall include the amount of all other current and accrued liabilities not provided for elsewhere appropriately designated and supported so as to show the nature of each liability.

ITEMS

1. Dividends declared but not paid.
2. Matured long-term debt.
3. Matured interest.
4. Taxes collected through pay roll deductions or otherwise pending transmittal to the proper taxing authority.

8. DEFERRED CREDITS

251 Unamortized premium on debt.

A. This account shall include the total of the unamortized balance of premium and expense for all classes of long-term debt, including receivers' certificates.

B. The premium and expense shall be amortized over the life of the respective issues under a plan which will distribute the amounts equitably over the life of the securities. The amortization shall be credited to account 429, Amortization of Premium on Debt—Cr.

252 Customer advances for construction.

This account shall include advances by customers for construction which are to be refunded either wholly or in part. When a customer is refunded the entire amount to which he is entitled, according to the agreement or rule under which the advance was made, the balance, if any, remaining in this account shall be credited to account 271, Contributions in Aid of Construction.

253 Other deferred credits.

This account shall include advance billings and receipts and other deferred credit items, not provided for elsewhere, including amounts which cannot be entirely cleared or disposed of until additional information has been received.

9. OPERATING RESERVES

261 Property insurance reserve.

A. This account shall include amounts reserved by the utility for self-insurance against losses through accident, fire, flood, or other hazards to its own property or property leased from others. A schedule of risks covered by this reserve shall be maintained, giving a description of the property involved, the character of the risks covered and the rates used.

B. Charges shall be made to this account for losses covered by self-insurance. Details of these charges shall be maintained according to the year the casualty occurred which gave rise to the loss.

265 Miscellaneous operating reserves.

A. This account shall include all operating reserves maintained by the utility which are not provided for elsewhere.

B. This account shall be maintained in such manner as to show the amount of each separate reserve and the nature and amounts of the debits and credits thereto.

NOTE: This account includes only such reserves as may be created for operating purposes and does not include any reservations of income the credits for which should be carried in account 215, Appropriated Earned Surplus.

10. CONTRIBUTIONS IN AID OF CONSTRUCTION

271 Contributions in aid of construction.

A. This account shall include donations or contributions in cash, services, or property from states, municipalities or other governmental agencies, individuals, and others for construction purposes.

B. The credits to this account shall not be transferred to earned surplus or to any other account without the approval of the Commission.

C. The records supporting the entries to this account shall be so kept that the utility can furnish information as to the purpose of each donation, the conditions, if any, upon which it was made, the amount of donations from (a) states, (b) municipalities, (c) customers, and (d) others, and the amount applicable to each utility department.

NOTE: There shall not be included in this account advances for construction which are ultimately to be repaid wholly or in part. Such advances shall be credited to account 252, Customer Advances for Construction.

Gas Plant Accounts

1. INTANGIBLE PLANT

301 Organization.
302 Franchises and consents.
303 Miscellaneous intangible plant.

2. MANUFACTURED GAS PRODUCTION PLANT

310 Land and land rights.
311 Structures and improvements.
312 Coal gas equipment.
313 Water gas equipment.
314 Petroleum gas equipment.
315 Production equipment—Other processes.

3. NATURAL GAS PRODUCTION AND GATHERING

320 Producing gas lands, leaseholds, and gas rights.
321 Other land and land rights.
322 Structures and improvements.
323 Producing gas wells.
324 Gathering lines and equipment.
325 Drilling and cleaning equipment.
326 Other production equipment.

4. TRANSMISSION AND DISTRIBUTION PLANT

330 Land and land rights.
331 Structures and improvements.
332 Mains.
333 Pumping and regulating equipment.
334 Services.

396 Gas plant acquisition adjustments.
397 Other gas plant adjustments.

Gas Plant Accounts

1. INTANGIBLE PLANT

301 Organization.

This account shall include the cost of organizing and incorporating the utility and putting it into readiness to do business. This includes the cost of legal services, amounts paid for privileges of incorporation, office expenses, incident to organizing the company and stock and minute books and corporate seal.

NOTE: This account shall not include any discounts upon securities issued or assumed, nor shall it include any costs incident to negotiating loans, selling bonds, or other evidences of debt, or expenses in connection with the authorization, issuance or sale of capital stock.

302 Franchises and consents.

A. This account shall include amounts paid to the federal government, to a state or to a political subdivison thereof in consideration for franchises, consents, or certificates, running in perpetuity or for a specified term of more than one year, together with necessary and reasonable expenses incident to procuring such franchises, consents, or certificates of permission and approval.

B. If a franchise, consent, or certificate is acquired by assignment, the charge to this account in respect thereof shall not exceed the amount paid therefor by the utility to the assignor, nor shall it exceed the amount paid by the original grantee, plus the expense of acquisition to such grantee. Any excess of the amount actually paid by the utility over the amount above specified shall be charged to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus.

C. When any franchise has expired, the book cost thereof shall be credited hereto and charged to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, or to account 110, Accumulated Provision for Depreciation, Depletion and Amortization of Gas Plant, as appropriate.

D. Records supporting this account shall be maintained so as to show separately the book cost of each franchise or consent.

NOTE: Annual or other periodic payments under franchises shall not be included herein but in the appropriate operating expense account.

303 Miscellaneous intangible plant.

A. This account shall include the cost of patent rights, licenses, privileges, and other intangible property necessary or valuable in the conduct of utility operations and not specifically chargeable to any other account.

B. When any item included in this account is retired or expires, the book cost thereof shall be credited hereto and charged to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to Surplus, or account 110, Accumulated Provision for Depreciation, Depletion and Amortization of Gas Plant, as appropriate.

C. This account shall be maintained in such a manner that the utility can furnish full information with respect to the amounts included herein.

2. MANUFACTURED GAS PRODUCTION PLANT

NOTE: If the utility produces gas in two or more plants, separate production plant accounts shall be kept for each plant; when more than one kind of gas is produced at a single plant, the equipment used in common, if any, shall be kept in separate subdivisions and the extent of use for each process shall be indicated.

310 Land and land rights.

This account shall include the cost of land and land rights used in connection with gas production. (See gas plant instruction 3.)

311 Structures and improvements.

This account shall include the cost in place of structures and improvements used in connection with manufactured gas production. This includes relief and storage holders when located at the production plant. (See gas plant instruction 4.)

312 Coal gas equipment.

This account shall include the cost installed of plant and equipment used for the production and purification of coal gas.

ITEMS

1. Power equipment, such as furnaces, boilers, internal combustion engines and other driving equipment; accessory equipment, such as fuel and ash handling and storage equipment, piping and accessories, etc.
2. Benches and retorts, coke ovens, and accessory equipment.
3. Producer gas equipment and accessories.
4. Purification equipment and accessories.
5. Residual refining equipment and accessories.
6. Other production and accessory equipment, such as gas mixing equipment, tanks, odorizing equipment, oil foggers, piping and accessories, works exhauster, works station meters and gauges, production laboratory equipment, etc.

NOTE: This account shall not include boilers or steam pipes whose primary purpose is the heating of structures.

313 Water gas equipment.

This account shall include the cost installed of equipment used in the generation and purification of water gas.

ITEMS

1. Power equipment, such as furnaces, boilers, internal combusion engines and other driving equipment; accessory equipment such as fuel and ash handling and storage equipment, piping and accessories, etc.
2. Water gas generating equipment, such as generators, carburetors, superheaters, and equipment accessory thereto.
3. Purification equipment and accessories.
4. Residual refining equipment and accessories.
5. Other production and accessory equipment, such as gas mixing equipment, tanks, odorizing equipment, oil foggers, piping and accessories, works exhauster, works station meters and gauges, production laboratory equipment, etc.

NOTE: This account shall not include boilers or steam pipes whose primary purpose is the heating of structures.

314 Petroleum gas equipment.

This account shall include the cost installed of equipment used for the production of gas from petroleum derivatives, such as propane, butane or gasoline.

ITEMS

1. Carbureting equipment and accessories.
2. Compression equipment including pumps and accessories.
3. Foundations and settings, specially constructed for and not expected to outlast the apparatus for which provided.
4. Mixing or proportioning equipment.
5. Piping, including valves.
6. Storage equipment other than holders.
7. Vaporizing equipment.

315 Production equipment—other processes.

This account shall include the cost installed of production equipment for processes other than those provided for in preceding accounts, such as for the production of oil, gas, acetylene gas, etc., for producer gas when not for use in the manufacture of coal gas, and equipment for making or reforming gas by the catalytic cracking process.

3. NATURAL GAS PRODUCTION AND GATHERING

320 Producing gas lands, leaseholds and gas rights.

A. This account shall include the cost of (a) lands held in fee on which producing gas wells are located, and lands held in fee which are being drained of gas through the operation by the utility of wells on other land, (b) leaseholds on which the utility pays royalties for natural gas obtained therefrom, and (c) natural gas rights used in producing natural gas, whereby the utility obtains ownership in gas underlying land not owned or leased by the utility. (See gas plant instruction 3.)

B. Exclude from this account rents paid periodically for rights obtained under leases. Exclude also from this account the cost of leaseholds which terminate in one year or less after they become effective.

321 Other land and land rights.

This account shall include the cost of rights-of-way for gathering pipe lines and other lands and land rights used in connection with natural gas production operations except producing gas lands, leaseholds, and gas rights. Do not include in this account any payments with respect to rights-of-way or other land rights which terminate less than one year after they become effective. Any such payments, as well as annual or other periodic payments for use of land, should be charged to account 713, Operation Supplies and Expenses. (See gas plant instruction 3.)

322 Structures and improvements.

This account shall include the cost of structures and improvements used in connection with natural gas production and gathering operations. (See gas plant instruction 4.)

323 Producing gas wells.

This account shall include the cost of productive gas wells.

ITEMS

1. Casing.
2. Clearing site for drilling.
3. Drive pipe.
4. Fittings, including shut-in valve, separators, and drips.
5. Fuel or power used in drilling, cost of.
6. Packing.
7. Pumps and drives permanently connected.
8. Tubing.
9. Rent of drilling equipment.
10. Roads to well site, cost of making, clearing, etc.
11. Cost of hauling, erecting, dismantling, and removing boilers, portable engines, derricks, rigs and other equipment and tools used in drilling.
12. Water used in drilling obtained either by driving wells, piping from springs or streams, or by purchase.

NOTE: Cost of drilling, etc., incurred in connection with dry holes shall be charged as provided in account 721, Nonproductive Well Drilling.

324 Gathering lines and equipment.

This account shall include the cost installed of pipe lines and equipment used in conveying natural gas from the wells to the point of storage or compression, or where it enters the transmission or distribution system.

ITEMS

1. Boosters.
2. Drip traps.
3. Driving units.
4. Gathering lines, including pipe, valves, fittings, and supports.
5. Instruments, meters, pressure gauges, etc.
6. Pressure regulators.
7. Pumps.

325 Drilling and cleaning equipment.

This account shall include the cost of implements and equipment used in drilling and cleaning natural gas wells.

ITEMS

1. Bailers.
2. Boilers.
3. Derricks.
4. Drilling cables.
5. Drilling machines.
6. Engines.
7. Motors.
8. Pulling machines.
9. Rigs.

326 Other production equipment.

This account shall include the cost installed of equipment used in the production of gas, when not assignable to any of the foregoing accounts.

ITEMS

1. Natural gas purification equipment.
2. Odorizing equipment.
3. Oil foggers.
4. Production laboratory equipment.

4. TRANSMISSION AND DISTRIBUTION PLANT

330 Land and land rights.

This account shall include the cost of land and land rights used in connection with transmission or distribution operations. (See gas plant instruction 3.)

331 Structures and improvements.

A. This account shall include the cost in place of structures and improvements used in connection with transmission or distribution operations. (See gas plant instruction 4.)

B. This includes storage holders and accessory equipment when located on the transmission or distribution system. Storage holders and accessory equipment located at the production plant shall be included in account 311, Structures and Improvements.

332 Mains.

This account shall include the cost installed of transmission and distribution system mains.

ITEMS

1. Drip lines and pots.
2. Excavation, including shoring, bracing, bridging, pumping, backfill, and disposal of excess excavated material.
3. Municipal inspection.
4. Pavement disturbed, including cutting and replacing pavement, pavement base and sidewalks.
5. Permits.
6. Pipe coatings.
7. Pipe and fittings.
8. Pipe laying.
9. Pipe supports.
10. Protection of street openings.
11. Surveys made for main construction.
12. Valves (including manholes or pits), not associated with pumping or regulating equipment.

333 Pumping and regulating equipment.

This account shall include the cost installed of pumping, regulating, and measuring equipment, including minor structures which house such equipment.

ITEMS

1. After-cooling equipment and accessories.
2. Boosters.
3. Compressors.
4. Driving units for items listed herein.
5. Excavation, including shoring, bracing, bridging, pumping, backfill, and disposal of excess excavated material.
6. Foundations and vaults for items listed herein.
7. Governors or regulators for pressure in mains.
8. Manholes or pits used to house equipment included in this account.
9. Meters located on mains.
10. Pavement disturbed, including cutting and replacing pavement, pavement base, and sidewalks.
11. Piping and fittings for equipment.
12. Pressure indicators.
13. Pressure regulating devices.
14. Valves associated with pumping or regulating equipment.

334 Services.

A. This account shall include the cost installed of service pipes and accessories leading to the customers' premises.

B. A complete service begins with the connection on the main and extends to but does not include the connection with the customer's meter. A stub service extends from the main to the property line, or the curb stop.

C. Services which have been used but have become inactive shall be retired from utility plant in service immediately if there is no prospect for reuse, and, in any event, shall be retired by the end of the second year following that during which the service became inactive unless reused in the interim.

ITEMS

1. Curb valves and curb boxes.
2. Excavation, including shoring, bracing, bridging, pumping, backfill, and disposal of excess excavated material.
3. Landscaping, including lawns, shrubbery, shoring, bracing, bridging, pumping, backfill, and disposal of excess excavated material.
4. Municipal inspection.
5. Pavement disturbed, including cutting and replacing pavement, pavement base, and sidewalks.
6. Permits.
7. Pipe and fittings, including saddle, T, or other fitting on street main.
8. Pipe coating.
9. Pipe laying.
10. Protection of street openings.
11. Service drips.
12. Service valves, at head of service, when installed or furnished by the utility.

NOTE: When a customer pays all or a part of the cost of the service and such cost is properly includible in this account, the amount borne or contributed by the customer shall be credited to account 271, Contributions in Aid of Construction.

335 Meters.

A. This account shall include the cost installed of meters or devices and appurtenances thereto, for use in measuring gas delivered to users, whether actually in service or held in reserve.

B. When a meter is permanently retired from service, the installed cost thereof shall be credited to this account.

C. The records of meters shall be so kept that the utility can furnish information as to the number of meters of each type and capacity in service and in reserve as well as the location of each meter.

ITEMS

1. Meters, including badging and initial testing.

Meter installations:

2. Cocks.
3. Labor.
4. Locks.
5. Meter bars.
6. Pipe and fittings.
7. Seals.
8. Shelves.
9. Swivels and bushings.
10. Transportation.

NOTE A: At the option of the utility, costs of meter installations may be accounted for separately from the cost of meters in accordance with the provisions of account 336, Meter Installations. The practice of the utility, however, shall be consistent from year to year and throughout the utility's system.

NOTE B: The labor cost of removing and resetting meters shall be charged to account 760, Supervision and Labor, and supplies used or other expense incurred charged to account 761, Operation Supplies and Expenses.

336 Meter installations.

A. This account shall include the cost of labor and materials used, and expenses incurred in connection with the original installation of customer meters.

B. When a meter installation is permanently retired from service, the cost thereof shall be credited to this account.

ITEMS

1. Cocks.
2. Locks.
3. Labor.
4. Meter bars.
5. Pipe and fittings.
6. Seals.
7. Shelves.
8. Swivels and bushings.
9. Transportation.

NOTE: At the option of the utility, meter installations may be accounted for as part of the cost installed of meters, in accordance with the provisions of account 335, Meters. The practice of the utility, however, shall be consistent from year to year and throughout the utility's system.

337 House regulators.

A. This account shall include the cost installed of house regulators whether actually in service or held in reserve.

B. When a house regulator is permanently retired from service, the installed cost thereof shall be credited to this account.

ITEMS

1. House regulator.

House regulator installations:

2. Cocks.
3. Labor.
4. Locks.
5. Pipe and fittings.
6. Regulator vents.
7. Swivels and bushings.
8. Transportation.

NOTE: At the option of the utility, cost of house regulator installations may be accounted for separately from the cost of house regulators in accordance with the provisions of account 338, House Regulator Installations. The practice of the utility, however, shall be consistent from year to year and throughout the utility's system.

338 House regulator installations.

A. This account shall include the cost of labor and materials used and expenses incurred in connection with the original installation of house regulators.

B. When a house regulator installation is permanently retired from service, the cost thereof shall be credited to this account.

ITEMS

1. Cocks.
2. Labor.
3. Locks.
4. Pipe and fittings.
5. Regulator vents.
6. Swivels and bushings.
7. Transportation.

NOTE: At the option of the utility, house regulator installations may be accounted for as part of the cost installed of house regulators in accordance with the provisions of account 337, House Regulators. The practice, however, shall be consistent from year to year and throughout the utility's system.

339 Property on customers' premises.

This account shall include the cost, including first setting and connecting, of equipment owned by the utility installed on customer premises which is not includible in other accounts.

340 Other equipment.

This account shall include the cost installed of all other transmission and distribution equipment not provided for in the foregoing accounts, including street lighting equipment.

ITEMS

1. Carbon monoxide tester and indicator.
2. Explosimeters.
3. Fire extinguisher.
4. Gas masks.
5. Lockers.
6. Portable pump.
7. Recording gauges.
8. Street lighting equipment.
9. Test meters.
10. Watchmen's clocks.

5. GENERAL PLANT

370 Land and land rights.

This account shall include the cost of land and land rights used for utility purposes, the cost of which is not properly includible in other land and land rights accounts. (See gas plant instruction 3.)

371 Structures and improvements.

This account shall include the cost in place of structures and improvements used for utility purposes, the cost of which is not properly includible in other structures and improvements accounts. (See gas plant instruction 4.)

372 Office furniture and equipment.

This account shall include the cost of office furniture and equipment owned by the utility and devoted to utility service, and not permanently attached to buildings, except the cost of such furniture and equipment which the utility elects to assign to other plant accounts on a functional basis.

ITEMS

1. Bookcases and shelves.
2. Desks, chairs, and desk equipment.
3. Drafting-room equipment.
4. Filing, storage, and other cabinets.
5. Floor covering.
6. Library and library equipment.
7. Mechanical office equipment, such as accounting machines, typewriters, etc.
8. Safes.
9. Tables.

373 Transportation equipment.

This account shall include the cost of transportation vehicles used for utility purposes.

ITEMS

1. Automobiles.
2. Bicycles.
3. Electrical vehicles.
4. Motor trucks.
5. Motorcycles.
6. Repair cars or trucks.
7. Tractors and trailers.
8. Other transportation vehicles.

379 Other general equipment.

This account shall include the cost installed of the following equipment:

(1) Equipment used for the receiving, shipping, handling, and storage of materials and supplies when not an integral part of the housing structure.

(2) Equipment specially provided for general shops when such equipment is not an integral part of the housing structure.

(3) Laboratory equipment used for general laboratory purposes and not specially provided for or includible in other departmental or functional plant accounts.

(4) Tools, implements, and equipment used in construction or repair work exclusive of equipment includible in other equipment accounts.

(5) Other general equipment, apparatus, etc., used in the utility's gas operations, and which is not includible in any other account.

NOTE: General equipment of the nature indicated above whenever practicable shall be assigned to the gas plant accounts on a functional basis.

6. OTHER GAS PLANT

390 Other tangible property.

This account shall include the cost of tangible gas plant not provided for elsewhere.

391 Gas plant purchased or sold.

This account shall be charged with the cost of gas plant acquired as an operating unit or system by purchase, merger, consolidation, liquidation, or otherwise, and shall be credited with the selling price of like property transferred to others pending the distribution to appropriate accounts as the Commission shall approve or direct.

392 Gas plant in process of reclassification.

A. This account shall include temporarily the balance of gas plant as of the effective date of the prior system of accounts, which has not yet been reclassified as of the effective date of this system of accounts. The detail or primary accounts in support of this account employed prior to such date shall be continued pending reclassification into the gas plant accounts herein prescribed (301–390), but shall not be used for additions, betterments, or new construction.

B. No charges other than as provided in paragraph A, above, shall be made to this account, but retirements of such unclassified gas plant shall be credited hereto and to the supporting (old) fixed capital accounts until the reclassification shall have been accomplished.

393 Gas plant leased to others.

A. This account shall include the original cost of gas plant owned by the utility, but leased to others as operating units or systems, where the lessee has exclusive possession.

B. The property included in this account shall be classified according to the detailed accounts (301–390) prescribed for gas plant in service, and this account shall be maintained in such detail as though the property were used by the owner in its utility operations.

394 Gas plant held for future use.

A. This account shall include the original cost of property owned and held for future use in gas service under a definite plan for such use. There shall be included herein property acquired but never used by the utility in gas service, but held for such service in the future under a definite plan, and property previously used by the utility in gas service pending its reuse in the future, under a definite plan, in gas service. This includes land and land rights held to insure a future supply of natural gas.

B. The property included in this account shall be classified according to the detailed accounts (301–390) prescribed for gas plant in service and the account shall be maintained in such detail as though the property were in service.

NOTE A: Materials and supplies, meters and transformers held in reserve, and normal spare capacity of plant in service shall not be included in this account.

NOTE B: Include in this account natural gas wells shut in after construction which have not been connected with the line; also, natural gas wells which have been connected with the line but which are shut in for any reason excepting seasonal excess capacity or governmental proration requirements or for repairs.

395 Construction work in progress—Gas.

This account shall include the total of the balances of work orders for gas plant in process of construction but not ready for service at the date of the balance sheet.

396 Gas plant acquisition adjustments.

A. This account shall include the difference between (a) the cost to the accounting utility of gas plant acquired as an operating unit or system by purchase, merger, consolidation, liquidation, or otherwise, and (b) the original cost, estimated if not known, of such property, less the amount or amounts credited by the accounting utility at the time of acquisition to accumulated provision for depreciation, depletion and amortization and contributions in aid of construction with respect to such property.

B. The amounts recorded in this account with respect to each property acquisition shall be amortized, or otherwise disposed of, as the Commission may approve or direct.

397 Other gas plant adjustments.

A. This account shall include the difference between the original cost, estimated if not known, and the book cost of gas plant to the extent that such difference is not properly includible in account 396, Gas Plant Acquisition Adjustments.

B. Amounts included in this account shall be classified in such manner as to show the origin of each amount and shall be disposed of as the Commission may approve or direct.

NOTE: The provisions of this account shall not be construed as approving or authorizing the recording of appreciation of gas plant.

Income Accounts

1. Utility Operating Income

400 Operating revenues.

There shall be shown under this caption the total amount included in the gas operating revenue accounts provided herein.

401 Operation and maintenance.

There shall be shown under this caption the total amount included in the gas operation and maintenance expense accounts provided herein.

403 Depreciation and depletion expense.

A. This account shall include the amount of depreciation expense for the period covered by the income statement for all classes of depreciable gas plant in service except such depreciation expense as is chargeable to clearing accounts or to merchandising, jobbing and contract work activities. It shall also include depletion and amortization expense with respect to producing natural gas lands and land rights.

B. The charges to this account for amortization and depletion of producing natural gas land and land rights shall be made in such manner as to distribute the cost of producing natural gas land and land rights over the period of their benefit to the utility, based upon the exhaustion of the natural gas deposits recoverable from such land and land rights.

404 Amortization expense.

This account shall include amortization charges applicable to amounts included in the gas plant accounts for limited-term franchises, licenses, patent rights, limited-term interests in land, other than land rights held for production of natural gas, and expenditures on leased property where the service life of the improvements is terminable by action of the lease. The charges to this account shall be such as to distribute the book cost of each investment as evenly as may be over the period of its benefit to the utility. Include also, when authorized by the Commission, amortization of extraordinary property losses. (See account 182, Extraordinary Property Losses.)

408 Taxes other than income taxes.

A. This account shall include the amount of ad valorem, gross revenue or gross receipts taxes, state unemployment insurance, franchise taxes, federal excise taxes, social security taxes, and all other taxes assessed by federal, state, county, municipal, or other local governmental authorities, which are properly chargeable to gas operations, except income taxes.

B. This account shall be charged in each accounting period with the amount of taxes which is applicable thereto, with concurrent credits to account 236, Taxes Accrued, or account 165, Prepayments, as appropriate. When it is not possible to determine the exact amount of taxes, the amount shall be estimated and adjustments made in current accruals as the actual tax levies become known.

C. The charges to this account shall be made or supported so as to show the amount of each tax and the basis upon which each charge is made. In the case of a utility rendering more than one utility service, taxes of the kind includible in this account shall be assigned directly to the utility department the operation of which gave rise to the tax in so far as practicable. Where the tax is not attributable to a specific utility department, it shall be distributed among the utility departments or nonutility operations on an equitable basis.

Note A: Taxes applicable to nonutility property or investments, including taxes on net income derived therefrom, shall be charged to the account in which the income from the property or investments is included.

Note B: Special assessments for street and similar improvements shall be included in the appropriate utility plant or nonutility property account.

Note C: Taxes specifically applicable to construction shall be included in the cost of construction.

Note D: Taxes assumed by the utility on property leased from others for use in utility operations shall be charged to the appropriate rent expense or clearing account.

Note E: Gasoline and other sales taxes shall be charged as far as practicable to the same account as the materials on which the tax is levied.

Note F: Social Security and other forms of so-called pay roll taxes shall be destributed to utility departments and to nonutility functions on a basis related to pay roll. Amounts applicable to construction shall be charged to the appropriate plant account.

409 Income taxes.

A. This account shall include the amount of state and federal taxes on income properly accruable during the period covered by the income statement to meet the actual liability for such taxes. Concurrent credits for the tax accruals shall be made to account 236, Taxes Accrued, and as the exact amount of taxes becomes known, the current tax accruals shall be adjusted accordingly so that this account, as nearly as can be ascertained, shall include the actual taxes payable which are chargeable to utility operations.

B. The accruals for income taxes shall be apportioned among utility departments and nonutility operations so that, as nearly as practicable, each tax shall be included in the expenses of the utility department or nonutility operation the income from which gave rise to the tax.

Note A: Taxes assumed by the utility on interest shall be charged to account 431, Other Interest Expense.

Note B: Income taxes on income from gas plant leased to others shall be charged to account 413, Expenses of Gas Plant Leased to Others.

Note C: Where statutes or regulatory practices require that the profits or losses of merchandising, jobbing and contract work shall not be considered in arriving at rates to be charged for utility service, income taxes on income from merchandising, jobbing and contract work shall be charged to account 416, Costs and Expenses of Merchandising, Jobbing and Contract Work.

Note D: Income taxes on nonutility income shall be charged to the account in which the income is included.

Note E: Interest on tax refunds or deficiencies shall not be included in this account but in account 419, Interest and Dividend Income, or account 431, Other Interest Expenses, as appropriate.

412 Revenues from gas plant leased to others.

413 Expenses of gas plant leased to others.

A. These accounts shall include, respectively, revenues from gas property constituting a distinct operating unit or system leased by the utility to others, and which property is properly includible in account 393, Gas Plant Leased to Others, and the expenses attributable to such property.

B. The detail of expense shall be kept or supported so as to show separately the following:

Operation and maintenance.
Rents.
Depreciation and depletion.
Amortization.
Taxes other than income taxes.
Income taxes.

414 Other utility operating income.

A. This account shall include the revenues received and expenses incurred in connection with the operations of utility plant, the book cost of which is included in account 118, Other Utility Plant.

B. The expenses shall include every element of cost incurred in such operations, including depreciation, rents, taxes, and insurance.

2. Other Income

415 Revenues from merchandising, jobbing and contract work.

416 Costs and expenses of merchandising, jobbing and contract work.

These accounts shall include, respectively, all revenues derived from the sale of merchandise and jobbing or contract work including any profit or commission accruing to the utility on jobbing work performed by it as agent under contracts whereby it does jobbing work for another for a stipulated profit or commission, and all expenses incurred in such activities.

Note: The revenues and expenses of merchandising, jobbing and contract work shall be reported in these accounts if a State regulatory body having jurisdiction over the utility requires the net income therefrom to be reported as other income; but the amounts shall be reported in accounts 780 and 781 if such regulatory body requires the net income to be reported as an operating income or expense item. In the absence of a requirement by a State regulatory body, the utility may use these accounts or accounts 780 and 781 at its option, in which case the practice of the utility must be consistent.

Items

Account 415:
1. Revenues from sale of merchandise and from jobbing and contract work.
2. Discounts and allowances made in settlement of bills for merchandise and jobbing work.

Account 416:
1. Cost of merchandise sold and materials used in jobbing work.
2. Labor and expenses incurred in merchandising and jobbing operations.

418 Nonoperating rental income.

This account shall include all rent revenues and related expenses of land, buildings, or other property included in account 121, Nonutility Property.

419 Interest and dividend income.

A. This account shall include interest revenues on securities, loans, advances, special deposits, tax refunds and all other interest-bearing assets, and dividends on stocks of other companies, whether the securities on which the interest and dividends are received are carried as investments or included in sinking- or other special-fund accounts.

B. If any interest or dividends are required to be retained in a special fund and the fund is represented by a reserve, the amount of such accretion to the fund shall concurrently be credited to the appropriate reserve account and charged to account 436, Appropriations of Surplus.

421 Miscellaneous nonoperating income.

This account shall include all revenue and expense items properly includible in the income account and not provided for elsewhere.

3. Miscellaneous Income Deductions

425 Miscellaneous amortization.

This account shall include amortization charges not includible in other accounts which are properly deductible in determining the income of the utility before interest charges. Charges includible herein, if significant in amount, must be in accordance with an orderly and systematic amortization program. Similar charges made irregularly without a definite program, or which are dependent upon the amount of net income shall be charged to account 435, Miscellaneous Debits to surplus.

Items

1. Amortization of utility plant acquisition adjustments or of intangibles included in utility plant in service when not authorized to be included in utility operating expenses by the Commission.
2. Amortization of amounts in account 182, Extraordinary Property Losses, when not authorized to be included in utility operating expenses by the Commission.
3. Amortization of capital stock discount or expenses when in accordance with a systematic amortization program.

426 Other income deductions.

This account shall include miscellaneous expense items which are nonoperating in nature but which are properly deductible before determining total income before interest charges.

Items

1. Donations for charitable, social or community welfare purposes.
2. Life insurance of officers and employees where utility is beneficiary (net premiums less increase in cash surrender value of policies).
3. Penalties or fines for violation of statutes pertaining to regulation.

Note: The classification of expenses as nonoperating and their inclusion in this account is for accounting purposes. It does not preclude Commission consideration of proof to the contrary for ratemaking or other purposes.

4. Interest Charges

427 Interest on long-term debt.

A. This account shall include the amount of interest on outstanding long-term debt issued or assumed by the utility, the liability for which is included in account 221, Bonds, or account 224, Other Long-Term Debt.

B. This account shall be so kept or supported as to show the interest accruals on each class and series of long-term debt.

Note: This account shall not include interest on nominally issued or nominally outstanding long-term debt, including securities assumed.

428 Amortization of debt discount and expense.

A. This account shall include the amortization of unamortized debt discount and expense on outstanding long-term debt. Amounts charged to this account shall be credited concurrently to account 181, Unamortized Debt Discount and Expense.

B. This account shall be so kept or supported as to show the debt discount and expense on each class and series of long-term debt.

429 Amortization of premium on debt—Cr.

A. This account shall include the amortization of unamortized net premium on outstanding long-term debt. Amounts credited to this account shall be charged concurrently to account 251, Unamortized Premium on Debt.

B. This account shall be so kept or supported as to show the premium on each class and series of long-term debt.

430 Interest on debt to associated companies.

A. This account shall include the interest accrued on amounts included in account 223, Advances from Associated Companies, and on all other obligations to associated companies.

B. The records supporting the entries to this account shall be so kept as to show to whom the interest is to be paid, the period covered by the accrual, the rate of interest and the principal amount of the advances or other obligations on which the interest is accrued.

431 Other interest expense.

This account shall include all interest charges not provided for elsewhere.

Items

1. Interest on notes payable on demand, or maturing one year or less from date and on open accounts, except notes and accounts with associated companies.
2. Interest on customers' deposits.
3. Interest on claims and judgments, tax assessments, and assessments for public improvements past due.
4. Income and other taxes levied upon bondholders of utility and assumed by it.

432 Interest charged to construction—Cr.

This account shall include concurrent credits for interest charged to construction based upon the net cost for the period of construction of borrowed funds used for construction purposes and a reasonable rate upon other funds when so used. No interest shall be capitalized on plant which is completed and ready for service.

5. Earned Surplus

433 Balance transferred from income.

This account shall include the net credit or debit transferred from income for the year.

434 Miscellaneous credits to surplus.

This account shall include credits affecting earned surplus not provided for elsewhere. If an amount otherwise required by the uniform system of accounts to be credited to this account is not significant with respect to net income determination for the year, it may be credited to the appropriate non-operating income account. All items included in this account shall be sufficiently described in the entries relating thereto as to permit ready analysis.

Items

1. Delayed credits.
2. Profit on reacquisition and resale or retirement of utility's debt securities.
3. Profit on sale of property or investments.

435 Miscellaneous debits to surplus.

This account shall include amounts chargeable to earned surplus but not provided for elsewhere. If an amount otherwise required by the uniform system of accounts to be charged to this account is not significant with respect to net income determination for the year, it may be charged to the appropriate non-operating income deduction account. All items included in this account shall be sufficiently described in the entries relating thereto as to permit ready analysis.

ITEMS

1. Decline in value of investments.
2. Delayed debits.
3. Loss on reacquisition and resale or retirement of utility's debt securities.
4. Provision for past accrued depreciation not provided for.
5. Long-term debt discount and expense written off.
6. Loss on sale of property or investments.
7. Write off of utility plant acquisition adjustments or of intangibles when not done under an orderly systematic program indicating the propriety of inclusion of the annual charges in account 425, Miscellaneous Amortization.
8. Preliminary survey and investigation expenses on abandoned projects.
9. Income taxes, both state and federal, occasioned by items included in account 434, Miscellaneous Credits to Surplus.
10. Charges from retirement or resale of reacquired capital stock.

436 Appropriations of surplus.

This account shall include appropriations of earned surplus for purposes not provided for elsewhere in this system of accounts.

ITEMS

1. Appropriations of income required under terms of mortgages, orders of courts, contracts or other agreements.
2. Appropriations of income required by action of regulatory authorities.
3. Miscellaneous appropriations of income made at option of utility for specified purposes.

437 Dividends declared—Preferred stock.

This account shall include amounts declared payable out of earned surplus as dividends on actually outstanding preferred or prior lien capital stock issued by the utility.

438 Dividends declared—Common stock.

This account shall include amounts declared payable out of earned surplus as dividends on actually outstanding common capital stock issued by the utility.

Operating Revenue Accounts

1. SALES OF GAS

480 Residential sales.
481 Commercial and industrial sales.
483 Sales for resale.
484 Interdepartmental sales.

2. OTHER OPERATING REVENUES

487 Forfeited discounts.
488 Miscellaneous service revenues.
489 Revenues from transportation of gas of others.
491 Revenues from natural gas processed by others.
492 Incidental gasoline and oil sales.
493 Rent from gas property.
494 Interdepartmental rents.
495 Other gas revenues.

Operating Revenue Accounts

1. SALES OF GAS

480 Residential sales.

A. This account shall include the net billing for gas supplied for residential or domestic purposes.

B. Records shall be maintained so that the quantity of gas sold and the revenues received under each rate schedule shall be readily available.

NOTE: When gas supplied through a single meter is used for both residential and commercial purposes, the total revenue shall be included in this account or account 481, Commercial and Industrial Sales, according to the rate schedule which is applied. If the same rate schedules are applicable to both residential and commercial service, classification shall be according to principal use.

481 Commercial and industrial sales.

A. This account shall include the net billing for gas supplied to commercial and industrial customers.

B. Records shall be maintained so that the quantity of gas sold and revenue received under each rate schedule shall be readily available.

NOTE: When gas supplied through a single meter is used for both commercial and residential purposes, the total revenue shall be included in this account or in account 480, Residential Sales, according to the rate schedule which is applied. If the same rate schedules are applicable to both residential and commercial service, classification shall be according to principal use.

483 Sales for resale.

A. This account shall include the net billing for gas supplied to other gas utilities or to public authorities for resale purposes.

B. Records shall be maintained so that there shall be readily available the revenues for each customer under each revenue schedule and the billing determinants, as applicable, i.e., volume of gas (actual and billing), contract demand, maximum actual demand, billing demand, and Btu adjustment factor.

NOTE: Revenues from gas supplied to other public utilities for use by them and not for distribution, shall be included in account 481, Commercial and Industrial Sales, unless supplied under the same contract as and not readily separable from revenues includible in this account.

484 Interdepartmental sales.

A. This account shall include amounts charged by the gas department at tariff or other specified rates for gas supplied by it to other utility departments.

B. Records shall be maintained so that the quantity of gas supplied each other department and the charge made therefor shall be readily available.

2. OTHER OPERATING REVENUES

487 Forfeited discounts.

This account shall include the amount of discounts forfeited or additional charges imposed because of the failure of customers to pay gas bills on or before a specified date.

488 Miscellaneous service revenues.

This account shall include revenues from all miscellaneous services and charges billed to customers which are not specifically provided for in other accounts.

ITEMS

1. Fees for changing, connecting, or disconnecting service.
2. Profit on maintenance of appliances, piping, gas firing and other utilization facilities, or other installations on customers' premises.
3. Net credit or debit (cost less net salvage and less payment from customers) on closing work orders for plant installed for temporary service of less than one year.
4. Recovery of expenses in connection with gas diversion cases. (Billing for the gas consumed shall be included in the appropriate gas revenue account.)
5. Services performed for other gas companies for testing and adjusting meters, changing charts, etc.

489 Revenues from transportation of gas of others.

This account shall include revenues from transporting gas for other companies through the production, transmission, and distribution lines, or compressor stations of the utility.

491 Revenues from natural gas processed by others.

A. This account shall include revenues from royalties and permits, or other bases of settlement, for permission granted others to remove products from natural gas of the utility.

B. The records supporting this account shall be so maintained that full information concerning determination of the revenues will be readily available concerning each processor of gas of the utility, including as applicable (a) the Mcf of gas and approximate average Btu content thereof per cubic foot delivered to such other party for processing, (b) the Mcf of gas and approximate average Btu content thereof per cubic foot of gas received back from the processor, (c) the field, general production area, or other source of the gas processed, (d) Mcf of gas used for processing fuel, etc., which is chargeable to the utility, (e) total gallons of each product recovered by the processor and the utility's share thereof, (f) the revenues accruing to the utility, and (g) the basis of determination of the revenues accruing to the utility. Such records shall be maintained even though no revenues are derived from the processor.

492 Incidental gasoline and oil sales.

This account shall include revenues from natural gas gasoline produced direct from gas wells or recovered from drips or obtained in connection with purification or dehydration processes, and revenues from oil obtained from wells which produce oil and gas, the investment in which is carried in account 323, Producing Gas Wells.

493 Rent from gas property.

A. This account shall include rents received for the use by others of land, buildings, and other property devoted to gas operations by the utility.

B. When property owned by the utility is operated jointly with others under a definite arrangement for sharing the actual expenses among the parties to the arrangement, any amount received by the utility for interest or return or in reimbursement of taxes or depreciation on the property shall be credited to this account.

NOTE: Do not include rent from property constituting an operating unit or system in this account. (See account 412, Revenues from Gas Plant Leased to Others.)

494 Interdepartmental rents.

This account shall include credits for rental charges made against other departments of the utility. In the case of property operated under a definite arrangement to allocate actual costs among the departments using the property, any allowance to the gas department for interest or return and depreciation and taxes shall be credited to this account.

495 Other gas revenues.

This account shall include revenues derived from gas operations not includible in any of the foregoing accounts.

ITEMS

1. Commission on sale or distribution of gas of others when sold under rates filed by such others.

11. Waste.
12. Scrubber oil.
13. Well swabs.
14. Geological and gas reserve services by others than employees in connection with gas production.

714 Gas well royalties.

A. This account shall include royalties or other amounts paid for natural gas produced by the utility from wells on land owned by others.

B. Records supporting the entries to this account shall be so kept that the utility can furnish the name of the parties to each contract involving royalties, the terms of each contract, the location of the property involved, the method of determining the royalties, and the amounts payable.

720 Delay rentals.

A. This account shall be charged with the amount of rents paid periodically on natural gas lands in order to hold natural gas land and land rights for the purpose of obtaining a supply of gas in the future.

B. Include, also, in this account the cost of obtaining natural gas leases for a period of one year or less.

C. Records supporting this account shall be so kept that the utility can furnish complete details of the charges made for each natural gas leasehold. (See note to paragraph D of gas plant instruction 3.)

721 Nonproductive well drilling.

This account shall include the net cost of drilling wells which prove to be nonproductive.

NOTE: Records in support of the charges to this account shall conform, as appropriate, to note of general instruction 5, Gas Well Records.

722 Abandoned leases.

This account shall be charged with losses on abandonment of natural gas leases included in account 394, Gas Plant Held for Future Use, which have never been productive, unless otherwise authorized or directed by the Commission.

723 Other exploration.

This account shall be charged with the cost of abandoned projects on which preliminary expenditures were made for the purpose of determining the feasibility of acquiring acreage to provide a future supply of natural gas. (See account 183, Other Deferred Debits.)

725 Repairs of production and gathering plant.

This account shall include the cost of repair parts and materials and amounts of bills from others for repairs to natural gas production and gathering plant, including payments to others for repairs of well equipment and conditioning and cleaning of wells. It shall not, however, include the cost of labor of the utility's own plant operating force.

ITEMS

1. Contract work for cleaning and conditioning wells, repairing well equipment and rearranging, relocating, and repairing field lines, measuring and regulating equipment and other plant not retired.
2. Repair parts and materials for repairs of natural gas production and gathering plant.

3. PURCHASED GAS

730 Purchased gas.

A. This account shall include the cost at point of receipt by the utility of gas purchased for resale.

B. The records supporting this account shall be so maintained that there shall be readily available for each vendor and each point of receipt, the quantity of gas, basis of charges, and the amount paid for the gas.

NOTE: If any gas is used as fuel or raw materials in a manufactured gas process, the cost of such gas shall first be charged to this account and a separate entry made crediting this account and charging account 701, Fuel and Raw Materials, with the cost of the gas so used.

4. TRANSMISSION AND DISTRIBUTION EXPENSES

760 Supervision and labor.

This account shall include the cost of supervision and labor in the operation and maintenance of the transmission and distribution system including work on customers' premises.

ITEMS

1. Supervising and directing the operation and maintenance of transmission and distribution facilities.

8. Meter locks and seals.
9. Rents.

762 Repairs of transmission and distribution plant.

This account shall include the cost of repair parts and materials and amounts of bills from others for repairs made to transmission and distribution plant. It shall not, however, include the cost of labor of the utility's own plant operating forces.

ITEMS

1. Contract work for repairs and for rearrangement or relocation of plant not retired.
2. Repair parts and materials for repairs of transmission and distribution plant.

765 Transportation expenses.

A. This account shall include the cost of labor, materials used and expenses incurred in the operation and maintenance of general transportation equipment of the utility.

B. This account may be used as a clearing account in which event the charges hereto shall be cleared by apportionment to the appropriate operating expense, utility plant, or other accounts on a basis which will distribute the expenses equitably. Credits to this account shall be made in such detail as to permit ready analysis.

ITEMS

1. Depreciation of transportation equipment.
2. Insurance on transportation equipment.
3. License fees for vehicles and drivers.
4. Rents for equipment and garages.
5. Repairs of transportation equipment.
6. Supplies, such as gas, oil, tires, tubes, grease, etc.

NOTE: Transportation expenses applicable to construction shall not be included in operating expenses.

5. GENERAL EXPENSES

770 Administrative and general salaries.

This account shall include the cost of supervision and labor incurred in administrative, customer accounts, and sales activities.

ITEMS

1. Accounting and clerical work on customers' accounts and on general records.
2. Meter reading.
3. Solicitation of business.
4. Stenographic work.
5. Supervision and administration.

771 Office supplies and expenses.

This account shall include office supplies and expenses incurred in connection with customer accounts, sales and general administration of the utility's operations.

ITEMS

1. Address plates and supplies.
2. Automobile service, including charges through clearing account.
3. Bank messenger and service charges.
4. Books, periodicals, bulletins and subscriptions to newspapers, newsletters, tax services, etc.
5. Building service expenses for customer accounts, sales, and administrative and general purposes.
6. Commissions or fees to others for collecting revenues.
7. Communication service expenses.
8. Cost of individual items of office equipment used by general departments which are of small value or short life.
9. Meals, traveling and incidental expenses.
10. Membership fees and dues in trade, technical, and professional associations paid by utility for employees. (Company memberships are includible in account 777.)

14. Postage, printing and stationery.
15. Rent of office equipment.
16. Repairs of office equipment.

772 Outside services employed.

A. This account shall include the fees and expenses of professional consultants and others for general services which are not applicable to a particular operation function nor to other accounts. It shall include, also, the pay and expenses of persons engaged for a special or temporary administrative or general purpose in circumstances where the person so engaged is not considered an employee of the utility.

B. This account shall be so maintained as to permit ready summarization according to the nature of service and the person furnishing the same.

ITEMS

1. Fees, pay and expenses of accountants and auditors, actuaries, appraisers, attorneys, engineering consultants, management consultants, negotiators, public relations counsel, tax consultants, etc.
2. Supervision fees and expenses paid under contracts for general management services.

NOTE: Do not include inspection and brokerage fees and commissions chargeable to other accounts or fees and expenses in connection with security issues which are includible in the expenses of issuing securities.

773 Insurance expense.

A. This account shall include the cost of insurance or reserve accruals (1) to protect the utility against losses and damages to owned or leased property used in its utility operations, and (2) to protect the utility against injuries and damages claims of employees or others, losses of such character not covered by insurance and expenses incurred in settlement of injuries and damages claims.

B. Recoveries from insurance companies or others for property damages shall be credited to the account charged with the cost of the damage. If the damaged property has been retired, the credit shall be to the appropriate account for accumulated provision for depreciation.

C. Reimbursements from insurance companies or others for expenses charged hereto on account of injuries and damages and insurance dividends or refunds shall be credited to this account.

775 Employee pensions and benefits.

A. This account shall include pensions paid to or on behalf of retired employees, or accruals to provide for pensions, or payments for the purchase of annuities for this purpose, when the utility has definitely, by contract committed itself to a pension plan under which the pension funds are irrevocably devoted to pension purposes; and payment for employee accident, sickness, hospital, and death benefits, or insurance therefor. Include, also, expenses incurred in medical, educational or recreational activities for the benefit of employees.

B. The utility shall maintain a complete record of accruals or payments for pensions and be prepared to furnish full information to the Commission of the plan under which it has created or proposes to create a pension fund and a copy of the declaration of trust or resolution under which the pension plan is established.

C. There shall be credited to this account the portion of pensions and benefits expenses which is applicable to nonutility operations or which is charged to construction unless such amounts are distributed directly to the accounts involved and are not included herein in the first instance.

776 Regulatory commission expenses.

A. This account shall include all expenses (except pay of regular employees only incidentally engaged in such work) properly includible in utility operating expenses, incurred by the utility in connection with formal cases before regulatory commissions, or other regulatory bodies, or cases in which such a body is a party, including payments made to a regulatory commission for fees assessed against the utility for pay and expenses of such commission, its officers, agents, and employees.

B. Amounts of regulatory commission expense which by approval or direction of the Commission are to be spread over future periods shall be charged to account 183, Other Deferred Debits, and amortized by charges to this account.

C. The utility shall be prepared to show the cost of each formal case.

777 Miscellaneous general expenses.

This account shall include the cost of expenses incurred in connection with the general management of the utility not provided for elsewhere.

ITEMS

1. Association dues for company memberships.
2. Contributions for conventions and meetings of the industry.
3. Experimental and general research work for the industry.
4. Communication service not chargeable to other accounts.
5. Trustee, registrar, and transfer agent fees and expenses.
6. Stockholders meeting expenses.
7. Dividend and other financial notices.
8. Printing and mailing dividend checks.
9. Directors' fees and expenses.
10. Publishing and distributing annual reports to stockholders.
11. Institutional or goodwill advertising.
12. Public notices of financial, operating, and other data required by regulatory statutes, not including, however, notices required in connection with security issues or acquisitions of property.
13. Rent for property used in customers' accounts, sales or administrative and general functions.

778 Uncollectible accounts.

This account shall be charged with amounts sufficient to provide for losses from uncollectible utility revenues. Concurrent credits shall be made to account 144, Accumulated Provision for Uncollectible Accounts—Cr. Losses from uncollectible accounts shall be charged to account 144.

780 Revenues from merchandising, jobbing and contract work.

781 Costs and expenses of merchandising, jobbing, and contract work.

These accounts shall include all revenues derived from the sale of merchandise and jobbing or contract work, including any profit or commission accruing to the utility on jobbing work performed by it as agent under contracts whereby it does jobbing work for another for a stipulated profit or commission and all expenses incurred in such activities.

NOTE A: The revenues and expenses of merchandising, jobbing and contract work shall be reported in this account if a state regulatory body having jurisdiction over the utility requires the net income therefrom to be reported as an operating expense item; but the amounts shall be reported in accounts 415 and 416 if such regulatory body requires such income to be reported as nonoperating income. In the absence of a requirement by a state regulatory body, the utility may use this account or accounts 415 and 416, at its option, in which case the practice of the utility must be consistent.

NOTE B: See accounts 415 and 416 for list of items includible herein.

Title 3—THE PRESIDENT

Proclamation 3384

IMMIGRATION QUOTA

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS under the provisions of section 202(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, each independent country, self-governing dominion, mandated territory, and territory under the international trusteeship system of the United Nations, other than independent countries of North, Central, and South America, is entitled to be treated as a separate quota area when approved by the Secretary of State; and

WHEREAS under the provisions of section 201(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Attorney General, jointly, are required to determine the annual quota of any quota area established pursuant to the provisions of section 201(a) of the said Act, and to report to the President the quota of each quota area so determined; and

WHEREAS under the provisions of section 202(e) of the said Act, the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Attorney General, jointly, are required to revise the quotas, whenever necessary, to provide for any political changes requiring a change in the list of quota areas; and

WHEREAS the Islamic Republic of Mauritania, a former Autonomous Republic within the French Community, became independent on November 28, 1960; and

WHEREAS the Secretary of State, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Attorney General have jointly determined and reported to me the immigration quota hereinafter set forth:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the aforesaid Act of Congress, do hereby proclaim and make known that the annual quota of the quota area hereinafter designated has been determined in accordance with the law to be, and shall be, as follows:

Quota Area	Quota
Mauritania	100

The establishment of an immigration quota for any quota area is solely for the purpose of compliance with the pertinent provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act and is not to be considered as having any significance extraneous to such purpose.

Proclamation No. 3298 of June 3, 1959, entitled "Immigration Quotas," is amended by the addition of the immigration quota established by this proclamation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this twenty-first day of December in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-fifth.

[SEAL]

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

CHRISTIAN A. HERTER,
Secretary of State.

Proclamation 3385

DESIGNATION OF RESTRICTED WATERS UNDER THE GREAT LAKES PILOTAGE ACT OF 1960

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 3(a) of the Great Lakes Pilotage Act of 1960 (Public Law 86-555; 74 Stat. 259), the President is directed to designate and by proclamation announce those United States waters of the Great Lakes in which registered vessels of the United States and foreign vessels shall be required to have in their service a United States registered pilot or a Canadian registered pilot for the waters concerned; and

WHEREAS the aforesaid section 3(a) provides that these designations shall be made with due regard to the public interest, the effective utilization of navigable waters, marine safety, and the foreign relations of the United States:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 3(a) of the Great Lakes Pilotage Act of 1960, do hereby designate and proclaim the following areas in which registered vessels of the United States and foreign vessels shall be required to have in their service a United States registered pilot or a Canadian registered pilot for the waters concerned, on and after the effective date of regulations issued by the Secretary of Commerce pursuant to the Act:

(1) District 1. All United States waters of the St. Lawrence River between the international boundary at St. Regis and a line at the head of the river running (at approximately 127° true) between Carruthers Point Light and South Side Light extended to the New York shore.

(2) District 2. All United States waters of Lake Erie westward of a line running (at approximately 026° true) from Sandusky Pierhead Light at Cedar Point to Southeast Shoal Light; all waters contained within the arc of a circle of one mile radius eastward of Sandusky Pierhead Light; the Detroit River; Lake St. Clair; the St. Clair River, and northern approaches thereto south of latitude 43°05'30" N.

(3) District 3. All United States waters of the St. Marys River, Sault Sainte Marie Locks and approaches thereto between latitude 45°57' N. at the southern approach and a line (at approximately 020° true) from Point Iroquois Light to the westward tangent of Jackson Island at the northern approach.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this twenty-second day of December in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-fifth.

[SEAL]

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

By the President:

CHRISTIAN A. HERTER,
Secretary of State.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER A—MARKETING ORDERS

[Milk Order No. 2]

PART 902—MILK IN WASHINGTON, D.C., MARKETING AREA

Order Suspending Certain Provisions

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and of the order regulating the handling of milk in the Washington, D.C. marketing area (7 CFR Part 902), it is hereby found and determined that:

(a) The following provision of the order no longer tends to effectuate the declared policy of the Act: The phrase in § 902.50(a) which reads "During the first 18 months after the effective date of this part * * *".

(b) Notice of proposed rule making, public procedure thereon, and 30 days notice of effective date hereof are impractical, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest in that:

(1) This suspension order does not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to the effective date.

(2) This suspension order is necessary to reflect current marketing conditions and to maintain orderly marketing conditions in the marketing area.

(3) Without this suspension action the Class I price formula will terminate after December 31, 1960.

(4) A public hearing has been held September 28 and 29, 1960, pursuant to notice issued September 6, 1960 (25 F.R. 8745) on Class I prices for periods after December 31, 1960, and a recommended decision has been issued. Since it is not possible to complete the amendment procedure before January 1, 1961, temporary provision for a Class I price is necessary pending the issuance of such amendment.

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective January 1, 1961.

It is therefore ordered, That the aforesaid provision of the order is hereby suspended effective January 1, 1961.

(Secs. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601-674)

[Navel Orange Regulation 198]

PART 914—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

§ 914.498 Navel Orange Regulation 198.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act by tending to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for such oranges as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow of the supply thereof to market throughout the normal marketing season to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices, and is not for the purpose of maintaining prices to farmers above the level which it is declared to be the policy of Congress to establish under the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001-1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting, the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on December 22, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., December 25, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., January 1, 1961, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 300,000 cartons;
(ii) District 2: 100,102 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement;
(iv) District 4: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," "District 4," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

[Milk Order 28]

PART 928—MILK IN NEOSHO VALLEY MARKETING AREA

Order Suspending Certain Provision

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and of the order regulating the handling of milk in the Neosho Valley marketing area (7 CFR Part 928), it is hereby found and determined that:

(a) The following provision of the order does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act for the period December 1, 1960 through February 28, 1961.

(1) In 928.51(b) the phrases "for the delivery periods of July through March", "the basic formula price", and "and for the delivery periods of April through June".

(b) Notice of proposed rule making, public procedure thereon, and 30 days notice of effective date hereof are impractical, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest in that:

(1) This suspension order does not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to the effective date.

(2) This suspension order is necessary to reflect current marketing conditions and to maintain orderly marketing conditions in the marketing area.

(3) The Class II pricing provisions as amended April 1, 1960, have resulted in Class II prices in recent months higher than those established under other Federal orders in the region. These price relationships are disturbing the Neosho Valley milk market in that handlers are reluctant to accept Class II milk at the order prices. Unless the Class II price is reduced, handlers may refuse to accept milk for Class II use and some producers may be unable to find a market for their milk. This suspension order will encourage acceptance of milk for Class II use since it results in a 10 cent per hundredweight reduction in the Class II price.

(4) More than two-thirds of the producers supplying the market and several handlers have requested this suspension.

Therefore, good cause exists for making this order effective December 1, 1960.

It is therefore ordered, That the aforesaid provision of the order is hereby suspended for the period December 1, 1960, through February 28, 1961.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 20th day of December 1960.

[Lemon Reg. 878]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

§ 953.985 Lemon Regulation 878.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 23 F.R. 9053), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based become available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on December 20, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., December 25, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., January 1, 1961, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 27,900 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 158,100 cartons;

(iii) District : Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

[Lime Reg. 9]

PART 1001—LIMES GROWN IN FLORIDA

Quality Regulation

§ 1001.309 Lime Regulation 9.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 101, as amended (7 CFR Part 1001), regulating the handling of limes grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Florida Lime Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of limes, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; and this regulation relieves restrictions on the handling of limes grown in Florida.

(b) Order. (1) Termination of Lime Order 8, as amended. Lime Order 8, as amended (25 F.R. 3313, 9170, 10796), is hereby terminated at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., December 26, 1960.

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., December 26, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., April 17, 1961, no handler shall handle:

(i) Any limes of the group known as true limes (also known as Mexican, West Indian, and Key limes and by other synonyms), grown in the production area, which do not meet the requirements of at least U.S. No. 2 grade for Persian (Tahiti) limes, except as to color; or

(ii) Any limes of the group known as large fruited or Persian limes (including Tahiti, Bearss, and similar varieties), grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 2, Mixed Color.

(3) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and terms relating to grade, as used herein, shall have the same meaning as is given to the term in the United States Standards for Persian (Tahiti) Limes (§§ 51.1000–51.1016).

SUBCHAPTER B—PROHIBITIONS OF IMPORTED COMMODITIES

[Lime Reg. No. 5]

PART 1069—LIMES

§ 1069.5 Lime Regulation No. 5.

(a) On and after the effective time of this regulation, the importation into the United States of any lot of limes which in the aggregate exceeds 250 pounds, net weight, is prohibited unless:

(1) Such limes of the group known as true limes (also known as Mexican, West Indian, and Key limes and by other synonyms) meet the requirements of at least the U.S. No. 2 grade for Persian (Tahiti) limes, except as to color;

(2) Such limes of the group known as large fruited or Persian limes (including Tahiti, Bearss, and similar varieties) meet the requirements of at least the U.S. No. 2, Mixed Color grade; and

(3) Each such importation is made in conformance with the General Regulation (7 CFR Part 1060) applicable to the importation of listed commodities and the requirements of this regulation: Provided, That the provisions of § 1060.4(e) of this chapter shall not apply.

(b) The Federal Inspection Service is hereby designated to perform, through inspectors authorized or licensed by such Service, the inspection and certification prescribed in § 1060.3 Eligible imports of the aforesaid General Regulations. Such inspection and certification services will be available upon application in accordance with the rules and regulations governing inspection and certification of fresh fruits, vegetables, and other products (7 CFR Part 51) but, since inspectors are not located in the immediate vicinity of some of the small ports of entry, such as those in southern California, importers of limes should make arrangements for inspection, through the applicable one of the following offices, at least the specified number of days prior to the time when the limes will be imported:

(d) Termination of Lime Regulation No. 4, as amended. Lime Regulation No. 4, as amended (25 F.R. 3314, 9171, 10867), is hereby terminated at the effective time hereof.

It is hereby found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective time of this regulation beyond that hereinafter specified (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that (a) the requirements of this import regulation are imposed pursuant to section 8e of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), which makes such regulation necessary; (b) such regulation imposes the same restrictions on imports of limes as the grade, size, and quality restrictions applicable to the shipment of limes grown in Florida under Lime Regulation 9 (§ 1001.309); (c) compliance with this import regulation will not require any special preparation which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof; and (d) this regulation relieves restrictions on the importation of Persian limes.

Dated, December 22, 1960, to become effective at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., December 26, 1960.

Chapter XI—Agricultural Conservation Program Service, Department of Agriculture

[ACP–1961, Supp. 2]

PART 1101—NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION

Subpart—1961

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7 to 17 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and Public Law 86–532, the 1961 National Agricultural Conservation Program, approved July 1, 1960 (25 F.R. 6415), as amended September 8, 1960 (25 F.R. 8775), is further amended as follows:

1. Section 1101.1026 is amended, for purposes of the 1961 program, to read:

§ 1101.1026 Failure to meet minimum requirements.

Notwithstanding other provisions of the 1961 program, costs may be shared for performance actually rendered even though the minimum requirements for a practice are not met, if the farmer or rancher establishes to the satisfaction of the county committee, the State committee or its designee, and the State and county representatives of any other agency having responsibility for technical phases of the practice (a) that he made every reasonable effort to meet the minimum requirements, and (b) that the practice as performed adequately meets the conservation problem.

2. Paragraph (a) of § 1101.1034 is amended, for purposes of the 1961 program, to read:

(a) Any person may, within 15 days after notice thereof is forwarded to or made available to him, request the county committee or State committee in writing to reconsider its recommendation or determination in any matter affecting the right to or the amount of his Federal cost-shares with respect to the farm or ranch. If a person is dissatisfied with the decision of the county committee, he may, within 15 days after the decision is forwarded to or made available to him, appeal in writing to the State committee. If he is dissatisfied with the decision of the State committee, he may, within 15 days after its decision is forwarded to or made available to him, request the Administrator, ACPS, to review the decision of the State committee. The decision of the Administrator, ACPS, shall be final. All appeals shall be considered as soon as practicable after they are filed, and prompt written notice of the decision shall be given to the appellant. Written notice of any decision rendered under this section by the county or State committee shall also be issued to each other landlord, tenant, or sharecropper on the farm or ranch who may be adversely affected by the decision.

3. Section 1101.1036 is amended, for purposes of the 1961 program, to read:

§ 1101.1036 Maintenance and use of practices.

The sharing of costs, by the Federal Government, for the performance of approved conservation practices on any farm or ranch under the 1961 program will be subject to the condition that the person with whom the costs are shared will maintain and use such practices for the conservation purposes for which cost-sharing was authorized throughout their normal lifespans as long as the land on which they are carried out is under his control, unless the State or county committee determines that good farming practice does not require such maintenance and use, or that the failure to so maintain and use the practices was due to conditions beyond his control.

4. Section 1101.1037 is amended, for purposes of the 1961 program, to read:

§ 1101.1037 Practices defeating purposes of programs.

If the county committee finds with the concurrence of the State committee, or if the State committee finds, that any person has adopted or participated in any practice during the 1961 program year which tends to defeat the purposes of the 1961 or any previous program, including, but not limited to, failure to maintain, in accordance with good farming practices, practices carried out under a previous program, it may withhold, or require to be refunded, all or any part of the Federal cost-share which otherwise would be due him under the 1961 program.

5. Section 1101.1061 is amended, for purposes of the 1961 program, to read:

§ 1101.1061 Practice B–5: Constructing wells for livestock water as a means of protecting vegetative cover or to make practicable the utilization of the land for vegetative cover.

The wells must be at locations which will bring about the desired protection of vegetative cover through proper distribution of grazing or better grassland management or make practicable the utilization of the land for vegetative cover. Adequate storage facilities must be provided. Pumping equipment must be installed, except for artesian wells. No Federal cost-sharing will be allowed for wells constructed primarily for the use of headquarters, or for costs other than for constructing or deepening wells and for water storage facilities.

(Sec. 4, 49 Stat. 164, secs. 7–17, 49 Stat 1148, as amended, 74 Stat. 232; 16 U.S.C. 590d, 590g–590q)

Done at Washington, D.C., this 20th day of December 1960.

C. M. FERGUSON,
Assistant Secretary.

Title 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice

PART 324—SPECIAL CLASSES OF PERSONS WHO MAY BE NATURALIZED: WOMEN WHO HAVE LOST UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP BY MARRIAGE

PART 332—PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION OF APPLICANTS FOR NATURALIZATION AND WITNESSES

Miscellaneous Amendments to Chapter

The following amendments to Chapter I of Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations are hereby prescribed:

1. Section 324.15 is added to read as follows:

§ 324.15 Certificate by examiner when petitioner is entitled to an immediate hearing.

The officer or employee conducting the preliminary investigation shall execute a certificate of examination on Form N–440, in duplicate, for attachment to the original and duplicate petitions for naturalization filed under section 324(a) of the Act.

§ 332.11 [Amendment]

2. The last sentence of paragraph (a) Scope of investigation of § 332.11 Investigation preliminary to filing petition for naturalization is amended to read as follows: "During the interrogation of the applicant and his witnesses and at the applicant's request, his attorney or representative who has filed an appearance in accordance with Part 292 of this chapter may be permitted to be present and observe the interrogation and make notes without otherwise participating therein."

§ 332.12 [Revocation]

3. Section 332.12 Certificate by examiner whenever petitioner is entitled to immediate hearing is revoked.

(Sec. 103, 66 Stat. 173; 8 U.S.C. 1103)

This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Compliance with the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) as to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date is unnecessary in this instance because the rules prescribed by the order relate to agency procedure.

Dated: December 21, 1960.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 60–KC–56]

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Modification

On October 11, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 9733) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the Camp Douglas, Wis., control zone.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 12582) and for the reasons stated in the Notice, § 601.2408 (25 F.R. 8181) is amended to read:

§ 601.2408 Camp Douglas, Wis., control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of Volk Field, Camp Douglas (Lat. 43°56'25" N., Long. 90°15'20" W.); within 2 miles either side of the 093° True radial of the Volk Field TVOR, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles E. of the TVOR, from 0600 to 2400 hours, local standard time, daily, from May to September, annually, with specific dates on which the designation begins and ends for each annual period to be established in advance by a Notice to Airmen.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. February 9, 1961.

In the Matter of Baar & Beards, Inc., a Corporation, and Sylvan M. Baar and Milton Beards, Individually and as Officers of Said Corporation.

Order requiring importers in New York City to cease violating the Flammable Fabrics Act by transporting and selling in commerce silk scarves manufactured in Japan which were so highly flammable as to be dangerous when worn, and furnishing their customers with false guaranties representing that tests showed the scarves not to be dangerously flammable.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent Baar & Beards, Inc., a corporation, and its officers, and respondents Sylvan M. Baar and Milton Beards, individually and as officers of said corporation, and respondents' representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate of other device, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. (a) Importing into the United States; or

(b) Selling, offering for sale, introducing, delivering for introduction, transporting, or causing to be transported, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Flammable Fabrics Act; or

(c) Transporting or causing to be transported, for the purpose of sale or delivery after sale in commerce, any article of wearing apparel, which, under the provisions of section 4 of the said Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended, is so highly flammable as to be dangerous when worn by individuals;

2. Selling or offering for sale any article of wearing apparel made of fabric which, under the provisions of section 4 of said Act, as amended, is so highly flammable as to be dangerous when worn by individuals and which has been shipped or received in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in said Act;

3. Furnishing to any person a guaranty with respect to any article of wearing apparel which respondents, or any of them, have reason to believe may be introduced, sold or transported in commerce, which guaranty represents, contrary to fact, that reasonable and representative tests made under the procedures provided in section 4 of the Flammable Fabrics Act, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, show and will show that the article of wearing apparel, or the fabrics used or contained therein, covered by the guaranty, are not, in the form delivered or to be delivered by the guarantor, so highly flammable under the provisions of the Flammable Fabrics Act as to be dangerous when worn by individuals: Provided, however, That this prohibition shall not be applicable to a guaranty furnished on the basis of, and in reliance upon, a guaranty to the same effect received by respondents in good faith signed by and containing the name and address of the person by whom the wearing apparel was manufactured or from whom it was received.

By "Final Order", report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with the order to cease and desist.

Issued: October 21, 1960.

By the Commission.

Title 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T.D. 55278]

PART 3—DOCUMENTATION OF VESSELS

PART 4—VESSELS IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC TRADES

Documentation of rebuilt vessels—Customs Regulations amended.

Sections 3.2, 3.28, 3.29, and 4.7, Customs Regulations, relating to the documentation and use of rebuilt vessels and reports of such rebuilding, amended.

The Act of July 5, 1960 (Pub. Law 86–583, 86th Cong.; 74 Stat. 321; T.D. 55189), further amends section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920 (46 U.S.C. 883), by amending the second proviso to prohibit the operation in the coastwise trade of any vessel of more than 500 gross tons which has been rebuilt unless the entire rebuilding, including the construction of any major components of the hull or superstructure, is effected within the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions. In order to give effect to that enactment, the following changes are made in the Customs Regulations:

Section 3.2(f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) No vessel of classes 1 through 8 above which has acquired the lawful right to engage in the coastwise trade, by virtue of having been built in or documented under the laws of the United States, shall have the right to engage in such trade if it thereafter has been sold or transferred foreign in whole or in part or placed under foreign registry (§ 3.43), or, if of more than 500 gross tons, has been rebuilt unless the entire rebuilding, including the construction of any major components of the hull or superstructure of the vessel, was effected within the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions. However, no rebuilt vessel shall be deemed to have lost its coastwise privileges within the meaning of the above merely because it may have been rebuilt within the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions under a contract executed before July 5, 1960, if the work of rebuilding is commenced not later than 24 months after such date (§ 3.28).' When a vessel has lost its coastwise privileges, no document shall be issued for the coastwise trade and any document which may be issued to such vessel for any other trade or employment shall bear the following notation: "As amended by section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act of June 5, 1920, as amended. This vessel shall not engage in the coastwise trade."

(R.S. 4132, as amended, sec. 22, 41 Stat. 997, R.S. 4136, as amended, 4214, as amended, secs. 2, 9, 39 Stat. 729, as amended, 730, as amended, sec. 27, 41 Stat. 999, as amended, secs. 2, 3, 70 Stat. 544, 72 Stat. 1736, secs. 2, 3, 4, 74 Stat. 321; 46 U.S.C. 11, 13, 14, 103, 802, 808, 883, 883a, 883b, 883–1)

Footnote 3 to § 3.2(f) is amended to read as follows:

• • • • [Sec. 1] • • • the second proviso of section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended (U.S.C., 1958 edition, title 46, sec. 883), is amended to read as follows: "Provided further, That no vessel of more than five hundred gross tons which has acquired the lawful right to engage in the coastwise trade, by virtue of having been built in or documented under the laws of the United States, and which has later been rebuilt, shall have the right thereafter to engage in the coastwise trade, unless the entire rebuilding, including the construction of any major components of the hull or superstructure of the vessel, is effected within the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions:" • • •

Sec. 4. This Act shall be effective from the time of enactment hereof: Provided, however, That no vessel shall be deemed to have lost its coastwise privileges as a result of the amendments made by this Act if it is rebuilt within the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions under a contract executed before such date of enactment and if the work of rebuilding is commenced not later than twenty-four months after such date of enactment. (Secs. 1 and 4, Act of July 5, 1960 (74 Stat. 321))

Section 3.28(b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) When a new vessel is constructed in whole or in part of material taken from an old vessel; when an existing vessel is rebuilt; when in the case of a vessel of more than 500 gross tons, an addition or change in any major component of the hull or superstructure is made and such major component was not constructed in the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions; when a vessel of more than 500 gross tons is otherwise so altered as to give rise to a reasonable belief that such vessel may have been rebuilt, unless such alteration was effected entirely in the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions; or when it is desired, in the case of an unrigged wooden vessel, other than a foreign-built vessel (class 9), that a notation be made in the publication, Merchant Vessels of the United States, as to rebuilding, the owner of the vessel shall submit through the collector of customs at the port where the vessel then is or next arrives thereafter to the Commissioner of Customs a certificate of specifications outlining the work performed on the vessel, showing the place where any such building or rebuilding was effected, and describing the extent to which old materials used were taken up, refitted, and reset or the extent to which parts of the old hull in its intact condition were used or built upon. The certificate shall be accompanied by accurate sketches or blueprints illustrating the extent of the work performed when such sketches or blueprints are available. Such certificate shall also be accompanied by a certificate of the builder, which shall be on customs Form 1261 if the vessel is claimed to be new. In the case of an unrigged wooden vessel, the shipbuilder, in addition to certifying that the vessel is rebuilt and the date of completion and place of such rebuilding, shall certify that the vessel is sound and free from rotten or doted wood in its structural parts; that it is properly fastened and calked; and that it is as good as new in strength and seaworthiness. The Commissioner of Customs shall decide whether or not the vessel is to be considered to be new or rebuilt and, if either, that decision shall be reflected on the vessel's marine document.

Section 3.28(d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) No vessel of more than 500 gross tons which has been rebuilt and has thereby lost its coastwise privileges (see sec. 3.2(f) shall be documented for nor permitted to engage in the coastwise trade.

(R.S. 4155, as amended, 4179, 37 Stat. 189, R.S. 4319, as amended, sec. 27, 41 Stat. 999, as amended, secs. 2, 3, 70 Stat. 544, secs. 2, 3, 4, 74 Stat. 321; 46 U.S.C. 25, 50, 63, 259, 883, 883a, 883b)

Section 3.29(a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) When a documented vessel is altered in form or tonnage by being lengthened, shortened, or built upon or changed from one denomination to another by a change in rig or fitting, the vessel shall cease to be deemed a vessel of the United States unless she is documented anew. Every such alteration of a vessel of more than 500 gross tons which is not effected entirely within the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions, including the construction of any major components of the hull or superstructure, shall be reported in accordance with the provisions of § 3.28(b), and the master shall submit the statement required by § 4.7(b) of this chapter.

The citation of authority for § 3.29 is amended to read:

(R.S. 4170, as amended, secs. 2, 3, 70 Stat. 544; 46 U.S.C. 39, 883a, 883b)

Section 4.7(b), subparagraphs (2) and (3) are amended to read as follows:

(2) The master of a vessel documented under the laws of the United States to engage in the foreign or coasting trade, or intended to be employed in such trade, at each port of first arrival from a foreign country shall declare on customs Form 3415 any equipment, repair part, or material purchased for the vessel, or any expense for repairs incurred, in a foreign country,[16b] within the purview of section 466, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. If no equipment has been purchased or repairs made, a declaration to that effect shall be made on customs Form 3415. If the vessel is of more than 500 gross tons, the declaration shall include a statement that no work in the nature of a rebuilding or alteration which might give rise to a reasonable belief that the vessel may have been rebuilt within the meaning of the second proviso to section 27, Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883), has been effected which has not been either previously reported or separately reported simultaneously with the filing of such declaration. The declaration shall be ready for production on demand and for inspection by the boarding officer, and shall be presented with the original manifest when formal entry of the vessel is made.

(3) The master of every American vessel of more than 500 gross tons which is altered or rebuilt, when any part of the alteration or rebuilding, including the construction of any major component of the hull or superstructure of the vessel, is effected outside the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions, shall upon the first entry of the vessel at a port of the United States thereafter report the facts and circumstances of the alteration or rebuilding of the vessel to the collector of customs at the port of entry. The report shall be accompanied by the papers required under section 3.28 of these regulations. If any such papers are not available at the time such report is made, they shall be produced to the collector concerned as soon thereafter as may be practicable but if they are not presented within 30 days, and if the delay is not explained to the satisfaction of the collector, appropriate penalty action shall be taken charging violations of the provisions of section 2 of the Act of July 14, 1956, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883a).[16c]

Footnote 16(c) appended to § 4.7(b)(3) is amended to read as follows:

[16c] * * * Sec. 2. If any vessel of more than five hundred gross tons documented under the laws of the United States, or last documented under such laws, is rebuilt, and any part of the rebuilding, including the construction of major components of the hull and superstructure of the vessel, is not effected within the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions, a report of the circumstances of such rebuilding shall be made to the Secretary of the Treasury, upon the first arrival of the vessel thereafter at a port within the customs territory of the United States, if rebuilt outside the United States, its Territories (not including trust territories), or its possessions, or, in any other case, upon completion of the rebuilding, in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe. If the required report is not made, the vessel, together with its tackle, apparel, equipment, and furniture, shall be forfeited, and the master and owner shall each be liable to a penalty of $200. Any penalty or forfeiture incurred under this Act may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary under the provisions of section 5294 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, as amended (46 U.S.C. 7). (Sec. 2, Act of July 14, 1956, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883a))

The citation of authority for § 4.7 is amended to read:

(Secs. 431, 439, 465, 581(a), 583, 46 Stat. 710, as amended, 712, as amended, 718, 747, as amended, 748, as amended, secs. 2, 3, 70 Stat. 544; 19 U.S.C. 1431, 1439, 1465, 1581(a), 1583, 46 U.S.C. 883a, 883b)

Notice of the proposal to issue the above amendments to the regulations was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 3, 1960 (25 F.R. 8549), pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003). Data, views, and arguments relating thereto which were received have been considered. The above amendments are adopted effective 30 days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

Depreciation or Amortization of Improvements Made by Lessee on Lessor's Property

On September 3, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making regarding the regulations under section 178 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, relating to depreciation or amortization of improvements made by lessee on lessor's property, and certain amendments to the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) to conform to the rules relating to depreciation or amortization of improvements made by lessee on lessor's property was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R 8550). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, the regulations as so published are hereby adopted, subject to the changes set forth below:

PARAGRAPH 1. Paragraph (b)(5) of § 1.178–1 is revised.

PAR. 2. Paragraph (c) of § 1.178–3 is revised.

(Sec. 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805))

[SEAL] CHARLES I. FOX,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: December 21, 1960.

FRED C. SCRIBNER, Jr.,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

The regulations under section 178 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 set forth in paragraph 1 are hereby prescribed.

The Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) are amended as set forth in paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 to conform to the rules relating to depreciation or amortization of improvements made by lessee on leased property prescribed under section 178.

PARAGRAPH 1. The following regulations are hereby prescribed under section 178 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954:

§ 1.178 Statutory provisions; depreciation or amortization of improvements made by lessee on lessor's property.

SEC. 178. Depreciation or amortization of improvements made by lessee on lessor's property—(a) General rule. Except as provided in subsection (b), in determining the amount allowable to a lessee as a deduction for any taxable year for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, or amortization—

(1) In respect of any building erected (or other improvement made) on the leased property, if the portion of the term of the lease (excluding any period for which the lease may subsequently be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option exercisable by the lessee) remaining upon the completion of such building or other improvement is less than 60 percent of the useful life of such building or other improvement, or

(2) In respect of any cost of acquiring the lease, if less than 75 percent of such cost is attributable to the portion of the term of the lease (excluding any period for which the lease may subsequently be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option exercisable by the lessee) remaining on the date of its acquisition,

the term of the lease shall be treated as including any period for which the lease may be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option exercisable by the lessee, unless the lessee establishes that (as of the close of the taxable year) it is more probable that the lease will not be renewed, extended, or continued for such period than that the lease will be so renewed, extended, or continued.

(b) Related lessee and lessor—(1) General rule. If a lessee and lessor are related persons (as determined under paragraph (2)) at any time during the taxable year then, in determining the amount allowable to the lessee as a deduction for such taxable year for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, or amortization in respect of any building erected (or other improvement made) on the leased property, the lease shall be treated as including a period of not less duration than the remaining useful life of such improvement.

(2) Related persons defined. For purposes of paragraph (1), a lessor and lessee shall be considered to be related persons if—

(A) The lessor and the lessee are members of an affiliated group (as defined in section 1504), or

(B) The relationship between the lessor and lessee is one described in subsection (b) of section 267, except that, for purposes of this subparagraph, the phrase "80 percent or more" shall be substituted for the phrase "more than 50 percent" each place it appears in such subsection.

For purposes of determining the ownership of stock in applying subparagraph (B), the rules of subsection (c) of section 267 shall apply, except that the family of an individual shall include only his spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants.

(c) Reasonable certainty test. In any case in which neither subsection (a) nor subsection (b) applies, the determination as to the amount allowable to a lessee as a deduction for any taxable year for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, or amortization—

(1) In respect of any building erected (or other improvement made) on the leased property, or

(2) In respect of any cost of acquiring the lease, shall be made with reference to the term of the lease (excluding any period for which the lease may subsequently be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option exercisable by the lessee), unless the lease has been renewed, extended, or continued or the facts show with reasonable certainty that the lease will be renewed, extended, or continued.

§ 1.178–1 Depreciation or amortization of improvements on leased property and cost of acquiring a lease.

(a) In general. Section 178 provides rules for determining the amount of the deduction allowable for any taxable year to a lessee for depreciation or amortization of improvements made on leased property and as amortization of the cost of acquiring a lease. For purposes of section 178 the term "depreciation" means the deduction allowable for exhaustion, wear and tear, or obsolescence under provisions of the Code such as section 167 or 611 and the regulations thereunder and the term "amortization" means the deduction allowable for amortization of buildings or other improvements made on leased property or for amortization of the cost of acquiring a lease under provisions of the Code such as section 162 or 212 and the regulations thereunder. The provisions of section 178 are applicable with respect to costs of acquiring a lease incurred, and improvements begun, after July 28, 1958, other than improvements which, on July 28, 1958, and at all times thereafter, the lessee was under a binding legal obligation to make.

(b) Determination of amount of deduction. (1) In determining the amount of the deduction allowable to a lessee (other than a lessee who is related to the lessor within the meaning of § 1.178–2) for any taxable year for depreciation or amortization of improvements made on leased property, or for amortization in respect of the cost of acquiring a lease, the term of the lease shall, except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, be treated as including all periods for which the lease may be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option or options exercisable by the lessee (whether or not specifically provided for in the lease) if—

(i) In the case of any building erected, or other improvements made, by the lessee on the leased property, the portion of the term of the lease (excluding all periods for which the lease may subsequently be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option or options exercisable by the lessee) remaining upon the completion of such building or other improvements is less than 60 percent of the estimated useful life of such building or other improvements; or

(ii) In the case of any cost of acquiring the lease, less than 75 percent of such cost is attributable to the portion of the term of the lease (excluding all periods for which the lease may be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option or options exercisable by the lessee) remaining on the date of its acquisition.

(2) The rules provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not apply if the lessee establishes that, as of the close of the taxable year, it is more probable that the lease will not be renewed, extended, or continued than that the lease will be renewed, extended,

or continued. In such case, the cost of improvements made on leased property or the cost of acquiring a lease shall be amortized over the remaining term of the lease without regard to any options exercisable by the lessee to renew, extend, or continue the lease. The probability test referred to in the first sentence of this subparagraph shall be applicable to each option period to which the lease may be renewed, extended, or continued. The establishment by a lessee as of the close of the taxable year that it is more probable that the lease will not be renewed, extended, or continued will ordinarily be effective as of the close of such taxable year and any subsequent taxable year, and the deduction for amortization will be based on the term of the lease without regard to any periods for which the lease may be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option or options exercisable by the lessee. However, in appropriate cases, if the facts as of the close of any subsequent taxable year indicate that it is more probable that the lease will be renewed, extended, or continued, the deduction for amortization (or depreciation) shall, beginning with the first day of such subsequent taxable year, be determined by including in the remaining term of the lease all periods for which it is more probable that the lease will be renewed, extended, or continued.

(3) If at any time the remaining term of the lease determined in accordance with section 178 and this section is equal to or of longer duration than the then estimated useful life of the improvements made on the leased property by the lessee, the cost of such improvements shall be depreciated over the estimated useful life of such improvements under the provisions of section 167 and the regulations thereunder.

(4) For purposes of section 178(a)(1) and this section, the date on which the building erected or other improvements made are completed is the date on which the building or improvements are usable, whether or not used.

(5)(i) For purposes of section 178(a)(2) and this section, the portion of the cost of acquiring a lease which is attributable to the term of the lease remaining on the date of its acquisition without regard to options exercisable by the lessee to renew, extend, or continue the lease shall be determined on the basis of the facts and circumstances of each case. In some cases, it may be appropriate to determine such portion of the cost of acquiring a lease by applying the principles used to measure the present value of an annuity. Where that method is used, such portion shall be determined by multiplying the cost of the lease by a fraction, the numerator comprised of a factor representing the present value of an annually recurring savings of $1 per year for the period of the remaining term of the lease (without regard to options to renew, extend, or continue the lease) at an appropriate rate of interest (determined on the basis of all the facts and circumstances in each case), and the denominator comprised of a factor representing the present value of $1 per year for the period of the remaining term of the lease including the options to renew, extend, or continue the lease at an appropriate rate of interest.

(ii) The provisions of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Lessee A acquires a lease with respect to unimproved property at a cost of $100,000 at which time there are 21 years remaining in the original term of the lease with two renewal options of 21 years each. The lease provides for a uniform annual rental for the remaining term of the lease and the renewal periods. It has been determined that this is an appropriate case for the application of the principles used to measure the present value of an annuity. Assume that in this case the appropriate rate of interest is 5 percent. By applying the tables (Inwood) used to measure the present value of an annuity of $1 per year, the factor representing the present value of $1 per annum for 21 years at 5% is ascertained to be 12.821, and the factor representing the present value of $1 per annum for 63 years at 5% is 19.075. The portion of the cost of the lease ($100,000) attributable to the remaining term of the original lease (21 years) is 67.21% or $67,210 determined as follows:

$$\frac{12.821}{19.075} \text{ or } 67.21\%.$$

(6) The provisions of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Lessee A constructs a building on land leased from lessor B. The construction is commenced on August 1, 1958, and is completed and placed in service on December 31, 1958, at which time A has 15 years remaining on his lease with an option to renew for an additional 20 years. Lessee A computes his taxable income on a calendar year basis. Lessee A was not, on July 28, 1958, under a binding legal obligation to erect the building. The building has an estimated useful life of 30 years. A is not related to B. Since the portion of the term of the lease (without regard to any renewals) remaining upon completion of the building (15 years) is less than 80 percent of the estimated useful life of the building (60 percent of 30 years, or 18 years), the term of the lease shall be treated as including the remaining portion of the original lease period and the renewal period, or 35 years. Since the estimated useful life of the building (30 years) is less than 35 years, the cost of the building shall, in accord with paragraph (b)(3) of this section, be depreciated under the provisions of section 167, over its estimated useful life. If, however, lessee A establishes, as of the close of the taxable year 1958, it is more probable that the lease will not be renewed than that it will be renewed, then in such case the remaining term of the lease shall be treated as including only the 15-year period remaining in the original lease. Since this is less than the estimated useful life of the building, the remaining cost of the building would be amortized over such 15-year period under the provisions of section 162 and the regulations thereunder.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that A has 21 years remaining on his lease with an option to renew for an additional 10 years. Section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of this section do not apply since the term of the lease remaining on the date of completion of the building (21 years) is not less than 60 percent of the estimated useful life of the building (60 percent of 30 years, or 18 years).

Example (3). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that A has no renewal option until July 1, 1961, when lessor B grants A an option to renew the lease for a 10-year period. Because there is no option to renew the lease, the term of the lease is, for the taxable years 1959 and 1960 and for the first six months of the taxable year 1961, determined without regard to section 178(a). However, as of July 1, 1961, the date the renewal option is granted, section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of this section become applicable since the portion of the term of the lease remaining upon completion of the building (15 years) was less than 60 percent of the estimated useful life of the building (60 percent of 30 years, or 18 years). As of July 1, 1961, the term of the lease shall be treated as including the remaining portion of the original lease period (12½ years) and the 10-year renewal period, or 22½ years, unless lessee A can establish that, as of the close of 1961, it is more probable that the lease will not be renewed than that it will be.

Example (4). On January 1, 1959, lessee A pays $10,000 to acquire a lease for 20 years with two options exercisable by him to renew for periods of 5 years each. Of the total $10,000 cost to acquire the lease, $7,000 was paid for the original 20-year lease period and the balance of $3,000 was paid for the renewal options. Since the $7,000 cost of acquiring the initial lease is less than 75 percent of the $10,000 cost of the lease ($7,500), the term of the lease shall be treated as including the original lease period and the 2 renewal periods, or 30 years. However, if lessee A establishes that, as of the close of the taxable year 1959, it is more probable that the lease will not be renewed than that it will be renewed, the term of the lease shall be treated as including only the original lease period, or 20 years.

Example (5). Assume the same facts as in example (4), except that the portion of the total cost ($10,000) paid for the 20-year original lease period is $8,000. Since the $8,000 cost of acquiring the original lease is not less than 75 percent of the $10,000 cost of the lease ($7,500), section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of this section do not apply.

(c) Application of section 178(a) where lessee gives notice to lessor of intention to exercise option. (1) If the lessee has given notice to the lessor of his intention to renew, extend, or continue a lease, the lessee shall, for purposes of applying the provisions of section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of this section, take into account such renewal or extension in determining the portion of the term of the lease remaining upon the completion of the improvements or on the date of the acquisition of the lease.

(2) The application of the provisions of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Lessee A constructs a building on land leased from lessor B. The construction was commenced on September 1, 1958, and was completed and placed in service on December 31, 1958. Lessee A was not, on July 28, 1958, under a binding legal obligation to erect the building. A and B are not related. At the time the building was completed (December 31, 1958), lessee A had 3 years remaining on his lease with 2 options to renew for periods of 20 years each. The estimated useful life of the building is 50 years. Prior to completion of the building, lessee A gives notice to lessor B of his intention to exercise the first 20-year option. Therefore, the portion of the term of the lease remaining on January 1, 1959, shall be the 3 years remaining in the original lease period plus the 20-year renewal period, or 23 years. Since the term of the lease remaining upon completion of the building (23 years) is less than 60 percent of the estimated useful life of the building (60 percent of 50 years, or 30 years), the provisions of section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of this section are applicable. Accordingly, the term of the lease shall be treated as including the aggregate of the remaining term of the original lease (23 years) and the second 20-year renewal period or 43 years, unless lessee A establishes that it is more probable that the lease will not be renewed, extended, or continued under the second 20-year option than that it will be so renewed, extended, or continued under such option. If this is established by lessee A, then the term of the lease shall be treated as including only the remaining portion of the original lease period and the first 20-year renewal period, or 23 years.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that the estimated useful life of the building is 30 years. Since the term of the lease remaining upon completion of the building (23 years) is not less than 60 percent of the estimated life of the building (60 percent of 30 years, or 18 years), the provisions of section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of this section do not apply.

Example (3). If in examples (1) and (2), the lessee failed to give notice of his intention to exercise the renewal option, the renewal period would not be taken into account in computing the percentage requirements under section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of this section. Thus, unless lessee A establishes the required probability, the provisions of section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of this section would apply in both examples since the term of the lease remaining upon completion of the building (3 years) is less than 60 percent of the estimated useful life of the building in either example (60 percent of 50 years, or 30 years; 60 percent of 30 years, or 18 years).

(d) Application of section 178 where lessee is related to lessor. (1)(i) If the lessee and lessor are related persons within the meaning of section 178(b)(2) and § 1.178–2 at any time during the taxable year, the lease shall be treated as including a period of not less duration than the remaining estimated useful life of improvements made by the lessee on leased property for purposes of determining the amount of deduction allowable to the lessee for such taxable year for depreciation or amortization in respect of any building erected or other improvements made on leased property. If the lessee and lessor cease to be related persons during any taxable year, then for the immediately following and subsequent taxable years during which they continue to be unrelated, the amount allowable to the lessee as a deduction shall be determined without reference to section 178(b) and in accordance with section 178(a) or section 178(c), whichever is applicable.

(ii) Although the related lessee and lessor rule of section 178(b) and § 1.178–2 does not apply in determining the period over which the cost of acquiring a lease may be amortized, the relationship between a lessee and lessor will be a significant factor in applying section 178 (a) and (c) in cases in which the lease may be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option or options exercisable by the lessee.

(2) The application of the provisions of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Lessee A constructs a building on land leased from lessor B. The construction was commenced on August 1, 1958, and was completed and put in service on December 31, 1958. Lessee A was not on July 28, 1958, under a binding legal obligation to erect the building. On the completion date of the building, lessee A had 20 years remaining in his original lease period with an option to renew for an additional 20 years. The building has an estimated useful life of 50 years. During the taxable years 1959 and 1960, A and B are related persons within the meaning of section 178(b)(2) and § 1.178–2, but they are not related persons at any time during the taxable year 1961 or during any subsequent taxable year. Since A and B are related persons during the taxable years 1959 and 1960, the term of the lease shall, for each of those years, be treated as 50 years. Section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of this section become applicable in the taxable year 1961 since A and B are not related persons at any time during that year and because the portion of the original lease period remaining at the time the building was completed (20 years) is less than 60 percent of the estimated useful life of the building (60 percent of 50 years, or 30 years). Thus, the term of the lease shall, beginning on January 1, 1961, be treated as including the remaining portion of the original lease period (18 years) and the renewal period (20 years), or 38 years, unless lessee A can establish that, as of the close of the taxable year 1961 or any subsequent taxable year, it is more probable that the lease will not be renewed than that it will be renewed.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that the estimated useful life of the building is 30 years. During the taxable years 1959 and 1960, the term of the lease shall be treated as 30 years. For the taxable year 1961, however, neither section 178(a) nor section 178(b) apply since the percentage requirement of section 178(a) and paragraph (b) of this section are not satisfied and A and B are not related persons within the meaning of section 178(b)(2) and § 1.178–2.

§ 1.178–2 Related lessee and lessor.

(a) For purposes of section 178 and § 1.178–1, a lessor and lessee shall be considered to be related persons if—

(1) The lessor and lessee are members of an affiliated group, as defined in section 1504 and the regulations thereunder; or

(2) The relationship between the lessor and lessee is one described in section 267(b), except that the phrase "80 percent or more" shall be substituted for the phrase "more than 50 percent" wherever such phrase appears in section 267(b).

(b) In the application of section 267(b) for purposes of section 178, the rules provided in section 267(c) shall apply, except that the family of an individual shall include only his spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants. Thus, if the lessee is the brother or sister of the lessor, the lessee and lessor will not be considered to be related persons for purposes of section 178 and § 1.178–1. If the lessor leases property to a corporation of which he owns 80 percent or more in value of the outstanding stock, the lessor and lessee shall be considered to be related persons. On the other hand, if the lessor leases property to a corporation of which he owns less than 80 percent in value of the outstanding stock and his brother owns the remaining stock, the lessor and lessee will not be considered to be related persons.

(c) If a relationship described in section 267(b) exists independently of family status, the brother-sister exception does not apply. For example, if the lessor leases property to the fiduciary of a trust of which he is the grantor, the lessor and lessee will be considered to be related persons for purposes of section 178. This result obtains whether or not the fiduciary is the brother or sister of the lessor since the disqualifying relationship exists because of the grantor-fiduciary status and not because of family status.

(a) In any case in which neither section 178 (a) nor (b) applies, the determination as to the amount of the deduction allowable to a lessee for any taxable year for depreciation or amortization in respect of any building erected, or other improvements made, on leased property, or in respect of any cost of acquiring a lease, shall be made with reference to the original term of the lease (excluding any period for which the lease may subsequently be renewed, extended, or continued pursuant to an option exercisable by the lessee) unless the lease has been renewed, extended, or continued, or the facts show with reasonable certainty that the lease will be renewed, extended, or continued. In a case in which the facts show with reasonable certainty that the lease will be renewed, extended, or continued, the term of the lease shall, beginning with the taxable year in which such reasonable certainty is shown, be treated as including the period or periods for which it is reasonably certain that the lease will be renewed, extended, or continued. If the lessee has given notice to the lessor of his intention to renew, extend, or continue a lease, the lease shall be considered as renewed, extended, or continued for the periods specified in the notice. See paragraph (c) of § 1.178–1.

(b) The reasonable certainty test is applicable to each option to which the lease is subject. Thus, in a case of two successive options, the facts in a particular taxable year may show with reasonable certainty that the lease will be renewed pursuant to an exercise of only the first option; and, beginning with such year, the term of the lease will be treated as including the first option, but not the second. If in a subsequent taxable year the facts show with reasonable certainty that the second option will also be exercised, the term of the lease shall, beginning with such subsequent taxable year, be treated as including both options. Although the related lessee and lessor rule of section 178(b) and paragraph (d) of § 1.178–1 does not apply in determining the period over which the cost of acquiring a lease may be amortized, the relationship between the lessee and lessor will be a significant factor in determining whether the "reasonable certainty" rule of section 178(c) and this section applies.

(c) The application of the provisions of this section may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Corporation A leases land from lessor B for a period of 30 years beginning with January 1, 1958. Corporation A and lessor B are not related persons. The lease provides that Corporation A will have two renewal options of 5 years each at the same annual rental as specified in the lease for the initial 30 years. Corporation A constructs a factory building on the leased land at a cost of $100,000. Corporation A was not, on July 28, 1958, under a binding legal obligation to erect the building. The construction was commenced on August 1, 1958, and was completed and placed in service on December 31, 1958. On January 1, 1959, Corporation A has 29 years remaining in the initial term of the lease. The estimated useful life of the building on January 1, 1959, is 40 years. The location of the leased property is particularly suitable for Corporation A's business and the annual rental of the property is lower than A would have to pay for other suitable property. No factors are present which establish that these conditions will not continue to exist beyond the initial term of the lease. Since the period remaining in the initial term of the lease on January 1, 1959 (29 years) is not less than 60 percent of the estimated useful life of the building (60 percent of 40 years, or 24 years), the provisions of section 178(a) and paragraph (b)(1) of § 1.178–1 do not apply, and since Corporation A and lessor B are not related, section 178(b) and paragraph (d) of § 1.178–1 do not apply. However, since the facts show with reasonable certainty that Corporation A will renew the lease for the period of the two options (10 years), the cost of the building shall be amortized over the term of the lease, including the two renewal options, or 39 years.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that a term of 30 years is the longest period that lessor B is willing to lease the unimproved property; that there was no agreement that Corporation A will have any renewal options; and that any other location would be as suitable for Corporation A's business as the leased property. Since the facts do not show with reasonable certainty that the initial term of the lease will be renewed, extended, or continued, Corporation A shall amortize the cost of the building over the remaining term of the lease, or 29 years.

PAR. 2. Section 1.162–11 is amended to read as follows:

(a) Acquisition of a leasehold. If a leasehold is acquired for business purposes for a specified sum, the purchaser may take as a deduction in his return an aliquot part of such sum each year, based on the number of years the lease has to run. Taxes paid by a tenant to or for a landlord for business property are additional rent and constitute a deductible item to the tenant and taxable income to the landlord, the amount of the tax being deductible by the latter. For disallowance of deduction for income taxes paid by a lessee corporation pursuant to a lease arrangement with the lessor corporation, see section 110 and the regulations thereunder. See section 178 and the regulations thereunder for rules governing the effect to be given renewal options in amortizing the costs incurred after July 28, 1958, of acquiring a lease.

(b) Improvements by lessee on lessor's property. (1) The cost to a lessee of erecting buildings or making permanent improvements on property of which he is the lessee is a capital investment, and is not deductible as a business expense. If the estimated useful life in the hands of the taxpayer of the building erected or of the improvements made, determined without regard to the terms of the lease, is longer than the remaining period of the lease, an annual deduction may be made from gross income of an amount equal to the total cost of such improvements divided by the number of years remaining in the term of the lease, and such deduction shall be in lieu of a deduction for depreciation. If, on the other hand, the useful life of such buildings or improvements in the hands of the taxpayer is equal to or shorter than the remaining period of the lease, this deduction shall be computed under the provisions of section 167 (relating to depreciation).

(2) If the lessee began improvements on leased property before July 28, 1958, or if the lessee was on such date and at all times thereafter under a binding legal obligation to make such improvements, the matter of spreading the cost of erecting buildings or making permanent improvements over the term of the original lease, together with the renewal period or periods depends upon the facts in the particular case, including the presence or absence of an obligation of renewal and the relationship between the parties. As a general rule, unless the lease has been renewed or the facts show with reasonable certainty that the lease will be renewed, the cost or other basis of the lease, or the cost of improvements shall be spread only over the number of years the lease has to run without taking into account any right of renewal. The provisions of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A subsidiary corporation leases land from its parent at a fair rental for a 25-year period. The subsidiary erects on the land valuable factory buildings having an estimated useful life of 50 years. These facts show with reasonable certainty that the lease will be renewed, even though the lease contains no option of renewal. Therefore, the cost of the buildings shall be depreciated over the estimated useful life of the buildings in accordance with section 167 and the regulations thereunder.

Example (2). A retail merchandising corporation leases land at a fair rental from an unrelated lessor for the longest period that the lessor is willing to lease the land (30 years). The lessee erects on the land a department store having an estimated useful life of 40 years. These facts do not show with reasonable certainty that the lease will be renewed. Therefore, the cost of the building shall be spread over the remaining term of the lease. An annual deduction may be made of an amount equal to the cost of the building divided by the number of years remaining in the term of the lease, and such deduction shall be in lieu of a deduction for depreciation.

(3) See section 178 and the regulations thereunder for rules governing the effect to be given renewal options where a lessee begins improvements on leased property after July 28, 1958, other than improvements which on such date and at all times thereafter, the lessee was under a binding legal obligation to make.

PAR. 3. Section 1.167(a)–4 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.167(a)–4 Leased property.

Capital expenditures made by a lessee for the erection of buildings or the construction of other permanent improvements on leased property are recoverable through allowances for depreciation or amortization. If the useful life of such improvements in the hands of the taxpayer is equal to or shorter than the remaining period of the lease, the allowances shall take the form of depreciation under section 167. See §§ 1.167(b)–0, 1, 2, 3, and 4 for methods of computing such depreciation allowances. If, on the other hand, the estimated useful life of such property in the hands of the taxpayer, determined without regard to the terms of the lease, would be longer than the remaining period of such lease, the allowances shall take the form of annual deductions from gross income in an amount equal to the unrecovered cost of such capital expenditures divided by the number of years remaining of the term of the lease. Such deductions shall be in lieu of allowances for depreciation. See section 162 and the regulations thereunder. See section 178 and the regulations thereunder for rules governing the effect to be given renewal options in determining whether the useful life of the improvement exceeds the remaining term of the lease where a lessee begins improvements on leased property after July 28, 1958, other than improvements which on such date and at all times thereafter, the lessee was under a binding legal obligation to make. Capital expenditures made by a lessor for the erection of buildings or other improvements shall, if subject to depreciation allowances, be recovered by him over the estimated life of the improvements without regard to the period of the lease.

PAR. 4. Paragraph (a)(1) of § 1.461–1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.461–1 General rule for taxable year of deduction.

(a) General rule—(1) Taxpayer using cash receipts and disbursements method. Under the cash receipts and disbursements method of accounting, amounts representing allowable deductions shall, as a general rule, be taken into account for the taxable year in which paid. Further, a taxpayer using this method may also be entitled to certain deductions in the computation of taxable income which do not involve cash disbursements during the taxable year, such as the deductions for depreciation, depletion, and losses under sections 167, 611, and 165, respectively. If an expenditure results in the creation of an asset having a useful life which extends substantially beyond the close of the taxable year, such an expenditure may not be deductible, or may be deductible only in part, for the taxable year in which made. An example is an expenditure for the construction of improvements by the lessee on leased property where the estimated life of the improvements is in excess of the remaining period of the lease. In such a case, in lieu of the allowance for depreciation provided by section 167, the basis shall be amortized ratably over the remaining period of the lease. See section 178 and the regulations thereunder for rules governing the effect to be given renewal options in determining whether the useful life of the improvements exceeds the remaining term of the lease where a lessee begins improvements on leased property after July 28, 1958, other than improvements which on such date and at all times thereafter, the lessee was under a binding legal obligation to make. See section 263 and the regulations thereunder for rules relating to capital expenditures.

SUBCHAPTER D—MISCELLANEOUS EXCISE TAXES

[T.D. 6519]

PART 40—MANUFACTURERS AND RETAILERS EXCISE TAXES

Auto Baby Seats, Auto Beds, and Auto Hammocks

In view of the fact that § 40.4061(b)–2 of the Manufacturers and Retailers Excise Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 40), relating to the definition of parts or accessories for motor vehicles, does not reflect the position followed by the Revenue Service prior to the adoption of such regulations in the case of baby seats for automobiles, automobile beds, and automobile hammocks, § 40.4061(b)–2 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(f) Effective date. Under the authority of section 7805(b), the provisions of this section shall not be applicable in respect of baby seats for automobiles, automobile beds, and automobile hammocks sold by a manufacturer, producer, or importer before July 23, 1959.

Because this Treasury decision merely prescribes the extent to which certain provisions of the Manufacturers and Retailers Excise Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 40) are to be applied without retroactive effect in respect of sales of certain articles thereby providing relief from tax in respect of such sales, it is found unnecessary to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4(c) of said Act.

[SEAL] DANA LATHAM,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: December 20, 1960.

The areas described aggregate approximately 38,537 acres.

2. The lands in T. 15 N., Rs. 94, 95, 96, and 97 W., (12706 acres) are withdrawn by Executive Order No. 5327 of April 15, 1930, for preservation of their oil shale deposits.

3. Lot 9, section 6, T. 16 N., R. 84 W., is patented.

4. The remaining lands are in part included in Coal Land Withdrawal No. 1, created by the Executive order of July 13, 1910.

5. The lands are located in southwestern Carbon County and adjoining parts of southeastern Sweetwater County, Wyoming. The region consists of rugged, stream-cut canyons and mesa-butte topography, typical of arid areas. Vegetative cover varies, all vegetative types being dominated by big sagebrush, associated in some cases with grasses and in other cases with desert shrubs.

6. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands described in paragraph 1 of this order, excepting those described in paragraphs 2 and 3 hereof, are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following, the coal lands referred to in paragraph 4, having previously been made subject to entry and selection with a reservation to the United States of their coal deposits by the act of June 22, 1910 (36 Stat. 583; 30 U.S.C. 83), as amended. Any disposals of such coal lands, therefore, shall continue to be subject to the reservation required by the said act of June 22, 1910, supra:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph:

(2) Until 10:00 a.m. on June 20, 1961, the State of Wyoming shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851, 852), and the regulations in 43 CFR.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws other than any from the State of Wyoming, presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on June 20, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, and to location under the United States mining laws.

7. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims, must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims.

Inquiries concerning the lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

GEORGE W. ABBOTT,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

Revoking Public Land Order No. 221 of April 7, 1944

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. Public Land Order No. 221 of April 7, 1944, reserving the following described lands for use in connection with the prosecution of the war is hereby revoked:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN

T. 37 S., R. 21 E.,
Sec. 3, SW¼, unsurveyed;
Sec. 10, NW¼, unsurveyed.

Aggregating 320 acres.

2. Subject to any existing valid rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of such applications, selections, and locations as may be made for unsurveyed lands in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications, selections, and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Until 10:00 a.m. on June 20, 1961, the State of Utah shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions or subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851).

(2) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on January 25, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections and offers filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands will be open to location under the United States mining laws, beginning 10:00 a.m. on June 20, 1961.

Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims.

Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Salt Lake City, Utah.

GEORGE W. ABBOTT,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

The area described contains approximately 3 acres.

2. In Parcel 18, the following-described lands, totaling 61.04 acres, have been patented: U.S. Survey No. 1380; U.S. Survey No. 1540; U.S. Survey No. 1541. The following are included in Color-of-Title Claims: U.S. Survey No. 1542 (Anchorage 045501); U.S. Survey No. 1543 (Anchorage 044985; Anchorage 045638). Parcel 35 is withdrawn by Executive Order No. 8278 of October 28, 1939, as amended, for use of the Department of the Navy, for military purposes.

3. Ismailof Island is situated off-shore of Halibut Cove in Kachemak Bay, approximately 10 miles southeast of the Homer Spit.

4. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the unreserved, unappropriated public lands are hereby opened to settlement, and to filing of applications, selections and locations as are allowable on unsurveyed lands, in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, may be presented to the Manager mentioned below beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) Until 10:00 a.m. on March 22, 1961, the State of Alaska shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Act of July 28, 1956 (70 Stat. 709; 48 U.S.C. 46-3b), and section 6(g) of the Alaska Statehood Act of July 7, 1958 (72 Stat. 339).

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws other than from the State of Alaska presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on January 25, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws. They will be open to settlement under the homestead and Alaska homesite laws, and location under the United States mining laws, beginning at 10:00 a.m. on March 22, 1961.

5. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims.

Inquiries concerning the lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Anchorage, Alaska.

GEORGE W. ABBOTT,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

SUBCHAPTER B—REGULATIONS AFFECTING MARITIME CARRIERS AND RELATED ACTIVITIES

[Docket No. 859; General Order 69, Amdt. 2]

PART 226—FREE TIME AND DEMURRAGE CHARGES ON IMPORT PROPERTY APPLICABLE TO ALL COMMON CARRIERS BY WATER

Interpretation and Discontinuance of Rule Making Procedure

The procedure instituted by notice of proposed rule making in the above subject matter under Docket No. 859, which appeared in the FEDERAL REGISTER issue of July 25, 1959 (24 F.R. 5973), is hereby discontinued.

Part 226 is hereby amended by adding the following new section and center heading:

INTERPRETATION

§ 226.2 Applicability of decision and order.

This part is interpreted by the Federal Maritime Board to bar common carriers by water from assessing demurrage or storage charges against import property at New York for any period during which they are unable to deliver such property because of a strike by longshoremen, regardless of whether the cargo has been made available for delivery during the entire prescribed period of free time.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

Dated: December 15, 1960.

Proposed Rule Making

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

[26 CFR (1954) Part 1]

INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: T:P, Washington 25, D.C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any person submitting written comments or suggestions who desires an opportunity to comment orally at a public hearing on these proposed regulations should submit his request, in writing, to the Commissioner within the 30-day period. In such a case, a public hearing will be held, and notice of the time, place, and date will be published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805).

[SEAL] CHARLES I. FOX,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The following regulations are hereby prescribed under section 381(c)(11) (contributions to pension plans, employees' annuity plans, and stock bonus and profit-sharing plans) and (20) (carryover of unused pension trust deductions in certain cases). The regulations under section 381(c)(11) shall apply to liquidations and reorganizations, the tax treatment of which is determined under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The regulations under section 381(c)(20) are applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending after August 16, 1954.

Sec.

1.381(c)(11) Statutory provisions; carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions; items of the distributor or transferor corporation; contributions to pension plans, employees' annuity plans, and stock bonus and profit-sharing plans.

1.381(c)(11)-1 Contributions to pension plans, employees' annuity plans, and stock bonus and profit-sharing plans.

1.381(c)(20) Statutory provisions; carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions; items of the distributor or transferor corporation; carryover of unused pension trust deductions in certain cases.

§ 1.381(c)(11) Statutory provisions; carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions; items of the distributor or transferor corporation; contributions to pension plans, employees' annuity plans, and stock bonus and profit-sharing plans.

SEC. 381. Carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions. * * *

(c) Items of the distributor or transferor corporation. The items referred to in subsection (a) are:

* * * * *

(11) Contributions to pension plans, employees' annuity plans, and stock bonus and profit-sharing plans. The acquiring corporation shall be considered to be the distributor or transferor corporation after the date of distribution or transfer for the purpose of determining the amounts deductible under section 404 with respect to pension plans, employees' annuity plans, and stock bonus and profit-sharing plans.

§ 1.381(c)(11)-1 Contributions to pension plans, employees' annuity plans, and stock bonus and profit-sharing plans.

(a) Carryover requirement. Section 381(c)(11) provides that, for purposes of determining amounts deductible under section 404 for any taxable year, the acquiring corporation shall be considered after the date of distribution or transfer to be the distributor or transferor corporation in respect of any pension, annuity, stock bonus, or profit-sharing plan.

(b) Nature of carryover. (1) Primarily, section 381(c)(11) and this section apply to the amount of any unused deductions or excess contributions carryovers which, in the absence of the transaction causing section 381 to apply, would have been available to the distributor or transferor corporation under section 404. Thus, for example, this section applies to unused deductions under a profit-sharing or stock bonus trust which, in accordance with the second sentence of section 404(a)(3)(A) and § 1.404(a)-9, would have been available in succeeding taxable years to the transferor corporation if the transfer of assets to the acquiring corporation had not occurred.

(2) Section 381(c)(11) also permits or requires the acquiring corporation to be treated as though it were the distributor or transferor corporation for the purpose of satisfying any conditions which would have been required of the distributor or transferor corporation in the absence of the distribution or transfer, so that it may be determined whether the distributor or transferor corporation, or the acquiring corporation, is entitled to take a deduction under section 404 in respect of a trust or plan established by the distributor or transferor corporation. Thus, for example, in a case when the taxable year of the transferor corporation ends on the date of transfer pursuant to section 381(b)(1), that corporation is entitled, pursuant to the provisions of section 404(a)(6) and paragraph (c) of § 1.404(a)-1, to a deduction in such taxable year for a payment to a qualified trust of that corporation made by the acquiring corporation after the close of such taxable year but within the time specified in section 404(a)(6). In further illustration, if the transferor corporation were to establish a qualified plan, and if the plan were maintained as a qualified plan by the acquiring corporation, then any contributions paid under the plan by the acquiring corporation (other than those which are deductible by the transferor corporation by reason of section 404(a)(6)) would be deductible under section 404 by the acquiring corporation even though the plan were exclusively for the benefit of former employees of the transferor corporation. Also, for example, if the transferor corporation were to adopt an annuity plan during its taxable year ending on the date of transfer, the acquiring corporation would be entitled, subject to the provisions of section 401(b) and § 1.401-5, to amend the plan so as to make it retroactively satisfy the requirements of section 401(a)(3), (4), (5), and (6) for the period beginning with the date on which the plan was put into effect.

(c) Taxable year of deduction. The first taxable year of the acquiring corporation in which any amount shall be allowed as a deduction to that corporation by reason of section 381(c)(11) and this section shall be its first taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer.

(d) Requirements for deductions. (1) In order for any amount paid by the acquiring corporation (other than amounts deductible under section 404(a)(5)) to be deductible by the acquiring corporation by reason of this section in respect of a trust or nontrusteed annuity plan which is established by a distributor or transferor corporation and maintained by the acquiring corporation, the contributions must be paid (or deemed to have been paid under section 404(a)(6)) by the acquiring corporation in a taxable year of that corporation which ends with or within a year of the trust for which it is exempt under section 501(a), or, in the case of a nontrusteed annuity plan, for which it meets the requirements of section 404(a)(2). See, however, section 404(a)(4) and § 1.404(a)-11 for rules relating to deductions for contributions to foreign-situs trusts. The trust or plan which is established by the distributor or transferor corporation and maintained by the acquiring corporation may separately satisfy the requirements of section 401(a) or section 404(a)(2) or may, together with other trusts or plans of the acquiring corporation, constitute a single plan which qualifies under section 401(a) or meets the requirements of section 404(a)(2).

(2) Excess contributions paid under a qualified trust or plan established by the transferor or distributor corporation may be carried over and, subject to the applicable limitations, deducted by the acquiring corporation in a taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer regardless of whether the trust is exempt, or the plan meets the requirements of section 404(a)(2), during such taxable year. There are, however, special rules for computing the limitations on the amount of excess contributions which are deductible in a taxable year ending after the trust or plan has terminated (see § 1.404(a)-7, paragraph (e) of § 1.404(a)-9, and paragraph (a) of § 1.404(a)-13). For this purpose, the pension, annuity, stock bonus, or profit-sharing plan of the distributor or transferor corporation under which the excess contributions were made shall be considered continued (and not terminated) by the acquiring corporation if, after the date of distribution or transfer, the acquiring corporation continues the plan as a separate and distinct plan of its own which continues to qualify under section 401(a), or to meet the requirements of section 404(a)(2), or consolidates or replaces that plan with a comparable plan. See subparagraph (4) of this paragraph for rules relating to what constitutes a "comparable" plan.

(3) In order for any amount paid by the acquiring corporation to be deductible by the acquiring corporation as an unused deduction carried over from a qualified profit-sharing or stock bonus trust established by a distributor or transferor corporation, the acquiring corporation must continue such trust established by the distributor or transferor corporation as a separate and distinct trust of its own which continues to qualify under section 401(a), or must consolidate or replace that trust with a comparable trust. In addition the amount paid by the acquiring corporation will be deductible as an unused deduction carried over from the transferor or distributor corporation only if it is paid into the profit-sharing or stock bonus trust established by the transferor or distributor corporation, or the comparable trust, in a taxable year of the acquiring corporation which ends with or within a year of such trust (or such comparable trust) for which it meets the requirements of section 401(a) and is exempt under section 501(a). See subparagraph (4) of this paragraph for rules relating to what constitutes a "comparable" trust.

(4) For purposes of subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, a plan under which deductions are determined pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of section 404(a) shall be considered comparable to another plan under which deductions are determined pursuant to either of those paragraphs, and a plan under which deductions are determined pursuant to paragraph (3) of section 404(a) shall be considered comparable to another plan under which deductions are determined pursuant to such paragraph (3). Thus, a profit-sharing plan (which qualifies under section 401(a)) established by the transferor or distributor corporation shall, for purposes of subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, be considered terminated if, after the date of distribution or transfer, the acquiring corporation transfers the funds accumulated under the profit-sharing plan into a pension plan covering the same employees. In such a case, excess contributions paid under the profit-sharing plan by the distributor or transferor corporation may be carried over and deducted by the acquiring corporation in a taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer subject to the limitations in section 404(a)(3)(A) computed in accordance with the rules in paragraph (e)(2) of § 1.404(a)-9 for computing limitations when a profit-sharing plan has terminated. On the other hand, unused deductions attributable to the profit-sharing plan may not be carried over and used by the acquiring corporation as a basis for deducting amounts contributed by it to the pension plan.

(e) Effect of consolidation or replacement of plan on prior contributions. If a pension, annuity, stock bonus, or profit-sharing plan which was established by a distributor or transferor corporation is terminated after the date of distribution or transfer because of consolidation or replacement with a comparable plan of the acquiring corporation, then the contributions paid to or under its plan by the distributor or transferor corporation on or before the date of distribution or transfer shall not be disallowed under section 404 merely because of the termination of the plan which was established by that corporation, provided that the termination does not cause the plan to fail to qualify under section 401(a).

(f) Amounts deductible under section 404. Section 381(c)(11) and this section apply only to amounts which are otherwise deductible under section 404 and the regulations thereunder. See §§ 1.404(a) through 1.404(d)-1. Thus, to be deductible by reason of this section, contributions paid by the acquiring corporation must be expenses which otherwise satisfy the conditions of section 162 (relating to trade or business expenses). No deduction shall be allowed by reason of section 381(c)(11) and this section for a contribution which is allowable under section 162 but is not allowable under section 404. Thus, the acquiring corporation shall not be allowed a deduction by reason of this section in respect of a plan established by a distributor or transferor corporation if the contribution would not otherwise be deductible under section 404 by reason of section 404(c) and § 1.404(c)-1. On the other hand, any unused deductions or excess contributions of a distributor or transferor corporation which are carried over from 1939 Code years shall be deductible by the acquiring corporation if the requirements of this section, section 404(d), and § 1.404(d)-1 are satisfied.

(g) Cost of past service credits. In computing the cost of past service credits under a plan with respect to employees of the distributor or transferor corporation, the acquiring corporation may include the cost of credits for periods during which the employees were in the service of the distributor or transferor corporation.

(h) Separate carryovers required. The excess contributions which are available to a distributor or transferor corporation under the provisions of section 404(a)(1)(D) and section 404(a)(3)(A) at the close of the date of distribution or transfer and are carried over to the acquiring corporation under this section shall be kept separate and distinct from each other and from any excess contributions which are available to the distributor or transferor corporation at that time under the provisions of section 404(a)(7) and are carried over to the acquiring corporation under this section. If there are excess contributions carried over to the acquiring corporation from more than one transferor or distributor corporation, the excess contributions of each transferor or distributor corporation shall be kept separate and distinct from those of the other transferor or distributor corporations and, with respect to each such transferor or distributor corporation, shall be kept separate and distinct as provided in the preceding sentence. See, however, paragraph (i) of this section for rules for applying the provisions of section 404(a)(3)(A) when the acquiring corporation maintains two or more profit-sharing or stock bonus trusts, one or more of which was established by a distributor or transferor corporation. The requirements in this paragraph shall apply with respect to any excess contributions which are carried over to the acquiring corporation from a distributor or transferor corporation under the provisions of section 404(d) and this section.

(i) Limitations applicable to profit-sharing or stock bonus trusts. When contributions are paid by the acquiring corporation after the date of distribution or transfer to two or more profit-sharing or stock bonus trusts, and one or more of such trusts was established by a distributor or transferor corporation, such trusts shall be considered as a single trust in applying the provisions of section 404(a)(3)(A) under this section. Accordingly, in determining its secondary limitation, and its excess contributions carryover, under section 404(a)(3)(A) and § 1.404(a)-9 in any taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer, the acquiring corporation shall take into accounts its primary limitations, and the deductions allowed or allowable to it, for all prior years under the limitations provided in those sections, and also the primary limitations of, and deductions allowed or allowable to, the distributor or transferor corporation or corporations for all prior years under the limitations provided in those sections.

(j) Successive carryovers. The provisions of section 381(c)(11) and this section shall apply to an acquiring corporation which, in a distribution or transfer to which section 381(a) applies, acquires the assets of a distributor or transferor corporation which has previously acquired the assets of another corporation in a transaction to which section 381(a) applies, even though, in computing an unused deductions or excess contributions carryover to the second acquiring corporation, it is necessary to take into account contributions paid by, and limitations applicable to, the first distributor or transferor corporation.

(k) Information to be furnished by acquiring corporation. The acquiring corporation shall furnish such information with respect to a plan established by a distributor or transferor corporation as will, consistently with the principles of § 1.404(a)-2, establish that the provisions of section 404 and this section apply. For purposes of this section, the district director may require any other information that he considers necessary to determine deductions allowable under section 404 and this section or qualification under section 401. Any unused deductions or excess contributions carried over from a distributor or transferor corporation pursuant to this section shall be properly identified with the corporation which would have been permitted to use those deductions or contributions in the absence of the transaction causing section 381 to apply.

(l) Illustration. The application of this section may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. In 1955, X Corporation, which makes its return on the basis of the calendar year, paid $600,000 to completely fund past service credits under a qualified pension plan and deducted 10 percent ($40,000) of that cost in each of the taxable years 1955, 1956, and 1957. The pension plan established by X Corporation had an anniversary date of January 1. On December 31, 1957, on which date the undeducted part of the cost amounted to $280,000, X Corporation transferred all its assets to Y Corporation in a statutory merger to which section 361 applies. Y Corporation, which also makes its return on the basis of the calendar year, had a qualified pension plan and trust which also had an anniversary date of January 1. Since Y Corporation had many more employees than X Corporation on the date of transfer, it covered the former employees of X Corporation under its own plan. Y Corporation is entitled to deductions under section 404(a)(1)(D) and this section in 1958 and succeeding taxable years, in order of time, with respect to the undeducted balance of $280,000, to the extent of the difference between the amount paid and deductible by that corporation in each such taxable year and the maximum amount deductible by that corporation for such taxable year in accordance with the applicable limitations of section 404(a)(1). In computing the maximum amount deductible by Y Corporation for 1958 and 1959 under section 404(a)(1)(C), that corporation may include $40,000 for each year, the amount that X Corporation could have included for each of those years in computing the maximum amount that would have been deductible by X Corporation under section 404(a)(1)(C) if the merger had not occurred. Thus, assuming that Y Corporation's appropriate limitation so computed under section 404(a)(1)(C) is $1,000,000 (including the $40,000 carried over from X Corporation under this section) for each of those taxable years, and that Y Corporation contributed $925,000 to its trust in 1958 and $975,000 in 1959, then Y Corporation is entitled under section 404(a)(1)(D) and this section to deduct in 1958 $75,000, and in 1959 $25,000, of the amount ($280,000) carried over from X Corporation. The undeducted balance of such amount ($180,000) available to Y Corporation on December 31, 1959, would be deductible by that corporation in succeeding taxable years in accordance with section 404(a)(1)(D) and this section.

§ 1.381(c)(20) Statutory provisions; carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions; items of the distributor or transferor corporation; carryover of unused pension trust deductions in certain cases.

SEC. 381. Carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions. • • •

(c) Items of the distributor or transferor corporation. The items referred to in subsection (a) are:

• • • • • •

(20) Carry-over of unused pension trust deductions in certain cases. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, or section 394(a), a corporation which has acquired the properties and assumed the liabilities of a wholly owned subsidiary shall be considered to have succeeded to and to be entitled to take into account contributions of the subsidiary to a pension plan, and shall be considered to be the distributor or transferor corporation after the date of distribution or transfer (but not for taxable years with respect to which this paragraph does not apply) for the purpose of determining the amounts deductible under section 404 with respect to contributions to a pension plan if—

(A) The corporate laws of the State of incorporation of the subsidiary required the surviving corporation in the case of merger to be incorporated under the laws of the State of incorporation of the subsidiary, and

(B) The properties were acquired in a liquidation of the subsidiary in a transaction subject to section 112(b)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

Subpart A—Introductory Provisions

§ 47.0–1 Introduction.

(a) In general. The regulations in this part (Part 47, Subchapter D, Chapter I, Title 26 (1954) Code of Federal Regulations) are designated "Documentary Stamp Tax Regulations". The regulations relate to the taxes imposed by chapter 34 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and to certain related administrative provisions of subtitle F of such Code. Chapter 34 of the Code imposes a tax on the issuance and on the sale or transfer of shares or certificates of stock or certificates of indebtedness, on conveyances of realty, and on policies issued by foreign insurers. References in these regulations to the "Internal Revenue Code" or the "Code" are references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, unless otherwise indicated. References to a section or other provision of law are references to a section or other provision of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, unless otherwise indicated.

(b) Division of regulations. The regulations in this part are divided into 10 subparts. Subpart A contains provisions relating to the arrangement and numbering of the sections of the regulations in this part, general definitions and use of terms, scope of regulations, and the extent to which the regulations in this part supersede prior regulations relating to the excise taxes imposed by chapter 34 of the Internal Revenue Code. The other subparts of the regulations in this part and the subject matter to which they relate are as follows:

Subpart B—Tax on issuance of capital stock and similar interests

Subpart C—Tax on issuance of certificates of indebtedness

Subpart D—Tax on sales or transfers of capital stock and similar interests

Subpart E—Tax on sales or transfers of certificates of indebtedness

Subpart F—Provisions common to sales or transfers of capital stock and certificates of indebtedness

Subpart G—Tax on conveyances

Subpart H—Tax on policies issued by foreign insurers

Subpart I—Miscellaneous provisions applicable to documentary stamp taxes

Subpart J—Administrative provisions applicable to documentary stamp taxes

(c) Arrangement and numbering. Each section of the regulations in Subpart B through Subpart J is preceded by the section, subsection, or paragraph of the Internal Revenue Code which it interprets. The sections of the regulations can readily be distinguished from the sections of the Code since—

(1) The sections of the regulations are printed in larger type;

(2) The sections of the regulations are preceded by a section symbol and the part number, arabic numeral 47 followed by a decimal point (§ 47.); and

(3) The sections of the Code are preceded by "Sec.".

Each section of the regulations setting forth law or regulation is designated by a number composed of the part number followed by a decimal point (47.) and the number of the corresponding provision of the Internal Revenue Code. In the case of a section setting forth regulations, this designation is followed by a hyphen (-) and a number identifying such section.

§ 47.0–2 General definitions and use of terms.

(a) In general. As used in the regulations in this part, unless otherwise expressly indicated—

(1) The terms defined in the provisions of law contained in the regulations in this part shall have the meanings so assigned to them.

(2) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954 means the Act approved August 16, 1954 (68a Stat.), entitled "An Act to revise the internal revenue laws of the United States", as amended.

(3) District director means district director of internal revenue. The term also includes the Director of International Operations in all cases where the authority to perform the functions which may be performed by a district director has been delegated to the Director of International Operations.

(4) The terms "stamp tax" and "stamp taxes" generally mean any one or all of the stamp taxes which constitute the subject of the regulations in this part.

(5) The term "documentary stamps" means all stamps issued for use in payment of stamp taxes imposed by chapter 34 of the Internal Revenue Code, including stamps issued by authorized meter machines. See § 47.6801–1.

(6) The cross references in the regulations in this part to other portions of the regulations, when the word "see" is used, are made only for convenience and shall be given no legal effect.

(b) Cross references. For other definitions, see section 4381, § 47.4381–1, and section 7701 (§ 47.7701).

§ 47.0–3 Scope of regulations.

The regulations in this part relate to the documentary stamp taxes referred to in subparts B through H (see paragraph (b) of § 47.0–1) and, except where otherwise specifically provided, have application to transactions occurring on or after January 1, 1959. The provisions of the Internal Revenue Code set forth in the regulations in this part are, unless otherwise indicated, provisions of law in effect on January 1, 1959.

§ 47.0–4 Extent to which the regulations in this part supersede prior regulations.

The regulations in this part, with respect to the subject matter within the scope thereof, suspersede the Documentary Stamp Tax Regulations contained in Part 43 of this chapter.

Subpart B—Tax on Issuance of Capital Stock and Similar Interests

§ 47.4301 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

Sec. 4301 Imposition of tax. There is hereby imposed, on each original issue of shares or certificates of stock issued by a corporation (whether on organization or reorganization), a tax at the rate of 10 cents on each $100 (or major fraction thereof) of the actual value of the certificates (or of the shares where no certificates are issued); except that such rate shall be 4 cents instead of 10 cents in the case of shares or certificates issued by a corporation to which subchapter M of chapter 1 applies for the taxable year during which such share or certificate is issued. The tax imposed by this section shall be computed on the basis of all certificates (or shares) so issued by the corporation on each day.

[Sec. 4301 as amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959, and as further amended by Act of Apr. 8, 1960 (Pub. Law 86–416, 74 Stat. 36)]

§ 47.4301–1 Imposition of the tax on original issue of stock.

(a) Scope of tax—(1) In general. Section 4301 imposes a tax on each original issue of shares or certificates of stock issued by a domestic corporation. See section 4381(b) and paragraph (b) of § 47.4381–1 and section 4381(c) and paragraph (c) of § 47.4381–1, respectively, for definitions of the terms "corporation" and "shares or certificates of stock". In the case of subscriptions, stock is deemed to be issued when the subscription is accepted. The tax applies to each original issue of the shares or certificates, whether upon organization, reorganization, or otherwise, regardless of the purpose of the issue, the person to whom issued, or the time of delivery. Thus, the tax applies to shares or certificates issued in a recapitalization where the recapitalization results in the dedication of an amount as capital for the first time (see § 47.4302–1).

(2) Original issue. An original issue of stock means any issue of shares or certificates of stock which reflects in whole or in part the addition of an amount to the capital stock account.

(b) Rate and computation of tax—(1) Rate of tax—(i) In general. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, the rate of tax is 10 cents on each $100 (or major fraction thereof) of the actual value of the certificates (or of the shares where no certificates are issued).

(ii) Regulated investment companies. In the case of shares or certificates issued on or after April 9, 1960, by a corporation to which subchapter M of chapter 1 of the Code applies for the taxable year during which such shares or certificates are issued, the rate of tax is 4 cents on each $100 (or major fraction thereof) of the actual value of the certificates (or of the shares where no certificates are issued). The term "taxable year", as used in this subdivision, has the same meaning as when used in subchapter M of chapter 1 of the Code and the regulations thereunder. In the case of a newly created company which has filed its notification of registration with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940, the 4-cent rate will apply if—

(a) The company has notified its stockholders in writing that it intends to elect to be taxed, for Federal income tax purposes, as a regulated investment company, and

(b) The company qualifies to be taxed as a regulated investment company for the taxable year. If tax is computed at the 4-cent rate in respect of shares or certificates issued by a newly created company, or by a company which qualified as a regulated investment company for one or more taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year in which the shares or certificates were issued, such shares or certificates shall be subject to tax at the 10-cent rate if the company fails to qualify as a regulated investment company for such taxable year.

(iii) Major fraction. A major fraction of $100 is any amount in excess of $50 and less than $100.

(2) Computation of tax—(i) In general. A single computation of tax must be made with respect to the certificates (and shares which are not represented by certificates) issued by a corporation on each day. The amount of tax imposed under section 4301 in respect of shares or certificates issued by a corporation on a particular day is computed by ascertaining the actual value of all certificates (and shares which are not represented by certificates) issued on such day and applying to such actual value the applicable rate of tax.

(ii) Actual value. (a) In general, the actual value of stock is the fair market value of the stock. Fair market value of stock is considered to be the price agreed upon by the parties to the issuance to be paid for the stock unless the price includes property or services or the issuance transaction is not an arm's length transaction or is subject to special conditions which result in a price not reflecting the value of the stock as such value would be determined by reference to the mean selling price of the stock on the open market or to all the facts and circumstances of the case. In the absence of a price agreed upon by the parties or if the price agreed upon includes property or services, results from a transaction not at arm's length, or is affected by special conditions, the fair market value of each share of stock issued on a particular day shall be considered to be the mean between the high and low selling prices of the stock on the open market for such day. Thus, the price to be paid for stock to be issued by reason of the exercise of a stock option in a case where the option price is less than the mean selling price of the stock on the open market may not be used in ascertaining the value of the stock so issued for the reason that the transaction is subject to special conditions which result in the option price not reflecting the mean selling price of the stock. If the fair market value of the stock cannot be determined by reference to the price of the stock agreed upon by the parties or the mean between the high and low selling prices thereof on the open market, the fair market value shall be determined on the basis of all the facts and circumstances of the particular case.

(b) In the case of a unit offering by a corporation, as, for example, a share of stock and a certificate of indebtedness, the fair market value of the stock shall be considered to be the mean between the high and low selling prices of the stock on the open market for the day of issuance if such stock is being traded on the open market other than as a part of such a unit offering. Thus, the actual value and the face value of the certificate of indebtedness are to be disregarded for purposes of determining the value of the stock. If the fair market value of the stock cannot be determined by reference to the mean between the high and low selling prices thereof on the open market, the fair market value shall be determined on the basis of all the facts and circumstances of the particular case. The provisions of this subdivision (b) shall have application only to shares or certificates of stock, constituting a part of a unit offering, issued on or after the tenth day following the date of publication of the regulations in this part in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 47.4301–2 Illustrations.

(a) Issues subject to tax. The following are examples of issues subject to the tax:

(1) Certificates or shares representing beneficial interests in any organization which is a corporation within the meaning of section 4381(b) or section 7701(a)(3).

(2) Stock issued for property, real or personal, or for the purpose of purchasing a business.

(3) Stock issued by joint-stock land banks.

(4) Stock issued as a dividend. (For limitation of tax, see § 47.4302–1.)

(5) Temporary or interim certificates.

(6) The issue of a fractional share, or a certificate for a fractional share, of stock (see, however, paragraph (b)(6) of this section).

(7) Stock issued upon exercise of a warrant or rights entitling the holder to subscribe for unissued stock (see paragraph (a) of § 47.4321–3).

(8) Stock issued in connection with a consolidation by a consolidated corporation in exchange for stock of the consolidating corporations whether issued directly to the consolidating corporations or to the stockholders of the consolidating corporations (see also paragraph (a)(9) of § 47.4321–2 relating to the imposition of the stock transfer tax where the stock is issued directly to the stockholders). For exemption from tax in respect of issuances of stock to make effective a plan of reorganization or adjustment whereby a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization is affected, see paragraph (d) of § 47.4382–1.

(9) Stock issued in connection with a merger by the continuing corporation whether issued directly to the merging corporation or to the stockholders of the merging corporation (see also paragraph (a)(9) of § 47.4321–2) and stock issued to the stockholders of the continuing corporation in a recapitalization under section 4302 which results in the dedication of an amount as capital which amount is so dedicated for the first time. For exemption from tax in respect of issuances of stock to make effective a plan of reorganization or adjustment whereby a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization is effected, see paragraph (d) of § 47.4382–1.

(10) Stock issued outside the United States by a domestic corporation.

(11) A business property investment certificate, wherein it is certified that the holder thereof is the owner of an interest in certain specified property, legal title to which has been previously conveyed to a trustee, and whereby the issuing corporation agrees to manage the property and distribute the proceeds.

(12) Stock issued where the capital stock account, although not increased at the time of such issuance, was previously increased by a dedication of an amount as capital for the first time which was not accompanied by an issuance of shares or certificates of stock and with respect to which there has been no other issuance of shares or certificates of stock.

(b) Issues not subject to tax. In addition to the various issues specifically exempt under sections 4303 and 4382, the following are examples of issues not subject to the tax:

(1) The issue of warrants or rights to subscribe for unissued stock (see, however, § 47.4321–3).

(2) The issue of certificates of stock in exchange for outstanding certificates representating the same stock as, for instance, to reflect a change in the name of the issuing corporation or to secure several certificates for one certificate, or vice versa.

(3) The issue of voting-trust certificates.

(4) The issue of definitive certificates of stock in exchange for temporary or interim certificates upon the issuance of which the tax has been paid.

(5) The issue of stock in a recapitalization or reorganization where there is no dedication of additional capital, either by transfer of earned surplus or otherwise (see, however, paragraph (b) of § 47.4302–1).

(6) Stock issued on the surrender of fractional shares or certificates for fractional shares of stock (see, however, paragraph (a)(6) of this section).

(7) The issue in the United States of stock of a foreign corporation.

(8) The issue of stock to effect a mere split in outstanding shares without any increase in the issuing corporation's capital stock account. See, however, paragraph (a)(12) of this section.

(9) The issue of one type of stock for another type of stock and in which the new stock does not reflect the addition of an amount to the capital stock account.

§ 47.4302 Statutory provisions; stock issued in recapitalization.

SEC. 4302 Recapitalization. In the case of a recapitalization, the tax imposed by section 4301 shall be that proportion of the tax computed on the certificates (or on the shares where no certificates are issued) issued in the recapitalization that (1) the amount dedicated as capital for the first time by the recapitalization, whether by a transfer of earned surplus or otherwise, bears to (2) the total actual value of such certificates or shares issued in the recapitalization.

§ 47.4302–1 Limitation on tax in case of recapitalization.

(a) In general. Where stock is issued in a recapitalization, the tax payable is that proportion of the total tax imposed by section 4301 computed with respect to all the shares or certificates issued in the recapitalization that the amount dedicated as capital for the first time by the recapitalization, whether by a transfer of earned surplus or otherwise, bears to the total actual value of the shares or certificates so issued.

(b) Dedication of capital for first time. A tax is not payable with respect to stock issued in a recapitalization unless the recapitalization results in the dedication of an amount as capital which amount is so dedicated for the first time. Thus, where a corporation transferred an amount from the capital stock account to capital surplus in a prior recapitalization, and such corporation in a subsequent or second recapitalization transfers such amount from capital surplus to the capital stock account under such circumstances that the amount so restored to the capital stock account is clearly identifiable, a tax is not payable with respect to the amount so rededicated as capital. If the amount transferred to the capital stock account from capital surplus cannot be clearly identified as having been previously dedicated to the capital stock account, the portion of the amount so transferred which is attributable to the amount in capital surplus not previously dedicated to capital is considered to be the amount dedicated to capital for the first time, and tax will be imposed with respect thereto. The amount so transferred which is attributable to the amount in capital surplus not previously dedicated to capital is that proportion of the total amount so transferred that the amount in the capital surplus account before such transferred not previously dedicated to capital bears to the total amount in the capital surplus account before such transfer not preals payable with respect to a transfer of capital surplus to the capital stock account by way of a recapitalization where the amount so transferred can be clearly identified as not having been previously dedicated as capital.

(c) Examples of computation of tax in a recapitalization. The computation of tax in a recapitalization may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Corporation A has outstanding 10,000 shares of common stock having a stated value of $50 per share and has an earned surplus of $1,500,000. Corporation A declares a stock dividend of one share for each share outstanding and issues shares pursuant thereto. As a part of the transaction, $500,000 is transferred from earned surplus to the capital stock account. The actual value of the 10,000 shares issued in the recapitalization is $2,000,000, and the tax computed on $2,000,000 would be $2,000. $\frac{$500,000}{$2,000,000} \times $2,000$ or $500 is the portion of the tax computed on the shares issued in the recapitalization which is considered under section 4302 to be attributable to the amount dedicated to capital for the first time. The tax imposed on the shares issued in such recapitalization is, therefore, $500.

Example (2). Corporation B has outstanding 1,000 shares of no par common stock with a stated value of $20 per share which is shown in the capital stock account in the amount of $20,000. Corporation B also maintains an account designated "capital surplus" which consists of $100,000, of which $75,000 is attributable to paid-in-surplus and $25,000 is attributable to a reduction in the capital stock account. Corporation B issues to its shareholders for each share outstanding one additional share of no par common stock and one share of preferred stock having a par value of $30 per share, for which each shareholder pays the corporation $5 for each share held by him. As a part of such transaction, the capital stock account is increased to $60,000, consisting of $5,000 received from the shareholders, the transfer of $25,000 from capital surplus, and the transfer of $10,000 from earned surplus. The stated value of the no par common stock is reduced from $20 per share to $15 per share. Since $75,000 of the amount in the capital surplus account has not been previously dedicated to the capital stock account, $\frac{$75,000}{$100,000}$ or ¾ of $25,000 ($18,750) is the portion of the amount transferred to the capital stock account from capital surplus considered to be dedicated to capital for the first time. The $10,000 transferred from earned surplus and the $5,000 received from shareholders are clearly identified as having never been previously taxed. The total amount, therefore, considered to be dedicated to capital for the first time is $33,750. The 2,000 shares of stock issued have an actual value of $130,000, and the tax computed on such amount would be $130. Applying the formula provided in section 4302, $\frac{$33,750}{$130,000} \times 130$ or $33.75 is the portion of the tax computed on all shares issued in the recapitalization which is attributable to the amount dedicated to capital for the first time. The tax imposed on the shares issued in such recapitalization is, therefore, $33.75.

(d) Recapitalization as part of other transaction. Where a recapitalization is effected in connection with, or as part of, some other transaction, for example, an original or an additional issue of stock, a merger, etc., the limitation of the tax payable to the proportion specified in this section applies only to the stock issued in that part of the transaction which constitutes a recapitalization. Thus, where a corporation makes a change in its capital structure by transferring to the capital stock account a portion of its earned surplus and replacing an issue of stock with another issue of stock and at the same time disposes of part of the new stock by sale to underwriters, the tax limitation is applicable only to that portion of the new stock which is issued in exchange for the old stock retired thereby. In such case, the portion of the new stock sold to the underwriters is taxable in its entirety without any adjustment on account of the recapitalization. Similarly, where a corporation retires its preferred stock by transferring to the capital stock account a portion of its earned surplus and issuing common stock in exchange therefor, and such exchange is made in connection with a merger in which the corporation issues common stock also to the former stockholders of the merged company, the tax limitation is applicable only to the common stock issued in exchange for the preferred stock, and the shares or certificates of common stock issued to the former stockholders of the merged company are subject to tax without any adjustment on account of the recapitalization.

§ 47.4303 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4303 Exemptions—(a) Common trust funds. The tax imposed by section 4301 shall not apply to the issue of shares or certificates of a common trust fund, as defined in section 584.

(b) Pooled investment funds. The tax imposed by section 4301 shall not apply to the issue of shares or certificates of a fund maintained by a bank exclusively for the collective investment and reinvestment of assets of qualified trusts (within the meaning of section 401, relating to qualified pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus plans).

(c) Installment purchases of certain shares or certificates. The tax imposed by section 4301 shall not apply to shares or certificates issued by a corporation pursuant to an installment purchase agreement which provides that—

(1) The periodic payments by the purchaser will be applied (as received by the corporation) solely to the acquisition of shares or certificates in specified other corporations (and in specified percentages), and

(2) The corporation will transfer to the purchaser, on or before the termination of the agreement, all shares or certificates in other corporations acquired by it for the purchaser.

For the purposes of the preceding sentence, the term "purchaser" includes a successor in interest of the purchaser.

(d) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see section 4382.

[Sec. 4303 amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.4303–1 Exemptions.

(a) Common trust funds. For regulations under section 584, see Part 1 of this chapter (Income Tax Regulations).

(b) Pooled investment funds. Section 4303(b) exempts from the tax imposed by section 4301 the issue of shares or certificates of stock of a fund maintained by a bank exclusively for the collective investment and reinvestment of assets of trusts which are qualified trusts within the meaning of section 401, relating to qualified pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus plans. The exemption applies to such issue of shares or certificates regardless of the capacity in which the bank holds those assets of the qualifying trusts which have been pooled for the purpose of collective investment or reinvestment. For regulations under section 401, see Part 1 of this chapter (Income Tax Regulations).

(c) Installment purchases of certain shares or certificates. Section 4303(c) exempts from the tax imposed by section 4301, under certain circumstances, shares or certificates of stock issued by a corporation pursuant to an installment purchase agreement. The exemption has application only if the installment purchase agreement provides that:

(1) The periodic payments required to be made by the purchaser under the installment purchase agreement will be applied, as received by the corporation, solely to the acquisition of shares or certificates of stock in other corporations which are designated in the agreement and that the periodic payments will be so applied in accordance with the specified percentages set forth in the agreement, and

(2) The corporation, on or before the termination of the installment purchase agreement, will transfer to the purchaser all shares or certificates of stock in the designated corporations which were acquired by it for such purchaser pursuant to such agreement.

The exemption will have application only if all of the foregoing conditions are met. The exemption will not apply, for example, if the corporation has an option, under the installment purchase agreement or otherwise, to distribute cash in lieu of the stock purchased for the purchaser. However, the exemption will apply if the purchaser has the option to receive cash in lieu of the stock purchased for him. For purposes of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, periodic payments will be considered as being applied "solely to the acquisition of shares or certificates of stock in other corporations" notwithstanding that the agreement authorizes the corporation to apply a portion of such payments to cover loading charges or to retain amounts insufficient to purchase a full share of stock. For purposes of section 4303(c) and this paragraph, the term "purchaser" includes a successor in interest of the purchaser.

§ 47.4304 Statutory provisions; affixing of stamps.

SEC. 4304 Affixing of stamps. The stamps representing the tax imposed by section 4301 shall be affixed to the stock books or corresponding records of the organization and not to the certificates issued.

§ 47.4304–1 Affixing of stamps.

(a) Documentary stamps. Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4301. The requisite stamps shall be affixed to the stock books or corresponding records of the corporation, and not to the certificates issued. See §§ 47.6804–1 and 47.6804–2 for appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(b) Purchase of documentary stamps. Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, from the sources and in the manner provided in § 47.6802–1. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801 (§ 47.6801), 6802 (§ 47.6802), and 6805 (§ 47.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration), and § 47.6801–1.

§ 47.4305 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4305 Cross references. For definitions, penalties, and other general and administrative provisions applicable to this part, see sections 4381 and 4384 and subtitle F.

[Sec. 4305 as amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.4305–1 Cross references.

(a) For definitions, see section 4381, § 47.4381–1, and section 7701 (§ 47.7701).

(b) For penalties, see section 7271 and § 47.7271–1.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4384, § 47.4384–1, Subpart J, and the applicable sections of subtitle F and the regulations in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 47.4311 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4311 Imposition of tax. There is hereby imposed, on all certificates of indebtedness issued by a corporation, a tax at the rate of 11 cents on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof.

[Sec. 4311 as amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.4311–1 Imposition of tax on issuance of certificates of indebtedness.

(a) Scope of tax. Section 4311 imposes a tax on the issue within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States by any corporation of certificates of indebtedness as defined in section 4381(a) and paragraph (a) of § 47.4381–1. See section 4381(b) and paragraph (b) of § 47.4381–1 for definition of the term "corporation". Every renewal of a certificate of indebtedness is subject to tax as a new issue (see § 47.4312–1). A certificate of indebtedness is issued within the meaning of the law at the time it is delivered so as to constitute an obligation of the issuer.

(b) Rate and computation of tax. The rate of tax is 11 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the face value of each certificate of indebtedness; except that, where a certificate conditioned for the repayment or payment of money is given in a penal sum, greater than the debt secured, the tax is based upon the amount secured (see section 4313). A separate computation of tax must be made with respect to each certificate of indebtedness regardless of the number of certificates which may be issued in a single transaction. For example, the tax on the issuance of a certificate having a face value of $1,000 is $1.10. The tax on the issuance of 2 certificates having a face value of $50 each is 22 cents, that is, 11 cents on each certificate, whether the certificates are issued to the same person or to different persons.

(c) Affixing of stamps. (1) The requisite documentary stamps shall be affixed either to the certificates of indebtedness or to the indenture or agreement under which they are issued. If the stamps are affixed to the indenture or agreement, the certificate must bear a legend showing that the proper documentary stamps have been affixed to the indenture or agreement and duly cancelled. If the indenture provides for the issue of certificates over a period of years, the requisite stamps may be affixed at the time of each issue. Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4311. See §§ 47.6804–1 and 47.6804–2 for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(2) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisitions for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, from the sources and in the manner provided in § 47.6802–1. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801 (§ 47.6801), 6802 (§ 47.6802), and 6805 (§ 47.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration), and § 47.6801–1.

§ 47.4311–2 Illustrations.

(a) Issues subject to tax. The following are examples of corporate instruments taxable upon issue:

(1) A bond secured by a real estate mortgage.

(2) A bond delivered to a bank or trust company as security for the payment of an obligation.

(3) Bonds executed outside the United States by a foreign corporation and delivered in the United States.

(4) Interim certificates or temporary bonds issued in lieu of definitive bonds. However, no additional tax is due on the issuance of the corresponding permanent or definitive bonds, but each of such permanent or definitive bonds must bear notation of the fact that requisite stamps were duly affixed to the interim certificates or temporary bonds or to the indenture or agreement under which such interim certificates or temporary bonds were issued.

(5) Equipment trust certificates.

(6) Any certificate of indebtedness issued by any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other person, having custody of property, or charge of the affairs of any corporation (see section 4381(b)).

(b) Issues not subject to tax. In addition to the various issues specifically exempt under sections 4314(a) and 4382, the following are examples of instruments not taxable upon issue:

(1) An instrument issued by an individual or partnership.

(2) An instrument merely representing the assignment of an interest in a bond (see, however, § 47.4331–1 and paragraph (b) of § 47.4351–1).

(3) Bonds issued in exchange for outstanding bonds of different denominations but of the same kind, the same total face amount, and the same maturity date.

(4) Permanent or definitive bonds issued in exchange for interim certificates or temporary bonds representing the same obligation (see, however, paragraph (a)(4) of this section).

(5) A certificate of deposit issued by a bank, whether or not negotiable, and whether payable on demand or at some specified time; and a certificate of deposit issued by an organization operating under the Morris Plan.

(6) Indemnity, fidelity, and surety bonds.

(7) A business property investment certificate, wherein it is certified that the holder thereof is the owner of an interest in certain specified property, legal title to which has been previously conveyed to a trustee, and whereby the issuing corporation agrees to manage the property and distribute the proceeds. However, such instrument is subject to the tax imposed by section 4301 (see paragraph (a)(11) of § 47.4301–2).

(8) A bond issued by a trust company on behalf of the estate of a decedent for which it is acting as executor or administrator, provided the certificate is issued solely on the credit of the estate.

(9) A warrant granting the right to purchase unissued bonds (see § 47.4331–3).

§ 47.4312 Statutory provisions; renewal of certificates of indebtedness.

SEC. 4312 Renewals. Every renewal of any certificate of indebtedness shall be taxed as a new issue.

Every renewal of a certificate of indebtedness is subject to the tax imposed by section 4311 as a new issue. Whenever there is such a material change in the obligation as to constitute a new obligation, as, for example, an extension of maturity date or a change in the interest rate of the outstanding certificate of indebtedness, such change constitutes a renewal subject to tax as a new issue. The time when the original certificate was issued is immaterial.

Likewise, the time when the certificate is renewed, whether before or after the original date of maturity, is immaterial. A tax liability is not dependent upon use of any particular form of instrument to effect the renewal. The renewal may, for example, be evidenced by a notation on the original certificate, by a collateral agreement, or by an extension agreement.

§ 47.4313 Statutory provisions; bond as security for debt.

SEC. 4313 Bond as security for debt. In the case where a bond conditioned for the repayment or payment of money is given in a penal sum greater than the debt secured, the tax imposed by section 4311 shall be based upon the amount secured.

§ 47.4313–1 Bond as security for debt.

For the effect of section 4313 on the computation of the tax, see paragraph (b) of §47.4311–1.

§ 47.4314 Statutory provisions; exemption for certain installment obligations.

SEC. 4314 Exemptions—(a) Installment purchase of obligations. The tax imposed by section 4311 shall not apply to any instrument under the terms of which the obligee is required to make payment therefor in installments and is not permitted to make in any year a payment of more than 20 percent of the cash amount to which entitled upon maturity of the instrument.

(b) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see section 4382.

Subpart D—Tax on Sales or Transfers of Capital Stock and Similar Interests

§ 47.4321 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4321 Imposition of tax. There is hereby imposed on each sale or transfer of shares or certificates of stock, or of rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, issued by a corporation, a tax at the rate of 4 cents on each $100 (or major fraction thereof) of the actual value of the certificates, of the shares where no certificates are sold or transferred, or of the rights, as the case may be. In no case shall the tax so imposed on any such sale or transfer be—

(1) More than 8 cents on each share, or

(2) Less than 4 cents on the sale or transfer.

[Sec. 4321 as amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959, and as further amended by sec. 5(a), Act of Sept. 21, 1959 (Pub. Law 86–344, 73 Stat. 619)]

§ 47.4321–1 Imposition of tax.

(a) Scope of tax. Section 4321 imposes a tax on each sale or transfer (as defined in section 4351(b)), within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States of shares or certificates of stock, or of rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, issued by a corporation. As to sales or transfers of warrants to subscribe for or to purchase stock, see § 47.4321–3. The tax applies to the specified dealings or transactions in stock, whether occurring before, after, or without the issuance of a certificate. The tax attaches at the time of making the sale or transfer, regardless of the time or manner of delivery of the certificate, agreement, or memorandum of sale. For requirements as to the making and keeping of records of such sales or transfers, see §§ 47.4352–1 and 47.6001–1. See section 4381 and § 47.4381–1 for definitions of the terms "corporation" and "shares or certificates of stock". For purposes of the tax imposed by section 4321, the term "stock", as used in the regulations in this part, includes shares or certificates of stock and rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates.

(b) Rate and computation of tax—(1) Computation. Where, by sale or transfer, stock of the same class issued by one corporation is transferred from a single transferor to a single transferee, the tax is computed on the basis of the aggregate actual value of all the shares transferred. Where there are two or more transferors or two or more transferees, or where in a single transaction transfer is made of the stock of two or more corporations or of two or more classes issued by a single corporation, a separate tax computation must be made with respect to each transferor and each transferee and with respect to the stock of each corporation and the stock of each class issued by a single corporation. The foregoing rule may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, owning 25 shares of common stock and 25 shares of preferred stock of the X Corporation, and 50 shares of the common stock of the Y Corporation, transfers all the stock by delivering the certificates to B. In this situation, there are three distinct transactions, namely, a transfer of 25 shares of common stock of the X Corporation, a transfer of 25 shares of preferred stock of the X Corporation, and a transfer of 50 shares of common stock of the Y Corporation, and the tax is computed, in the case of each transfer, upon the actual value of the stock.

Example (2). A, owning 100 shares of stock in the X Corporation represented by one or more certificates, sells 50 shares each to B and C. To that end, A sends his certificate or certificates to the transfer agent with instructions to issue one or more certificates aggregating 50 shares to each purchaser. In this situation, there are two distinct transactions, namely, two sales of 50 shares of stock each, and the tax is computed upon the actual value of the stock transferred to each purchaser.

Example (3). A and B, each owning 50 shares of stock in the X Corporation represented in each case by one or more certificates, make a gift of their stock to C. To that end, they send their certificates to the transfer agent with instructions to issue to the donee one or more certificates for the entire 100 shares. In this situation, there are likewise two distinct transactions, namely, two gifts of 50 shares of stock each, and a separate computation must be made with respect to each gift.

(2) Rate of tax—(i) In general. The rate of tax applicable to each sale or transfer of shares or certificates of stock or of rights to subscribe for or to receive shares or certificates of stock is 4 cents on each $100 (or major fraction thereof) of the actual value of the certificates, of the shares where no certificates are sold or transferred, or of the rights. In no case, however, shall the tax imposed on any such sale or transfer be—

(a) More than 8 cents on each share sold or transferred or, in the case of the sale or transfer of rights to subscribe for or to receive shares or certificates of stock, more than 8 cents in respect of each share covered by such rights, or

(b) Less than 4 cents on any one sale or transfer.

(ii) Exception in the case of rights sold or transferred prior to November 1, 1959. The rate of tax applicable in respect of any sale or transfer, prior to November 1, 1959, of rights to subscribe for or to receive shares or certificates of stock is 4 cents on each $100 (or major fraction thereof) of the actual value of the stock to which the rights relate. However, the provisions of subdivision (i) (a) (insofar as they relate to rights) and (b) of this subparagraph are applicable in computing the maximum and minimum amount of tax imposed on any sale or transfer of rights to which this subdivision has application.

(iii) Major fraction. A major fraction of $100 is any amount in excess of $50 and less than $100.

(3) Actual value. The principles set forth in paragraph (b)(2)(ii) of § 47.4301–1 for determining the actual value of shares or certificates of stock issued are equally applicable for purposes of determining the actual value of shares or certificates of stock, or rights thereto, sold or transferred.

(4) Examples of computation. The computation of the tax imposed by section 4321 may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A sells to B 100 shares of stock of the X Corporation having an actual value of $10,000 and gives to B 10 shares of stock of the Y Corporation having an actual value of $2,560. A separate computation must be made with respect to the stock of each corporation. Applying the rate of 4 cents for each $100 of actual value (or major fraction thereof), the tax on the sale of the X Corporation stock is $4 (100×$.04) and the tax on the gift of the Y Corporation stock is $1.04 (26, applying the major fraction rule, ×$0.4). Since the application of the 4-cent rate results in tax in excess of 8 cents per share in the case of the Y Corporation stock ($1.04÷10), the tax in respect of such stock is computed at the rate of 8 cents per share resulting in tax of $.80. Thus, the total tax in respect of the sale and gift of the stock of X Corporation and of Y Corporation is $4.80.

Example (2). A sells to B 10 shares of stock having an actual value of $50. Since $50 does not constitute a major fraction of $100 the provision of section 4321 imposing a minimum tax of not less than 4 cents on a sale or transfer applies. Accordingly, the tax on the sale of the 10 shares is 4 cents.

(5) Cross reference. For provisions relating to the application of the tax imposed by section 4321 in the case of certain changes in a partnership, see section 4383 and § 47.4383–1.

§ 47.4321–2 Illustrations.

(a) Sales and transfers subject to tax. The following transfers of stock are illustrations of transactions which are taxable, unless exempt from tax under a specific provision of the Internal Revenue Code (see sections 4322, 4341 to 4344, inclusive, 4382, and 4383(a) with respect to such exemptions):

(1) Transfer by gift.

(2) Transfer by an administrator or executor to a distributee or legatee (see, however, section 4344(b) and paragraph (b) of § 47.4344–1).

(3) Transfer to or by trustees (see, however, section 4343(a)(8)).

(4) Transfer of an interim certificate, a voting trust certificate, or a certificate of beneficial interest in an association.

(5) Transfer from persons holding legal title as tenants in common, as joint tenants, or as tenants by the entirety, to the same persons separately to effect a partition, or from one person to two or more persons, whether or not including the transferor, as tenants in common, as joint tenants, or as tenants by the entirety (see, however, section 4343(a)(9)).

(6) Transfer from a partnership on its termination under section 708; also from a partnership to an individual member thereof upon a dissolution of his interest in the partnership. See § 47.4383–1.

(7) Transfer to a corporation of its own stock (see, however, paragraph (b)(3) of this section).

(8) Transfer upon a merger from the name of a merging corporation of stock owned by it to the name of the continuing corporation. Similarly, upon a consolidation, a transfer from any of the consolidating corporations to the consolidated corporation (see, however, paragraphs (b) (6) and (7) of this section). For exemption from tax in respect of transfers to make effective a plan of reorganization or adjustment whereby a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization is effected, see paragraph (d) of § 47.4382–1.

(9) In addition to the tax on the issuance of stock in connection with a merger or consolidation, where such stock is issued directly to the stockholders of the merging or consolidating corporations by the continuing or consolidated corporation (see paragraphs (a) (8) and (9) of § 47.4301–2), there is also a transfer tax imposed at the time of the issuance of such stock. The transfer tax is applicable to such a transaction inasmuch as there is involved the transfer to the stockholders of the merging or consolidating corporations of such corporations' right to receive the stock of the continuing or consolidated corporation. For exemption from tax in respect of transfers to make effective a plan of reorganization or adjustment whereby a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization is effected, see paragraph (d) of § 47.4382–1.

(10) Transfer of stock to another person upon order of the purchaser; transfer of the right to receive a stock dividend already declared; issuance of stock to a person other than the subscriber; all other transfers of rights to receive stock; and all transfers of rights to subscribe for stock.

(11) Transfer by a broker to a customer of stock issued as a dividend on stock purchased for the customer by the broker and held by the broker in his own name or in the name of his nominee.

(12) Transfer of stock on the books of a domestic corporation, regardless of where the sale is made or the stock certificate is delivered.

(13) Sale or transfer within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States of stock of a foreign corporation.

(14) Transfers by operation of law (see, however, § 47.4343–1).

(b) Sales and transfers not subject to tax. In addition to the exemptions prescribed in sections 4382 and 4383(a) which apply to documentary stamp taxes generally and to the specific exemptions provided in sections 4322 and 4341 to 4344, inclusive, and the regulations thereunder, the following are examples of transactions not subject to the tax:

(1) Transfer of stock pursuant to a sale, where the requisite stamps have been affixed to the memorandum of sale.

(2) Surrender of certificates in exchange for other certificates representing the same stock issued to the same person (see also paragraph (b)(2) of § 47.4301–2).

(3) Surrender of stock to the issuing corporation for extinguishment (see also paragraph (a)(7) of this section).

(4) Change in the registration of stock for the sole purpose of recording a change in the name of a stockholder, such as from the maiden name to the married name of a stockholder, or a change in the name of a corporation which is a stockholder.

(5) Transfer of stock to or by an insolvent bank, where such transfer is within the provisions of section 7507.

(6) In a consolidation of corporations, the surrender of stock of any of the consolidating corporations in exchange for stock of the consolidated corporation (see, however, paragraph (a)(9) of this section and paragraph (a)(8) of § 47.4301–2).

(7) In a merger of corporations, the surrender of stock of both the merging and the continuing corporations in exchange for stock of the continuing corporation (see, however, paragraph (a)(9) of this section and paragraph (a)(9) of § 47.4301–2).

(8) Deliveries of stock to or by a clearinghouse for the sole purpose of clearing or adjusting accounts of its members.

(9) Transfer of stock pursuant to a call, since a "call" is an agreement to sell stock and taxable as such. However, a person making such nontaxable transfer shall furnish and attach to the certificate a statement in substantially the following form:

It is hereby certified that the transfer of ---------- shares of the within stock to ---------- has been made pursuant to a "call", and that the requisite Federal documentary stamps for the transaction are affixed to such "call", which is in the possession of the undersigned.

Signature

(10) The mere delivery of a certificate of stock by a customer to his broker solely for the purpose of enabling such broker to sell the stock for the customer, where the broker has no legal title or other interest in the stock.

(11) The mere delivery of a certificate of stock by a purchasing broker to his customer, if the tax was paid upon the sale of the stock to such broker and such broker has no legal title or other interest in the stock.

§ 47.4321–3 Tax on warrants.

(a) To subscribe for stock. Transfers of warrants entitling the holder to subscribe for stock are taxable as transfers of rights to subscribe. For computation of the tax on transfers of rights to subscribe for stock, see paragraph (b) of § 47.4321–1. The issue of a warrant entitling the holder to subscribe for stock is not subject to tax, but the issue of stock upon exercise of the warrant is subject to the tax imposed by section 4301 (see paragraph (a)(7) of § 47.4301–2).

(b) To purchase issued stock. (1) Warrants entitling the holder to purchase issued stock are taxable upon issuance as agreements to sell stock (see definition of "sale or transfer" in section 4351(b) and paragraph (b) of § 47.4351–1). The tax imposed by section 4321 is computed on the basis of the actual value of the stock at the time the warrant is issued. The warrant price is not indicative of the actual value to be attributed to the stock for purposes of the tax.

(2) Transfers of warrants entitling the holder to purchase issued stock are not subject to the stamp tax since the statute does not impose a tax on sales or transfers of agreements to sell stock. If the transfer tax is paid upon the issuance of a warrant as an agreement to sell stock, no additional transfer tax is incurred upon the subsequent transfer of the stock pursuant to the exercise of the warrant. However, the person making such exempt transfer of stock shall furnish and attach to the certificate a statement in substantially the following form:

It is hereby certified that the transfer of the attached certificate for---------- (Number of shares and description of stock)
----------is made
pursuant to the exercise of a warrant which is in the possession of the undersigned, and that the requisite stamps due upon the issuance of such warrant have been affixed thereto.

§ 47.4322 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4322 Exemptions—(a) Exemptions for certain transfers. The tax imposed by section 4321 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of shares, certificates, or rights—

(1) Brokers. To a broker or his registered nominee for sale of such shares, certificates, or rights; by a broker or his registered nominee to a customer for whom and upon whose order the broker has purchased same; or by a purchasing broker to his registered nominee to be held by such nominee for the same purpose as if held by the broker; or

(2) Nominees of corporations. From a corporation to a registered nominee of such corporation, or from one such nominee to another such nominee, provided that in each instance such shares, certificates, or rights are to be held by the nominee for the same purpose as if retained by the corporation; or from such nominee to such corporation.

(b) Certain odd-lot transactions—(1) Exemption. The tax imposed by section 4321 shall not apply to any odd-lot sale by an odd-lot dealer if the shares, certificates, or rights are delivered or transferred to a broker pursuant to an order of a customer of such broker for such shares, certificates, or rights.

(2) Definitions. For purposes of paragraph (1)—

(A) The term "odd-lot sale" means an odd-lot transaction under the rules of the securities exchange of which the odd-lot dealer is a member.

(B) The term "odd-lot dealer" means a person who is (1) a member of a securities exchange which is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a national securities exchange, and (ii) registered under the rules of such exchange as an odd-lot dealer or as a specialist.

(c) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see sections 4341, 4342, 4343, 4344, and 4382.

§ 47.4322–1 Exemptions.

(2) A transfer to the name of a selling agent other than a broker, as for example, a bank, whether the sale be made by the agent direct or through a broker for the agent's account, is subject to tax, since the exemption applies only to deliveries and transfers to brokers (but see paragraph (b) of § 47.4342–1). However, liability is not incurred by the mere delivery of a certificate of stock to an agent who obtains no legal title or other interest in the stock.

(b) Transfer from broker to customer. (1) If stock is transferred to the name of a purchasing broker or his registered nominee who holds the stock for the same purpose as if held by the broker and tax on such transfer is paid, transfer may thereafter be made to the name of the purchaser (for whom and upon whose order the broker has purchased such stock) without payment of tax. If the tax was paid upon the transfer to the name of the purchasing broker, transfer may be made to the name of his registered nominee and from such nominee to the name of the purchaser without payment of tax. However, no exemption will be allowed under this paragraph unless the broker furnishes at the time of transfer or delivery an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 47.4345–1. For provisions relating to the registration of nominees, see paragraph (a) of § 47.4351–1.

(2) Delivery to, or transfer to the name of, the customer may not be made tax free in any case in which the stock was transferred from the seller to the broker or his registered nominee without payment of the tax, since the law requires that the tax shall be paid on the transfer or transfers between the actual seller and actual buyer. A transfer from the name of a purchasing agent other than a broker, as, for example, a bank, whether the purchase be made directly or through a broker for the agent's account, is subject to tax, since the exemption applies only to deliveries and transfers from brokers (but see paragraph (b) of § 47.4342–1). However, liability is not incurred by the mere delivery to the principal of a certificate of stock by an agent having no legal title or other interest in the stock, or by a broker for the account of such agent.

(c) Transfers between corporations and nominees. The tax does not apply to the delivery or transfer of stock from a corporation to a registered nominee of such corporation, or from one such nominee to another such nominee, if in either case the shares or certificates continue to be held by such nominee for the same purpose for which they would be held if retained by such corporation; or from such nominee to such corporation. No exemption is granted unless the nominee is registered in the manner provided in paragraph (a) of § 47.4351–1. Nor shall the exemption be granted in any case unless the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate, executed by the person making the exempt transfer, in substantially the form prescribed in § 47.4345–1.

(d) Certain odd-lot transactions. The tax imposed by section 4321 shall not apply to any odd-lot sale by an odd-lot dealer if the shares, certificates, or rights are delivered or transferred to a broker pursuant to an order of a customer of such broker for such shares, certificates, or rights and the broker furnishes at the time of transfer or delivery an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 47.4345–1. Actual physical delivery or transfer of the shares, certificates, or rights sold is not required if the effect of the transaction is a sale to a customer of the broker. Thus, if an odd-lot dealer executes odd-lot purchase and sale orders in a particular stock for a broker pursuant to orders of the broker's customers during a given day and only the net balance of such stock for that day is physically delivered or transferred to the broker, all of the odd-lot sales which contributed to such net balance are exempt. The term "odd-lot sale" means an odd-lot transaction under the rules of the securities exchange of which the odd-lot dealer making the sale is a member. The term "odd-lot dealer" means a person who is (1) a member of a securities exchange which is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a national securities exchange, and (2) registered under the rules of such exchange as an odd-lot dealer or as a specialist.

SEC. 4323 Affixing of stamps—(a) Books of the corporation. The stamps representing the tax imposed by section 4321 shall be affixed to the books of the corporation in case of a sale where the evidence of transfer is shown only by the books of the corporation.

(b) Certification as to value by transferor or transferee. Where shares or certificates of stock, or of rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, are presented for transfer and the tax thereon is paid by the use of adhesive stamps, such shares, certificates, or rights shall be accompanied by a certification signed by the transferor or his agent or the transferee or his agent as to the actual value of the shares, certificates, or rights so transferred, and any corporation or transfer agent to whom such shares, certificates, or rights are presented shall be entitled to rely on such certification without further inquiry.

(c) Other evidences of sale or transfer. For provisions applicable to the affixing of stamps in cases of sale or transfer shown otherwise than only by the books of the corporation, see section 4352.

[Sec. 4323 as amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959 and as further amended by sec. 5(b), Act of Sept. 21, 1959 (Pub. Law 86–344, 73 Stat. 619)]

(a) Books of the corporation. (1) Except as provided in section 4353 and § 47.4353–1, only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4321. In the case of a sale or transfer evidenced only by the books of the corporation or other organization, the requisite stamps shall be affixed to such books. In the case of a sale or transfer evidenced otherwise than only by the books of the corporation or other organization, see section 4352 and § 47.4352–1 for provisions relating to the affixing of the requisite stamps. See also §§ 47.6804–1 and 47.6804–2 for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps. For provisions relating to payment, through a national securities exchange or a clearinghouse for such exchange, of tax without use of stamps, see § 47.4353–1.

(2) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisitions for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, from the sources and in the manner provided in § 47.6802–1. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801 (§ 47.6801), 6802 (§ 47.6802), and 6805 (§ 47.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration), and § 47.6801–1.

(b) Certification as to value by transferor or transferee. Where shares or certificates of stock, or of rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, are presented for transfer and the tax thereon is paid by the use of documentary stamps or through a national securities exchange or a clearinghouse for such exchange without the use of stamps (see section 4353(b)), such shares, certificates, or rights shall be accompanied by a certification signed by the transferor or his agent or the transferee or his agent as to the actual value of the shares, certificates, or rights so transferred and any corporation or transfer agent to whom such shares, certificates, or rights are presented shall be entitled to rely on such certification without further inquiry. The certification shall show the basis used for establishing actual value and shall be in substantially the following form:

It is hereby certified that the actual value of the accompanying instrument(s) submitted for transfer is $--------, as determined by ----------
(basis of valuation—sale price, mean selling price on market, etc.)

Signature of transferor, transferee, or agent of either

(b) For penalties, see section 7271 and § 47.7271–1.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4345 and § 47.4345–1, section 4352 and § 47.4352–1, section 4353 and § 47.4353–1, section 4384 and § 47.4384–1, Subpart J, and the applicable sections of subtitle F and the regulations in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 47.4331 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4331 Imposition of tax. There is hereby imposed, on each sale or transfer of any certificates of indebtedness isued by a corporation, a tax at the rate of 5 cents on each $100 or fraction thereof of the face value.

§ 47.4331–1 Imposition of tax.

(a) Scope of tax. Section 4331 imposes a tax on each sale or transfer (as defined in section 4351(b)) within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States of certificates of indebtedness issued by a corporation. See section 4381 and § 47.4381–1 for definitions of the terms "certificates of indebtedness" and "corporation". The tax attaches at the time of making the sale or transfer, regardless of the time or manner of delivery of the certificate or agreement or memorandum of sale. As to sales or transfers of warrants to subscribe for or purchase certificates of indebtedness, see § 47.4331–3. For requirements in respect of records and memoranda of such sales or transfers, see §§ 47.4331–4 and 47.4352–1. For provisions relating to the application of the tax imposed by section 4331 in the case of certain changes in a partnership, see section 4383 and § 47.4383–1.

(b) Rate and computation of tax. (1) Where by sale or otherwise certificates of indebtedness of the same issue of a single corporation are transferred by a single transferor to a single transferee, the tax is 5 cents on each $100 of face value, or fraction thereof, of the aggregate face value of all the certificates. Where there are two or more transferors or two or more transferees, or where in a single transaction transfer is made of certificates of two or more corporations or of two or more classes issued by a single corporation, a separate tax computation must be made with respect to each transferor and each transferee, and with respect to the certificates of each corporation and of the certificates of each class issued by a single corporation. The foregoing rule may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). M, owning 25 class A bonds of the X Corporation and 25 class B bonds of the same corporation, and 50 class A bonds of the Y Corporation, transfers all the bonds to N. In this situation there are three taxable transfers, and a separate tax computation must be made with respect to the aggregate face value of the bonds involved in each.

Example (2). M, owning 100 class A bonds of the X Corporation, sells 50 bonds to N and 50 bonds to O. In this situation, there are two sales of 50 bonds each, and the tax is measured by the aggregate face value of the bonds sold to each purchaser.

Example (3). A husband and wife, each owning $50,000 face amount of class A bonds of the X Corporation, simultaneously give their bonds to their son. In this situation, there are two gifts, and a separate computation must be made with respect to the aggregate face value of the bonds included in each gift.

(2) The separate tax computation required will result in a difference in the amount of tax only where the face value of the certificates transferred is not $100 or multiples thereof.

(c) Affixing of stamps. (1) Except as provided in section 4353 and § 47.4353–1, only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4331. For provisions relating to the affixing of the requisite stamps in case of a sale or transfer of certificates of indebtedness, see section 4352 and § 47.4352–1. See also §§ 47.6804–1 and 47.6804–2 for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps. For provisions relating to payment, through a national securities exchange or a clearinghouse for such exchange, of tax without use of stamps, see § 47.4353–1.

(2) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, from the sources and in the manner provided in § 47.6802–1. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801 (§ 47.6801), 6802 (§ 47.6802), and 6805 (§ 47.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration), and § 47.6801–1.

(a) Sales and transfers subject to tax. The tax on sales or transfers of certificates of indebtedness imposed by section 4331 is similar in scope to the tax on stock transfers imposed by section 4321. Accordingly, the various examples set forth in paragraph (a) of § 47.4321–2 of sales and transfers of stocks subject to the stock transfer tax apply, with certain exceptions, to sales and transfers of certificates of indebtedness unless such sales and transfers of certificates of indebtedness are exempt from tax under a specific provision of the Internal Revenue Code (see sections 4332, 4341 to 4344, inclusive, 4382, and 4383(a) with respect to such exemptions). These exceptions are the examples stated in paragraphs (a) (9) and (10) of § 47.4321–2.

(b) Sales and transfers not subject to tax. In addition to the exemptions prescribed in sections 4382 and 4383(a) which apply to documentary stamp taxes generally and to the specific exemptions provided in sections 4332, and 4341 to 4344, inclusive, and the regulations thereunder, the examples set forth in paragraph (b) of § 47.4321–2 of sales and transfers of stocks not subject to the stock transfer tax illustrate sales and transfers of certificates of indebtedness which are not subject to the tax imposed by section 4331.

(a) To subscribe for certificates of indebtedness. Warrants entitling the holder to subscribe for unissued certificates of indebtedness are not subject to tax under section 4331.

(b) To purchase issued certificates of indebtedness. Warrants entitling the holder to purchase issued certificates of indebtedness are, upon issuance, subject to tax under section 4331, as agreements to sell certificates (see definition of "sale or transfer" in section 4351(b) and paragraph (b) of § 47.4351–1). Subsequent transfers of such warrants are not subject to the transfer tax since the statute does not impose a tax upon transfers of agreements to sell certificates of indebtedness. For rate and computation of tax, see paragraph (b) of § 47.4331–1. If the transfer tax is paid upon issuance of a warrant, the subsequent transfer of the certificate pursuant to the exercise of such warrant is not subject to the transfer tax. However, the person transferring the certificate shall furnish and attach thereto a statement substantially as follows:

It is hereby certified that the transfer of the attached certificates of indebtedness,

---

to ---

(name of transferee)

is made pursuant to the exercise of a warrant which is in the possession of the undersigned, and that the requisite stamps due upon the issuance of such warrant have been affixed thereto.

§ 47.4331–4 Records of sales and transfers of certificates of indebtedness.

The provisions of § 47.6001–1 relating to records of sales and transfers of stock are also applicable to sales and transfers of certificates of indebtedness, except that the records of sales of certificates of indebtedness need not show the sales prices, since the selling price is immaterial for purposes of the tax imposed by section 4331.

§ 47.4331–5 Registration of nominees.

The provisions of paragraph (a) of § 47.4351–1 relating to registration requirements in connection with transactions involving stock are also applicable to transactions involving certificates of indebtedness.

For rules applicable to securities exchanges and clearinghouses, see § 47.4353–1.

§ 47.4332 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

Sec. 4332 Exemptions—(a) Brokers. The The tax imposed by section 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer to a broker for sale, nor upon any delivery or transfer by a broker to a customer for whom and upon whose order he has purchased the certificates of indebtedness.

(b) Instalment purchase of obligations. The tax imposed by section 4331 shall not apply to any instrument under the terms of which the obligee is required to make payment therefor in installments and is not permitted to make in any year a payment of more than 20 percent of the cash amount to which entitled upon maturity of the instrument.

(c) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see sections 4341, 4342, 4343, 4344, and 4382.

§ 47.4332–1 Exemptions.

(a) Transfer to or from brokers. The rules stated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 47.4322–1 with respect to the exemption of transfers to or by brokers from the tax imposed by section 4321 also apply with respect to the tax imposed by section 4331.

(b) Other exemptions. For other exemptions with respect to the tax imposed on sales or transfers of certificates of indebtedness, see sections 4341, 4342, 4343, 4344, and 4382 and the regulations thereunder.

(c) For other general and administrative provisions, see section 4345 and § 47.4345–1, section 4352 and § 47.4352–1, section 4353 and § 47.4353–1, section 4384 and §47.4384–1, Subpart J, and the applicable sections of subtitle F and the regulations in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

Subpart F—Provisions Common to Sales or Transfers of Capital Stock and Certificates of Indebtedness

EXEMPTIONS

§ 47.4341 Statutory provisions; transfers as security.

Sec. 4341 Transfers as security. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of any of the instruments referred to in such sections—

(1) Collateral security. To a lender as collateral security for money loaned thereon, if such collateral security is not actually sold, or by such lender as a return of such collateral security.

(2) Security for performance. To a trustee or public officer made pursuant to Federal or State law as security for the performance of an obligation, or by such trustee or public officer as a return of such security.

§ 47.4341–1 Transfers as security.

(a) Stock or certificates of indebtedness deposited as collateral security. The tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331 does not apply to an agreement evidencing a deposit of certificates of stock or certificates of indebtedness as collateral security for money loaned thereon, which certificates are not actually sold, nor upon the delivery or transfer for such purpose of the certificates so deposited. The exemption applies also to transfers of stock or certificates of indebtedness to a nominee of the lender and from such nominee back to the lender, if the stock or certificates of indebtedness are at all times held as collateral security for the loan; and to the return of the stock or certificates of indebtedness to the borrower by the lender or his nominee upon payment of the loan. The exemption does not apply, however, to deposits of stock or certificates of indebtedness as collateral security made otherwise than in connection with money loaned on such stock or certificates. The person making an exempt transfer under this paragraph shall, at the time of transfer or delivery, furnish an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 47.4345–1. If the delivery or transfer is not accompanied by the required exemption certificate the person making the delivery or transfer will be required to pay the tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331. However, if an exemption certificate is furnished after the transfer or delivery, such person will be entitled to a refund of the tax paid upon filing a timely claim for refund.

(b) Transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness made pursuant to Federal or State law to secure the performance of obligations. The tax imposed by section 4321 or section 4331 does not apply to any delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness to a trustee or public officer, which is made pursuant to Federal or State law to secure the performance of an obligation, or to a redelivery or retransfer of such stock or certificates of indebtedness to the transferor. The exemption provided under this paragraph shall be granted only if the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 47.4345–1.

Sec. 4342 Fiduciaries and custodians. The taxes imposed by section[s] 4321 and 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of any of the instruments referred to in such sections—

(1) Fiduciaries. From a fiduciary to his nominee, or from one nominee of the fiduciary to another nominee, provided that in each instance such instruments are to be held by the nominee for the same purpose as if retained by the fiduciary; or from the nominee to such fiduciary; or

(2) Custodians. (A) From the owner to a custodian if under a written agreement between the parties such instruments are to be held or disposed of by such custodian for, and subject at all times to the instructions of, the owner; or from such custodian to such owner; or

(B) From a custodian as specified in subparagraph (A) to a registered nominee of such custodian, or from one such nominee to another such nominee, provided that in each instance such instruments are to be held by the nominee for the same purpose as if retained by the custodian; or from such nominee to such custodian.

§ 47.4342–1 Transfers to or by fiduciaries or custodians.

(a) Transfers between fiduciaries and their nominees. The tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331 does not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock or certificates of indebtedness from a fiduciary to a nominee of such fiduciary, or from one nominee of such fiduciary to another, if the stock or certificates of indebtedness are to be held by such nominee for the same purpose as they would be held if retained by such fiduciary. Nor does the tax apply to deliveries or transfers from a nominee of a fiduciary to such fiduciary. The exemption provided under this paragraph shall be granted only if the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 47.4345–1.

(b) Transfers to or by a custodian. (1) The tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331 does not apply to the delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness from the owner thereof to a custodian if, under a written agreement between the owner and the custodian, the instruments so delivered or transferred are to be held or disposed of by such custodian for, and subject at all times to the instructions of, the owner; or the delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness from such custodian to such owner.

(2) The tax also does not apply to the delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness from a custodian specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph to a registered nominee of such custodian, or from the owner direct to such registered nominee, or from one such nominee to another such nominee, if the stock or certificates of indebtedness are to be held by the nominee for the same purpose as they would be held if retained by such custodian. Nor does the tax apply to deliveries or transfers from a nominee of a custodian to such custodian or to the owner. No exemption is granted unless the nominee is registered in the manner provided in paragraph (a) of § 47.4351–1.

(3) Moreover, the tax does not apply to the delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness from a custodian of the owner to another custodian of the owner or from a registered nominee of the first custodian to the second custodian or to the registered nominee of the latter, if the transfer would have been exempt under subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph if made by the owner direct to the second custodian or to the registered nominee of the latter.

(4) For purposes of this paragraph, a custodian is a person to whom stock or certificates of indebtedness are delivered or transferred to be held or disposed of by such person for, and subject at all times to the instructions of, the owner and not otherwise. The term "custodian", as used in this paragraph, does not include a trustee. A custodian is to be distinguished from a nominee who merely lends his name and usually does not retain possession of the securities registered in his name.

(5) The exemption provided under this paragraph shall be granted only if the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 47.4345–1.

§ 47.4343 Statutory provisions; transfers by operation of law.

Sec. 4343 Transfers by operation of law—(a) Exempt transfers. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of any of the instruments referred to in such sections—

(1) Decedents. From a decedent to his executor or administrator.

(2) Minors. From a minor to his guardian, or from a guardian to his ward upon attaining majority.

(3) Incompetents. From an incompetent to his committee or similar legal representative, or from a committee or similar legal representative to a former incompetent upon removal of disability.

(4) Financial institutions. From a bank, trust company, financial institution, insurance company, or other similar entity, or nominee, custodian, or trustee therefor, to a public officer or commission, or person designated by such officer or commission or by a court, in the taking over of its assets, in whole or part, under Federal or State law regulating or supervising such institutions, nor upon redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto.

(5) Bankrupts. From a bankrupt or person in receivership due to insolvency to the trustee in bankruptcy or receiver, from such receiver to such trustee, or from such trustee to such receiver, nor upon redelivery or retransfer by any such transferee or successor thereto.

(6) Successors. From a transferee under paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, to his successor acting in the same capacity, or from one such successor to another.

(7) Foreign governments and aliens. From a foreign country or national thereof to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the government of any foreign country, directed pursuant to the authority vested in the President by section 5(b) of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended by the First War Powers Act, 1941 (50 U.S.C. App. sec. 5).

(8) Trustees. From trustees to surviving, substituted, succeeding, or additional trustees of the same trust.

(9) Survivors. Upon the death of a joint tenant or tenant by the entireties, to the survivor or survivors.

(b) Nonexempt transfers. No delivery or transfer shall be exempt because effected by operation of law unless an exemption is otherwise specifically provided.

[Sec. 4343 as amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.4343–1 Transfers by operation of law.

No delivery or transfer shall be exempt from the tax imposed by section 4321 or 4331 because effected by operation of law unless an exemption is otherwise specifically provided. Each of the transfers specified in section 4343(a) is exempt from tax, but only if the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate as provided in § 47.4345–1.

§ 47.4344 Statutory provisions; certain other transfers.

SEC. 4344 Certain other transfers—(a) Loans. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of any of the instruments referred to in such sections to a borrower as a loan of such instruments, or to the lender as a return of such loan.

(b) Worthless stock and obligations. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of any of the instruments referred to in such sections by an executor or administrator to a legatee, heir, or distributee, if it is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary or his delegate that the value of such instrument is not greater than the amount of the tax which would otherwise be imposed on such delivery or transfer.

(c) Transfers between certain revocable trusts. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 shall not apply to any delivery or transfer of any of the instruments referred to in such sections by one revocable trust to another revocable trust if—

(1) The grantor of both trusts is the same person, and

(2) At the time of such delivery or transfer, such grantor is treated under section 676 as the owner of both trusts.

For purposes of the preceding sentence, if 2 or more grantors are treated under section 676 as owners in the same relative proportions of both trusts, such grantors shall be treated as the same person.

§ 47.4344–1 Certain other transfers.

(a) Loan of stock or certificate of indebtedness and the return thereof. A mere loan of stock or certificates of indebtedness or the return of stock or certificates of indebtedness loaned is exempt from the taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 if the loan or return is accompanied by an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 47.4345–1.

(b) Transfers of worthless stock or certificates of indebtedness by executors, etc. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 do not apply to deliveries or transfers of stock or certificates of indebtedness by an executor or administrator to a legatee, heir, or distributee, if it is shown to the satisfaction of the district director that the value of the stock or certificates of indebtedness so delivered or transferred is not greater than the amount of tax that would otherwise be imposed on such delivery or transfer.

(c) Transfers between certain revocable trusts. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 do not apply to any delivery or transfer of stock or certificates of indebtedness by one revocable trust to another revocable trust if (1) the grantor of both trusts is the same person, (2) at the time of such delivery or transfer such grantor is treated under section 676 and the regulations thereunder as the owner of the entire interest in both trusts, and (3) the delivery or transfer is accompanied by an exemption certificate in substantially the form prescribed in § 47.4345–1. If two or more grantors are treated under section 676 as owners in the same relative proportions of the entire interest in both trusts, such grantors shall be treated as the same person. For regulations under section 676, see Part 1 of this chapter (Income Tax Regulations).

SEC. 4345 Exemption certificates. Except as provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, no exemption shall be granted under sections 4322, 4332(a), 4341, 4342, 4343(a), or 4344 (a) or (c) unless the delivery or transfer is evidenced by a certificate setting forth such facts as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe.

No exemption shall be granted under sections 4322, 4332(a), 4341, 4342, 4343 (a), or 4344 (a) or (c) unless the delivery or transfer is accompanied by a certificate in substantially the following manner:

It is hereby certified that the transfer of the accompanying instrument(s) is made under such circumstances as to come within one of the exemptions specified in sections 4322, 4332(a), 4341, 4342, 4343(a), or 4344 (a) or (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, and that the evidence in proof of the exemption is maintained by the undersigned and is available for inspection by internal revenue officers.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 47.4351 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4351 Definitions—(a) Registered nominee. For purposes of this subchapter, the term "registered nominee" means any person registered in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary or his delegate shall prescribe.

(b) Sale or transfer. For purposes of this subchapter, the term "sale or transfer" means any sale, agreement to sell, memorandum of sale or delivery, or transfer of legal title, whether or not shown by the books of the corporation or other organization (or by any assignment in blank, or by any delivery, or by any paper or agreement or memorandum or other evidence of transfer or sale), and whether or not the holder acquires a beneficial interest in the instruments.

(a) Registered nominee. For purposes of the regulations in this part, the term "registered nominee" means any person appointed as nominee of a broker, custodian, or corporation if the person so appointed is registered with the district director for the district in which the principal office of the broker, custodian, or corporation is located. No special form is prescribed for use in registering a nominee. Substitution of a nominee may be effected by the registration of the successor nominee. Upon registration of any person as a nominee of a broker, custodian, or corporation, the district director shall issue to the broker, custodian, or corporation a certificate of registration signed by him and setting forth the date of issue, the name of the person registered as nominee, and the name of the broker, custodian, or corporation on whose behalf the nominee is registered. Such certificate shall be kept at the principal place of business of the broker, custodian, or corporation to whom the certificate is issued. The certificate of registration issued as provided in this paragraph shall be held available for ready inspection by internal revenue officers.

(b) Sale or transfer. For purposes of the regulations in this part, the term "sale or transfer" includes sales of, agreements to sell, or memoranda of sales of, stock or certificates of indebtedness; deliveries of stock or certificates of indebtedness with intent to pass title; transfer of legal title to stock or certificates of indebtedness; transfers of rights to subscribe for stock; and transfers of rights to receive stock. The taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 apply to the specified dealings or transactions in stock or certificates of indebtedness, whether effected by any assignment in blank, or by any delivery, or by any paper, agreement, memorandum or other evidence of transfer or sale (and in the case of stock, whether made before, after, or without the issuance of a certificate and whether made upon or shown by the books of the corporation or other organization), and without regard to whether the holder or transferee of the stock or certificate of indebtedness (or specified right in the case of stock) is entitled to any beneficial interest therein.

(c) Agreement to sell. As used in the regulations in this part, unless otherwise specified or indicated by the context, the term "agreement to sell" includes contracts to sell, either written or oral, and whether on the deferred or partial payment plan or otherwise, options, calls, offers, indemnities, and privileges.

(d) Clearinghouse. For definition of the term "clearinghouse", see paragraph (d) of § 47.4353–1.

§ 47.4352 Statutory provisions; affixing of stamps.

SEC. 4352 Affixing of stamps. The stamps representing the taxes imposed by section 4321 and section 4331 shall be affixed to—

(1) Instrument. The instrument where the change of ownership is by transfer of the instrument.

(2) Bill or memorandum of sale. The bill or memorandum of sale in cases of an agreement to sell or where the transfer is by delivery of the instrument assigned in blank. Such bill or memorandum of sale shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer, and shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale, and the instrument to which it refers.

(a) Documents to which stamps to be affixed. (1) In all cases where the change of ownership of stock or a certificate of indebtedness is by transfer or by delivery of the stock or certificate of indebtedness under special endorsement, i.e., by insertion of the name of the transferee in the endorsement on the back of the certificate, the stamps shall be affixed to the certificate, whether or not the change of ownership results from a sale.

(2) In cases of agreements to sell stock or certificates of indebtedness and in cases of transfers of title thereto by delivery of certificates assigned in blank, the stamps shall be affixed to the memoranda of such transactions. See paragraph (b) of this section. For cases where the evidence of sale or transfer of stock is shown only by the books of the corporation or other organization, see paragraph (a)(1) of § 47.4323–1.

(b) Requirement of memoranda of agreements to sell, etc. Every person who makes an agreement to sell stock or certificates of indebtedness, or who, by sale or otherwise, transfers title to stock or certificates of indebtedness by delivery of certificates assigned in blank, shall, as a part of the transaction, promptly make and deliver to the buyer or transferee, a bill or memorandum of such agreement to sell, sale, or transfer, duly signed by the seller, or transferor, or his agent. Such bill or memorandum shall show the date of the transaction, the names of the parties thereto, the description and number of shares of stock or certificates of indebtedness, the tax paid on the transaction, and, where a sale of stock is involved, the sale price. No more than one stamped bill or memorandum shall be required in respect of a single transaction. (See § 47.4353–1 relative to rules applicable to securities exchanges and clearinghouses.)

(c) In general. In no event shall any corporation or transfer agent transfer any shares, certificates of stock, or certificates of indebtedness unless stamps for the transfer tax due have been properly affixed and cancelled as required by the regulations in this part or unless tax has been paid without the use of stamps as provided in § 47.4353–1.

§ 47.4353 Statutory provisions; payment of tax through national securities exchanges without use of stamps.

SEC. 4353 Payment of tax through national securities exchanges without use of stamps—(a) General rule. Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate, if a member of a securities exchange which is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a national securities exchange appoints such exchange, or the clearinghouse for such exchange, as his agent for purposes of paying the taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4331 in respect of his transactions, the taxes imposed by such sections in respect of such transactions may be paid through such agent without the use of stamps.

(b) Treatment as stamp tax. For purposes of this title—

(1) Any tax which is payable as provided under subsection (a) shall be treated as tax payable by stamp, and

(2) Any amount of tax which is paid as provided under subsection (a) shall be treated as tax paid by stamp.

[Sec. 4353 as added and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.4353–1 Payment of tax through national securities exchanges or their clearinghouses.

(a) Appointment of agent. A member of a securities exchange which is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as a national securities exchange may appoint in writing such exchange or the clearinghouse for such exchange as his agent for the purpose of paying the tax required in respect of his transactions in stock or certificates of indebtedness.

(b) Conditions for payment through agent. The privilege granted by paragraph (a) of this section may be exercised only upon compliance with the following conditions:

(1) Authorization. The member shall authorize and require the exchange or the clearinghouse to pay the tax in respect of all transactions in stock or certificates of indebtedness, including rights to subscribe for or to receive stock, arising in the conduct of his business, irrespective of whether the stock or certificates of indebtedness are listed or unlisted, whether the transactions are clearable or not, and including transactions involving over-the-counter sales.

(2) Daily report of member. The member shall make a daily report to the exchange or clearinghouse for each business day showing the total amount of tax payable on all his business transactions as specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. The report shall be filed with the exchange or clearinghouse on the day on which the transactions covered thereby are due for settlement (blotter date).

(3) Daily records to be kept by member. The member shall maintain complete and adequate daily records, such as a blotter or similar book of original entry, of all transactions in stock or certificates of indebtedness as specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, whether the transaction is taxable or not. In the case of taxable transactions, the daily record shall show the amount of tax payable in respect of each transaction. In the case of nontaxable transactions, the daily record shall disclose the basis on which the exemption from the tax is claimed. Such daily records shall be kept in permanent form for a period of at least 3 years from the date any part of the tax is paid on the transaction and must be available for ready inspection by internal revenue officers.

(4) Payment of tax. The exchange or clearinghouse shall pay to the district director for the district in which the exchange or clearinghouse is located the total tax shown on the daily reports specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. Any such payment of tax shall be made on the day on which the report specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph is received by the exchange or clearinghouse. Each daily payment of tax to the district director shall be accompanied by a statement, in substantially the following form:

The accompanying check No. ------ in the amount of $------ is in payment of the total documentary stamp transfer tax liability as shown to be due on the reports received by the exchange or clearinghouse for ----------.
(Date)

(Name of stock exchange or clearinghouse) by ---------- ---------- (Name) (Title)

(5) Records to be kept by exchange or clearinghouse. The daily reports received from its members shall be kept in permanent form by the exchange or clearinghouse for a period of at least 3 years from the date any part of the tax is paid with respect to any transaction reported therein, and must be available for ready inspection by internal revenue officers.

(6) Endorsement showing payment of tax. The member shall make and deliver to the buyer the bill or memorandum required by paragraph (b) of § 47.4352–1 and shall make an endorsement on the bill or memorandum substantially in the following form:

It is hereby certified that the Federal stamp tax applicable to this transaction has been paid through the ---------- (Insert name of stock
---------- on our behalf.
exchange or clearinghouse)

(Member ---------- Stock Exchange)

If so desired, the member may also make a similar endorsement on the certificates of stock or certificates of indebtedness covered by the bill or memorandum. In that event, the endorsement shall be in substantially the following form:

It is hereby certified that the Federal stamp tax applicable to the transfer of ------ shares of this certificate (or applicable to the transfer of this certificate of indebtedness) has been paid through ---------- (Insert name of
---------- on our stock exchange or clearinghouse) behalf.

------ ----------
(Date) (Member -------- Stock Exchange)

The endorsement (including a facsimile signature of the member) may be made on the bill or memorandum and on the accompanying certificate of stock or certificates of indebtedness by a handstamped impression, if (i) the handstamp is held at all times in the custody of the person authorized to make such impression, and (ii) the records of the member contain sufficient information to establish the identity of the person so authorized.

(c) Treatment of payment of tax without use of stamps. For purposes of the regulations in this chapter, any tax payable under section 4353 and the regulations in this section shall be treated as tax payable by stamp, and any amount of tax paid as provided thereunder shall be treated as tax paid by stamp.

(d) Definition of clearinghouse. The term "clearinghouse" includes every corporation, and every association of individuals, partnerships, or corporations, wholly or partly engaged in the business of clearing, settling or adjusting transactions in the purchase, sale, receipt, or delivery of stock, certificates of indebtedness, rights, or warrants, whether or not a part or department of a securities exchange or an independent body.

§ 47.4361 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4361 Imposition of tax. There is hereby imposed, on each deed, instrument, or writing by which any lands, tenements, or other realty sold shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, the purchaser or purchasers, or any other person or persons, by his or their direction, when the consideration or value of the interest or property conveyed (exclusive of the value of any lien or encumbrance remaining thereon at the time of sale) exceeds $100, a tax at the rate of 55 cents for each $500 or fractional part thereof.

(a) Scope of tax. (1) Section 4361 imposes a tax upon deeds, instruments, or other writings, whereby realty sold is granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, the purchaser or, at his direction, any other person, when the consideration for, or value of, the interest or property conveyed, exclusive of the value of any lien or encumbrance remaining thereon at the time of sale, exceeds $100.

(2) The tax is limited to conveyances of realty sold and does not apply to other conveyances (see paragraph (b) of § 47.4361–2). The tax attaches at the time the deed or other instrument of conveyance is delivered, irrespective of the time when the sale is made. Deeds deposited in escrow become subject to the tax upon delivery to the grantee. A conveyance of realty subject to an equity of redemption is taxable when made, not when the time for redemption expires.

(3) For purposes of the tax imposed by section 4361, the determination of what constitutes "realty" is not controlled by the definition or scope of that term under State law. State law determines the character of the rights conveyed by an instrument, but whether such conveyance constitutes a conveyance of "realty" is to be determined under Federal law.

(4) For purposes of the regulations in this part—

(i) The term "realty" includes—

(a) Those interests in real property which endure for a period of time, the termination of which is not fixed or ascertained by a specific number of years, such as an estate in fee simple, life estate, perpetual easement, etc., and

(b) Those interests enduring for a fixed period of years but which, either by reason of the length of the term or the grant of a right to extend the term by renewal or otherwise, consist of a bundle of rights approximating those of the class of interests mentioned in (a) of this subdivision.

(ii) The term "sold" imports a transfer of an interest for a valuable consideration, which may involve money or anything of value.

(iii) The term "deed" includes any instrument or writing whereby realty is assigned, transfererd, or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, the purchaser, or at his direction, any other person.

(b) Rate and computation of tax. The rate of tax is 55 cents on each $500 or fractional part thereof of the net consideration paid for, or the net value of, the realty conveyed, that is, the gross consideration or gross value less, in either case, the amount of all liens or encumbrances on the realty existing before the sale and not removed thereby. The tax is based upon the net consideration where it is definite in amount, or may be definitely determined. The tax is based upon net value where the amount of the consideration is indefinite, or is left open to be fixed by future contingencies. In determining the amount of the net consideration for, or net value of, the realty conveyed, only the amount of the liens and encumbrances on the property existing before the sale and not removed thereby may be deducted. Thus, for example, taxes or assessmnets which are liens on the property before the sale and are not paid at the time of sale are deductible. No deduction shall be made on account of any lien or encumbrance placed upon the property in connection with the sale, or by reason of deferred payments of the purchase price, whether represented by notes or otherwise.

§ 47.4361–2 Illustrations.

(a) Conveyances subject to tax. The following are examples of conveyances subject to the tax:

(1) A conveyance of realty in exchange for other property; also the conveyance of the other property, if it is realty.

(2) A conveyance of realty in consideration of life maintenance. The tax is computed on the net value of the realty conveyed.

(3) A conveyance by a defaulting mortgagor to the mortgagee in consideration of the cancellation of the mortgage debt. The tax is computed on the amount of the unpaid mortgage debt plus unpaid accrued interest.

(4) Deeds given by masters in chancery, sheriffs, clerks of court, etc., for realty sold under foreclosure or execution. The tax is computed on the amount bid for the property plus the costs if paid by the purchaser, whether the purchaser is the mortgagee, judgment creditor, or any other person.

(5) A conveyance of realty by a judgment or decree in a condemnation proceeding under the power of eminent domain, or a conveyance of such property under threat or imminence of such proceeding.

(6) Conveyances to or by building and loan associations. However, the tax does not apply to a conveyance of realty to a building and loan association for the purpose of securing a loan thereon, nor to the reconveyance of the realty to its owner as part of the loan transaction.

(7) A conveyance of realty to a corporation in exchange for shares of its capital stock.

(8) A conveyance of realty by a corporation in liquidation or in dissolution to its shareholders subject to the debts of the corporation; however, if there are no corporate debts and the conveyance is made solely for the cancellation and retirement of the capital stock, the tax does not apply.

(9) Deeds to standing timber and to mines. (For definition of the term "deed", see paragraph (a)(4)(iii) of § 47.4361–1.)

(10) In jurisdictions where common-law dower still exists, an instrument conveying the estate acquired by a widow upon assignment of dower. However, an instrument purporting to convey the inchoate right of dower of a wife, or the consummate right of dower of a widow prior to assignment of dower, is not subject to the tax. Where by statute dower has been abolished and in lieu thereof a different interest in the husband's real property conferred upon the wife, the taxability of an instrument purporting to convey such interest prior to its assignment must be determined by the nature of the wife's interest as fixed by the statutes and decisions of the jurisdiction in which the real estate is located.

(11) A conveyance of real estate sold to or by the United States (see, however, paragraph (a) of § 47.4384–1).

(12) A conveyance of realty by a partner to the partnership as a contribution of partnership assets. See section 4383 and § 47.4383–1 for application of tax in case of a termination of a partnership owning realty.

(b) Conveyances not subject to tax. In addition to the various exemptions prescribed in sections 4362 and 4382 and in the Bankruptcy Act as amended, the following are examples of conveyances not subject to tax:

(1) The reconveyance of realty, conveyed to secure a debt, upon payment of such debt.

(2) Conveyances of realty without consideration and otherwise than in connection with a sale, including a deed conveying realty as a bona fide gift, although the deed may recite a consideration for the transfer, such as "natural love and affection and $1", "desire to promote public welfare and $1", or "$1 and other valuable consideration"; a gift of realty by a husband to his wife accomplished through the conveyance of the property for an ostensible consideration to a "straw man" who immediately reconveys the property to the wife; and a deed to or by a trustee not pursuant to a sale.

(3) A deed to confirm title already vested in the grantee, such as a quit claim deed to correct a flaw in title.

(4) A deed given by an executor in accordance with the terms of the will; however, if, by reason of a consideration passing between devisees, one of them takes a greater share in the realty than that to which he is entitled under the will, the deed given by the executor to convey such greater share is subject to a tax computed upon the amount exceeding such consideration.

(5) A deed from an agent to his principal conveying real estate purchased for and with funds of the principal.

(6) An option for the purchase of real property or a contract for the sale of real property, if the contract does not vest legal title.

(7) Partition deeds, unless, for consideration, some of the parties take shares greater in value than their undivided interests, in which event a tax attaches to each deed conveying such greater share computed upon the consideration for the excess.

(8) Ordinary leases of real property for a definite term of years (see, however, paragraph (a)(4)(i) of § 47.4361–1).

(9) A deed executed by a debtor conveying property to a trustee for the benefit of his creditors; however, when the trustee conveys such property to a creditor or sells it to any other person, the deed executed by him is taxable

(10) Conveyance to a receiver of realty included in the receivership assets, and reconveyance of such realty upon termination of the receivership.

(11) A deed conveying real estate situated in a foreign country.

(12) Transfer of real estate in a statutory merger or consolidation from a constituent corporation to the continuing or new corporation.

§ 47.4361–3 Affixing of stamps.

(a) Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4361. The requisite stamps shall be affixed to the deed, instrument, or other writing by which the realty is conveyed. See §§ 47.6804–1 and 47.6804–2 for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(b) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, from the sources and in the manner provided in § 47.6802–1. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections 6801 (§ 47.6801), 6802 (§ 47.6802), and 6805 (§ 47.6805), and the regulations thereunder contained in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration) and § 47.6801–1.

§ 47.4362 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4362 Exemptions—(a) Security for debt. The tax imposed by section 4361 shall not apply to any instrument or writing given to secure a debt.

(b) State and local government conveyances. No State or Territory, or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, shall be liable for the tax imposed by section 4361 with respect to any deed, instrument, or writing to which it is a party, and affixing of stamps thereby shall not be deemed payment for the tax, which may be collected by assessment from any other party liable therefor.

(c) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see section 4382.

[Sec. 4362 as amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.4362–1 Exemptions.

(a) Security for debt. Section 4362 expressly exempts from the tax imposed by section 4361 any instrument or writing, such as a mortgage or a deed of trust, given to secure a debt.

(b) Conveyance to which State is party. No State or Territory, or political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia shall be liable for the tax imposed by section 4361 in respect of a conveyance to which it is a party regardless of the capacity in which it acts. However, the conveyance is not exempt from tax, and the nonexempt party to the conveyance shall be liable for the tax. The affixing of stamps to the deed or other instrument of conveyance by the exempt governmental body does not constitute payment of the tax, and the nonexempt party remains liable for the tax in such case. Where all parties to a taxable conveyance are governmental bodies exempt under section 4362, no tax shall be imposed.

(c) Other exemptions. For other exemptions, see section 4382 and § 47.4382–1.

§ 47.4371 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4371 Imposition of tax. There is hereby imposed, on each policy of insurance, indemnity bond, annuity contract, or policy of reinsurance issued by any foreign insurer or reinsurer, a tax at the following rates:

(1) Casualty insurance and indemnity bonds. Four cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged on the policy of casualty insurance or the indemnity bond, if issued to or for, or in the name of, an insured as defined in section 4372(d).

(2) Life insurance, sickness, and accident policies, and annuity contracts. One cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged on the policy of life, sickness, or accident insurance, or annuity contract, unless the insurer is subject to tax under section 819.

(3) Reinsurance. One cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged on the policy of reinsurance covering any of the contracts taxable under paragraph (1) or (2).

[Sec. 4371 as amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959, and as further amended by sec. 3(f)(3) Life Insurance Income Tax Act 1959 (73 Stat. 140)]

§ 47.4371–1 Imposition of tax on policies issued by foreign insurers; scope of tax.

(a) Certain insurance policies, and indemnity, fidelity, or surety bonds. Section 4371(1) imposes a tax upon each policy of insurance (other than those referred to in paragraph (b) of this section), upon each indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond, or upon each certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called, whereby a contract of insurance of the character involved or an obligation of the nature of an indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond is made, continued, or renewed, if issued—

(1) By a nonresident alien individual, a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, as insurer, and the policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia in which the insurer is authorized to do business; and

(2) To or for, or in the name of, a domestic corporation, domestic partnership, or an individual resident of the United States, against or with respect to hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities wholly or partly within the United States; or

(3) To or for, or in the name of, a foreign corporation, foreign partnership, or nonresident individual, engaged in a trade or business within the United States with respect to hazards, risks, or liabilities wholly within the United States.

For definition of the term "indemnity bond", see section 4372(c).

(b) Life insurance, sickness, and accident policies and annuity contracts. Section 4371(2) imposes a tax upon each policy of insurance or annuity contract, or certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called, whereby a contract of insurance or an annuity contract is made, continued, or renewed, if issued—

(1) By a nonresident alien individual, a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, as insurer, and the policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia in which such insurer is authorized to do business, or if not so signed or countersigned, the insurer is not subject to tax under section 819; and

(2) To any person with respect to the life or hazards to the person of a citizen or resident of the United States.

(c) Reinsurance. Section 4371(3) imposes a tax upon each policy of reinsurance, certificate, binder, covering note, receipt, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called, whereby a contract of reinsurance is made, continued, or renewed, if issued—

(1) By a nonresident alien individual, a foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation, as reinsurer, and the policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the reinsurer in a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia in which such reinsurer is authorized to do business; and

(2) To any person against, or with respect to, any of the hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities covered by contracts described in section 4371 (1) or (2).

(d) Exempt indemnity bonds. The tax imposed by section 4371 does not apply to any indemnity bond described in section 4373(2).

§ 47.4371–2 Rate and computation of tax.

(a) Rate of tax. (1) The tax under section 4371(1) is imposed at the rate of 4 cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged.

(2) The tax under section 4371 (2) and (3) is imposed at the rate of 1 cent on each dollar, or fractional part thereof, of the premium charged.

(b) Computation of tax. The tax is measured strictly by the amount of the premium charged. The time and method of payment of the premium are immaterial; the tax liability attaches if the insurance becomes effective, even though the premium is never paid. The full rate of tax applies to each fractional part of a dollar of the premium charged. For example, upon a premium charge of $10.10, the tax at the rate of 4 cents amounts to 44 cents, and at the rate of 1 cent amounts to 11 cents.

(c) Meaning of premium. For purposes of the regulations in this part, the term "premium" means the agreed price or consideration for assuming and carrying the risk or obligation, and includes any additional assessment or charge which may be assessed or charged under the contract, whether payable in one sum or installments.

§ 47.4372 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4372 Definitions—(a) Foreign insurer or reinsurer. For purposes of this subchapter, the term "foreign insurer or reinsurer" means an insurer or reinsurer who is a nonresident alien individual, foreign partnership, or a foreign corporation. The term includes a nonresident alien individual, foreign partnership, or foreign corporation which shall become bound by an obligation of the nature of an indemnity bond.

(b) Policy of casualty insurance. For purposes of section 4371(1), the term "policy of casualty insurance" means any policy (other than life) or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of insurance is made, continued, or renewed.

(c) Indemnity bond. For purposes of this subchapter, the term "indemnity bond" means any instrument by whatever name called whereby an obligation of the nature of an indemnity, fidelity, or surety bond is made, continued, or renewed. The term includes any bond for indemnifying any person who shall have become bound or engaged as surety, and any bond for the due execution or performance of any contract, obligation, or requirement, or the duties of any office or position, and to account for money received by virtue thereof, where a premium is charged for the execution of such bond.

(d) Insured. For purposes of section 4371(1), the term "insured" means—

(1) A domestic corporation or partnership, or an individual resident of the United States, against, or with respect to, hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities wholly or partly within the United States, or

(2) A foreign corporation, foreign partnership, or nonresident individual, engaged in a trade or business within the United States, against, or with respect to, hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities within the United States.

(e) Policy of life, sickness, or accident insurance, or annuity contract. For purposes of section 4371(2), the term "policy of life, sickness, or accident insurance, or annuity contract" means any policy or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of insurance or an annuity contract is made, continued, or renewed with respect to the life or hazards to the person of a citizen or resident of the United States.

(f) Policy of reinsurance. For purposes of section 4371(3), the term "policy of reinsurance" means any policy or other instrument by whatever name called whereby a contract of reinsurance is made, continued, or renewed against, or with respect to, any of the hazards, risks, losses, or liabilities covered by contracts taxable under paragraph (1) or (2) of section 4371.

§ 47.4373 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4373 Exemptions. The tax imposed by section 4371 shall not apply to—

(1) Domestic agent. Any policy, indemnity bond, or annuity contract signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, Territory, or District of the United States within which such insurer is authorized to do business.

(2) Indemnity bond. Any indemnity bond required to be filed by any person to secure payment of any pension, allowance, allotment, relief, or insurance by the United States, or to secure a duplicate for, or the payment of, any bond, note, certificate of indebtedness, war-saving certificate, warrant, or check, issued by the United States.

§ 47.4374 Statutory provisions; affixing of stamps.

SEC. 4374 Affixing of stamps. Any person to or for whom or in whose name any policy, indemnity bond, or annuity contract referred to in section 4371 is issued, or any solicitor or broker acting for or on behalf of such person in the procurement of any such instrument shall affix the proper stamps to such instrument.

§ 47.4374–1 Affixing of stamps.

(a) General. (1) Documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax. Requisite stamps must be affixed to the first instrument whereby the taxable contractual relationship is created, continued, or renewed, whether it be a letter of acceptance, a cablegram, or other instrument by whatever name called. Where the instrument which creates or evidences the contractual relationship is confirmed by a subsequent instrument, the latter shall bear a notation designating such prior instrument (referred to in this section as the original instrument) and showing that the requisite stamps have been affixed thereto and canceled.

(2) In any case where the amount of the premium is not definitely determined at the time of entering into the taxable contractual relationship, the stamps may be affixed to the receipts for monthly or other payments if proper notation be made upon such receipts identifying the original instruments to which they apply.

(b) Subsequent instruments. In case a subsequent instrument provides for the payment of a premium greater than that provided for in the original instrument, the subsequent instrument must have affixed thereto stamps equal to the tax imposed upon the additional premium charged and must bear a notation of the stamps affixed to the original instrument.

(c) Affixing of stamps. (1) Only documentary stamps shall be used in payment of the tax imposed by section 4371. See also §§ 47.6804–1 and 47.6804–2 for the appropriate use, denominations, and cancellation of such stamps.

(2) Documentary stamps may be purchased, and requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained, from the sources and in the manner provided in § 47.6802–1. For provisions relating to distribution, supply, and redemption of stamps, see sections owner. The stamps shall be affixed by any person who is a party to the taxable contractual relationship, including any solicitor or broker acting for or on behalf of such person.

(d) Instruments without stamps or notation of stamping. For provisions relating to the penalty for failure to comply with the requirements of section 4374, see § 47.7270.

(e) Record requirements. For provisions relating to the requirements concerning records and the retention of policies for a period of 3 years, see § 47.6001–2.

§ 47.4381 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4381 Definitions—(a) Certificates of indebtedness. For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4311 and 4331, the term "certificates of indebtedness" means bonds, debentures, or certificates of indebtedness; and includes all instruments, however termed, issued by a corporation with interest coupons or in registered form, known generally as corporate securities.

(b) Corporation. For purposes of the taxes imposed by this chapter, the term "corporation" includes any investment trust or similar organization (or any person acting in behalf of such investment trust or similar organization) issuing, holding or dealing in shares or certificates of stock, or in certificates of indebtedness. For purposes of the tax imposed by section 4311, the term "corporation" also includes any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other person having custody of property of, or charge of the affairs of, the corporation. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed to limit the effect of the definition of the term "corporation" provided in section 7701(a)(3).

(c) Shares or certificates of stock. For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4301 and 4321, the term "shares or certificates of stock" includes shares or certificates of profits or of interest in property or accumulations.

§ 47.4381–1 Definitions.

(a) Certificates of indebtedness. The term "certificates of indebtedness" includes bonds, debentures, and certificates of indebtedness. Such term also includes all instruments, however termed, issued by a corporation with interest coupons or in registered form and known generally as corporate securities. The essence of a corporate security is marketability. An instrument is ordinarily considered to be marketable if it is issued in series, under a trust indenture, and in registered form or with interest coupons attached. For example, an instrument containing the essential features of a promissory note is included within the meaning of the term "certificates of indebtedness" if it has, in addition, the general characteristics of a corporate security. Whether or not an instrument is a certificate of indebtedness within the meaning of section 4381(a) is not determined by its name alone, but depends upon all the facts which can be derived from the face of the instrument, such as the form and terms of the instrument. The nature of the transaction or any act appearing outside of the instrument itself is immaterial for purposes of making such determination.

(b) Corporation. For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, 4361, and 4371, the term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies (see § 47.7701), as well as any investment trust or similar organization (or any person acting in behalf of such investment trust or similar organization) issuing, holding or dealing in shares or certificates of stock, or in certificates of indebtedness. In addition, for purposes of the tax imposed by section 4311; the term "corporation" also includes any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other person having custody of property, or charge of the affairs, of the corporation.

(c) Shares or certificates of stock. For purposes of the regulations in this part, the term "stock" includes shares or certificates of stock. The term "stock" also includes shares in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company (see § 47.7701). For purposes of the tax imposed by section 4321, the term "stock" also includes rights to subscribe for or to receive shares or certificates of stock (see paragraph (a) of § 47.4321–1). For purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4301 and 4321, the term "shares or certificates of stock" includes shares or certificates of profits or of interest in property or accumulations.

(d) Cross references. For other definitions of general application, see §§ 47.0–2 and 47.7701.

§ 47.4382 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4382 Exemptions—(a) Governments; certain associations. The taxes imposed by this chapter shall not apply to—

(1) Government and State obligations. Any certificate of indebtedness, note, or other instrument, issued by the United States, or by any foreign government, or by any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or local subdivision thereof, or municipal or other corporation exercising the taxing power.

(2) Domestic building and loan associations and mutual ditch or irrigation companies. Shares or certificates of stock and certificates of indebtedness issued by domestic building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, cooperative banks, and homestead associations substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members, or by mutual ditch or irrigation companies.

(3) Farmers', fruit growers', or cooperative associations. Shares or certificates of stock and certificates of indebtedness issued by any farmers' or fruit growers' or like associations organized and operated on a cooperative basis for the purposes, and subject to the conditions, prescribed in section 521.

(b) Certain reorganizations, etc. The taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, and 4361 shall not apply to—

(1) Corporate and railroad reorganization. The issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, to make effective any plan of reorganization or adjustment—

(A) Confirmed under the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (11 U.S.C.),

(B) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77(m) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (11 U.S.C. 205(m)),

(C) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a corporation, as defined in section 106(3) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (11 U.S.C. 506), or

(D) Whereby a mere change in identity, form, or place or organization is effected, but only if the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of instruments of transfer or conveyances, occurs within 5 years from the date of such confirmation, approval, or change.

(2) Orders of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or making or delivery of conveyances, to make effective any order of the Securities and Exchange Commission as defined in section 1083(a); but only if—

(A) The order of the Securities and Exchange Commission in obedience to which such issuance, transfer, exchange, or conveyance is made recites that such issuance, transfer, exchange, or conveyance is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11(b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (15 U.S.C. 79k(b)),

(B) Such order specifies and itemizes the securities and other property which are ordered to be issued, transferred, exchanged, or conveyed, and

(C) Such issuance, transfer, exchange, or conveyance is made in obedience to such order.

[Sec. 4382 as amended and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.4382–1 Exemptions.

(a) Government and State obligations. Section 4382(a)(1) exempts from the tax imposed by section 4311 or 4331 any certificate of indebtedness issued by the United States, or by any foreign government, or by any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or local subdivision thereof, or municipal or other corporation exercising the taxing power.

(b) Stocks and certificates of indebtedness of domestic building and loan associations, etc. Section 4382(a)(2) exempts from the tax imposed by section 4301, 4311, 4321, or 4331 any stock or certificate of indebtedness issued by a (1) domestic building and loan association, savings and loan association, cooperative bank, or homestead association, substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members, or (2) mutual ditch or irrigation company. For definition of the term "domestic building and loan association", see § 47.7701.

(c) Stocks and certificates of indebtedness of farmers', fruit growers', or cooperative associations. Section 4382(a)(3), exempts from the tax imposed by section 4301, 4311, 4321, or 4331 any stock or certificate of indebtedness issued by any farmers' or fruit growers' or like associations organized and operated on a cooperative basis for the purposes, and subject to the conditions, prescribed in section 521. For regulations under section 521, see Part 1 of this chapter (Income Tax Regulations).

(d) Corporate and railroad reorganizations. (1) Section 4382(b)(1) exempts from the taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, and 4361 the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, to make effective any plan of reorganization or adjustment—

(i) Confirmed under the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (11 U.S.C.);

(ii) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a railroad corporation, as defined in section 77(m) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (11 U.S.C. 205(m));

(iii) Approved in an equity receivership proceeding in a court involving a corporation, as defined in section 106(3) of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended (11 U.S.C. 506); or if the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of instruments of transfer or conveyance, occurs within 5 years from the date of such confirmation, approval, or change.

(iv) Whereby a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization is effected,

(2) Section 267 of the Bankruptcy Act (11 U.S.C. 667) also exempts from stamp tax the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making or delivery of instruments of transfer under any plan of reorganization confirmed under chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended. However, by reason of the provisions of section 4382(b)(1) the exemption conferred by section 267 has no application to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making, delivery, or filing of conveyances, which occurs after 5 years from the date of confirmation or approval of the plan of reorganization.

(e) Orders of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Section 4382(b)(2) exempts from the taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, and 4361 the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities, or the making or delivery of conveyances, to make effective any order of the Securities and Exchange Commission as defined in section 1083(a), if (1) the order of the Securities and Exchange Commission in obedience to which such issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities or conveyance is made recites that such issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities or conveyance is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11(b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (15 U.S.C. 79k(b)); (2) such order specifies and itemizes the securities and other property which are ordered to be issued, transferred, exchanged, or conveyed; and (3) such issuance, transfer, exchange, or conveyance is made in obedience to such order.

(f) Alteration and modification of securities under the Interstate Commerce Act. Section 20b of the Interstate Commerce Act (49 U.S.C. 20b) provides for alteration or modification of securities of a carrier as defined in section 20a(1). Paragraph (12) of such section 20b (by application of section 7852) makes sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, and 4361, and any amendments thereto, unless specifically provided to the contrary, inapplicable to the issuance, transfer, or exchange of securities or the making or delivery of conveyances to make effective any alteration or modification effected pursuant to section 20b.

§ 47.4383 Statutory provisions: certain changes in partnerships.

SEC. 4383 Certain changes in partnerships—(a) Continuing partnerships. In the case of any share, certificate, right, or realty held by a partnership, no tax shall be imposed under section 4321, 4331, or 4361 by reason of any transfer of an interest in a partnership or otherwise, if—

(1) Such partnership (or another partnership) is considered as a continuing partnership (within the meaning of section 708), and

(2) Such continuing partnership continues to hold the share, certificate, right, or realty concerned.

(b) Terminated partnerships. If there is a termination of any partnership (within the meaning of section 708)—

(1) For purposes of this chapter, such partnership shall be treated—

(A) As having transferred all shares, certificates, and rights held by such partnership at the time of such termination; and

(B) As having executed an instrument whereby there was conveyed, for fair market value (exclusive of the value of any lien or encumbrance remaining thereon), all realty held by such partnership at the time of such termination; but

(2) Not more than one tax shall be imposed under section 4321, 4331, or 4361, as the case may be, by reason of such termination (and any transfer pursuant thereto) with respect to the shares, certificates, rights, or realty held by such partnership at the time of such termination.

(a) Continuing partnerships. No tax shall be imposed under section 4321, 4331, or 4361 by reason of any transfer of an interest in a partnership holding shares, certificates, rights, or realty if such partnership (or another partnership) is considered to be a continuing partnership within the meaning of section 708 and if such shares, certificates, rights, or realty continue to be held, regardless of the name in which held, by the continuing partnership (or the continuing partnerships if more than one). For rules relating to continuations of partnerships, see section 708 and the regulations thereunder in Part 1 of this chapter (Income Tax Regulations). To the extent that the shares, certificates, rights, or realty do not continue to be so held, the taxes imposed by sections 4321, 4331, and 4361 will apply. For example, if a partner withdraws from a partnership under such circumstances that the withdrawal does not constitute a termination of the partnership under the provisions of section 708 and the regulations thereunder, and if the partnership transfers to him, in consideration for his withdrawal, stock owned by the partnership, the stock so transferred will be subject to tax. However, if the partner receives cash in consideration for his withdrawal, and the partnership retains the stock, no tax is imposed since the stock is held by a continuing partnership.

(b) Termination of partnerships. If there is a termination, within the meaning of section 708, of a partnership holding shares, certificates, rights, or realty, the partnership is considered, for purposes of the taxes imposed by sections 4321, 4331, and 4361, as having transferred at the time of such termination all of such shares, certificates, and rights, and as having executed at the time of such termination an instrument conveying, for fair market value (exclusive of the value of any lien or encumbrance remaining thereon), all of such realty. However, not more than one tax shall be imposed under each section with respect to such shares, certificates, rights, or realty by reason of a termination and any transfer pursuant thereto. Tax should be computed with respect to the transfer or conveyance deemed to occur under this paragraph. Any other deemed or actual transfer or conveyance which occurs by reason of the transaction resulting in the termination is not subject to tax. The operation of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Partnership AB owns 150 shares of X Corporation stock having a total actual value of $13,000 and real estate having a fair market value (exclusive of the value of any lien or encumbrance thereon) of $10,000. Partner B retires and receives 100 shares of X Corporation stock in liquidation of his entire partnership interest. Partner A receives the remainder of the partnership properties in liquidation of his entire partnership interest, and he continues to run the business as a sole proprietor. Partnership AB is terminated within the meaning of section 708 since the partnership business is no longer carried on by a partnership. Partnership AB is, therefore, considered to have executed an instrument conveying the real estate for $10,000 and to have transferred the X Corporation stock having a total actual value of $13,000. The transaction is subject to the taxes imposed by sections 4321 and 4361. No tax is imposed on the actual transfer of 100 shares of X Corporation stock to partner B or on the actual transfer and conveyance of the remaining stock and realty to partner A since such conveyance and transfers are made by reason of the transaction resulting in the termination.

Example (2). Partnership ABCD owns 1,000 shares of Y Corporation stock having a total actual value of $60,000. Partner A owns a 40 percent interest in the capital and profits of the partnership and partners B, C, and D each have a 20 percent interest. In January, 1960, partner A sells his partnership interest to E, and in September, 1960, partner B sells his partnership interest to F thereby causing a termination of the partnership within the meaning of section 708. The partnership is, therefore, considered to have transferred in September, 1960, the 1,000 shares of Y Corporation stock, and there is a tax under section 4321 with respect to such shares. No further tax is imposed with respect to the transaction. Inasmuch as A is not a partner in the partnership at the time of its termination, he incurs no liability for the tax imposed with respect to the 1,000 shares of stock.

Example (3). Partnership ABCDE terminates within the meaning of section 708 by reason of the sale by E of his partnership interest to F. Pursuant to the termination transaction, partners A and B withdraw from the partnership, receiving stock owned by the partnership in consideration for their withdrawal, under such circumstances that the withdrawal constitutes a liquidation under section 708 and the regulations thereunder. All of the stock owned by the partnership is considered to be transferred on termination and tax is imposed with respect to such stock, but no additional tax is imposed with respect to the stock actually distributed to partners A and B in liquidation of their partnership interest. Furthermore, no tax will be imposed on the transfer by partners A and B of the stock distributed to them to a new partnership AB if such transfer is made pursuant to an agreement entered into concurrently with and as a result of the transaction in which partnership ABCDE is terminated.

(c) Application of section. Only those partnership changes occurring on or after January 1, 1959, shall be considered in determining whether a partnership is a continuing or terminated partnership under section 708.

§ 47.4384 Statutory provisions: liability for tax.

SEC. 4384 Liability for tax. The taxes imposed by this chapter shall be paid by any person who makes, signs, issues, or sells any of the documents and instruments subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter, or for whose use or benefit the same are made, signed, issued, or sold. The United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof shall not be liable for the tax with respect to an instrument to which it is a party, and affixing of stamps thereby shall not be deemed payment for the tax, which may be collected by assessment from any other party liable therefor.

(a) In general. Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, the tax is payable by any of the parties to a taxable transaction. For example, in the case of the transfer of stock, the liability therefor is imposed upon the transferor, the transferee, and the corporation whose stock is transferred (if there is a transfer of record). The parties to the transaction may agree among themselves as to which shall pay the tax, but such agreement does not relieve the others from their liability in the event it is not carried out. No provisions, by-laws, or rules, of any exchange, and no custom, shall exempt any person from payment of the tax imposed.

(b) Liability of subscriber for tax on issuance of stock. The liability of a subscriber for the tax imposed by section 4301 on an issuance of stock to him by a corporation extends only to that portion of the total tax on all issuances of stock by such corporation for the day that the total actual value of the shares or certificates of stock issued to him in that day bears to the total actual value of all shares or certificates issued by the corporation in such day. For example, if a total of 100 shares of stock having a total actual value of $1,800 are issued in one day by a corporation, the tax would be $1.80. If A were issued in that day 10 shares of such stock having a total value of $180, his liability for tax would be 18 cents.

(c) United States as party to transaction. The United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof shall not be liable for tax in respect of an instrument to which it is a party regardless of the capacity in which it acts. However, the transaction is not exempt from tax, and the nonexempt party to the transaction shall be liable for the tax. The affixing of stamps to the instrument by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof does not constitute payment of the tax, and the nonexempt party remains liable for the tax in such case.

(d) State as party to transaction. Except with respect to the tax imposed by section 4361, where a State or a political subdivision thereof, acting in its governmental capacity, is a party to a taxable transaction, under chapter 34 of the Code, the transaction will not be exempt from the documentary stamp tax merely by reason of the governmental character of one of the parties. The legal incidence of the tax in such a case rests upon the other party to the transaction. However, if in a taxable transaction with a private party, a State or political subdivision thereof is acting in its proprietary function, both parties will be liable for the tax. Where all parties to a transaction are States or political subdivisions thereof, acting in their governmental capacity, no tax shall be imposed. See section 4362(b) and paragraph (b) of § 47.4362–1 for the exemption of any State, Territory, political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia from the tax imposed by section 4361 on conveyances of realty to which it is a party, regardless of the capacity in which it acts.

§ 47.6001 Statutory provisions; notice or regulations requiring records, statements, and special returns.

SEC. 6001 Notice or regulations requiring records, statements, and special returns. Every person liable for any tax imposed by this title, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the Secretary or his delegate may from time to time prescribe. Whenever in the judgment of the Secretary or his delegate it is necessary, he may require any person, by notice served upon such person or by regulations, to make such returns, render such statements, or keep such records, as the Secretary or his delegate deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable for tax under this title.

§ 47.6001–1 Records of sales and transfers of stock.

(a) Brokers, dealers, etc. All persons who are wholly or partly engaged in the business of buying, selling, or transferring stock, either at public or private sale, whether or not they are members of an exchange, including persons engaged in transactions known as "matched", "on-order", "pass-outs", or "give-ups", or transactions which are settled directly between the seller and buyer or which are cleared or adjusted through a clearinghouse or otherwise, or persons (other than those described in paragraph (b) of this section) engaged in accepting and procuring the transmission of orders for purchase or sale of shares of stock shall keep a record as to each transaction showing:

(1) Date of transaction.
(2) Name of customer for whom sold or loaned, or for whom bought or borrowed.
(3) Name of party to whom sold or loaned, or from whom bought or borrowed.
(4) Name of correspondent broker, if any.
(5) Number of shares involved.
(6) Name and description of stock.
(7) Selling price of stock, per share.
(8) Amount of tax paid.

(b) Correspondent brokers. Persons engaged in accepting and procuring the transmission of orders for the purchase or sale of stock, to be executed at a brokerage office or at an exchange, board of trade, or similar place, shall keep a record as to each transaction showing:

(1) Date of acceptance and transmission of order.
(2) Name of person from whom accepted.
(3) Name and address of person to whom transmitted.
(4) Name and description of stock.
(5) Number of shares involved.
(6) Whether purchase or sale.
(7) Selling price of stock, per share.
(8) Date of execution of order.

(c) Floor brokers, etc. Brokers known as strictly "floor brokers", "two-dollar men", or "room traders", whether their transactions are settled directly between seller and buyer, by "matched", "on-order", "pass-out", "scratch sale", or "give-up", or by any other kind of sale or purchase, or whether their transactions are cleared through a clearinghouse or otherwise, shall, in lieu of the record prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, keep a record as to each transaction showing:

(1) Date of transaction.
(2) Name of seller.
(3) Name of purchaser.
(4) Name and description of stock.
(5) Number of shares involved.
(6) Selling price of stock, per share.
(7) Whether the transaction is "matched", "on-order", "pass-out", "scratch sale", or "give-up".
(8) Name of person to whom "given-up".

(d) General. Persons keeping records as prescribed in this section may incorporate therein additional information for their own use, which should be entered, however, so as not to interfere with the recording of the information required by this section. These records must be kept in permanent form for a period of at least three years from the date any part of the tax is paid on the transaction and must be available for ready inspection by internal revenue officers.

§ 47.6001–2 Records with respect to foreign insurance policies.

(a) Records to be kept by solicitors, brokers, etc. No return or statement showing a list of policies or other instruments subject to the tax imposed by section 4371 is required from any person to or for whom, or in whose name, such policy or other instrument is issued, or from the solicitor or broker acting directly or indirectly for or on behalf of such person. However, each person, solicitor, or broker, accepting, placing, soliciting, or making, directly or indirectly, or paying or receiving compensation with respect to, a policy or other instrument subject to the tax imposed by section 4371 shall keep a record of such policy or other instrument for a period of at least three years from the date any part of the tax was paid with respect to the issuance thereof and shall be prepared to furnish full information to the district director at any time upon demand.

(b) Records to be kept by policy holder. The person having control or possession of a policy of insurance, or reinsurance, or other instrument to which documentary stamps must be affixed shall retain such instrument for at least 3 years from the date any part of the tax was paid with respect to the issuance thereof to enable internal revenue officers to ascertain whether the requisite stamps have been affixed and cancelled.

§ 47.6801 Statutory provisions; authority for establishment, alteration, and distribution.

SEC. 6801 Authority for establishment, alteration, and distribution.—(a) Establishment and alteration. The Secretary or his delegate may establish, and from time to time alter, renew, replace, or change the form, style, character, material, and device of any stamp, mark, or label under any provision of the laws relating to internal revenue.

(b) Preparation and distribution of regulations, forms, stamps and dies. The Secretary or his delegate shall prepare and distribute all the instructions, regulations, directions, forms, blanks, and stamps; and shall provide proper and sufficient adhesive stamps and other stamps or dies for expressing and denoting the several stamp taxes.

§ 47.6801–1 Establishment of meter machines and stamps.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue or his delegate shall have the authority to set the standards for and to approve meter machines for use in the sale of documentary stamps and to prescribe instructions and requirements governing the circumstances and conditions under which such machines may be used. In addition to the documentary stamps customarily sold and used for the payment of taxes imposed under chapter 34 of the Code, stamps produced by authorized documentary stamp meter machines shall be proper for such use. See paragraph (a)(5) of § 47.0–2 for the definition of the term "documentary stamps".

§ 47.6802 Statutory provisions; supply and distribution.

SEC. 6802 Supply and distribution. The Secretary or his delegate shall furnish, without prepayment, to—

(1) Postmaster General. The Postmaster General a suitable quantity of adhesive stamps (other than the stamps on playing cards), coupons, tickets, or such other devices as may be prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate pursuant to section 6302(b) or this chapter, to be distributed to, and kept on sale by, the various postmasters in the United States in all post offices of the first and second classes, and such post offices of the third and fourth classes as—

(A) Are located in county seats, or

(B) Are certified by the Secretary to the Postmaster General as necessary;

(2) Designated depositary of the United States. Any designated depositary of the United States a suitable quantity of adhesive stamps to be kept on sale by such designated depositary;

(3) State agents. Any person who is—

(A) Duly appointed and acting as agent of any State for the sale of stock transfer stamps of such State, and

(B) Designated by the Secretary or his delegate for the purpose, a suitable quantity of such adhesive stamps as are required by section 4301, to be kept on sale by such person.

[Sec. 6802 as originally enacted and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.6802–1 Where stamps may be purchased and where requisition forms for the purchase of such stamps may be obtained and filed.

(a) Where stamps may be purchased. Documentary stamps may be purchased from (1) district directors and other duly authorized officials; (2) postmasters in all post offices of the first and second classes and such post offices of the third and fourth class as are located in county seats; (3) designated depositaries of the United States (see section 6802(2) (§ 47.6802)); and (4) State agents designated under paragraph (3) of section 6802 (§ 47.6802).

(b) Requests for purchase of stamps. A request for the purchase of documentary stamps (other than stamps issued by authorized meter machines) from a district director, designated United States depositary, or designated State agent shall be made in writing. Form 427 may be used for this purpose. Copies of this form may be procured from any district director.

(c) Use or resale of unused documentary stamps. Unused documentary stamps may be used at any time in payment of any tax imposed by section 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, 4361, or 4371, or may be resold by the owner at any time. For redemption of stamps see section 6805 (§ 47.6805).

§ 47.6804 Statutory provisions; attachment and cancellation.

SEC. 6804 Attachment and cancellation. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this title, the stamps referred to in section 6801 shall be attached, protected, removed, canceled, obliterated, and destroyed, in such manner and by such instruments or other means as the Secretary or his delegate may prescribe by rules or regulations.

§ 47.6804–1 Stamps to be used and denominations thereof.

(a) Documentary stamps only to be used. Except as provided in section 4353 and § 47.4353–1, documentary stamps only shall be used in payment of the stamp taxes imposed by sections 4301, 4311, 4321, 4331, 4361, and 4371. Ordinary postage stamps shall not be used in payment of documentary stamp taxes.

(b) Use of stamps. Wherever feasible, a stamp tax shall be paid by the use of a single stamp. If a stamp of a denomination equal to the tax is not readily available, the smallest practical number of stamps shall be used. A stamp affixed to an instrument and canceled cannot lawfully be removed therefrom and affixed to another instrument requiring a stamp (see section 7208 (§ 47.7208), relating to penalties).

(c) Denominations of documentary stamps. Documentary stamps (other than stamps issued by authorized meter machines) are issued in the following denominations: 1 cent, 2 cents, 3 cents, 4 cents, 5 cents, 8 cents, 10 cents, 20 cents, 25 cents, 40 cents, 50 cents, 55 cents, 80 cents, $1, $1.10, $1.65, $2, $2.20, $2.75, $3, $3.30, $4, $5, $10, $20, $30, $50, $60, $100, $500, $1,000, $2,500, $5,000, and $10,000.

§ 47.6804–2 Cancellation of stamps.

A person using or affixing a stamp shall cancel it and so deface it as to render it unfit for reuse by marking it with his initials and the day, month, and year when the affixing occurs. (See section 7271(1) (§ 47.7271), relating to penalties.) Such marking shall be made by writing or stamping in indelible ink or by perforating with a machine or punch. However, the stamp shall not be so defaced as to prevent ready determination of its denomination and genuineness.

SEC. 6805 Redemption of stamps—(a) Authorization. The Secretary or his delegate, subject to regulations prescribed by him, may, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the facts, make allowance for or redeem such of the stamps, issued under authority of any internal revenue law, as may have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or for which the owner may have no use.

(b) Method and conditions of allowance. Such allowance or redemption may be made, either by giving other stamps in lieu of the stamps so allowed for or redeemed, or by refunding the amount or value to the owner thereof, deducting therefrom, in case of repayment, the percentage, if any, allowed to the purchaser thereof; but no allowance or redemption shall be made in any case until the stamps so spoiled or rendered useless shall have been returned to the Secretary or his delegate, or until satisfactory proof has been made showing the reason why the same cannot be returned; or, if so required by the Secretary or his delegate, when the person presenting the same cannot satisfactorily trace the history of said stamps from their issuance to the presentation of his claim as aforesaid.

(c) Time for filing claims. No claim for the redemption of, or allowance for, stamps shall be allowed under this section unless presented within 3 years after the purchase of such stamps from the Government.

(d) Finality of decisions. The findings of fact in and the decision of the Secretary or his delegate upon the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by this section shall, in the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculation, be final and not subject to revision by any accounting officer.

§ 47.6805–1 Redemption of stamps.

For provisions with respect to redemption of stamps, see the regulations under section 6805 in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 47.7208 Statutory provisions; offenses relating to stamps.

SEC. 7208 Offenses relating to stamps. Any person who—

(1) Counterfeiting. With intent to defraud, alters, forges, makes, or counterfeits any stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device prescribed under authority of this title for the collection or payment of any tax imposed by this title, or sells, lends, or has in his possession any such altered, forged, or counterfeited stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device, or makes, uses, sells, or has in his possession any material in imitation of the material used in the manufacture of such stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device; or

(2) Mutilation or removal. Fraudulently cuts, tears, or removes from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title, any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article provided, made, or used in pursuance of this title; or

(3) Use of mutilated, insufficient, or counterfeited stamps. Fraudulently uses, joins, fixes, or places to, with, or upon any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title,

(A) Any adhesive stamp, or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article, which has been cut, torn, or removed from any other vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title; or

(B) Any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article of insufficient value; or

(C) Any forged or counterfeited stamp, or the impression of any forged or counterfeited stamp, die, plate, or other article; or

(4) Reuse of stamps—(A) Preparation for reuse. Willfully removes, or alters the cancellation or defacing marks of, or otherwise prepares, any adhesive stamp, with intent to use, or cause the same to be used, after it has already been used; or

(B) Trafficking. Knowingly or willfully buys, sells, offers for sale, or gives away, any such washed or restored stamp to any person for use, or knowingly uses the same; or

(C) Possession. Knowingly and without lawful excuse (the burden of proof of such excuse being on the accused) has in possession any washed, restored, or altered stamp, which has been removed from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article; or shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both.

(5) Emptied stamped packages. Commits the offense described in section 7271 (relating to disposal and receipt of stamped packages) with intent to defraud the revenue, or to refraud any person;

§ 47.7209 Statutory provisions; unauthorized use or sale of stamps.

SEC. 7209 Unauthorized use or sale of stamps. Any person who buys, sells, offers for sale, uses, transfers, takes or gives in exchange, or pledges or gives in pledge, except as authorized in this title or in regulations made pursuant thereto, any stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate under this title for the collection or payment of any tax imposed by this title, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than 6 months, or both.

§ 47.7209–1 Use or resale of unused stamps.

For provisions with respect to the use or resale of unused stamps, see paragraph (c) of § 47.6802–1. For provisions with respect to the unauthorized use or sale of stamps, see the regulations under section 7209 in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 47.7270 Statutory provisions; insurance policies.

SEC. 7270 Insurance policies. Any person who fails to comply with the requirements of section 4374 (relating to the affixing of stamps on insurance policies, etc.), with intent to evade the tax shall, in addition to other penalties provided therefor, pay a fine of double the amount of the tax.

[Sec. 7270 as originally enacted and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.7271 Statutory provisions; penalties for offenses relating to stamps.

SEC. 7271 Penalties for offenses relating to stamps. Any person who with respect to any tax payable by stamps—

(1) Failure to attach or cancel stamps, etc. Fails to comply with rules or regulations prescribed pursuant to section 6804 (relating to attachment, cancellation, etc., of stamps), unless such failure is shown to be due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect; or

* * * * *

(3) Instruments. Makes, signs, issues, or accepts, or causes to be made, signed, issued, or accepted, any instrument, document, or paper of any kind or description whatsoever without the full amount of tax thereon being duly paid; or shall be liable for each such offense to a penalty of $50.

* * * * *

[Sec. 7271 as originally enacted and in effect Jan. 1, 1959]

§ 47.7271–1 Cross references.

For other provisions relating to penalties, see the applicable sections of the regulations in Part 301 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 47.7701 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 7701 Definitions. (a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof—

(1) Person. The term "person" shall be construed to mean and include an individual a trust, estate, partnership, association, company or corporation.

(2) Partnership and partner. The term "partnership" includes a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or other unincorporated organization, through or by means of which any business, financial operation, or venture is carried on, and which is not, within the meaning of this title, a trust or estate or a corporation; and the term "partner" includes a member in such a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or organization.

(3) Corporation. The term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

[7 CFR Part 902]

[Docket No. AO–293–A3]

MILK IN WASHINGTON, D.C., MARKETING AREA

Notice of Recommended Decision and Opportunity To File Written Exceptions on Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement, and order regulating the handling of milk in the Washington, D.C., marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., not later than the close of business the 10th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendments, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, were formulated, was conducted at Washington, D.C., on September 28 and 29, 1960, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued September 6, 1960 (25 F.R. 8745).

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. Modification of the definition of "handler" to cover a cooperative association with respect to farmers' milk delivered to pool plants in trucks owned, operated, or controlled by the association;

2. Permitting unlimited diversion of a producer's milk in certain circumstances;

3. Accounting for milk received from a nonpool plant to which producer milk is diverted from a pool plant;

4. Accounting for shrinkage;

5. The price level for Class I milk;

6. The price for milk used in the manufacture of butter and cheese;

7. Establishment of a base-excess plan; and

8. Miscellaneous provisions.

Proposals 9 and 10 in the notice of hearing were not supported by any testimony at the hearing and, accordingly, no findings or conclusions with respect to those proposals are contained herein. Issues Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8 are reserved for a further decision on this record.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

5. Price for Class I milk. No change should be made in the pricing formula for Class I milk, except to extend it in its present form for another 18 months.

Official notice is taken of market data published by the market administrator for months subsequent to those for which data appear in the record.

Official notice is taken, also, of the decisions of the Assistant Secretary issued May 1, 1959, on milk in the Washington, D.C., marketing area (24 F.R. 3630) and on November 20, 1959, on milk in the Upper Chesapeake Bay marketing area (24 F.R. 9441).

A producer organization proposed that the present pricing mechanism be changed, first, by increasing the prices by 40 cents per hundredweight for each of the months of April through February, and secondly, by including March in the group of months with the higher seasonal price. This would raise the annual average of Class I prices about 43.8 cents. The producer organization also asked that the price adjustment mechanism based upon the average of the Federal order Class I prices in Philadelphia, New York and Chicago, be modified to eliminate any effect of those markets' supply-demand adjusters upon prices in this market.

There has been substantial variation in the monthly volumes of producer milk received at handlers' plants since the order was made effective July 1, 1959. A large part of this variation undoubtedly represents normal seasonal changes in production per cow. Production per farm varied from 1001 pounds per day in November 1959, to 1,298 per day in May 1960. Production for the market also varied because there were substantial changes in the number of producers. From a figure of 2,109 in July 1959, the number increased steadily to 2,332 in December 1959 and then decreased to 2,125 in July 1960. Subsequent months show an increase in the number of producers, and in October 1960 the number was 2,351.

The volume of Class I sales likewise has varied considerably from month to month during the period since the order was established. The daily average sales, in each month ranged from a low of 1,540,000 pounds in July 1960, to 1,875,000 pounds in October 1959. Daily Class I sales, however, for September 1960 were at approximately the same level as a year before.

In July, August and October 1960, production for the market was higher in relation to Class I disposition than a year earlier, but in September 1960 the supply-sales ratio was very close to that of September a year previous. Although a definite trend in the supply-sales relationship is not clear from the available data, the relatively higher level of supply in some recent months than a year previous raises the question of whether the supply is tending to expand at the present price level. In the decision of May 1, 1959, it was concluded: "It is apparent that there is, and has been, a somewhat larger than necessary supply • • •". Because of the similarity of conditions then and now, there is no basis in the local supply situation for a different conclusion as to price level.

The relationship of the Class I price to prices in other markets was a primary consideration in the decision issued May 1, 1959, for establishing the appropriate price level in the Washington market. As indicated in the record of this hearing, the Department contemplates a hearing in the near future on Federal orders in the Northeastern markets, particularly for the purpose of establishing prices which reflect proper relationships among the markets and to the manufacturing milk price level. Since the effective date of the Washington, D.C., order, Order No. 127 has also been issued for the Upper Chesapeake Bay marketing area, effective February 1, 1960. In issuing the latter order, the Department found that the Class I price should be the same as under the Washington order. The two markets draw milk supplies, in large part, from the same areas. Under Order No. 127, also, the Class I price was established for an initial period of 18 months.

The necessity to co-ordinate the local price level with prices in other principal markets also bears on the proposal to change the price adjustment mechanism based on average Class I prices in Chicago, Philadelphia and New York-New Jersey Federal orders. This proposal would eliminate the effect on the price for this market of supply-demand adjusters under the other orders. Proponent recommended, however, that no supply-demand adjustment based on statistics for this market be substituted in place of price adjustments resulting from the supply-demand adjustments in other markets as reflected in the three-market average. Proponent argued that adequate data for a local supply-demand adjustment are not yet available, but urged that such a supply-demand adjustment be reconsidered when adequate data are available.

This proposal is denied. Prices in such markets are a significant factor affecting the availability of supplies for this market and were so recognized in the relationship of this market to the other markets established in the decision of May 1, 1959. There has been no fundamental change in this situation and pending a possible new approach to price relationships among all such markets, the current Washington formula should serve to provide reasonable price coordination.

The change in the seasonal prices proposed by a producer association which would increase the price in March may not be accommodated unless the price in some other month is reduced; otherwise an unsupported increase in price level would result. Without some definite plan as to how the seasonal pricing may be improved while retaining the same annual price level, it is concluded that the proposal to increase the price for March should be denied.

Because of the foregoing considerations it is concluded that the present Class I pricing mechanism should be retained in the Washington order for another 18-month period.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties in the market. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order amending the order. The following order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Washington, D.C., marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended:

In § 902.50 delete paragraph (a) and substitute the following:

(a) Class I price. During the period January 1961 and subsequent months through and including June 1962 the price for Class I milk shall be $5.55 for the months of July through February and $5.10 for the months of March through June: Provided, That such price in any month shall be adjusted to reflect the deviation of the average of the Federal order Class I prices for the Philadelphia, New York-New Jersey and Chicago markets for such month from such average price in the corresponding month of 1958, as follows:

3-market average deviation from corresponding month of 1958 (cents), plus or minus:	Washington price or minus adjustment (cents), plus

[46 CFR Part 401]

GREAT LAKES PILOTAGE REGULATIONS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be promulgated by the Acting Administrator, Great Lakes Pilotage Administration. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, hearings will be held by the Acting Administrator at 10:00 a.m. on January 10, 11, and 12, 1961, in the Federal Courthouse at Cleveland, Ohio. Interested persons may submit such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire directly to the Acting Administrator, Great Lakes Pilotage Administration, Department of Commerce, Washington 25, D.C., prior to completion of the hearings. Persons desiring to present their views at the hearings are requested to notify the Acting Administrator prior to the hearings. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in Sections 4 and 5 of the Great Lakes Pilotage Act of 1960 (74 Stat. 260, 261; 46 U.S.C. 216).

Dated: December 23, 1960.

A. T. MESCHTER,
Acting Administrator,
Great Lakes Pilotage Administration.

Approved:

FREDERICK H. MUELLER,
Secretary of Commerce.

Explanatory statement. Pursuant to the authority vested in him by the Great Lakes Pilotage Act of 1960 (74 Stat. 259, 46 U.S.C. 216) the President of the United States has by Proclamation dated December 23, 1960 designated the following United States waters of the Great Lakes as those in which registered vessels of the United States and foreign vessels will be required to have in their service a United States registered pilot or a Canadian registered pilot to direct the navigation of the vessel, subject to the customary authority of the master:

(1) District 1. All United States waters of the St. Lawrence River between the international boundary at St. Regis and a line at the head of the river running (at approximately 127° True) between Curruthers Point Light and South Side Light extended to the New York shore.

(2) District 2. All United States waters of Lake Erie westward of a line running (at approximately 026° True) from Sandusky Pierhead Light at Cedar Point to Southeast Shoal Light; all waters contained within the arc of a circle of one mile radius eastward of Sandusky Pierhead Light; the Detroit River; Lake St. Clair; the St. Clair River, and Northern approaches thereto south of latitude 43°05'30'' N.

(3) District 3. All United States waters of the St. Marys River, Sault Sainte Marie Lock and approaches thereto between latitude 45°57' N at the Southern approach and a line running (at approximately 020° True) from Point Iroquois Light to the westward tangent of Jackson Island.

The Great Lakes Pilotage Act of 1960 also requires registered vessels of the United States and foreign vessels navigating United States waters of the Great Lakes which are not designated by the President to have on board a United States registered pilot or a Canadian registered pilot or other officer qualified for the waters concerned who will be available to direct the navigation of the vessel in such undesignated waters at the discretion of and subject to the customary authority of the master.

The head of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating is responsible for enforcement of these provisions of the Act.

The Secretary of Commerce is responsible for carrying out those provisions of the Act relating to the registration of United States pilots, the formation of pools by voluntary associations of United States registered pilots, and the establishment of the rates, charges, and other conditions or terms for services performed by registered pilots. In carrying out these responsibilities, the Secretary of Commerce is authorized to enter into arrangements with an appropriate agency of Canada.

The Secretary of Commerce delegated authority to the Administrator, Great Lakes Pilotage Administration by Department Order No. 169, effective September 8, 1960 (25 F.R. 10142) to perform the functions and to exercise the authority vested in the Secretary of Commerce under the Great Lakes Pilotage Act of 1960, except for the appointment of members of the Advisory Committee authorized by such Act, and the imposition, remission, or mitigation of penalties under such Act.

401.500 Penalties for violations.
401.510 Operations without registered pilots.

AUTHORITY: § 401.110 to 410.510 issued under sections 4 and 5, 74 Stat. 260, 261; 46 U.S.C. 216.

Subpart A—General

§ 401.100 Purpose.

The purpose of this part is to carry out those provisions of the Great Lakes Pilotage Act of 1960 (74 Stat. 259, 46 U.S.C. 216) relating to the registration of United States pilots, the formation of pools by voluntary associations of United States registered pilots and the establishment of rates, charges, and other conditions or terms for services performed by registered pilots to meet the provisions of the Act.

§ 401.110 Definitions.

(a) The following terms where used in this part shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Act" means the Great Lakes Pilotage Act of 1960. P.L. 86-555 (74 Stat. 239, 46 U.S.C. 216).

(2) "Administrator" means the Administrator, Great Lakes Pilotage Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce.

(3) "Canadian registered pilot" means a person, other than a member of the regular complement of a vessel, who holds a master's certificate or equivalent license authorizing navigation on the Great Lakes and suitably endorsed for pilotage on routes specified therein, issued by an appropriate agency of Canada, and is registered by a designated agency of Canada on substantially the same basis as registration by the Administrator under the provisions of Subpart B of this part.

(4) "Foreign vessels" means all foreign merchant vessels except Canadian vessels whose operations are exclusively upon the Great Lakes or between ports in the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River, or whose operations while predominately as aforesaid fail of being exclusively so only because of an occasional voyage to a port or ports in the maritime provinces of Canada in the Canadian coastal trade.

(5) "Great Lakes" means Lakes Superior, Michigan, Huron, Erie, and Ontario, their connecting and tributary waters, the St. Lawrence River as far east as Saint Regis, and adjacent port areas.

(6) "Other officer" means the master of any other member of the regular complement of the vessel concerned who is qualified for the navigation of those United States waters of the Great Lakes which are not designated by the President in Proclamation No. 3385 dated December 23, 1960 and who is either licensed by the head of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating under regulations issued by him or certificated by an appropriate agency of Canada.

(7) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Commerce.

(8) "United States registered pilot" means a person, other than a member of the regular complement of a vessel, who holds an unlimited master's license authorizing navigation on the Great Lakes and suitably endorsed for pilotage on routes specified therein, issued by the head of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating under regulations issued by him, and is registered by the Administrator under the provisions of Subpart B of this part.

Subpart B—Registration of Pilots

§ 401.200 Application for registration.

An application for registration as a United States registered pilot shall be made on the form to be prescribed by the Administrator. A check or money order, in the amount of five dollars ($5.00), drawn to the order of the United States Department of Commerce shall accompany an application for registration.

§ 401.210 Requirements and qualifications for registration.

(a) No person shall be registered as a United States registered pilot unless:

(1) He holds an unlimited master's license authorizing navigation on the Great Lakes and suitably endorsed thereon for pilotage on routes specified therein, issued by the head of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating.

(2) He is a citizen of the United States.

(3) He is of good moral character and temperate habits.

(4) He passes a physical examination equivalent to that required for issuance of an original deck officer's license by the Coast Guard.

(5) He has not reach the age of 65.

(6) He possesses a validated Merchant Mariner's Document issued by the Coast Guard.

(7) He agrees that he will be continuously available for service under such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(8) He agrees to comply with all applicable provisions of this part and amendments thereto.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (5) of paragraph (a) of this section, the Administrator may, if he determines that it is in the public interest, issue a Certificate of Registration to a person who has reached the age of 65 if satisfactory evidence is furnished that such person is physically fit to perform the duties of a registered pilot.

§ 401.220 Registration of pilots.

(a) The Administrator shall determine the number of pilots required to be registered in order to assure adequate and efficient pilotage service in the United States waters of the Great Lakes and to provide for equitable participation of United States registered pilots with Canadian pilots in the rendering of pilotage services. In the event that the number of qualified applicants exceeds the number of pilots determined by the Administrator to be necessary to accomplish these objectives, preference shall be given ot those applicants having (1) the greatest number of years as a pilot; (2) the greatest experience in piloting vessels over the waters for which application is made; and (3) experience in piloting oceangoing vessels.

(b) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, a pilot found to be qualified under this subpart shall be issued a Certificate of Registration, valid for a term of two (2) years or until the expiration of his unlimited master's license, whichever occurs first.

§ 401.230 Certificates of Registration.

(a) A Certificate of Registration shall describe the part or parts of the Great Lakes within which the pilot is authorized to perform pilotage and such description shall not be inconsistent with the terms of the pilotage authorization in his unlimited master's license.

(b) A Certificate of Registration shall not authorize the holder to board any vessel, or to serve as a pilot of any vessel, without the permission of the owner or master. A Certificate of Registration shall be in the possession of a pilot at all times when he is in the service of a vessel, and shall be displayed upon demand of the owner or master, any United States Coast Guard officer or inspector, or a representative of the Administrator.

(c) A Certificate of Registration shall not be pledged, deposited, or surrendered to any person except as authorized by this part. A Certificate of Registration may not be photostated or copied.

(d) An application for replacement of a lost, damaged or defaced Certificate of Registration shall be made on the form to be prescribed by the Administrator. A check or money order in the amount of five dollars ($5.00), drawn to the order of the United States Department of Commerce, shall accompany any such application. A damaged or defaced certificate which is to be replaced must be submitted with the application. A certificate issued as a replacement for a lost, damaged or defaced certificate shall be marked so as to indicate that it is a replacement.

(e) The Administrator shall advise the Coast Guard of the name, Coast Guard license number, and registration number of each pilot who is issued a Certificate of Registration.

§ 401.240 Renewal of Certificates of Registration.

(a) An application for renewal of a Certificate of Registration shall be made on the form to be prescribed by the Administrator, and shall be filed with the Administrator at least fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration date of the existing certificate. Failure of a registered pilot to comply with this requirement may constitute cause for withholding renewal of the Certificate of Registration.

(b) No Certificate of Registration shall be renewed unless an applicant meets the requirements and qualifications set forth in § 401.210 for issuance of an original Certificate of Registration.

(c) If the Administrator determines that there is good cause for withholding renewal of a Certificate of Registration, the applicant shall be notified in writing of such determination and the cause thereof. The applicant may thereupon apply within fifteen (15) days for a hearing in regard to such cause for the withholding of a renewal of the certificate, which hearing shall be granted. Such hearing shall be subject to the procedures provided in § 401.250 with respect to suspension and revocation of Certificates of Registration.

(d) Upon receipt of a renewed Certificate of Registration, the expired certificate shall be surrendered to the Administrator.

(a) A Certificate of Registration issued pursuant to the provisions of this subpart may be suspended or revoked by the Administrator upon a determination by him on the record, after a hearing in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1001), that the pilot has violated any provision of this part or is no longer eligible for registration. Specific procedures to be followed in such a hearing will be prescribed in the Notice of Hearing.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the basis for suspension or revocation of a Certificate of Registration shall not extend to or include matters which may be the basis for suspension or revocation of the pilot's unlimited master's license by the Coast Guard under section 4450, Revised Statutes (46 U.S.C. 239), or under any law or regulation administered or prescribed by the Coast Guard, except that suspension or revocation by the Coast Guard of such license shall operate as an automatic suspension or revocation of a Certificate of Registration.

(c) When a Certificate of Registration which is about to expire is suspended, the renewal of such certificate may be withheld until the expiration of the period of suspension.

(d) The Administrator shall advise the Coast Guard of the name, Coast Guard license number, and registration number of each pilot whose Certificate of Registration has been suspended or revoked.

Subpart C—Establishment of Pools by Voluntary Associations of United States Registered Pilots

§ 401.300 Authorization for establishment of pools.

(a) Voluntary associations of United States registered pilots will be authorized to establish a pool or pools in the following areas of the United States waters of the Great Lakes designated by the President in a Proclamation dated December 23, 1960 or in such other areas as the Administrator may deem necessary to assure adequate and efficient pilotage services for the United States waters of the Great Lakes:

(1) District No. 1. All United States waters of the St. Lawrence River between the international boundary at St. Regis and a line at the head of the river running (at approximately 127° True) between Carruthers Point Light and South Side Light extended to the New York shore.

(2) District No. 2. All United States waters of Lake Erie westward of a line running (at approximately 026° True) from Sandusky Pierhead Light at Cedar Point to Southeast Shoal Light; all waters contained within the arc of a circle of one mile radius eastward of Sandusky Pierhead Light; the Detroit River; Lake St. Clair; the St. Clair River, and Northern approaches thereto south of latitude 43°05'30" N.

(3) District No. 3. All United States waters of the St. Marys River, Sault Sainte Marie Lock and approaches thereto between latitude 45°57' N. at the Southern approach and a line running (at approximately 020° True) from Point Iroquois Light to the westward tangent of Jackson Island.

(b) The Administrator shall determine the number of pools that will be authorized for establishment by voluntary associations of United States registered pilots in order to assure adequate and efficient pilotage services for the United States waters of the Great Lakes.

§ 401.310 Application for establishment of pools.

An application by a voluntary association for authorization to establish a pool shall be filed on the form to be prescribed by the Administrator. The form shall require, among other things, furnishing of the following information:

(1) The name and address of the association.

(2) The names and addresses of all officers of the association.

(3) Type of organization (partnership, corporation, etc.).

(4) Copies of articles of incorporation, bylaws, partnership agreements, etc.

(5) A copy of the financial statements of the association.

(6) The names, addresses and Certificate of Registration numbers of all member pilots.

(7) The District or area in which members of the association desire to render pilotage services.

(8) An inventory of owned or leased boats, launches, radio equipment, vehicles, etc. which may be used in the performance of pilotage services.

§ 401.320 Requirements and qualifications for authorization to establish pools.

No voluntary association shall be authorized to establish a pool unless:

(a) The Administrator determines that a pool is necessary for the efficient dispatching of vessels and the providing of pilotage services in the area concerned.

(b) The management and control of the voluntary association is exercised by member registered pilots, and no stock or other financial interest is held by any persons other than member registered pilots.

(c) The voluntary association establishes that it possesses the ability, experience, financial resources, and other qualifications necessary to enable it to operate and maintain an efficient and effective pilotage service.

(d) The voluntary association agrees that:

(1) Pilotage services to vessels will be provided on a first-come first-serve basis in accordance with working rules approved by the Administrator;

(2) it will adopt and use the uniform system of accounts, records and reports to be prescribed by the Administrator;

(3) it shall be subject to audit and inspection by the Administrator, and will submit annually at its own expense an audit report prepared by an independent certified public accountant; and

(4) it will be subject to such other provisions as may be prescribed by the Administrator governing the operation of pools.

§ 401.330 Certificates of Authorization.

(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 401.300, an association found to be qualified to establish a pool in a District or area shall be issued a Certificate of Authorization, which shall be valid until withdrawn by the Administrator.

(b) A Certificate of Authorization shall be in such form as the Administrator may prescribe, but shall describe the area of the Great Lakes in which the pool will perform pilotage services. A Certificate of Authorization shall be posted in the principal place of business of an association in such manner so as to be available for examination by members of the association and the public.

Subpart D—Rates and Charges for Pilotage Services

§ 401.400 Rates and charges on designated waters.

(a) The following rates and charges shall be payable for services performed by United States or Canadian registered pilots in the following Districts of the United States waters of the Great Lakes described in § 401.300:

(1) District No. 1. (i) Snell Locks to Cape Vincent	$180
(ii) Trips commencing or terminating at any point other than the limits of the District, an amount computed on a pro-rata basis according to the distance piloted shall be charged as pilotage dues with a minimum charge therefor of	25
(2) District No. 2. (i) Port Colburne (Southeast Shoal) to Huron Light (includes direct transit of undesignated Lake Erie waters)	125
(ii) Port Colburne (Southeast Shoal) to any point on Lake Erie west of Southeast Shoal (includes transit of undesignated Lake Erie waters)	80
(iii) Any point on Lake Erie west of Southeast Shoal to any point on the St. Clair River or to Huron Light	125
(iv) Any point on Lake Erie west of Southeast Shoal to any point on the Detroit River	80
(v) Any point on the Detroit River to any point on the St. Clair River or to Huron Light	80
(vi) Any point on the Detroit River or the St. Clair River to any point on the same river, or from any point on Lake Erie west of Southeast Shoal to any other point on Lake Erie west of Southeast Shoal	50
(3) District No. 3. Detour Island to Gros Cap Reefs Light	170

§ 401.410 Rates and charges on undesignated waters.

The rates or charges for pilotage services in the undesignated waters of the Great Lakes payable for each 24-hour period or part thereof, including travel time to port of origin if traveled, shall be $50.

§ 401.420 Dismissal.

The rates or charges for pilots dismissed by a master or owner of vessel shall be as follows:

(a) Within one hour after reporting on board	$25
(b) For each additional hour (but not to exceed $50 in any one day)	5

§ 401.430 Prohibited charges.

No rate or charge shall be applied against any vessel, owner or master thereof, by a registered pilot which differs from the rates and charges set forth in this part, nor shall any rate or charge be made for pilotage services other than those for which a rate is prescribed in this part, without the approval of the Administrator.

Subpart E—Penalties; Operations Without Registered Pilots

§ 401.500 Penalties for violations.

Any person who violates any provision of this part shall be liable to the United States in a civil penalty not exceeding $500 for each violation. Such penalty may be remitted or mitigated, upon application therefor, by the Secretary upon such terms as he, in his discretion, shall think proper.

§ 401.510 Operations without registered pilots.

Section 8 of the Act provides that:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, a vessel may be navigated in the United States waters of the Great Lakes without a United States or Canadian registered pilot when—

(a) the Secretary, or his designee, with the concurrence of the head of the Department in which the Coast Guard is operating, or his designee, notifies the master that a United States or Canadian registered pilot is not available, or

(b) the vessel or its cargo is in distress or jeopardy.

The provisions of this part shall become effective upon the first day of the fourth month following the date of its issuance by the Administrator.

NATIONAL STANDARDS FOR REGULATION BY STATES OF OUTDOOR ADVERTISING SIGNS, DISPLAYS AND DEVICES ADJACENT TO THE NATIONAL SYSTEM OF INTERSTATE AND DEFENSE HIGHWAYS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the Department of Commerce has under study an amendment set forth in tentative form below which if adopted would amend § 20.8(g) of the National Standards for Regulation by States of Outdoor Advertising Signs, Displays and Devices Adjacent to the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways (23 F.R. 8793) by modifying the square-footage limitation applicable to the erection or maintenance of Class 3 signs (within 12 miles of advertised activities) and Class 4 signs (in the specific interest of the traveling public) outside of informational sites, and to the erection or maintenance of Class 2 signs (on premises). Prior to action on the final adoption of such amendment, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Federal Highway Administrator, Bureau of Public Roads, Washington 25, D.C., on or before January 17, 1961.

Dated: December 22, 1960.

FREDERICK H. MUELLER,
Secretary of Commerce.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

The National Standards for Regulation by States of Outdoor Advertising Signs, Displays and Devices Adjacent to the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways (23 F.R. 8793) are hereby amended by:

Deleting all of paragraph (g) of § 20.8 and by substituting in lieu thereof the following:

(g) No sign may be permitted to exceed 25 feet in length, width or height, or 300 square feet in area, including border and trim but excluding supports, except Class 2 signs not more than 50 feet from, and advertising activities being conducted upon, the real property where the sign is located.

[29 CFR Part 522]

EMPLOYMENT OF LEARNERS

Men's and Boys' Clothing Industry

Pursuant to authority in section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1068, 29 U.S.C. 214), Reorganization Plan No. 6 of 1950 (3 CFR, 1949–1953 Comp., p. 1004), and General Order No. 45–A of the Secretary of Labor, I propose to amend 29 CFR 522 by adding a centerhead and a new section to read as follows:

MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING INDUSTRY

§ 522.104 General denial policy.

All applications for the employment of learners at wages lower than $1.00 an hour in the men's and boys' clothing industry shall be denied. For the purpose of this section, the men's and boys' clothing industry is defined as the industry which manufactures men's, youths', and boys' suits, coats, and overcoats.

Any person interested in this proposed amendment may file a written statement of data, views, or arguments in support of or opposition to the proposal with the Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the United States Department of Labor, Constitution Avenue and 14th Street NW., Washington 25, D.C., within fifteen days after this notice is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 19th day of December 1960.

[Airspace Docket No. 60-LA-68]

FEDERAL AIRWAYS AND CONTROL AREAS

Alteration

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 409.13), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 600.6004 and 601.6004 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

VOR Federal airway No. 4 extends from Seattle, Wash., to Herndon, Va. The Federal Aviation Agency is considering extending Victor 4 and its associated control areas northwestward from the Seattle VOR via the intersection of the Seattle VOR 322° and the 090° True radial of a VOR to be installed approximately March 1, 1961, near Port Angeles, Wash., at Lat. 48°08'28" N, Long. 123° 25'08" W; the Port Angeles VOR, to the Neah Bay, Wash., radio range, excluding the portion which would coincide with the Juan De Fuca Restricted Area (R–236) and the portion outside the United States.

This would provide a route between Seattle and Neah Bay for VOR equipped aircraft operating between Seattle and Kodiak, Alaska, and between Seattle and Homer, Alaska. The Canadian Department of Transport has agreed to designate the portion of this airway within Canada.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 5651 West Manchester Avenue, P.O. Box 90007, Airport Station, Los Angeles 45, Calif. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B–316, 1711 New York Avenue, NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 19, 1960.

Assistant Chief,
Airspace Utilization Division.

CONTROL AREAS

Alteration of Control Area Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 409.13), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.1103 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Minot, N. Dak., control area extension (§ 601.1103) is designated within a 15-mile radius of the Minot, N. Dak., VOR. The Federal Aviation Agency is considering a proposal by the Department of the Air Force to alter this control area extension by redesignating it within a 35-mile radius of Minot AFB, and within 35 miles of the Minot VOR extending clockwise from the 091° True radial to the 147° True radial of the VOR. The proposed 35-mile radius control area extension centered on Minot AFB would provide protection for aircraft arriving and departing the airbase while being vectored by application of radar air traffic control procedures. The proposed control area extension based on the Minot VOR would provide protection for aircraft executing prescribed VOR instrument approach procedures at Minot AFB.

If this action is taken, the Minot, N. Dak., control area extension would be redesignated within a 35-mile radius of Minot AFB (Lat. 48°25'18" N, Long. 101°22'08" W), and within a 35-mile radius of the Minot VOR extending clockwise from the 091° True radial to the 147° True radial of the VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City 10, Mo. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B–316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 20, 1960.

Chief, Airspace Utilization Division.

[Airspace Docket No. 60-WA-168]

CONTROL AREAS

Modification and Revocation of Control Area Extensions

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 409.13), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 601 and § 601.1132 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The West Palm Beach, Fla., control area extension (§ 601.1132), is presently designated within 5 miles either side of the 036° True radial of the West Palm Beach VOR extending from the VOR to its intersection with the 109° True radial of the Orlando, Fla., VOR thence northwestward within 5 miles either side of the Orlando VOR 109° True radial to its intersection with the centerline of the Wilmington, N.C., control area extension No. 1150, excluding the portion below 2,000 feet MSL which lies outside the continental limits of the United States.

The Federal Aviation Agency is considering modifying this control area extension by redesignating it as the area east of Vero Beach, Fla., bounded on the north by a line five miles south of and parallel to the 071° True radial of the Orlando, Fla., VOR, on the east by the 79th meridian and the Miami Oceanic/Nassau Control Area boundary, on the south by the West Palm Beach control area extension (§ 601.1235), and on the west by VOR Federal airway No. 3, excluding the portion which would coincide with the Banana River, Fla., restricted area (R–162), and excluding the portion below 2,000 feet MSL which lies outside the United States. The portion of this control area extension which would coincide with portions of Warning Area W–497B would be used during IFR weather conditions only after obtaining prior approval from the Federal Aviation Agency Air Traffic Control. This modification would consolidate presently designated control area extensions and the areas between such extensions, east of Vero Beach, into one control area to facilitate the management of air traffic arriving and departing airports in the vicinity of Vero Beach. This modification would also permit more effective utilization of the Miami, Fla., Air Route Traffic Control Center long-range radar by providing area for radar vectors to expedite the high volume of air traffic east of Vero Beach. In addition, the caption to § 601.1132 would be changed to "Control area extension (Vero Beach, Fla.)" to more accurately describe the location of the proposed control area extension.

Concurrently with this action, the presently designated Vero Beach control area extensions (§§ 601.1163 and 601.1448) would be revoked since these extensions would be encompassed by the control area extension proposed herein.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B–316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 20, 1960.

Chief, Airspace Utilization Division.

CONTROL AREAS

Modification and Revocation of Control Area Extensions

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 409.13), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 601 and § 601.1232 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Miami, Fla., control area extension (601.1232) is presently designated as that airspace bounded by a line beginning on the eastern edge of Amber Federal airway No. 7 at Lat. 25°53'00" N, extending easterly to the western boundary of the Miami Oceanic/Nassau Control Area at Lat. 25°55'00" N, Long. 79°00'00" W, thence due south along that boundary to Lat. 24°40'00" N, Long. 79°00'00" W, thence southeasterly to Lat. 24°00'00" N, Long. 78°03'00" W, thence due west to Lat. 24°00'00" N, Long. 80°25'00" W, thence due north to the southern edge of Miami control area extension (601.1230), and the southern edge of Amber Federal airway No. 7, thence along Amber Federal airway No. 7, to Lat. 25°53'00" N point of beginning, excluding the portion below 1000' mean sea level which lies outside of the continental limits of the United States.

The Federal Aviation Agency is considering modifying this control area extension by redesignating it as the airspace east of Miami, Fla., bounded on the east by the Miami Oceanic/Nassau control area boundary, on the south by Lat. 24°00'00" N, on the west by a line beginning at Lat. 24°00'00" N, Long. 80°25'00" W; thence due north to the southern edge of VOR Federal airway No. 51; thence east along the southern edge of Victor 51 and north along the eastern edge of VOR Federal airway No. 3 to the southern boundary of the West Palm Beach, Fla., control area extension (601.1235); and on the north by the southern boundary of the West Palm Beach control area extension (601.1235), excluding the portion below 2,000 MSL which lies outside the United States. The portion of this control area extension which would coincide with Warning Area (W–497–B) would be used during IFR weather conditions only after obtaining prior approval from the Federal Aviation Agency Air Traffic Control. This modification would consolidate presently designated control area extensions and the area between the extensions east of Miami, Fla., into one control area to facilitate the management of air traffic arriving and departing airports in the Miami, Fla., area. This modification would also permit more effective utilization of the Miami, Fla., Air Route Traffic Control Center long-range radar by providing area for radar vectors to expedite the high volume of air traffic east of Miami.

Concurrently with this action, the presently designated West Palm Beach, Fla., control area extension (601.1036), and the Miami, Fla., control area extensions (601.1389 and 601.1427), would be revoked since these extensions would be encompassed by the control area extension proposed herein.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B–316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 20, 1960.

CHARLES W. CARMODY,
Chief, Airspace Utilization Division.

CONTROL AREAS

Modification and Revocation of Control Area Extensions

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 409.13), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 601 and § 601.1408 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Miami control area extension (601.1408) is presently designated as the airspace south of Miami bounded on the north by Miami control area extension (601.1230) and Amber Federal airway No. 7, on the east by Miami control area extension (601.1232), on the south by Blue Federal airway No. 48 and on the northwest by Blue Federal airway No. 19; the airspace southwest of Miami bounded on the north by Miami control area extension (601.1230), on the east and southeast by Blue Federal airway No. 19 and on the west by the Marathon control area extension (601.1234); the airspace west of Miami bounded on the north by the Miami control area extension (601.1230), on the southeast by the Key West control area extension (601.1434), and on the southwest by a line 3 miles southwest of and parallel to the coastline. The Federal Aviation Agency is considering modifying the Miami control area extension (601.1408) by redesignating it as the area bounded on the north by a line extending from Lat. 25°49'00" N, Long. 81°47'00" W, to Lat. 25°46'40" N, Long. 81°09'15" W, to Lat. 25°30'30" N, Long. 80°51'20" W, to Lat. 25°34'00" N, Long. 80°25'00" W; on the east by Long. 80°25'00" W; on the south by VOR Federal airway No. 35; and on the west by VOR Federal airway No. 225, excluding the portion below 2000 feet mean sea level which lies outside the United States and that portion above 20,000 feet mean sea level which coincides with the Key West Warning Area (W–173).

This modification would consolidate presently designated control area extensions and the area between such extensions southwest of Miami, Fla. This modification would also permit more effective utilization of the Miami, Fla., Federal Aviation Agency Air Route Traffic Control Center long-range radar by providing area for radar vectors to expedite the high volume of air traffic southwest of Miami.

Concurrently with this action, the presently designated Key West control area extension (601.1434) would be revoked since this extension would be encompassed by the control area extension proposed herein.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B–316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C. on December 20, 1960.

CHARLES W. CARMODY,
Chief, Airspace Utilization Division.

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (Section 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2005 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of the Boston, Mass., control zone. The Boston control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Logan International Airport; within 2 miles either side of the north course of the Boston radio range extending from the radio range station to a point 10 miles north, and within 2 miles either side of the ILS localizer course extending from the airport to a point 10 miles beyond the outer marker and within 2 miles either side of the 144° True radial of the Boston VOR extending from the VOR to a point 12 miles southeast.

It is proposed to decrease the length of these extensions and to designate 3 new extensions as described herein. The northeast extension, based on the northeast course of the L/MF range would terminate at the Peabody fan marker. The south extension based on the 144° True radial of the Boston VOR would terminate 7 miles south of the VOR. The southwest extension based on the ILS localizer serving Runway 4R would terminate at the outer marker. The instrument approach procedures which these extensions serve have been modified to eliminate the requirement for the portions of control zone proposed for revocation herein. The additional extensions would be based on the 001° and 071° True radials of the Boston VOR and the southeast course of the localizer for the ILS system being installed to serve Runway 33. The extensions would extend from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles north and east of the VOR, and to the outer marker. These extensions would provide protection to aircraft executing instrument approach procedures based on the Boston VOR and the Runway 33 ILS System.

The Boston High Density Air Traffic Zone, which is associated with the Boston control zone, is so designated that it would automatically conform to the modified control zone. Accordingly, no amendment relating to the High Density Air Traffic Zone would be necessary.

If these actions are taken, the Boston, Mass., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Logan International Airport (Lat. 42°21'47" N., Long. 71°00' 19" W.); within 2 miles either side of the 001° True radial of the Boston VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles north of the VOR; within 2 miles either side of the north course of the Boston radio range extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the Peabody, Mass., fan marker; within 2 miles either side of the 071° True radial of the Boston VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles east of the VOR; within 2 miles either side of the southeast course of the ILS localizer serving Runway 33 extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the outer marker; within 2 miles either side of the 144° True radial of the Boston VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 7 miles south of the VOR; and within 2 miles either side of the southwest course of the ILS localizer serving Runway 4R extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the outer marker.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B–316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 20, 1960.

CONTROL ZONES

Alteration

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 409.13), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2070 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The St. Louis, Mo., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Lambert-St. Louis Municipal Airport, within 2 miles either side of the east course of the St. Louis radio range extending from the radio range station to 10 miles east, within 2 miles either side of the front course of the St. Louis ILS localizer extending from the localizer to 5 miles east of the outer compass locator and within 2 miles either side of the back course of the ILS localizer extending from the localizer to 10 miles southwest of the Lake radio beacon, and within 2 miles either side of the 323° and 143° True radials of the St. Louis VOR extending from the airport to 10 miles northwest of the VOR.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration alteration of the St. Louis, Mo., control zone as follows:

1. Revoke the control zone extensions based on the east course of the St. Louis radio range and on the St. Louis ILS localizer northeast course. These control zone extensions would no longer be required for the protection of aircraft as the prescribed instrument approach procedure based on the radio range is to be cancelled and the procedure based on the northeast course of the ILS localizer is to be changed so that adequate protection would be provided by the 5-mile radius zone.

2. Alter the control zone extension based on the St. Louis VORTAC 143° True radial by basing it on the St. Louis VORTAC 142° True radial, and shortening it to terminate at the VORTAC. The prescribed VORTAC instrument approach procedures are being revised to eliminate the requirement for the portion of the control zone extension northwest of the VORTAC, and the extension would be realigned to coincide with the prescribed instrument approach procedure final approach course.

3. Lengthen the control zone extension based on the St. Louis ILS localizer southwest course to 12 miles southwest of the Lake radio beacon. The increased length of this extension is required for the protection of aircraft executing the prescribed instrument approach procedures utilizing the southwest course of the St. Louis ILS or the Lake radio beacon.

If these actions are taken, the St. Louis, Mo., control zone would be redesignated within a 5-mile radius of the Lambert-St. Louis Municipal Airport, (Lat. 38°44'50" N, Long. 90°21'55" W), within 2 miles either side of the Lambert-St. Louis ILS localizer southwest course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southwest of the Lake radio beacon, and within 2 miles either side of the 142° True radial of the St. Louis VORTAC extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VORTAC.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City 10, Mo. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 20, 1960.

CONTROL ZONES

Alteration

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 409.13), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2327 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Baton Rouge, La., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Ryan Airport and within a 3-mile radius of Downtown Airport, Baton Rouge, within 2 miles either side of the Baton Rouge radio range northwest course extending from the radio range to 10 miles northwest, within 2 miles either side of the 313° and 133° True track through the Baton Rouge ILS Outer Marker Compass locator extending from the Ryan Airport control zone to 10 miles northwest and 19 miles southeast of the ILS outer marker compass locator, and within 2 miles either side of the Baton Rouge VOR 071° and 251° True radials extending from the Ryan Airport control zone to 10 miles southwest of the VOR.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration alteration of the Baton Rouge control zone by revoking the control zone extensions to the northwest and southeast and reducing the extension to the southwest to terminate it at the Baton Rouge VOR. The prescribed instrument approach procedures based on the Baton Rouge ILS, VOR and compass locator are being revised and the prescribed instrument approach procedures based on the Baton Rouge radio range is being cancelled. These revisions of the prescribed instrument approach procedures would eliminate the requirement for the portions of the Baton Rouge control zone proposed for alteration and revocation herein.

If these actions are taken, the Baton Rouge, La., control zone would be redesignated within a 5-mile radius of Ryan Airport (Lat. 30°31'55" N, Long. 91°09'00" W), and within a 3-mile radius of Downtown Airport (Lat. 30°26'45" N, Long. 91°06'25" W), and within 2 miles either side of the Baton Rouge VOR 071° True radial extending from the Ryan Airport 5-mile radius zone to the VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under section 307(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 19, 1960.

EQUIPMENT, INSTALLATIONS, OR MATERIALS

Approval Notice

1. Various items of lifesaving, firefighting, and miscellaneous equipment, installations, and materials used on merchant vessels subject to Coast Guard inspection or on certain motorboats and other pleasure craft are required by law and various regulations in 46 CFR Ch. I to be of types approved by the Commandant, United States Coast Guard. The procedures governing the granting of approvals, and cancellation, termination or withdrawal of approvals are set forth in 46 CFR 2.75-1 to 2.75-40 (25 F.R. 6138, 6139), and 2.75-50. For certain types of equipment, installations, and materials, specific specifications have been prescribed by the Commandant and are published in 46 CFR Parts 160 to 164, inclusive (Subchapter Q—Specifications), and detailed procedures for obtaining approvals are also described therein.

2. The Commandant's approval of a specific item is intended to provide a control over its quality. Therefore, such approval applies only to the item constructed or installed in accordance with the applicable requirements and the details described in the specific approval. If a specific item when manufactured does not comply with the details in the approval, then such item is not considered to have the Commandant's approval, and the certificate of approval issued to the manufacturer does not apply to such modified item. For example, if an item is manufactured with changes in design or material not previously approved, the approval does not apply to such modified item.

3. After a manufacturer has submitted satisfactory evidence that a particular item complies with the applicable laws and regulations, a Certificate of Approval (Form CGHQ-10030) will be issued to the manufacturer certifying that the item specified complies with the applicable laws and regulations and approval is given, which will be in effect for a period of 5 years from the date given unless sooner cancelled or suspended by proper authority.

4. The purpose of this document is to notify all concerned that certain approvals were granted, as described in this document, during the period from October 11, 1960 through November 7, 1960. These actions were taken in accordance with the procedures set forth in 46 CFR 2.75-1 to 2.75-50.

5. Delegations of authority for the Coast Guard's actions with respect to approvals may be found in Treasury Department Orders 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 6521), 167-14, dated November 26, 1954 (19 F.R. 8026), 167-15, dated January 3, 1955 (20 F.R. 840), 167-20, dated June 18, 1956 (21 F.R. 4894), CGFR 56-28, dated July 24, 1956 (21 F.R. 5659), or 167-38, dated October 26, 1959 (24 F.R. 8857), and the statutory authority may be found in R.S. 4405, as amended, 4462, as amended, 4488, as amended, 4491, as amended, sections 1, 2, 49 Stat. 1544, as amended, section 17, 54 Stat. 166, as amended, section 3, 54 Stat. 346, as amended, section 3, 70 Stat. 152 (46 U.S.C. 405, 416, 481, 489, 367, 526p, 1333, 390b), section 4(c), 67 Stat. 462 (43 U.S.C. 1333(e)), or section 3(c) of 68 Stat. 675 (50 U.S.C. 198), and implementing regulations in 46 CFR Ch. I or 33 CFR Ch. I.

6. In Part I of this document is listed the approvals granted which shall be in effect for a period of 5 years from the dates granted, unless sooner cancelled or suspended by proper authority.

PART I—APPROVALS OF EQUIPMENT, INSTALLATIONS, OR MATERIALS

BUOYANT APPARATUS

Approval No. 160.010/59/0, 4.17' x 3.0' (8'' x 8'' body section) rectangular buoyant apparatus, fibrous glass reinforced plastic shell with unicellular plastic foam core, 7-person capacity, The Plasti-Kraft Corp., Oldsmar, Florida, dwg. No. BA-2 dated June 6, 1958, and specifications as revised October 12, 1960, manufactured by The Plasti-craft Corp., Oldsmar, Florida, for The American Pad & Textile Co., 511 North Solomon Street, New Orleans 19, La., effective October 24, 1960.

Approval No. 160.010/60/0, 6.17' x 3.67' (9'' x 9'' body section) rectangular buoyant apparatus, fibrous glass reinforced plastic shell with unicellular plastic foam core, 13-person capacity, The Plasti-Kraft Corp, Oldsmar, Florida, dwg. No. BA-2 dated June 6, 1958, and specifications as revised October 12, 1960, manufactured by The Plasti-Kraft Corp., Oldsmar, Florida, for The American Pad & Textile Co., 511 North Solomon Street, New Orleans 19, La., effective October 24, 1960.

GAS MASKS, SELF-CONTAINED BREATHING APPARATUS, AND SUPPLIED-AIR RESPIRATORS

Approval No. 160.011/12/2, MSA Ammonia Mask, part No. 15775 having the All-Vision facepiece assembly, or part No. 48448 having the All-Vision Cleartone speaking diaphragm facepiece assembly which may be used in conjunction with the MSA Maskfone, or part No. 84006 having the Clearvue facepiece assembly, Bureau of Mines Approval No. BM-1406, dwg. FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket Nos. 13871, 13899; FCC 60–1524]

ATLANTA OK BROADCASTING CO., INC., AND WRMA BROADCASTING CO., INC.

Order To Show Cause

In the matter of Atlanta OK Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of standard broadcast Station WAOK, Atlanta, Georgia, Docket No. 13871; WRMA Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of standard broadcast Station WRMA, Montgomery, Alabama, Docket No. 13899; order to show cause why a Cease and Desist Order should not be issued.

The Commission having under consideration the responses on behalf of Stations WAOK, Atlanta, Georgia, and WRMA, Montgomery, Alabama, to the Commission's inquiry of December 2, 1959, with respect to "payola" practices, and the report of a field inquiry into the affairs of Station WAOK, and

It appearing that Stan Raymond, Zenas Sears, and Dorothy Lester each own a one-third stock interest in Atlanta OK Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of standard broadcast Station WAOK, Atlanta, Georgia, and a one-third stock interest in OK Realty & Investment Company, the parent company of WRMA Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of standard broadcast Station WRMA, Montgomery, Alabama, and

It further appearing that Zenas Sears, Vice President, Treasurer, Director, and stockholder of the licensee of Station WAOK, and also program director and disc jockey at that station, received monies from certain record manufacturing companies for distribution to on-the-air personnel at Station WAOK; and

It further appearing that in an affidavit dated December 30, 1959, by Stan Raymond, President of the licensee of Station WAOK, which affidavit was submitted in response to the Commission's inquiry of December 2, 1959, concerning "payola," it was acknowledged that payments by record companies had been received by Zenas Sears and distributed by Sears, with the knowledge and consent of the officers and directors of the licensee of Station WAOK, to all disc jockeys of Station WACK in accordance with the amount of broadcast time allotted to each member of the staff; and

It further appearing that a written statement by Zenas Sears on August 20, 1960, confirms the statements made in the Raymond affidavit and acknowledges the receipt of payments in the years 1957, 1958, and 1959 by Sears from certain record companies, the distribution of said payments to disc jockeys of Station WAOK, and the retention of part of said payments for himself; and

It further appearing that, according to Sears, the distribution of the payments from the record companies was made among the on-the-air personnel "most apt to have played records made by the contributing company;" and

It further appearing that the making of said payments by record manufacturers and the acceptance of said payments with the knowledge and consent of the licensee, its officers and directors is incompatible with allegations by the licensee of Station WAOK that said payments had little or no effect on the selection of records broadcast over Station WAOK facilities; and

It further appearing that said payments constituted a valuable consideration directly or indirectly paid to and accepted by or on behalf of the licensee of Station WAOK to insure or induce the play of records produced by the companies making such payments; and

It further appearing that records produced by companies making such payments to Zenas Sears in 1957, 1958, and 1959 were played and broadcast by Station WAOK without announcement at the time such records were broadcast that a consideration had been received or furnished and by whom, such announcements being required under Section 317 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 3.119 of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing that the failure of the licensee of Station WAOK to make the required announcements at various times during 1957, 1958, and 1959 constitutes wilful and repeated violations of section 317 of the Communications Act and § 3.119 of the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing that the response to the Commission's inquiry of December 2, 1959, on behalf of Station WRMA was substantially similar to that for Station WAOK, and that the same sanctions should be imposed;

It is ordered, This 14th day of December 1960, pursuant to the provisions of section 312(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that Atlanta OK Broadcasting Company, Inc., and WRMA Broadcasting Company, Inc., are directed to show cause why the said Atlanta OK Broadcasting Company, Inc., WRMA Broadcasting Company, Inc., and their respective officers, agents, employees, or other parties acting in concert with either the said Atlanta OK Broadcasting Company, Inc., or the said WRMA Broadcasting Company, Inc., or both of them, should not be ordered to cease and desist from violating section 317 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, by accepting monies or things of value from anyone for the purpose of inducing the broadcast of phonograph records or other program material over either Radio Station WAOK, Atlanta, Georgia, or Station WRMA, Montgomery, Alabama, or both of them, without the appropriate announcement having been made, as required by section 317 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and to appear and give evidence with respect thereto at a hearing [1] to be held in Washington, D.C., at a time to be specified by subsequent order, said time in no event to be less than 30 days after receipt of this order; and

It is further ordered, That the Acting Secretary of this Commission send a copy of this order by Certified Mail-Return Receipt Requested to the said Atlanta OK Broadcasting Company, Inc., and WRMA Broadcasting Company, Inc.

Released: December 20, 1960.

[1] Section 1.62 of the Commission's rules provides that a licensee, in order to avail itself of the opportunity to be heard, shall, in person or by its attorney, file with the Commission, within thirty days of the receipt of the Order To Show Cause, a written statement stating that it will appear at the hearing and present evidence on the matter specified in the order. In the event it would not be possible for respondent to appear for hearing in the proceeding if scheduled to be held in Washington, D.C., it should advise the Commission of the reasons for such inability within five days of the receipt of this order. If the licensee fails to file an appearance within the time specified, the right to a hearing shall be deemed to have been waived. Where a hearing is waived, a written statement in mitigation or justification may be submitted within thirty days of the receipt of the Order To Show Cause. If such statement contains, with particularity, factual allegations denying or justifying the facts upon which the show cause order is based, the Hearing Examiner may call upon the submitting party to furnish additional information, and shall request all opposing parties to file an answer to the written statement and/or additional information. The record will then be closed and an initial decision issued on the basis of such procedure. Where a hearing is waived and no written statement has been filed within the thirty days of the receipt of the Order To Show Cause, the allegations of fact contained in the Order To Show Cause will be deemed as correct and the sanctions specified in the Order To Show Cause will be revoked.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. CP61-67]

CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.

Notice of Application and Date of Hearing

DECEMBER 15, 1960.

Take notice that on September 6, 1960, as supplemented on October 14, 1960, Cities Service Gas Company, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma (Applicant), filed in Docket No. CP61-67 an application pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act for authorization to abandon certain natural gas facilities by sale or by retirement and for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain other facilities, all as more fully set forth in the application and exhibits, as supplemented, which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant proposes the following:

A. Vicinity of Kansas City, Kansas:

(1) To construct and operate a new town border meter station, with appurtenant facilities;

(2) To abandon by sale to The Gas Service Company (Gas Service), an existing distributing company customer, a total of approximately 4.9 miles of 4- to 24-inch pipeline, and two meter and regulator settings on these lines;

B. Vicinity of Topeka, Kansas:

(1) To construct and operate two new town border meter stations, with appurtenant facilities, in East Topeka;

(2) To abandon by sale to Gas Service a total of approximately 2.59 miles of 10- to 20-inch pipeline, and five meter and regulator settings on these lines, all in East Topeka;

(3) To abandon and reclaim approximately 2 miles of 12-inch pipeline, and one meter setting thereon, in the eastern part of Topeka;

C. Vicinity of Hutchinson, Kansas:

(1) To construct and operate one high-pressure regulator setting in the southeastern section of Hutchinson where a check meter is now located;

(2) To abandon by sale to Gas Service approximately 3.2 miles of 2- to 10-inch pipeline and six meter and regulator installations thereon in eastern Hutchinson;

D. Vicinity of Pawhuska, Oklahoma:

(1) To construct and operate approximately 3 miles of 6-inch pipeline extending from Applicant's existing 12-inch line in Osage County, Oklahoma, to Pawhuska, and a new town border meter station, with appurtenant facilities, at the western edge of Pawhuska; and

(2) To abandon and reclaim approximately 38.6 miles of 1- to 12-inch pipeline presently extending from Shidler, Oklahoma, to Tallant, Oklahoma, and one town border meter station thereon at the eastern edge of Pawhuska.

Applicant states that the estimated cost of the facilities proposed to be constructed is $112,150. The estimated cost of reclaiming the facilities to be reclaimed is $81,300, with salvage credit of $208,785, for such facilities. The facilities to be sold to Gas Service will be sold for $163,350. Construction costs will be paid by Applicant from treasury cash.

The subject proposed realignment of properties is stated to stem from Applicant's policy of disposing of pipeline facilities in residential or commercial areas, where possible, to the local distribution company, resulting generally in the elimination of expensive maintenance, operation and relocation work.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on January 17, 1961, at 9:30 a.m., e.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30(c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before January 6, 1961. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

FOREIGN-TRADE ZONES BOARD

FOREIGN-TRADE ZONE NO. 3, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

Extension of Time for Permanent Relocation

Mr. Cyril Magnin, President, San Francisco Port Authority, San Francisco, California, as representative of the zone grantee, on December 2, 1960, advised the Foreign-Trade Zones Board of their inability to accomplish the permanent relocation of Foreign-Trade Zone No. 3 by the date established in Order No. 46, and requested an extension of time to June 30, 1962.

The Committee of Alternates has reviewed the circumstances in this case and unanimously recommend that the request for an extension of time from May 14, 1961, to June 30, 1962, be granted.

Upon consideration the Board concurs in the Committee's recommendation and hereby adopts the following resolution:

"The Foreign-Trade Zones Board, after consideration of the request from the San Francisco Port Authority, Grantee, Foreign-Trade Zone No. 3, for an extension of time from May 14, 1961, to June 30, 1962, to permanently relocate the zone, approves the request."

The Executive Secretary of the Foreign-Trade Zones Board is directed to incorporate this Memorandum, the letters from the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, A. Gilmore Flues, dated December 13, 1960, and Col. Carl H. Bronn, Army Member, Committee of Alternates, dated December 13, 1960, approving the foregoing Resolution in the official records of the Foreign-Trade Zones Board. The Executive Secretary will publish the foregoing Resolution in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: December 19, 1960.

FREDERICK H. MUELLER,
Secretary of Commerce, Chairman and Executive Officer, Foreign-Trade Zones Board.

COLUMBIA TITLE INSURANCE CO.

Notice of Application To Strike From Listing and Registration and of Opportunity for Hearing

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

In the matter of The Columbia Title Insurance Company, Capital Stock; File No. 1-2830.

Philadelphia-Baltimore Stock Exchange has filed an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to section 12(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 12d2-1(b) promulgated thereunder, to strike the specified security from listing and registration thereon.

The reasons alleged in the application for striking this security from listing and registration include the following: Over 90 percent of the stock has been acquired by the American Title Insurance Company. The issuer concurs in the application.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before January 6, 1961, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application and other information contained in the official files of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

By the Commission.

FIDELITY FUND, INC.

Notice of Filing of Application

DECEMBER 16, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that Fidelity Fund, Inc. ("Fidelity"), a registered open-end investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 22(d) of the Act the proposed issuance of its shares at net asset value for substantially all of the cash and securities of The Wescon Company ("Wescon") on the basis set forth below.

Shares of Fidelity, a Massachusetts corporation, are offered to the public on a continuous basis at net asset value plus varying sales charges dependent on the amount purchased. As of September 14, 1960, the net assets of Fidelity amounted to $375,800,051.

Wescon, a New Jersey corporation, is a personal holding company which engages in the business of investing and reinvesting its funds. Wescon is excepted from the definition of investment company under the Act by reason of the provisions of section 3(c)(1) thereof. Pursuant to an agreement between Fidelity and Wescon, substantially all of the cash and securities of Wescon, with a total value of $2,121,923 as of September 14, 1960, will be transferred to Fidelity in exchange for shares of stock of Fidelity. The shares acquired by Wescon are to be distributed immediately to its shareholders, who intend to take such shares for investment with no present intention of distribution or redemption. The number of shares of Fidelity to be delivered to Wescon will be determined by dividing the net asset value per share of Fidelity in effect at the closing time into the value of the Wescon assets to be exchanged (with certain adjustments as set forth below).

Since the exchange will be tax free for Wescon and its shareholders, Fidelity's cost basis for tax purposes on the assets acquired from Wescon will be the same as for Wescon, rather than the price actually paid by Fidelity for the assets. Fidelity intends to retain for investment the securities acquired from Wescon on which there was an unrealized gain of $608,310 as of September 14, 1960, or 28.6 percent of the total assets acquired from Wescon. As of the same date, Fidelity's unrealized appreciation was $83,639,643, or 22.3 percent of its total net assets, and Fidelity also had undistributed net realized gains of $14,369,310.

In order to compensate the present shareholders of Fidelity for possible adverse tax consequences in the event of future sale of the assets acquired from Wescon, it has been agreed that the value of Wescon's assets will be reduced by 12½ percent of the amount by which the unrealized appreciation on the assets acquired from Wescon is greater proportionately than the unrealized appreciation on Fidelity's assets. This excess appreciation is to be computed as of the closing time by applying the percentage of unrealized appreciation on Fidelity's assets to the value of the assets acquired from Wescon and subtracting the resulting amount from the unrealized appreciation on Wescon's assets. If such calculation had been made as of September 14, 1960, the excess appreciation would have amounted to $135,121, and the 12½ percent adjustment thereon to $16,890. Provision is also made for an offset to this adjustment if the Wescon shareholders assume any undistributed realized capital gains of Fidelity, and to this extent relieve present shareholders of Fidelity of an immediate tax burden. Such offset would be computed by applying 17½ percent to the undistributed realized capital gains of Fidelity allocable to the shares to be issued to Wescon, the rate of 17½ percent having been selected on the assumption that the average effective capital gains tax rate of Fidelity's shareholders is midway between the minimum effective rate of 10 percent and the maximum effective rate of 25 percent. It is unlikely, however, that this offset will be material, since it is presently intended that the transaction will be effective immediately after the year-end distribution of capital gains by Fidelity.

The application recites that the terms of the entire transaction were arrived at through arm's-length bargaining between Fidelity and Wescon.

Section 22(d) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that no registered investment company shall sell any redeemable security issued by it to any person except at a current offering price described in the prospectus, with certain exceptions not applicable here. Under the terms of the Agreement, however, the shares of Fidelity are to be issued to Wescon at a price other than the public offering price stated in the prospectus.

Section 6(c) of the Act authorizes the Commission by order upon application to exempt, conditionally or unconditionally, any transaction from any provision of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that the Commission finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 29, 1960, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by the statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon.

Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

REAL ESTATE TITLE INSURANCE CO.

Notice of Application To Strike From Listing and Registration and of Opportunity for Hearing

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

In the matter of the Real Estate Title Insurance Company, Capital Stock; File No. 1-2831.

Philadelphia-Baltimore Stock Exchange has filed an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to section 12(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 12d2-1(b) promulgated thereunder, to strike the specified security from listing and registration thereon.

The reasons alleged in the application for striking this security from listing and registration include the following: Over 94 percent of the stock has been acquired by the American Title Insurance Company. The issuer concurs in the application.

Upon receipt of a request, on or before January 6, 1961, from any interested person for a hearing in regard to terms to be imposed upon the delisting of this security, the Commission will determine whether to set the matter down for hearing. Such request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person requesting the hearing and the position he proposes to take at the hearing with respect to imposition of terms. In addition, any interested person may submit his views or any additional facts bearing on this application by means of a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. If no one requests a hearing on this matter, this application will be determined by order of the Commission on the basis of the facts stated in the application and other information contained in the official files of the Commission pertaining to the matter.

NATIONAL SECURITY LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Order Temporarily Suspending Exemption, Statement of Reasons Therefor, and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

I. National Security Life Insurance Company (issuer) a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Indiana on June 7, 1955, with officers at 1060 Broad Ripple Avenue, Indianapolis, Indiana, filed with the Commission on November 14, 1960, a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular and other material pertaining to a proposed offering by the issuer of 73,300 shares of its common stock, $1 par value, at $2 per share for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3(b) thereof and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable cause to believe that the exemption provided by Regulation A is not available for the securities proposed to be offered, in that:

A. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been compiled with in that:

1. The offering under the above numbered notification commenced prior to the expiration of ten business days after the filing of the notification;

2. The aggregate offering price of the securities which have been and are to be offering exceed the $300,000 limitation imposed by Rule 254 and Rule 253(c);

3. The notification fails to disclose the complete residence addresses of certain officers of the issuer, as required by Item 3 thereof;

4. The notification fails to disclose the jurisdictions in which the offering is to be made, as required by Item 8 thereof;

5. The notification fails to disclose that the Illinois Security Life Insurance Company is a predecessor of the issuer, as required by Item 2 thereof;

6. The notification fails to disclose the issuance and sale of unregistered securities of the issuer, as required by Item 9 thereof;

7. No escrow or similar arrangement meeting the requirements of Rule 253(c) was filed in accordance with Item 11;

8. The consent of Haight, Davis and Haight, actuarial firm passing upon the insurance policies of the issuer, was not filed as an exhibit to the notification;

9. The offering circular does not contain the complete statement required by Item 1 of Schedule I;

10. The offering circular does not describe the method by which the securities are proposed to be offered, as required by Item 5 of Schedule I;

11. The offering circular does not adequately or accurately describe the physical properties held or to be held by the issuer, as required by Item 8C(b) of Schedule I;

12. The offering circular does not contain the financial statements required by Item 11 of Schedule I;

13. The offering circular fails to describe material transactions between the officers and directors and the issuer, as required by Item 9(c) of Schedule I;

14. The offering circular does not adequately or accurately describe the purposes for which the net cash proceeds to the issuer are to be used and the amount to be used for each such purpose as required by Item 6(a) of Schedule I.

B. The notification and offering circular contain untrue statements of material facts and omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statement made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in the following respects:

1. Item 9 of the notification falsely states that no unregistered securities of the issuer were issued within one year preceding the filing of the notification;

2. The offering circular fails to disclose the issuer's contingent liability arising out of the sale of unregistered securities;

3. The offering circular fails to adequately or accurately describe the nature and extent of the issuer's business and more specifically, fails to clearly disclose the adverse operating results of said business;

4. The offering circular fails to disclose payments made, directly and indirectly, by the issuer to its officers and directors;

5. The failure to include adequate and accurate financial statements, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

C. The offering would be and is being made in violation of section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261(a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing within thirty days after the entry of this order; that within twenty days after receipt of such request the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; that if no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, this order shall remain in effect unless or until it is modified or vacated by the Commission; and that notice of the time and place for any hearing will promptly be given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

Title 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 6—EXCEPTIONS FROM THE COMPETITIVE SERVICE

Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization

Effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, paragraph (p) of § 6.363 is revoked.

(R.S. 1753, sec. 2, 22 Stat. 403, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 631, 633)

UNITED STATES CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
[SEAL] DAVID F. WILLIAMS,
Director, Bureau of Management Services.

Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Lemon Regulation 877, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b)(1) (i), (ii) and (iii) of § 953.984 (Lemon Regulation 877, 25 F.R. 12948) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(i) District 1: 37,200 cartons;
(ii) District 2: 153,450 cartons;
(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Dated: December 22, 1960.

FLOYD F. HEDLUND,
Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 60-KC-77]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Modification

On October 8, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 9686) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to designate a west alternate to VOR Federal airway No. 15 between Bismarck, N. Dak., and Minot, N. Dak.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice, the following action is taken:

In the text of § 600.6015 (14 CFR 600.6015, 25 F.R. 5481, 8635) "to the Minot, N. Dak., VOR." is deleted and "to the Minot, N. Dak., VOR, including a W alternate via the INT of the Bismarck VOR 333° True and the Minot VOR 197° True radials." is substituted therefor.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. February 9, 1961.

(Sec. 307(a), 72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 20, 1960.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Modification

On September 29, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 9294) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the standard west alternate of VOR Federal airway No. 67 between Mason City, Iowa, and Rochester, Minn.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice, the following action is taken:

In the text of § 600.6067 (14 CFR 600.6067) "Mason City, Iowa, omnirange station; to the Rochester, Minn., omnirange station, including a west alternate." is deleted and "Mason City, Iowa, VORTAC to the Rochester, Minn., VOR, including a W alternate via the INT of the Mason City VORTAC 023° True and the Rochester VOR 243° True radials." is substituted therefor.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. February 9, 1961.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Modification of Federal Airways and Associated Control Areas

The purpose of these amendments to §§ 600.6035, 600.6115, and 601.6115 of the regulations of the Administrator is to modify VOR Federal airways No. 35 and No. 115 and associated control areas.

Victor airway No. 35 extends from Key West, Fla., to Pittsburgh, Pa., and from Johnstown, Pa., to Syracuse, N.Y. The continuity of this airway is broken between Johnstown and Pittsburgh. The Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) is revoking the segment of V-35 between Charleston, W. Va., and Pittsburgh and extending V-35 from Charleston to Johnstown via the Clarksburg, W. Va., VOR, the Morgantown, W. Va., VORTAC, and the Indian Head, Pa., VOR. This segment will coincide with VOR Federal airway No. 106.

Victor airway No. 115 extends in part from Crestview, Fla., to Charleston. The FAA is extending this segment of Victor 115 from Charleston to Pittsburgh via the Parkersburg, W. Va., VOR. This segment will coincide with the segment of Victor 35 between Charleston and Pittsburgh that is being revoked herein. These modifications will not involve the designation of any additional navigable airspace.

Since these amendments impose no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary. However, since it is necessary that sufficient time be allowed to permit appropriate changes to be made on aeronautical charts, these amendments will become effective more than 30 days after publication.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), the following actions are taken:

1. In the text of § 600.6035 (14 CFR 600.6035, 25 F.R. 583, 10049) "Parkersburg, W. Va., VOR; INT of the Parkersburg VOR 060° and the Pittsburgh VOR 223° radials; to the Pittsburgh, Pa., VOR. From the Johnstown, Pa., VOR via the" is deleted and "INT of the Charleston VORTAC 051° True and the Elkins, W. Va., VORTAC 264° True radials; Clarksburg, W. Va., VOR; Morgantown, W. Va., VORTAC; Indian Head, Pa., VOR; Johnstown, Pa., VOR;" is substituted therefor.

2. In § 600.6115 (14 CFR 600.6115) the following changes are made:

(a) In the caption "to Charleston, W. Va.," is deleted and "to Pittsburgh, Pa.," is substituted therefor.

(b) In the text "to the Charleston, W. Va., VOR" is deleted and "Charleston, W. Va., VORTAC; Parkersburg, W. Va., VOR; INT of the Parkersburg VOR 060° True and the Pittsburgh, Pa., VORTAC 223° True radials; to the Pittsburgh VORTAC." is substituted therefor.

3. In the caption of § 601.6115 (14 CFR 601.6115) "to Charleston, W. Va." is deleted and "to Pittsburgh, Pa." is substituted therefor.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., February 9, 1961.

(Sec. 307(a), 72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 20, 1960.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Modification of Control Zone

On September 14, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 8825) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) proposed to modify the Peru, Ind., control zone.

As stated in the notice, the Peru, Ind., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of Bunker Hill Air Force Base, and within 2 miles either side of the extended centerline of the Bunker Hill AFB northeast-southwest runway extending to a point 9 miles southwest of the end of the runway.

The FAA proposed the following:

1. Designate a control zone extension northeast of the Bunker Hill AFB on the 042° True radial of the TVOR (Lat. 40°38'28" N, Long. 86°09'02" W) extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northeast of the TVOR.

2. Designate a control zone extension within a 5-mile radius of the Kokomo, Ind., Municipal Airport; and within 2 miles either side of the 131° True radial of the Kokomo VOR extending from the Kokomo 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southeast of the VOR.

3. Redesignate the present southwest control zone extension by realigning it on the 220° True radial of the Bunker Hill AFB TACAN, and extending it from the 5-mile radius zone to 10 miles southwest of the TACAN (Lat. 40°38'58" N, Long. 86°08'00" W).

4. Designate control zone extensions southwest of the Bunker Hill AFB on the 226° and 231° True radials of the TVOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles southwest of the TVOR.

These modifications would provide protection for aircraft executing prescribed instrument approach procedures to the Bunker Hill Air Force Base and the Kokomo Municipal Airport during instrument flight rule weather conditions.

Four comments were received regarding the proposed amendment. The Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA) questioned the need for a control zone extension based on the TACAN since they did not find a published approach for the Bunker Hill AFB TACAN. AOPA further stated that this extension appeared excessive and requested a review of the need for this particular control zone extension. Two TACAN approaches are published for Bunker Hill AFB (JAL-470-TACAN 1 and 2). These approaches specify that approaching aircraft cross the 8 nautical mile gate at 1,487 feet above the elevation of the airport. Since it is not possible to determine the exact point an aircraft will descend below 1,000 feet above the terrain between the 8 nautical mile gate and the airport, the FAA considers it necessary in this instance to extend the control zone extension to the approach gate which, at 8 nautical miles from the approach end of the runway, is established in accordance with the U.S. Manual of Criteria for Standard Instrument Approach Procedures.

The Aeronautics Commission of Indiana, USAF, and Air Transport Association of America endorsed the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 12582) and for the reasons stated herein and in the notice, § 601.2378 (14 CFR 601.2378) is amended to read:

§ 601.2378 Peru, Ind., control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of Bunker Hill Air Force Base, Peru, Ind., (Lat. 40°39'38" N, Long. 86°08'31" W); within 2 miles either side of the 042°, 226°, and 231° True radials of the Bunker Hill AFB TVOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles NE and SW of the TVOR; within 2 miles either side of the 220° True radial of the Bunker Hill AFB TACAN, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 10 miles SW of the TACAN; within a 5-mile radius of the Kokomo, Ind., Municipal Airport (Lat. 40°31'43" N, Long. 86°03'33" W); and within 2 miles either side of the 131° True radial of the Kokomo VOR extending from the Kokomo 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles SE of the VOR.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. March 9, 1961.

PART 602—ESTABLISHMENT OF CODED JET ROUTES AND NAVIGATIONAL AIDS IN THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA

Modification of Coded Jet Route

On October 14, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 9872) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the segment of VOR/VORTAC jet route No. 13 between Cheyenne, Wyo., and Great Falls, Mont.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice, the following action is taken:

In the text of § 602.513 (14 CFR 602.513) "Casper, Wyo., VOR; Livingston, Mont., VOR" is deleted and "Crazy Woman, Wyo., VOR; Billings, Mont., VOR" is substituted therefor.

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification of a Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor

On October 1, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 9419) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the Anchorage, Alaska (Elmendorf AFB), Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor (R-561) (Chart-Alaska RF).

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 8005), and for the reasons stated in the notice, the Anchorage, Alaska (Elmendorf AFB) Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor (R-561) (Chart-Alaska RF) in § 608.61 Alaska (24 F.R. 3230), is amended to read:

1. Anchorage, Alaska (Elmendorf AFB), Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor (R-561) (Chart-Alaska RF).

Description: That area centered on the 298° True radial of the Elmendorf Air Force Base TACAN, extending from 3 statute miles from the west end of Elmendorf AFB runway 23 to 25 statute miles from the west end of runway 23, and having a width of 2.145 statute miles at the beginning and expanding uniformly to a width of 4.3 statute miles at the outer extremity.

Designated altitudes.

3,000' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 3 statute miles west of the west end of runway 23 to 5 statute miles west of the west end of runway 23.

5,000' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 5 to 7 statute miles west of the west end of runway 23.

7,000' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 7 to 12 statute miles west of the west end of runway 23.

10,000' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 12 to 17 statute miles west of the west end of runway 23.

13,000' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 17 to 22 statute miles west of the west end of runway 23.

16,000' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 22 to 25 statute miles west of the west end of runway 23.

Time of designation. Continuous.

Controlling agency. Anchorage Approach Control, FAA

Title 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart F—Food Additives Resulting From Contact With Containers or Equipment and Food Additives Otherwise Affecting Food

NYLON RESINS AS COMPONENTS OF EQUIPMENT USED IN PROCESSING (NOT PACKAGING) FOOD

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, having evaluated the data submitted in petitions filed by E. I. duPont deNemours and Company, Wilmington, Delaware, and other relevant material, has concluded that the following food additive regulations should issue in conformance with section 409 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act with respect to certain nylon resins to be used as components of food-processing equipment. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the act (sec. 409(c)(1), 72 Stat. 1786; 21 U.S.C. 348(c)(1)) and under the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (25 F.R. 8625): It is ordered, That the food additive regulations (21 CFR Part 121) be amended by adding thereto the following new sections:

66 nylon resin (polyhexamethylene adipamide), as defined in paragraph (b) of this section and subject to the conditions prescribed in this section, may safely be used to produce articles (except food packages) intended for use in processing and handling food.

(a) 66 nylon is manufactured by the condensation of hexamethylenediamine and adipic acid under controlled conditions whereby it meets the specifications and tests prescribed in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Specifications—(1) Qualitative tests—(i) Infrared identification. 66 nylon has characteristic infrared spectra useful for identification purposes.

(ii) Other properties for identifying 66 nylon are as follows:

(a) Specific gravity---------- 1.14±0.015
Determined by weighing a 1-gram to 5-gram specimen first in air and then in freshly boiled distilled water at 23° C. ±2° C.

(b) Melting point-------- 475° F. —495° F.
The melting point is determined as follows: Use a hot-stage apparatus. The use of crossed nicol prisms with a microscope hot stage and reading of the thermometer when the birefringence disappears increase the accuracy. If the crossed nicol apparatus is not available, use the lowest temperature at which the sample becomes transparent or the sharp edges or corners of the sample become rounded as the melting point. In case of doubt as to the onset of melting, the sample is prodded with a sharp instrument. If it sticks to the heating block, it is considered to have melted. If the melting point is low, dry the sample in an oven at 85° C. for 24 hours in a nitrogen atmosphere.

(c) Solubility in boiling 4.2*N* HCl. Dissolves in 1 hour.
The test is run on a sample approximately the size of a ½-inch cube in at least 25 milliliters of 4.2*N* HCl.

(2) Extractability limitations using the method described in paragraph (c) of this section.

66 nylon:	Percent
Water	1.0
95 percent ethyl alcohol	1.0
Ethyl acetate	0.1
Benzene	0.1

(c) Procedure for determining the material extractable from nylon resins by selected solvents. (1) The granules of nylon molding powders are in the proper form for the extraction tests described in this section. Samples of fabricated articles such as pipe, fittings, and other components must be cut to approximately the size of the molding powder. This can be done conveniently by using a small-scale commercial plastics granulator and cutting the sample through a screen having ¼-inch mesh. Fine particles should be separated from the cut resin by screening through a 20-mesh screen. The material retained on the screen is suitable for the extraction tests.

(2) The organic solvents must be of American Chemical Society analytical reagent grade; distilled water is used. Approximately 100 grams of the prepared sample is weighed to the nearest milligram. The weighed resin is transferred to a 300-milliliter round-bottom flask equipped with a reflux condenser. Approximately 100 milliliters of solvent is added to the flask and the contents refluxed gently for 8 hours with a heating mantle. The solvent is then filtered off while still hot, using a Büchner funnel approximately 5 inches in diameter, a suction flask, and a hardened filter paper (Whatman No. 50 or equivalent). The paper is wet with the solvent and a slight suction applied just before starting the filtration. The resin is washed twice with approximately 100-milliliter portions of warm solvent and the combined filtrate and washings are reduced to approximately 25 milliliters by evaporation at reduced pressure (50 millimeters to 100 millimeters of mercury, absolute), heating as necessary. The contents of the flask are transferred to an evaporating dish (which has been held in a vacuum desiccator over anhydrous calcium sulfate until constant weight has been attained). The weight of the solid residue is determined by difference after holding in a vacuum desiccator over anhydrous calcium sulfate until constant weight has been attained. The percent of solids extracted is calculated by dividing the weight of the solid residue by the weight of the sample and multiplying by 100.

610 nylon (polyhexamethylene sebacamide) as defined in paragraph (a) of this section and subject to the further conditions prescribed in this section, may safely be used to produce articles (except food packages) intended for use in processing and handling food.

(a) 610 nylon is manufactured by the condensation of hexamethylenediamine and sebacic acid, under controlled conditions, whereby it meets the specifications and tests prescribed in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Specifications—(1) Qualitative tests—(i) Infrared identification. 610 nylon has characteristic infrared spectra useful for identification purposes.

(ii) Other properties for identifying 610 nylon:

(a) Specific gravity---------- 1.09±0.015
Determined by weighing a 1-gram to 5-gram specimen first in air and then in freshly boiled distilled water at 23° C. ±2° C.

(b) Melting point--------- 405° F.—425° F.
The melting point is determined as follows: Use a hot-stage apparatus. The use of crossed nicol prisms with a microscope hot stage and reading of the theromometer when the birefringence disappears increase the accuracy. If the crossed nicol apparatus is not available, use the lowest temperature at which the sample becomes transparent or the sharp edges or corners of the sample become rounded as the melting point. In case of doubt as to the onset of melting, the sample is prodded with a sharp instrument. If it sticks to the heating block, it is considered to have melted. If the melting point is low, dry the sample in an oven at 85° C. for 24 hours in a nitrogen atmosphere.

(c) Solubility in boiling 4.2*N* HCl. Insoluble after 1 hour.
The test is run on a sample approximately the size of a ½-inch cube in at least 25 milliliters of 4.2*N* HCl.

(2) Extractability limitations.

610 nylon:	Percent
Water	0.25
95 percent ethyl alcohol	1.0
Ethyl acetate	0.15
Benzene	0.15

(c) Procedure for determining the material extractable from nylon resins by selected solvents is described in § 121.2502(c).

§ 121.2504 66/610 nylon resins.

Copolymer 66/610 nylon, as defined in paragraph (a) of this section and further subject to the conditions prescribed in this section, may safely be used to produce articles (except food packages) intended for use in processing and handling food (except milk).

(a) Copolymer 66/610 nylon is manufactured by polymerizing equal weights of the 66 and 610 monomeric salts under controlled conditions whereby it meets the specifications and tests prescribed in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Specifications—(1) Qualitative tests—(i) Infrared identification. Copolymer 66/610 nylon has characteristic infrared spectra useful for identification purposes.

(ii) Other properties for identifying copolymer 66/610 nylon:

(a) Specific gravity---------- 1.10±0.015
Determined by weighing a 1-gram to 5-gram specimen first in air and then in freshly boiled distilled water at 32° C. ±2° C.

(b) Melting point--------- 375° F.-395° F.
The melting point is determined as follows: Use a hot-stage apparatus. The use of crossed nicol prisms with a microscope hot stage and reading of the thermometer when the birefringence disappears increase the accuracy. If the crossed nicol apparatus is not available, use the lowest temperature at which the sample becomes transparent or the sharp edges or corners of the sample become rounded as the melting point. In case of doubt as to the onset of melting, the sample is prodded with a sharp instrument. If it sticks to the heating block, it is considered to have melted. If the melting point is low, dry the sample in an oven at 85° C. for 24 hours in a nitrogen atmosphere.

(c) Solubility in boiling 4.2*N* HCl. Dissolves in 1 hour.

(2) Extractability limitations.

Nylon copolymer 66/610:	Percent
Water	1.0
95 percent ethyl alcohol	1.5
Ethyl acetate	0.15

(c) Procedure for determining the material extractable from nylon resins by selected solvents is described in § 121.2502(c).

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SUBCHAPTER C—DRUGS

PART 146—GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR THE CERTIFICATION OF ANTIBIOTIC AND ANTIBIOTIC-CONTAINING DRUGS

Animal Feed Containing Antibiotic Drugs

Under the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 507, 59 Stat. 463, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 357) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (23 F.R. 9500, 25 F.R. 5611), the general regulations for the certification of antibiotic and antibiotic-containing drugs (21 CFR 146.26) are amended by adding to paragraph (b) the following new subparagraph (45):

§ 146.26 Animal feed containing penicillin.

(b) * * *

(45) It is intended for use in the prevention and control of cecal and intestinal coccidiosis in chickens caused by Eimeria acervulina, Eimeria brunetti, Eimeria maxima, Eimeria necatrix, and Eimeria tenella, and for stimulating growth and improving feed efficiency in growing chickens; its labeling bears adequate directions and warnings for such use, including a warning against its use in laying hens; it contains, per ton of feed, not less than 2.4 grams of penicillin and not more than 50 grams of penicillin; and it contains the following quantities of zoalene (3,5-dinitro-o-toluamide), by weight of feed, under the conditions and for the ages of chickens indicated:

Growing conditions	Percent of drug in feed for birds up to 6 weeks of age	Percent of drug in feed for birds from 6–14 weeks of age
Severe exposure to coccidiosis.	0.0125	0.0083–0.0125
Light to moderate exposure to coccidiosis.	0.0083	0.0063–0.0083

The exemption from certification is granted with the further proviso that there has been submitted to the Commissioner, in triplicate, adequate information of the kind described in § 146.7 to establish the safety and efficacy of the article and to guarantee its identity, strength, quality, and purity. The exemption shall expire at the beginning of any act changing the composition or labeling of such drug, or the methods used in and the facilities and controls used for its manufacturing, processing, and packaging, or in its labeling, unless the person who obtains the exemption has submitted to the Commissioner, in triplicate, amended information that describes such proposed changes, and such amendment has been accepted by the Commissioner. ♦ Both concentrates and finished poultry feed containing zoalene must comply with all the requirements of § 121.207 of this chapter, including labeling.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry, since it relaxes existing requirements, and since it would be contrary to public interest to delay providing for the amendment incorporated in this order.

I further find that animal feed containing antibiotic drugs and conforming with the conditions prescribed in this order need not comply with the requirements of sections 502(1) and 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act in order to insure their safety and efficacy.

Effective date. This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the affected industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

Chapter II—Bureau of Narcotics, Department of the Treasury

[T.D. 60]

PART 302—IMPORTATION AND EXPORTATION OF NARCOTIC DRUGS

PART 303—OPIUM POPPIES

PART 304—ADJUDICATION AND LICENSING

PART 305—OPIATES

PART 307—MANUFACTURING OF NARCOTIC DRUGS

Miscellaneous Amendments

On pages 11227 to 11235 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 26, 1960, there was published a notice of proposed rule making to issue regulations with respect to importation and exportation of narcotic drugs; opium poppies; adjudication and licensing; opiates; and manufacturing of narcotic drugs.

After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, the regulations as so published are hereby adopted subject to the changes set forth below:

PARAGRAPH 1. Paragraph (b) of § 307.121 is amended by changing the word "was" appearing in the third sentence to read "will be"; by changing the words "has relied", appearing in the fourth sentence to read "will rely", and the word "took" in the same sentence to read "will take".

PAR. 2. Section 307.127 is deleted in its entirety.

Effective date. This Treasury Decision shall become effective January 1, 1961.

[SEAL] H. J. ANSLINGER,
Commissioner of Narcotics.

Approved: December 22, 1960.

A. GILMORE FLUES,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

In Part 302—Importation and Exportation of Narcotic Drugs:

1. Section 302.17 Exportation is revised to read as follows:

§ 302.17 Exportation.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, no person shall in any manner export from or take out of the United States, or cause to be exported or taken out of the United States any narcotic drug, nor shall any carrier receive for exportation, or export, or carry out of the United States any narcotic drug, unless and until a permit, in due form to export the narcotic drug in each instance shall have been issued by the Commissioner.

(b) A pharmaceutical preparation, containing a narcotic drug, conforming to the standards set forth in 26 CFR 151.422 as a Class "M" product may be exported or taken out of the United States without compliance with requirements set forth in §§ 302.17–302.27.

2. Section 302.19 Foreign import license or permit to be submitted is amended by changing "legitimate" to read "scientific". As so amended, § 302.19 reads as follows:

§ 302.19 Foreign import license or permit to be submitted.

There shall also be submitted with the application any import license or permit (and a translation thereof if in a foreign language) or a certified copy of any such license or permit issued by competent authorities in the country of destination, or other documentary evidence deemed adequate by the Commissioner showing that the merchandise is consigned to an authorized permittee, that it is to be applied exclusively to medical and scientific uses within the country of destination, that it will not be reexported from such country, and that there is an actual shortage of and a demand for the merchandise for medical and scientific uses within such country. Verification by an American consular officer of signatures on foreign import licenses will be necesary if such licenses do not bear the seal of the officer signing them.

In Part 303—Opium Poppies:

3. Section 303.6 Production in excess of quantities named in licenses is renumbered § 303.7.

4. Section 303.8 Issuance of license to manufacture is revoked and § 303.7 Application for license to manufacture is renumbered § 303.8 and is revised to read as follows:

§ 303.8 License to manufacture.

Any person who desires to manufacture opium or opium products from opium poppies shall first obtain the required license and quota for the manufacture of a basic class of narcotic drug and be subject to all of the provisions and requirements of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960 (Pub. Law 86–429, 74 Stat. 55), and the regulations issued pursuant thereto (Part 307 of this chapter). No further manufacturing license shall be required. However, no license to manufacture opium or opium products from opium poppies shall be issued by the Commissioner unless he finds that the medical and scientific needs of the United States for narcotic drugs are not being or cannot be supplied from crude opium obtained by importation.

5. Section 303.9 Limitations is renumbered section 303.6 and is revised to read as follows:

§ 303.6 Limitations.

All licenses to produce opium poppies, issued by the Commissioner, shall be limited to such number, localities, and areas as the Commissioner shall determine to be appropriate to supply the medical and scientific needs of the United States for opium or opium products, with due regard to provision for reasonable reserves. It shall be the policy of the Commissioner, so far as practicable, to confine the production of opium poppies to such areas as will permit efficient and economical enforcement of the narcotic laws and regulations.

In Part 304—Adjudication and Licensing Procedure:

6. Paragraph (g) of § 304.1 is revised to read as follows:

§ 304.1 Adjudication and licensing.

* * * * *

(g) Functions of the Secretary of the Treasury, or his delegate under Opiates Act. Under subsection (g) of section 4731 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 4(b) of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960 (Pub. Law 86–429, 74 Stat. 57), the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate has the function of making a determination, after due notice and an opportunity for public hearing, of what substances shall be an "opiate" as that term is defined in 21 CFR Part 305.

In Part 305—Opiates:

7. Section 305.1 Hearing; notice is revised to read as follows:

§ 305.1 Opiate.

(a) Definition. The word "opiate" shall mean any drug (as defined in the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 321(g))) or other substance found by the Commissioner of Narcotics (after considering the technical advice of the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, or his delegate, on the subject) to have (1) an addiction-forming or addiction-sustaining liability similar to morphine or cocaine; or (2) to be capable of conversion into a drug having such addiction-forming or addiction-sustaining liability with relative technical simplicity and degree of yield as to create a risk of improper use.

(b) Finding. Prior to making any finding that a drug or other substance is an "opiate" (as defined in paragraph (a) of this section), the Commissioner of Narcotics shall give due notice of his intention to consider the desirability of making such a finding and afford an opportunity for a public hearing to all interested parties. Not less than twenty days prior to the date set for a hearing, the Commissioner shall cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice setting forth the date, time and place of the proposed hearing. Any person desiring to be heard shall furnish written notice to the Commissioner not later than twenty days from the date notice of hearing is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. If no written notice of a desire to be heard shall be received by the Commissioner within such period of twenty days, no hearing shall be held, but the Commissioner shall proceed to make a finding based on all available evidence including pharmacological and clinical tests of the drug. If written notice of a desire to be heard is received by the Commissioner within the prescribed period of twenty days, the hearing will be held in accordance with the original notice. When the Commissioner finds that a drug is an "opiate", he shall proclaim such finding in the FEDERAL REGISTER after which all of the provisions of the Federal narcotic laws shall apply to such drug.

(c) Termination. The Commissioner of Narcotics may withdraw any previous finding that a drug or other substance is an "opiate" whenever he determines that such previous finding was erroneous. Such determination shall take effect immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER and the particular drug or other substance shall thereupon cease to be an "opiate". The Commissioner may, although he is not bound to, consider any action taken by the World Health Organization pursuant to Article 3 of the 1948 Protocol in withdrawing a drug or other substance previously declared an "opiate".

§ 305.2 [Revocation]

8. Section 305.2 Procedure is revoked.

Part 307—Manufacturing of Narcotic Drugs:

9. A new Part 307—Manufacturing of Narcotic Drugs, is added to read as follows:

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.
307.51 Hearings.
307.52 Practice before Bureau of Narcotics.

MANUFACTURE OF NARCOTIC PRECURSORS

307.141 Narcotic precursors.

IMPORTATION OF NARCOTIC DRUGS

307.151 Importation of narcotic drugs for scientific purposes.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 307.51 Hearings.

To the extent that a hearing under the regulations in this part is required pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237), such hearing shall be conducted in accordance therewith. The Commissioner may specify such procedural rules as may be necessary from time to time to secure the efficient and expeditious conduct of hearings.

§ 307.52 Practice before Bureau of Narcotics by former employees.

(a) Matters pending while employed. No person having served as an agent, district supervisor, administrative officer, attorney or in any other capacity with the Bureau of Narcotics shall, within two years after the termination of his employment with the Bureau, practice or in any manner act as an attorney or agent or as the employee of an attorney or agent in any matter pending during the period of his employment therein, unless he shall first obtain the written consent of the Commissioner. This consent will not be granted unless it appears that the applicant for such consent did not give personal consideration to the matter or gain knowledge of the facts involved during and by reason of his employment in the Bureau of Narcotics.

(b) Practice before Bureau. For the purpose of this section, practice before the Bureau shall include the preparation of any statement, opinion or other paper by any attorney, accountant, chemist, pharmacologist or other expert filed with the Commissioner.

§ 307.53 Definitions.

As used in this part:

"Act" means the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960, Pub. Law 86–429 (74 Stat. 55).

"Bureau" means the United States Bureau of Narcotics.

"Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Narcotics.

"Licensee" means a person granted a license under section 8 of Act to manufacture a basis class of narcotic drug.

"Manufacture" means the production of a narcotic drug, either directly or indirectly, by extraction from substances of vegetable origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis.

"Narcotic", "narcotics", or "narcotic drugs" means any of the substances defined as narcotic drugs in section 4731(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 4(a) of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960.

"Person" includes an individual, partnership, corporation, association, trust, or other institution or entity.

"1912 Convention" means the International Opium Convention for the Suppression of the Abuses of Opium and other Drugs signed at the Hague, January 23, 1912, and entered into force with respect to the United States, February 11, 1915.

"1925 Convention" means the International Opium Convention signed at Geneva, February 19, 1925 to which the United States is not a party.

"1931 Convention" means the Convention for Limiting the Manufacture and Regulating the Distribution of Narcotic Drugs, concluded at Geneva, July 13, 1931, and entered into force with respect to the United States July 9, 1933.

"1946 Protocol" means the protocol amending the Conventions of 1912, 1925 and 1931, signed at Lake Success on December 11, 1946, and entered into force with respect to the United States, August 12, 1947.

"1948 Protocol" means the protocol bringing under international control drugs outside the scope of the 1931 Convention, signed at Paris, November 19, 1948, and entered into force with respect to the United States, September 11, 1950.

§ 307.54 Delegation of functions.

Treasury Department Order No. 180–5 issued by the Acting Secretary of the Treasury, dated August 3, 1960 (25 F.R. 7544) provides as follows:

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Reorganization Plan No. 26 of 1950 and by P.L. 86–429, there is hereby delegated to the Commissioner of Narcotics authority to perform all the functions of the Secretary of the Treasury under P.L. 86–429, 74 Stat. 55, cited as the "Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960".

The functions herein transferred to the Commissioner of Narcotics may be delegated by him to subordinates as he deems necessary.

Regulations issued by the Commissioner of Narcotics under the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960 shall be subject to approval by the Secretary of the Treasury.

International Control of Narcotic Drugs

§ 307.61 Notifications, findings and decisions under the 1948 Protocol.

(a) Notification given. The United States is obligated, as a signatory state Party to the 1948 Protocol to notify the Secretary-General of the United Nations whenever it considers that a drug which is or may be used for medical or scientific purposes is liable to the same kind of abuse and productive of the same kind of harmful effects as the drugs specified in Article 1, Paragraph 2 of the 1931 Convention and is not covered by that Convention. The notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall be made only after the Commissioner has found and proclaimed such drug to be an "opiate" in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 4731(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 4(b) of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960.

(b) Notification received. When the United States receives notification from the Secretary-General of the United Nations (pursuant to Article 1 or 2 of the 1948 Protocol) based on a decision of the World Health Organization or of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs of the Economic and Social Council that a drug which is or may be used for medical or scientific purposes and which is liable to the same kind of abuse and productive of the same kind of harmful effects as the drugs specified in Article 1, Paragraph 2 of the 1931 Convention, and is not covered by the 1931 Convention, is capable of producing addiction or of conversion into a drug capable of producing addiction, the Commissioner shall cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER such decision of the World Health Organization or Commission on Narcotic Drugs, unless such drug has already been determined to be an "opiate" in accordance with section 4731(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 4(b) of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960. From the time of such publication, the drug will be subject to the same control as an "opiate" in the same manner as if it had been so determined and proclaimed by the Commissioner pursuant to the procedure set forth in section 4731(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 4(b) of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960.

§ 307.62 Findings by United Nations organs.

(a) Arguments opposed to finding or decision. Any person interested in the domestic manufacture and distribution for medical or scientific purposes of a drug which becomes subject to control by virtue of the procedure set forth in § 307.61(b), may submit to the Commissioner of Narcotics written data, views, briefs and argument opposed to such finding or decision. The Commissioner shall transmit such written data, views, briefs and argument to the Department of State for transmittal to the Secretary-General of the United Nations for consideration of the World Health Organization or the Commission on Narcotic Drugs, as the case may be, (under Article 3 of the 1948 Protocol), as the written opposition of such interested party, and not necessarily as the views of the United States.

(b) Revised finding or decision. If, after the submission of written data, views, and argument to the Secretary-General of the United Nations in accordance with paragraph (a), the United States receives a revised finding or decision that the drug in question is not capable of producing addiction or conversion into a drug capable of producing addiction and that the provisions of the 1931 Convention shall not apply to such drug, the Commissioner of Narcotics shall cause such revised finding or decision to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER within ninety (90) days of receipt thereof. From the time of such publication, such drug shall cease to be an "opiate", unless the Commissioner has previously initiated an "opiate" procedure pursuant to section 4731(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 4(b) of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960.

General: When the United States receives a revised finding or decision (under Article 3 of the 1948 Protocol) that a drug already subject to the federal narcotic laws as an "opiate" is not capable of producing addiction or of conversion into a drug capable of producing addiction and that the provisions of the 1931 Convention shall not apply to such drug, the Commissioner of Narcotics may, in his discretion, cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER such revised finding or decision and, from the time of publication, such drug shall cease to be an "opiate". If on the other hand the Commissioner, in his discretion, does not cause such revised finding or decision to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the drug in question shall continue to be an "opiate".

Basic Classes of Narcotic Drugs

§ 307.71 Modification of list of basic class of narcotic drugs.

(a) Definition of "basic class" of narcotic drug. The term "basic class" of narcotic drug means any class of narcotic drug which has been included in the list enumerated in section 3(g) of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960, as such list may be altered from time to time by adding to, subtracting from, or further defining any such class.

(b) Alteration of a basic class. Whenever the Commissioner of Narcotics shall, either upon his own motion or upon the application of an interested party, determine that a narcotic drug as defined in section 4731 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 4 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960, on the basis of its chemical structure and content possesses an addiction-forming or addiction-sustaining liability or convertibility into an addicting drug so great as to present a hazard, if manufactured and distributed, to the public health and safety, he may alter the classification set forth in section 3(g) of this Act by subtracting such basic class from existing classification or he may further define such basic class, as the case may be. The Commissioner, prior to making such alteration, shall cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice as to this proposed subtraction or further definition of a basic class. Such notice shall also apprise interested parties of their right to request a hearing as to the proposed alteration of a basic class.

(c) Addition of a new basic class to existing classification. No new basic class of narcotic drug shall be added by the Commissioner to the established enumeration unless he shall first have determined that;

(1) such drug is a narcotic drug as defined by section 4731 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by section 4 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960, or has caused to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a determination to this effect pursuant to section 5 of this Act; and

(2) to permit the manufacture of such drug will not be contrary to the public health and safety.

§ 307.72 Establishment of a new basic class of narcotic drug.

(a) Request to establish a new basic class of narcotic drug. A person interested in having a new basic class of narcotic drug established, as provided in § 307.71, shall file a formal written request therefor with the Commissioner of Narcotics on Bureau Form 187.

(b) Preparation of Bureau Form 187. The applicant for the establishment of a new basic class of narcotic drug in preparing Bureau Form 187 shall, to the extent available, render the following information called for on the form:

(1) Generic name for drug;

(2) International non-proprietary name of the drug;

(3) Chemical name or description (structural formula);

(4) General description and composition;

(5) Therapeutic action and uses;

(6) Advantages, if any, over similar drugs already in use;

(7) Known or suspected habituation or addiction potentials;

(8) Known side effects, if any, and precautions desirable in its use;

(9) Methods of administration and recommended dosage;

(10) Nature of applicant's interest in the drug.

(c) Submission of Bureau Form 185. The applicant for the establishment of a new basic class of narcotic drug, in addition to the filing of Bureau Form 187, shall prepare and file Bureau Form 185. The purpose of this form is to provide the Commissioner with whatever information is available respecting the chemical formulas, physical properties and general identification of new narcotic drugs and their closely related analogs, on which the Bureau is called upon to take some action, particularly new synthetics and newly prepared opium derivatives, whose properties are not yet published in standard chemical or pharmaceutical reference works.

(d) Addition of new basic class by Commissioner. Where the Commissioner, on his own initiative, determines in accordance with paragraph (c) of § 307.71, that the addition of a new basic class of narcotic drug to the existing classification would not be contrary to the public health and safety, he shall cause a notice to this effect to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The notice shall also apprise interested parties that they may request a hearing as to the proposed addition of a new basic class of narcotic drug to the existing classification, as enumerated in section 3(g) of the Act.

(e) Granting of application to establish a new basic class. If on the basis of all the information before him, the Commissioner determines that the approval of an application for the addition of a new basic class to the existing classification would be consistent with the law and the public health and safety, he shall cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice to the effect that an application to establish a new basic class of narcotic drug has been made by a named applicant, specifying the class of narcotic drug involved and apprising all interested parties of their right to request a hearing as to the proposed addition of a new basic class to the existing classifications. The notice shall indicate that in the absence of evidence convincing the Commissioner that such course is inappropriate, he intends to grant the application.

(f) Final determination to establish a new basic class. The Commissioner, after having determined under paragraph (d) or (e) of this section that it is consistent with law and the public health and safety to establish a new basic class of narcotic drug to the existing classification, shall cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice to this effect.

(g) Denial of application. If, on the basis of all of the information before him, the Commissioner determines that the approval of an application for the addition of a new basic class to the existing classification would not be consistent with law and the public health and safety, he may deny such application. Prior to denying such application, the Commissioner shall afford the applicant an opportunity to present any additional evidence relevant to the application. If after such additional evidence is presented, the Commissioner determines that it would now be consistent with the public health and safety to grant such application, the provisions of paragraph (f) of this section shall apply.

(h) Opportunity for hearing. If the Commissioner continues to be of the opinion that the granting of the application would not be consistent with law and the public health and safety, he shall afford the applicant an opportunity for a hearing, causing a notice to this effect to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Manufacture of Narcotic Drugs

§ 307.81 Restriction on manufacture of narcotic drugs.

General: Except as provided in § 307.83, it shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the manufacture of any narcotic drug or cause or permit another to engage in the manufacture of any narcotic drug unless:

(a) Such narcotic drug is included in a "basic class" of narcotic drug (see § 307.71); and

(b) Such person holds a currently effective license for the manufacture of such basic class of narcotic drug issued pursuant to section 8 of the Act (see § 307.90); and

(c) Such person holds a currently effective manufacturing quota with respect to such basic class of narcotic drug, as set forth in section 11 of the Act (see § 307.121).

§ 307.82 Omission of a narcotic drug from a basic class.

(a) No narcotic drug shall be manufactured unless it is included within a basic class enumerated in section 3(g) of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960, or established pursuant to section 6 of the Act.

(b) The fact that the Commissioner shall have (1) determined that a drug is a narcotic drug, or (2) caused a finding or decision with respect to any drug or other substance to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER pursuant to section 5 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960 (see § 307.61), shall not require the Commissioner to add such narcotic drug to the classification set forth in section 3(g) of the Act (see § 307.71 as to modification of list of basic class of narcotic drugs), or to grant a manufacturing quota pursuant to section 11 of the Act (see § 307.121), for such narcotic drug, if he finds that it would be contrary to the public health and safety.

§ 307.83 Manufacturing for scientific research and testing.

(a) Manufacture for scientific research. The Commissioner of Narcotics shall exempt from the provisions of § 307.90, any person desirous of manufacturing a narcotic drug exclusively for research in the development of manufacturing processes for the drug, or for chemical, pharmacological or medical testing of such drug, for fitness for medical or scientific use and for determination of its suitability for general manufacture and distribution for medical or scientific use.

(b) Authorization to manufacture. Written authorization from the Commissioner to manufacture a narcotic drug for scientific purposes must be obtained prior to the undertaking of such manufacture. The Commissioner shall grant such authorization only to those public officials who have evidenced their exemption from registration and payment of tax (26 CFR 151.221) with the District Director of the Internal Revenue Service or to persons registered in Class I or Class VI, under section 4722 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and who otherwise meet the standards for licensing under subsection (a) of section 8 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960.

(c) Application for authorization to manufacture. A person desiring to obtain authorization to manufacture a narcotic drug for scientific purposes shall file an application therefor on Bureau Form 190 in duplicate, which form is available at the office of the Commissioner, Bureau of Narcotics, Washington 25, D.C. If the drug to be manufactured is produced by chemical synthesis, whether or not from narcotic materials, the application shall be accompanied by an outline of the process of synthesis on Form 186, identifying the substances from which it is to be made and those resulting from each successive step of the process, and indicating in each instance whether the substance is isolated and weighed or measured or whether it remains in solution in a continuing process of manufacture. The applicant need not disclose on this form any technical detail of the process which he regards as an important trade secret, but in order that the Commissioner may discharge his responsibility under the law with respect to narcotic precursors the applicant must identify each substance used and each substance resulting from the successive stages of manufacture. Information disclosed on Form 186 will be held in confidence by the Bureau.

(d) Limitations on authorization. Authorization to manufacture under this section will be limited to narcotic drugs not readily available to the researcher from sources within the United States, except where the development of new or improved methods of production is the object of the research to be undertaken. In addition, the Commissioner may specify a limitation on the quantity of narcotic drug to be manufactured under this section of the regulations.

(e) Reports required. Persons authorized to manufacture under this section of the regulations and who are Class I registrants shall render a quarterly report to the Commissioner on Bureau Form 810 and its supplements in accordance with 26 CFR 151.261. Those persons who are Class VI registrants shall render to the Commissioner semi-annual reports on Bureau Form 192, as of June 30 and December 31 of each year, to be submitted not later than the 15th of the month following, accounting for the manufacture and use or other disposition of the drugs so manufactured.

(f) Disposition of drugs manufactured. All such drugs manufactured under this section of the regulations shall be used in research or otherwise disposed of, as authorized by the Commissioner, within five years from the date of manufacture, unless an extension of time for completion of the research has been requested in writing and granted by the Commissioner.

(g) Suspension or revocation of authorization. Any authorization granted by the Commissioner under this section of the regulations shall be subject to suspension or revocation in accordance with the procedure set forth in §§ 307.79 and 307.80 as to suspension or revocation of licenses to manufacture.

MANUFACTURERS' LICENSES

§ 307.90 License to manufacture narcotic drugs; generally.

(a) Every manufacturer of a basic class or classes of narcotic drug shall obtain a license for each such basic class on or before January 1, 1961, if then already engaged in such manufacture. All other persons desiring to engage in the manufacture of a basic class or classes of narcotic drug after January 1, 1961 shall obtain appropriate licenses for each such basic class prior to undertaking such manufacture. Issuance of a license for the manufacture of any one basic class of narcotic drug shall not entitle the licensee to engage in any transaction with respect to any other basic class of narcotic drug.

(b) A person desiring to obtain a license as provided in paragraph (a) of this section shall prepare and file an application for such a license in accordance with the procedure set forth in § 307.92.

§ 307.91 Registration as a prerequisite to issuance of a license.

In addition to the conditions precedent for the issuance of a license to manufacture a particular basic class of narcotic drug as provided in § 307.90, each applicant for a license must be registered as a Class I registrant pursuant to the provisions of sections 4721 and 4722 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (see 26 CFR Part 121 et seq.).

§ 307.92 Requirements for license applications.

(a) Who may file. Any person may file an application for a license to manufacture a basic class of narcotic drug under section 8 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960.

(b) Filing of applications. All applications for licenses must be filed in the office of the Commissioner, Bureau of Narcotics, Washington 25, D.C. Application shall be made on Bureau Form 188 in duplicate which form is available at the above address. If the drug to be manufactured is produced by chemical synthesis, whether or not from narcotic materials, the application shall be accompanied by an outline of the process of synthesis on Form 186, identifying the substances from which it is to be made and those resulting from each successive step of the process, and indicating in each instance whether the substance is isolated and weighed or measured or whether it remains in solution in a continuing process of manufacture. The applicant need not disclose on this form any technical detail of the process which he regards as an important trade secret, but in order that the Commissioner may discharge his responsibility under the law with respect to narcotic precursors the applicant must identify each substance used and each substance resulting from the successive stages of manufacture. Information disclosed on Form 186 will be held in confidence by the Bureau.

(c) Separate applications. An applicant who files separate applications to manufacture more than one class of narcotic drug need not repeat information on each application. He may make reference on any application to information which he has furnished on another application, identifying such other application by either file number, or if there has been no file number assigned, by basic class.

(d) Subscription of applications. Each application, or amendment thereto, and each written statement of fact required by the Commissioner from any applicant to enable the Commissioner to determine whether an application should be granted or denied, shall be personally signed by the applicant, if an individual; by a partner of the applicant, if a partnership; or by an officer of the applicant, if an association or corporation.

(e) Contents of applications. (1) Each application shall include all information called for by Forms 186 and 188 unless the information called for is inapplicable, in which case this fact shall be indicated.

(2) The Commissioner may require an applicant to submit such documents and written statements of fact pertinent to the subject matter of the application, as in the Commissioner's judgment may be necessary, or to amend the application to make it more definite and certain.

(f) Acceptance of applications for filing. (1) Applications submitted for filing are dated by the office of the Commissioner upon receipt and then forwarded to the Returns Division of the Bureau where an administrative examination is made to ascertain whether the applications are complete. Applications found to be complete or substantially complete are accepted for filing and are given a file number, which file number shall be transmitted to the applicant to be used on all future correspondence related to the application. In case of minor defects as to completeness, the applicant will be requested to supply the missing information. Applications which are not substantially complete will be returned to the applicant.

(2) Acceptance of an application for filing merely means that it has been the subject of a preliminary review by the Commissioner's administrative staff as to completeness and has no relevance to whether the application will be granted or denied. Such acceptance will not preclude the subsequent request for further information.

(g) Defective applications. (1) Applications which are determined to be patently not in accordance with these regulations or the Commissioner's specific requirements as to a particular applicant, unless accompanied by an appropriate request for waiver, will be considered defective and will not be accepted for filing. If it is ascertained that an application has been inadvertently accepted for filing, the filing will be cancelled. Requests for waiver or exception desired shall set forth the reasons in support thereof, and will be accepted or rejected in the discretion of the Commissioner.

(2) If an applicant is requested by the Commissioner to file any additional documents or information pertinent to the application not included in the prescribed application form, a failure to comply with such request will be deemed to render the application defective and the filing of such application will be cancelled.

(h) Amendments to applications. (1) Any application may be amended as a matter of right prior to the date of the receipt of notice from the Commissioner establishing a date for a hearing as requested by the applicant in accordance with § 307.93(d).

(2) Requests to amend an application after it has been designated for hearing will be considered only upon written permission by the Commissioner, and will be granted only for good cause shown.

(i) Withdrawal of applications. (1) Any application may, upon request of the applicant, be withdrawn as a matter of right prior to the date of receipt of notice from the Commissioner establishing a date for a hearing as requested by the applicant in accordance with § 307.93 (d). An applicant's request for the return of an application that has been accepted for filing will be regarded as a request to withdraw the application.

(2) Requests to withdraw an application after it has been designated for a hearing will be granted only for good cause shown.

(3) Failure to prosecute an application or failure to respond to official correspondence or request for additional information will be treated as a request by the applicant for withdrawal of his application.

§ 307.93 Action upon applications.

(a) Notice of intention to grant application. If after appropriate consideration, the Commissioner finds that it would be consistent with the public interest to grant any application filed pursuant to § 307.92, he shall so notify the applicant. This notification, however, shall not be construed as granting the application.

(b) Protest of grant of application. After notification is given to the applicant, as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, the Commissioner shall cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice to the effect that a named applicant has applied for a license to manufacture a particular basic class of narcotic drug, and that such application is being favorably considered. He shall at the same time mail a copy of this notice to every person who then holds an effective license to manufacture a narcotic drug in the basic class to which the application applies or who has a pending application therefor on file. Within twenty days after the notice is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, any interested person may file a written protest with both the Commissioner and the applicant against favorable consideration of the application. Any such protest shall specify with particularity the facts relied upon as showing that a license if granted to the applicant would not be in the public interest. Such interested person may request a hearing as to his protest. The Commissioner shall, within twenty days after the filing of a timely protest, designate a date for a hearing. The Commissioner may require of the applicant that he file with the Commissioner and the person making the protest, a written statement setting forth the grounds, if any, for his opposition to the protest. If such statement is required by the Commissioner, the applicant must file it within twenty days after the demand upon him is made by the Commissioner. Failure on the part of the applicant to submit such statement will be grounds for denial of the application.

(c) Action on denial of license. If upon examination of any application prepared and filed by the applicant in accordance with § 307.92, the Commissioner is unable to find that it would be consistent with the law and the public interest to grant the application, he shall notify the applicant that he is denying the application and shall state the grounds and reasons for his action.

(d) Right of hearing after denial of license. Following notice of denial, as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, the applicant within twenty days from receipt thereof, may present in writing any reasons for disagreeing with the Commissioner's denial of the application. If the Commissioner thereafter determines that it is appropriate to give favorable consideration to the application, the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall apply. If the Commissioner adheres to his decision to deny the application, he shall afford the applicant an opportunity to be heard. If the applicant elects to have a hearing, the Commissioner shall specify a date for the hearing and shall appropriately notify the applicant and each licensee who holds an effective license to manufacture the basic class of narcotic drug to which the application relates and every person who has on file an application to manufacture the basic class of narcotic drug involved. The Commissioner shall also cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice to the same effect.

(e) Joinder of parties and consolidation of hearings. All interested persons are permitted to participate in any hearing under this section and may be compelled by the Commissioner to do so or waive their rights to be heard. The Commissioner may direct that more than one application to manufacture a basic class of narcotic drug be consolidated for the purpose of a hearing. After consolidation, an application will be retained for hearing notwithstanding that prior to hearing any other application with which it has been consolidated has been dismissed, or amended or otherwise removed from the hearing.

§ 307.94 Factors governing issuance of licenses.

In determining whether to issue a license to an applicant to manufacture a particular basic class of narcotic drug, under § 307.90, the Commissioner shall be governed by whether the issuance of the license would tend to achieve the objectives set forth in section 8 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960.

§ 307.95 Period of validity of license.

The Commissioner shall designate the form which the license to be issued pursuant to § 307.90 shall take. The license once issued, shall not require any renewal and shall remain in effect, subject only to annual renewal of registration as required in section 8(b) of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960, unless otherwise revoked or suspended pursuant to section 9 of the Act (see §§ 307.99–307.100), or voluntarily surrendered.

§ 307.96 Assignment or transfer of licenses.

No license nor any right granted thereunder shall be assigned or otherwise transferred except upon such conditions as the Commissioner may specifically designate and then only pursuant to his written consent.

§ 307.97 Warning to licensee for failure to comply.

(a) Failure to comply, generally. Where a licensee has failed to comply with any of the provisions of these regulations or has failed to operate in accordance with any provision of the federal narcotic laws and regulations, the Commissioner of Narcotics may serve written notice upon such licensee calling his attention to the facts or conduct of such licensee without serving an order to show cause as provided in § 307.98. The licensee may then be accorded an opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance with all lawful requirements, and to render a full and complete explanation as to the matter brought to his attention by the Commissioner.

(b) Willful failure to comply. Where the Commissioner of Narcotics considers the licensee's failure to comply with any of the provisions of these regulations or his failure to operate in accordance with any provision of the federal narcotic laws and regulations is willful or contrary to the public health and safety, the Commissioner shall issue an order to show cause, pursuant to § 307.98.

§ 307.98 Orders to show cause.

(a) Before revoking any license, the Commissioner shall serve upon the licensee an order to show cause why an order of revocation should not be issued. Any such order to show cause shall contain a statement of the basis thereof, and shall call upon such licensee to appear before the Commissioner at a time and place stated in the order, but in no event less than thirty days after the date of receipt of such order, and give evidence upon the matter specified therein.

(b) In order to avail himself of the opportunity to be heard, the licensee shall within thirty days of the date of the receipt of the order file with the Commissioner a written statement that he will appear in accordance with the order and will present evidence on the matter specified in the order. If the licensee fails to file such written statement within the time specified in this paragraph, the right to a hearing shall be deemed to have been waived.

(c) Where a hearing is waived under paragraph (b) of this section, or where the licensee has failed to appear after having stated that he would do so, the allegations of fact contained in the order to show cause will be deemed to be correct.

(d) Where a hearing is waived, not under paragraph (b) of this section, but rather by written formal waiver, the licensee may submit to the Commissioner a written statement in mitigation or justification within thirty days of the date of receipt of the order to show cause.

(e) Any order of revocation issued pursuant to this section of the regulations by the Commissioner shall include a statement by him of his findings and grounds and reasons therefor and shall:

(1) Specify the effective date of the order; and

(2) Cause such order to be served on the licensee.

(f) Any proceeding under this section shall be independent of, and not in lieu of, criminal prosecution or other proceedings under this Act or any other law of the United States.

§ 307.99 Suspension of licenses.

(a) The Commissioner may suspend any license, when or at any time after he issues an order to show cause under § 307.98, in any case where he finds that the public health, safety or interest requires such suspension.

(b) Where the Commissioner orders a license suspended under paragraph (a) of this section, the licensee shall send the license to the Commissioner in Washington, D.C., promptly upon receipt of the notice of suspension.

(c) Any suspension ordered by the Commissioner, as provided in this section of the regulations, shall continue in effect until the conclusion of any revocation proceeding, including judicial review thereof, if any, unless sooner withdrawn by the Commissioner, or dissolved by a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 307.100 Revocation of licenses.

(a) Any license issued pursuant to section 8 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960 may be revoked by the Commissioner if the licensee

(1) Has been convicted of violating or conspiring to violate any law of the United States or of any State where the offense involves any activity or transaction with respect to narcotic drugs; or

(2) Has violated or failed to comply with any duly promulgated regulation relating to narcotic drugs, and such violation or failure to comply reflects adversely on the licensee's reliability and integrity with respect to narcotic drugs.

(b) In the case of a licensee who is the holder of more than one license issued pursuant to section 8 of the Act, the Commissioner may revoke under paragraph (a) of this section one or all of the licenses issued to such licensee.

AUTHORITY TO SEIZE NARCOTIC DRUGS, ORDER FORMS AND TAX STAMPS

§ 307.111 Sealing and safeguarding of narcotic drugs.

(a) The Commissioner of Narcotics on or after ordering the suspension or revocation of a licensee's license under § 307.99 or § 307.100 may order that all narcotic drugs, whether or not taxes have been paid thereon, owned or possessed by such licensee and all unused order forms and narcotic tax stamps owned or possessed by such licensee be placed under seal under the supervision of a representative of the Bureau of Narcotics, pending final disposition of the revocation proceeding.

(b) The representative of the Bureau, referred to in paragraph (a) of this section, shall, in the presence of the licensee or his representative, prepare an inventory, in triplicate, of all items thus placed under seal. The original inventory shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Narcotics, the duplicate copy shall be forwarded to the narcotic District Supervisor of the district wherein the sealing takes place and the triplicate copy shall be given to the affected licensee.

(c) A licensee may make no disposition of any item placed under seal. The licensee shall be responsible for safeguarding all sealed items to insure against their disposition and to protect them against being tampered with.

§ 307.112 Forfeiture of narcotic drugs.

(a) When a revocation order, under § 307.100, becomes final, all narcotic drugs, unused order forms and tax stamps relating to narcotic drugs, owned or possessed by the affected licensee, shall be forthwith confiscated, and when confiscated shall be deemed to be forfeited to the Government.

(b) Representatives of the Bureau of Narcotics when confiscating narcotic drugs, unused order forms and tax stamps, shall determine whether there has been any disposition of or tampering with any such items that had been sealed pursuant to § 307.111.

(c) At the time of confiscating narcotic drugs, unused order forms and tax stamps which have not previously been ordered sealed and safeguarded under § 307.111, the representatives of the Bureau of Narcotics who are confiscating the items shall, in the presence of the licensee or his representative, prepare an inventory in triplicate of the items being confiscated. The original inventory shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Narcotics, the duplicate copy shall be forwarded to the narcotic District Supervisor of the district wherein the confiscation was made and the triplicate copy shall be given to the licensee from whom the confiscation was made, and shall be retained by him for a period of not less than two years.

(d) Representatives of the Bureau of Narcotics at the time of confiscating narcotic drugs pursuant to this section may, as the Commissioner of Narcotics directs, either destroy accumulated narcotic wastes and undesired narcotic drugs or dispose of such wastes and drugs pursuant to the procedures set forth in paragraph (e) of this section.

(e) All confiscated items not destroyed shall be delivered to the narcotic District Supervisor of the district wherein the confiscation takes place. The narcotic District Supervisor will forward the narcotic drugs thus confiscated to the Commissioner of Narcotics (Drugs Disposal Committee) for proper disposition in accordance with the provisions of 26 CFR 151.491. Confiscated unused order forms and tax stamps shall be forwarded to the District Director of the Internal Revenue Service of the district wherein the licensee was registered for cancellation of such order forms and for disposition of the tax stamps. No refund will be allowed for tax stamps forfeited to the Government under this section of the regulations.

MANUFACTURING QUOTAS

§ 307.121 Manufacturing quotas for basic classes of narcotic drugs; generally.

(a) In order to carry out the treaty obligations of the United States, the Commissioner of Narcotics shall, on or before June 1, of each year, make determinations of the total quantity of each basic class of narcotic drug necessary to be manufactured during that calendar year to provide for the estimated medical and scientific needs of the United States, for lawful export requirements, and for the establishment and maintenance of reserve stocks.

(b) In fixing yearly manufacturing quotas for each basic class of narcotic drug, the Commissioner of Narcotics shall consider the total needs for the procurement of such drugs for further manufacturing or processing by registered manufacturers who do not hold quotas to manufacture such basic class of narcotic drug. In order that such information may be available to the Commissioner each registered manufacturer who does not hold a manufacturing quota shall on or before November 30, notify the Commissioner in writing on Bureau Form 194 of the amount of each basic class of narcotic drug which he desires to procure in the following year for further manufacturing or processing. The Commissioner shall notify each person who has filed Bureau Form 194 whether the request thereon will be relied upon by the Commissioner in fixing the annual manufacturing quotas. When the Commissioner states that he will rely upon any such forms he shall also state the amount which he will take into account and such amount shall be known as the "purchase quota" of the person filing the form. Such purchase quotas will be based upon the applicant's previous yearly requirements and upon his reasonably anticipated requirements.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of (b) of this section, Bureau Form 194 need not be filed by any registered manufacturer who uses less than one kilogram of all basic classes of narcotic drugs annually.

§ 307.122 Individual manufacturing quotas.

(a) Fixing of individual manufacturing quotas. The Commissioner of Narcotics shall upon application fix annual manufacturing quotas for each licensee holding a license to manufacture each basic class of narcotic drug and in so doing shall be governed by the provisions of section 11 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960.

(b) Reducing individual manufacturing quotas. The Commissioner of Narcotics, after having established individual manufacturing quotas for a basic class of narcotic drug may reduce an individual manufacturing quota which he has previously fixed, so as to prevent the aggregate of the manufacturing quotas outstanding or to be granted from exceeding the established quota for the basic class of narcotic drug.

(c) Production in excess of quota. No person shall knowingly manufacture any narcotic drug in any quantity in excess of any quota which he holds. When a licensee who under a quota as originally fixed, or as reduced by the Commissioner of Narcotics under paragraph (b) of this section, has already manufactured a basic class of narcotic drug in excess of the quota, such excess shall be subtracted by the Commissioner of Narcotics from the licensee's manufacturing quota for the following year.

(d) Proportionate reduction of manufacturing quota. Any reduction of an individual manufacturing quota shall be in the same proportion as the reduction of the aggregate of the established quota for the basic class of narcotic drug or in the proportion that a quota to a new licensee may require in order to keep the aggregate of the individual quotas from exceeding the established quota for the basic class of narcotic drug.

§ 307.123 Formula for fixing individual manufacturing quotas.

(a) Time for fixing of quotas. Upon application therefor, the Commissioner of Narcotics shall, on or before June 1 of each year fix individual manufacturing quotas for the manufacture of each basic class of narcotic drug.

(b) Sufficiency of manufacturing quotas. Subject to the right of the Commisioner of Narcotics to reduce, limit, suspend or revoke any manufacturing quota, any quota established for a licensee for the manufacture of a basic class of narcotic drug shall be sufficient to cover the licensee's estimated requirement for the calendar year in question as to—

(1) His "net disposal" (as defined in paragraph (c)) for such calendar year;

(2) His inventory at the close of such calendar year; and subject to such other factors as the Commisioner may determine should be taken into consideration in arriving at a proper quota under all the circumstances (i.e., licensee's current net disposal rate, the trend of such net disposal rate during the preceding calendar year or years, the licensee's production cycle and current inventory position, the economic and physical availability of raw materials used by the licensee in the production of such basic class of narcotic drug, yield and stability problems, emergency situations such as catastrophies and strikes, and any other factors which the Commissioner deems appropriate to consider in arriving at the proper quota under the circumstances).

(c) Definition of "net disposal". The term "net disposal" means the quantity of a basic class of narcotic drug sold, exchanged, given away, used in the production of another basic class of narcotic drug for which the manufacturer is licensed, or otherwise disposed of (as such or contained in or combined with other drugs compounded by the manufacturer of such basic class) by the manufacturer during a stated period, less the quantity of any such basic class of narcotic drug returned to the manufacturer by a customer and any quantity sold or transferred to another licensed manufacturer of the same basic class of narcotic drug.

(d) Definition of "inventory". The term "inventory" means all factory and branch stocks (whether held by the manufacturer under Class I or Class II registration as provided in 26 CFR 151.41) of a basic class of narcotic drug manufactured or otherwise acquired by a licensee, whether in bulk, marketable packages, or contained in pharmacutical preparations in the possession of the licensee and all subsidiary companies, if any, of such licensee.

(e) Establishment of manufacturing quotas. Subject to the right of the Commissioner of Narcotics to reduce, limit, suspend or revoke any manufacturing quota, the quota for each licensed manufacturer shall not be less than the sum of—less such manufacturer's inventory of such basic class of narcotic drug on December 31 of the preceding calendar year.

(1) Such licensed manufacturer's net disposal of such basic class of narcotic drug during the immediately preceding calendar year or the average of the three immediately preceding calendar years in which such manufacturer produced such basic class of narcotic drug, whichever is greater; and

(2) One-half of such manufacturer's net disposal of such basic class of narcotic drug during the immediately preceding calendar year;

(f) Manufacturing quotas for new licensees. Subject to the right of the Commissioner of Narcotics to reduce, limit, suspend or revoke any manufacturing quota, the Commissioner, upon application therefor, shall fix a quota for any licensed manufacturer of a basic class of narcotic drug who has not manufactured such basic class of narcotic drug during one or more of the three immediately preceding calendar years, in an amount adequate to cover such manufacturer's reasonably anticipated requirements for the current calendar year.

§ 307.124 Provisional manufacturing quotas.

(a) A licensed manufacturer, between January 1 of any year and the time when he receives a quota for such year under § 307.123 may manufacture a provisional quota of the basic class of narcotic drug for which he is licensed.

(b) The provisional quota referred to in paragraph (a) of this section, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section shall be not more than 75 per centum of whichever of the following is greater:

(1) Such licensee's aggregate net disposal of such basic class of narcotic drug during the twelve months immediately preceding September 30 of the preceding year; or

(2) Twelve times such licensee's average monthly net disposal of such basic class of narcotic drug for the thirty-three months immediately preceding September 30 of the preceding year.

(c) The Commissioner of Narcotics may, for good cause, raise or lower the provisional quota percentage provided for in paragraph (b) of this section. Any increase or decrease in percentage provided for by the Commissioner shall apply to the provisional quotas of all licenses for the basic class of narcotic drug involved.

§ 307.125 Application for individual manufacturing quotas.

(a) Each person desirous of manufacturing a basic class of narcotic drug for which he holds a currently effective manufacturing license, shall file an application for an individual manufacturing quota on Bureau Form 189 for each such basic class of narcotic drug. Bureau Form 189 shall be filed with the Commissioner of Narcotics no later than March 1 of each year in which the licensee desires to manufacture such basic class of narcotic drug.

(b) Any person who is not desirous of manufacturing a basic class of narcotic drug for which he holds a currently effective manufacturing license, shall notify the Commissioner of Narcotics no later than March 1 of any year in which he does not desire to manufacture such basic class of narcotic drug.

(c) Any person who after having filed an application for an individual manufacturing quota under paragraph (a) of this section, decides not to manufacture such basic class of narcotic drug or to discontinue the manufacture of such basic class of narcotic drug, shall forthwith notify the Commissioner of Narcotics, in writing, to this effect.

§ 307.126 Increase in individual manufacturing quotas.

(a) Any licensee who holds a manufacturing quota for a basic class of narcotic drug may file an application on Bureau Form 189 with the Commissioner of Narcotics for an increase in such manufacturing quota in order for him to meet his estimated net disposal, inventory and other requirements during the remainder of such calendar year.

(b) The Commissioner of Narcotics, in passing upon a licensee's application for an increase in his manufacturing quota, shall take into consideration any occurrences since the filing of such licensee's initial quota application that may require an increased manufacturing rate by such licensee during the balance of the calendar year. In passing upon such application the Commissioner may also take into consideration the amount, if any, by which his determination of the total quantity for the basic class of narcotic drug to be manufactured under § 307.121, exceeds the aggregate of all the individual manufacturing quotas for the basic class of narcotic drug, and the equitable distribution of such excess among other licensees.

INCIDENTAL MANUFACTURE OF NARCOTIC DRUGS

§ 307.131 Exception from applicability of license and quota provisions.

(a) Any licensee who, incidentally but necessarily, manufactures a narcotic drug as a result of his manufacture of a basic class of narcotic drug for which he holds a license and manufacturing quota under the regulations in this part, shall be exempt from the requirement of a license and quota under the regulations in this part as to such resulting narcotic drug.

(b) No license or quota shall be required for any quantity of narcotic drug which incidentally but necessarily results from the manufacture of any nonnarcotic substance not covered by the regulations in this part.

(c) Any incidentally but necessarily resulting narcotic drug, within the meaning of paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section which is a basic class of narcotic drug, shall be disposed of in the following ways only:

(1) By transfer to another manufacturer who holds a license to manufacture such basic class of narcotic drug. Before such transfer can be made, however, the manufacturer desirous of making such transfer shall first apply to the Commissioner of Narcotics in writing for approval to transfer specified quantities of such resulting narcotic drugs to a specified transferee or transferees. No transfer is authorized unless the Commissioner approves such transfer in writing in advance thereof.

(2) By shipment to the narcotic District Supervisor as excess and undesired narcotic drugs pursuant to 26 CFR 151.474; or

(3) By destruction in the presence of a representative of the Bureau of Narcotics, authorized by the Commissioner of Narcotics to witness such destruction.

(d) Any incidentally but necessarily resulting narcotic drug within the meaning of paragraph (a) or (b) of this section which is not a basic class of narcotic drug, may be disposed of in one of the following ways only:

(1) By shipment to the narcotic District Supervisor as excess and undesired narcotic drugs pursuant to 26 CFR 151.474; or

(2) By destruction in the presence of a representative of the Bureau of Narcotics, authorized by the Commissioner of Narcotics to witness such destruction.

(e) A manufacturer may retain a resulting narcotic drug within the meaning of paragraph (a) or (b) of this section only for such period of time as is reasonably necessary for him to make disposition of such drug in the manner provided in this section.

MANUFACTURE OF NARCOTIC PRECURSORS

§ 307.141 Narcotic precursors.

(a) Definition of "narcotic precursor". The term "narcotic precursor" means a substance other than a narcotic drug which the Commissioner has found to be

(1) An immediate chemical precursor of a narcotic drug;

(2) Produced primarily for use in the manufacture of a narcotic drug; and

(3) Used or likely to be used, in the manufacture of a narcotic drug by persons other than persons licensed under section 8 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960, to manufacture such narcotic drug.

Before finding a substance to be a narcotic precursor, the Commissioner shall give due notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER and afford an opportunity for public hearing to interested persons.

(b) Requirements as to persons engaging in transactions with respect to narcotic precursors. Any person who is engaged in the manufacture, compounding, packaging, selling, dealing in or giving away of a narcotic precursor, as defined in paragraph (a) of this section, shall:

(1) Maintain records as prescribed in paragraph (d) of this section; and

(2) Prepare and submit an annual report on Bureau Form 193 on or before February 15 of each year.

(c) Exception to applicability of paragraph (b). The provisions of paragraph (b) of this section shall not apply to a person manufacturing a narcotic precursor who holds a license to manufacture a basic class of narcotic drug under section 8 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960, provided that the narcotic precursor manufactured by such licensee is to be used exclusively by him for the manufacture of the basic class of narcotic drug for which he holds a license.

(d) Procedure as to maintenance of records and preparation of annual report. The manufacturer of a substance which has been declared a narcotic precursor shall keep for a period of not less than two years such records as will enable him to supply the Commissioner accurate information as to the quantity of such precursor manufactured or otherwise acquired by him, his dispositions thereof, the names and addresses of the persons to whom supplied, the quantity supplied to each and the use for which intended. The annual report on Form 193 shall include a summary of this information for the calendar year.

IMPORTATION OF NARCOTIC DRUGS

§ 307.151 Importation of narcotic drugs for scientific purposes.

(a) Exemption for scientific purposes. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 302.1 of this chapter, the Commissioner of Narcotics may issue a formal permit to certain classes of persons desiring to import any narcotic drug or drugs (including crude opium and coca leaves) for scientific purposes only.

(b) Application for import permit. Application for a permit to import shall be made to the Commissioner on Bureau Form 191. The applicant for such import permit shall also prepare and submit to the Commissioner, Bureau Form 185 (Drug Identification Sheet), where the substance to be imported is a narcotic drug not described in the standard reference works on drugs and chemicals.

(c) Limitation on authorization to import. Imports under this section will be limited to narcotic drugs not readily available to the applicant from sources within the United States, unless questions of origin, types or particular methods of production are elements of the research objectives. Applicants for import permits licensed under section 8 of the Narcotics Manufacturing Act of 1960, who as part of their manufacturing business maintain branch or subsidiary manufacturing establishments in foreign countries may be issued import permits for occasional imports of samples of the products of these foreign branches or subsidiaries for the purpose of research or spot check analyses to establish or maintain proper chemical and therapeutical standards of their products. However, an applicant will not be granted an import permit to make continuous or regular imports of samples of recurring batches or lots of the same product for routine factory controls. Each importation desired must be separately applied for and be covered by a separate import permit.

(d) Disposition. All drugs imported under this section shall be used in research or otherwise disposed of as authorized by the Commissioner, within five years from the date of their import, unless an extension of time for completion of the research has been granted by the Commissioner.

(e) Reports. Persons importing narcotic drugs under this section shall render to the Commissioner semi-annual reports on Bureau Form 192, as of June 30 and December 31 of each year, to be submitted not later than the 15th of the month following, accounting for the importation and use or other disposition of the narcotic drug or drugs so imported.

10. Add under § 302.1 the following cross reference:

Title 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER H—INTERNAL REVENUE PRACTICE

PART 601—STATEMENT OF PROCEDURAL RULES

Miscellaneous Amendments

This part as filed with the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 29, 1955, and as last amended on February 14, 1959, is further amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 601.105 is amended by revising subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b), by adding a new subparagraph (5) to paragraph (b), and by revising subdivision (i) of paragraph (d)(2). These amended provisions read as follows:

§ 601.105 Examination of returns and claims for refund, credit or abatement; determination of correct tax liability.

* * * * *

(b) Examination of returns—(1) General. The original examination of income, profits, estate, gift, excise, and employment tax returns is a primary function of internal revenue agents in the Audit Division of the office of each district director of internal revenue. Such internal revenue agents are organized in groups, each of which is under the immediate supervision of a group supervisor designated by the district director. Revenue agents and revenue officers (and such other officers or employees of the Internal Revenue Service as may be designated for this purpose by the Commissioner) are authorized to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon matters required to be included in Federal tax returns and to take testimony relative thereto and to administer oaths. See section 7602 of the Code and the regulations thereunder. There are two general types of audit. These are commonly called "office audit" and "field audit". During the audit of a return a taxpayer may be represented before the examining officer by an attorney or agent enrolled to practice before the Internal Revenue Service or by a duly authorized unenrolled person who signed the return as preparer thereof. The representation of a taxpayer by such as unenrolled person, however, is subject to the limitations contained in section 10.7(a)(7) of Department Circular No. 230.

* * * * *

(5) Technical advice from the National Office—(i) Procedure regarding request. Where the district director decides that an issue requires technical advice from the National Office, the taxpayer will be advised of the proposed referral. If he so desires, the taxpayer may submit a brief of the facts, law and argument to be transmitted with the case to the National Office. Similarly, a taxpayer may request that an issue be referred to the National Office for technical advice on the grounds of lack of uniformity or that the issue is so unusual or complex as to warrant National Office consideration. If the examining officer (or informal conferee, in case of an informal conference) is of the opinion that the circumstances do not warrant such referral, the matter will be submitted to the Chief, Audit Division, for decision. If the Chief, Audit Division, determines that advice from the National Office will not be requested, he will inform the taxpayer, in writing, of his decision.

(ii) Regional post review of examined cases. Regional commissioners review samples of the examined cases closed in their district offices to assure uniformity throughout their districts in the application of the provisions of the Code, regulations, and rulings, as well as the general polices of the Service. In certain circumstances, such as where substantial errors are found or where there is evidence of fraud or collusion, the regional commissioner has authority to reopen the case.

* * * * *

(d) Thirty-day letters and protests—(1) General. * * *

(2) Protests. (i) If the taxpayer chooses to file a protest against the proposed determination set forth in the "30-day letter", his protest should be filed in the district director's office and, following review of the protest, the case will be referred to the Appellate Division of the region if that Division has jurisdiction. The taxpayer will also be accorded a conference in the Appellate Division if he requests it. Protests should be filed in duplicate. No particular form of protest has been prescribed. However, instructions for the preparation of protests are sent with the "30-day letter". For a description of the procedure in the Appellate Division, see § 601.106.

PAR. 2. Paragraphs (a) and (c) of § 601.109 are amended to read as follows:

§ 601.109 Bankruptcy and receivership cases.

(a) General. (1) Upon the adjudication of bankruptcy of any taxpayer in any liquidating proceeding, the filing or (where approval is required by the Bankruptcy Act) the approval of a petition of, or the approval of a petition against, any taxpayer in any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or the appointment of a receiver for any taxpayer in any receivership proceeding before a court of the United States or of any State or Territory or of the District of Columbia, the assessment of any deficiency in income, profits, estate, or gift tax (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided for by law) shall be made immediately. See section 6871 of the Code. In such cases the restrictions imposed by section 6213(a) of the Code upon assessments are not applicable. (In the case of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the assessment will be made under section 6861, relating to jeopardy assessments. See § 601.105(h).) Cases in which immediate assessment will be made include those of taxpayers in receivership or in bankruptcy, agricultural composition, reorganization, arrangement, or wage earner proceedings under chapters I to VII, sections 75, 77, chapters X, XI, XII, and XIII of the Bankruptcy Act. The term "approval of a petition in any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act" includes the filing of a petition under section 75 or chapters XI to XIII of the Bankruptcy Act with a court of competent jurisdiction. A fiduciary in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act (including a trustee, receiver, debtor in possession, or other person designated by the court as in control of the assets or affairs of a debtor) or a receiver in any receivership proceeding may be required, as provided in regulations prescribed under section 6036 of the Code, to give notice in writing to the district director of his qualification as such. Failure on the part of such fiduciary in a receivership proceeding or a proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act to give such notice, when required, results in the suspension of the running of the period of limitations on the making of assessments from the date of the institution of the proceeding to the date upon which such notice is received by the district director, and for an additional 30 days thereafter. However, in no case where the required notice is not given shall the suspension of the running of the period of limitations on assessment exceed 2 years. See section 6872 of the Code.

(2) Except in cases where departmental instructions direct otherwise, the district director will, promptly after ascertaining the existence of any outstanding Federal tax liability against a taxpayer in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or receivership proceeding, and in any event within the time limited by appropriate provisions of law or the appropriate orders of the court in which such proceeding is pending, file a proof of claim covering such liability in the court in which the proceeding is pending. Such a claim may be filed regardless of whether the unpaid taxes involved have been assessed. Whenever an immediate assessment is made of any income, estate, or gift tax after the commencement of a proceeding, the district director will send to the taxpayer notice and demand for payment together with a copy of such claim.

(c) Procedure before Appellate Division not applicable. A case involving immediate assessment under section 6871 of the Code or an assessment of excise or employment taxes after an adjudication of bankruptcy in a liquidating proceeding or the filing or (where approval is required by the Bankruptcy Act) the approval of a petition of, or the approval of a petition against, any taxpayer in any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or the appointment of a receiver will not be referred by the district director to a field office of the Appellate Division. Therefore, the taxpayer, or the trustee, receiver, or debtor in possession or other person designated by the court as in control of the assets or affairs of the debtor, may not request consideration of the case by the Appellate Division. If at the time of the adjudication of bankruptcy or the filing or the approval of a petition or the appointment of a receiver, an income, estate, or gift tax case is under consideration by a field office of the Appellate Division, whether before or after issuance of a statutory notice of deficiency, the case will be returned to the district director for assessment (if not previously assessed) and for issuance of the Form 7900 letter and filing proof of claim in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or in a receivership proceeding. Excise and employment tax cases pending in the Appellate Division at such time will likewise be returned to the district director for assessment (if not previously assessed) and for filing proof of claim in any proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or in a receivership proceeding. Thereafter, the case will not be transferred by the district director to the Appellate Division unless a petition for redetermination of the deficiency has been filed in the Tax Court prior to the adjudication of bankruptcy in a liquidating proceeding or the filing or the approval of a petition in any other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act or the appointment of a receiver, and the taxpayer or the trustee, receiver, debtor in possession or other person designated by the bankruptcy or receivership court as in control of the debtor's assets or affairs elects to prosecute the proceeding in the Tax Court. A petition for redetermination of a deficiency may not be filed in the Tax Court after the adjudication of bankruptcy, the filing or (where approval is required by the Bankruptcy Act) the approval of a petition of, or the approval of a petition against, any taxpayer in any other bankruptcy proceeding, or the appointment of a receiver. See section 6871(b) of the Code. However, the Tax Court is not deprived of jurisdiction where the adjudication of bankruptcy, the filing or (where approval is required by the Bankruptcy Act) the approval of a petition of, or the approval of a petition against, any taxpayer in any other bankrutpcy proceeding, or the appointment of a receiver occurred subsequent to the filing of the petition. In such a case the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy or receivership court and the Tax Court is concurrent.

PAR. 3. Paragraph (f)(2) of § 601.201 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.201 Rulings and determination letters.

* * * * *

(f) Instructions with respect to submission of requests for rulings or determination letters. * * *

(2) If the request is an application for exemption from income tax as an organization described in section 501 (c) or (d) or section 521 of the Code, see paragraph (k) of this section. If the request is with respect to the qualification of a plan under section 401(a) of the Code, see paragraph (l) of this section. Applications for income tax exemption as an organization described in section 501 (c) or (d) of the Code, as well as the information required to be filed with such applications, should be submitted in duplicate. It is not required that any of the other applications or requests described in this subparagraph, or that the information required to be filed with such applications or requests, be submitted in duplicate.

PAR. 4. Paragraph (a)(2) of § 601.202 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.202 Closing agreements.

(a) General. * * *

(2) Closing agreements under section 7121 of the Code may relate to any taxable period ending prior or subsequent to the date of the agreement. With respect to taxable periods ended prior to the date of the agreement, the matter agreed upon may relate to the total tax liability of the taxpayer or it may relate to one or more separate items affecting the tax liability of the taxpayer. A closing agreement may also be entered into in order to provide a "determination", as defined in section 1313 of the Code, and for the purpose of allowing a deficiency dividend deduction under section 547 of the Code. But see also sections 547(c)(3) and 1313(a)(4) of the Code and the regulations thereunder as to other types of "determination" agreements. With respect to taxable periods ending subsequent to the date of the agreement, the matter agreed upon may relate to one or more separate items affecting the tax liability of the taxpayer. A closing agreement with respect to any taxable period ending subsequent to the date of the agreement is subject to any change in or modification of the law enacted subsequent to the date of the agreement and applicable to such taxable period, and each closing agreement shall so recite. Closing agreements may be entered into even though under the agreement the taxpayer is not liable for any tax for the period to which the agreement relates. There may be a series of agreements relating to the tax liability for a single period. A closing agreement may be entered into in any case in which there appears to be an advantage in having the case permanently and conclusively closed, or where good and sufficient reasons are shown by the taxpayer for desiring a closing agreement and it is determined by the Commissioner or his representatives that the Government will sustain no disadvantage through consummation of such an agreement.

PAR. 5. Section 601.203 is amended by revising paragraph (a)(1), revising subdivisions (iii) and (iv) of paragraph (c)(1), revising subdivision (v) of paragraph (c)(2), and revising paragraph (c)(3). These amended provisions read as follows:

§ 601.203 Offers in compromise.

(a) General. (1) The Commissioner may compromise, in accordance with the provisions of section 7122 of the Code, any civil or criminal case arising under the internal revenue laws prior to reference to the Department of Justice for prosecution or defense. Certain functions of the Commissioner with respect to compromises of civil cases involving liability under $5,000 (prior to July 1, 1960) and under $25,000 (on and after July 1, 1960), and of certain specific penalties involving only the regulatory provisions of the Code and related statutes, have been delegated to district directors of internal revenue. In civil cases involving liability of $500 or over and in criminal cases the functions of the General Counsel are performed by the Chief Counsel for the Internal Revenue Service. In certain cases these functions are performed in the National Office and in other cases by Regional Counsel. (See also paragraph (c) of this section.)

* * * * *

(c) Consideration of offer. (1) * * *

(iii) Accept the offer if it involves a civil liability of $500 or more, but less than $5,000 (prior to July 1, 1960) and less than $25,000 (on and after July 1, 1960), or involves a specific penalty (including in the case of narcotics, smoking opium, and marihuana taxes only those specific penalties which involve delinquency in registration or delinquency in payment), and the Regional Counsel concurs in the acceptance of the offer, or

(iv) Recommend to the National Office the acceptance of the offer if it involves a civil liability of $5,000 or over (prior to July 1, 1960) and $25,000 or over (on and after July 1, 1960).

(2) * * *

(v) An offer under the processing jurisdiction of the Regional Counsel which is considered acceptable is either referred to the district director or to the Office of the Chief Counsel in Washington for approval, depending upon the amount of civil liability involved.

(3) The district directors and the Director of the Audit Division of the National Office are authorized to reject any offer in compromise referred for their consideration. Offers considered in the Office of the Chief Counsel in Washington which are not acceptable are rejected by the Commissioner. Offers considered by Regional Counsel which are not acceptable are rejected by district directors. If an offer is not acceptable, the taxpayer is promptly notified of the rejection of the offer. If an offer is rejected, the sum submitted with the offer is returned by the district director to the proponent. A selective post review of offers rejected by a district director involving liabilities totaling $5,000 or more is made by each regional commissioner.

PAR. 6. The heading and subheading of Subpart C is amended to read as follows:

Subpart C—Provisions Relating to Distilled Spirits, Wines, Beer, Tobacco Products (Manufactured Tobacco, Cigars, and Cigarettes), Tobacco Materials, Cigarette Papers and Tubes, and Certain Firearms

DISTILLED SPIRITS, WINES, AND BEER

PAR. 7. Section 601.301 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.301 Imposition of taxes, qualification requirements, and regulations.

(a) Imposition of taxes. Subchapter A of Chapter 51 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 imposes taxes on distilled spirits (including alcohol), wine, and beer. Except as specifically provided, additional taxes are imposed when distilled spirits and wine are rectified by blending, compounding, etc. Subchapter A of chapter 51 of the Code also imposes taxes on stills and condensers used to produce spirits. Occupational taxes are imposed upon still manufacturers, brewers, rectifiers, dealers in liquors, and as a prerequisite for drawback under section 5134 of the Code, upon manufacturers of nonbeverage products.

(b) Qualification requirements. Distillers, winemakers, brewers, warehousemen, rectifiers, bottlers, liquor bottle manufacturers, dealers in specially denatured alcohol, users of tax-free and specially denatured alcohol, and wholesalers and importers of liquors, are required to qualify with the Internal Revenue Service, usually by filing notice or application and bond with, and procuring permit from, the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) of the region in which operations are to be conducted. Detailed information respecting such qualification, including the forms to be used and the procedure to be followed, is contained in the respective regulations described in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Regulations. The procedural requirements with respect to matters relating to distilled spirits, wines, and beer which are within the jurisdiction of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division are published in the regulations described in this paragraph. These regulations contain full information as to the general course and method by which the functions concerning liquors are channeled and determined, including the nature and requirements of formal and informal procedures, the forms, records, reports, and other documents required, and the contents of applications, notices, registrations, permits, bonds, and other documents. Supplies of prescribed forms may be obtained from the offices of assistant regional commissioners (alcohol and tobacco tax), except that Forms 52–A, 52–B, 122, 133, 134, 338, 2051, 2054–2060, 2621, and 2637 must be provided by the users at their own expense; users and commercial printers may procure specimen copies of such forms from such offices. The following is a brief description of the several regulations arranged according to the principal subjects and operations concerned:

(1) Establishment and operation of distilled spirits plants. Part 201 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to the location, qualification, construction, arrangement, equipment, and operations (including activities incident thereto) of distilled spirits plants for the production and/or warehousing (including denaturation), rectification, and bottling (including bottling in bond) of distilled spirits.

(2) Miscellaneous liquor transactions. Part 170 of this chapter contains miscellaneous regulations relative to:

(i) Restamping of packages of distilled spirits;

(ii) Redemption of strip stamps, and stamps denoting payment of tax, purchased prior to January 1, 1955;

(iii) Refund of tax and duty paid on distilled spirits, wines, rectified products, and beer lost as a result of floods, hurricanes or other disasters;

(iv) Application of section 6423, Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, to refund or credit of tax on distilled spirits, wines, and beer;

(v) Regulations in effect on June 30, 1959, which were prescribed on July 1, 1959, as interim regulations;

(vi) Redemption of unused distilled spirits excise tax stamps and unused rectification tax stamps; and

(vii) Manufacture and sale of certain compounds, preparations, and products containing alcohol.

(3) Disposition of substances used in the manufacture of distilled spirits and articles and of containers used for the packaging of distilled spirits. Part 173 of this chapter contains the regulations relative to the returns and records of the disposition of articles from which distilled spirits may be recovered, of substances of the character used in the manufacture of distilled spirits, and of containers of the character used for the packaging of distilled spirits.

(4) Manufacture and use of containers of distilled spirits. Part 175 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to the traffic in containers of distilled spirits of a capacity of not less than one-half pint and not more than five wine gallons. The regulations cover the manufacture, sale, and use of liquor bottles for packaging distilled spirits for other than industrial use; labeling of distilled spirits; reports, and inventories of liquor bottles; imports and exports of liquor bottles; permits and revocation proceedings; reuse or refilling of liquor bottles (see also Part 194 of this chapter); and the purchase, sale and possession of refilled or used liquor bottles.

(5) Gauging of distilled spirits. Part 186 of this chapter contains the regulations that prescribe the gauging instruments, and methods or techniques to be used in measuring distilled spirits (including denatured spirits). Tables are provided for use in making the necessary computation from gauge data.

(6) Stills and condensers. Part 196 of this chapter contains the regulations relative to the manufacture, taxpayment, removal, use, and registration of stills and condensers, and the exportation or transfer to foreign-trade zones of stills and condensers with benefit of drawback of internal revenue tax or without payment of tax.

(7) Rules of practice in permit proceedings. Part 200 of this chapter contains the rules governing the procedure and practice in connection with the disapproval of applications for basic permits, and for the issuance of citations for the suspension, revocation and annulment of such permits under sections 3 and 4 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 U.S.C. 201 et seq.), and disapproval, suspension, revocation of container, industrial use, operating, withdrawal, and tobacco permits under the Code. Such rules also govern, insofar as applicable, any adversary proceeding involving adjudication required by statute to be determined on the record, after opportunity for hearing, under laws administered by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division.

(8) Basic permit requirements under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act. Regulations No. 1 (27 CFR Part 1), issued pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, contain the requirements relative to the issuance under that Act of basic permits to producers, rectifiers, blenders, bottlers, warehousemen, importers, and wholesalers of distilled spirits, wine, or beer, and the amendment, duration, revocation, suspension, or annulment of such permits.

(9) Bulk sales and bottling of distilled spirits. Regulations No. 3 (27 CFR Part 3), issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, contain the requirements relative to bulk sales and bottling of distilled spirits under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, including the terms of warehouse receipts for distilled spirits in bulk.

(10) Labeling and advertising of distilled spirits. Regulations No. 5 (27 CFR Part 5), issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, contain the requirements relative to the labeling and advertising of distilled spirits under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, including standards of identity for distilled spirits, standards of fill for bottles of distilled spirits, and the issuance of certificates of label approval and certificates of exemption from label approval.

(11) Credit period to be extended to retailers of alcoholic beverages. Regulations No. 8 (27 CFR Part 8) issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, contain the requirements relative to the credit period which may be extended by vendors to retailers of alcoholic beverages.

(12) Production and removal of wine. Part 240 of this chapter contains the regulations relative to the establishment and operation of bonded wine cellars, including bonded wineries, for the production, cellar treatment, and storage of wines, including amelioration, sweetening, addition of wine spirits (including distillates containing aldehydes), blending, and other cellar treatment; removals; taxpayment; return of unmerchantable taxpaid wine; and use of wine for distilling material and manufacture of vinegar.

(13) Bottling or packaging of taxpaid wine. Part 231 of this chapter contains the regulations relative to the establishment, qualification, and operations of taxpaid wine bottling houses on premises other than those of a plant operated under Part 201 of this chapter, and to the bottling and packaging of taxpaid United States and foreign wines at such premises.

(14) Nonindustrial use of distilled spirits and wine. Regulations No. 2 (27 CFR Part 2), issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, specify what uses of distilled spirits and wine are considered "nonindustrial", as that term is used in section 17 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(15) Labeling and advertising of wine. Regulations No. 4 (27 CFR Part 4), issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended contain the requirements relative to the labeling and advertising of wine under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, including standards of identity for wine, standards of fill for containers of wine, the withdrawal of imported wine from customs custody, and the issuance of certificates of label approval and certificates of exemption from label approval.

(16) Establishment and operations of breweries. Part 245 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to the production, taxpayment, and withdrawal of beer and cereal beverages. The regulations cover the location, construction, equipment, and operations of breweries; and the qualification of such establishments, including the ownership, control, and management thereof.

(17) Labeling and advertising of malt beverages. Regulations No. 7 (27 CFR Part 7), issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, contain the requirements relative to the labeling and advertising of malt beverages (beer) under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, and the issuance of certificates of label approval.

(18) Liquor dealers. Part 194 of this chapter contains the regulations relative to the occupational taxes imposed on wholesale and retail dealers in liquors, wholesale and retail dealers in beer, and limited retail dealers; restrictions on purchases of distilled spirits; reuse or refilling of liquor bottles (see also Part 175 of this chapter); sales or possession of refilled or used liquor bottles; and repackaging of alcohol for industrial use.

(19) Production of vinegar by the vaporizing process. Part 195 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to the production of vinegar by the vaporizing process (fermentation and distillation of alcoholic liquid). The regulations cover the location, construction, equipment, qualification, and operation of vinegar plants.

(20) Drawback of tax on spirits used in nonbeverage products. Part 197 of this chapter contains the regulations which relate to obtaining drawback of internal revenue tax on distilled spirits used in the manufacture or production of medicines, medicinal preparations, food products, flavors, or flavoring extracts, which are unfit for beverage purposes.

(21) Production of volatile fruit-flavor concentrates. Part 198 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to the manufacture, storage, removal, sale, transportation, and use of volatile fruit-flavor concentrates and includes provisions regarding the location, use, qualification, and operations of concentrate plants.

(22) Inducements furnished to retailers. Regulations No. 6 (27 CFR Part 6), issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended, contain the requirements relative to the furnishing, giving, renting, lending, or selling of equipment, fixtures, signs, supplies, money, services, or other things of value to retailers of distilled spirits, wine, and malt beverages, by other members of the liquor industry (principally vendors), including the furnishing of samples and advertising cuts.

(23) Distribution and use of denatured spirits. Part 211 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to the procurement, use, disposition, and recovery of denatured alcohol, specially denatured rum, and articles containing denatured spirits; and includes requirements in respect to industrial use and withdrawal permits; and the packaging, labeling, sale, rebottling, and reprocessing of articles containing specially denatured spirits.

(24) Formulas for denatured spirits. Part 212 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to the formulation of completely denatured alcohol, specially denatured alcohol, and specially denatured rum; to the uses of specially denatured spirits; and to the specifications for denaturants. The procedural requirements relative to the production of denatured alcohol and specially denatured rum are prescribed in Part 201 of this chapter, and those relative to the distribution and use of denatured alcohol and specially denatured rum are prescribed in Part 211 of this chapter.

(25) Distribution and use of tax-free spirits. Part 213 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to tax-free alcohol and covers the procurement, storage, use, and recovery of such alcohol; and includes requirements in respect to industrial use and withdrawal permits.

(26) Liquors and articles from Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Part 250 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to the production, bonded warehousing, and withdrawal of distilled spirits, and denatured spirits, and the manufacture of articles in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands to be brought into the United States free of tax and the collection of internal revenue taxes on taxable alcoholic products coming into the United States from Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

(27) Importation of liquors. Part 251 of this chapter contains the substantive and procedural requirements relative to the importation of distilled spirits, wines, and beer into the United States from foreign countries including special (occupational) and commodity taxes, permits, marking, branding, and labeling, and stamping of containers and packages.

(28) Exportation of liquors. Part 252 of this chapter contains the regulations relating to exportation, lading for use on vessels and aircraft, and the transfer to a foreign-trade zone or a manufacturing bonded warehouse, class six, of distilled spirits (including specially denatured spirits), beer, and wine, whether without payment of tax, free of tax, or with benefit of drawback, and includes requirements with respect to removal, shipment, lading, deposit, evidence of exportation, losses, claims, and bonds.

PAR. 8. Paragraph (a) of § 601.302 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.302 Taxes.

(a) Collection. Taxes on distilled spirits, wines, beer, and rectified products are paid by returns. If the person responsible for paying the tax has filed a proper bond with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax), he may file semimonthly returns, with proper remittances, to cover the taxes incurred on distilled spirits, wines, beer and rectified products during such semimonthly periods. If the taxpayer is not qualified to defer taxpayment, or has been placed on a prepayment basis by the assistant regional commissioner, he must repay the tax on the distilled spirits, wines, beer or rectified products. Distilled spirits and rectification tax returns are filed with an officer designated by the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax), or with the district director of internal revenue when so directed by the assistant regional commissioner, except that where a remittance is in cash the return must be filed with the district director. Returns of tax on beer and wine are filed with the district director in all cases. The forms for filing these tax returns are furnished to industry members by the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax). Special tax stamps are issued to denote the payment of special (occupational) taxes by liquor dealers, brewers, rectifiers, still manufacturers, and manufacturers of nonbeverage products; such stamps are required to be posted in the taxpayer's place of business as evidence of taxpayment. Special tax stamps are also issued to denote payment of the commodity tax on stills and condensers, and are required to be cancelled and secured to the article or furnished to the user of the apparatus for retention at the premises where such apparatus is set up, available for inspection by internal revenue officers. Detailed information respecting the payment of tax on liquors and the payment of occupational and commodity taxes, including the forms to be used and the procedure to be followed, is contained in the respective regulations described in § 601.301(c).

PAR. 9. Section 601.303 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.303 Claims.

(b) Claims for abatement. When the tax on distilled spirits, wine, beer, or firearms, or the rectification tax is assessed and the taxpayer thinks that the tax is not due under the law, he may file a claim for abatement of the tax on Form 843 with the district director of internal revenue or, where required by regulations, with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax). Forms 843 may be procured from the district director or the assistant regional commissioner. The district director forwards the claim to the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for consideration, and the district director may call upon the taxpayer to file a bond in double the amount of the tax in order to insure collection of the tax if the claim is rejected. When the claim is acted upon, both the taxpayer and the district director are notified of the allowance or rejection of the claim. If the claim is rejected, the district director will proceed to collect the tax.

(c) Claims for refund—(1) Taxes illegally, erroneously, or excessively collected. A claim on Form 843 for refund of taxes illegally, erroneously, or excessively collected may be filed by a taxpayer with the district director of internal revenue to whom the tax was paid. Such claim must be filed within three years (two years under certain circumstances) after the date of payment of the tax. The district director forwards the claim to the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for consideration. If the claim is rejected, the taxpayer is notified of the rejection by registered or certified mail, and he may then bring suit in the United States District Court or the Court of Claims for recovery of the tax. Such suits must be filed generally within two years from the date of mailing of the rejection notice. If the claim is allowed, an appropriate notice of allowance with a check for the amount of the refund and allowable interest is forwarded to the taxpayer; however, if there are other unpaid taxes outstanding against the taxpayer, the overpayment may be applied to the outstanding taxes and the balance, if any, refunded.

(2) Taxes on liquors lost, destroyed, returned to bond, or taken as samples by the United States. A taxpayer may, subject to the conditions in the appropriate regulations, file claim on Form 843 with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for refund of tax paid on (i) spirits returned to bonded premises, lost in rectification or bottling operations, lost by accident or disaster, or taken as samples by the United States, or (ii) wine returned to bond a unmerchantable, or lost by disaster, or (iii) beer withdrawn from market, or lost by disaster. If the claim is allowed, a notice of allowance with a check for the amount of the refund is forwarded to the claimant; except, that where there are any unpaid taxes outstanding against the claimant, the refund may be applied to the outstanding taxes and a check for the balance, if any, forwarded to the claimant. If the claim is rejected, a notice giving the reasons for rejection is forwarded to the claimant.

(d) Claims for allowance, credit, or relief. A qualified permittee, manufacturer, or proprietor may, subject to the conditions in the appropriate regulations, file claim on Form 2635 with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for allowance of loss, credit of tax, or relief from tax liability, as applicable, on (1) spirits returned to bonded premises, lost or destroyed on bonded premises or in transit thereto, or lost in rectification or bottling operations; (2) wine lost or destroyed on bonded premises or in transit thereto, and unmerchantable domestic wine returned to bond; (3) beer withdrawn from the market, lost (other than by theft), or destroyed by fire, casualty, or act of God; (4) denatured spirits lost or destroyed in bond, or lost on the premises of a qualified dealer or user or in transit to such premises; and (5) tax-free spirits lost on the premises of a qualified user or in transit to such premises.

(e) Claims for payment—disaster losses. When distilled spirits, wines, rectified products, or beer held or intended for sale is lost, rendered unmarketable, or condemned as a result of a "major disaster", the person holding such product for sale at that time may, subject to the condtions in the appropriate regulations, file claim on Form 843 with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) of the region in which the product was lost, rendered unmarketable, or condemned for payment of an amount equal to the internal revenue taxes paid or determined and any customs duties paid thereon. Claims must be filed within 6 months from the date on which the President makes the determination that the disaster has occurred.

PAR. 10. Section 601.304 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.304 Preparation and filing of claims.

(a) Distilled spirits at distilled spirits plants. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for remission, abatement, credit, or refund of tax on spirits (including denatured spirits) lost or destroyed on or lost in transit to, or on spirits returned to, the premises of a distilled spirits plant are contained in Part 201 of this chapter. It is not necessary to file a claim for credit of tax on taxpaid samples taken by internal revenue officers from distilled spirits plants, as the assistant regional commissioner will allow credit, without claim, for tax on such samples.

(b) Specially denatured spirits. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for allowance of loss on specially denatured spirits lost on the premises of a bonded dealer or user, or while in transit to such premises, are contained in Part 211 of this chapter.

(c) Tax-free alcohol. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for allowance of loss on tax-free alcohol lost on the premises of a qualified user, or while in transit to such premises, are contained in Part 213 of this chapter.

(d) Wine spirits and wine at bonded wine cellar. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for (1) remission of tax on wine spirits lost on the premises of a bonded wine cellar or in transit thereto, (2) allowance of losses of wine in bond, and (3) credit or refund of tax paid on unmerchantable domestic wine returned to bond are contained in Part 240 of this chapter.

(e) Beer. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for refund or credit of tax which has been paid (or allowance, credit, or relief of tax liability if the tax has not been paid) on domestic beer removed from the market or lost or destroyed by fire, casualty, or act of God are contained in Part 245 of this chapter.

(f) Distilled spirits, wines, or beer for export. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for (1) drawback of internal revenue tax on distilled spirits or wines, for export, use as supplies on certain vessels or aircraft, deposit in a foreign-trade zone or customs manufacturing bonded warehouse and on beer removed for export, use as supplies on certain vessels and aircraft, or transfer to a foreign-trade zone, and (2) remission of tax on distilled spirits, specially denatured spirits, wines, or beer, withdrawn without payment of tax and lost during transportation to the port of export, manufacturing bonded warehouse, vessel or aircraft, or foreign-trade zone, are contained in Part 252 of this chapter.

(g) Miscellaneous. Procedural instructions are contained in Part 170 of this chapter in respect of claims for—

(1) Redemption of (i) unused stamps denoting payment of tax on beer and wines, and (ii) unused strip stamps procured for bottled spirits under the provisions of sections 2803(b) and 2903(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939,

(2) Refund of tax and duty paid on distilled spirits and wines lost as a result of the hurricanes of 1954,

(3) Credit or refund of tax assessed or collected erroneously, illegally, without authority, or in any manner wrongfully, or in an excessive amount, on distilled spirits, wines, and beer,

(4) Payment of an amount equal to the internal revenue tax paid on beer lost by reason of the floods of 1951 or hurricanes of 1954,

(5) Payment of an amount equal to the internal revenue tax paid or determined and customs duties paid on distilled spirits, wines, rectified products, and beer previously withdrawn, which were lost, rendered unmarketable, or condemned by a duly authorized official by reason of a major disaster occurring in the United States after December 31, 1954, and

(6) Redemption of unusued distilled spirits excise tax stamps or unused rectification tax sheet stamps.

(h) Special taxes. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for abatement of assessments or refund of overpayments of liquor dealers occupational taxes and penalties are contained in Part 194 of this chapter. When claim is filed for refund of an occupational tax for which a stamp was issued, the stamp (or a Certificate in Lieu of Lost or Destroyed Special Tax Stamp, accompanied by affidavits attesting to loss or destruction of the stamp) must be surrendered with the claim. Such claims must be submitted within three years from the date of payment of the tax.

(i) Low wines at vinegar plants. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for remission of tax on low wines (distilled spirits) lost at vinegar plants producing vinegar by the vaporizing process are contained in Part 195 of this chapter.

(j) Stills and condensers. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for drawback of the internal revenue tax paid on stills and condensers which have been exported or deposited in a foreign-trade zone for exportation, destruction, or storage therein pending exportation, are contained in Part 196 of this chapter.

(k) Distilled spirits used in nonbeverage products. Procedural instructions in respect of claims for drawback of tax on distilled spirits used in the manufacture of medicines, medicinal preparations, food products, flavors, or flavoring extracts which are unfit for beverage purposes, are contained in Part 197 of this chapter.

PAR. 11. Paragraph (a) of § 601.305 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.305 Offers in compromise.

(a) Liability under Internal Revenue Code. Persons desiring to submit offers in compromise in order to avoid forfeiture or prosecution proceedings, and taxpayers who disclaim liability for the amount of taxes assessed, or claim inability to pay the taxes in full, may submit offers in compromise to the district director of internal revenue or to an internal revenue officer. The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, has the authority to accept or reject offers in compromise of liability to forfeiture of personal property seized in connection with liquor, firearms, tobacco, and wagering tax violations, and each assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) has the authority to accept or reject offers in compromise of (1) tax liabilities arising from (i) the illegal production of untaxpaid distilled spirits, wines or beer, and (ii) the failure to file returns of, or to pay, occupational taxes with respect to distilled spirits, wines, beer, or firearms, and (iii) the failure to pay firearms "making" or transfer taxes, and (2) criminal liabilities of retail dealers in liquor arising from violations of the internal revenue laws relating to liquor, including the reuse or refilling of liquor bottles. The Commissioner accepts or rejects all other offers in compromise except those in compromise of violations under paragraph (b) of this section. (For offers in compromise generally, see § 601.203.) Form 656 (Rev. 7–57) is used in all cases regardless of whether the amount of the offer is tendered in full at the time the offer is filed or the amount of the offer is to be paid by deferred payment or payments. Offers received by the district director are forwarded to the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for consideration and appropriate action. When the offer is acted upon, the district director and the proponent are notified of the acceptance or rejection of the offer. If the offer is rejected, the sum submitted with the offer is returned to the proponent, and forfeiture, prosecution, or collection proceedings are resumed. If the offer is accepted, the taxpayer is notified and the case is closed. Acceptance of an offer in compromise of civil liabilities does not remit criminal liabilities, nor does acceptance of an offer in compromise of criminal liabilities remit civil liabilities.

PAR. 12. Section 601.306 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.306 Application for approval of interlocking directors and officers under section 8 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

Any person who is an officer or director of a corporation now engaged in business as a distiller, rectifier or blender of distilled spirits, or of an affiliate thereof, who desires to take office in other companies similarly engaged, must obtain permission to do so from the Director of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. Applications for such permission to take office shall be prepared and filed in accordance with instructions available from the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) or from the Director of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington 25, D.C.

PAR. 13. The subheading preceding § 601.311 is amended to read as follows:

TOBACCO PRODUCTS (MANUFACTURED TOBACCO, CIGARS, AND CIGARETTES), TOBACCO MATERIALS, AND CIGARETTE PAPERS AND TUBES

PAR. 14. Section 601.311 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.311 Imposition of taxes; regulations.

(a) Taxes. Subchapter A of chapter 52 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, imposes taxes on manufactured tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, and cigarette papers and tubes manufactured in or imported into the United States.

(b) Regulations. The procedural requirements with respect to matters relating to tobacco are contained in the regulations listed below:

(1) Part 200 of this chapter relates to the procedure and practice in connection with the disapproval of applications for permits, and the suspension and revocation of permits, under chapter 52 of the Code.

(2) Part 253 of this chapter relates to the removal, under bond, of tobacco products (manufactured tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes) and cigarette papers and tubes, without payment of tax, from domestic factories and export warehouses for delivery to foreign-trade zones.

(3) Part 270 of this chapter relates to the taxes on cigars and cigarettes and to the operations of manufacturers and importers of, and dealers in, such products.

(4) Part 275 of this chapter relates to the taxes on manufactured tobacco and to the operations of manufacturers and importers of, and dealers in, such products.

(5) Part 280 of this chapter relates to the operations of dealers in tobacco materials and to the purchase and sale of such materials.

(6) Part 285 of this chapter relates to the taxes on cigarette papers and tubes and to the operations of manufacturers and importers of such articles.

(7) Part 290 of this chapter relates to the exportation (including supplies for vessels and aircraft) of tobacco materials, tobacco products (manufactured tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes), and cigarette papers and tubes, without payment of tax, or with benefit of drawback of tax, and to the operations of export warehouse proprietors.

(8) Part 295 of this chapter relates to the removal of tobacco products (manufactured tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes) and cigarette papers and tubes, without payment of tax, for use of the United States.

(9) Part 296 of this chapter relates to the provisions of a miscellaneous nature or not of continuing application. Included are regulations relating to the limitations imposed by section 6423 of the Code on the refund or credit of tax paid or collected on tobacco materials, tobacco products, and cigarette papers and tubes; to losses of tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes caused by disasters; and to temporary rules and procedures for taxpayment of tobacco products by return.

PAR. 15. Section 601.312 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.312 Qualification and bonding requirements.

(a) Manufacturers of tobacco products and proprietors of export warehouses. Every person, before commencing business as a manufacturer of tobacco products or as a proprietor of an export warehouse, is required to qualify with the Internal Revenue Service by making application for permit and filing bond and other required documents with, and obtaining a permit from, the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the region in which operations are to be conducted.

(b) Manufacturers of cigarette papers and tubes and dealers in tobacco materials. Every person, before commencing business as a manufacturer of cigarette papers and tubes or as a dealer in tobacco materials, is required to qualify with the Internal Revenue Service by filing bond and other required documents with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the region in which operations are to be conducted.

(c) Proprietors of customs warehouses. Every proprietor of a customs bonded manufacturing warehouse, Class 6, who desires to remove cigars from his warehouse for domestic consumption is required to file a bond with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the region in which the customs warehouse is located and otherwise comply with the provisions of chapter 52 of the Code and regulations thereunder. A proprietor of such a warehouse who desires to remove tax-exempt cigars, for exportation (including supplies for vessels and aircraft) or for delivery for subsequent exportation, is also required to file a bond. However, an export bond is not required when a customs warehouse proprietor has in effect a bond to cover removals for domestic consumption.

(d) Drawback of tax. Taxpaid tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes may be exported with benefit of drawback of tax. Drawback may be allowed only to the person who paid the tax on such articles and who files claim and otherwise complies with the provisions contained in the applicable regulations referred to in § 601.311. As a condition precedent to the allowance of any drawback claim, the claimant is required to file a bond in an amount not less than the amount of tax covered in the claim.

(e) General. Detailed information relating to the qualification and bonding requirements, including the forms to be used and the procedure to be followed, is fully set forth in the regulations referred to in § 601.311.

PAR. 16. Section 601.313 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.313 Collection of taxes.

(a) Tobacco products. Taxes on tobacco products are paid by the manufacturer on the basis of a return. If the manufacturer has filed a proper bond, he may defer payment at the time of removal and file semimonthly returns to cover the taxes. If the manufacturer has not filed such a bond or if he has defaulted in any way in paying his taxes, he is required to file a prepayment return prior to removal of such products, and to continue so doing until the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) finds that the revenue will not be jeopardized by deferred payment. Taxes on cigars manufactured in a customs bonded manufacturing warehouse, Class 6, are paid by the proprietor on the basis of a return filed for each day on which cigars are removed from such warehouse. Taxes on imported tobacco products are paid by the importer on the basis of a return filed for, and prior to, each removal from customs custody. Tax returns, with remittances, are filed with the appropriate district director of internal revenue. Internal revenue taxes on noncommercial importations of tobacco products in passengers' baggage in excess of the quantity exempted from tax by law and customs regulations, or by mail where the value does not exceed $250, are paid by the importer on the basis of a return filed with the collector of customs in accordance with customs requirements.

(b) Cigarette papers and tubes. Taxes on cigarette papers and tubes are paid by the manufacturer on the basis of a monthly return. Taxes on imported cigarette papers and tubes are paid by the importer on the basis of a return filed for, and prior to, each removal from customs custody. Tax returns, with remittances, are filed with the appropriate district director of internal revenue.

(c) General. Detailed information about the payment of taxes on tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes, including the forms to be used, records to be kept, and reports and inventories to be filed, is contained in the respective regulations referred to in § 601.311.

PAR. 17. Section 601.314 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.314 Assessments.

When additional or delinquent tax liability on tobacco materials, tobacco products, and cigarette papers and tubes is disclosed by an investigation or by an examination of the taxpayer's records, a notice (except where delay may jeopardize collection of the tax, or where the amount is nominal or the result of an evident mathematical error) is forwarded to the taxpayer advising him of the basis for, and amount of, the liability and affording him an opportunity to show cause, in writing, against assessment.

PAR. 18. Section 601.315 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.315 Claims.

(b) Allowance of tax. Relief from the payment of tax on tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes may be extended to a manufacturer by allowance of the tax, where such articles, after removal from the factory upon determination of tax and prior to the time for payment of such tax, are lost (otherwise than by theft) or destroyed, by fire, casualty, or act of God, while in the possession or ownership of the manufacturer who removed such articles, or are withdrawn by him from the market. A claim for allowance is filed with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the region in which the tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes were removed from the factory. A manufacturer may not anticipate allowance of his claim by making an adjusting entry in a tax return, pending consideration and action on the claim by the assistant regional commissioner.

(c) Remission of tax liability. Remission of tax liability on tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes may be extended to a manufacturer or export warehouse proprietor liable for the tax, where such articles, before removal, or after removal for tax-exempt purposes (including transfers in bond), are lost (otherwise than by theft) or destroyed, by fire, casualty, or act of God, while in the possession or ownership of the manufacturer or export warehouse proprietor. A claim for remission of such tax liability is filed with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the region in which the factory or warehouse is located.

(d) Refund of tax. Taxes paid be return, or otherwise, on tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes lost (otherwise than by theft) or destroyed, by fire, casualty, or act of God, while in the possession or ownership of the manufacturer, importer, or export warehouse proprietor, or withdrawn by him from the market, may be refunded. A claim for refund of tax is filed on Form 843 with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the region in which the tax was paid. If tax was paid in more than one region, a claim may be filed with the assistant regional commissioner for any one of the regions in which tax was paid.

(e) Losses caused by disaster. Payment of an amount equal to the amount of internal revenue taxes paid or determined and customs duties paid on tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes removed from the factory or released from customs custody, which were lost, rendered unmarketable, or condemned by a duly authorized official by reason of a "major disaster" as determined by the President of the United States, may be made only if, at the time of the disaster, such articles were being held for sale by the claimant. A claim for payment of the internal revenue taxes for such losses is filed on Form 843 with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the internal revenue region in which the articles were lost, rendered unmarketable, or condemned. A separate claim in respect of customs duties is also filed on Form 843 with the same assistant regional commissioner.

(f) Drawback of tax. Drawback may be allowed only to the person who paid the tax on tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes which are shipped to a foreign country, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, or a possession of the United States. A claim for drawback of tax is filed on Form 2147 with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the region in which such articles covered by the claim are held by the claimant.

(g) Redemption of stamps. Tobacco products tax stamps which have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or for which the owner of such stamps has no use, may be redeemed. A claim for redemption of such stamps is filed on Form 843 with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the region in which the stamps were purchased.

(h) General. Detailed information as to the requirements necessary to be complied with and the procedure to be followed in the filing of a claim, the forms to be used, the time within which a claim may be filed, and the supporting documents which must be submitted with a claim, is contained in the applicable regulations referred to in § 601.311.

PAR. 19. Section 301.316 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.316 Offers in compromise.

Persons desiring to submit offers in compromise of civil or criminal liabilities arising under chapter 52 of the Code may submit such offers in compromise to the district director of internal revenue or to an internal revenue officer. Each assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) has the authority to accept or reject such offers in compromise, except that the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, has the authority to accept or reject offers in compromise of liability to administrative forfeiture of personal property seized in connection with tobacco violations. (For offers in compromise generally, see § 601.203.)

PAR. 20. Section 601.317 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.317 Rulings.

Any person who is in doubt about any matter arising in connection with his operations and transactions in the tobacco tax area may request a ruling thereon by addressing a letter to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington 25, D.C., or to the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) for the region in which his business is located.

PAR. 21. Section 601.318 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.318 Forms.

Detailed information as to all forms prescribed for use in connection with tobacco taxes is contained in the regulations referred to in § 601.311(b). Copies of all necessary forms, and instructions as to their preparation and filing, may be obtained from assistant regional commissioners (alcohol and tobacco tax).

PAR. 22. Paragraph (c) of § 601.324 is amended to read as follows:

§ 601.324 Claims.

* * * * * *

(c) Claims for the abatement or refund of occupational taxes and penalties erroneously assessed or collected, and claims for redemption of stamps for occupational taxes are prepared and filed in accordance with the procedure set forth in § 601.304(h).

PAR. 23. Paragraph (d) of § 601.401 is amended by revising subparagraphs (1) and (3) to read as follows:

§ 601.401 Employment taxes.

* * * * *

(d) Special refunds of employee social security tax. (1) In the case of an employee receiving wages from more than one employer during the calendar year, amounts may be deducted and withheld as employee social security tax (that is, employee tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act) with respect to wages in excess of $4,800 ($4,200 for certain calendar years prior to 1959). Under certain conditions, the employee may receive a so-called "special refund" of the amount of employee social security tax deducted and withheld from wages in excess of such amount. An employee who is entitled to a special refund of employee tax with respect to wages received during a calendar year, and who is required to file an income tax return for such calendar year (or for his last taxable year beginning in such calendar year), may obtain the benefits of such special refund only by claiming credit for such special refund on such income tax return in the same manner as if such special refund were an amount deducted and withheld as income tax at source on wages.

* * * * *

(3) If an employee entitled to a special refund of employee social security tax is not required to file an income tax return for the year in which such special refund may be claimed as a credit, he may file a claim for refund of the excess social security tax on Form 843. Claims must be filed with the district director of internal revenue for the district in which the employee resides.

PAR. 24. Section 601.402 is amended by revising paragraph (a)(2)(i), revising paragraph (c)(1), and revising subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (d). These amended provisions read as follows:

§ 601.402 Sales taxes collected by return.

(a) General. * * *

(2) * * *

(i) Automotive and related items.
Motor vehicles.
Tires, tubes and tread rubber.
Petroleum products.

* * * * *

(c) Returns, refunds, and credits—(1) Returns. The sales taxes referred to in paragraph (a) of this section are collected by means of returns. Any person liable for tax is required to file returns with the district director of internal revenue for the district in which the principal place of business of such person is located. Subject to applicable regulations and pursuant to agreement, a supplier may file returns and pay for the retailer the taxes imposed on the sale of jewelry and related items, furs, toilet preparations, and luggage, handbags, etc. A procedure similar to the Depositary Receipt procedure with respect to the payment of certain Federal employment taxes, described in paragraph (a)(5) of § 601.401, is prescribed with respect to the sales taxes referred to in paragraph (a) of this section. For information relating to the use of depositary receipts for the payment of such taxes, see the applicable regulations and the instructions on Form 720, Quarterly Federal Excise Tax Return.

* * * * *

(d) Registration and bonding requirements. (1) Under temporary regulations effective January 1, 1959, in general, an article may be sold tax-free under chapter 32 of the Code by the manufacturer for certain uses, provided the seller, first purchaser and second purchaser, as the case may be, have been registered. In the case of State governments, registration is optional. Also, the requirements for registration do not apply to sales or purchases by the United States; to sales or purchases of mechanical pencils, fountain pens, and ball point pens for export; or to a purchaser located in a foreign country or a possession of the United States in the case of the sale of any article for export. Any person who has been issued a certificate of registry prior to January 1, 1959, which has not been revoked, is registered for purposes of the temporary regulations. Any other person entitled to sell or purchase articles tax free under such regulations who has not previously registered, may register by completing Form 637 setting forth the prescribed information and forwarding it to his district director. Such person shall be considered to be registered for purposes of making such tax-free sales or purchases upon receipt of a validated Form 637 from his district director.

(2) If not previously registered, producers and importers of gasoline and manufacturers of lubricating oil (including wholesale distributors of gasoline who qualify as producers under applicable regulations) must, before incurring any liability for tax under section 4081 or 4091 of the Code, make application for registration on Form 637. The application for registration must be accompanied by a bond on Form 928 in a sum equivalent to the approximate amount of tax which might be incurred by the taxpayer during an average 3-month period at the rates of tax then in effect, but in no case shall the bond be for less than $2,000. Detailed instructions as to the filing of applications for registration and the submission of bonds by producers and importers of gasoline and manufacturers of lubricating oil are prescribed in applicable regulations.

PAR. 25. Section 601.403 is amended by revising subparagraphs (1), (2), and (7) of paragraph (a), and by revising subparagraph (2) of paragraph (c). These amended provisions read as follows:

§ 601.403 Miscellaneous excise taxes collected by return.

(a) General. Miscellaneous excise taxes collected by return include the following:

(1) Admissions, cabaret, dues and initiation fees. Subchapter A of chapter 33 of the Internal Revenue Code imposes a tax on admissions (including a tax on amounts charged by ticket brokers, box office employees, and others in excess of the established price), and on charges made by cabarets, roof gardens and other similar places. Where cabaret tax is imposed on a concessionaire in a cabaret, the proprietor is required to collect and report such tax. Subchapter A of chapter 33 also imposes certain taxes on amounts paid as dues or initiation fees to any social, athletic, or sporting club or organization.

(2) Communications. Subchapter B of chapter 33 of the Code imposes a tax on amounts paid for general telephone service, toll telephone service, telegraph service, teletypewriter exchange service, wire mileage service and wire and equipment service.

* * * * *

(7) Coconut and other vegetable oils. Chapter 37 of the Code imposes a tax upon the first domestic processing of coconut oil, palm oil, palm-kernel oil, fatty acids derived from any of the foregoing oils, salts from any of the foregoing or any combination or mixture containing a substantial quantity of any one or more of such oils, fatty acids or salts. See however Public Law 85–235 and Public Law 86–37 as amended by Public Law 86–432 for suspension of the tax for certain periods.

* * * * *

(c) Collection of tax—(1) Imposed taxes. * * *

(2) Collected taxes. The other miscellaneous excise taxes referred to in this section are imposed on the person making the payment for the admission, telephone, transportation or other service involved. These taxes are required to be collected by the theater, telephone company, railroad, or other person receiving the payment. All taxes collected in this manner are held by the collecting agent in trust for the United States until deposited in accordance with the Depositary Receipt procedure or paid over to the district director of internal revenue. The collecting agencies are required to file returns and the tax is payable, without notice from the district director, at the time fixed for filing the returns. If the person from whom the tax is required to be collected refuses to pay it or, if for any reason it is impossible for the collecting agency to collect the tax from such person, the collecting agency is required to report to the district director of internal revenue for the district in which its returns are required to be filed the name and address of such person, the nature of the service or facility rendered, the amount paid therefor, and the date on which paid. Upon receipt of this information the district director will proceed against the person to whom the facilities were provided or the services rendered to assert the amount of tax due, affording such person the same informal conference, protest and appellate rights as are available to other excise taxpayers.

PAR. 26. Section 601.404 is amended by revising paragraph (b)(1), paragraph (d)(2), and paragraph (h)(1). These amended provisions read as follows:

§ 601.404 Miscellaneous excise taxes collected by sale of revenue stamps.

* * * * *

(b) Documentary stamp taxes—(1) Capital stock, certificates of indebtedness, deeds of conveyance, and foreign insurance policies. Chapter 34 of the Internal Revenue Code imposes a tax on the issuance of corporate certificates of indebtedness, capital stock, or similar instruments, and foreign insurance policies. Chapter 34 of the Code also imposes a tax on all sales or transfers of corporate certificates of indebtedness, capital stock, or similar instruments, and on deeds of conveyance of realty sold. Under certain circumstances, a national securities exchange, or clearing house for such exchange, may pay tax on behalf of its members without the use of stamps.

* * * * *

(d) Occupational stamp taxes. * * *

(2) Coin-operated amusement or gaming devices. Subchapter B of chapter 36 of the Code imposes an occupational tax with respect to coin-operated amusement or gaming devices, or similar devices operated without a coin.

* * * * *

(h) Administrative remedies available to taxpayers after purchase of documentary, commodity, or occupational tax stamps or after assessment or payment of tax—(1) Redemption of stamps. Where stamps have been rendered useless by gumming or sticking together in transit or otherwise without fault of the purchaser, they may be exchanged by a district director of internal revenue for other stamps of the same quantity and denomination. Stamps which have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless, or unfit for the purpose intended, or for which the owner may have no use, or which through mistake have been improperly or unnecessarily used, or have been used in excess of the amount of tax actually due, may be redeemed upon proper claim filed with the district director. All such claims must be prepared on Form 843 and must be filed with the district director for the district in which is located the principal office of the claimant, or if he has no such office, with the district director for the district in which he resides. A claim for redemption of unused stamps must be filed within three years after the date of purchase of the stamps from the Government, while a claim for used stamps must be filed within three years after the stamps were affixed and cancelled. The stamps either must be submitted with the claim, or if it is impracticable to remove them from the instruments, documents, etc., to which they are attached, the words "Claim for refund of $———— filed.", with the appropriate amount inserted, shall be written across the face of the stamps by the claimant or the person having custody of the instruments or documents to which the stamps are affixed. The claimant must make a statement in his claim that the stamps have been so marked and by whom. In the case of a claim for unused stamps where the actual date of purchase of the stamps from the Government cannot be given, it must be definitely shown in the claim whether they were so purchased within 3 years prior to the date of filing of the claim. Once filed, a claim for redemption follows generally the same channels as do all other claims for refund. See §§ 601.103 to 601.106.

PAR. 27. Section 601.601 is amended by redesignating paragraph (b) as paragraph (c), redesignating paragraph (c) as paragraph (d), and adding a new paragraph (b). These amended provisions read as follows:

§ 601.601 Rules and regulations.

* * * * *

(b) Comments on proposed rules. Interested persons are privileged to submit any data, views, or arguments with respect to proposed rules. Such comments are confidential and are not disclosed to the public. Information as to who filed comments is also confidential. However, the name of any person requesting a public hearing and the issues which may be discussed at the hearing are not confidential.

(c) Petition to change rules. Interested persons are privileged to petition for the issuance, amendment, or repeal of a rule. A petition for the issuance of a rule should identify the section or sections of law involved; and a petition for the amendment or repeal of a rule should set forth the section or sections of the regulations involved. The petition should also set forth the reasons for the requested action. Such petitions will be given careful consideration and the petitioner will be advised of the action taken thereon. Petitions should be addressed to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D.C., Attention: T:P.

(d) Publication of rules and regulations. All internal revenue regulations and Treasury decisions (whether interpretative or substantive) are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and in the Code of Federal Regulations. The Treasury decisions are also published in the weekly Internal Revenue Bulletin and the semi-annual Cumulative Bulletin. The Internal Revenue Bulletin is the authoritative instrument of the Commissioner for the announcement of official rulings, and for the publication of Treasury decisions, Executive orders, legislation, and court decisions pertaining to internal revenue matters. It is the policy of the Service to publish in the bulletin all substantive and procedural rulings of importance or general interest, the publication of which is considered necessary to promote a uniform application of the laws administered by the Service. It is also the policy to publish all rulings which revoke, modify, amend or affect any published ruling. Rulings relating solely to matters of internal management are not published. The rulings are prepared in the various offices of the Service.

PAR. 28. Paragraph (a)(5) and paragraph (b)(1), (2), (3), and (5) of § 601.702 are amended to read as follows:

§ 601.702 Publication and public inspection.

(a) General. * * *

(5) State liquor cases or State firearms cases. If the interests of the United States will not be jeopardized thereby, and if information will not be divulged contrary to section 7213(b) of the Code, assistant regional commissioners (alcohol and tobacco tax) may upon receipt of subpoenas or requests of State authorities, and at the expense of the State, authorize investigators and other employees under their supervision to attend trials and administrative hearings in liquor cases or firearms cases in which the State is a party, produce records and testify as to facts coming to their knowledge in their official capacities.

* * * * *

(b) Final opinions and orders—(1) Accepted offers in compromise—(i) Income, profits, estate or gift tax. In the case of offers in compromise in respect of income, profits, capital stock (repealed), estate or gift tax liability accepted on or after August 20, 1952, a copy of the summary sheet (abstract) of each such offer is available for public inspection in the office of the appropriate district director if the liability involved is less than $5,000, and in the office of the Public Information Division of the National Office if the liability involved totals $5,000 or more. Such summary sheet includes a brief description of the reasons for acceptance of the offer. If information in addition to that shown on the summary sheet is requested, such information, subject to the provisions set forth in Internal Revenue Cumulative Bulletin 1952–2, pages 299–300, will also be made available for inspection. In the case of offers in compromise of such tax liabilities accepted before August 20, 1952, a copy of the summary sheet will be made available for inspection upon request identifying the taxpayer. See Treasury Decision 5927, approved August 20, 1952 (26 CFR (1939), 1954 Supp. 458.-313), and Executive Order 10386, dated August 20, 1952 (3 CFR, 1952 Supp.).

(ii) Refilling of liquor bottles. For each offer in compromise submitted and accepted on or after December 21, 1956, pursuant to section 7122 of the Code, in any case arising under sections 5604 and 5606 of the Code, relating to refilling of liquor bottles, a copy of the abstract and statement relating to the offer shall be available for public inspection for a period of one year in the office of the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) accepting the offer and in the office of the district director for the internal revenue district in which the offer is submitted. Information, however, is not disclosed concerning any trade secrets, processes, operations, style of work, or apparatus, or confidential data, amount or source of income, profits, losses, or expenditures, or any other matter within the prohibition of section 1905 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(2) Information regarding permits—(i) Application for permits. Information with respect to the handling of applications for basic permits under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, operating permits under section 5171 of the Code, and industrial use permits under section 5271 of the Code is maintained for public inspection in the offices of assistant regional commissioners (alcohol and tobacco tax) until the expiration of one year following final action on such applications.

(ii) Card index record of permits. A current card index record for all persons to whom industrial use permits have been issued; for all proprietors of distilled spirits plants to whom operating permits have been issued to cover distilling for industrial use, bonded warehousing of spirits for industrial use, or denaturing of spirits; and for all applicants for such industrial use and operating permits; is available in the offices of assistant regional commissioners (alcohol and tobacco tax). Such card index records may be inspected by persons who are authorized to sell or purchase tax-free alcohol or specially denatured spirits.

(3) List of plants and permittees. Upon request, the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax) may, as far as possible without interference with the work of his office, furnish a list of any type of qualified proprietor or permittee located in his region.

* * * * *

(5) Publication of decisions. Rulings and decisions on matters arising under the internal revenue laws which because they announce a ruling or decision upon a novel question or upon a question in regard to which there exists no previously published ruling or decision, or for other reasons, are of such importance as to be of general interest, or which revoke, amend or affect in any manner a published ruling or decision are, after rephrasing to eliminate any confidential information relating to a particular case, including identity of persons, regularly published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin. See also § 601.601(d). No unpublished ruling or decision will be cited or relied upon by any officer or employee of the Internal Revenue Service as a precedent in the disposition of other cases.

Title 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter X—Oil Import Administration, Department of the Interior

[Oil Import Reg. 1 (Revision 2), Amdt. 3]

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 10 of Oil Import Regulation 1 (Revision 2) (25 F.R. 4958) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 10 Allocations of crude oil and unfinished oils—Districts I–IV.

(a) The quantity of imports of crude oil and unfinished oils determined to be available for allocation in Districts I–IV for the allocation period January 1, 1961, through June 30, 1961, shall be allocated by the Administrator among eligible applicants as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, each eligible applicant shall receive an allocation based on refinery inputs for the year ending September 30, 1960, and computed according to the following schedule:

Average B/D input:	Percent of input
0–10,000	11.5
10–20,000	10.5
20–30,000	9.6
30–60,000	8.6
60–100,000	7.7
100–150,000	6.7
150–200,000	5.7
200–300,000	4.7
300,000 plus	3.8

(c) If an eligible applicant has been importing crude oil pursuant to an allocation under the Voluntary Oil Import Program and if an allocation computed under paragraph (b) of this section would be less than 72 percent of the applicant's last allocation of imports of crude oil under the Voluntary Oil Import Program, the applicant shall nevertheless receive an allocation under this section equal to 72 percent of his last allocation of imports of crude oil under the Voluntary Oil Import Program.

(d) No allocation made pursuant to this section shall entitle a person to a license which will allow the importation of unfinished oils in excess of 10 percent of the allocation.

(e) No allocation made pursuant to this section may be sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred.

2. Amendment 2 (12 F.R. 12999) to Oil Import Regulation 1 (Revision 2) is revoked and section 11 of that regulation (25 F.R. 4958) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 11 Allocations of crude oil and unfinished oils—District V.

(a) The quantity of imports of crude oil determined to be available for allocation in District V for the allocation period January 1, 1961, through June 30, 1961, shall be allocated by the Administrator among eligible applicants as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, each eligible applicant shall receive an allocation based on refinery inputs for the year ending September 30, 1960 and computed according to the following schedule:

Average B/D input:	Percent of input
0–10,000	40.0
10–20,000	31.3
20–30,000	22.7
30–60,000	13.5
60–100,000	10.9
100–150,000	10.0
150–200,000	8.9
200,000 plus	7.2

(c) If an eligible applicant has been importing crude oil pursuant to an allocation under the Voluntary Oil Import Program and if an allocation computed under paragraph (b) of this section would be less than 66.5 percent of the applicant's last allocation of imports of crude oil under the Voluntary Oil Import Program, the applicant shall nevertheless receive an allocation under this section equal to 66.5 percent of his last allocation of imports of crude oil under the Voluntary Oil Import Program.

(d) Allocations made pursuant to this section shall not permit the importation of unfinished oils in excess of 10 percent of the permissible imports of crude oil. With respect to any allocation made pursuant to this section, the Administrator upon request shall issue a license permitting the importation of unfinished oils in an amount not in excess of 10 percent of the allocation. If the total quantity of unfinished oils applied for is less than 10 percent of the permissible imports of crude oils, the Administrator may to that extent increase the percentage amount of unfinished oils specified in licenses of persons who request such increases. Each person making such a request shall receive an increase in the proportion that his allocation bears to the total of allocations made to all persons requesting increases. Each barrel of unfinished oil imported shall be deemed to be the equivalent of one barrel of crude oil and will be so charged against the person's license by the respective Collectors of Customs. The permissible percentage of imports of unfinished oils and the equivalence of unfinished oils to crude oil may be changed during the allocation period, if necessary to prevent impairing accomplishment of the purposes of the program. Such a change will be made only after notice of proposed rule making and will not become effective until the 30th calendar day following publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the amendment making such change.

(e) No allocation made pursuant to this section may be sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred.

3. Section 14 of Oil Import Regulation 1 (Revision 2) (25 F.R. 4959) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 14 Determination of maximum level of imports—Puerto Rico.

(a) Pursuant to section 2 of Proclamation 3279, it is determined (1) that the average barrels per day of imports of crude oil and unfinished oils into Puerto Rico during any particular allocation period shall not exceed the average barrels per day, as determined by the Administrator, during the month of July of the calendar year 1958 of imports of such commodities into Puerto Rico, and (2) that the average barrels per day, as determined by the Administrator, of imports of residual fuel oil to be used as fuel and of imports of finished products other than residual fuel oil to be used as fuel into Puerto Rico during any particular allocation period shall not exceed the average barrels per day of imports of such products, respectively, into Puerto Rico during the last half of the calendar year 1958.

(b) The Administrator shall from time to time review the determinations set forth in paragraph (a) of this section and shall recommend to the Secretary of the Interior that the level of imports be increased or decreased as may be required to meet increases or decreases in local demand in Puerto Rico or in demand for export to foreign areas.

4. Section 15 of Oil Import Regulation 1 (Revision 2) (25 F.R. 4959) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 15 Allocation of crude oil and unfinished oils—Puerto Rico.

(a) For the allocation period January 1, 1961 through June 30, 1961, the Administrator shall allocate to each eligible applicant for an allocation for Puerto Rico quantities of imports of crude oil and unfinished oils in proportion to the applicant's average barrels daily of refinery input (adjusted by the Administrator for downtime) in Puerto Rico during the months of July, August, and September of the year 1958.

(b) In the event that the maximum levels of imports of crude oil and unfinished oils are increased or decreased pursuant to paragraph (b) of section 14, the Administrator shall increase or decrease individual allocations in the proportion that each allocation bears to the total allocations of crude oil and unfinished oils.

(c) No allocation made pursuant to this section may be sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred.

5. Section 16 of Oil Import Regulation 1 (Revision 2) (25 F.R. 4959) is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 16 Allocations of finished products—Puerto Rico.

(a) For the allocation period January 1, 1961 through June 30, 1961, the Administrator shall allocate to each eligible applicant for an allocation for Puerto Rico a quantity of imports of finished products equal to the applicant's average barrels daily of imports of such products during the last 6 months of the calendar year 1958. Separate allocations shall be made for imports of residual fuel oil to be used as fuel and of imports of finished products other than residual fuel oil to be used as fuel.

(b) In the event that the maximum level of imports of residual fuel oil to be used as fuel or of finished products other than residual fuel oil to be used as fuel is increased or decreased pursuant to paragraph (b) of section 14, the Administrator shall increase or decrease individual allocations in the proportion that each allocation bears to the total allocations of residual fuel oil to be used as fuel or of finished products other than residual fuel oil to be used as fuel, respectively.

(c) No allocation made pursuant to this section may be sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred.

Because allocations must be made and licenses issued for the allocation period beginning January 1, 1961, it is impracticable to give notice of proposed rule making on, or to delay the effective date of, this amendment. Accordingly, this amendment shall become effective immediately.

ELMER F. BENNETT,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

Title 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army

PART 207—NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

Santa Monica Bay, Calif.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917 (40 Stat. 266; 33 U.S.C.), § 207.619 is hereby prescribed establishing and governing the use and navigation of a restricted area in Santa Monica Bay, California, as follows:

§ 207.619 Santa Monica Bay, Calif.; restricted area.

(a) The area. The waters of the Pacific Ocean, Santa Monica Bay, in an area extending seaward from the shoreline a distance of about 5 nautical miles (normal to the shoreline) and basically outlined as follows:

Station	Latitude N.	Longitude W.
A	33°54′59″	118°25′41″
B	33°54′59″	118°28′00″
C	33°53′59.5″	118°31′37″
D	33°56′19.5″	118°34′05″
E	33°56′25″	118°26′29″

(b) The regulations. (1) Vessels shall not anchor within the area at any time without permission.

(2) Dredging, dragging, seining, or other fishing operations which might foul underwater installations within the area are prohibited.

(3) All vessels entering the area, other than vessels operated by or for the United States, the State of California, the county of Los Angeles, or the city of Los Angeles, shall proceed across the area by the most direct route and without unnecessary delay. The area will be open and unrestricted to small recreational craft for recreational activities at all times.

(4) The placing of buoys, markers, or other devices requiring anchors will not be permitted.

(5) The city of Los Angeles will maintain a patrol of the area as needed.

(6) The regulations of this section shall be enforced by the Commander, Eleventh Coast Guard District, Times Building, Long Beach, California, and such agencies as he may designate.

Effective date. This section shall become effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Title 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

APPENDIX—PUBLIC LAND ORDERS

[Public Land Order 2236]

[64769]

UTAH

Restoration Under Section 24, Federal Power Act

By virtue of the authority contained in section 24 of the act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075; 16 U.S.C. 818), as amended, and pursuant to determination DA-82-Utah of the Federal Power Commission, it is ordered as follows:

1. The following-described lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections and locations, subject to valid existing rights, the requirements of applicable law, the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, and also subject to the stipulation that if and when the land is required in whole or in part for purposes of power development, any structures or improvements placed thereon which are found to interfere with such development shall be removed or relocated so as to eliminate interference, without cost or expense to the United States, its permittees or licensees:

SALT LAKE MERIDIAN

T. 42 S., R. 19 E.,
Sec. 7, lots 10, 12, 13, 14, 15, and SW¼NE¼.

Aggregating 103.77 acres.

2. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

a. Until 10:00 a.m. on June 22, 1961, the State of Utah shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851, 852), and the regulations in 43 CFR. During this period the State may also apply for the reservation to it or to any of its political subdivisions, of any of the lands required for rights-of-way or materials sites in accordance with the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act.

b. Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

c. All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on January 26, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

d. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws and to locations under the mining laws.

3. Persons claiming preference rights must submit evidence of their entitlement.

Inquiries shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Salt Lake City, Utah.

GEORGE W. ABBOTT,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

Sec. 30, NE¼NE¼, SW¼NE¼, and NE¼ SW¼.
Containing 826.04 acres.

The areas total in the aggregate 90,817.96 acres.

2. The lands are within southeastern Fremont and southwestern Natrona Counties, in the central part of the Wind River Basin. The topography varies from gently rolling to rough and mountainous and elevation changes about 6,000 feet. The area is characterized by a semi-desert vegetal cover, dominated by big sagebrush.

3. Subject to any existing valid rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands described in paragraph 1 thereof, are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) Until 10:00 a.m. on June 22, 1961, the State of Wyoming shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of Section 2 of the Act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851-853), and the regulations of 43 CFR.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the non-mineral public land laws, other than those from the State, presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on January 26, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, and to location under the United States mining laws pursuant to the regulations in 43 CFR 185.35–185.36.

4. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

GEORGE W. ABBOTT,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

WASHINGTON

Order Opening Public Lands Formerly in Power Withdrawals

1. In DA-127-Washington, the Federal Power Commission vacated the withdrawal created by the filing on October 21, 1930, of an application for license for Project No. 1125, for the following-described lands:

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

All portions of the following tracts lying within the project boundaries of the diversion dam and power house sites, and within 15 feet of the center line of the pipe line location, and within 15 feet of the center line of the transmission line location, all as shown on a map designated "Exhibit F" and entitled "Quinault Hotel Co. Inc. Power Project" and filed in the office of the Federal Power Commission on October 21, 1930:

T. 23 N., R. 9 W.,
Sec. 20, lots 1, 2, 3, and NW¼SE¼;
Sec. 21, lots 1, 2, S½NW¼, and SW¼NE¼.

Containing approximately 4 acres.

2. An order of the Geological Survey of November 23, 1956 (Power Site Cancellation No. 116), canceled the departmental order of September 20, 1926, creating Power Site Classification No. 152, Washington No. 24, so far as it affects the following-described lands:

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 23, N., R. 9 W.,
Sec. 1, lot 4;
Sec. 2, lots 1, 5, 7, 8, 9, and NW¼SW¼;
Sec. 3, NE¼SW¼;
Sec. 4, S½SW¼;
Sec. 5, S½S½;
Sec. 7, lots 3, 4, 5, 6, and NE¼NE¼, S½ NE¼, NE¼SW¼, and NW¼SE¼;
Sec. 8, lot 6, N½NE¼NE¼, N½SW¼NE¼ NE¼, NW¼NE¼, and N½NW¼;
Sec. 9, lots 1, 5, and 6;
Sec. 10, lot 1, SW¼NE¼SW¼, W½SE¼ NE¼SW¼, W½SE¼SW¼, and W½E½SE¼ SW¼;
Sec. 16, lots 2, 5, NE¼SE¼, and S½SE¼;
Sec. 19, lot 1;
Sec. 20, lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, SE¼SW¼, and SE¼;
Sec. 21, lots 1, 2, NW¼NE¼, S½NW¼, and NW¼SW¼;
Sec. 29, NW¼NE¼, NW¼, and NW¼SW¼;
Sec. 30, lots 1, 2, 3, 4, SE¼NE¼, and SE¼;
Sec. 31, lot 1.

Sec. 14, SE¼NE¼, SE¼SW¼, and SE¼;
Sec. 23, lots 1, 2, 3, and 4.

The areas described aggregate 3,120.19 acres, of which the NE¼SW¼, section 3; S½SW¼, section 4; a strip 33 feet wide along the east side of the W½SE¼ NE¼SW¼, section 10, and lot 5, section 16, are patented.

3. The lands are withdrawn either for the Olympic National Park, or the Olympic National Forest.

4. Until 10:00 a.m. on March 23, 1961, the national forest lands shall be open only to application by the State of Washington under any statute or regulation applicable thereto for the reservation to it or to any of its political subdivisions of any of the lands required as a right-of-way for a public highway or as a source of materials for the construction and maintenance of such highways, as provided by Section 24 of the Federal Power Act of 1920, as amended.

5. Commencing at 10:00 a.m. on March 23, 1961, the national forest lands shall be open to such other forms of disposition as may by law be made of national forest lands.

6. The national forest lands have been open to location under applicable mining laws, and to application and offers under the mineral leasing laws.

Inquiries concerning the lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Spokane, Washington.

GEORGE W. ABBOTT,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

Sec. 33, E½NW¼ and NE¼SW¼.
T. 20 N., R. 24 E.,
Sec. 29, SE¼SW¼;
Sec. 32, NE¼SE¼;
Sec. 33, SW¼SW¼.
T. 17 N., R. 25 E.,
Sec. 32, SE¼SW¼.

The areas described aggregate approximately 2,024 acres.

3. The following lands will remain in existing withdrawals for reclamation and power purposes:

T. 12 N., R. 18 E.,
Sec. 25, lots 3 to 7, incl. and SE¼NW¼.
T. 14 N., R. 18 E.,
Sec. 2, lots 3, 4, SW¼NE¼, SE¼NW¼, and N½SW¼.
T. 14 N., R. 19 E.,
Sec. 2, lot 2;
Sec. 10, E½SW¼;
Sec. 15, E½NW¼.

4. The S½NW¼, section 15, T. 19 N., R. 24 E., is withdrawn for the Salmon National Forest.

5. The lands are situated in part within the main valley of the Lemhi River drainage, and in part near the main Salmon River. Vegetation consists of sage brush and native grasses. Topography ranges from gently to severe undulating and steep rocky hillsides.

6. Subject to valid existing rights, the provisions of existing withdrawals, and requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following, the lands described in paragraph 1 hereof, being opened subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act as amended:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) Until 10:00 a.m. on June 22, 1961, the State of Idaho shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851–852), and the regulations in 43 CFR. During this period the State may also apply for the reservation to it or to any of its political subdivisions under any law or regulation applicable thereto, of any of the lands, required for rights-of-way or materials sites, in accordance with the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, supra.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on June 22, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, and to location under the United States mining laws pursuant to the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 682; 30 U.S.C. 621).

7. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevent to their claims.

Inquiries concerning the lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Boise, Idaho.

GEORGE W. ABBOTT,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

IDAHO

Partly Revoking Reclamation Withdrawal (Minidoka Project)

By virtue of the authority contained in section 3 of the Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388; 43 U.S.C. 416), it is ordered as follows:

1. The departmental order of March 18, 1908, withdrawing the following-described lands for reclamation purposes in connection with the Minidoka Project is hereby revoked:

BOISE MERIDIAN

T. 7 S., R. 25 E.,
Sec. 35, SW¼SW¼SW¼.

Containing 10 acres.

2. Subject to any existing valid rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications, selections, and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on January 26, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

3. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws. They will be open to location under the mining laws beginning at 10:00 a.m. on January 26, 1961. (The State of Idaho has waived its preference rights of application under subsection (c) of section 2 of the Act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 416)).

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Boise, Idaho.

GEORGE W. ABBOTT,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

Washington 25, D.C.

[FCC 60–1525]

PART 7—STATIONS ON LAND IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

PART 8—STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

Radiotelephony for Navigational Communications

In the matter of radiotelephony for navigational communications. Extension of time to file applications and deletion of termination date of initial licenses for the frequency 156.65 Mc.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 21st day of December 1960;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned matter:

It appearing that the Commission has provided for an operational evaluation trial period for radiotelephone communication to be conducted on a single short-range frequency (VHF 156.65 Mc) for the exchange of marine navigational information and related emergency messages directly between navigating personnel stationed on the bridges of ships at sea and on inland waters, and between ship and shore stations concerned with the safe movement of ships through locks and bridge structures spanning inland waters; and

It further appearing that the present provisions of Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules prohibit the filing of applications after December 31, 1960, for limited coast stations (developmental), marine utility (developmental), and/or limited ship stations (developmental) on the frequency 156.65 Mc, and also provide that all initial licenses for such frequency shall terminate April 1, 1961; and

It further appearing that the time limit for filing such applications should be extended indefinitely and provision made for the issuance of initial licenses for a full one-year period in order to allow the Commission additional time to consider this matter; and

It further appearing that the provisions of section 4 (a) and (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act need not be complied with (1) since the amendments herein ordered delete certain obsolete requirements and are of minor effect in that there is no change in the nature of the developmental operation authorized; (2) since it is impracticable to follow the rule making procedure in view of the cut-off date of December 31, 1960, for the filing of applications for the above-mentioned stations; and (3) since the present rule indicates, with respect to the extension of the time limit on the filing of applications, that the Commission may, in its discretion, take any action it deemed appropriate; and

It further appearing that, for the same reasons and because the rule amendments herein ordered relieve restrictions which would otherwise be applicable, the provisions of Section 4(c) of the Administrative Procedure Act need not be complied with;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, Parts 7 and 8 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below, effective December 30, 1960.

Released: December 22, 1960.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
BEN F. WAPLE,
Acting Secretary.

A. Part 7 is amended as follows:

1. Section 7.506(b)(2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 7.506 Report of operation required.

* * * * *

(b) * * *

(2) A report on the results of the developmental program shall be filed by each licensee, or by one or more such licensees acting jointly as a coordinated group, within 60 days of the expiration of each developmental station license.

2. The text of § 7.508 is deleted and the word "[Reserved]" is inserted in lieu thereof, as follows:

§ 7.508 [Reserved]

3. Section 7.509 is amended to read as follows:

§ 7.509 Time limit on filing of initial applications for operation on 156.65 Mc.

Applications for developmental limited coast station licenses to authorize, initially, operation on the radio channel of which 156.65 Mc is the authorized carrier frequency may be filed until such time, in the discretion of the Commission, a need develops for discontinuance of this category of application.

B. Part 8 is amended as follows:

1. Section 8.436(b)(3) is amended to read as follows:

§ 8.436 Report of operation required.

* * * * *

(b) * * *

(3) A report on the results of the developmental program shall be filed by each licensee, or by one or more such licensees acting jointly as a coordinated group, within 60 days of the expiration of each developmental station license.

2. The text of § 8.438 is deleted and the word "[Reserved]" is inserted in lieu thereof, as follows:

§ 8.438 [Reserved]

3. Section 8.439 is amended to read as follows:

§ 8.439 Time limit on filing of initial applications for operation on 156.65 Mc.

Applications for developmental ship station licenses to authorize, initially, operation on the radio channel of which 156.65 Mc is the authorized carrier frequency may be filed until such time, in the discretion of the Commission, a need develops for the discontinuance of this category of application.

Title 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 120—ANNUAL, SPECIAL OR PERIODICAL REPORTS

Railroad Annual Report Form C

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 30th day of November A.D. 1960.

The matter of annual reports of line-haul and switching and terminal railroad companies of Class II being under further consideration, and the changes to be made by this order being minor changes in the data to be furnished, rule-making procedures under section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1003, being deemed unnecessary:

It is ordered, That § 120.12 of the order of December 2, 1959, in the matter of Railroad Annual Report Form C, be, and it is hereby, modified and amended, with respect to annual reports for the year ended December 31, 1960, and subsequent years, to read as shown below.

It is further ordered, That § 120.12, be, and it is hereby, modified and amended to read as follows:

§ 120.12 Form prescribed for Class II railroads.

Commencing with the year ended December 31, 1960, and for subsequent years thereafter, until further order, all line-haul and switching and terminal railroad companies of Class II, as described in § 126.1 of this chapter, all carriers with average annual operating revenues of less than $3,000,000, subject to the provisions of section 20, part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, are required to file annual reports in accordance with Railroad Annual Report Form C, which is attached to and made a part of this section.[1] Such annual report shall be filed in duplicate in the Bureau of Transport Economics and Statistics, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington 25, D.C., on or before March 31 of the year following the year to which it relates.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 12. Interpret or apply sec. 20, 24 Stat. 386, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 20)

And it is further ordered, That copies of this order and of Annual Report Form C shall be served on all line-haul and switching and terminal railroad companies of Class II, subject to the provisions of section 20, part I, of the Interstate Commerce Act, and upon every receiver, trustee, executor, administrator or assignee of any such railroad company, and that notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing it with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 2.

[SEAL] HAROLD D. MCCOY,
Secretary.

Proposed Rule Making

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

[26 CFR (1954) Part 1]

INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: T:P, Washington 25, D.C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any person submitting written comments or suggestions who desires an opportunity to comment orally at a public hearing on these proposed regulations should submit his request, in writing, to the Commissioner within the 30-day period. In such a case, a public hearing will be held, and notice of the time, place, and date will be published in a subsequent issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805).

[SEAL] CHARLES I. FOX,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The following regulations are hereby prescribed under sections 382 (relating to special limitations on net operating loss carryovers) and 394 (relating to effective date of part V, subchapter C, chapter 1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954:

§ 1.382(a) Statutory provisions; special limitations on net operating loss carryovers; purchase of a corporation and change in its trade or business.

SEC. 382. Special limitations on net operating loss carryovers—(a) Purchase of a corporation and change in its trade or business—(1) In general. If, at the end of a taxable year of a corporation—

(A) Any one or more of those persons described in paragraph (2) own a percentage of the total fair market value of the outstanding stock of such corporation which is at least 50 percentage points more than such person or persons owned at—

(i) The beginning of such taxable year, or

(ii) The beginning of the prior taxable year,

(B) The increase in percentage points at the end of such taxable year is attributable to—

(i) A purchase by such person or persons of such stock, the stock of another corporation owning stock in such corporation, or an interest in a partnership or trust owning stock in such corporation, or

(ii) A decrease in the amount of such stock outstanding or the amount of stock outstanding of another corporation owning stock in such corporation, except a decrease resulting from a redemption to pay death taxes to which section 303 applies, and

(C) Such corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before any change in the percentage ownership of the fair market value of such stock, the net operating loss carryovers, if any, from prior taxable years of such corporation to such taxable year and subsequent taxable years shall not be included in the net operating loss deduction for such taxable year and subsequent taxable years.

(2) Description of person or persons. The person or persons referred to in paragraph (1) shall be the 10 persons (or such lesser number as there are persons owning the outstanding stock at the end of such taxable year) who own the greatest percentage of the fair market value of such stock at the end of such taxable year; except that, if any other person owns the same percentage of such stock at such time as is owned by one of the 10 persons, such person shall also be included. If any of the persons are so related that such stock owned by one is attributed to the other under the rules specified in paragraph (3), such persons shall be considered as only one person solely for the purpose of selecting the 10 persons (more or less) who own the greatest percentage of the fair market value of such outstanding stock.

(3) Attribution of ownership. Section 318 (relating to constructive ownership of stock) shall apply in determining the ownership of stock, except that section 318(a)(2)(C) shall be applied without regard to the 50 percent limitation contained therein.

(4) Definition of purchase. For purposes of this subsection, the term "purchase" means the acquisition of stock, the basis of which is determined solely by reference to its cost to the holder thereof, in a transaction from a person or persons other than the person or persons the ownership of whose stock would be attributed to the holder by application of paragraph (3).

§ 1.382(a)-1 Purchase of a corporation and change in its trade or business.

(a) In general. (1) Section 382(a) provides for the complete elimination of the net operating loss carryovers of a corporation (hereinafter called a "loss corporation") if certain circumstances exist. In general, section 382(a) applies only if, at the end of a loss corporation's taxable year, there has been a change (occurring in specified ways) since the beginning of such year, or since the beginning of the prior taxable year, of at least 50 percent in the ownership of the corporation's outstanding stock (hereinafter called a "change of ownership"), and only if the corporation has not continued to carry on substantially the same trade or business as that conducted before such change. If section 382(a) is applicable at the end of a taxable year, then the entire net operating loss carryovers from prior taxable years of such corporation are excluded in computing the net operating loss deduction for such taxable year and for subsequent taxable years.

(2) For purposes of this section, (i) section 318(a) shall apply in determining ownership of stock, except that section 318(a)(2)(C) shall be applied without regard to the 50-percent limitation contained therein, and (ii) stock acquired by the exercise of an option shall be considered as having been acquired on the date the option was acquired. Thus, if A acquires on December 15, 1959, an option to purchase 50 percent of the outstanding stock of X Corporation and if A acquires the stock by exercising the option on January 15, 1961, A will be considered as having purchased the stock on December 15, 1959.

(3) For the definition of the term "stock" as used in this section, see § 1.382(c)-1.

(b) Circumstances under which section 382(a) is applicable. Section 382(a) applies if, at the end of a taxable year of a loss corporation, all of the following circumstances exist:

(1) Any one or more of those persons described in paragraph (c) of this section own, actually and constructively, a percentage of the total fair market value of the outstanding stock of such corporation which is at least 50 percentage points more than such person or persons owned at the beginning of such taxable year or at the beginning of the prior taxable year;

(2) The increase in percentage points referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph is attributable to (i) a purchase or purchases (as defined in section 382(a)(4) and paragraph (e) of this section) by the person or persons specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph of such stock or the stock of another corporation owning stock in such loss corporation, (ii) the purchase or purchases by such person or persons of an interest in a partnership or trust owning stock in such loss corporation, (iii) a decrease in the amount of outstanding stock of such loss corporation or in the amount of outstanding stock of another corporation owning stock in such loss corporation, except a decrease resulting from a redemption to pay death taxes to which section 303 applies, or (iv) a combination of the transactions described in subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subparagraph; and

(3) The loss corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before any increase in percentage points described in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(c) Description of person or persons. (1) The persons specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this section shall be the 10 persons who own, actually and constructively, the greatest percentage of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of a loss corporation at the end of a taxable year (or such lesser number as there are persons owning the outstanding stock at the end of such taxable year), except that if any two or more persons own the same percentage of such stock and it is necessary to include one such person in order to select the 10 persons, then all of such persons shall be included. Any such persons so selected who are so related that stock owned by one is attributed to another under the constructive ownership rule specified in paragraph (a)(2) of this section shall be considered as only one person solely for the purpose of selecting such 10 persons. Although considered as one person for purposes of selecting such 10 persons, such related persons are considered as separate persons for all other purposes of section 382(a).

(2) In selecting the 10 persons (more or less) described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the following procedure shall be used:

(i) First, determine those persons who own, actually and constructively, stock of the loss corporation and determine the fair market value of the stock owned, actually and constructively, by such persons.

(ii) Second, select from such persons the number of persons required by the first sentence of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(iii) Third, if any of the persons so selected are so related that stock of one is attributed to another under the rule specified in paragraph (a)(2) of this section, such persons shall be considered as one person.

(iv) Fourth, if, as the result of considering two or more persons as one person, the number of persons previously selected drops below ten, additional persons shall be selected in the manner prescribed in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph.

(v) Finally, if any such additional persons are related under the rule specified in paragraph (a)(2) of this section to persons previously selected, or to one another, then the principles of subdivisions (iii) and (iv) of this subparagraph shall again be applied.

(3) The application of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. (i) Assume that the outstanding stock of a loss corporation (based on fair market value) is owned, actually and constructively, at the end of a taxable year by the following individuals and partnership:

Person	Percentage of stock actually owned	Percentage of stock owned actually and constructively
A	15	15
B (A's wife)	0	15
C (A's son)	0	15
D (A's daughter)	0	15
GH (a partnership)	0	20
E	16	20
F	15	15
G (a 50-percent partner in GH)	10	15
H (a 50-percent partner in GH)	10	15
I	5	5
J	5	5
K	5	5
L (E's grandson)	4	4
M	4	4
N	3	3
O	2	2
P	2	2

(ii) The persons selected under subparagraph (2)(ii) of this paragraph are the following 12 persons: A, B, C, D, partnership GH, E, F, G, H, I, J, and K (I, J, and K must all be included because each owns the same percentage of stock). However, A, B, C, and D are considered as one person for purposes of this paragraph because they are related under the rule specified in paragraph (a)(2) of this section, and G, H, and partnership GH are considered as one person for the same reason. Therefore, it is necessary to select three additional persons, L, M, and N, in order to reach the required number of ten. However, since L is related to one of the persons previously selected, he cannot be considered a separate person. It therefore becomes necessary to select an additional person and since O, P, Q, and R each owns the same percentage of stock, they all must be selected. Accordingly, the 10 persons (more or less) who own the greatest percentage of the fair market value of the outstanding stock are individuals A through R and partnership GH.

(d) Change of ownership. (1) The determination of whether a change of ownership has occurred under section 382(a) is made as of the close of a taxable year of a loss corporation. A "change of ownership" has occurred only if the stock ownership of the 10 persons (more or less) selected under paragraph (c) of this section has increased at least 50 percentage points using a prescribed period and such increase is attributable to a transaction or transactions described in section 382(a)(1)(B) and in paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) of this section. The aggregate increase of at least 50 percentage points during a prescribed one time during the taxable year or during the prior taxable year, or may take place in several transactions occurring during such 2-year period. An increase of 50 percentage points is not the same thing as an increase of 50 percent. Thus, a stockholder who owns 4 percent of the fair market value of the stock of a corporation and who increases his ownership to 6 percent has had a 50-percent increase in ownership but an increase in percentage points of only 2.

(2)(i) It is unnecessary to determine whether a "change of ownership" has occurred unless, as of the end of any taxable year (hereinafter called a "current taxable year"), the loss corporation has changed its trade or business after the date of the first increase in percentage points during such taxable year, or during the prior taxable year, which would be taken into account under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph in determining whether a "change of ownership" has occurred.

(ii) If, as of the end of the current taxable year, the loss corporation has changed its trade or business after the date of the first increase in percentage points during such current year, then in determining whether a "change of ownership" has occurred it is first necessary to compare ownership of the outstanding stock at the end of the current taxable year with such ownership at the beginning of such current taxable year. If a "change of ownership" has not occurred as a result of such comparison, then it is necessary to compare ownership of the outstanding stock at the end of the current taxable year with such ownership at the beginning of the prior taxable year.

(iii) If, as of the end of the current taxable year, the loss corporation has not changed its trade or business after the date of the first increase in percentage points during such current year, but the corporation has changed its trade or business after the date of the first increase in percentage points during the prior taxable year, then in determining whether a "change of ownership" has occurred it is necessary to compare ownership of the outstanding stock at the end of the current taxable year with such ownership at the beginning of the prior taxable year.

(iv) For purposes of subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of this subparagraph, an increase in percentage points means only an increase in percentage ownership which would be taken into account under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph in determining whether a "change of ownership" has occurred.

(v) A loss corporation has changed its trade or business during a period between one date and another date only if, as of the later date, the corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted immediately before the earlier date. See paragraph (h) of this section for rules relating to change in trade or business.

(3) In determining whether a "change of ownership" has occurred, the following procedure shall be used:

(i) First, as of the close of a taxable year, the percentage of the total fair market value of stock owned, actually and constructively, by each of the 10 persons (more or less) selected under paragraph (c) of this section shall be computed. For this purpose, each person included in selecting such 10 persons shall be treated as a separate person even though any such persons are considered as only one person under such paragraph (c) in selecting the 10 persons who own the greatest percentage of the fair market value of the outstanding stock.

(ii) Second, the percentage of the total fair market value of stock owned, actually and constructively, by each of such persons as of the beginning of the current taxable year or the prior taxable year, whichever is applicable, shall be computed.

(iii) Third, after computing the percentage of the total fair market value of stock owned by each of the persons as of the close of the current taxable year and as of the beginning of the applicable year, a comparison shall be made between the percentages owned by each such person as of each such date.

(iv) Fourth, with respect to each person who sustained an increase in percentage ownership, the portion of such increase which is attributable to a transaction or transactions described in paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) of this section shall be determined.

(v) Finally, the increases in percentage ownership attributable to such transaction or transactions shall be totaled and the resulting figure shall be used in determining whether a "change of ownership" has occurred.

(4) This paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Assume that a loss corporation has changed its trade or business during the current taxable year ending on December 31, 1960. Assume further that the following table shows the percentage of the fair market value of the outstanding stock owned by each stockholder as of December 31, 1960, and the percentages owned by such stockholders as of January 1, 1960, and January 1, 1959. The percentage of stock actually owned is followed in parentheses by the percentage owned actually and constructively under section 318(a). It is assumed that all increases in actual ownership are attributable to a purchase or purchases of stock described in paragraph (e) of this section.

Stockholder	Dec. 31, 1960	Jan. 1, 1960	Jan. 1, 1959
	Percent	Percent	Percent
A	10(23)	15(15)	15(15)
B (A's wife)	10(23)	0(15)	0(15)
C	10(25)	10(25)	0(0)
D (C's wife)	5(25)	5(25)	0(10)
E (son of C and D)	5(20)	5(20)	0(0)
F (daughter of C and D)	5(20)	5(20)	0(0)
G	10(10)	10(10)	0(0)
H	5(5)	0(0)	0(0)
I	5(5)	0(0)	0(0)
J	5(5)	0(0)	0(0)
K	5(5)	0(0)	0(0)
L	5(5)	5(5)	5(5)
M	4(4)	0(0)	0(0)
N	4(4)	0(0)	0(0)
O	3(3)	3(3)	3(3)
P	3(3)	3(3)	3(3)
Q	3(3)	3(3)	3(3)
R (grandson of A and B)	3(3)	0(0)	0(0)
S (D's father)	0(15)	0(15)	10(10)

(i) The 10 persons (more or less) who own the greatest percentage of the fair market value of the outstanding stock on December 31, 1960 (as selected under paragraph (c) of this section), are A through N and S. Each of such persons is treated as a separate person in computing increases in percentage ownership.

(ii) A and B each owns, actually and constructively, 23 percent of the outstanding stock on December 31, 1960, 15 percent on January 1, 1960, and 15 percent on January 1, 1959. Therefore, as of December 31, 1960, A and B each has sustained an increase of 8 percentage points since January 1, 1960, and a similar increase since January 1, 1959. A's increase is not attributable to a purchase by him. B's increase, however, is attributable to a purchase by her of 10 percent of the outstanding stock. Therefore, B's increase of 8 percentage points is taken into account in determining whether a "change of ownership" has occurred.

(iii) C owns, actually and constructively, 25 percent of the outstanding stock on December 31, 1960, 25 percent on January 1, 1960, and none on January 1, 1959. Therefore, as of December 31, 1960, C has sustained no increase since January 1, 1960, but he has sustained an increase of 25 percentage points since January 1, 1959. Of this increase 10 percentage points are attributable to a purchase by C.

(iv) D owns, actually and constructively, 25 percent of the outstanding stock on December 31, 1960, 25 percent on January 1, 1960, and 10 percent on January 1, 1959. Therefore, as of December 31, 1960, D has sustained no increase since January 1, 1960, but she has sustained an increase of 15 percentage points since January, 1 1959. Of this increase 5 percentage points are attributable to a purchase by D.

(v) E and F each owns, actually and constructively, 20 percent of the outstanding stock on December 31, 1960, 20 percent on January 1, 1960, and none on January 1, 1959. Therefore, as of December 31, 1960, E and F each has sustained an increase of 20 percentage points since January 1, 1959, of which 5 percentage points in each case are attributable to a purchase.

(vi) G has sustained an increase of 10 percentage points since January 1, 1959, all of which are attributable to a purchase by G.

(vii) H, I, J, and K each has sustained an increase of 5 percentage points since January 1, 1960, and a similar increase since January 1, 1959, all of which are attributable to purchases.

(viii) L has sustained no increase in percentage points.

(ix) M and N each has sustained an increase of 4 percentage points since January 1, 1960, and a similar increase since January 1, 1959, all of which are attributable to purchases.

(x) S has sustained an increase of 5 percentage points since January 1, 1959, but the increase is not attributable to a purchase by S.

(xi) The aggregate increase in percentage ownership (attributable to purchases) since January 1, 1960, is 36 percentage points (8 points from B, 5 each from H, I, J, and K, and 4 each from M and N).

(xii) Since an aggregate increase (attributable to transactions described in paragraph (e)) in stock ownership of at least 50 percentage points has not occurred since January 1, 1960, the beginning of the taxable year, it is necessary to determine whether such an increase has occurred since January 1, 1959, the beginning of the prior taxable year. The aggregate increase in percentage ownership (attributable to purchases) since January 1, 1959, is 71 percentage points (8 from B, 10 each from C and G, 5 each from D, E, F, H, I, J, and K, and 4 each from M and N). Therefore, section 382(a) applies as of December 31, 1960, to eliminate any net operating loss carryovers from 1959 and earlier taxable years to 1960 and subsequent taxable years.

Example (2). Assume that a loss corporation has changed its trade or business during the current taxable year ending on December 31, 1960. Assume further that the following table shows the percentage of the fair market value of the outstanding stock owned by each stockholder as of December 31, 1960, and the percentages owned by such stockholders as of January 1, 1960. The percentage of stock actually owned is followed in parentheses by the percentage owned actually and constructively under section 318(a). It is assumed that all increases in actual ownership are attributable to a purchase or purchases of stock described in paragraph (e) of this section.

Stockholder	Dec. 31, 1960	Jan. 1, 1960
	Percent	Percent
Partnership AB	20(100)	0(40)
A (a 50-percent partner in AB)	40(70)	40(40)
B (a 50-percent partner in AB)	30(70)	0(20)
C (B's wife)	10(70)	0(20)

(i) Since there are less than 10 stockholders as of December 31, 1960, all of such stockholders are included among the persons who own the greatest percentage of stock.

(ii) Since partnership AB owns, actually and constructively, 100 percent of the outstanding stock on December 31, 1960, and 40 percent on January 1, 1960, AB has sustained an increase of 60 percentage points. Of this increase 20 percentage points are attributable to a purchase by AB.

(iii) A has sustained an increase of 30 percentage points, but none of such increase is attributable to a purchase by A.

(iv) B has sustained an increase of 50 percentage points, of which 30 are attributable to a purchase by B.

(v) C has sustained an increase of 50 percentage points, of which 10 are attributable to a purchase by C.

(vi) Since there has been an aggregate increase (attributable to transactions described in paragraph (e) of this section) of 60 percentage points since January 1, 1960, section 382(a) applies as of December 31, 1960, to eliminate any net operating loss carryovers from 1959 and earlier taxable years to 1960 and subsequent taxable years.

Example (3). (i) Assume that on June 15, 1959, A, an individual, purchases (within the meaning of section 382(a)(4) and paragraph (e) of this section) 100 percent of the outstanding stock of X Corporation, a loss corporation which makes its return on the basis of the calendar year. On June 30, 1959, A transfers such stock to Y Corporation, the entire outstanding stock of which is owned by A. During September 1959, the business of X Corporation is changed.

(ii) Since, as of December 31, 1959, A is considered under section 318(a) as owning 100 percent of the outstanding stock of X Corporation and he owned none of such stock on January 1, 1959, and since A's increase in percentage points is attributable to a purchase of such stock by him, section 382(a) applies as of December 31, 1959, to eliminate any net operating loss carryovers from 1958 and earlier taxable years to 1959 and subsequent taxable years.

(e) Meaning of "purchase". (1) In determining whether a "change of ownership" has occurred, an increase in stock ownership which is attributable to an acquisition of stock by the person sustaining the increase (whether the stock acquired is stock of the loss corporation or of a corporation owning stock in the loss corporation) shall be taken into account only if such increase is attributable to a purchase (or purchases) by such person, as defined in section 382(a)(4) and this paragraph. There is a "purchase" of stock only if—

(i) The basis of such stock is determined solely by reference to its cost to the acquirer thereof, and

(ii) Immediately before its acquisition the ownership of such stock would not be attributed to the acquirer by application of the constructive ownership rule of paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

For purposes of subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, if the basis of the stock is determined by reference to its basis in the hands of the transferor thereof or of another person, or by reference to the basis of property (other than cash or its equivalent) exchanged for such stock, then the basis of such stock is not determined solely by reference to its cost to the acquirer. Thus, an acquisition of stock by gift or bequest is not a purchase. However, if stock is received in a taxable exchange, its basis is considered to be determined solely by reference to its cost to the acquirer. Thus, if A owns a house which he exchanges for stock in a loss corporation, the basis of the stock is determined solely by reference to its cost to A. For purposes of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, if, immediately before any acquisition of stock, the acquirer would be considered under the constructive ownership rule of paragraph (a)(2) of this section as owning less than 100 percent of the stock owned by the transferor, then the acquirer shall be considered as owning, immediately before such acquisition, only that proportion of the stock so acquired as is equal to the proportion of the total stock owned by the transferor which the acquirer would be so considered as owning at such time. Thus, if A acquires stock from B, his wife, A has not made a "purchase" because all the stock so acquired would be considered as owned by A immediately before the acquisition. However, if C and D (who are otherwise unrelated) are equal partners in a partnership and if C acquires 50 shares of stock from D, only 25 of such shares will be considered as owned by C immediately before the acquisition.

(2) If a person acquires stock with a view to invoking the constructive ownership rule of paragraph (a)(2) of this section so that a later acquisition of stock by, or from, such person will not qualify as a "purchase" under section 382(a)(4), the earlier acquisition will be disregarded solely for the purpose of determining whether the later acquisition is a "purchase." Moreover, in determining whether an acquisition of stock is a "purchase" under section 382(a)(4), negligible holdings of stock or of an interest in a partnership or trust will be disregarded. This subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. A owns all or part of the outstanding stock of X Corporation, a loss corporation. A desires to sell his stock to Y Corporation and Y Corporation desires to purchase such stock. However, Y Corporation wishes to avoid the provisions of section 382(a). Therefore, A buys stock of Y Corporation and thereafter Y Corporation acquires for cash all or part of A's stock in X Corporation. Since the purpose of A's acquisition of stock in Y Corporation is avoidance of the provisions of section 382(a), such acquisition is ignored and Y Corporation's acquisition from A of stock in X Corporation is considered a "purchase" under section 382(a)(4).

(f) Increase in percentage points attributable to an indirect purchase of stock. (1) An increase in percentage points may be attributable to a purchase of stock of a corporation which owns stock of the loss corporation. For example, if X Corporation owns 100 shares of stock of Y Corporation and if A purchases 20 percent in value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation, this will be considered a purchase by A of 20 shares of stock of Y Corporation.

(2) An increase in percentage points may also be attributable to a purchase of an interest in a partnership or trust which owns stock of the loss corporation. For example, if a partnership owns 100 shares of the stock of Y Corporation, a purchase by A of a 20-percent interest in the partnership will be considered a purchase by A of 20 shares of the stock of Y Corporation. Similarly, if a trust owns 100 shares of stock of a loss corporation, and if A purchases an interest in the trust which on an actuarial basis is worth 20 percent, this will be considered a purchase by A of 20 shares of stock of the loss corporation.

(g) Increase in percentage points attributable to a decrease in outstanding stock. (1) An increase in percentage points may be attributable to a decrease in the amount of outstanding stock of a loss corporation. For example, if A and B each owns 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation, a redemption by X Corporation of all of B's stock will increase A's ownership of stock by 50 percentage points.

(2) An increase in percentage points may also be attributable to a decrease in the outstanding stock of a corporation owning, directly or indirectly, stock in the loss corporation. For example, if X Corporation owns 100 percent of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation, a loss corporation, and if A and B each owns 50 percent of the value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation, a redemption by X Corporation of all of B's stock will increase A's indirect ownership of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation by 50 percentage points.

(3) If a decrease in the amount of outstanding stock of a corporation (whether a loss corporation or a corporation owning, directly or indirectly, stock in a loss corporation) results from a redemption to pay death taxes to which section 303 applies, such decrease shall not be taken into account in determining whether there has occurred an increase of at least 50 percentage points under paragraph (d) of this section. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a decrease in outstanding stock results from a redemption to which section 303 applies only to the extent that the amount distributed in redemption does not exceed the sum of the items described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 303(a). Thus, if the amount of $100,000 is distributed in redemption of 100 shares and if the sum of the items described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 303(a) is $60,000, a decrease in outstanding stock of only 60 shares will be considered to result from a redemption to which section 303 applies.

(h) Change in trade or business. (1) The provisions of section 382(a) are applicable only if the loss corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before any increase in stock ownership which is taken into account in determining under paragraph (d) of this section whether a change of ownership has occurred. The change in trade or business may occur at any time on or after the date of the earliest such increase during the period beginning on the first day of the loss corporation's prior taxable year. For example, assume that on December 31, 1958 (the end of the corporation's taxable year), the following shareholders own a percentage of the fair market value of the outstanding stock which is greater than each owned at the beginning of the corporation's prior taxable year (January 1, 1957) and that all increases are attributable to purchases within the meaning of paragraph (e) of this section. The increase in percentage points and the date of purchase is shown for each such shareholder:

Shareholder	Increase	Date of purchase
	Percent
A	20	Sept. 15, 1958
B	20	June 15, 1958
C	10	Mar. 15, 1958
D	10	June 15, 1957

Since there have been increases in stock ownership which aggregate at least 50 percentage points, section 382(a) is applicable if the corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted immediately before June 15, 1957, the date on which the first purchase occurred during the 2-year period.

(2) Section 382(a) may apply as of the close of a taxable year even though neither a change of ownership nor a change in trade or business has occurred during such year. For example, if during 1958 there is a purchase of at least 50 percent of the fair market value of a corporation's outstanding stock followed by a change in the corporation's trade or business, section 382(a) will apply as of December 31, 1958, to eliminate any net operating loss carryovers from 1957 and prior taxable years to 1958 and subsequent taxable years, and, even though no changes in stock ownership occur during 1959, section 382(a) will also apply as of December 31, 1959, to eliminate any net operating loss carryover from 1958 to 1959 and subsequent taxable years.

(3) A change in the trade or business of a corporation made in contemplation of a change in stock ownership will be treated as if such change in trade or business had occurred after such change in stock ownership. For example, if a loss corporation changes its business as part of a plan initiated by, or on behalf of, prospective buyers of the loss corporation's stock who wish to avoid the provisions of section 382(a), a subsequent sale of stock to such buyers will cause the change in business to be treated as if it had occurred after the sale.

(4) For purposes of this paragraph, the holding, purchase, or sale for investment purposes of stock, securities, or similar property shall not be considered a trade or business unless such activities historically have constituted the primary activities of the corporation.

(5) In determining whether a corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before any increase in the ownership of its stock, all the facts and circumstances of the particular case shall be taken into account. Among the relevant factors to be taken into account are changes in the corporation's employees, plant, equipment, product, location, customers, and other items which are significant in determining whether there is, or is not, a continuity of the same business enterprise. These factors shall be evaluated in the light of the general objective of section 382(a) to disallow net operating loss carryovers where there is a purchase of the stock of a corporation with losses for the purpose of using its loss carryovers to offset gains of a business unrelated to that which produced the losses. However, the prohibited utilization of net operating loss carryovers to offset gains of a business unrelated to that which produced the losses is not dependent upon considerations of purpose, motive, or intent, but rather is established by the objective facts of the particular case. The principles set forth in this subparagraph shall be applied in accordance with the rules set forth in the following subparagraphs of this paragraph.

(6) A corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before any increase in the ownership of its stock if the corporation is not carrying on an active trade or business at the time of such increase in ownership. Thus, if the corporation is inactive at the time of such an increase and subsequently is reactivated in the same line of business as that originally conducted, the corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before such increase in stock ownership. This subparagraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). X Corporation is engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling machinery. On January 1, 1958, the corporation suspends its manufacturing activities and begins to reduce its inventory of finished products because of general adverse business conditions and lack of profits. During the period between January 1 and September 1, 1958, the business of the corporation remains dormant. On September 1, 1958, A, an individual, purchases at least 50 percent in value of X Corporation's outstanding stock. On October 1, 1958, the corporation begins to manufacture the same type of machinery it manufactured before January 1, 1958. The reactivation of the corporation in the same line of business as that conducted before January 1, 1958, does not constitute the carrying on of a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before the increase in stock ownership.

Example (2). Y Corporation is engaged in the business of manufacturing machinery. On January 1, 1958, the corporation suspends its manufacturing activities because of a fire which disrupts the operation of its plant. During the period between January 1 and June 1, 1958, substantial efforts are made to reactivate the business of the corporation by reconstructing the damaged plant. On June 1, 1958, A, an individual, purchases at least 50 percent in value of Y Corporation's outstanding stock. On July 1, 1958, the corporation resumes its normal manufacturing activities. The fact that the corporation's normal activities are temporarily suspended at the time of the increase in ownership does not of itself constitute a failure to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before the increase in stock ownership.

(7) A corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before an increase in the ownership of its stock if the corporation discontinues more than a minor portion of its business carried on before such increase. In determining whether the discontinued activities are more than "minor" for purposes of the preceding sentence, consideration shall be given to whether the discontinuance of the activities has the effect of utilizing loss carryovers to offset gains of a business unrelated to that which produced the losses. This subparagraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). X Corporation, a calendar-year taxpayer, is engaged in three separate businesses, A, B, and C. Approximately one-half of X Corporation's total business activities (measured in terms of capital invested, gross income, size of payroll, and similar factors) relates to business A, 30 percent to business B, and the remaining 20 percent to business C. On December 31, 1957, X Corporation has substantial net operating loss carryovers all of which are attributable to the operation of business C. On June 1, 1958, Y Corporation purchases at least 50 percent in value of X Corporation's outstanding stock and during 1959 X Corporation discontinues business C. As of December 31, 1959, X Corporation has not continued to carry on substantially the same trade or business as that conducted prior to the increase in ownership.

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that all of X Corporation's net operating loss carryovers are attributable to business A and that the capital released by the discontinuance of business C is used to revitalize business A. Since the discontinuance of business C does not result in the utilization of net operating losses attributable to one business to offset gains of a business unrelated to that which produced the losses, the discontinuance of such business does not of itself constitute the failure to carry on substantially the same trade or business as that conducted prior to the increase in ownership.

(8) If, after an increase in ownership, the corporation continues to carry on its prior business activities undiminished, the addition by the corporation of a new trade or business does not constitute a failure to carry on substantially the same trade or business. This subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. X Corporation, a calendar-year taxpayer, is engaged in the manufacture and sale of electrical appliances and has sustained substantial net operating losses. On June 30, 1958, Y Corporation purchases 100 percent of X Corporation's outstanding stock. During 1959, X Corporation continues undiminished its activities in the manufacture and sale of electrical appliances and also diversifies its activities by acquiring a cement manufacturing plant. The addition of the cement manufacturing business by X Corporation does not of itself constitute a failure to carry on substantially the same trade or business even though net operating loss carryovers attributable to the electrical appliance business are used to offset profits of the cement manufacturing business. See, however, section 269 and the regulations thereunder.

(9) A corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before any increase in the ownership of its stock if the corporation changes the location of a major portion of its activities and as a result of such change in location the business of the corporation is substantially altered. This subparagraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). X Corporation, a calendar-year taxpayer, is engaged in the business of manufacturing in State A and has sustained substantial net operating losses. On June 30, 1958, Y Corporation purchases all of X Corporation's outstanding stock. During 1959, X Corporation transfers its operations to State B which is several hundred miles distant from State A. In order to effect the change in location, X Corporation disposes of its plant and a large portion of its machinery located in State A. The distance between State A and State B makes it necessary for the majority of the employees of X Corporation to terminate their employment with X Corporation. During 1959, X Corporation resumes its manufacturing activities in State B and continues to make the same product and to serve substantially the same group of customers. However, by reason of the changes in location, employees, plant, and equipment, X Corporation, on December 31, 1959, is not carrying on substantially the same trade or business as that conducted prior to the increase in ownership.

Example (2). Y Corporation, a calendar-year taxpayer, is engaged in the operation of a department store in city A. On June 30, 1958, Z Corporation purchases all of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation. During 1959, Y Corporation transfers its operations to town B, a suburb of city A. By reason of the change in location, Y Corporation disposes of its interest in the building formerly occupied by it in city A and also substitutes new equipment for a major portion of the equipment formerly utilized by it in city A. After the change in location, Y Corporation continues to sell substantially the same products to substantially the same customers and retains substantially all of the employees formerly employed in city A. Under such circumstances, the change of location does not result in a failure to carry on substantially the same trade or business as that conducted before the increase in ownership.

Example (3). Z Corporation, a calendar-year taxpayer, operates a retail liquor store in town M, utilizing the services of 10 employees. On June 30, 1958, individual A purchases all of the stock of Z Corporation. During 1959, Z Corporation transfers its operations to town O, a distance of 5 miles from its former location. By reason of the change in location, Z Corporation disposes of its interest in the premises formerly occupied by it and also disposes of the license and franchise issued by town M. During 1959, Z Corporation transfers its inventory of liquor to its new location and resumes its retail liquor activities under a license and franchise issued by town O. Z Corporation continues to employ 5 of the 10 employees formerly employed in town M, but the corporation serves a substantially different group of customers. Under these circumstances, the change of location results in a failure to carry on substantially the same trade or business as that conducted before the increase in ownership.

(10) A corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before any increase in the ownership of its stock if the corporation is primarily engaged in the rendition of services by a particular individual or individuals and, after the increase in ownership, the corporation is primarily engaged in the rendition of services by different individuals. This subparagraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). X Corporation, a calendar-year taxpayer, is engaged in the business of selling real estate and insurance primarily through the services of individual A as broker. On June 30, 1958, individual B purchases all of the stock of X Corporation, and individual A retires from the business. During the latter part of 1958, X Corporation is engaged primarily in rendering the brokerage services of individual B in the sale of insurance and real estate. On December 31, 1958, the corporation has not continued to carry on a trade or business substantially the same as that conducted before the increase in ownership.

Example (2). Y Corporation, a calendar-year taxpayer, is engaged in the business of operating a beauty salon with 10 employees under the supervision of individual A, who owns all of the stock of Y Corporation and who is held out to the public as the corporation's principal beauty consultant. However, the quality of the services rendered by each of the 10 employees is primarily responsible for attracting the corporation's clientele. On June 30, 1958, individual B purchases all of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation and individual A retires from the business. During 1959, Y Corporation continues to operate the beauty salon in the same location and continues to serve substantially the same group of customers with substantially the same employees under the supervision of individual B, who is held out to the public as the corporation's principal beauty consultant. On December 31, 1959, Y Corporation has continued to carry on substantially the same trade or business as that conducted before the increase in ownership.

§ 1.382(b) Statutory provisions; special limitations on net operating loss carryovers; change of ownership as the result of a reorganization.

SEC. 382. Special limitations on net operating loss carryovers. • • •

(b) Change of ownership as the result of a reorganization—(1) In general. If, in the case of a reorganization specified in paragraph (2) of section 381(a), the transferor corporation or the acquiring corporation—

(A) Has a net operating loss which is a net operating loss carryover to the first taxable year of the acquiring corporation ending after the date of transfer, and

(B) The stockholders (immediately before the reorganization) of such corporation (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the "loss corporation"), as the result of owning stock of the loss corporation, own (immediately after the reorganization) less than 20 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of the acquiring corporation, the total net operating loss carryover from prior taxable years of the loss corporation to the first taxable year of the acquiring corporation ending after the date of transfer shall be reduced by the percentage determined under paragraph (2).

(2) Reduction of net operating loss carryover. The reduction applicable under paragraph (1) shall be the percentage determined by substracting from 100 percent—

(A) The percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of the acquiring corporation owned (immediately after the reorganization) by the stockholders (immediately before the reorganization) of the loss corporation, as the result of owning stock of the loss corporation, multiplied by

(B) Five.

(3) Exception to limitation in this subsection. The limitation in this subsection shall not apply if the transferor corporation and the acquiring corporation are owned substantially by the same persons in the same proportion.

(4) Net operating loss carryovers to subsequent years. In computing the net operating loss carryovers to taxable years subsequent to a taxable year in which there was a limitation applicable to a net operating loss carryover by operation of this subsection, the income in such taxable year, as computed under section 172(b)(2), shall be increased by the amount of the reduction of the total net operating loss carryover determined under paragraph (2).

(5) Attribution of ownership. If the transferor corporation or the acquiring corporation owns (immediately before the reorganization) any of the outstanding stock of the loss corporation, such transferor corporation or acquiring corporation shall, for purposes of this subsection, be treated as owning (immediately after the reorganization) a percentage of the fair market value of the acquiring corporation's outstanding stock which bears the same ratio to the percentage of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of the loss corporation (immediately before the reorganization) owned by such transferor corporation or acquiring corporation as the fair market value of the total outstanding stock of the loss corporation (immediately before the reorganization) bears to the fair market value of the total outstanding stock of the acquiring corporation (immediately after the reorganization).

(6) Stock of corporation controlling acquiring corporation. If the stockholders of the loss corporation (immediately before the reorganization) own, as a result of the reorganization, stock in a corporation controlling the acquiring corporation, such stock of the controlling corporation shall, for purposes of this subsection, be treated as stock of the acquiring corporation in an amount valued at an equivalent fair market value.

§ 1.382(b)-1 Change of ownership as the result of a reorganization.

(a) In general. (1) Section 382(b)(1) provides that if, in the case of a reorganization described in section 381(a)(2), either the transferor corporation or the acquiring corporation has a net operating loss carryover which is a carryover to the first taxable year of the acquiring corporation ending after the date of transfer, the amount of such carryover which may be used by the acquiring corporation is reduced unless the stockholders (immediately before the reorganization) of the corporation possessing the carryover (hereinafter called the "loss corporation") own, immediately after the reorganization, at least 20 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of the acquiring corporation. See paragraph (b) of § 1.381(b)-1 for determination of the date of transfer, and paragraph (b) of this section for computation of the amount of the reduction.

(2) The ownership of at least 20 percent of the fair market value of the stock of the acquiring corporation after the reorganization must result from the ownership of stock in the loss corporation immediately before the reorganization. Thus, if stockholders of a transferor-loss corporation before the reorganization also own stock of the acquiring corporation at such time, such stock of the acquiring corporation is not considered as owned after the reorganization by such stockholders as a result of owning stock in the loss corporation in determining whether the 20-percent requirement is satisfied. Moreover, the stockholders (immediately before the reorganization) of a transferor-loss corporation shall not be regarded as owning, immediately after the reorganization, any stock of the acquiring corporation which is not distributed to such stockholders pursuant to the plan of reorganization.

(3) If the net operating loss carryovers of a loss corporation are reduced under section 382(b)(1), then in computing the net operating loss deduction of the acquiring corporation for its first taxable year ending after the date of transfer, that portion of such deduction which is attributable to the net operating loss carryovers of the loss corporation is limited to the amount of such carryovers minus the reduction. Thus, if the net operating loss carryovers of the loss corporation are $100,000 and if the amount of the reduction is $60,000, only $40,000 of such carryovers may be used by the acquiring corporation in computing its net operating loss deduction under section 172(a) for its first taxable year ending after the date of transfer. The reduction provided in section 382(b)(1) is applied to the aggregate of the allowable net operating loss carryovers of the loss corporation without regard to the taxable years in which the net operating losses were sustained.

(4) See paragraph (e) of this section for the effect of the reduction in subsequent taxable years of the acquiring corporation.

(5) The reduction provided by section 382(b)(1) may apply to the carryovers of more than one corporation a party to the reorganization. For example, assume that X Corporation acquires the assets of Y Corporation and of Z Corporation in a reorganization described in section 381(a)(2) and that both X Corporation and Y Corporation have net operating loss carryovers at the date of the reorganization. The reduction under section 382(b)(1) will apply to the net operating loss carryovers of X Corporation unless the stockholders (immediately before the reorganization) of X Corporation own, immediately after the reorganization, at least 20 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation. Similarly, the reduction under section 382(b)(1) will apply to the net operating loss carryovers from Y Corporation unless the stockholders (immediately before the reorganization) of Y Corporation own, immediately after the reorganization, at least 20 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation.

(6) Section 382(b) applies only with respect to those reorganizations described in section 381(a)(2). However, a series of transactions which purport to be a reorganization qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(B) followed by a liquidation qualifying under section 332, but which in substance comprise a reorganization qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(C), will be considered as a reorganization of the last-described type for purposes of section 382(b) and this section.

(7) See § 1.382(c)-1 for definition of the term "stock" as used in this section.

(b) Amount of reduction. (1) The amount of the reduction provided in section 382(b)(1) shall be determined as follows:

(i) Determine the percentage of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of the acquiring corporation owned, immediately after the reorganization, by the stockholders (immediately before the reorganization) of the loss corporation, which is attributable to their ownership of stock in the loss corporation immediately before the reorganization.

(ii) If the percentage determined under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph is less than 20 percent, compute the difference between such percentage and 20 percent, and multiply such difference by five. The resulting product is the percentage by which the net operating loss carryovers are reduced.

(2) Subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. Assume that X Corporation acquires the assets of Y Corporation, a loss corporation, in a reorganization described in section 381(a)(2), and that immediately after the reorganization the former stockholders of Y Corporation, as the result of owning stock of Y Corporation, own 8 percent of the fair market value of X Corporation's outstanding stock. The difference between 8 percent and 20 percent is 12 percent, which when multiplied by five produces 60 percent. Therefore, the amount of the reduction is equal to 60 percent of the net operating loss carryovers from the loss corporation, so that if the net operating loss carryovers from Y Corporation amounted to $100,000, the amount of the reduction would be $60,000.

(c) Acquisitions designed to avoid section 382(b). The purpose of the 20-percent requirement of section 382(b)(1) is to ensure that the net operating loss carryovers from a corporation a party to a reorganization will be allowed in full only when the shareholders of the loss corporation have a substantial continuing interest in the acquiring corporation, thereby ensuring that the carryovers will be utilized to some extent for the benefit of those persons who were owners of the loss corporation before the reorganization. Therefore, in applying section 382(b)(1), any acquisition of stock of a loss corporation will be disregarded if made for the purpose of avoiding the 20-percent continuity of interest requirement. Moreover, two or more successive reorganizations will be treated as if they had occurred simultaneously in cases where they are undertaken with a view to avoiding the 20-percent continuity requirement. These rules may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Assume that X Corporation desires to merge into Y Corporation, a loss corporation, in a reorganization. A and B, who are the controlling stockholders of X Corporation, with a view to avoiding the 20-percent continuity of interest requirement of section 382(b)(1), acquire for cash 40 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation (or acquire an option to purchase such stock, which option they exercise shortly after the merger). Thereafter, Y Corporation acquires the assets of X Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies. In determining whether the 20-percent continuity requirement is satisfied (and, if not, the amount of the reduction under section 382(b)(2)), the stock of Y Corporation purchased by A and B (or acquired upon their exercise of the option) will be considered as outstanding immediately after the reorganization but will not be considered as owned by persons who were stockholders of Y Corporation immediately before the reorganization.

Example (2). Assume that X Corporation, which has a net worth of $2,000,000, desires to acquire the assets of Y Corporation, a loss corporation, which has a net worth of $100,000. X Corporation also desires to acquire the assets of Z Corporation, which has a net worth of $400,000. With a view to avoiding the 20-percent continuity requirement, Z Corporation acquires the assets of Y Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies. Immediately after the reorganization, the former stockholders of Y Corporation own 20 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of Z Corporation. Shortly thereafter, X Corporation acquires the assets of Z Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies. Immediately after the reorganization, the former stockholders of Y Corporation own 4 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation. Under these circumstances, the application of section 382(b)(1) to the net operating loss carryovers of Y Corporation shall be determined by reference to the fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation owned, immediately after the successive reorganizations, by the stockholders (immediately before the successive reorganizations) of Y Corporation. Therefore, the net operating loss carryovers from Y Corporation will be reduced by 80 percent.

(d) Exception to application of section 382(b). (1) Section 382(b)(3) provides an exception to the application of the reduction provided in section 382(b)(1). Under this exception there is no reduction if, immediately before the reorganization, the transferor corporation and the acquiring corporation are owned substantially by the same persons in the same proportion. If the acquiring corporation is not in existence immediately before the reorganization (as in the case of a statutory consolidation), the requirements of section 382(b)(3) are not met unless the transferor corporations immediately before the reorganization are owned substantially by the same persons in the same proportion.

(2) The transferor corporation and the acquiring corporation will be considered as owned substantially by the same persons in the same proportion only if the same persons own substantially all the stock of the corporations in substantially the same proportion. This rule may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A and B each owns 50 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation. A owns 52 percent and B owns 48 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation. Y Corporation acquires the assets of X Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies. The exception provided in section 382(b)(3) is applicable.

Example (2). A and B each owns 50 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation. A owns 60 percent and B owns 40 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation. Y Corporation acquires the assets of X Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies. The exception provided in section 382(b)(3) is not applicable.

Example (3). A and B each owns 48 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation and of Y Corporation. C owns the remaining 4 percent of X Corporation and D owns the remaining 4 percent of Y Corporation. Y Corporation acquires the assets of X Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies. The exception provided in section 382(b)(3) is applicable.

Example (4). A and B each owns 40 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation and of Y Corporation. C owns the remaining 20 percent of X Corporation and D owns the remaining 20 percent of Y Corporation. Y Corporation acquires the assets of X Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies. The exception provided in section 382(b)(3) is not applicable.

(3) The exception provided in section 382(b)(3) is not applicable in any case in which stock of the transferor or acquiring corporation is acquired or disposed of for the purpose of meeting the requirements of section 382(b)(3). For example, section 382(b)(3) is not applicable if A, owning 100 percent of the outstanding stock of X Corporation and 75 percent of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation, a loss corporation, acquires the remaining 25 percent of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation with a view to merging the two corporations.

(e) Carryovers to subsequent years. (1) The reduction provided in section 382(b)(1) applies only to net operating loss carryovers to the first taxable year of the acquiring corporation ending after the date of transfer. However, section 382(b)(4) contains a rule to ensure that the portion of the carryovers equal to the amount of the reduction will not be available for deduction in subsequent taxable years of the acquiring corporation. This rule provides that if a reduction is applicable under section 382(b)(1), then in computing net operating loss carryovers from taxable years of the transferor and acquiring corporations ending on or before the date of transfer to taxable years of the acquiring corporation subsequent to the first taxable year ending after the date of transfer, the income of the acquiring corporation for such first taxable year, as computed under section 172(b)(2) (without regard to the fact that the deduction under section 172(a) is reduced by the amount computed under section 382(b)(2)), shall be increased by the amount of the reduction computed under section 382(b)(2) for that year. The preceding rule may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. X Corporation and Y Corporation are organized on January 1, 1957, and each makes its return on the basis of the calendar year. On December 31, 1958, Y Corporation acquires the assets of X Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies. Immediately after the reorganization, those persons who were stockholders of X Corporation immediately before the reorganization own 10 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation. The net operating losses and the taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) of the two corporations are as follows:

Year:	X Corporation (transferor)	Y Corporation (acquirer)
1957	($5,000)	($5,000)
1958	(15,000)	(1,000)
1959		5,000

The computation of the carryovers to Y Corporation's calendar year 1960 may be illustrated as follows:

(i) X Corporation's 1957 loss. The carryover to 1960 is $0, computed as follows:

Net operating loss	$5,000

Less:
X's 1958 taxable income		$0
Y's 1959 taxable income before adjustment under section 382(b)(4)	$5,000
Plus amount of reduction computed under section 382(b)(2) (50% of $20,000)	10,000
		15,000
			$15,000
Carryover to 1960			0

(ii) Y Corporation's 1957 loss. The carryover to 1960 is $0, computed as follows:

Net operating loss			$5,000
Less:
Y's 1958 taxable income		$0
Y's 1959 taxable income before net operating loss deduction and adjustment under section 382(b)(4)	$5,000
Minus Y's 1959 net operating loss deduction (i.e., X's 1957 carryover)	5,000
Plus amount of reduction under section 382(b)(2)	10,000
		10,000
			10,000
Carryover to 1960			0

(iii) X Corporation's 1958 loss. The carryover to 1960 is $10,000, computed as follows:

Net operating loss			$15,000
Less:
X's 1957 taxable income		$0
Y's 1959 taxable income before net operating loss deduction and adjustment under section 382(b)(4)	$5,000
Minus Y's 1959 net operating loss deduction (i.e., X's 1957 carryover of $5,000 and Y's 1957 carryover of $5,000)	10,000
Plus amount of reduction under section 382(b)(2)	10,000
		5,000
			5,000
Carryover to 1960			10,000

(iv) Y Corporation's 1958 loss. The carryover to 1960 is $1,000, computed as follows:

Net operating loss			$1,000
Less:
Y's 1957 taxable income		$0
Y's 1959 taxable income before net operating loss deduction and adjustment under section 382(b)(4)	$5,000
Minus Y's 1959 net operating loss deduction (i.e., X's 1957 carryover of $5,000, Y's 1957 carryover of $5,000, and X's 1958 carryover of $15,000)	25,000
Plus amount of reduction under section 382(b)(2)	10,000
Carryover to 1960			1,000

(v) Summary of carryovers to 1960. The aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers to 1960 is $11,000, computed as follows:

X's 1958 loss	$10,000
Y's 1958 loss	1,000
Total	11,000

(2) If the date of transfer is on a day other than the last day of a taxable year of the acquiring corporation, and if the reduction provided in section 382(b)(1) applies to net operating loss carryovers of the transferor corporation, then for purposes of section 381(c)(1)(C), the adjustment provided in section 382(b)(4) shall be considered as an increase in income of the "postacquisition part year" and no portion of such adjustment shall be considered as an increase in income of the "preacquisition part year."

(f) Attribution of ownership. (1) Section 382(b)(5) provides a special rule for determining whether the reduction provided in section 382(b)(1) applies in cases where, immediately before the reorganization, either the transferor corporation or the acquiring corporation owns outstanding stock of the loss corporation. Under this rule, the transferor or acquiring corporation (whichever owns stock of the loss corporation) is treated as owning, immediately after the reorganization, a percentage, A, of the fair market value of the acquiring corporation's outstanding stock which bears the same ratio to B (the percentage of the fair market value of the stock of the loss corporation owned, immediately before the reorganization, by such transferor or acquiring corporation) as C (the fair market value of the outstanding stock of the loss corporation immediately before the reorganization) bears to D (the fair market value of the outstanding stock of the acquiring corporation immediately after the reorganization). Stated algebraically, the percentage of the fair market value of the acquiring corporation's outstanding stock treated as owned by the transferor or acquiring corporation immediately after the reorganization, A, equals—

$$\frac{\text{Value of stock of loss corporation immediately before reorganization (C)}}{\text{Value of stock of acquiring corporation immediately after reorganization (D)}} \times \text{Percentage of stock of loss corporation owned by transferor or acquiring corporation immediately before reorganization (B)}$$

The preceding rule may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). Assume that X Corporation owns 25 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation, a loss corporation; that X Corporation acquires the assets of Y Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies; that immediately before the reorganization the total outstanding stock of Y Corporation has a fair market value of $10,000; and that immediately after the reorganization the total outstanding stock of X Corporation has a fair market value of $50,000. For the purpose of determining whether the reduction provided in section 382(b)(1) is applicable (and, if so, the amount of the reduction computed under section 382(b)(2)), X Corporation is treated as owning (immediately after the reorganization) 5 percent of the fair market value of its outstanding stock, determined as follows.

$$\frac{$10,000\ (C)}{$50,000\ (D)} \times 25\%\ (B) = 5\%\ (A)$$

Thus, if the other former stockholders of Y Corporation own, after the reorganization, at least 15 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation as the result of owning stock in Y Corporation, there will be no reduction under section 382(b)(1).

Example (2). Assume the same facts as in example (1), except that Y Corporation acquires the assets of X Corporation in a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies and that immediately after the reorganization the total outstanding stock of Y Corporation has a fair market value of $50,000. The result is the same as that in example (1). X Corporation is treated as owning (immediately after the reorganization) 5 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation. Thus, there will be no reduction under section 382(b)(1) if those persons (other than X Corporation) who were stockholders of Y Corporation immediately before the reorganization own at least 15 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of Y Corporation immediately after the reorganization.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (5) of section 382(b) do not apply with respect to an interest in a loss corporation which is acquired for the purpose of avoiding the 20-percent continuity of interest requirement of section 382(b)(1). Thus, paragraph (5) of section 382(b) does not apply with respect to stock of a loss corporation which is acquired by another corporation with a view to causing a merger of the two corporations. For example, if X Corporation owns 15 percent of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of Y corporation, a loss corporation, and if X Corporation purchases an additional 15 percent with a view to causing a merger of the two corporations, paragraph (5) of section 382(b) applies only with respect to the stock previously held by X Corporation and not to the stock so purchased.

(g) Stock of corporation controlling acquiring corporation. (1) Section 382(b)(6) provides a special rule for determining whether the reduction provided in section 382(b)(1) applies in cases where the transferor corporation is a loss corporation and the former stockholders of the loss corporation own, as a result of the reorganization, stock in a corporation which controls (within the meaning of section 368(c)) the acquiring corporation. In such cases, the former stockholders of the loss corporation are treated as owning, after the reorganization, stock of the acquiring corporation equal in value to the fair market value of their stock in the controlling corporation. This rule may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. X Corporation owns 100 percent of the stock of Y Corporation. In a reorganization to which section 381(a) applies, Y Corporation acquires the assets of Z Corporation, a loss corporation, in exchange for stock of X Corporation. Immediately after the reorganization the total outstanding stock of Y Corporation has a fair market value of $50,000, and the stockholders (immediately before the reorganization) of the loss corporation own, as a result of the reorganization, stock of X Corporation having a fair market value of $20,000. For the purpose of determining whether the reduction provided in section 382(b)(1) is applicable (and, if so, the amount of the reduction computed under section 382(b)(2)), the former stockholders of the loss corporation are treated as owning stock of Y Corporation worth $20,000 (the value of their stock in X Corporation), which is 40 percent ($20,000 divided by $50,000) of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of the acquiring corporation.

(2) The 20-percent continuity of interest requirement of section 382(b)(1) applies with respect to an interest in the corporation desiring to utilize the net operating loss carryovers from the loss corporation. Thus, the provisions of section 382(b)(6) and of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph apply only if, at the time of the reorganization, it is intended that the acquiring corporation itself, and not the corporation which controls the acquiring corporation, shall make use of the net operating loss carryovers from the loss corporation. Section 382(b)(6) and subparagraph (1) of this paragraph do not apply if the loss corporation is acquired by a controlled corporation with a view to the liquidation of the controlled corporation into its parent at a time when a substantial part of the net operating loss carryovers from the loss corporation remain to be utilized. (This requirement is satisfied in any case in which such action was contemplated at the time of the reorganization by those persons in a position to determine the policies of the controlled corporation.) In such case, it is the controlling corporation, instead of the controlled corporation, in which the former stockholders of the loss corporation must own a 20-percent interest. Thus, assume in the example appearing in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, that the total fair market value of the outstanding stock of X Corporation immediately after the reorganization is $200,000 and that X Corporation causes Y Corporation to be liquidated at a time when a substantial part of the loss carryovers from Z Corporation remain to be utilized. Under these circumstances, the former stockholders of the loss corporation would own after the reorganization only 10 percent ($20,000 divided by $200,000) of the fair market value of the outstanding stock of the controlling corporation and the net operating loss carryovers from Z Corporation to the first taxable year of Y Corporation ending after the date of transfer would accordingly be reduced by 50 percent.

§ 1.382(c) Statutory provisions; special limitations on net operating loss carryovers; definition of stock.

SEC. 382. Special limitations on net operating loss carryovers. * * *

(c) Definition of stock. For purposes of this section, "stock" means all shares except nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends.

§ 1.382(c)-1 Definition of stock.

Section 382(c) contains the definition of the term "stock" for purposes of section 382 (a) and (b). For these purposes, the term "stock" means all outstanding shares except nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends.

§ 1.394 Statutory provisions; effective date of part V, subchapter C, chapter 1 of the Code.

SEC. 394. Effective date of part V—(a) Section 381. Except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, section 381 shall apply to liquidations and reorganizations, the tax treatment of which is determined under this Code.

(b) Section 382(a). For purpose of applying the special limitation on net operating losa carryovers in section 382(a), the beginning of the taxable years specified in clauses (i) and (ii) of section 382(a)(1)(A) shall be considered to be the beginning of such taxable years or June 22, 1954, whichever occurs later.

(c) Section 382(b). Section 382(b) shall apply to reorganizations, the tax treatment of which is determined under this Code.

§ 1.394-1 Effective date of part V of subchapter C.

(a) Section 381. Section 394(a) provides that, except as otherwise provided in subchapter C, chapter 1 of the Code, section 381 shall apply to liquidations and reorganizations, the tax treatment of which is determined under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. For such liquidations, see section 392 and the regulations thereunder. For such reorganizations, see section 393 and the regulations thereunder.

(b) Section 382(a). Section 394(b) provides that for purposes of applying the special limitation on net operating loss carryovers contained in section 382(a), the beginning of the taxable years specified in clauses (i) and (ii) of section 382(a)(1)(A) shall be considered to be the beginning of such taxable years or June 22, 1954, whichever occurs later. Thus, if X Corporation made its returns for 1954 and 1955 on the basis of the calendar year, then in determining whether the limitation contained in section 382(a) applies as of December 31, 1954, the beginning of the taxable years specified in clauses (i) and (ii) of section 382(a)(1)(A) would be June 22, 1954, and in determining whether section 382(a) applies as of December 31, 1955, the beginning of the taxable year specified in clause (i) of section 382(a)(1)(A) would be January 1, 1955, and the beginning of the taxable year specified in clause (ii) of section 382(a)(1)(A) would be June 22, 1954.

(c) Section 382(b). Section 394(c) provides that section 382(b) shall apply to reorganizations, the tax treatment of which is determined under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. See section 393 and the regulations thereunder.

BEER

Concentration and Reconstitution

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. The regulations are proposed for consideration by reason of a petition for the issuance of regulations dealing with the subject of the proposals by the Union Carbide Corporation, New York, N.Y. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington 25, D.C., within the period of 90 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or prior to the termination of the public hearing scheduled herein, whichever is later. A public hearing on these proposed regulations will be held on Tuesday, March 21, 1961, at 10:00 a.m.; e.s.t., in Room 3313, Internal Revenue Building, Twelfth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C., at which time and place all interested parties will be afforded an opportunity to be heard, in person or by authorized representative, with reference to the proposals. Persons who plan to attend the hearing are requested to so notify the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: O:AT, Washington 25, D.C., by March 13, 1961. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

[SEAL] DANA LATHAM,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to provide by regulations for (1) the production in a brewery of a concentrate from beer by the removal of water, (2) the reconstitution of beer from such concentrate by brewers by the addition of water and carbon dioxide, (3) the qualification as breweries of plants concentrating or reconstituting beer, (4) the transfer of concentrate between breweries belonging to the same brewer, and (5) the exportation of the concentrate without payment of tax, the regulations in 26 CFR Part 245, "Beer", are amended by inserting the following subpart immediately after subpart AA:

Subpart BB—Concentration and Reconstitution of Beer

Sec.
245.235 General.
245.236 Application for approval of concentration process.
245.237 Conditions to use of concentration process.
245.238 Application for approval of reconstitution process.
245.239 Conditions to use of reconstitution process.
245.240 Consent of surety on bond of brewer concentrating beer.
245.241 Consent of surety on bond of brewer reconstituting beer.
245.242 Operations.
245.243 Transfers between breweries.
245.244 Exportation.
245.245 Records and reports.

§ 245.235 General.

The term "concentrate" as used in this subpart means a concentrate produced from beer by the removal of water therefrom. A brewer may, in accordance with the provisions of this subpart, produce concentrate, reconstitute beer from concentrate in the brewery, transfer such concentrate from the brewery to another brewery of the same ownership, and remove such concentrate from the brewery without payment of tax for exportation or for transfer to and deposit in foreign-trade zones for exportation or for storage pending exportation. Concentrate shall not be produced, or beer be reconstituted from concentrate, nor shall concentrate be removed from the brewery, except as provided in this subpart. The processes of concentration and reconstitution of beer, approved in accordance with the provisions of this subpart, are deemed to be authorized processes in the production of beer. Every person who produces concentrate, or who reconstitutes beer from concentrate, shall qualify as a brewer in accordance with the provisions of this part, and comply with all applicable provisions thereof. Beer reconstituted from concentrate in accordance with this subpart shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be treated the same as beer which has not been concentrated and reconstituted and all provisions of this chapter applicable to beer which has not been concentrated and reconstituted shall be applicable thereto. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 245.46, a brewer whose bond is or would be less than the maximum penal sum under that section and who commences or continues to concentrate beer under the provisions of this subpart shall have on file with the assistant regional commissioner a bond or bonds with a total penal sum equal to the amount computed under § 245.46 plus the amount of tax at the rate prescribed by law on beer produced and removed for consumption or sale, computed on the maximum quantity of beer to be used in the concentration of beer by him during any one calendar month, but not in excess of the maximum penal sum provided in § 245.46.

§ 245.236 Application for approval of concentration process.

A brewer intending to produce concentrate shall file with the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, through the assistant regional commissioner, an application on Form 3019, for approval of the process which he intends to use. The application shall describe the concentration process to be employed and the equipment to be used, state the degree to which the beer will be concentrated, and specify the premises where the concentrate will be reconstituted. A brewer shall not employ a concentration process until the application with respect thereto on Form 3019 has been approved by the Director. The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, may require a brewer to furnish with the application a flow diagram, drawing, or other accurate depiction of the process. The Director or the assistant regional commissioner may at any time require the brewer to submit such samples and additional information relating to the operation as he may consider necessary.

§ 245.237 Conditions to use of concentration process.

The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, shall not approve an application for concentration unless the brewer has filed with the assistant regional commissioner a consent of surety on his bond Form 1566 as provided in § 245.240. The process of concentration of beer shall not be used unless the beer on reconstitution will, without the addition of any substance other than carbon dioxide and water, possess substantially the taste, aroma, color, and other characteristics of such beer before concentration. Also, no process of concentration which separates alcoholic spirits from any fermented substance shall be employed in the brewery. Alcoholic spirits so separated or any concentrated fermented substance which on reconstitution solely with water and carbon dioxide will not possess the taste, aroma, color, and other characteristics of beer produced merely by natural fermentation, shall be classed and taxed as distilled spirits. Approval of any application to use any process of concentrating beer shall be conditioned on agreement by the brewer that the concentrate will not be removed from the brewery except as specifically authorized in this subpart and, except in the case of removal for exportation as provided in § 245.244, that the concentrate shall be reconstituted in accordance with the approved process for reconstitution applicable thereto. The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, may withdraw approval of a concentration process in any case where the brewer fails to comply with the provisions of this subpart.

(72 Stat. 1313; 26 U.S.C. 5002)

§ 245.238 Application for approval of reconstitution process.

A brewer intending to reconstitute beer from concentrate shall file with the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, through the assistant regional commissioner, an application on Form 3019, for approval of the process to be used in reconstitution at the brewery. The application shall describe the reconstitution process to be employed and the equipment to be used, and state the degree to which the beer will be reconstituted. The brewer shall state in the application the name and address of the brewery at which the concentrate to be used is to be produced. The brewer shall not employ the reconstitution process until the application with respect thereto on Form 3019 has been approved by the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division. The Director may require a brewer to furnish with the application a flow diagram, drawing, or other accurate depiction of the process. The Director or the assistant regional commissioner may at any time require the brewer to submit such samples and additional information relating to the operation as he may consider necessary.

§ 245.239 Conditions to use of reconstitution process.

The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, shall not approve an application for reconstitution unless the brewer has filed with the assistant regional commissioner a consent of surety on his bond Form 1566, as provided in § 245.241. The process of reconstitution of beer shall consist of the addition to concentrate of carbon dioxide, and of water only in the proportion set forth in the process approved under § 245.238. Sufficient water must be added to the concentrate to restore it to a volume not less than, and an alcoholic content not greater than, that of the beer used to produce the concentrate. Approval of any application to use any process of reconstituting beer shall be conditioned on agreement by the brewer that he will be responsible and accountable for all concentrate removed for transfer to him from the time of removal from the consignor brewery and that the concentrate will not be removed from his brewery except as specifically authorized in this subpart. The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, may withdraw approval of a reconstitution process in any case where the brewer fails to comply with the provisions of this subpart.

§ 245.240 Consent of surety on bond of brewer concentrating beer.

A brewer who intends to produce concentrate shall file with the assistant regional commissioner a Consent of Surety, Form 1533, extending the terms of his bond, Form 1566, to cover the use of the concentration process and containing the following statement:

Whereas, the principal intends to concentrate beer on the above-described premises under the provision of Subpart BB of Part 245, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations;

Now, therefore, the above-described bond is further specifically conditioned that the principal named therein shall pay, or cause to be paid, on demand of the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax), an amount equal to the tax which would be due on removal for consumption or sale, including penalties and interest, on all beer used to produce concentrate:

(a) If such concentrate is produced, reconstituted, used, or removed from the brewery in violation of laws or regulations, now or hereafter in force, or in any manner contrary to the terms or conditions of his application for approval of the concentration process; and

(b) If such concentrate is removed without payment of tax for export and is not exported or otherwise accounted for.

The aforesaid terms and conditions shall have the same force and effect as the other terms and conditions stated in the bond.

A brewer who intends to reconstitute beer from concentrate at the premises covered by an application for approval of the concentration process shall also give the consent of surety provided for in § 245.241.

§ 245.241 Consent of surety on bond of brewer reconstituting beer.

A brewer who intends to reconstitute beer from concentrate shall file with the assistant regional commissioner a Consent of Surety, Form 1533, extending the terms and conditions of his bond, Form 1566, to cover the transportation, receipt, and reconstitution of concentrate and containing the following statement:

Whereas, the principal intends to reconstitute beer from concentrate or to receive concentrate and reconstitute beer therefrom on the above-described premises under the provisions of Subpart BB of Part 245, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations;

Now, therefore, the above-described bond is further specifically conditioned that the principal named therein shall pay, or cause to be paid, on demand of the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol and tobacco tax), an amount equal to the tax which would have been due on removal for consumption or sale, including penalties and interest, on all beer used to produce concentrate:

(a) If such concentrate is transported, reconstituted, or removed from the brewery in violation of laws or regulations, now or hereafter in force, or in any manner contrary to the terms or conditions of his application for approval of the process for reconstitution;

(b) If such concentrate is removed for transfer to the said brewery from other breweries owned by the said principal, and is not transported, received and accounted for in accordance with laws or regulations now or hereafter in force, and

(c) If such concentrate is removed without payment of tax for export and is not exported or otherwise accounted for.

The aforesaid terms and conditions shall have the same force and effect as the other terms and conditions of the bond.

§ 245.242 Operations.

The operations incident to the production of concentrate and the reconstitution of beer therefrom shall be conducted in the brewery but shall not be conducted in the brewery bottling house or racking room. Each tank, vat, cask, or other container used or intended for use as a receptacle for concentrate shall meet the requirements of § 245.25. Such receptacles shall be identified as containers of concentrate. Concentrate produced shall be identified and accounted for by the serial number of Form 3019 under which it was produced and shall not be mingled with unconcentrated beer. The brewer shall accurately measure the quantity and determine the balling and alcohol content of all (a) beer entered into the concentration process, (b) concentrate produced, (c) concentrate transferred to other breweries belonging to the same brewer, (d) concentrate removed for export, (e) concentrate received, (f) concentrate used in reconstituting beer, and (g) beer reconstituted. Containers of concentrate transferred to other breweries belonging to the same brewer, and containers of concentrate removed for export shall be marked, branded, and labeled in the same manner as is prescribed for containers of beer in Subpart O of this part and shall be clearly marked as containers of concentrate.

§ 245.243 Transfers between breweries.

Concentrate produced from beer may, under the provisions of this subpart, be removed without payment of tax from the brewery to another brewery belonging to the same brewer (within the limits of ownership and on submission of evidence of control as described in § 245.140). Concentrate may be transferred only to a brewery which is qualified under this subpart for the reconstitution of beer. The provisions of Subpart Q of this part, except as otherwise provided in this section, shall be applicable in respect of transfers of concentrate which is produced under the provisions of this subpart. Concentrate may not be removed in containers of the kind ordinarily used by brewers for the removal of beer for consumption or sale. Reconstituted beer may be mingled with beer at the receiving brewery but concentrate shall not be mingled with unconcentrated beer. The brewer shall give notice on Form 3020 of the shipment and receipt of concentrate (in the manner outlined in §§ 245.145 to 245.147 for Form 2035), reflect the details of such transactions in his daily records, and report such transactions monthly on Form 103 in accordance with the provisions of § 245.245.

§ 245.244 Exportation.

Concentrate produced under the provisions of this subpart may be removed from the brewery without payment of tax (a) for exportation, or (b) for transfer to and deposit in foreign-trade zones for exportation or for storage pending exportation, in accordance with the provisions of Part 252 of this chapter.

§ 245.245 Records and reports.

(a) Daily record. A brewer who produces concentrate or reconstitutes beer therefrom under the provisons of this subpart shall, in addition to complying with the requirements of Subpart AA of this part, maintain daily records which will accurately and clearly reflect the quantity and the balling and the alcohol content of all (1) beer entered into the concentration process, (2) concentrate produced, (3) concentrate transferred to other breweries belonging to the same brewer, (4) concentrate exported, (5) concentrate received, (6) concentrate used in reconstituting beer, and (7) beer reconstituted.

(b) Monthly summary reports. Where concentrate is produced and/or beer is reconstituted from concentrate the brewer shall reflect by special entries on Form 103, the quantity of beer entered into the concentration process and the quantity of beer reconstituted from concentrate. Where such operations are conducted, the brewer shall likewise prepare and submit monthly, a separate Form 103, suitably identified and modified, summarizing the concentration and reconstitution operations for the month. This separate Form 103 shall show, in the modified "Materials" section of the form, the quantities (expressed in barrels of 31 gallons and fractions thereof to three decimal places) of concentrate on hand at the beginning and end of the month, and received, and the specific disposition thereof (as "used in reconstitution of beer", "removed for export", "transferred to other breweries"). The quantity of beer which is reconstituted during the month shall be so reported on the face of this form.

EXPORTATION OF LIQUORS

Beer Concentrate

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate. The regulations are proposed for consideration by reason of a petition for the issuance of regulations dealing with the subject of the proposals by the Union Carbide Corporation, New York, N.Y. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any comments or suggestions pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington 25, D.C., within the period of 90 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or prior to the termination of the public hearing scheduled herein, whichever is later. A public hearing on these proposed regulations will be held on Tuesday, March 21, 1961, at 10:00 a.m., e.s.t., in Room 3313, Internal Revenue Building, Twelfth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C., at which time and place all interested parties will be afforded an opportunity to be heard, in person or by authorized representative, with reference to the proposals. Persons who plan to attend the hearing are requested to so notify the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: O:AT, Washington 25, D.C., by March 13, 1961. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

[SEAL] DANA LATHAM,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to provide by regulations for the exportation, without payment of tax, of concentrate produced from beer by the removal of water therefrom, the regulations in 26 CFR Part 252, "Exportation of Liquors", are amended by inserting the following subpart immediately after Subpart G:

Subpart Ga—Removal Without Payment of Tax for Exportation or Transfer to a Foreign-Trade Zone of Concentrate Produced From Beer

Sec.
252.150a General.
252.150b Notice, Form 3021.
252.150c Containers.
252.150d Procedures applicable to concentrate removed without payment of tax.
252.150e Marks and brands.
252.150f Disposition of forms.
252.150g Return of concentrate.
252.150h Brewer's report.
252.150i Processing of Form 3021.
252.150j Charges and credits on bond.
252.150k Loss of concentrate in transit.

§ 252.150a General.

Concentrate, produced from beer by the removal of water therefrom under the provisions of Subpart BB of Part 245 of this chapter, may, subject to this subpart, be removed from the brewery without payment of tax, for:

(a) Export to a foreign country; or

(b) Transfer to and deposit in a foreign-trade zone for exportation or for storage pending exportation.

All such removals shall be made by the brewer under the provisions of his bond, Form 1566, as extended by consent of surety under the provisions of § 245.240 or § 245.241.

§ 252.150b Notice, Form 3021.

(a) Whenever a brewer intends to remove concentrate without payment of tax from the brewery for exportation from the United States or for transportation to and deposit in a foreign-trade zone, he shall prepare a notice for each such removal on Form 3021, in quadruplicate.

(b) The brewer shall execute on each copy of Form 3021 his agreement to pay on demand from the assistant regional commissioner, an amount equal to the tax which would be due on removal for consumption or sale, including penalties and interest, on all beer used to produce the concentrate removed for the stated purpose and for which proper evidence of exportation or transfer to a foreign-trade zone, as the case may be, has not been furnished as prescribed by this part.

§ 252.150c Containers.

Concentrate may not be removed for export, or for transfer to and deposit in a foreign-trade zone, in containers of the kind ordinarily used by brewers for the removal of beer for consumption or sale.

§ 252.150d Procedures applicable to concentrate removed without payment of tax.

The provisions of §§ 252.30, 252.35 to 252.38, 252.241, 252.245 to 252.247, 252.250 to 252.253, and 252.262 are applicable to concentrate removed under this subpart for exportation or for transfer to and deposit in a foreign-trade zone to the same extent that such provisions are applicable to beer removed for such purposes.

§ 252.150e Marks and brands.

In addition to the marks and brands prescribed in Part 245 of this chapter, each container of concentrate to be removed without payment of tax under this subpart shall be marked as specified below:

(a) "Beer Concentrate For Export—Without Payment of Tax", where the concentrate is to be removed for export from the United States; or

(b) "Beer Concentrate For Export—Without Payment of Tax Via FTZ No." followed by the number of the zone—where the concentrate is removed for deposit in a foreign-trade zone.

All such markings shall be placed on the containers in the same manner as is prescribed by the regulations in Part 245 of this chapter for the affixing of the original marks.

§ 252.150f Disposition of forms.

On removal of concentrate from the brewery under this subpart, the brewer shall forward one copy of Form 3021 to the assistant regional commissioner, retain one copy in his files, and deliver the original and remaining copy to the officer to whom the shipment is consigned.

§ 252.150g Return of concentrate.

Concentrate removed without payment of tax under this subpart may be returned to the brewery from which removed if lading of the concentrate is delayed for more than the period provided in § 252.262 or where the brewer has other good cause for such return. The brewer shall request the collector of customs to release the concentrate for return to the brewery and, on such release, the collector of customs shall endorse both copies of the appropriate Form 3021 to show his release of the concentrate to the brewery, the brewer shall record the quantity in his daily records, mark the two copies of Form 3021 returned by the collector of customs, "Canceled—Returned to Brewery", and forward one copy to the assistant regional commissioner.

§ 252.150h Brewer's report.

The brewer's records shall reflect the quantity of concentrate removed without payment of tax or returned to the brewery under this subpart, and he shall report the quantity of concentrate so removed or returned on a separate Form 103, in accordance with the provisions of Subpart BB of Part 245 of this chapter.

§ 252.150i Processing of Form 3021.

The processing of Form 3021 by customs officers shall be in accordance with the procedures prescribed in §§ 252.261, 252.264 to 252.267, 252.269 (a) and (c), and 252.290, as the case may be, for the processing of forms prescribed for use for the exportation of beer.

§ 252.150j Charges and credits on bond.

The removal of concentrate from the brewery without payment of tax under this subpart shall constitute a charge against the brewer's bond, Form 1566, of an amount equal to the tax which would be due on removal for consumption or sale, including penalties and interest, on all beer used to produce the concentrate which is removed. Conversely, the satisfactory accounting for concentrate so removed shall constitute a credit to the bond.

§ 252.150k Loss of concentrate in transit.

When the certifying officer's report on Form 3021 discloses that there has been a loss of concentrate after removal from the brewery and while in transit to the port of export or to the foreign-trade zone, and that such loss was a normal one caused by casualty, leakage, or spillage, the assistant regional commissioner will allow the loss. Where the report discloses that the loss is large or unusual, the assistant regional commissioner shall conduct an investigation of the loss and, if he finds that it occurred by reason of casualty, leakage, or spillage, credit for the loss will be allowed. Where the investigation discloses evidence indicating that the loss in transit resulted from theft or from fraud, the assistant regional commissioner will afford the brewer opportunity to submit a written explanation with respect to the causes of such loss before taking further action. The assistant regional commissioner shall make demand on the brewer for an amount equal to the tax which would be due on removal for consumption or sale, including penalties and interest, on all beer used to produce the quantity of concentrate which is not satisfactorily accounted for.

LABELING AND ADVERTISING OF MALT BEVERAGES

Notice of Hearing

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (49 Stat. 981 as amended; 27 U.S.C 205), of a public hearing to be held on Tuesday, March 21, 1961, at 10:00 a.m., e.s.t., in Room 3313, Internal Revenue Building, Twelfth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C., at which time and place all interested parties will be afforded opportunity to be heard, in person or by authorized representative, with reference to the proposals, the substance of which is stated below, to amend Regulations No. 7 (27 CFR Part 7), relating to labeling and advertising of malt beverages. Persons who plan to attend the hearing are requested to so notify the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: O:AT, Washington 25, D.C., by March 13, 1961.

Written data, views, or arguments relevant and material to these proposals may be submitted, in duplicate, for incorporation into the record of hearing (1) by mailing the same to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington 25, D.C., provided that they are received prior to the termination of the hearing, or (2) by presenting the same at the said hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing a reasonable opportunity will be afforded interested parties for examination of the record and for the submission of briefs.

Substance of proposals. To amend section 24 (27 CFR 7.24) by relettering paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and graphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) inserting a new paragraph (b) reading substantially as follows:

(b) Malt beverages which have been concentrated by the removal of water therefrom and reconstituted by the addition of water and carbon dioxide shall, for the purposes of this part, be labeled in the same manner as malt beverages which have not been concentrated and reconstituted.

Or, in the alternative: To amend section 24 (27 CFR 7.24) by relettering paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) as (c), (d), (e), (f), (g) and (h) and inserting a new paragraph (b) reading substantially as follows:

(b) Malt beverages which have been concentrated by the removal of water therefrom and reconstituted by the addition of water and carbon dioxide shall be designated in the same manner as malt beverages which have not been concentrated and reconstituted, except that the designation shall be qualified by the word "reconstituted" in substantially the same size and kind of type, e.g., "reconstituted beer", "reconstituted ale", "reconstituted stout"; etc.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Indian Affairs

[25 CFR Part 221]

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

Colorado River Indian Irrigation Project, Arizona

Basis and purpose. Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the acts of August 1, 1914 and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583, 45 Stat. 210:25 U.S.C. 385-387) and by virtue of the authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Commissioner, Bureau of Indian Affairs, by Secretarial Order No. 2508, Amendment No. 1 (16 F.R. 473), it is proposed to amend 25 CFR 221.6 and 221.7 as set forth below. The purpose of this amendment is to increase the annual operation and maintenance assessment rate in § 221.6 from $8.00 to $8.50 per acre and the assessment rate for excess water in § 221.7 from $1.50 to $1.75 per acre foot.

It is the policy of the Department of the Interior whenever practicable, to afford the public an opportunity to participate in the rule making process. Accordingly, interested persons may submit written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed amendments to the Commissioner, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Washington 25, D.C., within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 221.6 is amended to read as follows:

§ 221.6 Charges.

The annual basic charge against the land to which water can be delivered under the Colorado River Indian Irrigation Project in Arizona, for the operation and maintenance of that project, is hereby fixed at $8.50 per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not. Payment of this charge will entitle the wateruser to, but not in excess of, eight acre-feet of water per acre per annum on certain sandy areas as described in a schedule on file at the Colorado Indian Agency, and available for inspection by interested parties, and to five acre-feet of water per annum per irrigable acre on all other lands. With the approval of the Superintendent, additional water, reasonably sufficient to carry away alkali salts, may be allowed on certain alkali tracts at no additional charge for the purpose of reclaiming lands by the usual methods, such as flooding and leaching. The foregoing charges and allotments of water shall become effective for the calendar year 1961 and continue in effect thereafter, until further notice.

2. Section 221.7 is amended to read as follows:

§ 221.7 Excess water charges.

Additional water, if and when available, in excess of basic allowances, may be delivered upon written request to the Superintendent by landowners or users at the rate of $1.75 per acre foot, or fraction thereof.

GLENN L. EMMONS,
Commissioner.

"Fishing for Fun" in Certain Streams

Basis and purpose. Notice is hereby given that pursuant to §4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C., 1003); authority contained in §3 of the Act of August 25, 1916 (39 Stat. 535; 16 U.S.C., 3); National Park Service Order No. 14 (19 F.R. 8824); and Regional Director, Region One, Order No. 3 (21 F.R. 1493), it is proposed to amend 36 CFR 7.15 as set forth below. The purpose of this amendment is to designate certain streams where "fishing for fun" only is permitted and to limit hours of fishing.

It is the policy of the Department of the Interior whenever practicable, to afford the public an opportunity to participate in the rule making process. Accordingly, interested persons may submit written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed amendment to the Superintendent, Shenandoah National Park, Luray, Virginia, within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

R. TAYLOR HOSKINS,
Superintendent,
Shenandoah National Park.

Section 7.15 is amended by revising paragraph (a) (1) and (3) to read as follows:

§ 7.15 Shenandoah National Park.

(a) Fishing—(1) Applicability of regulations. The regulations in this section shall govern fishing on those portions of all streams lying wholly within the Park, except for the Rapidan and Staunton Rivers and their tributaries where "fishing for fun" only is permitted with the following restrictions in addition to those set out in subparagraphs (3), (7), and (8) of this paragraph:

(i) Fishing is restricted to artificial flies or lures having one barbless hook.

(ii) No fish of any size may be in possession at any time. All fish caught must be handled carefully and returned immediately to the stream.

Along those portions of the streams which follow the boundary line of the Park, the State of Virginia laws and regulations governing fishing shall apply.

* * * * *

(3) Season. The opening date of the trout fishing season and the permissible hours of fishing shall conform with those of the State of Virginia and shall close on the same date as the State, or October 15, whichever date is earlier.

[Docket No. AO-309-A2]

MILK IN GREAT BASIN MARKETING AREA

Notice of Recommended Decision and Opportunity To File Written Exceptions on Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of milk in the Great Basin marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., not later than the close of business the 15th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendments, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, were formulated, was conducted at South Salt Lake City, Utah, on May 10–12, 1960, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued April 15, 1960 (25 F.R. 3420).

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. Extension of the marketing area;
2. Limitation of diversion to nonpool plants by a cooperative association;
3. Requirements for producer-handler status;
4. Base-excess payments to producers;
5. Classification of transfers to nonpool plants;
6. Pool plant requirements;
7. Accounting for frozen cream;
8. Shrinkage allowance on milk received in bulk tanks for which a cooperative association is the handler;
9. Advance payments to producers; and
10. Allocation provisions applicable to receipts of packaged sour cream priced under another order.

No evidence was offered with respect to a proposal in the hearing notice to modify the provisions applicable to plants regulated under other orders operating routes in the marketing area. The record presents no issue with respect to this proposal.

Findings and conclusions. Issues 4 and 10 and that portion of issue 5 related to the distance that bulk cream may be moved for manufacturing use as Class II milk were dealt with in a separate decision issued by the Acting Secretary on August 15, 1960 (25 F.R. 7998) and by amendment to the order issued August 26, 1960 (25 F.R. 8293). The following findings and conclusions on the remaining issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. Marketing area. White Pine, Elko and Eureka Counties, Nevada, should be added to the marketing area.

Two producer associations proposed that the area be extended to include the northeastern Nevada counties of White Pine, Elko, and Eureka. These counties are contiguous to the Great Basin marketing area and cover 30,202 square miles with a total population (1960 census) of 22,586. The chief centers of population, the cities of Elko and Ely are each approximately 225 miles from Salt Lake City.

Four handlers regulated under the Great Basin order and two Nevada handlers distribute milk in these counties. The plants of the Nevada handlers are located at Genoa and Reno in western Nevada, more than 300 miles from Elko and Ely. In 1959 sales of the Great Basin handlers in these three counties were 3.7 million pounds. For March 1960, these handlers reported sales of 34,377 gallons (295,642 pounds) to the Nevada Dairy Commission. Based on such reports 56 percent of total sales in the area were by Great Basin handlers and 44 percent by Nevada handlers. Based on estimated population and per capita sales proponents claimed that their 1959 sales represented 70 percent of total sales. Annual sales of the Utah dealers declined 11 percent in volume from 1955 to 1959.

While sales volumes of Great Basin handlers have declined those of Nevada dealers have increased as have total sales. In 1955 Nevada plant sales were exclusively from a local plant in Ely which is no longer in operation. When this plant ceased operation in 1959 the Genoa plant took over its distribution and expanded its sales in these counties.

The Great Basin producer associations assert that Nevada handlers enjoy certain competitive procurement advantages due to the fact that they purchase milk solely on butterfat value. Under this system no value is allocated to skim milk and the raw material cost of skim milk drinks and buttermilk, Class I products under the Great Basin order, is very low.

The real issue, however, is not so much competitive procurement advantage as the danger that certain Great Basin handlers now serving these counties may find it attractive to establish separate processing plants for these Nevada sales or transfer such sales to already existing unregulated plants. Differences in Nevada and Utah inspection requirements have existed for years. Nevada requires certain barn and milkhouse construction features not required by Utah or the U.S. Public Health Service Code. Until recently Nevada authorities have permitted separate processing of milk from Nevada approved farms for Nevada sales. They had, at the time of the hearing, established a September 1960 deadline by which plants processing milk for sale in Nevada could receive milk only from producers meeting Nevada requirements.

Costs of remodeling existing facilities of all producers supplying the four plants selling in this area were claimed to be prohibitive. Testimony of Nevada health authorities indicated that they had discussed with Great Basin handlers the handling of Nevada milk in segregated plants. Such plants would not engage in sales in the present marketing area, hence the value of their sales would be lost to the pool. While certain Nevada qualified producers might be transferred to such plants, the pool would continue to bear the burden of surplus, equal sharing of which was one of the principal objectives sought by the order.

Great Basin milk continues to be sold in Nevada beyond the deadline. This is presumably achieved by concentrating and processing all such milk in one plant and assigning to such plant all Nevada approved producers. The market has thus at least temporarily halted the potential loss to the pool of the Class I sales historically a part of the market. Incorporation of the three Nevada counties in the marketing area will permit plant operators to process Nevada milk as best fits their needs and health requirements without removing such sales from the pool.

Proponents suggested that a special provision be included for any plant subject to producer pricing of the Nevada Dairy Commission that has insufficient distribution for pool status. Under the proposal such a plant would have had the option of paying the compensatory payment presently provided for nonpool plants on the volume of their sales in the marketing area or of comparing their aggregate payment to the dairy farmers supplying them with milk with the order value of such milk and paying any difference into the pool. They did not propose, however, to make this option available to all handlers operating nonpool distributing plants. It is concluded that no change should be made on the basis of this record in the obligations to the pool from operators of distributing plants that fail to qualify for pool status.

2. Limitation of diversion by a cooperative association. A cooperative association should not be limited with respect to the percentage of its milk diverted to nonpool plants.

Three producer cooperatives proposed that the order be amended so as to limit the quantity of milk that a cooperative may divert as producer milk to a nonpool plant. Specifically, they proposed that the percentage of a cooperative's milk which is utilized as Class I by pool handlers and at nonpool plants should be at least 50 percent in the months of August through March and 40 percent in other months. Proponents contended that this would protect the Great Basin market in the event that a cooperative association, through the diversion privilege afforded it, should include the reserve supply of another market in the Great Basin pool without adding the Class I sales of the other market.

In effect, the proposal would extend to cooperative associations performance standards which are similar to those required of pool plants distributing packaged milk in the marketing area. Performance standards are required of pool plants to assure that only those plants which supply milk for fluid consumption in the market may pool their sales. Thus, the dairy farmers supplying such plants share in the marketwide equalization.

In the interest of efficient marketing of milk, the reserve supply of milk for pool plants is allowed to go directly to manufacturing plants rather than to require it to be transported to distributing plants to be pooled. This is accomplished by allowing handlers to divert the milk for their account and also by allowing a cooperative association to divert milk not needed by pool plants to nonpool plants by assuming the responsibility for accounting and pooling such milk.

Although milk which is diverted by a cooperative association is not covered by the performance requirements which a pool plant must meet, it is subject to the performance requirements placed on individual producers, which assures their association with the market in order to share in the marketwide equalization. This requirement is that during any month at least one-third of a producer's milk must be received at pool plants.

There is no evidence that the present performance requirements of the order will not adequately protect the pool. If the present provisions are inadequate, it would probably be more feasible to modify them rather than to add the proposed provisions. It is concluded that no change should be made at this time to limit diversion by cooperatives.

3. Requirements for producer-handler status. The definition of producer-handler should be revised so as to limit the amount of milk a producer-handler may receive other than his own production. Also the qualification for ownership of a producer-handler operation should be clarified.

Producer associations proposed that producer-handlers lose their status as such and become fully regulated handlers if they receive any milk other than their own farm production. The association witness contended that any producer-handler could gain a competitive advantage over other handlers and disrupt the market by disposing of all his own production as Class I milk and supplement such production with milk either from pool plants or diverted directly from other producers, as is now provided under the order. In such a situation producers who ship to pool plants carry the seasonal reserve associated with the Class I sales of the producer-handler without sharing in the Class I sales of the producer-handler's own production.

Large operations which receive milk from their own farm production and rely on other handlers for substantial supplemental supplies, either in bulk or packaged form, are not significally different from the operations of regular handlers. In addition, such individuals do not assume the risk or cost of providing a full supply. If they are accorded producer-handler status, the pool does not receive the benefits of their Class I sales but acts as a supply balance and carries the reserve supplies necessary for their operation.

It is concluded that a producer-handler should rely on his own production so as to carry his own share of the risk and cost of providing an adequate supply for his customers. However, a producer-handler would not be in a position to make the producers who ship milk to pool plants responsible for bearing the burden of the reserve milk supply associated with his Class I sales if he were allowed to make small purchases to meet emergencies. Therefore, it is further concluded, that a producer-handler should be permitted during any month to purchase from pool plants an amount of milk equal to not more than the larger of five percent of his Class I sales, or 100 pounds on a daily average basis without losing his status as a producer-handler.

Since the exemption of pooling own farm production provides an incentive for individuals to attain producer-handler status, it is necessary to preclude certain devices which may be used to circumvent the intent of the order provisions. Producers proposed that the wording of the order be made more explicit so as to bring under regulation operations which attempt to masquerade as those of producer-handlers through leases with limited risk or by restricted partnerships. The order should provide that a producer-handler operation be limited to individuals, partnerships, and corporations. A partnership or corporation should make available to the market administrator its articles of partnership or incorporation so he may assure himself that all of the producer-handler's operation is organized and run as a single unit without restrictions or limitations. The producer-handler should have the complete risk and financial responsibility for the entire producer-handler operation.

Inclusion of the aforementioned requirements in the producer-handler definition should give greater assurance that no operation will be exempt from pooling its own farm production or sharing its Class I sales to the detriment of producers or the effectiveness of the order.

5. Classification of transfers to nonpool plants. The transfer provisions of the order should be amended to assure equitable classification of milk transferred to nonpool plants. The present provisions of the order do not give adequate assurance that milk transferred to a nonpool plant as Class II is not needed by such plant for Class I purposes. This could happen in a plant which has both Class I distribution and manufacturing and its Class I distribution is greater than the receipts from its regular producers. Thus, it might utilize some of the transferred milk purportedly utilized in manufacturing for its Class I uses, while manufacturing receipts of uninspected milk.

Producers proposed that the transfer provision should be amended to provide that milk, skim milk, and cream transferred or diverted to nonpool plants within 525 miles of Salt Lake City be Class II only if the fluid milk products disposed of from the nonpool plant do not exceed the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in milk received during the month from dairy farmers directly supplying such plant. If the Class I disposition of the nonpool plant exceeds the receipts from dairy farmers regularly supplying such plant, it was proposed that the difference should be assigned to the fluid milk products transferred or diverted from a pool plant and classified as Class I milk. If transfers or diversions to a nonpool plant were made during the month from two or more pool plants, it was proposed that any Class I credit should be divided pro rata. Likewise, provision was proposed to prorate available Class I utilization with transfers from plants regulated under other orders.

This method of classifying transfers and diversions from pool plants to nonpool plants accords equitable treatment to Great Basin order handlers and gives appropriate recognition to handlers in other regulated markets in the classification of milk transferred to a common nonpool plant. Giving priority to receipts from dairy farmers supplying Grade A milk directly to a nonpool plant recognizes that they are the regular and dependable source of supply of milk for fluid use at such plant. This method of classification will safeguard the primary functions of the transfer provision of the order by promoting orderly disposal of reserve supplies and by assuring that shipments to nonpool plants will be classified in an equitable manner.

6. Pool plant requirements. The definition of pool plant should be modified by eliminating the inclusion of milk received from nonpool supply plants in determining the percentage requirements for qualification as a pool plant. The Weber Central Dairy Association receives incidental shipments of milk from nonpool plants for disposal in manufactured milk products. The association proposed that these shipments not be included in the receipts used for the purpose of determining its pool plant status. This would enable the association to continue using its plant as an outlet for the reserve supplies of other markets for conversion to manufactured products without jeopardizing its status as a pool plant under the Great Basin order. Changing the pool plant definition as herein recommended would include for this purpose only those receipts which are the regular and dependable supply for the market in the determination requirements for maintaining pool plant status.

7. Classification and accounting for frozen cream. No change should be made in the classification and accounting of frozen cream under the Great Basin order.

The Great Basin order provides that the skim milk and butterfat used to produce frozen cream be assigned to Class II use. Producers proposed that since there is no such product produced or sold in the market, the references to it should be deleted from the order. They contended that such an amendment would preclude the possibility of selling frozen cream to consumers in competition with fluid cream.

When frozen cream is produced it is normally stored for future use in ice cream or butter, which are Class II products under the Great Basin order. There is no evidence that frozen cream has been sold directly to consumers.

Under the order any frozen cream that might be produced and placed into storage would be Class II disposition. At such time as the frozen cream is taken out of storage to be used in another product it would be treated as other source milk.

In view of the aforementioned consideration, it is concluded that there is no justification for changing the order provisions pertaining to frozen cream.

8. Shrinkage. The shrinkage allowance should be modified so as to permit a handler to receive all of the shrinkage associated with bulk tank milk for which a cooperative association elects to become the handler if the handler receiving such milk regularly accepts such milk on the basis of weights taken at the farm.

The order provides that shrinkage not exceed 2 percent on producer milk and 1½ percent on bulk tank lots of milk received from other handlers. In effect 0.5 percent shrinkage is allotted for the assembly of milk from farms and 1½ percent for processing and distribution.

A cooperative association may be the handler for milk of its members which it delivers from the farm to the pool plant of another handler in a tank truck owned and operated by, or under contract to, such cooperative association. Thus, the cooperative performs the function of assembling the milk; accordingly any shrinkage associated with this function should not normally be passed on to the handler whose plant receives the milk. However, if the handler elects to use the weights taken at the farm he should be afforded the same shrinkage allowance as is provided for producer milk, since the volume for which he has to account is the same as that for producer milk.

The only difference would be that the cooperative is responsible for reporting the amount of such milk. It is therefore concluded, that the operator of the pool plant should receive the entire 2 percent shrinkage allowance if he notifies the market administrator in advance that he is purchasing such milk from the cooperative association on the basis of farm weights.

Since the limits on allocated shrinkage are only applied to bulk receipts, the order should be modified to provide that shrinkage be prorated only to bulk receipts.

9. Advance payments to producers. The order should provide for an advance payment for producer milk received during the first half of each month.

The Great Basin order provides that producers be paid by the 17th of each month for milk delivered during the previous month. However, the historic practice in this market has been to pay producers twice a month for milk received from them and producers proposed that the order provide for an advance payment to assure the continuation of the practice in the market.

Specifically, producers proposed that for producer milk received during the first 15 days of the month, handlers pay one-half of the amount paid such producers during the preceding month less authorized deductions. This method would in many instances result in a payment which is in excess of the amount otherwise due producers. For example, it would result in an overpayment to producers who do not ship for the full 15 days as well as on occasions when production or prices are lower than the previous month. Nor would it adequately provide for a producer who ships milk to more than one plant during the month. Therefore, it is recommended that the minimum payment for deliveries during the first 15 days of the month be based on the pounds of milk actually delivered during such period.

The use of the Class II price for the previous month times the hundredweight of producer milk will overcome the shortcoming of the method proposed for determining the amount of the advance payment. This is the method used in other orders and it is recommended for the Great Basin order. Administrative detail is kept at a minimum by this method in that no adjustments for butterfat, hauling or other deductions are required. However, it will be necessary for a handler to report the receipts of producer milk during the first 15 days of the month to the cooperative association to which a producer belongs. In case of a cooperative association which is also a handler for its producers, it is only necessary for handlers to make an advance payment of the Class II price on the aggregate of the milk received from the cooperative.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties in the market. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order amending the order. The following order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Great Basin marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended:

1. Delete § 963.6 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 963.6 Great Basin marketing area.

"Great Basin marketing area" hereinafter called the "marketing area" means all territory, including all government reservations and installations and all municipalities, within the counties of Box Elder, Davis, Morgan, Salt Lake, Tooele, Utah, Wasatch, Weber, Summit, Grand, Daggett, Duchesne, Carbon, Sanpete, Juab, Millard, Sevier, Uintah, and Emery in the State of Utah, and the counties of Elko, Eureka, and White Pine in the State of Nevada.

2. Delete § 963.8 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 963.8 Producer-handler.

"Producer-handler" means an individual, or a partnership or cooperation for which written articles of partnership or incorporation are furnished the market administrator, which:

(a) Produces milk and operates an approved plant described in § 963.10(a);

(b) Receives milk only from (1) his own farm production and (2) from pool plants in an amount during the month not in excess of the larger of 3,000 pounds or 5 percent of such person's Class I sales; and

(c) The operation of the milk production, processing, and distributing facilities are under the complete and exclusive control of such person and at his sole risk.

§ 963.11 [Amendment]

3. Delete § 963.11(a) and substitute the following:

(a) An approved plant, except the plant of a producer-handler as described in § 963.8, from which during the month there is disposed of on routes fluid milk products equal to not less than 50 percent in the months of August through March and 40 percent in other months of the receipts during the month at such plant of producer milk, producer milk diverted therefrom by the plant operator and receipts at the plant of fluid milk products from plants described pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, and there are disposed of on routes in the marketing area fluid milk products equal to not less than 10 percent of the total fluid milk product disposition from the plant on routes: Provided, That if a handler operates more than one approved plant, the combined receipts and disposition of any of such plants may be used as the basis for qualifying the respective plants pursuant to the preceding computations specified in this paragraph if the handler in writing so requests the market administrator: And provided further, That any approved plant from which the total route disposition of fluid milk products is to individuals or institutions for charitable purposes and is without remuneration from such individuals or institutions shall not qualify as a pool plant pursuant to this paragraph.

§ 963.41 [Amendment]

4. Delete § 963.41(b)(5) and substitute therefor the following:

(5) In shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, allocated pursuant to § 963.45(b)(2) not to exceed the following: 2 percent of producer milk (except diverted milk), plus 1½ percent of milk received from pool plants of other handlers in bulk tank lots, plus 1½ percent of milk received from a cooperative association which is the handler for such milk pursuant to § 963.9(c) (except that if the handler operating the pool plant files notice with the market administrator that he is purchasing such milk on the basis of farm weights, the applicable percentage shall be 2 percent), less 1½ percent of milk disposed of in bulk tank lots to pool plants of other handlers (except when the preceding exception hereof applies, the applicable percentage shall be 2 percent).

§ 963.42 [Amendment]

5. Delete § 963.42(c)(4) and substitute therefor the following:

(4) Class I utilization in the nonpool plant does not exceed the receipts of skim milk and butterfat in milk received during the month from dairy farmers who deliver Grade A milk directly from farms to such plant. If Class I utilization exceeds such receipts, the skim milk and butterfat transferred or diverted shall be Class I to the extent of such excess, except that when transfers or diversions are made during the month to such nonpool plant from other plants subject to the classification and pricing provisions of this part or other orders issued pursuant to the Act, the skim milk and butterfat assigned to Class I at the pool plant shall be not less than that obtained by prorating the assignable Class I milk at the transferee plant over all such receipts at such nonpool plant.

§ 963.45 [Amendment]

6. Delete § 963.45(b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) For each handler prorate the resulting amounts between (1) the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other source milk received in bulk form as fluid milk products, and (2) the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in other fluid milk products received in bulk form (excluding diverted milk).

7. Delete § 963.80 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 963.80 Time and method of payment for producer milk.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) or (d) of this section, each handler shall make payment to each producer from whom milk is received as follows:

(1) On or before the last day of each month, for producer milk received during the first 15 days of the month, at not less than the Class II price for the preceding month; and

(2) On or before the 17th day of the following month, for producer milk received during the month, at not less than the uniform prices pursuant to § 963.71 adjusted by the butterfat and location differentials to producers, subject to the following adjustments:

(i) Less marketing service deductions made pursuant to § 963.85;

(ii) Less the payment made pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph;

(iii) Plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such producers and proper deductions authorized in writing by such producer; and

(iv) If by the date specified, such handler has not received full payment from the market administrator pursuant to § 963.83 for such month, he may reduce pro rata his payments to producers by not more than the amount of such underpayment. Payments to producers shall be completed thereafter not later than the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following after the receipt of the balance due from the market administrator.

(b) In the case of a cooperative association, which is authorized by its members to collect payment for their milk, and which has requested such payment from any handler in writing, such handler shall on or before the second day prior to the dates on which payments are due to individual producers, pay the cooperative association for milk received from the producer-members of such association, amounts equal to not less than the totals of the payments otherwise due such producer-members for milk deliveries during the first 15 days of each month and for the entire month as determined pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That the cooperative has provided the handler with a written promise to reimburse the handler the amount of any actual loss incurred by such handler because of any improper claim on the part of the cooperative association;

(c) Each handler who received milk from producers for which payment is to be made to a cooperative association pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall report to such cooperative association for each such producer on or before the second day prior to the end of the month, the pounds of milk received during the first 15 days of such month and on or before the 7th day of the following month, as follows:

(1) The total pounds of milk received during the month, including the pounds of base milk and excess milk;

(2) The pounds of milk received each day, together with the butterfat content of such milk;

(3) The amount or rate and nature of any proper deductions authorized to be made from payments; and

(4) The amount and nature of payments due pursuant to § 963.84.

(d) Each handler shall pay a cooperative association for milk received by him from such cooperative association for which the association is the handler as follows:

(1) On or before the second day prior to the end of each month, for milk received during the first 15 days of the month an amount per hundredweight not less than the Class II price for the preceding month; and

(2) On or before the 15th day of the following month for milk received during the month, not less than an amount computed by multiplying the minimum prices for milk in each class subject to the applicable location adjustment provided in § 963.53 and the butterfat differential provided by § 963.52, by the hundredweight of milk in each class pursuant to § 963.44, such amount to be reduced in the amount of the payment made pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 21st day of December, 1960.

ROY W. LENNARTSON,
Deputy Administrator.

[7 CFR Part 1034]

LETTUCE GROWN IN LOWER RIO GRANDE VALLEY IN SOUTH TEXAS

Notice of Rule Making With Respect to Administrative Rules and Regulations

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture is considering the issuance of administrative rules and regulations, as hereinafter set forth, which were recommended by the South Texas Lettuce Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 144 and Marketing Order No. 134 (7 CFR Part 1034; 25 F.R. 12227) regulating the handling of lettuce grown in the Lower Rio Grande Valley in South Texas. This program is effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674).

Consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are filed with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C., not later than five days following publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposals are as follows:

GENERAL

§ 1034.100 Order.

Order means Order No. 134 (§§ 1034.1 to 1034.92; 25 F.R. 12227) regulating the handling of lettuce grown in the Lower Rio Grande Valley in South Texas.

§ 1034.101 Terms.

The terms used in this subpart shall have the same meaning as when used in the order.

§ 1034.102 Communications.

Unless otherwise provided in the order, or by specific direction of the committee, all reports, applications, submittals, requests and communications in connection with the order shall be addressed to the South Texas Lettuce Committee, at its principal office.

§ 1034.103 Fiscal period.

The initial fiscal period shall begin on the effective date of this part and end on October 31, 1961. Thereafter, each fiscal period shall begin on November 1 of each year and end on October 31 of the following year, both dates inclusive.

§ 1034.104 Registered handler.

For purposes of this part any person who operates as an established lettuce handler within the production area, with commonly accepted adequate facilities for grading and packing lettuce for market and who customarily buys lettuce from producers for packing and marketing, shall be recorded by the committee as a registered handler. Any other person who wishes to be listed as a registered handler may make application for registration on forms furnished by the committee. If such applicant has facilities available to him that are determined by the committee to be adequate for grading and packing lettuce for market, and he assumes responsibility for inspection of lettuce handled by him, and for assessments thereon, he may be approved and recorded as a registered handler. If the committee determines from the available information that the applicant is not entitled to be registered with the committee, he shall be so informed by written notice stating the reason for denial of his application. Any registration of a handler pursuant to this section may be canceled by the committee under circumstances which would have justified denial of his application. Any handler whose registration has been canceled shall be so informed by written notice thereof stating the reason therefor. The committee shall also notify producers of each such cancellation of handler registration through committee bulletins or published notice in local newspapers of general distribution, or both.

ESTIMATES AND ALLOTMENTS

§ 1034.110 Estimates of lettuce for current shipment.

(a) Administrative policy. Prior to, or at the beginning, of each lettuce marketing season the committee shall consider whether volumes regulations are probable during the ensuing season. If, after consideration of all factors bearing on the marketing of lettuce during the ensuing season, volume regulations are deemed sufficiently probable to warrant preparation therefor, the committee shall so announce to producers, handlers, and the public. Announcements shall indicate the preparatory work necessarily required of lettuce producers and handlers for estimates of lettuce available for current shipment during any ensuing allotment periods. The committee shall specify the dates on which fields or blocks of lettuce shall be recorded with the committee, and the dates on which it will begin estimating lettuce available for current shipment in ensuing allotment periods. The committee shall provide forms for recording fields or blocks of lettuce by producers and handlers and for use in applying for allocation bases and allotments.

(b) Application for allocation bases and allotments. Each season, on the date established by the committee for the initial allotment period and thereafter on the date established for each succeeding allotment period, each person who has lettuce available for current shipment shall submit, at the time, place, and manner prescribed by the committee, and on forms provided by the committee, an application for an allocation base and allotments on specific fields or blocks of lettuce declared by such person as available for current shipment. Applications shall contain information essential to the committee for estimating current supplies available for shipment by the applicant during the allotment periods set forth in the application, and to the extent applicable, shall include the following:

(1) Name and address of the applicant

(2) Names and addresses of producers of lettuce included in the application

(3) Agent or handler

(4) Proof of ownership or other authority supporting the application

(5) Identification, location, and description of fields or blocks

(6) Net acres in the respective fields or blocks

(7) Harvest period

(8) Intended harvesting percentage for each week

(9) Signature of applicant.

§ 1034.111 Apportionment of allotments.

(a) Pursuant to computations made in accordance with § 1034.53(d)(1), the committee shall notify each applicant of (1) his total allotment, (2) the amount thereof based on lettuce produced by the applicant and (3) (if applicable) the amount thereof based on lettuce produced by each of the other producers named in the application.

(b) Each handler with an allotment which is made up in whole or in part of lettuce produced by others shall notify each of the other participating producers, in the manner and at the time prescribed by the committee, of his equitable portion of the allotment.

(c) When handlers are limited by weekly volume regulations, or in the proportion of their weekly allotment which may not be exceeded in any one day, each handler with allotted lettuce owned or controlled by other persons shall equitably apportion such allotment among each of the other persons whose lettuce is included in the estimates on which the allotment is based. In carrying out the equitable apportionment of such weekly allotments, handlers may give consideration to the following factors: (1) Weather conditions, or other similar acts beyond control of the producers or the handler and their effect on the growth, maturity, and harvestability of each producer's lettuce; (2) reasonable management of harvesting and packing operations; (3) practical and economical distribution and assignment of harvesting and packing crews in the mutual interests of producers and handlers; (4) customary management and marketing practices under similar conditions in the absence of regulations, and (5) other factors contributing to mutually satisfactory producer-handler relationships in the marketing of lettuce.

§ 1034.112 Compliance verification.

(a) Each week during allotment periods, the committee shall investigate, or cause to be investigated, each handler's performance in harvesting fields or blocks of lettuce included within their applications and on which allotments have been established. Such checks and investigations shall report (1) compliance with allotments, (2) the extent to which allotments applicable to specific fields have been used, and (3) include fields on which allotments no longer apply. From time to time the committee shall inform handlers of the status of their allotments with respect to specific fields and of the dates on which allotments for specific fields shall terminate.

(b) Upon packaging, selling, or otherwise handling all lettuce allotted for shipment from a specific field, no person shall package or sell lettuce from such field, unless regulations under § 1034.52 (b)(5) are suspended or terminated.

§ 1034.113 Adjustment of allotments.

Allocation bases and allotments may be transferred or adjusted under the conditions set forth below. However, no adjustments or transfers of allotments may be made by the committee in excess of the allocation base and allotment of the respective handler, or which will result in allotments in excess of that specified for any allotment period or any day therein.

(a) When a person with an allocation base and an allotment sells or otherwise disposes of unharvested lettuce included therein to any other person, the allocation base and allotment therefor shall be transferred to such person. Such transfers shall be based on a bona fide contract transferring ownership or control of such lettuce. The committee shall maintain a record of all such transfers.

(b)(1) Any person with an allocation base and an allotment may request the committee, within such time as may be prescribed by the committee, for a reappraisal of his fields and the estimates of his available lettuce supplies to determine whether changes due to weather, maturity, harvestability, quality, or condition of the lettuce warrant an adjustment of his allotment. Upon investigation and report thereon, the committee shall determine the action to be taken on the request. In addition to other findings that may be made, such report shall indicate changes, if any, in harvesting percentages or yields that may properly be made in such applicant's estimates of supplies for current shipment.

(2) When the committee receives reports, properly verified by its staff, that lettuce in an applicant's allotment will not be used, such allotment shall be adjusted accordingly. The allotment thus released shall be made available equitably by the committee to other applicants who have requested an increase in their allotment.

(c) The committee shall maintain daily and weekly records setting forth a full disclosure of all transfers and adjustments of allocation bases and allotments. Reports thereon may be requested by the Secretary at any time.

§ 1034.114 Reports.

(a) During any allotment period, each handler shall report, or cause to be reported, the amount of lettuce packaged or otherwise handled by him from fields or blocks of lettuce on which his allotments were based or from any other source. Such reports may be provided by cooling plants or other commonly accepted sources from which such information is available.

(b) Persons selling or transporting lettuce for export to Mexico may be required to report all handling thereof, with identification of amounts of lettuce, date, vehicle, and fields from which such lettuce was harvested.

SAFEGUARDS

§ 1034.120 Policy.

Whenever shipments of lettuce for special purposes pursuant to § 1034.54 are relieved in whole or in part from regulations issued under §§ 1034.52 and 1034.53, the committee may require information and evidence on the manner, methods, and timing of such shipments as safeguards against the entry of any such lettuce in trade channels other than those for which intended. Such information and evidence shall include requirements set forth below with respect to Certificates of Privilege.

§ 1034.121 Qualification.

Before handling lettuce for special purposes which do not meet regulations issued pursuant to §§ 1034.52 and 1034.53, a handler, when required by such regulations, must qualify with the committee to handle shipments for special purposes. To qualify he must (a) apply for and receive a Certificate of Privilege indicating his intent to so handle lettuce, (b) agree to comply with reporting and other requirements set forth in §§ 1034.120 to 1034.125, inclusive, with respect to such shipments, and (c) receive approval of the committee, or its duly authorized agents, to so handle lettuce. Such approval will be based upon evidence furnished in his application for Certificate of Privilege and other information available to the committee.

§ 1034.122 Application.

(a) Applications for a Certificate of Privilege shall be made on forms furnished by the committee. Each application may contain, but need not be limited to, the name and address of the handler; the quantity by grade, size, and quality of the lettuce to be shipped; the mode of transportation; the consignee; the destination; the purpose for which the lettuce is to be used; and certification to the United States Department of Agriculture and to the committee as to the truthfulness of the information shown thereon, and any other appropriate information or documents deemed necessary by the committee or its duly authorized agents for the purposes stated in § 1034.120.

(b) The committee may require each handler making shipments of lettuce for export to include with his application a copy of the Department of Commerce Shippers Export Declaration Form No. 7525–V applicable to such shipment.

§ 1034.123 Approval.

The committee or its duly authorized agents shall give prompt consideration to each application for a Certificate of Privilege. Approval of an application, based upon the determination as to whether the information contained therein and other information available to the committee supports approval, shall be evidenced by the issuance of a Certificate of Privilege to the applicant. Each certificate shall cover a specified period and specified qualities and quantities of lettuce to be sold or transported to a designated consignee for the purposes declared.

§ 1034.124 Reports.

Each handler of lettuce shipping under Certificates of Privilege shall supply the committee with reports as requested by the committee, or its duly authorized agents, showing the name and address of the shipper; the car or truck identification; the loading point, destination; consignee; the inspection certificate number when inspection is required; and any other information deemed necessary by the committee.

§ 1034.125 Disqualification.

The committee from time to time may conduct surveys of handling of lettuce for special purposes requiring Certificates of Privilege to determine whether handlers are complying with the requirements and regulations applicable to such certificates. Whenever the committee finds that the handler or consignee is failing to comply with requirements and regulations applicable to handling of lettuce in special outlets and requiring such certificates, a Certificate or Certificates of Privilege issued such handler may be rescinded and subsequent certificates denied. Such disqualification shall apply to, and not exceed, a reasonable period of time as determined by the committee, but in no event shall it extend beyond the date of the succeeding fiscal period. Any handler who has a Certificate rescinded or denied may appeal to the committee in writing for reconsideration of his disqualification.

LETTUCE GROWN IN LOWER RIO GRANDE VALLEY IN SOUTH TEXAS

Expenses and Rate of Assessment

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture is considering the approval of the expenses and rate of assessment hereinafter set forth, which were recommended by the South Texas Lettuce Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 144 and Marketing Order No. 134 (7 CFR Part 1034; 25 F.R. 12227).

Said marketing order regulates the handling of lettuce grown in the Lower Rio Grande Valley in South Texas, and is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674).

Consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are filed with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C., not later than 10 days following publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 1034.201 Expenses and rate of assessment.

(a) The reasonable expenses that are likely to be incurred by the South Texas Lettuce Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 144, and this part, to enable such committee to perform its functions pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid marketing agreement and order during the fiscal period December 1, 1960, through October 31, 1961, will amount to $40,000.

(b) The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 144 and this part shall be two cents ($0.02) per carton of lettuce handled by him as the first handler thereof during said fiscal period.

(c) All other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 144 and this part (Part 1034; 25 F.R. 12227).

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Dated: December 21, 1960.

[Docket No. 13852 (RM-102 and RM-183)]

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS; TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

Order Extending Time for Filing Comments

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of assignments, Television Broadcast Stations (Augusta, Bangor, Calais and Presque Isle, Maine).

1. The Commission has before it a petition of Coastal Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of standard broadcast station WDEA, Ellsworth, Maine, requesting that the time for filing comments in the above-captioned proceeding be extended for original comments from December 23, 1960, to January 20, 1961, and for reply comments from January 9, 1961, to February 3, 1961.

2. The petitioner states that the additional time requested is needed for it to complete preparation of comments in this proceeding; that in connection therewith, it is making a detailed study of the need for television service in southeastern Maine, and intends to submit a counterproposal in the proceeding, and to comply fully with the Commission's request in the notice for "the most specific and detailed information possible" concerning plans and preparation for the use of the channel proposed for reassignment. Petitioner urges that the Commission and all parties interested in the proceeding will benefit if more time is afforded to permit all parties to make the most complete showing possible in their comments.

3. The Commission is of the view that the public interest will be served by affording the additional time requested for filing comments, and that, in view of the approaching Christmas and New Year holidays, it will not unduly delay the proceeding.

4. Accordingly, it is ordered, This 20th day of December 1960, That the above-mentioned request of Coastal Broadcasting Company, Inc., is granted; that the time for filing comments in this proceeding is extended from December 23, 1960, to January 20, 1961, and that the time for filing reply comments is extended from January 9, 1961, to February 3, 1961.

Released: December 22, 1960.

CERTAIN HUMANELY SLAUGHTERED LIVESTOCK

Identification of Carcasses

Pursuant to section 4 of the Act of August 27, 1958 (7 U.S.C. 1904) and the statement of policy thereunder in 9 CFR 181.1 (25 F.R. 5863) the following table lists the establishments operated under Federal inspection under the Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 71 et seq.) which were officially reported on December 1, 1960, as humanely slaughtering and handling on that date the species of livestock respectively designated for such establishments in the table. Establishments reported after December 1, as using humane methods on December 1, or a later date in December will be listed in a supplemental list. Previously published lists represented establishments reported in November or December 1960 as humanely slaughtering and handling the designated species of livestock on November 1 or some later date in November 1960 (25 F.R. 12257 and 12579). The establishment number given with the name of the establishment is branded on each carcass of livestock inspected at that establishment. The table should not be understood to indicate that all species of livestock slaughtered at a listed establishment are slaughtered and handled by humane methods unless all species are listed for that establishment in the table. Nor should the table be understood to indicate that the affiliates of any listed establishment use only humane methods:

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 11278 etc.; Order No. E-16162]

NEW YORK-SAN JUAN CARGO RATES INVESTIGATION

Supplemental Order of Investigation and Suspension

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 21st day of December 1960.

In the matter of the New York-San Juan cargo rates investigation, Docket 11278 et al.

In the matter of the proposed specific commodity rates of Riddle Airlines, Inc., Pan American World Airways, Inc.; complaints of Trans Caribbean Airways, Inc., Pan American World Airways, Inc., Allied Air Freight International Corp., Dockets 11790, 11796, and 11797.

The Board, by Order E-15851 of September 29, 1960, instituted an investigation of and suspended reduced specific commodity rates between New York and Puerto Rico proposed by Pan American World Airways, Inc., and Riddle Airlines, Inc.

The Board finds that the suspension period of the proposed rates will expire before the investigation of their lawfulness can be concluded and final order made.

Accordingly, it is ordered that:

1. The suspension period of the rates and provisions from Arecibo, Mayaguez, Ponce Ramey Field, and San Juan, P.R., to New York, N.Y., for Commodity Group Nos. 20, 30, and 210 and from New York, N.Y. to Arecibo, Mayaguez, Ponce Ramey Field, and San Juan, P.R. for Commodity Group Nos. 30 and 60 on 16th Revised Page 10 to C.A.B. No. 7 of Riddle Airlines, Inc.; and the rates and provisions from New York, N.Y., to San Juan, P.R., in Item Numbers 1226, 1400, 1500, 2199, 2500Z, 3965, 4702, 6802, 9540, 9700, and 9994, and from San Juan, P.R. to New York, N.Y. in Item Numbers 115, 116, 2990, 4401, 4702, 5000, 9540, and 9994 appearing on Original Page 10-J, 65th Revised Page 38 and 29th Revised Page 40-C to Agent R. C. Lounsbury's C.A.B. No. 118, be and hereby is extended to and including March 30, 1961.

2. A copy of this order shall be filed with the aforesaid tariffs and shall be served upon Allied Air Freight International Corp., Pan American World Airways, Inc., Riddle Airlines, Inc., and Transportation Corporation of America.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] ROBERT C. LESTER,
Secretary.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

SECOND AMENDMENT TO STATEMENT OF GENERAL POLICY NO. 61-1

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

In our Statement of General Policy No. 61-1, issued September 28, 1960, we announced a price level of 14.0 cents per Mcf for increased rates of independent producers in Texas District Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 6. We also stated therein that as it becomes apparent that certain adjustments have general applicability in a specific area, the area price standard will be revised and set forth in greater detail with regard to the conditions to which the rate applies.

Prior to the issuance of Statement of General Policy No. 61-1, the Commission had in numerous cases accepted settlement offers providing for elimination of price redetermination and favored-nation provisions and had accepted increased rates higher than the ceiling for increased rates announced in our Policy Statement for Texas District Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 6.

As a result of our considerable experience with the effects of favored-nation and price redetermination provisions upon independent producer prices, we concluded that acceptance of settlement offers was desirable in the public interest, appropriate to carry out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, and beneficial to ultimate consumers, pipeline purchasers and independent producers. In view of the foregoing, an adjustment to the price level for increased rates in Texas District Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 6, when coupled with the elimination of price redetermination provisions and favored-nation provisions in existing filed rate schedules appears to be appropriate.

Accordingly, the Commission's Statement of General Policy No. 61-1, issued September 28, 1960, as amended, is hereby further amended to provide:

For rate schedules from which favored-nation provisions, price redetermination provisions, and periodic escalation clauses have been eliminated, the area price level for increased rates for natural gas sales by independent producers in Texas District Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 6 is 15¢ per Mcf at 14.65 psia.

For rate schedules from which favored-nation and price redetermination provisions have been eliminated, the area price level for increased rates for natural gas sales by independent producers in Texas District Nos. 2, 3, 4, and 6 is 14.6 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia, provided, however, that any escalations contained in such rate schedules shall not take effect prior to February 5, 1963, further escalations shall not take effect at less than five-year intervals from the effective date of the initial escalation, and the increase in rate for such escalation shall not exceed one cent per Mcf.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Docket No. CP61-78]

ARKANSAS LOUISIANA GAS CO.

Notice of Application and Date of Hearing

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

Take notice that on September 20, 1960, as supplemented on November 4, 1960, Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company (Applicant), Slattery Building, Shreveport, Louisiana, filed in Docket No. CP61-78 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of field facilities to enable Applicant to take into its certificated transmission pipeline system natural gas which will be purchased from producers thereof from time to time during the calendar year 1961 in the general area of Applicant's existing transmission system at a total cost not to exceed $6,918,500, with no single project to exceed a cost of $500,000, all as more fully set forth in the application and supplement which are on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The purpose of this "budget-type" application is to augment applicant's ability to act with reasonable dispatch in contracting for and connecting to its existing pipeline system new supplies of natural gas in various producing areas generally coextensive with said system.

Applicant proposes to finance the cost of the subject facilities from funds on hand, from cash generated by operations and from internal sources.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice, that pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on January 12, 1961, at 9:30 a.m., e.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30(c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before January 10, 1961. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

[Docket No. E-6974]

IOWA POWER AND LIGHT CO.

Notice of Application

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

Take notice that on December 13, 1960, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 203 of the Federal Power Act by Iowa Power and Light Company ("Applicant"), authorizing the sale of certain of its facilities to Iowa Southern Utilities Company (Iowa Southern) and to acquire certain facilities from Iowa Southern. Applicant is a public utility engaged in electric and natural gas service in the central and southwestern sections of Iowa with its principal business office at Des Moines, Iowa. The application is for an exchange of electric facilities between Applicant and Iowa Southern with a consideration of $99,489 to be paid to Applicant by Iowa Southern. Also certain electric facilities of Applicant which are not transferred to Iowa Southern and are no longer needed for service to Iowa Southern will be retired. The proposed exchange is designed so as to give each company ownership of the facilities located in its service area and most directly useful in serving its customers. The exchange in no way affects the immediate use of any property, and the proposed exchange does not include all of the facilities of either of the companies. The major property items involved in the exchange are as follows:

Property now owned by Iowa Power and Light Company and proposed for transfer to Iowa Southern Utilities Company:

1. That portion of Newton-Marshalltown 115,000 volt transmission line owned by Iowa Power and Light Company.

2. Certain facilities at the Newton 115,000/46,000 volt substation.

3. The Newton-Metz tap portion of the Newton-Prairie City 46,000 volt transmission line.

4. Certain metering facilities located in the Chariton substation, Creston plant and Metz pumping station.

Property now owned by Iowa Southern Utilities Company and proposed for transfer to Iowa Power and Light Company:

1. The Prairie City-Skunk River portion of the Prairie City-Newton 69,000 volt transmission line including a small tract of land.

2. Certain facilities in the Prairie City 69,000 volt Switching Station.

Property now owned by Iowa Power and Light Company and proposed for retirement:

1. All remaining facilities located in the Newton substation.

2. The Prairie City-Metz tap portion of the Prairie City-Newton 46,000 volt transmission line.

3. The remaining metering facilities owned in the Chariton substation.

According to the application, the proposed exchange will have no effect upon any contract for the purchase, sale, or interchange of electric energy. Applicant states that the proposed exchange will be in the public interest by helping each utility to render more efficient service to its customers, giving each utility ownership of the facilities that it needs to furnish adequate, reliable service to its customers. The agreement between Applicant and Iowa Southern to effect the above-described exchange is dated August 23, 1960.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before the 9th day of January 1961, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., petitions or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The application is on file and available for public inspection.

JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

AMERICAN RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT CORP. AND TRACERLAB, INC.

Notice of Application for Order Exempting Transactions

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that American Research and Development Corporation ("Research"), a registered closed-end non-diversified management investment company, and Tracerlab, Incorporated ("Tracerlab"), a manufacturing company, have filed an application pursuant to section 17(b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act"), requesting an order exempting from the provisions of section 17(a) of the Act a refunding loan by Research to a wholly owned subsidiary of Tracerlab and the granting by Tracerlab to Research of options to purchase common stock of Tracerlab, as more fully described below.

Tracerlab is a Massachusetts corporation having its principal place of business in Waltham, Massachusetts. Tracerlab's business consists of the manufacture and sale of scientific and industrial instruments and equipment for the utilizing, detection and measurement of radioactivity, research and service activities in the field of nuclear physics and chemistry and, through its wholly owned subsidiary, Keleket X-Ray Corporation, the manufacture and sale of X-Ray equipment, accessories and supplies.

Tracerlab holds a note of its wholly owned subsidiary, Tracerlab Realty Inc. ("TRI"), secured by a second mortgage on the land and building occupied by Tracerlab in Waltham, Massachusetts. Research purchased, pursuant to an order of the Commission dated March 27, 1957 (Investment Company Act Release No. 2502) and amendment thereto dated August 8, 1957 (Investment Company Act Release No. 2570), and now holds a 25 percent participation in such second mortgage indebtedness. Such second mortgage indebtedness became due on September 30, 1960, and Research proposes to make a refunding loan to TRI in the full principal amount of such unpaid indebtedness which refunding loan would extend the maturity of the second mortgage indebtedness to September 30, 1966, and reduce the interest rate thereof from 6 percent to 5 percent per annum. Such refunding note would continue to be secured by a second mortgage on TRI's property. In order to induce Research to take such refunding note, Research will be granted options to purchase additional shares of Tracerlab common stock. Research now owns 88,459 shares of stock.

Tracerlab's plant in Waltham, Massachusetts, is owned by TRI subject to the following:

1. A first mortgage held by The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States in an original principal amount of $1,000,000, of which $886,789 is now outstanding.

2. The second mortgage indebtedness herein described, held by Tracerlab in an original principal amount of $400,000, of which $324,780 is now outstanding. Research's participating interest therein is now $81,195.

3. A long-term lease to Tracerlab, payments under which are stated to be sufficient to service and pay the first and second mortgage indebtedness except for a balance of $341,459.48 in connection with the first mortgage indebtedness to be paid on February 1, 1972.

Tracerlab initially sold to Research a 25 percent participating interest in the original second mortgage note and second mortgage for $100,000, paid in cash. At the same time Research purchased 25,454 shares of Tracerlab's common stock for a price of $5.50 per share. These transactions were consummated pursuant to the above mentioned orders of the Commission. In connection with the sale of the 25 percent participation in the second mortgage indebtedness to Research, Tracerlab entered into an agreement with Research that if Tracerlab did not dispose of the entire second mortgage indebtedness to other interests on or before one year from the date of the acquisition by Research of its certificate of participation, Tracerlab would cause the second mortgage indebtedness to be modified so as to make it due and payable in full on or before September 30, 1960, instead of September 30, 1966. Such second mortgage indebtedness was not so disposed of and accordingly, on June 30, 1958, a new second mortgage note having a maturity of September 30, 1960, was delivered by TRI to Tracerlab, and a new Certificate of Participation therein was delivered by Tracerlab to Research.

TRI desires to refund and extend the maturity of the second mortgage indebtedness for six years to September 30, 1966, and to reduce the interest rate from 6 percent to 5 percent. The proposed refunding by Research of TRI's second mortgage indebtedness will involve an increased investment of $243,584 by Research over the amount of its present participation in such indebtedness. Tracerlab will realize approximately $243,584 of net proceeds through its receipt of payment of the present second mortgage note of TRI which it holds. As further consideration and as an inducement for Research to undertake such refunding, Tracerlab proposes to grant Research an option to purchase at any time or times while the note is unpaid and for a period of thirty days thereafter, up to 25,000 additional shares of Tracerlab common stock at an option price of $11.48 per share, that price for which certain shares were recently exchanged and sold to an investor in Belgium in connection with Tracerlab's acquisition and financing of Physique Industrielle S.A.

The reasons stated in the application for Tracerlab's desire to extend and revise the debt with increased participation by Research, is because payment of Research's present 25 percent participation in the second mortgage indebtedness would decrease Tracerlab's cash when it has a particular need to increase its working capital. Research is willing to take the full amount of such extended and revised indebtedness of TRI because it believes the obligation to be well secured and because Research now holds a substantial amount of Tracerlab common stock and believes it is in the best interests of Tracerlab and its shareholders for Tracerlab to so increase its working capital at this time. The property is stated to be well maintained and is believed to have a realizeable market value substantially in excess of the total mortgage indebtedness. The application also states that Tracerlab's new products have been well received and that the financial position and results of operations of Tracerlab and its subsidiaries have been improving over the past three years. It is also stated that operations for the year 1960 are expected to be profitable assuming no extraordinary changes in general business conditions or in the position of Tracerlab. A net profit of $55,000 is shown for the first six months of 1960.

Section 17(a) of the Act, in pertinent part, prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company from borrowing money from such registered company and from knowingly selling its securities.

Under section 17(b), the Commission shall, however, upon application grant an order exempting proposed transactions of the Applicant if evidence establishes that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid or received, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of the registered investment company concerned, and that the proposed transaction is consistent with the general purposes of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 3, 1961, at 5:30 p.m. submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after such date, as provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

DELAWARE REALTY AND INVESTMENT CO. AND CHRISTIANA SECURITIES CO.

Notice of Filing of Application for Order Exempting Transactions Between Affiliates Incident to a Merger

DECEMBER 19, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that Delaware Realty and Investment Company ("Delaware") and Christiana Securities Company ("Christiana"), both of which are incorporated in the State of Delaware and are registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") as closed-end non-diverafied management investment companies, have filed a joint application pursuant to sections 17(b) and 6(c) of the Act for an order exempting from the provisions of section 17(a) of the Act certain transactions incident to a proposed merger of Delaware into Christiana, with Christiana as the surviving corporation. All interested persons are referred to said application for a statement of the proposed transaction which is summarized below.

Delaware owns 49,000 shares (32.7 percent) of the 150,000 outstanding shares of common (voting) stock of Christiana. Accordingly, Delaware presumptively controls Christiana within the meaning of section 2(a) (9) of the Act, and the companies are affiliated persons as defined in section 2(a) (3) of the Act.

Christiana's assets consist of cash and securities, of which the most important holding is 12,199,200 shares (26.6 percent) of the outstanding common stock of E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Company ("du Pont"). The value of the total net assets of Christiana as of September 30, 1960, with investments reflected at market value on November 11, 1960, was $2,418,263,000, of which 98.6 percent was represented by its holdings of common stock of du Pont. The remaining security holdings of Christiana consist primarily of common stock of General Motors Corporation which represents approximately 1 percent of the value of the assets of Christiana.

Christiana has outstanding 150,000 shares of 7 percent cumulative preferred stock, having a liquidation value of $100 per share and a redemption price of $120 per share, and 150,000 shares of common stock. The net asset value of the common stock of Christiana, based on the market value of its portfolio as of November 11, 1960, and after deducting its outstanding preferred stock at the redemption price, was $16,001.75 per share. The bid price of the common stock in the over-the-counter market on November 11, 1960 was $13,900 per share. There are approximately 3,800 holders of Christiana common stock.

Delaware's assets are represented by cash and security holdings consisting primarily of the above common stock interest in Christiana and 1,217,920 shares (2.7 percent) of the outstanding common stock of du Pont. Its remaining assets consist of 43,500 shares (29 percent) of the cumulative preferred stock of Christiana, 300,000 shares (3.56 percent) of the common stock of Hercules Powder Company ("Hercules"), and 16,256 shares of $4.50 cumulative preferred stock of du Pont. The value of the total net assets of Delaware as of September 30, 1960, based on the net asset value of its common stock interest in Christiana, the redemption price of its holdings of Christiana preferred stock, and the market value of its other security holdings on November 11, 1960, was $1,052,225,000. Of this amount, 74.5 percent was represented by its holdings of Christiana common stock and 22.6 percent by its holdings of du Pont common stock. Delaware's indirect (through Christiana) and direct holdings in du Pont represented more than 97 percent of the value of the net assets of Delaware.

The outstanding securities of Delaware consist of 785,000 shares of common stock, held by approximately 220 stockholders. The underlying net asset value of such stock as of November 11, 1960, determined as above indicated, was $1,340.41 per share. There is no quoted market for such common stock.

Under the proposed plan of merger, the outstanding common stock of Delaware will be converted into such number of shares of common stock of Christiana as determined by dividing the net asset value per share of the Christiana common stock into an amount equal to 98.5 percent of the total underlying net asset value of the Delaware common stock, except that for purposes of determining Delaware's underlying net asset value the market value of its holdings of Hercules common stock will be reduced by an amount equal to one-half of the estimated expenses (approximately 7½ percent of the market value of the stock) and capital gains taxes that would be incurred if there were a public sale of the Hercules stock. The applicants state that the adjustment in respect of the Hercules stock, which would reduce the underlying net asset value of the Delaware common stock as of November 11, 1960, to $1,335.99 per share, is appropriate since it is contemplated that the surviving corporation following the merger will dispose of the Hercules stock because of possible antitrust considerations and that, although the divestment will probably be effected through a voluntary exchange of Hercules stock for outstanding common stock of the surviving corporation, the adjustment reflects reasonable latitude to Christiana in disposing of the Hercules stock without loss and also provides compensation for the market risk which Christiana will undertake up to the time of divestment.

The conversion ratios under the plan of merger will be determined by the respective boards of directors on the basis of valuations made as of the closest practicable date to the closing date, which will be January 16, 1961, or such later date within sixty days thereafter as may be fixed by the boards of directors. On the basis of market values as of November 11, 1960, and giving effect to the methods of valuation employed in the plan, the 785,000 shares of Delaware common stock would be converted into 64,557 shares of Christiana common stock, with each share of Delaware common stock being converted into 0.08224 shares of Christiana common stock. On the basis of market values on November 11, 1960, the pro forma net asset value of the surviving corporation would amount to $16,096.76 per share, or an increase of 0.6 percent over the net asset value of the present Christiana common stock of $16,001.75 per share, while the pro forma net asset value applicable to each present share of Delaware common stock would amount to $1,323.77, or a reduction of 0.9 percent from the adjusted underlying net asset value of the Delaware stock of $1,335.99 per share. On the basis of statements of income of the companies for the year 1959, net income of $524.67 applicable to each share of common stock of Christiana would be increased to $525.64 pro forma after the merger, or an increase of 0.2 percent; and net income of $40.79 applicable to each present share of Delaware common stock would be increased to $43.23 pro forma, or an increase of 6 percent.

All common and preferred stock of Christiana owned by Delaware will be canceled in the merger. All other shares of stock of Christiana will remain outstanding. Christiana will not issue fractional shares to the stockholders of Delaware. In lieu thereof Christiana, in its discretion, may adopt either of the following procedures: (1) Christiana may issue scrip certificates exchangeable until the second anniversary of the date of the merger for common stock when combined in sufficient amount for one full share of stock; or (2) Christiana may afford each stockholder the opportunity for a period of not less than sixty nor more than ninety days following the merger to consolidate his fractional interest into one full share of common stock by purchasing the additional fractional interest required or to sell his fractional interest. Any scrip certificates or fractional interests remaining after the period for consolidation has expired (depending upon which of the foregoing alternative procedures is adopted by Christiana) will be sold and the proceeds held for the persons entitled thereto for a period of six years from the date of the merger, after which any amounts remaining unclaimed will become the property of Christiana.

Under the Delaware Corporation Law, after approval of the agreement of merger by the respective boards of directors of Delaware and Christiana, the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the total outstanding shares of each company will be required, with Christiana's common and preferred stock voting together as a class. Any stockholder not voting in favor of the merger who objects in writing within the prescribed time may receive the appraised value of his shares in cash.

The plan of merger contemplates that shortly following the merger the board of directors of Christiana, as the surviving corporation, will call a meeting of stockholders to vote on a split-up of the Christiana stock on an 80-for-1 basis. It is also contemplated that, to effect the divestment of the common stock of Hercules, an exchange offer will be made to the stockholders of the surviving corporation to tender their Christiana stock for Hercules stock on the basis of the relative market values of the two stocks after discounting the Hercules stock by not more than 15 percent from its market value.

The proposed plan of merger and the method of determining the conversion ratios were developed on the basis of a detailed financial study made by Morgan Stanley & Co., an investment banking firm which has no affiliation with Delaware or Christiana. The study concluded that the merger would confer advantages on the stockholders of both companies and that the terms of the merger were fair and reasonable to them. It deemed the discount of 1.5 percent applied to the adjusted underlying net asset value of the Delaware stock to be justified primarily because of the intercorporate relationships of the two companies and its opinion that a portion of the increase in earnings which would become available to the shareholders of Delaware through the tax savings resulting from a merger should be made available to the shareholders of Christiana as an inducement to them to provide the requisite votes for approval of the merger.

Section 17(a) of the Act prohibits an affiliated person of a registered investment company, or an affiliated person of such a person, from selling to or purchasing from such registered company or any company controlled by such registered company, any security or other property, subject to certain exceptions, unless the Commission upon application pursuant to section 17(b) grants an exemption from the provisions of section 17(a), after finding that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned, as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the Act, and is consistent with the general purposes of the Act. Section 6(c) of the Act provides that the Commission may conditionally or unconditionally exempt any transaction or class of transactions from any provision of the Act if and to the extent such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 12, 1961, submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule O-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

It is ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall give notice of this filing by mailing a copy of this notice by registered mail to Delaware and Christiana; and that applicants shall cause a copy of this notice to be mailed on or before December 23, 1960, to each stockholder of Delaware and Christiana at his last known address.

By the Commission.

DEVONSHIRE STREET FUND, INC.

Notice of Application for Order of Exemption

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that Devonshire Street Fund, Inc. ("Applicant"), of Boston, Massachusetts, a Massachusetts corporation and an open-end, diversified management investing company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act"), has filed an application pursuant to section 6(c) of the Act for an order of the Commission exempting Applicant from compliance with the provisions of section 14(a) of the Act.

Applicant has filed a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, seeking registration of 2,000,000 shares of common stock, $1 par value, to be offered to investors in exchange for such investors' securities. Such registration statement has not as yet become effective. The purpose of the Fund is to provide investors holding securities at relatively low tax bases with a means of exchanging such securities for shares of the Fund, thereby obtaining diversification without incurring any Federal capital gains tax liability at the time of such exchange. Applicant intends to solicit deposits of securities, to be held by an escrow agent in safekeeping for the separate account of each investor, for a period of not to exceed 90 days after the effective date of the Securities Act registration statement. At all times during the solicitation period, the depositing investor will retain all incidents of ownership to the securities deposited, with the right to withdraw such securities from the deposit without charge.

The minimum deposit to be accepted from any investor is to be securities having a market value of $15,000, and the exchange will not be consummated unless the market value of the deposited securities as at the effective date of the planned exchange aggregates a minimum of $10,000,000. In the event that such value is not then realized, the deposited securities wil be returned to investors without charge to them. If such value, determined as at the respective dates of deposits, is obtained upon the termination of the solicitation period, a report describing the deposited securities, including their current market value and their basis for Federal income taxation, will be mailed to all depositing investors, who will then have the right to withdraw any or all of their deposited securities for a period of 20 days from the mailing of the report. During this period and for a further period of 10 days thereafter, Applicant may require any investor to withdraw any or all of his deposited securities, in which event such investor will have the right to withdraw any or all of his securities from the deposit for a further period of 10 days. If, as a result of voluntary withdrawals, an investor's deposited securities are reduced below the $15,000 minimum value, then the investor will be required to withdraw his entire deposit, but such requirement will not be operative if such reduction below the minimum is caused, wholly or in part, by required withdrawals. All of Applicant's shares which are issued in exchange for securities will be issued simultaneously on the effective date of the exchange.

Section 14(a) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that no registered investment company shall make a public offering of its securities unless such company has a net worth of at least $100,000 or unless provision is made as a condition of the registration of its securities under the Securities Act which, in the opinion of the Commission, adequately insures (A) that, after the effective date of such registration statement, it will not issue any security or receive any proceeds of any subscription until no more than 25 responsible persons have made firm agreements to purchase securities in an aggregate net amount which will give the company a net worth of at least $100,000; (B) that said amount will be paid in to such company before subscriptions will be accepted from any persons in excess of 25; and (C) that arrangements will be made whereby any amounts so paid in, plus any sales load, will be refunded to any subscriber on demand in the event the net proceeds so received do not result in the company's having a net worth of at least $100,000 within 90 days after such registration statement becomes effective. Applicant's presently outstanding capital stock consists of three shares of common stock owned by the Fund's proposed investment adviser, which shares were purchased at a price of $12.50 per share. Applicant submits that under the circumstances described the exemption sought would be consistent with the purposes intended to be served by section 14(a).

Section 6(c) of the Act provides, among other things, that the Commission, by order upon application, may conditionally or unconditionally exempt any person from any provision or provisions of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 3, 1961, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule 0–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

LYNN ELECTRIC CO. AND NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

Notice of Filing and Order for Hearing; Order Instituting Proceedings

DECEMBER 20, 1960.

In the matters of Lynn Electric Company and New England Electric System, File No. 59–106; New England Electric System, File No. 54–229.

I. Notice is hereby given that New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, has filed a plan pursuant to section 11(e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") providing for the issue by NEES of its common stock in exchange for the 2.82 percent publicly-held common stock of Lynn Electric Company ("Lynn"), an electric utility subsidiary company of NEES. A copy of the plan may be examined at the offices of this Commission or is available, on request, at the offices of NEES (441 Stuart Street, Boston 16, Massachusetts). All interested persons are referred to said plan for a full statement of the transactions and terms proposed therein which are summarized as follows:

NEES will issue 40,233 shares of its common stock in exchange for the publicly-held common stock of Lynn at the exchange ratio of 2¼ common shares of NEES for each share of common stock of Lynn. No fractional shares will be issued by NEES but, in lieu thereof, fractional scrip, exchangeable for whole shares, will be delivered to the public-holders of the common stock of Lynn and, unless consolidated, will become void five years after the consummation date, as defined in the plan.

The plan will be consummated on a date (called the "Consummation Date") which will be the earliest practicable date after the entry of an order by a Court approving and enforcing the plan and will be effective as of a date (called the "Effective Date") which will be not more than sixty (60) days prior to the Consummation Date. On the Consummation Date NEES will become the owner of all of the shares of common stock of Lynn and all previously existing rights of the public-holders of such common stock will cease. On and after such Consummation Date the public-holders will be entitled to receive NEES' common shares and fractional scrip as provided under the plan (and any dividends that may have been paid on said NEES common shares prior to exchange).

At the end of five (5) years from the Consummation Date any common shares, scrip, and dividends held on account of unexchanged shares of common stock of Lynn shall irrevocably belong to NEES and the public-holders of such stock will have lost all rights with respect thereto.

II. The Commission having been advised by its Division of Corporate Regulation ("Division") that the Division, pursuant to sections 11(a), 18(a), and 18(b) of the Act, has made a preliminary examination of the corporate structure of Lynn, and the relationship between Lynn and the other companies in the NEES holding company system; and it appearing to the Division from such examination that:

1. NEES is a voluntary association created in 1926 in Massachusetts by Agreement and Declaration of Trust, is solely a holding company, and is registered as such under section 5 of the Act.

2. As of June 30, 1960, NEES had outstanding 13,051,590 shares of $1 par value common stock the holders of which are entitled to one vote for each share held and are entitled to dividends out of net earnings or surplus of NEES when declared by the board of directors.

3. NEES owns 97.18 percent of the outstanding shares of common stock of Lynn and the public owns 2.82 percent thereof.

4. Lynn owns and operates facilities for the generation, transmission, distribution, and sale of electric energy.

5. As at June 30, 1960, Lynn's property, plant, and equipment account was stated on its books at $21,409,887 and such account less reserves for depreciation ($7,386,071) amounted to $14,023,816.

6. For the twelve months ended June 30, 1960, Lynn's sales of electric energy amounted to $8,185,893.

7. Of the 265,087,454 kwh electric energy generated (net) and purchased by Lynn in the calendar year 1959, it purchased 137,606,712 kwh from New England Power Company, and 14,954 kwh from Suburban Electric Company, both of which are electric utility companies all of the common stocks of which are owned by NEES. The balance of Lynn's electric energy requirements were generated by itself.

III. The Division avers that the foregoing allegations establish or tend to establish that voting power is unfairly and inequitably distributed among the security holders of Lynn.

IV. It being the duty of the Commission pursuant to section 11(b)(2) of the Act, to require by order, after notice and opportunity for hearing, that each registered holding company and each subsidiary company thereof take such steps as the Commission shall find necessary to ensure that the corporate structure or continued existence of any company in a holding company system does not, among other things, unfairly or inequitably distribute voting power among security holders of such holding company system; and

The Commission being required by the provisions of section 11(e) of the Act to find, after notice and opportunity for hearing and before approving any plan filed thereunder, that such plan, as submitted or as modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11(b) and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate that notice be given and a hearing held for the purpose of determining what action should be ordered under section 11(b)(2) and for the purpose of ascertaining whether the plan should be approved; and

It appearing that common issues of fact and law arise in connection with the plan and in connection with issues involved under section 11(b)(2), making it appropriate that the hearing on said matters be consolidated and that NEES and Lynn should be made parties to the consolidated proceeding:

It is hereby ordered:

(a) That a proceeding be, and the same hereby is, instituted in respect of NEES and Lynn pursuant to section 11(b)(2) of the Act; and

(b) That said proceeding be, and the same hereby is, consolidated with the proceeding in connection with the plan of NEES; and

(c) That NEES and Lynn be, and the same hereby are, made parties to said consolidated proceeding; and

(d) That NEES and Lynn file an answer or answers with the Secretary of the Commission on or before January 12, 1961, to the allegations contained in Parts II and III hereof, in the form prescribed by Rule 25 of the rules and regulations under the Act. Any of such allegations which are not denied or otherwise controverted shall be deemed to be admitted for the purpose of these proceedings.

It is further ordered, That the hearing in the consolidated proceedings be held on the 26th day of January 1961, at 10:00 a.m., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D.C., in such room as may be designated on such date by the hearing room clerk. Any persons desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or proposing to intervene therein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before January 23, 1961, a written request relative thereto as provided in Rule 9 of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under section 18(c) of said Act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Division having advised the Commission that, upon the basis of its preliminary examination of the affairs and of the corporate structures of NEES and Lynn and of a preliminary study of said plan of NEES, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration at such hearing without prejudice, however, to the presentation of additional matters and questions upon further examination:

1. Whether the allegations contained in Parts II and III hereof are true and correct;

2. Whether the corporate structure of Lynn unfairly and inequitably distributes voting power among its security holders, and, if so, what steps, if any, are necessary and should be required to be taken by NEES and Lynn to distribute fairly and equitably the voting power among the security holders of Lynn;

3. Whether the plan, as submitted by NEES or as it may be modified or amended, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11(b)(2) of the Act;

4. Whether the plan is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

5. Whether, in general, the transactions proposed in the plan satisfy the applicable provisions of the Act; and

6. Whether the accounting entries proposed to be made in connection with the plan are proper and in accord with sound accounting principles.

It is further ordered, That at said hearing evidence shall be adduced with respect to the foregoing matters and questions.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and it hereby is, reserved to separate, in whole or in part, either for hearing or for disposition any issues or questions which may arise in these proceedings and to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt, and economical disposition of the matters involved.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of such hearing by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to NEES and Lynn, to the Federal Power Commission, and to The Department of Public Utilities of Massachusetts and that said notice of said hearing be given to all other interested persons by a general release of the Commission and by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That NEES mail a copy of this notice and order to all stockholders of record of Lynn at least twenty-five days prior to the date herein fixed as the date for hearing.

By the Commission.

Each learner certificate has been issued upon the representations of the employer which, among other things, were that employment of learners at subminimum rates is necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, and that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available. The certificates may be annulled or withdrawn, as indicated therein, in the manner provided in Part 528 of Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of any of these certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof within fifteen days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER pursuant to the provisions of 29 CFR 522.9.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 16th day of December 1960.

ROBERT G. GRONEWALD,
Authorized Representative of the Administrator.

PART II

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 25 NUMBER 251

Washington, Wednesday, December 28, 1960

Title 41—PUBLIC CONTRACTS

Chapter 50—Division of Public Contracts, Department of Labor

PART 50-204—SAFETY AND HEALTH STANDARDS FOR FEDERAL SUPPLY CONTRACTS

The Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2036, 41 U.S.C. 35 et seq.) requires that contracts entered into by any agency of the United States for the manufacture or furnishing of materials, supplies, articles, and equipment in any amount exceeding $10,000 must contain, among other provisions, a stipulation that no "part of such contract will be performed nor will any of the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment to be manufactured or furnished under said contract be manufactured or fabricated in any plants, factories, buildings or surroundings or under working conditions which are unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health and safety of employees engaged in the performance of said contract".

A single standard of safety and health conditions is thus required for all work subject to the Act. An objective description of the working conditions encountered, established by a preponderance of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence, is, of course, essential to the administrative application of this standard. A second question which must be resolved is whether conditions of the type described are "unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health or safety of employees". This is a question of fact. For assistance in its resolution, the act provides a special rule of evidence: "Compliance with the safety, sanitary, and factory inspection laws of the State in which the work or part thereof is to be performed shall be prima-facie evidence of compliance with this subsection."

The statutory provision concerning "prima-facie evidence" does not purport to take the place of the uniform national standard. It has application only to issues which require evidence. In the absence of opposing evidence, it authorizes resolution of such issues compatibly with the prima-facie evidence. Also, rules concerning prima-facie evidence obviously have no application in situations where evidence is not required. Where, therefore, the common experience of men is all that is needed to lead a rational and prudent person to the conclusion that certain conditions of employment are incompatible with the safety and health of employees, no defense is provided by the statutory "prima-facie evidence" rule merely because such conditions may not be specifically prohibited in the State safety, sanitary, and factory inspection laws, or the regulations hereby proposed. Neither is it necessary to call a witness to testify concerning the hazardous nature of such conditions.

The statutory rule of "prima-facie evidence" was not designed to deter the Secretary of Labor from diligent inquiry even beyond the safety, sanitary, and factory inspection laws of the several states to discover more directly what are the "working conditions which are unsanitary or habardous or dangerous to the health and safety of employees." This is demonstrated by the provisions in sections 4 and 5 of the Act, directing the Secretary to administer it and authorizing him to appoint experts, make investigations, hold hearings, compel the production of evidence, and make findings of fact. Accordingly, following enactment of the Act, experts were appointed and their testimony used in the administrative enforcement proceedings conducted under section 5 of the Act. Differences of opinion over what conditions of employment fail to meet the statutory standard have thus been resolved with the assistance of expert testimony on a case-by-case basis in nearly a quarter of a century of hearings and findings under the Act. These have been conducted in accordance with sections 5, 7, and 8 of the Administrative Procedure Act since its enactment.

The hazardous characteristic of a particular working condition, is, of course, the likelihood that it will cause illness, or injury in the employment situation. This characteristic is not always immediately apparent. Causative analysis of injury frequency rates in industry has shed much light on the importance of certain precautions not fully appreciated by those responsible for the operation of industrial establishments. The Department's discovery and evaluation of these hazards and the development of the regulations herein promulgated has relied quite extensively on the outstanding contributions of the private and public organizations which are generally accepted as preeminent in this field. Among these are the publications of American Standards Association, Inc., American Society of Mechanical Engineers, National Fire Protection Association, National Board of Fire Underwriters, the Public Health Service of the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Bureau of Mines of the United States Department of the Interior, and the Atomic Energy Commission.

Section 7(d) of the Administrative Procedure Act recognizes that, even in the most formal type of administrative adjudications, agency decision may rest on "official notice of a material fact not appearing in the evidence in the record," but it requires that "any party shall on timely request be afforded an opportunity to show the contrary". The Attorney General's Manual on the Administrative Procedure Act points out (p. 80) that this authority "extends properly to all matters as to which the agency by reason of its functions is presumed to be expert, such as technical or scientific facts within its specialized knowledge. Cf. H.R. Rep. p. 38 (Sen. Doc. p. 272). * * * The matters thus noticed become a part of the record and, unless successfully controverted, furnish the same basis for findings of fact as does 'evidence' in the usual sense."

The hazardous characteristics of many working conditions, thus being facts of a "technical or scientific" nature, and having come within the Department's "specialized knowledge" by reason of its experience, proof of them in administrative adjudications by official notice is appropriate. The facts declared in these regulations are soundly based in the experience of the Department and in the experience of outstanding public and private experts in their specialized divisions of the field of health and safety engineering. The regulations herewith promulgated extend, however, into areas in which reasonable men may differ. Any party to an administrative adjudication who is adversely affected by them will, therefore, have the opportunity to contest them by presenting the issue in his responsive pleading and introducing such evidence as he will be able to muster for consideration at his hearing.

Publication of standards which will underline the enforcement policy of the agency which administers the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act will promote observance of the safety and health requirements by curtailing uncertainty on the part of those whose duty it is to comply. Such publication will permit the administrative adjudication of many safety and health cases without the necessity of calling an expert witness to the place of hearing to testify to the hazardous nature of the working conditions denounced in the regulations. Except in cases where a party gives notice of intent to challenge the safety standards expressed in the regulation at hearing, as provided in the regulations herein promulgated, this element of possible controversy, and occasion of possible variety in decision, will be eliminated. These are the considerations which prompt this use of the authority expressed in section 4 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act to make "such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act."

Radiation standards for inclusion in the regulations herein promulgated as amendments are currently being drafted. They will apply the recommendations of the Federal Radiation Council approved by the President for the guidance of federal agencies May 13, 1960 (25 F.R. 4402).

As these regulations are rules of agency procedure or practice delineating facts which will be officially noticed in enforcement proceedings under section 5 of the Act, notice of proposed rule making and public proceedings in their adoption are not required by subsections 4 (a) and (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act.

In accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238, 5 U.S.C. 1003), therefore, and under the authority of section 4 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (49 Stat. 2038, 41 U.S.C. 38), effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a new Part 50–204—Safety and Health Standards for Federal Supply Contracts, is hereby added to 41 CFR, Chapter 50.

SCOPE AND APPLICATION

50–204.1 Scope and application.

BUILDINGS AND APPURTENANCES

50–204.2 Buildings.
50–204.3 Floors.

STAIRWAYS OR STEPS

50–204.9 Stair width of treads and height of risers.
50–204.10 Stairway maintenance.
50–204.11 Treads.
50–204.12 Stairway railings and handrails.

GUARDING OF FLOOR OPENINGS AND FLOOR HOLES

50–204.17 Stairway floor openings.
50–204.18 Ladderway floor openings.
50–204.19 Hatchway and chute floor.
50–204.20 Floor hole.

GUARDING OF OPEN-SIDED FLOORS, PLATFORMS AND RUNWAYS

50–204.25 Open-sided floor and platform.
50–204.26 Runway, guarding.

RAILINGS AND GUARDS

50–204.27 Standard railing.
50–204.28 Stair railing.
50–204.29 Strength of standard railing and stair railing.

ELEVATORS

50–204.34 Elevator inspection.
50–204.35 Hoistways.
50–204.36 Under car safety device.
50–204.37 Hatch limit controls.

ILLUMINATION

50–204.42 Minimum standards.

LADDERS

50–204.47 Construction and use of portable ladders.
50–204.48 Rails of portable ladders.
50–204.49 Painting of wooden ladders.
50–204.50 Stepladders.
50–204.51 Fixed ladders.

AISLES AND PASSAGEWAYS

50–204.56 Maintenance.
50–204.57 Aisle widths.

MATERIAL STORAGE

50–204.62 Height.
50–204.63 Small articles.
50–204.64 Pipe and other long stock.
50–204.65 Hazardous chemicals.
50–204.66 Gases in cylinders.

OUTDOOR STORAGE

50–204.71 Aisle spacing.
50–204.72 Housekeeping.
50–204.73 Drainage.
50–204.74 Clearance signs.
50–204.75 Derail and bumper blocks.
50–204.76 Traffic control signs.
50–204.77 Open pits, tanks, vats, ditches, etc.

FLAMMABLE LIQUIDS

50–204.82 Sources of ignition.
50–204.83 Vegetation removal.
50–204.84 Housekeeping.
50–204.85 Electrical lighting.
50–204.86 Ventilation.
50–204.87 Refuse storage.
50–204.88 Open flame devices prohibited.
50–204.89 Bonding and grounding.
50–204.90 Relief vents.
50–204.91 Storage in other than flammable storage buildings.
50–204.92 Safety containers.

PAINTS AND PAINTING

50–204.97 Storage of paints, varnishes, lacquers, thinners, etc.
50–204.98 Storage locations.
50–204.99 Storage of flammable paint materials in opened containers.
50–204.100 Paint-soiled clothing and drop cloth.
50–204.101 Housekeeping: paint scrapings and paint saturated containers.
50–204.102 Ventilation of harmful substances.
50–204.103 Ventilation of flammable vapors.
50–204.104 Smoking or open flames prohibited.
50–204.105 Electrical equipment.
50–204.106 Electric motors.
50–204.107 Enclosure driving belts.
50–204.108 Storage of combustible and flammable cleaning materials.

FIRE PREVENTION

50–204.113 Equipment, general.
50–204.114 First aid fire fighting extinguishers, general rules.
50–204.115 Classification of extinguishers.

PRESSURE VESSELS

50–204.120 Boilers.
50–204.121 Steam cookers, digesters, glue pots, etc.
50–204.122 Unfired pressure vessels.

TOOLS AND EQUIPMENT

50–204.127 Maintenance.
50–204.128 Portable electric power tools.
50–204.129 Portable pneumatic tools.
50–204.130 Cables, ropes, and chains.

VENTILATION AND PROTECTION IN WELDING AND CUTTING

50–204.135 Welding and cutting in confined spaces.
50–204.136 Ventilation in confined spaces.
50–204.137 Mechanical ventilation.
50–204.138 Welding and cutting involving metals of toxic significance.
50–204.139 Protection to other employees.
50–204.140 Inert-gas-metal arc welding.
50–204.141 General welding and cutting.

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT

50–204.148 General plant wiring.

MECHANICAL POWER TRANSMISSION APPARATUS

50–204.153 Flywheels.
50–204.154 Cranks and connecting rods.
50–204.155 Tail rods or extension piston rods.
50–204.156 Governor balls.
50–204.157 Shafting installation.
50–204.158 Guarding horizontal shafting.
50–204.159 Guarding vertical and inclined shafting.
50–204.160 Projecting shaft ends.
50–204.161 Power-transmission apparatus located in basements.
50–204.162 Pulleys.
50–204.163 Horizontal belts, ropes and chain drives.
50–204.164 Overhead chain and link belt drives.
50–204.165 Vertical and inclined belts.
50–204.166 Vertical belts.
50–204.167 Cone-pulley belts.
50–204.168 Gears.
50–204.169 Sprockets and chains.
50–204.170 Openings for oiling.
50–204.171 Friction drives.
50–204.172 Keys, set screws, and other projections.
50–204.173 Collars.
50–204.174 Couplings.

GUARD STANDARDS FOR MECHANICAL POWER TRANSMISSION

50–204.179 Materials.
50–204.180 Disk, shield, and "U" guards.
50–204.181 Approved materials.
50–204.182 Wood guards.
50–204.183 Guards for horizontal overhead belts.
50–204.184 Guards for horizontal overhead rope and chain drives.
50–204.185 Guard rails and toe boards.

MISCELLANEOUS MACHINE GUARDING

50–204.190 Lathes and automatic screw machines.
50–204.191 Drill presses.
50–204.192 Planers and shapers (metal).
50–204.193 Shears.
50–204.194 Guillotine cutters, power-driven.
50–204.195 Power presses.
50–204.196 Foot and hand presses.
50–204.197 Other power-press safety devices.
50–204.198 Platen presses.
50–204.199 Abrasive wheels.
50–204.200 Revolving drums and cylinders.
50–204.201 Fans.

WOODWORKING MACHINERY

50–204.208 Circular table saws.
50–204.209 Swing and sliding cut-off saws.
50–204.210 Inverted swing cut-off saws (jump saws).
50–204.211 Radial saws.

50–204.212 Portable circular saws.
50–204.213 Band saws and band resaws.
50–204.214 Jointers.
50–204.215 Wood shapers, hand-feed panel raisers and similar machines.
50–204.216 Planing, molding, sticking and matching machines.
50–204.217 Sanding machines.

HOUSEKEEPING

50–204.229 General.
50–204.230 Floors.
50–204.231 Flammable materials.
50–204.232 Tools and other materials.
50–204.233 Receptacles for waste disposal.
50–204.234 Sweeping and refuse removal.

TOILET FACILITIES AND WASH ROOMS

50–204.239 Separate toilet for each sex.
50–204.240 Location.
50–204.241 Water closets.
50–204.242 Construction of toilet rooms.
50–204.243 Chemical closets and privies.
50–204.244 Washing facilities.
50–204.245 Change rooms.
50–204.246 Retiring rooms for women.

LUNCH ROOMS AND FOOD HANDLING

50–204.251 Location.
50–204.252 Waste food disposal.
50–204.253 Presence of toxic materials.

DRINKING WATER

50–204.258 Potable water.
50–204.259 Non-potable water.

MEDICAL SERVICES

50–204.264 Medical services.

EYE PROTECTION

50–204.269 General requirement.
50–204.270 First-aid for chemical burns.

ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS

50–204.275 Toxic gases, vapors, fumes, dust and mists.
50–204.276 Threshold limit values.

VENTILATION

50–204.288 General ventilation and temperature requirement.
50–204.289 Local exhaust ventilation.

NOISE

50–204.293 Noise.

PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

50–204.298 Personal protective equipment.

MINING

50–204.300 Federal Mine Safety Code.

AUTHORITY: §§ 50–204.1 to 50–204.300 issued under sec. 4, 49 Stat. 2038, 41 U.S.C. 38. Interpret or apply sec. 1, 49 Stat. 2036, 41 U.S.C. 35.

§ 50–204.1 Scope and application.

(a) The Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (40 Stat. 2036, 41 U.S.C. 35 et seq.) requires that contracts entered into by any agency of the United States for the manufacture or furnishing of materials, supplies, articles, and equipment in any amount exceeding $10,000 must contain, among other provisions, a stipulation that "No part of such contract will be performed nor will any of the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment to be manufactured or furnished under said contract be manufactured or fabricated in any plants, factories, buildings or surroundings or under working conditions which are unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health and safety of employees engaged in the performance of the contract." This Part 50–204 of this chapter expresses certain minimum safety and health standards which will be applied in the administration and enforcement of the Act, including proceedings under its section 5 and 41 CFR Part 50–203, Subpart A, to determine whether particular contracts subject to the Act are being, or have been, performed in compliance with its safety and health requirements.

(b) In all administrative, enforcement, and investigative proceedings conducted by the United States Department of Labor under the Act, official notice will be taken of the fact that failure to comply with the requirements expressed in this Part 50–204 of this chapter results in working conditions which are "unsanitary or hazardous to employees" within the meaning of section 1(e) of the Act, and contracts incorporating the stipulation it requires.

(c) In formal enforcement proceedings under section 5 of the Act, respondents will be permitted to demonstrate, by reliable, substantial, and probative evidence, that their failure to comply with the requirements expressed in Part 50–204 of this chapter did not result in working conditions which were "unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to employees," but only if the answer to the complaint, filed under 41 CFR 50–203.3, makes express allegation to that effect, identifying the particular code unit challenged and setting out the factual basis for the challenge. In the event such issue is drawn, and reliable, substantial, and probative evidence is introduced in support of the challenge, the pertinent portions of the publications of the American Standards Association, Inc., American Society of Mechanical Engineers, National Fire Protection Association, National Board of Fire Underwriters, the Public Health Service of the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Bureau of Mines of the United States Department of the Interior, and the Atomic Energy Commission will be considered, together with any other evidence that may be adduced in support of the regulation, on the issue whether the preponderance of the reliable, substantial, and probative evidence supports a finding that the working conditions prohibited in the regulation are unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health and safety of employees.

(d) The standards expressed in Part 50–204 of this chapter are for application to ordinary employment situations, and do not preclude proof or recognition of the necessity of higher standards for employment situations of extraordinary hazard. Neither do the standards expressed in this Part 50–204 of this chapter purport to describe all of the working conditions which are unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health and safety of employees. Other working conditions may be found to be unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health and safety of employees on evidence to that effect, or without such evidence, where such unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous characteristic should be apparent to a rational and prudent person of common experience.

(e) Compliance with the standards expressed in Part 50–204 of this chapter will not relieve anyone from any obligation to comply with any more strict standard stemming from any other source whatsoever.

BUILDINGS AND APPURTENANCES

§ 50–204.2 Buildings.

Buildings and all appurtenances thereto, including bridges, towers, balconies, runways, and platforms, shall be structurally safe to prevent collapse.

§ 50–204.3 Floors.

(a) No floor or platform shall be so loaded as to have a factor of safety of less than four. That is, the weight placed upon a floor or platform shall not exceed one-fourth of the breaking strength of the platform or floor.

(b) Floors, other than those resting directly on solid ground, when used for heavy storage shall be clearly posted to show maximum safe floor loads.

(c) All floor surfaces shall be kept clean and dry and maintained in a smooth (free from holes or projections that might cause tripping and reasonably nonslippery) condition.

(d) Where the type of operation necessitates working on floor areas which would be otherwise wet or slippery, such areas shall be covered with mats, grates, cleats, or other high friction floor coverings.

(e) Safe means of access, suited to conditions, shall be provided to every overhead point to which employees are called upon to go in connection with their employment.

§ 50–204.4 Building egress.

(a) Exits. Not less than two means of egress (other than ladders or elevators) as remote from each other as possible, shall be provided on every floor, including basements and cellars of every building or section where persons are employed. On the street floor at least one of these shall be a door leading directly outside the building, and the other may be a door leading outside the building, or a standard horizontal exit. On upper floors and basements, one exit shall be an enclosed stairway or smokeproof tower and the other or others may be inside stairways or horizontal exits or fire escape stairs.

(b) Exit doors. Doors shall swing in the direction of exit and open in such a manner as not to obstruct passageways or corridors used as ways of egress. No chairs or seats, fixtures, chutes, materials, or equipment shall block or in any way jeopardize the use of ways and means provided for egress. All exit doors and windows used as means of egress in case of fire or panic shall be so arranged as always to be opened readily from the inside. Locks on doors and windows, if provided, shall not require the use of a key to open.

(c) Exit signs. All exits or means of egress shall be provided with a sign having on it the word "EXIT" which shall be in letters at least five inches in height and plainly indicate to persons within the building the location of such egress.

Directional signs to the means of egress should be provided where necessary.

STAIRWAYS OR STEPS

§ 50–204.9 Stair width of treads and height of risers.

There shall be no variation in the width of treads and height of risers in any flight. Where variation in heights of risers in different flights is necessary on account of varying story heights, such variations shall not exceed 3/16 inch. All treads shall be at least 10 inches wide.

§ 50–204.10 Stairway maintenance.

Every stairway or step shall be maintained in good repair, free from protruding bolts, screws, nails, dirt, or slippery conditions, and no storage shall be permitted on stairways.

§ 50–204.11 Treads.

Treads shall be renewed when the surface, including the nosing, shows wear to the extent of ¼ inch or more. All metal treads shall have a surface which will reasonably prevent slipping.

§ 50–204.12 Stairway railings and handrails.

Every flight of stairs having four or more risers shall be equipped with a stair railing or handrails constructed to conform to the requirements of sections 50–204.28 and 50–204.29 under the following conditions:

(a) On stairways of width less than 44 inches and having both sides enclosed—at least one handrail on the right side descending.

(b) On stairways of width less than 44 inches and having one side open—at least one stair railing that shall be on the open side.

(c) On stairways of width less than 44 inches and having both sides open—one stair railing on each side.

(d) On stairways of width 44 inches or more but less than 88 inches—one handrail on each enclosed side and one stair railing on each open side.

(e) On stairways 88 inches or more in width—one handrail on each enclosed side, one stair railing on each open side and one intermediate stair railing located approximately midway of the width.

(f) Winding stairs shall be equipped with a handrail so offset as to prevent walking on any portions of the treads having width less than 6 inches.

GUARDING OF FLOOR OPENINGS AND FLOOR HOLES

§ 50–204.17 Stairway floor openings.

A railing constructed to conform to the requirements of sections 50–204.28 and 50–204.29 shall be provided on all exposed sides of stairway floor openings (except at entrance to stairway). Standard toe boards shall be provided also, except in stair towers.

§ 50–204.18 Ladderway floor openings.

Every ladderway floor opening shall be guarded by a standard railing with standard toe board on all exposed sides, except at entrance to opening.

§ 50–204.19 Hatchway and chute floor.

Every hatchway and chute floor opening shall be guarded either by:

(a) Hinged floor-opening cover of standard strength and construction equipped with railing constructed in accordance with sections 50–204.27 and 50–204.29 so as to leave no exposed side. When the opening is not in use the cover shall be closed.

(b) A removable railing with toe boards on not more than two sides of the opening and permanent railings with toe boards on all other exposed sides both constructed in accordance with sections 50–204.27 and 50–204.29. The removable railings shall be kept in place when the opening is not in use.

(c) Where operating conditions necessitate the feeding of material into any hatchway or chute opening from all sides, the guarding requirements will be satisfied if bars, chains, or other adequate protection is provided to prevent a person from falling through the opening.

§ 50–204.20 Floor hole.

Every floor hole except those described in sections 50–204.17, 50–204.18, 50–204.19 shall be guarded either by:

(a) A railing constructed in conformance with the requirement in sections 50–204.27 and 50–204.29 with standard toe board on all exposed sides; or

(b) A floor opening cover, hinged in place. While the cover is open, floor holes shall be constantly attended by someone or shall be protected by a portable enclosing railing.

GUARDING OF OPEN-SIDED FLOORS, PLATFORMS AND RUNWAYS

§ 50–204.25 Open-sided floor and platform.

(a) Every open-sided floor shall be guarded by a railing constructed in accordance with sections 50–204.27 and 50–204.29 on all open sides 5 feet or more above the adjacent floor or ground level, except where there is entrance to a ramp, stairway or fixed ladder. The railing shall be provided with a toe board wherever, beneath the open sides,

(1) Persons can pass,

(2) There is moving machinery, or

(3) There is equipment with which falling materials could create a hazard.

(b) The intermediate railing and toe board required by sections 50–204.27 and 50–204.29 may be omitted where materials have to be regularly passed over the edge of the floor (as in lumber storage), or where the railing is set back 12 inches or more from the edge.

(c) The entire railing may be temporarily removed from particular sections of open-sided floors where regular operating conditions make a permanent railing wholly impracticable.

§ 50–204.26 Runway guarding.

Every runway shall be guarded by a railing constructed in accordance with sections 50–204.27 and 50–204.29 on all open sides 5 feet or more above floor or ground level. Wherever tools, machine parts or materials are likely to be used on the runway, a toe board shall also be provided on each exposed side.

(a) Runways, used exclusively for special purposes (such as oiling, shafting or filling tank cars), may have the railing on one side omitted where operating conditions necessitate such omission, providing there is no falling hazard.

RAILINGS AND GUARDS

§ 50–204.27 Standard railing.

A standard railing shall consist of top rail, intermediate rail and posts, having a vertical height of 42 inches from upper surface of top rail to floor, platform, runway or ramp level. The top rail shall be smooth surfaced throughout the length of the railing. The intermediate rail shall be approximately halfway between the top rail and floor, platform, runway or ramp. The ends of the rails shall not overhang the terminal posts except where such overhang does not constitute a projection hazard.

§ 50–204.28 Stair railing.

A stair railing shall be of construction similar to a standard railing but the vertical height shall be not more than 34 inches nor less than 30 inches from upper surface of top rail to surface of tread in line with face of riser at forward edge of tread.

(a) Intermediate rails shall not be required where stairways are 22 inches or less in width.

§ 50–204.29 Strength of standard railing and stair railing.

The strength of standard railings and stair railings under different types of construction is specified as follows:

(a) Wood railing: For wood railings, the posts shall be of at least 2 inch by 4 inch stock spaced not to exceed 8 feet; the top rails shall be of at least 2 inch by 4 inch stock or of two right angle pieces of at least 1 inch by 4 inch stock and the intermediate rails shall be of at least 2 inch by 2 inch stock or of at least 1 inch by 4 inch stock.

(b) Pipe railing: For pipe railings, the posts and top rails shall be metal pipe of at least 1¼ inches inside diameter and the intermediate rails shall be metal pipe of at least 1 inch inside diameter. The spacing of posts shall not exceed 8 feet.

(c) Structural metal railings: For structural metal railings, the posts and top rails shall be angle iron of at least 1½ inches by 1½ inches by 3/16 inch or other structural shapes of equivalent bending strength; and the intermediate rails shall be angle iron of at least 1¼ inches by 1¼ inches by ⅛ inch or other structural shapes of equivalent bending strength. The spacing of posts shall not exceed 8 feet.

(d) Anchor posts: The anchoring of posts and framing of members for railings of all types shall be of such construction that the completed structure shall be capable of withstanding a load of at least 200 pounds applied in any direction at any point of the top rail.

(e) Toe board: A toe board shall be 4 inches in vertical height from top edge to the level of the floor, platform, runway, or ramp. It shall be securely fastened in place and with not more than ¼ inch clearance above floor level. It may be made of any substantial material either solid or with openings not over 1 inch in length.

ELEVATORS

§ 50–204.34 Elevator inspection.

Elevator inspection by a competent elevator inspection service or maintenance contract on an annual basis will be acceptable as evidence of satisfactory installation and maintenance.

§ 50–204.35 Hoistways.

All hoistway openings at the floor level to the elevator shall be protected by doors or gates either manually or mechanically operated, and interlocked with the elevator control so that it is impossible to start the elevator until the door or gate is locked in the closed position, and also so that it is impossible to open the door or gate when the car is not at the landing.

§ 50–204.36 Under car safety device.

All elevators other than hydraulic elevators shall be equipped with an under car safety device operated by speed governor control that will hold the elevator in case of cable failure or over speeding.

§ 50–204.37 Hatch limit controls.

All types of elevators shall be equipped with upper and lower travel limit devices that will normally bring the car to rest at either terminal, and a final limit switch that will prevent the movement in either direction if opened by the car as the result of excessive over travel in either direction.

ILLUMINATION

§ 50–204.42 Minimum standards.

(a) Illumination shall be provided and distributed to all working areas as required in these regulations.

(b) Seeing tasks requiring discrimination of fine detail under conditions of fair contrast and where the nature of the work is very exacting and prolonged shall be provided with a minimum of 100 foot-candles of illumination.

(c) Seeing tasks requiring discrimination of detail over prolonged periods of time and under conditions of moderate contrast shall be provided with a minimum of 50 foot-candles of illumination.

(d) Seeing tasks requiring moderate discrimination of detail over intermittent periods of time and under conditions of normal contrast shall be provided with a minimum of 30 foot-candles of illumination.

(e) Casual seeing tasks not involving discrimination of fine detail shall be provided with a minimum of 10 foot-candles of illumination.

(f) Rough seeing tasks not requiring critical seeing shall be provided with a minimum of 5 foot-candles of illumination

LADDERS

§ 50–204.47 Construction and use of portable ladders.

Portable ladders shall be substantially built, set level and well secured.

§ 50–204.48 Rails of portable ladders.

Rails of portable ladders shall always project at least three feet above working level and shall be of sound material.

§ 50–204.49 Painting of wooden ladders.

Wooden ladders shall not be painted, as painting covers up defects. Linseed oil or oil stain shall be used instead.

§ 50–204.50 Stepladders.

All stepladders shall be provided with an automatic locking device or spreader of not more than 40 degrees to hold the front and back sections in open position.

§ 50–204.51 Fixed ladders.

(a) Rest platforms: If fixed ladders are used to ascend to heights exceeding 30 feet, a landing or rest platform shall be provided for each 30 feet or fraction thereof unless the ladder is provided with safety cages.

(b) Rails: Rails of fixed ladders to landings shall extend a distance of at least 3 feet above the landing.

(c) Rungs: The rungs may be omitted above the landing. Where an employee must step a greater distance than 14 inches from the ladder to roof, tank, hoist, etc., a landing shall be provided.

(d) Guard rails: All fixed ladder landings shall be equipped with a standard guard rail and toe boards, so arranged as to give the safest possible access to the ladder. Such platforms shall not be less than 24 inches in width.

AISLES AND PASSAGEWAYS

§ 50–204.56 Maintenance.

Permanent aisles and passageways shall be kept clear and in good repair, with no obstructions across or in aisles that might cause tripping. Where, due to lack of proper identification, aisles and passageways are likely to become hazardous, they shall be clearly defined by painted lines, curbings, or other methods of marking.

§ 50–204.57 Aisle widths.

Where industrial trucks are in customary use, one-way traffic aisles shall be at least 2 feet wider than the widest vehicle. Two-way aisles shall be at least 3 feet wider than twice the width of the widest vehicle.

MATERIAL STORAGE

§ 50–204.62 Height.

(a) All material in bags, containers, or bundles, stored in tiers, shall be stacked, blocked, interlocked, and limited in height so that it is stable, so that it is secure against sliding or collapse.

(b) Where automatic sprinkler protection is provided, clearance of at least 18 inches shall be maintained between the tops of materials and the underside of lowest beams or other overhead structures. Where reliance is placed on hose streams, clearance of at least 3 feet shall be maintained between the tops of piles and the underside of the lowest beams, girders, or other obstructions which restrict the play of hose streams over the material.

§ 50–204.63 Small articles.

Small articles shall be stored in containers suitable to the material, such as small cans or trays that can be stacked.

§ 50–204.64 Pipe and other long stock.

Pipe and other long stock shall be stored in suitable racks or blocked to prevent spreading or rolling. Projecting ends shall be protected by location, railings, or barriers.

§ 50–204.65 Hazardous chemicals.

Hazardous chemicals shall be distinctively marked to indicate their nature and stored in containers or locations suitable to the material.

§ 50–204.66 Gases in cylinders.

(a) Cylinders shall be supported in an upright position so as to prevent them from falling or rolling.

(b) Cylinders shall be kept away from excessive heat, such as the direct rays of the sun.

(c) Cylinders shall be stored away from combustible materials.

(d) Empty cylinders shall be plainly marked "EMPTY," and the valves shall be closed. The empty cylinders shall be segregated from the full cylinders and returned to the supplier as soon as practicable.

(e) Valve covers shall be kept in place at all times when the cylinder is not in use.

OUTDOOR STORAGE

§ 50–204.71 Aisle spacing.

Aisles shall be maintained between piles, between buildings, and between piles and the boundary of the storage site. Aisles shall be wide so as to reduce the danger of spread of fire from pile to pile and to permit ready access for fire fighting or emergency removal of material.

§ 50–204.72 Housekeeping.

The entire storage site shall be kept free from unnecessary accumulations of combustible materials. Weeds and grass shall be kept down and the area kept clean.

§ 50–204.73 Drainage.

Proper drainage shall be provided.

§ 50–204.74 Clearance signs.

Clearance signs to warn of clearance limits shall be provided.

§ 50–204.75 Derail and bumper blocks.

Derail and bumper blocks shall be provided on spur tracks.

§ 50–204.76 Traffic control signs.

Traffic control signs to warn pedestrian, vehicular, and railroad traffic shall be provided.

§ 50–204.77 Open pits, tanks, vats, ditches, etc.

Covers or guard rails shall be provided to protect all open pits, tanks, vats, ditches, etc. near which people are regularly employed.

FLAMMABLE LIQUIDS

§ 50–204.82 Sources of ignition.

All sources of ignition shall be prohibited in areas where flammable liquids are stored, handled, and processed. Suitable warning and "No Smoking" signs shall be posted in all such areas.

§ 50-204.83 Vegetation removal.

The areas where flammable liquids are stored, handled, or processed shall be left clear of rubbish, brush, long grass, or other combustible material at all times.

§ 50-204.84 Housekeeping.

Accumulations of flammable liquids on floors, walls, and other surfaces, are prohibited. All spills of flammable liquids shall be cleaned up immediately.

§ 50-204.85 Electrical lighting.

Electrical lighting shall be the only means used for artificial illumination in areas where flammable liquids, vapors, fumes, dust, or gases are present. All electrical equipment and installations shall be of the explosion proof type.

§ 50-204.86 Ventilation.

All buildings, rooms and compartments where flammable liquids are stored, processed, or used shall be properly ventilated to prevent accumulation of flammable vapors.

§ 50-204.87 Refuse storage.

In buildings, shops, or rooms where flammable liquids are handled or stored, a self-closing metal refuse can shall be provided and maintained in good condition.

§ 50-204.88 Open flame devices prohibited.

Open flame heating devices shall not be used in areas where flammable liquids are present.

§ 50-204.89 Bonding and grounding.

Storage tanks and systems shall be electrically bonded and grounded.

§ 50-204.90 Relief vents.

Storage tanks shall be equipped with proper relief vents. Tank vents shall not be located close to open flames, stacks, heating apparatus, or any other source of ignition. Vent screens shall not be painted.

§ 50-204.91 Storage in other than flammable storage buildings.

A ventilated steel cabinet or a cabinet lined with noncombustible material shall be provided for the storage of more than a total of 10 gallons of flammable liquids in buildings used for other than storage. Not more than a total of 50 gallons shall be stored in any one cabinet, nor shall any individual container exceed 5 gallon capacity in such a cabinet. Containers must be of metal and kept tightly closed. Storage in drums of over 50 gallons of flammable liquids shall be outside the work room.

§ 50-204.92 Safety containers.

Handling of all flammable liquids by hand containers shall be in approved type safety containers substantially constructed to avoid the danger of leakage and designed to minimize the likelihood of spilling.

PAINTS AND PAINTING

§ 50-204.97 Storage of paints, varnishes, lacquers, thinners, etc.

Packages containing paints, varnishes, lacquers, thinners, or other volatile materials shall be kept tightly closed when not in actual use.

§ 50-204.98 Storage locations.

Sealed containers of paints, varnishes, lacquers, thinners, and other flammable paint materials, shall be kept in a well-ventilated location, free from excessive heat, smoke, sparks, flame, or direct rays of the sun.

§ 50-204.99 Storage of flammable paint materials in opened containers.

Flammable paint materials, when in excess of 10 gallons and not exceeding 50 gallons, shall be stored in a ventilated steel cabinet, or a cabinet lined with noncombustible material. Containers shall be kept tightly closed when not in use.

§ 50-204.100 Paint-soiled clothing and drop cloth.

Paint-soiled clothing and drop cloths, when not in use, shall be stored in well-ventilated steel cabinets.

§ 50-204.101 Housekeeping.

Paint scrapings and paint saturated debris shall be removed from the premises daily.

§ 50-204.102 Ventilation of harmful substances.

Ventilation adequate to reduce the concentration of harmful substances in the atmosphere shall be provided, as referred to in section 50-204.86.

§ 50-204.103 Ventilation of flammable vapors.

Ventilation adequate to prevent the accumulation of flammable vapors to hazardous levels of concentration shall be provided in all areas where spray painting, dipping or similar processes are performed.

§ 50-204.104 Smoking or open flames prohibited.

No smoking, open flame, exposed flame heating elements, or other sources of ignition of any kind shall be permitted in areas or rooms where spray painting, paint dipping or similar processes are done.

§ 50-204.105 Electrical equipment.

When electric lights, switches, or electrical equipment are necessary where indoor spray painting, paint dipping or similar processes are performed, they shall be of the explosion-proof type.

§ 50-204.106 Electric motors.

Electric motors driving exhaust fans shall not be placed inside booths or ducts exhausting flammable materials.

§ 50-204.107 Enclosure driving belts.

Belts shall not enter duct or booth exhausting flammable materials unless belt and pulley within the duct or booth are thoroughly enclosed.

§ 50-204.108 Storage of combustible and flammable cleaning materials.

Combustible and flammable cleaning materials at the establishment shall be stored in tightly closed metal containers.

FIRE PREVENTION

§ 50-204.113 Equipment general.

Fire fighting equipment suitable to the conditions and hazards involved shall be provided and maintained in an effective operating condition. A systematic inspection of these devices is required.

§ 50-204.114 First-aid fire fighting extinguishers, general rules.

The following general rules shall be applied to all types of first-aid fire extinguishers:

(a) Persons who may have occasion to use any fire extinguisher shall have knowledge of the proper way to use the device effectively.

(b) The instructions of the manufacturer of the extinguisher as to charging, maintenance and operations shall be followed exactly. All extinguishers shall be examined at least once a year to determine positively that they are in operating condition.

(c) Frequent inspections shall be made to determine that extinguishers are in their designated places, are readily accessible, have not been damaged or tampered with, and that nozzles are not clogged.

§ 50-204.115 Classification of extinguishers.

Listed below are various classes of fires and the extinguishing equipment which shall be maintained appurtenant to the various materials identified.

(a) Class "A" Fires. Fires in ordinary combustible materials where the quenching and cooling effects of quantities of water or solutions containing large percentage of water are of first importance. Required extinguishing equipment—soda and acid, pump tank extinguishers or water barrels and buckets.

(b) Class "B" Fires. Fires in flammable liquids, greases, and similar materials, where blanketing effect is essential. Required extinguishing equipment—foam, carbon tetrachloride, CO_2, dry powder type extinguishers, or sand buckets and scoops. Carbon tetrachloride extinguishers shall not be used in a confined area.

(c) Class "C" Fires. Fire in electrical equipment where the use of nonconducting extinguishing agent is of first importance. Required extinguishing equipment—CO_2, or dry powder pressure-type extinguishers.

PRESSURE VESSELS

§ 50-204.120 Boilers.

Boiler inspection and approval on an annual basis by a recognized boiler inspection service will be acceptable evidence of satisfactory installation and maintenance.

§ 50-204.121 Steam cookers, digester, glue pots, etc.

All pressure vessels to which steam is supplied from an outside source shall be designed for the maximum line pressure to which the vessel will be subjected. On such vessels it is required that, in addition to the necessary pressure reducing valve, a safety valve be installed on the vessel itself or on the line between it and the pressure reducer. There shall be no means of cutting off or bypassing this safety valve. Inspection and adequate maintenance of the vessel, including regular testing of the safety valve, are mandatory.

§ 50-204.122 Unfired pressure vessels.

(a) Air receivers shall be so installed that all drains, handholes, and manholes therein are easily accessible.

(b) Air receivers shall be supported with sufficient clearance to permit a complete external inspection and to avoid corrosion of external surfaces.

(c) Under no circumstances shall air receivers be buried underground or located in an inaccessible place.

(d) The receiver shall be located as close to the compressor or aftercooler as is possible to keep the discharge short.

(e) The receiver shall be located in a cool place to facilitate the condensation of moisture and oil vapors.

TOOLS AND EQUIPMENT

§ 50-204.127 Maintenance.

Each employer shall be responsible for the safe condition of the tools used by his employees, whether furnished by him or by them, and be sure that such tools are suited by safe design and construction for the work to be done.

§ 50-204.128 Portable electric power tools.

(a) Electric power tools showing worn, deteriorated or inadequate insulation, split or chipped plugs, worn or bent plugs, terminals, defective switch, shall be repaired.

(b) Portable electric power tools shall be effectively grounded to maintain at all times an effective ground on the noncurrent carrying parts of the tools.

§ 50-204.129 Portable pneumatic tools.

(a) The operating trigger on portable hand-operated pneumatic equipment shall be so located as to minimize the possibility of accidental operation and shall be arranged to close the air inlet valve automatically when the pressure of the operator's hand is removed.

(b) A tool retainer shall be installed on each piece of pneumatic equipment which, without such a retainer, may eject the tool.

(c) No tool change or work other than regular operations shall be made or done on any piece of portable hand-operated pneumatic equipment unless the stop valve in the air line supplying that equipment is closed.

§ 50-204.130 Cables, ropes, and chains.

(a) Chains, ropes, cables, hooks, rings, slings, and other devices and accessories used for hoisting and lifting shall not be subjected to greater working loads than recommended by their manufacturers. They shall be frequently inspected and shall be renewed when inpection reveals unsafe conditions.

(b) Bolts or nails shall not be used to connect, splice, or shorten chains. Knots shall not be tied in the chain.

(c) A hoist cable shall be considered unsafe and shall be replaced when upon inspection 10 percent or more of the total number of wires are broken in a length equal to eight diameters of the cable, or when the wires on the crown of the strand are worn down to less than 60 percent of their original diameter.

(d) Crane hoist cable shall be lubricated and inspected at frequent intervals.

VENTILATION AND PROTECTION IN WELDING AND CUTTING

§ 50-204.135 Welding and cutting in confined spaces.

For the purpose of this section a confined space shall mean:

(a) A space of less than 10,000 cubic feet per welder, or

(b) A space having an overhead height of less than 16 feet, or

(c) A space in which there are structural barriers to the extent that they significantly obstruct cross ventilation.

§ 50-204.136 Ventilation in confined spaces.

All welding and cutting operations carried on in confined spaces shall be adequately mechanically ventilated to prevent the accumulation of toxic gases or possible oxygen deficiency or air supplied respirators approved by the U.S. Bureau of Mines shall be provided to the welder and all other personnel in the immediate vicinity.

§ 50-204.137 Mechanical ventilation.

Mechanical ventilation shall consist of either general ventilation systems or local exhaust systems.

(a) General ventilation shall be at the minimum rate of 2,000 cubic feet per minute per welder.

(b) Local exhaust shall consist of freely movable hoods intended to be placed by the welder as near as practicable to the work being welded and provided with a rate of air flow sufficient to maintain a velocity in the direction of the hood of 100 linear feet per minute in the zone of welding when the hood is at its most remote distance from the point of welding.

§ 50-204.138 Welding and cutting involving metals of toxic significance.

(a) Welding and cutting involving the following metals whether or not in confined spaces or in other enclosed spaces shall be done in accordance with the provisions of sections 204.136 and 204.137.

(1) Zinc-bearing base of filler metals or metals coated with zinc-bearing materials.

(2) Lead base metals.

(3) Cadmium-bearing filler materials.

(b) Welding or cutting involving the following metals in confined spaces shall be done using local exhaust ventilation or air-line respirators approved by the U.S. Bureau of Mines.

(1) Metals containing lead, other than as an impurity, or metals coated with lead-bearing materials, including paint.

(2) Cadmium-bearing or cadmium-coated base metals.

(3) Metals coated with mercury-bearing metals, including paint.

(4) Beryllium-containing base or filler metals. Because of its high toxicity, work involving beryllium shall be done with both local exhaust ventilation and air-line respirators.

§ 50-204.139 Protection to other employees.

In all cases employees in the immediate vicinity of welding operations shall be protected in accordance with sections 50-204.269 and 50-204.298.

§ 50-204.140 Inert-gas metal-arc welding.

Since the inert-gas metal-arc welding process involves the production of ultraviolet radiation of intensities five to thirty times that produced during shielded metal-arc welding, the decomposition of chlorinated solvents by ultraviolet rays, and the liberation of toxic fumes and gases, employees shall not be permitted to engage in, or be exposed to the process unless:

(a) The use of chlorinated solvents is kept at least 200 feet from the exposed arc; surfaces prepared with chlorinated solvents are thoroughly dry before welding is permitted on such surface.

(b) Shaded goggles with side shields are worn by helpers and others in the area not protected from the arc by screening.

(c) Protective clothing is worn by welders and others within the area exposed to radiation so that the skin is covered completely to prevent burns and other damage by ultraviolet rays; shirts worn are dark in color to reduce reflection to the face from underneath the helmet; exposed cotton clothing is covered since it disintegrates rapidly when exposed to high intensities of ultraviolet rays; welding helmets and hand shields are free of leaks and openings, and free of highly reflective surfaces.

(d) Local exhaust ventilation or supplied air respirators are provided in all cases when doing inert-gas metal-arc welding of stainless steel to protect against dangerous concentrations of nitrogen dioxide.

§ 50-204.141 General welding and cutting.

Welding and cutting not involving conditions or materials described in sections 50-204.135 and 50-204.138 may normally be done without special precautions, but where, because of unusual physical or atmospheric conditions, a harmful accumulation of contaminants would exist, mechanical ventilation or suitable respiratory protective equipment shall be provided.

ELECTRICAL INSTALLATION AND EQUIPMENT

§ 50-204.148 Electrical installation and equipment.

Electrical conductors and equipment installed within or on buildings and other premises and the conductors that connect the installation to a supply of electricity and other outside conductors adjacent to the premises shall conform to the minimum requirements of the National Electrical Code, 1959 Edition, National Fire Protection Association.

MECHANICAL POWER TRANSMISSION APPARATUS

§ 50-204.153 Flywheels.

Flywheels located so that any part is 7 feet or less above floor or platform shall be guarded in one of the following ways:

(a) With an enclosure of sheet, perforated, or expanded metal, or woven wire. For standards, see sections 50–204.179 and 50–204.180.

(b) With guard rails placed not less than 15 inches nor more than 20 inches from rim. When flywheel extends into pit or is within 12 inches of floor, a standard toe board shall also be provided. For standards, see section 50–204.185.

(c) An adjustable guard to be used for starting the engine or for running adjustment may be provided at the flywheel of gas or oil engines. A slot opening for the jack bar will be permitted.

(d) Wherever flywheels are above working areas, guards shall be installed having sufficient strength to hold the weight of the flywheel in the event of a shaft or wheel mounting failure.

§ 50–204.154 Cranks and connecting rods.

Cranks and connecting rods, when exposed to contact, shall be guarded in accordance with sections 50–204.179 and 50–204.180 or by a guard rail as described in section 50–204.185.

§ 50–204.155 Tail rods or extension piston rods.

Tail rods or extension piston rods shall be guarded in accordance with sections 50–204.179 and 50–204.181 or by a guard rail on sides and end, with a clearance of not less than 15 nor more than 20 inches when rod is fully extended.

§ 50–204.156 Governor balls.

Governor balls 6 feet or less from the floor or other working level, when exposed to contact shall be provided with an enclosure extending to the top of the governors balls when at their highest position. The material used in the construction of this enclosure shall conform to sections 50–204.179 and 50–204.181.

§ 50–204.157 Shafting installation.

(a) Each continuous line of shafting shall be secured in a position against excessive end-wise movement.

(b) Inclined and vertical shafts, particularly inclined idler shafts, shall be securely held in position against endwise thrust.

§ 50–204.158 Guarding horizontal shafting.

(a) All exposed parts of horizontal shafting 7 feet or less from floor or working platform, excepting runways used exclusively for oiling, or running adjustments, shall be protected by a stationary casing enclosing shafting completely or by a trough enclosing sides and top or sides and bottom of shafting as location requires.

(b) Wherever shafting extends over a driveway, it shall be protected as stated above unless it is located 15 feet or more above driveway.

(c) Shafting under bench machines shall be enclosed by a stationary casing, or by a trough at sides and top or sides and bottom, as location requires. The sides of the trough shall come within at least 6 inches of the underside of table, or if shafting is located near floor, within 6 inches of floor. In every case the sides of the trough shall extend at least 2 inches beyond the shafting or protuberance. For requirements regarding materials and construction, see sections 50–204.179 and 50–204.181.

§ 50–204.159 Guarding vertical and inclined shafting.

Vertical and inclined shafting 7 feet or less from floor or working platform, excepting maintenance runways, shall be enclosed with a stationary casing in accordance with requirements of sections 50–204.179 and 50–204.181.

§ 50–204.160 Projecting shaft ends.

(a) Projecting shaft ends shall present a smooth edge and end and shall not project more than one-half the diameter of the shaft unless guarded by nonrotating caps or safety sleeves.

(b) Unused key-ways shall be filled up or covered.

§ 50–204.161 Power-transmission apparatus located in basements.

All mechanical power transmission apparatus located in basements, towers, and rooms used exclusively for power transmission equipment shall be guarded in accordance with these standards, except that the requirements for safeguarding belts, pulleys, and shafting may be omitted if the following conditions are met:

(a) The basement, tower, or room occupied by transmission equipment is locked against unauthorized entrance.

(b) The vertical clearance in passageways between the floor and power transmission beams, ceiling, or any other objects, is not less than 5 feet 6 inches.

(c) The footing is dry, firm, and level.

(d) The route followed by the oiler is protected in such manner as to prevent accidents.

§ 50–204.162 Pulleys.

Any parts of which are 7 feet or less from the floor or working platform shall be guarded in accordance with the standards specified under section 50–204.179 and 50–204.181. Pulleys serving as balance wheels (e.g., punch presses) on which the point of contact between belt and pulley is more than 6 feet 6 inches from the floor or platform may be guarded with a disk covering the spokes. See section 50–204.180.

§ 50–204.163 Horizontal belts, ropes and chain drives.

(a) Where both runs of horizontal belts are 7 feet or less from the floor level, the guard shall extend to at least fifteen inches above the belt or to a standard height (see table, section 50–204.181) except that where both runs of a horizontal belt are 42 inches or less from the floor, the belt shall be fully enclosed in accordance with sections 50–204.179 and 50–204.181. In power plants or power-development rooms, a guard rail may be used in lieu of the requirement in section 50–204.163.

(b) Overhead horizontal belts, with lower part 7 feet or less from the floor or platform, shall be guarded on sides and bottom in accordance with section 50–204.183.

(c) Horizontal overhead belts more than 7 feet above floor or platform shall be guarded for their entire length under the following conditions:

(1) If located over passageways or work places and traveling 1800 feet or more per minute.

(2) If center to center distance between pulleys is 10 feet or more.

(3) If belt is 8 inches or more in width. For detail of guard construction and for sizes of material see section 50–204.183 and table following section 50–204.184.

(d) Where the upper and lower runs of horizontal belts are so located that passage of persons between them would be possible, the passage shall be either:

(1) Completely barred by a guard rail or other barrier in accordance with sections 50–204.179 and 50–204.181, or

(2) Where passage is regarded as necessary, there shall be a platform over the lower run guarded on either side by a railing completely filled in with wire mesh or other filler, or by a solid barrier. The upper run shall be so guarded as to prevent contact therewith either by the worker or by objects carried by him. In power plants, only the lower run of the belt need be guarded.

§ 50–204.164 Overhead chain and link belt drives.

Overhead chain and link belt drives are governed by the same rules as overhead horizontal belts and shall be guarded in the same manner as belts (section 50–204.163).

§ 50–204.165 Vertical and inclined belts.

(a) Vertical and inclined belts shall be enclosed by a guard conforming to standards in sections 50–204.179 and 50–204.181.

(b) All guards for inclined belts shall be arranged in such a manner that a minimum clearance of 7 feet is maintained between belt and floor at any point outside of guard.

§ 50–204.166 Vertical belts.

Vertical belts running over a lower pulley more than 7 feet above floor or platform shall be guarded at the bottom in the same manner as horizontal overhead belts, if conditions are such as stated in section 50–204.163(c) (1), (2), and (3).

§ 50–204.167 Cone-pulley belts.

(a) The cone belt and pulley shall be equipped with a belt shifter so constructed as to guard adequately the nip-point of the belt and pulley. If the frame of the belt shifter does not adequately guard the nip-point of the belt and pulley, the nip-point shall be further protected by means of a vertical guard placed in front of the pulley and extending at least to the top of the largest step of the cone.

(b) If the belt is of the endless type or laced with rawhide laces, and a belt shifter is not desired, the nip-point of the belt pulley shall be protected by a nip-point guard located in front of the cone extending at least to the top of the largest step of the cone, and formed to show the contour of the cone in order to give the nip-point of the belt and pulley the maximum protection.

(c) If the cone is located less than 3 feet from the floor or working platform, the cone pulley and belt shall be guarded to a height of 3 feet regardless of whether the belt is endless or laced with rawhide.

§ 50–204.168 Gears.

Gears shall be guarded in accordance with one of the following specifications:

(a) A complete enclosure.

(b) A standard guard as described in section 204.181 at least 7 feet high extending 6 inches above the mesh point of the gears.

(c) By a band guard covering the face of the gear and having flanges extended inward beyond the root of the teeth on the exposed side or sides. Where any portion of the train of gears guarded by a band guard is less than 6 feet from the floor a disk guard or a complete enclosure to the height of 6 feet shall be required.

§ 50–204.169 Sprockets and chains.

All sprocket wheels and chains shall be enclosed unless more than 7 feet above the floor or platform. Where the drive extends over other machines or working areas, protection against falling shall be provided.

§ 50–204.170 Openings for oiling.

When frequent oiling must be made, openings with hinged or sliding self-closing covers shall be provided. All points not readily accessible shall have oil feed tubes if lubricant is to be added while machinery is in motion.

§ 50–204.171 Friction drives.

(a) The driving point of all friction drives when exposed to contact shall be guarded.

(b) All arm or spoke friction drives and all web friction drives with holes in the web shall be entirely enclosed.

(c) All projecting bolts on friction drives where exposed to contact shall be guarded.

§ 50–204.172 Keys, set screws, and other projections.

All projecting keys, set screws and other projections in revolving parts shall be removed or made flush or guarded by metal covers. This does not apply to keys or set screws within gear or sprocket casings or other enclosures, nor to keys, set screws, or oil cups in hubs of pulleys less than twenty inches in diameter where they are within the plane of the rim of the pulley.

§ 50–204.173 Collars.

All revolving collars, including split collars, shall be cylindrical, and screws or bolts used in collars shall not project beyond the largest periphery of the collar.

§ 50–204.174 Couplings.

(a) Shaft couplings shall be so constructed as to present no hazard from bolts, nuts, set screws, or revolving surfaces.

(b) Bolts, nuts, and set screws will, however, be permitted where they are covered with safety sleeves or where they are used parallel with the shafting and are countersunk or else do not extend beyond the flange of the coupling.

GUARD STANDARDS FOR MECHANICAL POWER TRANSMISSION

§ 50–204.179 Materials.

(a) Standard conditions will be secured by the use of the following materials: Expanded metal, perforated or solid metal or wire mesh on a frame of angle iron or iron pipe securely fastened to floor or to frame of machine (see section 50–204.181).

(1) All metal shall be free from burrs and sharp edges.

(2) Wire mesh shall be of the type in which the wires are securely fastened at every cross point either by welding, soldering, or galvanizing, except in case of diamond or square wire mesh made of No. 14 gauge wire, ¾ inch mesh or heavier.

(b) Design of guards:

(1) Where it is necessary to change belts, make adjustments or apply oil or grease, guards shall have hinged sections or be removable.

(2) Guards shall be designed so as not to interfere with the usual machine operations, but give the maximum protection to the operator.

(c) Methods of manufacture:

(1) Filler material shall be expanded metal, sheet or perforated metal, or wire mesh and be securely fastened to frame.

(2) By welding to frame every 4 inches. By weaving through channel or angle frame, or if No. 14 gauge ¾ inch mesh or heavier is used, by bending entirely around rod frames.

(3) Where openings in pipe railing are to be filled in with expanded metal, wire or sheet metal, the filler material shall be made into panels with rolled edges or bound with "V" or "U" edging of No. 24 gauge or heavier sheet metal fastened to the panels with bolts or rivets spaced not more than 5 inches center to center. The bound panels shall be fastened to the railing by sheet-metal clips spaced not more than 5 inches center to center.

(4) Where the design of guards requires filled material of greater area than 12 square feet, additional frame members shall be provided to maintain panel area within this limit.

(5) All joints of framework shall be made equivalent in strength to the material of the frame.

§ 50–204.180 Disk, shield, and "U" guards.

(a) Disk guard: A disk guard shall consist of a sheet-metal disk not less than No. 22 gauge fastened by "U" bolts or rivets to spokes of pulleys, flywheels, or gears. Where possibility of contact with sharp edges of the disk exists, the edge shall be rolled or wired. In all cases the nuts shall be provided with lock nuts which shall be placed on the unexposed side of the wheel.

(b) Shield guards.

(1) A shield guard shall consist of a frame filled in with wire mesh, expanded, perforated, or solid sheet metal.

(2) If area of shield does not exceed 6 square feet the wire mesh or expanded metal may be fastened in a framework of ⅜ inch solid rod, ¾ inch x ¾ inch x ⅛ inch angle iron or metal construction of equivalent strength.

(3) Metal shields may have edges entirely rolled around a ⅜ inch solid iron rod. All material of shield guard shall meet the requirements of section 50–204.181.

(c) "U" Guards: A "U" guard consisting of a flat surface with edge members shall be designed to cover the under surface and lower edge of a belt, multiple chain, or rope drive. It shall be constructed of materials specified in table of section 50–204.181 and shall conform to the requirements of sections 50–204.183 and 50–204.184. Edges shall be smooth, and if size of guard requires, these edges shall be reinforced by rolling, wiring, or by binding with angle or flat iron.

§ 50–204.181 Approved materials.

(a) Minimum Requirements. The materials and dimensions specified in this section shall apply to all guards except horizonal overhead belts, rope, cable or chain guards more than 7 feet above floor, or platform. (For the latter, see table following section 50–204.184.)

TABLE OF STANDARD MATERIALS AND DIMENSIONS

	4"–15"	1" width	Wood ¾" / Metal No. 16	7'0".
Std. rail	Min. 15" / Max. 20"	See Standard for Railings Section 204.185.

(b) Framework:

(1) Minimum dimensions of material for the framework of all guards except as noted in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph shall be angle iron 1 inch x 1 inch x ⅛ inch, metal pipe of ¾ inch inside diameter or metal construction of equivalent strength.

(2) All guards shall be rigidly braced every 3 feet or fractional part of their height to some fixed part of machinery or building structure. Where guard is exposed to contact with moving equipment additional strength is necessary.

(3) The framework for all guards fastened to floor or working platform and without other support or bracing shall consist of 1½ inch x 1½ inch x ⅛ inch angle iron, metal pipe or 1½ inch inside diameter or metal construction of equivalent strength. All rectangular guards shall have at least 4 upright frame members each of which shall be carried to the floor and be securely fastened thereto.

(4) Cylindrical guards shall have at least 3 supporting members carried to floor.

(5) Guards thirty inches or less in height and with a total surface not in excess of ten square feet may have a framework of ⅜ inch solid rod, ¾ inch x ¾ inch x ⅛ inch angle or metal construction of equivalent strength. The filling material shall correspond to the requirements of the table contained in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) The specifications given in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are the minimum requirements; where guards are exposed to unusual wear, deterioration or impact, heavier material and construction shall be used to protect amply against the specific hazards involved.

§ 50–204.182 Wood guards.

(a) Wood guards may be used in the woodworking and chemical industries, in industries where the presence of fumes or where manufacturing conditions would cause the rapid deterioration of metal guards; also in construction work and in locations outdoors where extreme cold or extreme heat makes metal guards and railings undesirable. In all other industries, wood guards will not be allowed.

(b) Material and construction.

(1) Wood shall be sound, tough, and free from any loose knots.

(2) Guards shall be made of planed lumber not less than one inch rough board measure and edges and corners rounded off.

(3) Wood guards shall be securely fastened together with wood screws, hard wood dowel pins, bolts, or rivets.

(4) While no definite dimensions are given under this heading for framework or filler materials, wood guards shall be equal in strength and rigidity to metal guards specified in section 50–204.181(a)(b)(c).

(5) For construction of standard wood railing, see section 50–204.185.

§ 50–204.183 Guards for horizontal overhead belts.

(a) Guards for horizontal overhead belts shall run the entire length of the belt and follow the line of the pulley to the ceiling or be carried to the nearest wall, thus enclosing the belt effectively. Where belts are so located as to make it impracticable to carry the guard to wall or ceiling, construction of the guard shall be such as to enclose completely the top and bottom runs of belt and the face of pulleys. See section 50–204.163 (b) and (c).

(b) The guard and all its supporting members shall be securely fastened to wall or ceiling by gimlet-point lag screws or through bolts. In case of masonry construction, expansion bolts shall be used.

(c) Suitable reinforcement shall be provided for the ceiling rafters or overhead floor beams, where such is necessary, to sustain safely the weight and stress likely to be imposed by the guard. The interior surface of all guards, by which is meant the surface of the guard with which a belt will come in contact, shall be smooth and free from all projections of any character, except where construction demands it; protruding shallow round-head rivets may be used. Overhead belt guards shall be at least one-quarter wider than the belt which they protect, except that this clearance need not in any case exceed 6 inches on each side. Overhead rope drive and block and roller-chain-drive guards shall be not less than 6 inches wider than the drive on each side.

In overhead silent chain-drive guards where the chain is held from lateral displacement on the sprockets, the side clearances required on drives of 20 inch centers or under shall not be less than ¼ inch from the nearest moving chain part and on drives of over 20 inch centers a minimum of ½ inch from the nearest moving chain part.

(d) The table following section 50–204.184 gives sizes of materials to be used and general construction of guards for belts 10 inches or more in width. No material for overhead belt guards should be smaller than that specified in this table for belts 10 to 14 inches wide, even if the belt is less than 10 inches in width. However, No. 20 gauge sheet metal may be used as a filler on guards for belts less than 10 inches wide. Expanded metal, because of the sharp edges, shall not be used as a filler in horizontal belt guards.

(e) For clearance between guards and belts, ropes or chains of various center to center dimensions between the shafts, see bottom of table following section 50–204.184.

§ 50–204.184 Guards for horizontal overhead rope and chain drives.

Overhead-rope and chain-drive guard construction shall conform to section 50–204.183 for overhead-belt guard construction of similar width, except that the filler materials shall be of the solid type as shown in table following section 50–204.181(a) unless the fire hazard demands the use of open construction. A side guard member of the same solid filling material shall be carried up in a vertical position 2 inches above the level of the lower run of the rope or chain drive and 2 inches within the periphery of the pulleys which the guard encloses thus forming a trough. These side filler members shall be reinforced on the edges with 1½ inch x ¼ inch flat steel, riveted to the filling material at not greater than 8 inch centers; the reinforcing strip shall be fastened or bolted to all guard supporting members with at least one ⅜ inch rivet or bolt at each intersection, and the ends shall be secured to the ceiling with lag screws or bolts. The filling materials shall be fastened to the framework of the guard and the filler supports by 5/16 inch rivets spaced on 4 inch centers. The width of the multiple drive shall be determined by measuring the distance from the outside of the first to the outside of the last rope or chain in the group accommodated by the pulley.

§ 50–204.185 Guard rails and toe boards.

(a) Guard rails shall be 42 inches in height, with mid-rail between top rail and floor.

(b) Posts shall be not more than 8 feet apart; they are to be permanent and substantial, smooth, and free from protruding nails, bolts, and splinters. If made of pipe, the post shall be 1¼ inches inside diameter, or larger. If made of metal shapes or bars, their section shall be equal in strength to that of 1½ by 1½ by 5/16 inch angle iron. If made of wood, the posts shall be 2 x 4 inches or larger. The upper rail shall be 2 x 4 inches or two 1 x 4 strips, one at the top and one at the side of posts. The mid-rail shall be 1 x 4 inches or more. The rails (metal shapes, metal bars, or wood), shall be on that side of the posts which gives the best protection and support. Where panels are fitted with expanded metal or wire mesh as noted in table, section 204.181 the middle rails may be omitted. Where guard is exposed to contact with moving equipment, additional strength may be necessary.

(c) Toe boards shall be 4 inches or more in height, of wood, metal, or of metal grill not exceeding 1 inch mesh.

MISCELLANEOUS MACHINE GUARDING

§ 50–204.190 Lathes and automatic screw machines.

(a) Chucks and face plates shall be free from projections, and dogs, if used, shall be of the safety type only—circular in shape with no projections beyond the periphery.

(b) Chip guards to catch flying chips, particularly in the case of the high speeds used in the softer metals, shall be provided.

(c) Rotating stock in turret lathes and automatic screw machines shall be completely enclosed in pipe long enough to contain the longest stock used.

(d) Suitable shields and oil catchers shall be provided to prevent slipperiness from oil thrown from the automatic screw machines.

§ 50–204.191 Drill presses.

(a) All projections on the rotating spindle and as much as possible of the spindle itself should be guarded.

(b) Spindle drive belts, when in range of the operator's head or body, shall be guarded to protect the operator from both contact and breakage.

§ 50–204.192 Planers and shapers (metal).

(a) The spaces between the ways of planer frames shall be filled in smoothly with heavy sheet metal to eliminate the shear hazard.

(b) Where there is not a 12-inch clearance between a fixed object and the planer table and the work carried on the table, a railing shall be provided between the fixed object and the table and the work on the table to protect workers passing between the fixed object and the planer.

§ 50–204.193 Shears.

(a) Alligator shears shall be guarded by running a heavy U-shaped metal strap horizontally around the moving (upper) jaw with the lower edge of the strap just far enough above the cutting edge of the fixed (lower) jaw to allow the material to be inserted in the shears.

(b) Squaring shears shall be provided with a fixed barrier which clears the top of the table by not more than ⅜ inch plus the minimum thickness of material for which used. Automatic clamps shall be acceptable as guards when cutouts are filled in so that fingers of the operator cannot enter the danger zone.

§ 50–204.194 Guillotine cutters, power-driven.

(a) Power-driven guillotine cutters shall be equipped with a guard or device which will prevent the hands of the workers from entering the zone traveled by the knife while the knife is in motion. This may be a fixed barrier or it may consist of a two-handed device requiring the simultaneous use of the worker's two hands at points outside the zone of danger.

(b) In addition to the point of operation guard or device described in section 50–204.194(a), the power-driven guillotine cutter shall be provided with an arrangement which will prevent the cutter from making a second stroke until the lever or two-handed device is again used.

§ 50–204.195 Power presses.

(a) Safeguarding classification. One or more means of safeguarding the press at the point of operation shall be provided and used on every power press, depending upon the method of feeding, in accordance with the following:

SAFEGUARDING CLASSIFICATION

Method of feeding press	Safeguarding required
Automatic feed: Automatic roll feed. Automatic push, pull or dial feed.	Fixed barrier guard or gate guard (section 50–204.195 (c), (d)
Semiautomatic feed: Chute feed (both gravity and follow feed). Slide or push feed. Sliding dies. Dial feed. Revolving dies.	Fixed barrier guard or gate guard (section 50–204.195 (c), (d)
Manual feed	Fixed barrier guard or gate guard, two-hand tripping device, or pull-out guard, electronic sweep guard (section 50–204.195 (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h))

(b) General requirements for point of operations guarding. Every point of operation guarding device shall be simple and reliable in construction, application, and adjustment. It shall be permanently attached to the press or the die. It shall not offer any accident hazard in itself.

(1) The device shall be designed and constructed so that it is impossible for the operator to place or permit his hand or fingers to remain within the danger zone created by the movement of the ram.

(2) Care shall be used in the selection of the method of guarding for each particular job. Guards shall be installed, maintained, and adjusted to produce safe operation at each setting of the press.

(3) Guards which are attached to the ram and which move downward so that the operator's hand or fingers might be caught between gate and lower die shall not be used.

(c) Fixed barrier guard. (1) A fixed barrier guard is an enclosure to prevent the hands or fingers of the operator from entering the area between the dies. It may be attached to the press or individual guards may be attached to the dies.

(2) There shall be no exposed shear points between the guard and any moving part.

(3) Openings in the guard or between the guard and working surface shall not be greater than those shown in the Table below:

PERMISSIBLE OPENINGS (INCHES)

Distance of opening from nip point:	Maximum width of opening
0½ to 1½	¼
1½ to 2½	3/8
2½ to 3½	½
3½ to 5½	5/8
5½ to 6½	¾
6½ to 7½	⅞
7½ to 8½	1¼

(4) For the portion of the guard between the operator and the die or working area, it is required that 3/16-inch minimum vertical steel rods, vertically slotted material, or shatterproof, nonflammable, transparent material be used. Mesh, or perforated plate shall not be used between the operator and the die.

(5) Any hinged or movable section of a fixed barrier guard shall be connected to an interlocking device that will prevent tripping the press while the section is open.

(d) Gate guards. (1) A gate guard is a movable barrier arranged so that it completes the enclosure of the point of operation before the operating clutch can become engaged.

(2) Openings in the barrier of the gate guard shall be not greater than those specified for the openings in fixed barrier guards in section 50–204.195(c)(3). The mechanism of the guard shall be designed so that there will be no positive linkage or other close motion which may trap the hand of the operator.

(3) Gate guards shall include either fixed or movable side enclosures around the die.

(4) When the speed of the ram is so slow that an operator might beat the ram on the down stroke after the press has been tripped, the gate guard shall be designed so that the gate remains closed until the ram has completed the down stroke.

(c) Two-hand tripping device. (1) Two-hand tripping devices include only those which make it impossible to trip the press without the simultaneous use of both hands outside the danger zone. It shall be designed, located, and arranged so as to prevent tying, wedging, or otherwise securing one handle or button or operating it with any gesture or device and tripping the press while the other hand may be in the danger zone.

(2) On friction-clutch-operated presses, the controls shall be arranged so that if any hand is removed from a control during the down stroke of the ram, it will be instantly stopped.

(3) Where two or more persons are engaged in the operation of a single press, separate two-hand controls shall be provided for each person, except that an auxiliary foot control (air or electric) may be used in lieu of one set of two-hand controls, provided the foot control is located so that the nip point is out of the reach of the operator, but the foot controls shall in no case be less than a distance of 36 inches measured horizontally from the nip point.

(f) Pull-out guards. (1) Pull-out guards shall be so constructed as to be attached to the operator's hands or arms and connected to the ram, plunger, or outer slide of the press in such a way that the operator's hands and fingers will be withdrawn from the danger zone before the ram, plunger, or outer slide descends to a hazardous point.

(2) Where the open distance between the top of the work and the lower extremity of the punch is less than 2 inches the multiplying action of this guard shall be such that the hands will be withdrawn a safe distance before this open distance is ¼ closed.

(g) Electronic safety device. (1) An electronic safety device shall be so designed and installed that when the operator's hand or any part of the body is in the die zone, the press cannot be tripped and if the hand or any part of the body is inserted while the ram is in a downward motion, it will immediately stop the ram.

(2) These guards shall be operated from a circuit wired so that interruption of the electric current will automatically prevent the press from tripping until the current has been restored.

(3) Electronic safety devices shall not be used on positive clutch presses where the ram continues for a complete stroke after each tripping of the press.

(h) Sweep guards. (1) Sweep guards may be provided with either single or double sweep arms. The sweep arm, or arms, shall be connected to the ram in such a way as to forcibly sweep the hands of the operator from the die zone as the ram or plunger descends and before there is danger of injury.

(2) Sweep guards shall be so designed and operated that the operator cannot reach behind the guard in the danger zone before the ram has completed its downward stroke.

(3) The sweep or sweeps shall not offer any hazard of or in themselves by creating a shear hazard between the sweep arm and press tie rods, die straps, or other parts of the press or guard.

(i) One-hand tripping device. Whenever a press is set up so as to require tripping the ram or plunger by one hand, additional guarding as specified in section 50–204.195 shall be provided.

(j) Special hand tools. Hand tools for placing and removing material shall be such as to permit easy handling of material without the operator's placing a hand in the danger zone. Such tools shall not be accepted in lieu of other guarding as provided in this section.

§ 50–204.196 Foot presses.

Foot presses shall be guarded by one or more of the guards described in section 50–204.195 (a) to (d), inclusive.

(a) Fixed barrier guards. Fixed barrier guards shall conform to section 50–204.195(c).

(b) Limitation of stroke. If a foot or kick press is guarded by limitation of the ram stroke, the adjustment must be set and locked securely in position to limit the maximum travel of the ram to ⅜ inch on each stroke. There shall be no pinching or crushing hazards between other parts of the ram or die shoe.

(c) Gate guards. A gate shall be designed to close the opening at the front of the press before the foot lever can be operated.

(d) Two-hand operation. Two-hand operations shall conform to section 50–204.195(e).

(e) Sweep guards. Sweep guards shall conform to section 50–204.195(h).

(f) Pull-out guards. Pull-out guards shall conform to section 50–204.195(f).

(g) Location. Foot presses shall not be located in a position which will permit the operating lever to extend into an aisle or passageway.

(h) Mounting. Foot presses shall be securely bolted to the floor.

§ 50–204.197 Other power-press safety devices.

(a) Treadle guard. A substantial guard shall be placed over the treadle of every foot-operated power press to prevent accidental tripping.

(b) Foot treadle. The use of tension springs or counterweights on any treadle shaft or tension springs on any treadle-shaft lever is prohibited.

(c) Latch on hand-operating lever. Hand-operated power presses, shall be equipped with a spring latch on the operating lever to prevent accidental or premature tripping.

(d) Interlocking device. Each hand-operated power press, if tended by more than one person at one time shall conform to the requirements of section 50–204.195(e) (1) and (3).

(e) Single-stroke attachments. On positive-type clutch presses a single-stroke attachment shall be provided, by which the treadle or operating lever is disconnected after each stroke.

§ 50–204.198 Platen presses.

Platen presses shall be provided with an automatic feed device, an automatic stop device, a guard gate or sweep motion device, or another device, all as defined in this section.

(a) An automatic feed device is one which does not require the operator's hand to be placed between the platen and bed.

(b) An automatic stop device is one which will prevent the platen from closing if the hand or hands of the operator are caught between the platen and the bed.

(c) A guard, gate or sweep motion device, is one which will throw the operator's hands out of the way before the press closes. If the guard is of the type which lifts the hands out of the danger zone, it shall rise at least 4 inches above the platen before the press closes. The guard shall be arranged so that it will prevent a shear between the guard and the top of the platen.

(d) "Another device" is one that will prevent the platen from closing on the operator's hands before they are removed from between the platen and the bed.

§ 50–204.199 Abrasive wheels.

(a) The machine shall be securely mounted on substantial floors, benches, foundations or other adequate structures.

(b) Guards. Every stationary abrasive wheel and portable wheel used in stationary position shall be equipped with a hood or band guard strong enough to withstand the shock of a bursting wheel. A guard of this type shall also be used on every portable wheel where the nature of the work will permit.

(c) Spindle. The spindle and nut and flange projection, if any, shall be guarded.

(d) Mountings and fastenings. Hoods shall be mounted so as to maintain proper alignment with the wheels, and the strength of the fastenings shall exceed the strength of the hood.

(e) Dust exhaust provisions. Hoods on machines used for dry grinding and other operations where dust is produced shall have provisions made for connection to an exhaust system.

(f) Work rests. Work rests shall be kept adjusted close to the wheel with a maximum distance of ⅛ inch to prevent the work from being caught between the wheel and the rest.

§ 50–204.200 Revolving drums and cylinders.

Every revolving barrel, drum or other revolving container shall be guarded by an enclosure which is interlocked with the driving mechanism, so that the barrel or drum cannot revolve unless the guard enclosure is in place.

§ 50–204.201 Fans.

When the periphery of the blades of a fan is less than 7 feet above the floor or working level the blades shall be guarded.

WOODWORKING MACHINERY

§ 50–204.208 Circular table saws.

(a) Guards. Each circular saw shall be guarded by a hood which shall completely enclose that portion of the saw above the table and shall be arranged so that the hood will automatically adjust itself to the thickness of, and remain in contact with, the material being cut. Where there is a possibility of contact with a portion of a circular saw beneath or behind the saw table, that portion shall be covered with a guard to prevent accidental contact with the saw.

(b) Spreaders. Each circular ripsaw shall be furnished with a spreader to prevent material from squeezing the saw or being thrown back on the operator. A spreader need not be used for work which is restricted to grooving, dadoing, or rabbeting.

(c) Non-kickback fingers or dogs. Each circular ripsaw shall be provided with non-kickback fingers or dogs so located as to oppose the thrust or tendency of the saw to pick up the material or to throw it back toward the operator.

§ 50–204.209 Swing and sliding cut-off saws.

The requirements expressed in this section apply to all swing cut-off saws and to those sliding cut-off saws which are mounted above the table.

(a) Hood. Each of the saws to which this section applies shall be provided with a hood that shall completely enclose the upper half of the saw, the arbor end, and the point of operation at all positions of the saw. The hood shall be constructed in such a manner and of such material that it will protect the operator from flying splinters and broken saw teeth. It shall be designed so that it will automatically cover the lower portion of the blade, so that when the saw is returned to the back of the table the hood will rise on top of the fence, and when the saw is moved forward the hood will drop on top of and remain in contact with the table or material being cut.

(b) Counterweights. Each of the saws to which this section applies shall be provided with an effective device to return the saw automatically to the back of the table when released at any point in its travel.

(c) Limit stops. Limit chains or other equally effective devices shall be provided to prevent the saw from swinging beyond the front or back edges of the table.

(d) Latches. A latch or equivalent device shall be provided to prevent the saw from rebounding upon its return to the rear of the table.

§ 50–204.210 Inverted swing cut-off saws (jump saws).

Inverted swing-cut-off saws shall be provided with a hood that will cover the part of the saw that protrudes above the top of the table or above the material being cut. It shall automatically adjust itself to the thickness of, and remain in contact with, the material being cut.

§ 50–204.211 Radial saws.

(a) Hoods and guards. The upper hood shall completely enclose the upper portion of the blade down to a point that will include the end of the saw arbor. The upper hood shall be constructed in such a manner and of such material that it will protect the operator from flying splinters, broken saw teeth, etc., and will deflect sawdust away from the operator. The sides of the lower exposed portion of the blade shall be guarded to the full diameter of the blade by a device that will automatically adjust itself to the thickness of the stock and remain in contact with stock being cut to give maximum protection possible for the operation being performed.

(b) Spreaders. When radial saws are used for ripping, a spreader shall be provided meeting the requirements expressed in section 50–204.208(b).

(c) Non-kickback fingers or dogs. Each radial saw used for ripping shall be provided with non-kickback fingers or dogs located on both sides of the saw so as to oppose the thrust or tendency of the saw to pick up the material or to throw it back toward the operator.

(d) Adjustable stops and return devices. An adjustable stop shall be provided to prevent the forward travel of the blade beyond the position necessary to complete the cut in repetitive operations.

§ 50–204.212 Portable circular saws.

All portable power-driven saws shall be equipped with guards above and below the base plate or shoe. The upper guard shall cover the saw to the depth of the teeth, except for the arc required to permit the base to be tilted. The lower guard shall cover the saw to the depth of the teeth, except for the minimum arc required to allow proper retraction and contact with the work. When the tool is withdrawn from the work, the lower guard shall automatically and instantly return to covering position.

§ 50–204.213 Band saws and band resaws.

(a) Enclosing band-saw blades. All portions of the saw blade shall be enclosed or guarded, except for the working portion of the blade between the bottom of the guide rolls and the table. Band-saw wheels shall be fully encased. The outside periphery of the enclosure shall be solid. The front and back of the band wheels shall be either enclosed by solid material or by wire mesh or perforated metal. Such mesh or perforated metal shall be not less than 0.037 inch (U.S. Gauge No. 20), and the openings shall be not greater than ⅝ inch. Solid material used for this purpose shall be of an equivalent strength and firmness. The guard for the portion of the blade between the sliding guide and the upper-saw-wheel guard shall protect the operator from the saw blade at the front and outer side. Brakes shall be provided to stop the wheel in case of blade breakage.

(b) Tension. Each band-saw machine shall be provided with a tension control device to indicate a proper tension for the standard saws used on the machine.

(c) Feed rolls. Feed rolls of band resaws shall be protected with a guard to prevent the hands of the operator from coming in contact with the in-running rolls at any point.

§ 50–204.214 Jointers.

(a) Point of operation. (1) Each hand-fed planer and jointer with horizontal head shall be equipped with a cylindrical cutting head, the knife projection of which shall not exceed ⅛ inch beyond the cylindrical body of the head.

(2) The clearance between the edge of the rear table and the cutter head shall be not more than ⅛ inch. The table throat opening shall be not more than 2½ inches when tables are set or aligned with each other for zero cut.

(b) Automatic guards. (1) Each hand-fed jointer with a horizontal cutting head shall have an automatic guard which will cover all the section of the head on the working side of the fence or gage. The guard shall keep the operator's hand from coming in contact with the revolving knives. The guard shall automatically adjust itself to cover the unused portion of the head and remain in contact with the material at all times.

(2) Each hand-fed jointer with horizontal cutting head shall have a guard which will cover the section of the head back of the gage or fence.

(3) Each wood jointer with vertical head shall have either an exhaust hood or other guard so arranged as to enclose completely the revolving head, except for a slot of such width as may be necesssary and convenient for the application of material to be jointed.

§ 50–204.215 Wood shapers, hand-fed panel raisers, and similar machines.

(a) The cutting heads of each wood shaper, hand-fed panel raiser, or other similar machine not automatically fed, shall be enclosed with a cage or adjustable guard designed to keep the operator's hands away from the cutting edge. The diameter of circular shaper guards shall be not less than the greatest diameter of the cutter. In no case shall a warning device of leather or other material attached to the spindle be acceptable.

(b) Cylindrical heads shall be used whenever the nature of the work will permit.

(c) All double-spindle shapers shall be provided with a starting and stopping device for each spindle.

§ 50–204.216 Planing, molding, sticking and matching machines.

(a) Each planing, molding, sticking, and matching machine shall have all cutting heads, and saws if used, covered by a metal guard. If such guard is constructed of sheet metal, the material used shall be not less than 1/16 inch in thickness; and, if cast iron is used, it shall be not less than 3/16 inch in thickness.

(b) Where an exhaust system is used, the guards shall form part or all of the exhaust hood and shall be constructed of metal of a thickness not less than that specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Feed rolls shall be guarded by a hood or suitable guard to prevent the hands of the operator from coming in contact with the in-running rolls at any point. The guard shall be fastened to the frame carrying the rolls so as to remain in adjustment for any thickness of stock.

(d) Surfacers or planers used in processing multiple pieces of material simultaneously shall be provided with sectional infeed rolls having sufficient yield in the construction of the sections to provide feeding contact pressure on the stock, over the permissible range of variation in stock thickness specified or for which the machine is designed. In lieu of such yielding sectional rolls, suitable section kickback finger devices shall be provided at the infeed end.

§ 50–204.217 Sanding machines.

(a) Feed rolls. Feed rolls of self-feed sanding machines shall be protected with a semi-cylindrical guard to prevent the hands of the operator from coming in contact with the in-running rolls at any point. The guard shall be constructed of heavy material firmly secured to the frame carrying the rolls so as to remain in adjustment for any thickness of stock. The bottom of the guard shall come down to within ⅜ inch of a plane formed by the bottom or contact face of the feed roll, where it touches the stock.

(b) Drum sanding machines. Each drum sanding machine shall have an exhaust hood, or other guard, arranged to enclose the revolving drum, except for that portion of the drum above the table, if a table is used.

(c) Disk sanding machines. Each disk sanding machine shall have the exhaust hood, or other guard if no exhaust system is required, arranged to enclose the revolving disk, except for that portion of the disk above the table, if a table is used.

(d) Belt sanding machines. Belt sanding machines shall be provided with guards at each nip point where the sanding belt runs on to a pulley. The unused run of the sanding belt shall be guarded against accidental contact.

HOUSEKEEPING

§ 50–204.229 General.

All phases of employment, passageways, storerooms, and service rooms shall be kept clean and orderly and in a sanitary condition.

§ 50–204.230 Floors.

(a) Floors of every workroom shall be maintained in a clean, and, so far as possible, a dry condition. Where wet processes are used, drainage shall be maintained, and false floors, platforms, mats, or other dry standing places should be provided where practicable.

(b) Cleaning and sweeping shall be done in such a manner as to minimize the contamination of the air with dust and, so far as is practicable, should be done outside of working hours.

(c) Every floor, working place, and passageway shall be kept free from protruding nails, splinters, holes, or loose boards.

§ 50–204.231 Flammable materials.

Oily rags, oily waste, waste paper and other flammable and combustible material shall be stored in tightly closed metal containers. Magnesium and other flammable metal scraps shall not be mixed with other scrap. All flammable scrap material of any kind shall be removed from the work areas daily.

§ 50–204.232 Tools and other materials.

Tools, materials, or debris shall not be strewn about in a manner which may cause tripping or other hazards.

§ 50–204.233 Receptacles for waste disposal.

Any receptacle used for decaying solid or liquid waste or refuse shall be so constructed that it does not leak and may be conveniently and thoroughly cleaned, and it shall be maintained in a sanitary condition. Such a receptacle shall be equipped with a tight-fitting cover.

§ 50–204.234 Sweeping and refuse removal.

All sweepings, solid or liquid waste, refuse, and garbage shall be removed in such a manner as to avoid creating a nuisance or menace to health and as often as necessary to maintain the place of employment in a sanitary condition.

TOILET FACILITIES AND WASH ROOMS

§ 50–204.239 Separate toilet for each sex.

Every place of employment shall be provided with adequate toilet facilities which are separate for each sex.

§ 50–204.240 Location.

Toilet facilities shall be provided so as to be readily accessible to all employees. Toilet facilities so located that employees must use more than one floor-to-floor flight of stairs are not considered as readily accessible.

§ 50–204.241 Water closets.

Water closets, or chemical closets or privies where permitted by local law, shall be provided for each sex and shall be in accordance with the following table. The number to be provided for each sex shall in every case be based on the maximum number of persons of that sex employed at any one time at work on the premises for which the facilities are furnished. When persons other than employees are permitted the use of toilet facilities on the premises, a reasonable allowance shall be made for such other persons in computing the minimum number of toilet facilities required.

(a)

Number of persons	Minimum number of facilities
1 to 9	1
10 to 24	2
25 to 49	3
50 to 74	4
75 to 100	5
Over 100	(1)

[1] 1 for each additional 30 persons.

Where 10 or more are employed, one water closet less than the number specified in the foregoing may be provided for men for each urinal, except that the number of water closets in such cases may not be reduced to less than two-thirds of the number specified in the foregoing. Two feet of trough urinal shall be considered as equivalent to one individual urinal.

(b) An adequate supply of toilet paper with holder shall be provided for every water closet.

(c) Covered receptacles shall be kept in all toilet rooms used by women.

§ 50–204.242 Construction of toilet rooms.

(a) Each toilet facility (closet) shall occupy a separate compartment, equipped with a door, latch, and clothes hook.

(b) The walls of compartments or partitions between fixtures may be less than the height of room walls, but the top shall not be less than six feet from the floor and the bottom not more than one foot from the floor.

(c) The door to every toilet room shall be fitted with an effective self-closing device, and the entrance to the toilet rooms shall be so screened that the interior of the toilet room is not visible from the workroom.

(d) The floors, walls, ceilings, partitions, and doors of all toilet rooms shall be of a finish that can be easily cleaned.

(e) Toilet rooms, except those in work places accessible to men only, shall be completely enclosed with solid material that is nontransparent from the outside.

§ 50–204.243 Chemical closets and privies.

When chemical closets or privies are permitted by local law they shall be of a type approved by the health authorities having jurisdiction and shall be maintained in a sanitary condition.

§ 50–204.244 Washing facilities.

Adequate facilities for maintaining personal cleanliness shall be provided in every place of employment. These shall be convenient for the employees for whom they are provided and shall be maintained in a sanitary condition.

(a) At least one lavatory (wash basin) with adequate hot and cold water, shall be provided for every 20 employees (men or women) or portion thereof, up to 100 persons, and one lavatory (wash basin) for each additional 25 persons or portion thereof. Twenty-four inches of sink with individual faucet shall be considered as equal to one lavatory. In all instances, a suitable cleansing agent shall be provided at each wash place.

(b) Where employees are exposed to skin contamination by poisonous, infectious, or irritating material, one lavatory supplied with hot and cold water, shall be provided for every 5 employees.

(c) One shower bath with ample supply of hot and cold water from one fixture shall be supplied for every 15 workers, or portion thereof, exposed to excessive heat or to skin contamination by poisonous, infectious, or irritating material.

(d) Individual hand towels, or sections thereof, of cloth or paper, or mechanical apparatus for drying the hands, shall be provided. Proper receptacles or other sanitary means shall be maintained for the disposal of used towels. Towels for common use shall not be provided.

(e) Adequate washing facilities shall be provided in every toilet room or adjacent thereto.

§ 50–204.245 Change rooms.

Separate change or dressing rooms shall be provided for each sex wherever it is the practice to change from street clothes or wherever it is necessary to change because the work performed involves exposure to excessive dirt, heat, fumes, vapor, or moisture. Where change rooms are not provided, facilities shall be furnished for hanging outer garments:

(a) Where employees' work clothes are exposed to contamination by poisonous, infectious, or irritating material, facilities shall be provided in change rooms so that street and work clothes will not be stored in contact with each other.

(b) Where the process in which the worker is engaged is such that his working clothes become wet or have to be washed between shifts, provision shall be made to insure that such clothing is dry before re-use.

§ 50–204.246 Retiring rooms for women.

Where 10 or more women are employed at any one time, at least one retiring room shall be provided.

(a) Where less than 10 women are employed and a retiring room is not furnished, some equivalent space shall be provided which can be properly screened for privacy and made suitable for the use of women employees.

(b) At least one couch or bed shall be provided in every place where women are employed. The number of such beds or couches required shall be as follows:

	Beds
1 to 100	1
100 to 250	2

1 additional bed for each additional 250 women employees. A minimum of 60 square feet per bed shall be provided.

LUNCH ROOMS AND FOOD HANDLING

§ 50–204.251 Location.

In all places of employment where employees lunch on the premises, an adequate space suitable for that purpose shall be provided for the maximum number of employees who may use such space at one time. Such space shall be separate from any location where there is exposure to toxic materials.

§ 50–204.252 Waste food disposal.

A covered receptacle shall be provided and shall be used by employees for the disposal of all waste food.

§ 50–204.253 Presence of toxic materials.

No employee shall be permitted to store or eat any part of his lunch or other food at any time where there are present any toxic material or other substance that may be injurious to health.

DRINKING WATER

§ 50–204.258 Potable water.

(a) An adequate supply of potable water, approved as to source and distribution by appropriate authority, shall be provided for drinking, washing and cooking purposes in all places of employment.

(b) In all instances where water is cooled by ice made from non-potable water the construction of the container shall be such that the ice does not come in direct contact with the water.

(c) Open containers such as barrels, pails, or tanks for drinking water from which the water must be dipped or poured, whether or not they are fitted with a cover, shall not be allowed.

(d) The common drinking cup is prohibited.

(e) Where single service cups are supplied, a sanitary container for the unused cups and a receptacle for disposing of the used cups shall be provided.

§ 50–204.259 Non-potable water.

Outlets for non-potable water, such as water for industrial or fire-fighting purposes only, shall be posted to indicate that the water is unsafe and is not to be used for drinking, washing, or cooking purposes.

MEDICAL SERVICES

§ 50–204.264 Medical services.

(a) The employer shall assure the ready availability of qualified medical personnel for advice and consultation on plant health problems, for emergency medical services, and for the supervision of first-aid attendants.

(b) In the absence of an infirmary, a person trained to render first aid and a kit containing the following items shall be available at every place of employment.

1 Adhesive Plaster ½" x 5 yd. Roll.
1 Adhesive Plaster, 1 x 5 yd. Roll.
2 Absorbent Cotton, 2-ounce packages.
1 Absorbent Gauze, 1 yd.
1 Activol Soap, 2-ounce bottle.
100 Adhesive Bandages, 1".
1 Aromatic Spirits of Ammonia, 2-ounce bottle.
1 Boric Acid Solution, 2-ounce bottle.
1 Castor Oil, 2-ounce bottle.
12 Compress Bandages, 2".
4 Compress Bandages, 4".
12 Cotton Wound Applicators.
1 Eye Cup.
1 Eye Dropper.
6 Finger Cots.
6 Foille for Burns, ⅛ oz. tubes.
1 Foille for Burns, 2-ounce bottle.
6 Gauze Roller Bandages 1" x 6 yds.
6 Gauze Roller Bandages 2" x 6 yds.
6 Gauze Roller Bandages 3" x 6 yds.
10 Gauze Sterilized, 12" x 18".
1 Merthiolate, Tincture, 2-ounce bottle.
1 Medicine Glass.
1 Manual First Aid Instruction.
1 Scissors Pair 4" Bandage.
1 Tweezers Pair 3½".
12 Safety Pins.
1 Spoon.
1 Tourniquet.
2 Triangular Bandages 40".
6 Wood Splints for Fractures.
12 Wood Tongue Depressors.

EYE PROTECTION

§ 50–204.269 General requirement.

Eye protection shall be provided where persons are exposed to any hazard which may cause injury to the eyes from the following operations: chipping, calking, coarse grinding, riveting, sledging, scaling, light grinding, stone dressing, spot welding, woodworking, metal-working, babbitting, casting, dipping in hot metal baths, handling of acids and caustics, electric arc welding, oxyacetylene and oxyhydrogen welding and cutting, furnace tending, and irradiation with ultraviolet light.

§ 50–204.270 First-aid for chemical burns.

Where workers' eyes may be exposed to injurious chemical materials such as acids, caustics, etc., suitable facilities for quick drenching or flushing of the eyes shall be provided within the workroom, for immediate emergency use.

ENVIRONMENTAL CONDITIONS

§ 50–204.275 Toxic gases, vapors, fumes, dusts, and mists.

No employee shall be exposed to any of the gases, vapors, mists, dusts, or fumes on the list in section 50–204.276 which exceed the limits there stated when applied to him on an average basis for an eight hour workday, unless he is protected therefrom by respiration equipment approved for the purpose by the United States Bureau of Mines of the United States Department of the Interior and operated in accordance with the recommendations of its manufacturer. Exposures without such equipment which exceed such limits temporarily, without exceeding them on a daily average basis, or which involve more than one such toxic substance, regardless of the degree of its concentration, are also hazardous unless they are undertaken in strict conformity with prior written approval of a qualified industrial hygienist who has studied the particular circumstances of exposure and the toxic substances and concentrations involved.

VENTILATION

§ 50–204.288 General ventilation and temperature requirements.

(a) Outside air shall be provided to all workrooms at the rate of 15 cubic feet per minute per person, or one and one-half air changes per hour, whichever is greater. In most instances, leakage through walls, doors, and windows will produce at least one and one-half air changes per hour.

(b) A minimum air temperature of 60° F. should be maintained at all workrooms where work of a strenuous nature is performed, and a minimum air temperature of 65° F. should be maintained in all other workrooms unless prohibited by process requirements.

§ 50–204.289 Local exhaust ventilation.

(a) Every local exhaust ventilation system shall produce and maintain a movement of air toward the opening, sufficient to prevent escape of contaminant to the workroom during working hours, beyond the limits shown in section 50–204.276.

(b) Air flow through branch and main ducts shall be sufficient to transport the contaminant through the system without settling.

(c) Piping shall be located so as to be accessible for inspection and maintenance.

(d) Air flow equipment including hoods, pipes, fans, motors, and collectors shall be effectively grounded.

(e) Two or more operations involving more than one substance shall not be permitted to be connected to the same exhaust system when a combination of the substances removed may constitute a fire hazard, an explosion hazard, or otherwise dangerous mixture.

(f) Those processes or operations using or generating flammable dusts, gases, fumes, vapors, mists, fibers or other impurities shall be completely protected from all sources of ignition.

(g) The capacity of an exhaust system shall be calculated on the basis of all hoods, booths, and enclosures connected to the system being open, except where the system is so interlocked that only a portion of it can be operated at a given time, in which case the capacity should be calculated on the basis that all the hoods in the group requiring the greatest volume rate of exhaust are open.

(h) Suitable air inlets shall be provided for replacement of exhausted air.

(i) Exhaust systems handling dusts and discharging to the outer air shall be provided with suitable air-cleaning devices to remove air contaminants prior to the discharge to the outer air, except under unusual circumstances.

(j) The discharge from any exhaust system shall be such that no air contamination therefrom will enter any window, door, or other opening of any work space in quantities sufficient to create a health hazard to such space or create a nuisance to surrounding areas.

(k) Collected materials shall be removed at intervals frequent enough to insure that the exhaust system will meet the requirements of section 50–204.288 (a), at all times.

NOISE

§ 50–204.293 Noise.

Noise shall be reasonably reduced or eliminated as a means of preventing fatigue or accidents.

PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

§ 50–204.298 Personal protective equipment.

Personal protective equipment or protective shields or barriers shall be provided and maintained in usable condition whenever substances, radiation, or mechanical irritants are encountered in a manner capable of causing injury or impairment in function of any part of the body through skin or mucous membrane absorption.

BITUMINOUS COAL AND LIGNITE MINES

§ 50–204.300 Federal Mine Safety Code.

The Federal Mine Safety Code for Bituminous Coal and Lignite Mines of the United States, Part I—Underground Mines, and Part II—Strip Mines, as published by the Bureau of Mines, United States Department of Interior is hereby adopted by reference as the safety and health standard required for observance in the bituminous coal and lignite mining to which section 1(e) of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act has application.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 12th day of December 1960.

JAMES P. MITCHELL,
Secretary of Labor.

Title 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[FCC 60-1536; RM-210]

PART 15—INCIDENTAL AND RESTRICTED RADIATION DEVICES

Date When Certification Is Required

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 21st day of December 1960;

The Commission, having under consideration § 15.68(b) of its rules and regulations, and in particular the proviso therein permitting operation of UHF television receivers with field strength of 1000 uv/m at 100 feet until December 31, 1960, and a rule making petition, RM-210, filed October 14, 1960, by Electronic Industries Association requesting extension of such authority until December 31, 1962; and

It appearing that, no evidence has been brought to the attention of the Commission substantiating or supporting the need for a return to the 500 uv/m limit, at this time; and

It further appearing that, the "state of the art" in regard to controlling oscillator radiation from UHF television receivers has remained unchanged in the last two years; and

It further appearing that, the proposed amendment merely extends an existing provision; that operation under this provision during the past 2 years has had no adverse effect; that the Commission has no reason to believe that any party has an interest in discontinuing the provision, or that any party would submit comments to that effect if afforded an opportunity to do so; and hence, that notice and public procedure are unnecessary; and

It further appearing that, since the amendment herein ordered imposes no new requirements but rather relieves an existing requirement, the amendment may be made effective less than 30 days after publication as provided in section 4(c) of the Administrative Procedures Act; and

It further appearing that, the amendment adopted herein is issued pursuant to authority contained in sections 4(i), 301, 303(f), and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That, the EIA petition RM-210 is granted and, effective December 31, 1960, § 15.68(b) of the rules and regulations is amended as follows:

§ 15.68 Date when certification is required.

* * * * * *

(b) UHF television broadcast receivers manufactured after December 1957 shall comply with the certification requirements of this subpart: Provided, however, That, the limit of 500 uv/m appearing in the table contained in § 15.62 is temporarily increased to 1000 uv/m for all UHF television receivers until December 31, 1962.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U.S.C. 154. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 303, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082; 47 U.S.C. 301, 303)

Released: December 23, 1960.

Title 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter IV—Commodity Stabilization Service and Commodity Credit Corporation, Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER B—LOANS, PURCHASES, AND OTHER OPERATIONS

[Amdt. 1]

PART 468—MOHAIR

Subpart—Payment Program for Mohair

SUPPORT LEVEL FOR 1961 MARKETING YEAR

The Payment Program for Mohair issued by Commodity Credit Corporation and the Commodity Stabilization Service (§ 468.161, 24 F.R. 10191) is amended in its entirety to read as follows:

§ 468.161 Announcement of program.

The Commodity Stabilization Service and Commodity Credit Corporation hereby announce a payment program for mohair pursuant to the National Wool Act of 1954, as amended. The program will be carried out under the general supervision and direction of the Executive Vice President of Commodity Credit Corporation through the Commodity Stabilization Service.

§ 468.162 Method and level of support.

(a) Method of support. The price of mohair will be supported by payments to producers for any marketing year in which the national average return to the producers for all mohair sold by them is less than the support level announced for that marketing year.

(b) Level of support for 1960 marketing year. The price of mohair sold in the 1960 marketing year (April 1, 1960, through March 31, 1961) will be supported at a level which will yield a national average return to producers of 70 cents a pound for all mohair sold in that marketing year.

(c) Level of support for 1961 marketing year. The price of mohair sold in the 1961 marketing year (April 1, 1961, through March 31, 1962) will be supported at a level which will yield a national average return to producers of 73 cents a pound for all mohair sold in that marketing year. An announcement of this support level was made on August 16, 1960.

§ 468.163 Provisions of regulations.

If market conditions become such that it appears that payments to producers will be necessary for any marketing year, regulations containing detailed program requirements will be issued. Such regulations will be generally similar to the regulations dealing with shorn wool payments which are included in the Payment Program for Shorn Wool and Unshorn Lambs (Pulled Wool), issued by Commodity Credit Corporation and the Commodity Stabilization Service on January 27, 1959 (24 F.R. 649), as amended, except that there will be no deductions from payments under the mohair program based on any purchases of goats. Applicants for payments under the mohair program will submit sales documents meeting the requirements as to sales documents for shorn wool in the previously mentioned wool payment program (§§ 472.1007 and 472.1008 of this chapter), and producers of mohair are cautioned to obtain and keep such documents for use under the mohair program if mohair payments should be made.

[Amdt. 5]

PART 472—WOOL

Subpart—Payment Program for Shorn Wool and Unshorn Lambs (Pulled Wool)

INCENTIVE LEVEL FOR 1961 MARKETING YEAR AND OTHER AMENDMENTS

The regulations issued by Commodity Credit Corporation and the Commodity Stabilization Service containing the requirements with respect to the payment program for shorn wool and unshorn lambs (pulled wool), as amended (24 F.R. 649, 10191; 25 F.R. 1725, 2705, 5872), are further amended as follows:

1. At the end of § 472.1002, the following new paragraph (d) is inserted:

(d) 1961 marketing year. For the 1961 marketing year, the price support level was announced on August 16, 1960, as 62 cents per pound of shorn wool, grease basis.

2. At the end of paragraph (a) of § 472.1006, the following new sentence is inserted: "If the producer files more than one application in the same county office or different county offices, all such applications may be considered together for the purpose of determining the amount of the payment based on the sales of shorn wool and the amount of the reduction on account of purchases of unshorn lambs."

3. In § 472.1006, the following is inserted at the end of paragraph (c): "If the amount of the reduction exceeds the payment computed on the shorn wool marketed, the liveweight of lambs which corresponds to the excess amount shall be carried forward and used to reduce payments on shorn wool or unshorn lambs marketed in future years."

4. In § 472.1023, the following is inserted at the end thereof: "If the liveweight reported pursuant to § 472.1026 exceeds the liveweight of the unshorn lambs sold or moved to slaughter during the marketing year for which the application is filed, such excess liveweight shall be carried forward and used to reduce payments on unshorn lambs or shorn wool marketed in future years. If the producer files more than one application in the same county office or in different county offices, all such applications may be considered together for the purpose of determining the amount of the payment based on the sales of unshorn lambs and the amount of the reduction on account of purchases of unshorn lambs."

(Sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U.S.C. 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, secs. 702–709, 68 Stat. 910–912, secs. 401–403, 72 Stat. 994–995; 15 U.S.C. 714c, 7 U.S.C. 1781–1787, 1446)

Issued this 22d day of December 1960.

WALTER C. BERGER,
Executive Vice President, Commodity Credit Corporation, and Administrator, Commodity Stabilization Service.

SUBCHAPTER D—REGULATIONS UNDER SOIL BANK ACT

[Amdt. 44]

PART 485—SOIL BANK

Subpart—Conservation Reserve Program for 1956 Through 1959

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The regulations governing the Conservation Reserve Program for 1956 through 1959, 21 F.R. 6289, as amended, are hereby further amended as follows:

1. Section 485.157(f)(1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Effective August 1, 1959, if the county committee determines that an approved conservation use to which the land was devoted when it was placed under contract or which was established with or without cost-sharing after the land was placed under contract, has failed or deteriorated as a result of flood, drought, hurricane, or other natural disaster to the extent that it will not provide adequate soil protection, or satisfactory impoundment of water, as the case may be, the county committee may authorize cost-sharing for eligible measures which the county committee determines are needed to reestablish or restore the approved conservation use so as to provide adequate soil protection, or satisfactory impoundment of water, as the case may be, except that no cost-sharing shall be approved for reestablishment or restoration measures to be carried out during the last year of the contract period. Approvals of cost-sharing for reestablishment or restoration measures shall be at rates of cost-sharing not in excess of 50 percent of the current rates of cost-sharing for the measures for which cost-sharing is being approved. If the contract is for a period of less than 5 years, cost-sharing for reestablishment or restoration measures shall not be authorized.

2. Section 485.162(a) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, (1) rates of cost-sharing for approvals issued on or after January 1, 1961 for practice C–14 shall not exceed 50 percent of the average cost of performing such practice, and (2) rates of cost-sharing for approvals issued on or after January 1, 1961 for all other practices shall not exceed the rates of cost-sharing which would be applicable for such practices under the regulations governing the Conservation Reserve Program for 1960."

(Sec. 124, 70 Stat. 198; 7 U.S.C. 1812.)

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of December 1960.

WALTER C. BERGER,
Administrator, Commodity Stabilization Service.

(b) Such person, by reason of his business experience, financial standing or trade connections, is likely to commence operations as a distiller, warehouseman and bottler, rectifier, wine producer, wine blender, importer, or wholesaler, as the case may be, within a reasonable period and to maintain such operations in conformity with Federal law; and

(c) The operations proposed to be conducted by such person are not in violation of the law of the State in which they are to be conducted.

APPLICATIONS FOR PERMITS

§ 1.25 General.

Applications for basic permits to engage in any of the operations set forth in §§ 1.20 to 1.22 shall be made on the appropriate form prescribed by the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, verified as required by § 1.56, and shall be accompanied by such affidavits, documents, and other supporting data, as the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division or the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall require. All data, written statements, affidavits, documents, or other evidence submitted in support of the application, or upon hearing thereon, shall be deemed to be a part of the application. All applications shall be filed by mailing or delivering the same to the office of the Assistant Regional Commissioner.

§ 1.26 Incomplete or incorrectly executed applications.

Incomplete or incorrectly executed applications will not be acted upon, but the applicant shall be entitled to file a new application without prejudice, or to complete the application already filed.

§ 1.27 Change in ownership, management, or control of the applicant.

In the event of any change in the ownership, management, or control of the applicant (in case of a corporation, any change in the officers, directors, or persons holding more than 10 percent of the corporate stock), after the date of filing of any application for a basic permit and prior to final action on such application, the applicant shall notify the Assistant Regional Commissioner immediately of such change.

§ 1.28 Forms upon which to apply for basic permits.

The appropriate forms upon which to apply for basic permits may be secured from the assistant regional commissioner's office upon request.

§ 1.29 Individual plant or premises.

An application for basic permit must be filed, and permit issued, to cover each individual plant or premises where any of the businesses specified in section 3 of the act is engaged in, such application to be filed with and permit issued by the Assistant Regional Commissioner for the region wherein such plant or premises is located.

§ 1.30 Power of attorney; Form 1534.

If the application and other documents in support of such application are signed by an attorney in fact for an individual, partnership, association, or corporation, or by one of the members of a copartnership or association, or, in the case of a corporation by an officer or other person not authorized by the corporation's bylaws or by its board of directors to sign such applications and supporting documents, the applications must be supported by a duly authenticated copy of the power of attorney conferring authority upon the person signing the documents to execute the same. Such powers of attorney will be executed on Form 1534, in triplicate, and submitted to the Assistant Regional Commissioner.

§ 1.31 Denial of permit applications.

If, upon examination of any application for a basic permit, the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe that the applicant is not entitled to such permit he shall institute proceedings for the denial of the application in accordance with the procedure set forth in 26 CFR Part 200, which part is made applicable to such proceedings.

Subpart D—Authorization

§ 1.35 Authority to issue, amend, deny, suspend, revoke, or annul basic permits.

The authority and power of issuing, amending, or denying basic permits, or amendments thereof, is conferred upon the Commissioner and (except as to agency initiated curtailment) upon the Assistant Regional Commissioner. The authority and power of suspending, revoking or annulling basic permits is conferred upon the Commissioner, and upon the hearing examiners referred to in 26 CFR Part 200. Any Assistant Commissioner of Internal Revenue, when designated to do so by the Commissioner, and the Director, upon consideration of appeals on petitions for review, may order the Assistant Regional Commissioner to issue, deny, suspend, revoke, and annul basic permits.

Subpart E—Amendment and Duration of Basic Permits

§ 1.40 Change of name.

In the event of any change in the name (trade or corporate name) of a permittee, or, in the event a permittee desires to engage in operations under an additional trade name, such permittee must file application (Form 1643), with the Assistant Regional Commissione., for an amended basic permit, which application must be approved, and amended permit issued, before operations may be commenced under the new name.

§ 1.41 Change of address.

In the event of a change in address, the permittee must file application (Form 1643), with the Assistant Regional Commissioner, for an amended basic permit.

§ 1.42 Change in ownership, management, or control of business.

In the event of any change in the ownership, management, or control of any business operated pursuant to a basic permit (if the permittee is a corporation, if any change occurs in the officers, directors, or persons owning or controlling more than 10 percent of the voting stock of said corporation) the permittee shall immediately notify the Assistant Regional Commissioner of such change, giving the names and addresses of all new persons participating in the ownership, management, or control of such business, or in the case of a corporation, the names and addresses of such new officers, directors, or persons owning or controlling more than 10 percent of the voting stock. Notice to the Assistant Regional Commissioner of any such change shall be accompanied or supplemented by such data in reference to the personal or business history of such persons as the Assistant Regional Commissioner may require.

§ 1.43 Duration of permits.

A basic permit shall continue in effect until suspended, revoked, annulled, voluntarily surrendered, or automatically terminated, as provided in the act and in this part.

§ 1.44 Automatic termination of permits.

No basic permit shall be leased, sold, or otherwise voluntarily transferred, and, in the event of such lease, sale, or other voluntary transfer, the said basic permit shall automatically terminate thereupon. If any basic permit is transferred by operation of law or if actual or legal control of the permittee is acquired, directly or indirectly whether by stock ownership or in any other manner, by any person, then such permit shall be automatically terminated at the expiration of 30 days thereafter: Provided, That if within such 30-day period application for a new basic permit is made by the transferee or permittee, respectively, then the outstanding basic permit shall continue in effect until such time as the application is finally acted upon.

Subpart F—Revocation, Suspension, or Annulment of Basic Permits

§ 1.50 Revocation or suspension.

Whenever the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe that any permittee has willfully violated any of the conditions of his basic permit or has not engaged in the operations authorized by the permit for a period of more than two years, he shall institute proceedings for the revocation or suspension of such permit, in accordance with the procedure set forth in 26 CFR Part 200, which part is made applicable to such proceedings.

§ 1.51 Annulment.

Whenever the Assistant Regional Commissioner has reason to believe that any basic permit was procured through fraud, or misrepresentation or concealment of material fact, he shall institute proceedings for the annulment of such permit in accordance with the procedure set forth in 26 CFR Part 200, which part is made applicable to such proceedings.

§ 1.52 Disposition of stocks of alcoholic beverages upon revocation, annulment, or automatic termination of basic permit.

In the event of the revocation or annulment of a basic permit, pursuant to 26 CFR Part 200, or in the event such permit is automatically terminated by operation of law (27 U.S.C. 204(g)) and § 1.44, the Assistant Regional Commissioner may authorize the orderly disposition of stocks of distilled spirits, wines or malt beverages then held by the permittee or former permittee upon such conditions as may be considered proper.

Subpart G—Miscellaneous

§ 1.55 Recalling permits for correction.

Whenever it shall be discovered that any basic permit has been issued authorizing acts, or combinations of acts, which may not properly, under the law and regulations, as now or hereafter in force, be authorized, or that any material mistake has occurred in the issuance thereof, the holder of such permit shall forthwith surrender the same for correction or amendment upon demand of the Assistant Regional Commissioner.

§ 1.56 Oaths and affirmations.

Any document required by regulations or instructions of the Commissioner to be verified, shall be so verified upon oath or affirmation taken before a person authorized by the laws of the United States or by State or local law to administer oaths or affirmations in the State, Territory, or District wherein such document is to be executed.

§ 1.57 Procedure.

The procedures prescribed by the rules of practice in Permit Proceedings (26 CFR Part 200) are applicable to administrative proceedings for the issuance, amendment, denial, revocation, suspension, and annulment of basic permits, the issuance of subpoenas and the taking of depositions under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

§ 1.58 Filing of permits.

Every person receiving a basic permit under the provisions of this part must file the same, at the place of business covered by the basic permit, so that it may be examined by Government officers.

§ 1.59 Public information as to applications acted upon.

The Assistant Regional Commissioner shall cause to be maintained currently in his office for public inspection, until the expiration of one year following final action on the application, the following information with respect to each application for basic permit filed:

(a) The name, including trade name or names, if any, and the address of the applicant; the kind of permit applied for and the location of the business; whether the applicant is an individual, a partnership or a corporation; if a partnership, the name and address of each partner; if a corporation, the name and address of each of the principal officers and of each stockholder owning 10 percent or more of the corporate stock.

(b) The time and place set for any hearing on the application.

(c) The final action taken on the application. In the event a hearing is held upon an application for a basic permit, the Assistant Regional Commissioner shall make available for inspection at his office, upon request therefor: The transcript of the hearing, a copy of the examiner's recommended decision, a copy of the Assistant Regional Commissioner's decision and, in the event of an appeal to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, the decision on appeal with the reasons given in support thereof.

PART 2—NONINDUSTRIAL USE OF DISTILLED SPIRITS AND WINE

Subpart A—Scope of Regulations

Sec.
2.1 Nonindustrial use of distilled spirits and wine.

Subpart B—Definitions

2.5 Distilled spirits.
2.6 Wine.

Subpart C—Uses Regarded as Industrial

2.10 Use of distilled spirits.
2.11 Use of wine.
2.12 Use of distilled spirits or wine for experimental purposes and in manufacture of nonbeverage products.

Subpart D—Uses Classed as Nonindustrial

2.15 General.
2.16 Distilled spirits in containers of a capacity of one gallon or less.

AUTHORITY: §§ 2.1 to 2.16 issued under 49 Stat. 977, as amended; 27 U.S.C. 202 note.

Subpart A—Scope of Regulations

§ 2.1 Nonindustrial use of distilled spirits and wine.

The regulations in this part specify what uses of distilled spirits and wine are "nonindustrial," as that term is used in section 17 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act. No procedural requirements are prescribed.

Subpart B—Definitions

§ 2.5 Distilled spirits.

Section 17(a) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act defines "distilled spirits" as ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, spirits of wine, whiskey, rum, brandy, gin, and other distilled spirits, including all dilutions and mixtures thereof, for nonindustrial use.

§ 2.6 Wine.

Section 17(a) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act defines "wine" as (a) wine as defined in section 610 and section 617 of the Revenue Act of 1918 (26 U.S.C. 3036, 3044, 3045), as now in force or hereafter amended, and (b) other alcoholic beverages not so defined, but made in the manner of wine, including sparkling and carbonated wine, wine made from condensed grape must, wine made from other agricultural products than the juice of sound, ripe grapes, imitation wine, compounds sold as wine, vermouth, cider, perry and sake; in each instance only if containing not less than 7 per centum and not more than 24 per centum of alcohol by volume, and if for nonindustrial use.

Subpart C—Uses Regarded as Industrial

§ 2.10 Use of distilled spirits.

The following uses of distilled spirits are regarded as "industrial" and will be excluded from any application of the term "nonindustrial use." The use of distilled spirits:

(a) Free of tax by, and for the use of, the United States or any governmental agency thereof, any State or Territory, any political subdivision of a State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, for nonbeverage purposes; or

(b) Free of tax for nonbeverage purposes and not for resale or use in the manufacture of any product for sale:

(1) For the use of any educational organization described in 26 U.S.C. 503(b)(2) which is exempt from income tax under 26 U.S.C. 501(a), or for the use of any scientific university or college of learning;

(2) For any laboratory for use exclusively in scientific research;

(3) For use at any hospital, blood bank, or sanitarium (including use in making analysis or test at such hospital, blood bank, or sanitarium), or at any pathological laboratory exclusively engaged in making analyses or tests, for hospitals or sanitariums; or

(4) For the use of any clinic operated for charity and not for profit (including use in compounding of bona fide medicines for treatment outside of such clinics of patients thereof); or

(c) Free of tax, after denaturation of such spirits in the manner prescribed by law for:

(1) Use in the manufacture of ether, chloroform, or other definite chemical substance where such distilled spirits are changed into some other chemical substance and do not appear in the finished product; or

(2) Any other use in the arts and industries (except for uses prohibited by 26 U.S.C. 5273 (b) or (d)) and for fuel, light, and power.

§ 2.11 Use of wine.

The following uses of wine are regarded as "industrial" and will be excluded from any application of the term "nonindustrial". The use of wine:

(a) Without payment of tax for use in the production of vinegar; or

(b) Free of tax for experimental or research purposes by any scientific university, college of learning, or institution of scientific research; or

(c) Free of tax for use by the United States or any agency thereof, and for use for analysis, testing, research, or experimentation by the governments of the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia or of any political subdivision thereof or by any agency of such governments; or

(d) Which has been rendered unfit for beverage use.

§ 2.12 Use of distilled spirits or wine for experimental purposes and in manufacture of nonbeverage products.

The use of distilled spirits or wine for experimental purposes and in the manufacture of (a) medicinal, pharmaceutical, or antiseptic products, including prescriptions compounded by retail druggists; (b) toilet preparations; (c) flavoring extracts, syrups, or food products; or (d) scientific, chemical, mechanical, or industrial products, provided such products are unfit for beverage use, is regarded as "industrial," and will be excluded from any application of the term "nonindustrial use."

Subpart D—Uses Classed as Nonindustrial

§ 2.15 General.

All uses of distilled spirits and wines, except as provided in Subpart C of this part, are regarded as "nonindustrial." Such "nonindustrial" use shall include, but not be limited to, distilled spirits or wine used for beverage purposes, or in the manufacture, rectification, or blending of alcoholic beverages; or in the preparation of food or drink by a hotel, restaurant, tavern, or similar establishment; or for sacramental purposes; or as a medicine.

§ 2.16 Distilled spirits in containers of a capacity of one gallon or less.

Distilled spirits in containers of a capacity of one wine gallon or less, except anhydrous alcohol and alcohol which may be withdrawn free of tax under the internal revenue laws, will be deemed to be for nonindustrial use.

PART 3—BULK SALES AND BOTTLING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS

Subpart A—Scope of Part

Sec.
3.1 Bulk sales and bottling of distilled spirits.

Subpart B—Definitions

3.5 Distilled spirits.
3.6 Brandy.
3.7 In bulk.
3.8 Other terms.

Subpart C—Bulk Sales and Bottling

3.10 Sales of distilled spirits in bulk.
3.11 Importation of distilled spirits in bulk.
3.12 Acquiring or receiving distilled spirits in bulk for warehousing and bottling.
3.13 Acquiring or receiving distilled spirits in bulk for rectification or fortification.
3.14 Acquisition of distilled spirits in bulk by Government agencies.

Subpart D—Warehouse Receipts

3.20 Distilled spirits in bulk.
3.21 Bottled distilled spirits.

Subpart E—Sales of Distilled Spirits for Industrial Use

3.25 General.

AUTHORITY: §§ 3.1 to 3.25 issued under 49 Stat. 985, as amended; 27 U.S.C. 206.

Subpart A—Scope of Part

§ 3.1 Bulk sales and bottling of distilled spirits.

This part, issued pursuant to section 6 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 U.S.C. 206), contains the substantive requirements relative to bulk sales and bottling of distilled spirits under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, including the terms of warehouse receipts for distilled spirits in bulk. No procedural requirements are prescribed.

Subpart B—Definitions

§ 3.5 Distilled spirits.

Section 17(a) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act defines "distilled spirits" as ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, spirits of wine, whisky, rum, brandy, gin, and other distilled spirits, including all dilutions and mixtures thereof, for nonindustrial use.

§ 3.6 Brandy.

As used in this part, the term "brandy" means brandy or wine spirits for addition to wines as permitted by Internal Revenue law and the term "alcohol" means ethyl alcohol distilled at or above 190° proof.

§ 3.7 In bulk.

As used in this part, the term "in bulk" shall mean in containers having a capacity in excess of 1 wine gallon.

§ 3.8 Other terms.

Any other term defined in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and used in this part shall have the meaning assigned to it by such act.

Subpart C—Bulk Sales and Bottling

§ 3.10 Sales of distilled spirits in bulk.

It is unlawful for any person to sell, offer to sell, contract to sell, or otherwise dispose of distilled spirits in bulk, for nonindustrial use, except for export or to the classes of persons enumerated in §§ 3.12, 3.13 and 3.14.

§ 3.11 Importation of distilled spirits in bulk.

It is unlawful for any person to import distilled spirits in bulk, for nonindustrial use, except for sale to or for use by the classes of persons enumerated in §§ 3.12, 3.13 and 3.14.

§ 3.12 Acquiring or receiving distilled spirits in bulk for redistillation, processing, rectification, warehousing, or warehousing and bottling.

Persons holding basic permits (issued under 27 CFR Part I) authorizing the distilling, rectifying, or warehousing and bottling of distilled spirits, or operating permits (issued under 26 CFR 201.136 et seq.) may acquire or receive in bulk distilled spirits as follows:

(a) Proprietor of a distilled spirits plant having distilling or bonded storage facilities. If the permittee is authorized to operate distilling or bonded storage facilities of a distilled spirits plant, he may acquire or receive in bulk, and redistill or otherwise process, or warehouse, or warehouse and bottle domestic untax-determined distilled spirits.

(b) Proprietor of a distilled spirits plant having bottling premises for bottling taxpaid distilled spirits. If the permittee is authorized to operate taxpaid bottling premises of a distilled spirits plant, he may acquire or receive in bulk, and warehouse and bottle imported taxpaid distilled spirits and domestic distilled spirits on which all applicable taxes imposed by law have been determined or paid as provided by law. If he is authorized to rectify distilled spirits, he may acquire or receive in bulk taxpaid imported distilled spirits, and domestic distilled spirits on which all applicable taxes imposed by law have been determined or paid as provided by law, for use in rectifying and blending or for warehousing and bottling.

(c) Proprietor of class 8 customs bonded warehouse. If the permittee operates a class 8 customs bonded warehouse, he may acquire or receive in bulk, and warehouse and bottle, imported distilled spirits, so far as permitted by the customs laws.

§ 3.13 Acquiring or receiving distilled spirits in bulk for addition to wine.

Persons holding permits as producers and blenders of wine, may, pursuant to such permit, acquire or receive in bulk alcohol or brandy for addition to wines.

§ 3.14 Acquisition of distilled spirits in bulk by Government agencies.

Any agency of the United States, or of any State or political subdivision thereof, may acquire or receive in bulk, and warehouse and bottle, imported and domestic distilled spirits in conformity with the internal revenue laws.

Subpart D—Warehouse Receipts

§ 3.20 Distilled spirits in bulk.

By the terms of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 U.S.C. 206), all warehouse receipts for distilled spirits in bulk must require that the warehouseman shall package such distilled spirits, before delivery, in bottles labeled and marked in accordance with law, or deliver such distilled spirits in bulk only to persons to whom it is lawful to sell or otherwise dispose of distilled spirits in bulk.

§ 3.21 Bottled distilled spirits.

The provisions of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, which forbid any person to sell, offer to sell, contract to sell, or otherwise dispose of warehouse receipts for distilled spirits in bulk, do not apply to warehouse receipts for bottled distilled spirits.

CROSS REFERENCE: For labeling of distilled spirits, see Part 5 of this chapter.

Subpart E—Sales of Distilled Spirits for Industrial Use

§ 3.25 General.

Distillers, rectifiers, and other permittees engaged in the sale or other disposition of distilled spirits for nonindustrial use shall not sell or otherwise dispose of distilled spirits in bulk (other than alcohol) for industrial use, unless such distilled spirits are shipped or delivered directly to the industrial user thereof.

Subpart A—Scope

§ 4.1 General.

The regulations in this part relate to the labeling and advertising of wine.

§ 4.2 Territorial extent.

This part applies to the several States of the United States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

Subpart B—Definitions

§ 4.10 Meaning of terms.

As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meaning ascribed in this part.

(a) Act. "Act" means the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(b) Assistant Regional Commissioner. "Assistant Regional Commissioner" shall mean the Assistant Regional Commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, who is responsible to, and functions under the direction and supervision of the Regional Commissioner.

(c) Director. "Director" shall mean the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C.

(d) Permittee. "Permittee" means any person holding a basic permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(e) Wine. "Wine" means: (1) wine as defined in section 610 and section 617 of the Revenue Act of 1918 (26 U.S.C. 3036, 3044, 3045) and (2) other alcoholic beverages not so defined, but made in the manner of wine, including sparkling and carbonated wine, wine made from condensed grape must, wine made from other agricultural products than the juice of sound, ripe grapes, imitation wine, compounds sold as wine, vermouth, cider, perry, and sake; in each instance only if containing not less than 7 percent, and not more than 24 percent of alcohol by volume, and if for nonindustrial use.

(f) Pure condensed must. "Pure condensed must" means the dehydrated juice or must of sound, ripe grapes, or other fruit or agricultural products, concentrated to not more than 80° (Balling), the composition thereof remaining unaltered except for removal of water; the term "restored pure condensed must" means pure condensed must to which has been added an amount of water not exceeding the amount removed in the dehydration process; and the term "sugar" means pure cane, beet, or dextrose sugar in dry form containing, respectively, not less than 95 percent of actual sugar calculated on a dry basis.

(g) Added brandy or alcohol. As used in the phrase "added brandy or alcohol" the term "brandy" means brandy or wine spirits for use in the fortification of wine as permitted by internal revenue law. The term "alcohol" means ethyl alcohol distilled at or above 190° proof.

(h) Vintage wine. "Vintage wine" means a wine made wholly from grapes gathered in the same calendar year and grown and fermented in the same viticultural area, and conforming to the standards prescribed in Classes 1, 2, and 3 of § 4.21.

(i) Container. "Container" means any bottle, barrel, cask or other closed receptacle irrespective of size or of the material from which made for use for the sale of wine at retail. The term "bottler" means any person who places wine in containers of a capacity of 1 gallon or less; and the term "packer" means any person who places wine in containers of a capacity in excess of 1 gallon.

(j) Gallon. "Gallon" means United States gallon of 231 cubic inches of alcoholic beverage at 60° F. All other liquid measures used are subdivisions of the gallon as so defined.

(k) Brand label. "Brand label" means the label carrying, in the usual distinctive design, the brand name of the wine.

(l) United States. "United States" means the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia; the term "State" includes a Territory and the District of Columbia; and the term "Territory" means Puerto Rico.

(m) Interstate commerce. "Interstate or foreign commerce" means commerce between any State and any place outside thereof, or commerce within any Territory or the District of Columbia, or between points within the same State but through any place outside thereof.

(n) Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, joint-stock company, business trust, association, corporation, or other form of business enterprise, including a receiver, trustee, or liquidating agent, and including an officer or employee of any agency of a

State or political subdivision thereof; and the term "trade buyer" means any person who is a wholesaler or retailer.

(o) Use of other terms. Any other term defined in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and used in this part shall have the same meaning assigned to it by such act.

Subpart C—Standards of Identity for Wine

§ 4.20 Application of standards.

The standards of identity for the several classes and types of wine set forth herein shall be applicable to all regulations and permits issued under the act. Whenever any term for which a standard of identity has been established herein is used in any such regulation or permit, such term shall have the meaning assigned to it by such standard of identity.

§ 4.21 The standards of identity.

Standards of identity for the several classes and types of wine set forth in this part shall be as follows:

(a) Class 1; grape wine. (1) "Grape wine" is wine produced by the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound, ripe grapes (including restored or unrestored pure condensed grape must), with or without the addition, after fermentation, of pure condensed grape must, and with or without added grape brandy or alcohol, but without other addition or abstraction except as may occur in cellar treatment: Provided, That the product may be ameliorated before, during or after fermentation by either of the following methods:

(i) By adding, separately or in combination, dry sugar, or such an amount of sugar and water solution as will not increase the volume of the resulting product more than 35 percent; but in no event shall any product so ameliorated have an alcoholic content, derived by fermentation, of more than 13 percent by volume, or a natural acid content, if water has been added, of less than 5 parts per thousand, or a total solids content of more than 22 grams per 100 cubic centimeters.

(ii) By adding, separately or in combination, not more than 20 percent by weight of dry sugar, or not more than 10 percent by weight of water.

(iii) In the case of domestic wine, in accordance with section 5383 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The maximum volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, shall not be, for natural red wine, more than 0.14 gram, and for other grape wine, more than 0.12 gram, per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.). Grape wine deriving its characteristic color or lack of color from the presence or absence of the red coloring matter of the skins, juice, or pulp of grapes may be designated as "red wine," "pink (or rose) wine," "amber wine," or "white wine" as the case may be. Any grape wine containing no added grape brandy or alcohol may be further designated as "natural."

(2) "Table wine" is grape wine having an alcoholic content not in excess of 14 percent by volume. Such wine may also be designated as "light wine," "red table wine," "light white wine," "sweet table wine," etc., as the case may be.

(3) "Dessert wine" is grape wine having an alcoholic content in excess of 14 percent but not in excess of 24 percent by volume. Dessert wine having the taste, aroma and characteristics generally attributed to sherry and an alcoholic content, derived in part from added grape brandy or alcohol, of not less than 17 percent by volume, may be designated as "sherry". Dessert wines having the taste, aroma and characteristics generally attributed to angelica, madeira, muscatel and port and an alcoholic content, derived in part from added grape brandy or alcohol, of not less than 18 percent by volume, may be designated as "angelica," "madeira," "muscatel," or "port" respectively. Dessert wines having the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to any of the above products and an alcoholic content, derived in part from added grape brandy or alcohol, in excess of 14 percent by volume but, in the case of sherry, less than 17 percent, or, in other cases, less than 18 percent by volume, may be designated as "light sherry," "light angelica," "light madeira," "light muscatel" or "light port," respectively.

(b) Class 2; sparkling grape wine. (1) "Sparkling grape wine" (including "sparkling wine," "sparkling red wine" and "sparkling white wine") is grape wine made effervescent with carbon dioxide resulting solely from the fermentation of the wine within a closed container, tank or bottle.

(2) "Champagne" is a type of sparkling light wine which derives its effervescence solely from the secondary fermentation of the wine within glass containers of not greater than one gallon capacity, and which possesses the taste, aroma, and other characteristics attributed to champagne as made in the champagne district of France.

(3) A sparkling light wine having the taste, aroma, and charcteristics generally attributed to champagne but not otherwise conforming to the standard for "champagne" may, in addition to but not in lieu of the class designation "sparkling wine" be further designated as "champagne style" or "champagne type" or "American (or New York State, California, etc.) champagne—bulk process"; all the words in such further designation shall appear in lettering of substantially the same size and such lettering shall not be substantially larger than the words "sparkling wine".

(4) "Crackling wine", "petillant wine", "frizzante wine" (including cremant, perlant, reciotto and other similar wine) is sparkling light wine normally less effervescent than champagne or other similar sparkling wine, but containing sufficient carbon dioxide in solution, derived solely from limited fermentation within the bottle, to produce, upon pouring under normal conditions, after the disappearance of air bubbles, a slow and steady effervescence evidenced by the formation of gas bubbles flowing up through the wine.

(c) Class 3; carbonated grape wine. "Carbonated grape wine" (including "carbonated wine" "carbonated red wine," and "carbonated white wine") is grape wine made effervescent with carbon dioxide other than that resulting solely from the secondary fermentation of the wine within a closed container, tank or bottle.

(d) Class 4; citrus wine. (1) (i) "Citrus wine" or "citrus fruit wine" is wine produced by the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound, ripe citrus fruit (including restored or unrestored pure condensed citrus must), with or without the addition, after fermentation, of pure condensed citrus must, and with or without added citrus brandy or alcohol, but without any other addition or abstraction except as may occur in cellar treatment: Provided, That a domestic product may be ameliorated or sweetened in accordance with the provisions of section 5384 of the Internal Revenue Code and any product other than domestic may be ameliorated before, during, or after fermentation by adding, separately or in combination, dry sugar, or such an amount of sugar and water solution as will not increase the volume of the resulting product more than 35 percent, but in no event shall any product so ameliorated have an alcoholic content, derived by fermentation, of more than 13 percent by volume, or a natural acid content, if water has been added, of less than 5 parts per thousand, or a total solids content of more than 22 grams per 100 cubic centimeters.

(ii) The maximum volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, shall not be, for natural citrus wine, more than 0.14 gram, and for other citrus wine, more than 0.12 gram, per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.).

(iii) Any citrus wine containing no added brandy or alcohol may be further designated as "natural."

(2) "Citrus table wine" or "citrus fruit table wine" is citrus wine having an alcoholic content not in excess of 14 percent by volume. Such wine may also be designated "light citrus wine," "light citrus fruit wine," "light sweet citrus fruit wine," etc., as the case may be.

(3) "Citrus dessert wine" or "citrus fruit dessert wine" is citrus wine having an alcoholic content in excess of 14 percent but not in excess of 24 percent by volume.

(4) Citrus wine derived wholly (except for sugar, water, or added alcohol) from one kind of citrus fruit, shall be designated by the word "wine" qualified by the name of such citrus fruit, e.g., "orange wine," "grapefruit wine." Citrus wine not derived wholly from one kind of citrus fruit shall be designated as "citrus wine" or "citrus fruit wine" qualified by a truthful and adequate statement of composition appearing in direct conjunction therewith. Citrus wine rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide resulting solely from the secondary fermentation of the wine within a closed container, tank, or bottle shall be further designated as "sparkling"; and citrus wine rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide otherwise derived shall be further designated as "carbonated."

(e) Class 5; fruit wine. (1) (i) "Fruit wine" is wine (other than grape wine or citrus wine) produced by the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound, ripe fruit (including restored or unrestored pure condensed fruit must), with or without the addition, after fermentation, of pure condensed fruit must, and with or without added fruit brandy or alcohol, but without other addition or abstraction except as may occur in cellar treatment: Provided, That a domestic product may be ameliorated or sweetened in accordance with the provisions of section 5384 of the Internal Revenue Code and any product other than domestic may be ameliorated before, during, or after fermentation by adding, separately or in combination, dry sugar, or such an amount of sugar and water solution as will increase the volume of the resulting product, in the case of wines produced from loganberries, currants, or gooseberries, having a normal acidity of 20 parts or more per thousand, not more than 60 percent, and in the case of other fruit wines, not more than 35 percent, but in no event shall any product so ameliorated have an alcoholic content, derived by fermentation, of more than 13 percent by volume, or a natural acid content, if water has been added, of less than 5 parts per thousand, or a total solids content of more than 22 grams per 100 cubic centimeters.

(ii) The maximum volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, shall not be, for natural fruit wine, more than 0.14 gram, and for other fruit wine, more than 0.12 gram, per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.).

(iii) Any fruit wine containing no added brandy or alcohol may be further designated as "natural."

(2) "Berry wine" is fruit wine produced from berries.

(3) "Fruit table wine" or "berry table wine" is fruit or berry wine having an alcoholic content not in excess of 14 percent by volume. Such wine may also be designated "light fruit wine," or "light berry wine."

(4) "Fruit dessert wine" or "berry dessert wine" is fruit or berry wine having an alcoholic content in exces of 14 percent but not in excess of 24 percent by volume.

(5) Fruit wine derived wholly (except for sugar, water, or added alcohol) from one kind of fruit shall be designated by the word "wine" qualified by the name of such fruit, e. g., "peach wine," "blackberry wine." Fruit wine not derived wholly from one kind of fruit shall be designated as "fruit wine" or "berry wine," as the case may be, qualified by a truthful and adequate statement of composition appearing in direct conjunction therewith. Fruit wines which are derived wholly (except for sugar, water, or added alcohol) from apples or pears may be designated "cider" and "perry," respectively, and shall be so designated if lacking in vinous taste, aroma, and characteristics. Fruit wine rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide resulting solely from the secondary fermentation of the wine within a closed container, tank, or bottle shall be further designated as "sparkling"; and fruit wine rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide otherwise derived shall be further designated as "carbonated."

(f) Class 6; wine from other agricultural products. (1) (i) Wine of this class is wine (other than grape wine, citrus wine, or fruit wine) made by the normal alcoholic fermentation of sound fermentable agricultural products, either fresh or dried, or of the restored or unrestored pure condensed must thereof, with the addition before or during fermentation of a volume of water not greater than the minimum necessary to correct natural moisture deficiencies in such products, with or without the addition, after fermentation, of pure condensed must, and with or without added alcohol or such other spirits as will not alter the character of the product, but without other addition or abstraction except as may occur in cellar treatment: Provided, That a domestic product may be ameliorated or sweetened in accordance with Subpart T of 26 CFR Part 240, and any product other than domestic may be ameliorated before, during, or after fermentation by adding, separately or in combination, dry sugar or such an amount of sugar and water solution as will not increase the volume of the resulting product more than 35 percent, but in no event shall any product so ameliorated have an alcoholic content, derived by fermentation of more than 13 percent by volume, or a natural acid content, if water has been added, of less than 5 parts per thousand, or a total solids content of more than 22 grams per 100 cubic centimeters.

(ii) The maximum volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, shall not be, for natural wine of this class, more than 0.14 gram, and for other wine of this class, more than 0.12 gram, per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.).

(iii) Wine of this class containing no added alcohol or other spirits may be further designated as "natural".

(2) "Table wine" of this class is wine having an alcoholic content not in excess of 14 percent by volume. Such wine may also be designated as "light".

(3) "Dessert wine" of this class is wine having an alcoholic content in excess of 14 percent but not in excess of 24 percent by volume.

(4) "Raisin wine" is wine of this class made from dried grapes.

(5) "Sake" is wine of this class produced from rice in accordance with the commonly accepted method of manufacture of such product.

(6) Wine of this class derived wholly (except for sugar, water, or added alcohol) from one kind of agricultural product shall, except in the case of "sake," be designated by the word "wine" qualified by the name of such agricultural product, e.g., "honey wine," "raisin wine," "dried blackberry wine." Wine of this class not derived wholly from one kind of agricultural product shall be designated as "wine" qualified by a truthful and adequate statement of composition appearing in direct conjunction therewith. Wine of this class rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide resulting solely from the secondary fermentation of wine within a closed container, tank, or bottle shall be further designated as "sparkling"; and wine of this class rendered effervescent by carbon dioxide otherwise derived shall be further designated as "carbonated."

(g) Class 7; aperitif wine. (1) "Aperitif wine" is wine having an alcoholic content of not less than 15 percent by volume, compounded from grape wine containing added brandy or alcohol, flavored with herbs and other natural aromatic flavoring materials, with or without the addition of caramel for coloring purposes, and possessing the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to aperitif wine and shall be so designated unless designated as "vermouth" under paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) "Vermouth" is a type of aperitif wine compounded from grape wine, having the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to vermouth, and shall be so designated.

(h) Class 8; imitation and substandard wine. (1) "Imitation wine" shall bear as a part of its designation the word "imitation," and shall include:

(i) Any wine containing synthetic materials.

(ii) Any wine made from a mixture of water with residue remaining after thorough pressing of grapes, fruit, or other agricultural products.

(iii) Any class or type of wine the taste, aroma, color, or other characteristics of which have been acquired in whole or in part, by treatment with methods or materials of any kind, if the taste, aroma, color, or other characteristics of normal wines of such class or type are acquired without such treatment.

(iv) Any wine made from must concentrated at any time to more than 80° (Balling).

(2) "Substandard wine" shall bear as a part of its designation the word "substandard," and shall include:

(i) Any wine having a volatile acidity in excess of the maximum prescribed therefor in §§ 4.20 to 4.25.

(ii) Any wine for which no maximum volatile acidity is prescribed in §§ 4.20 to 4.25, inclusive, having a volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, in excess of 0.14 gram per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.).

(iii) Any wine for which a standard of identity is prescribed in this §§ 4.20 to 4.25, inclusive, which, through disease, decomposition, or otherwise, fails to have the composition, color, and clean vinous taste and aroma of normal wines conforming to such standard.

(iv) Any "grape wine," "citrus wine," "fruit wine," or "wine from other agricultural products" to which has been added sugar and water solution in an amount which is in excess of the limitations prescribed in the standards of identity for these products, unless, in the case of "citrus wine," "fruit wine" and "wine from other agricultural products" the normal acidity of the material from which such wine is produced is 20 parts or more per thousand and the volume of the resulting product has not been increased more than 60 percent by such addition.

(i) Class 9, retsina wine. "Retsina wine" is grape table wine fermented or flavored with resin.

CROSS REFERENCE: For Internal Revenue regulations relating to fortified wine, see 26 CFR Part 240.

§ 4.22 Blends, cellar treatment, alteration of class or type.

(a) If the class or type of any wine shall be altered, and if the product as so altered does not fall within any other class or type either specified in §§ 4.20–4.25 or known to the trade, then such wine shall, unless otherwise specified in this section, be designated with a truthful and adequate statement of composition in accordance with § 4.34.

(b) Alteration of class or type shall be deemed to result from any of the following occurring before, during, or after production.

(1) Treatment of any class or type of wine with substances foreign to such wine which remain therein: Provided, That the presence in finished wine of not more than 350 parts per million of total sulphur dioxide, or sulphites expressed as sulphur dioxide, shall not be precluded under this paragraph.

(2) Treatment of any class or type of wine with substances not foreign to such wine but which remain therein in larger quantities than are naturally and normally present in other wines of the same class or type not so treated.

(3) Treatment of any class or type of wine with methods or materials of any kind to such an extent or in such manner as to affect the basic composition of the wine so treated by altering any of its characteristic elements.

(4) Blending of wine of one class with wine of another class or the blending of wines of different types within the same class.

(5) Treatment of any class or type of wine for which a standard of identity is prescribed in this article with sugar or water in excess of the quantities specifically authorized by such standard: Provided, That the class or type thereof shall not be deemed to be altered (i) where such wine (other than grape wine) is derived from fruit, or other agricultural products, having a high normal acidity, if the total solids content is not more than 22 grams per 100 cubic centimeters, and the content of natural acid is not less than 7.5 parts per thousand and (ii) where such wine is derived exclusively from fruit, or other agricultural products, the normal acidity of which is 20 parts or more per thousand, if the volume of the resulting product has been increased not more than 60 percent by the addition of sugar and water solution, for the sole purpose of correcting natural deficiencies due to such acidity, and (except in the case of such wines when produced from loganberries, currants, or gooseberries) there is stated as a part of the class and type designation the phrase "Made with over 35 percent sugar solution".

(c) Nothing in this section shall preclude the treatment of wine of any class or type in the manner hereinafter specified, provided such treatment does not result in the alteration of the class or type of the wine under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(1) Treatment with filtering equipment, and with fining or sterilizing agents.

(2) Treatment with pasteurization as necessary to perfect the wines to commercial standards in accordance with acceptable cellar practice but only in such a manner and to such an extent as not to change the basic composition of the wine nor to eliminate any of its characteristic elements.

(3) Treatment with refrigeration as necessary to perfect the wine to commercial standards in accordance with acceptable cellar practice but only in such a manner and to such an extent as not to change the basic composition of the wine nor to eliminate any of its characteristic elements.

(4) Treatment with methods and materials to the minimum extent necessary to correct cloudiness, precipitation, or abnormal color, odor, or flavor developing in wine.

(5) Treatment with constituents naturally present in the kind of fruit or other agricultural product from which the wine is produced for the purpose of correcting deficiencies of these constituents, but only to the extent that such constituents would be present in normal wines of the same class or type not so treated.

§ 4.23 Grape type designations.

A name indicative of a variety of grape may be employed as the type designation of a grape wine if the wine derives its predominant taste, aroma, and characteristics, and at least 51 per cent of its volume, from that variety of grape. If such type designation is not known to the consumer as the name of a grape variety, there shall appear in direct conjunction therewith an explanatory statement as to the significance thereof.

§ 4.24 Generic, semi-generic, and non-generic designations of geographic significance.

(a) (1) A name of geographic significance which is also the designation of a class or type of wine, shall be deemed to have become generic only if so found by the Director.

(2) Examples of generic names, originally having geographic significance, which are designations for a class or type of wine are: Vermouth, Sake.

(b) (1) A name of geographic significance, which is also the designation of a class or type of wine, shall be deemed to have become semi-generic only if so found by the Director. Semi-generic designations may be used to designate wines of an origin other than that indicated by such name only if there appears in direct conjunction therewith an appropriate appellation of origin disclosing the true place of origin of the wine, and if the wine so designated conforms to the standard of identity, if any, for such wine contained in the regulations in this part or, if there be no such standard, to the trade understanding of such class or type.

(2) Examples of semi-generic names which are also type designations for grape wine are Angelica, Burgundy, Claret, Chablis, Champagne, Chianti, Malaga, Marsala, Madeira, Moselle, Port, Rhine Wine (syn. Hock), Sauterne, Haut Sauterne, Sherry, Tokay.

(c) (1) A name of geographic significance, which has not been found by the Director to be generic or semi-generic may be used only to designate wines of the origin indicated by such name, but such name shall not be deemed to be the distinctive designation of a wine unless the Director finds that it is known to the consumer and to the trade as the designation of a specific wine of a particular place or region, distinguishable from all other wines.

(2) Examples of non-generic names which are not distinctive designations of specific wines are: American, California, Lake Erie Islands, Napa Valley, New York State, French, Spanish.

(3) Examples of non-generic names which are also distinctive designations of specific grape wines are: Bordeaux Blanc, Bordeaux Rouge, Graves, Medoc, St. Julien, Chateau Yquem, Chateau Margaux, Chateau Lafite, Pommard, Chambertin, Montrachet, Rhone, Liebfraumilch, Rudesheimer, Forster, Deidesheimer, Schloss Johannisberger, Lagrima, Lacryma Christi.

(4) Examples of names, not generic or semi-generic, which are distinctive designations of specific natural table wines, when qualified by the word "wine," or its French or German equivalent: Bordeaux, Medoc, St. Julien, Margaux, Graves, Barsac, Pomerol, St. Emilion; Bourgogne, Grand Chablis or Bourgogne des Environs de Chablis, Cote de Nuits, Gevrey-Chambertin, Morey, Chambolle-Musigny, Flagey-Echezeaux, Vosne-Romanee, Nuits or Nuits-St. Georges, Cote de Beaune, Aloxe-Corton, Savigny, Beaune, Pommard, Volnay, Santenay, Meursault, Puligny-Montrachet, Chassagne-Montrachet, Cote Maconnaise or Maconnais, Macon, Cote Beaujolaise, Beaujolais; Rhone or Cote du Rhone, Cote Rotie, Hermitage, Chateauneuf-du-Pape, Tavel; Loire, Anjou, Coteaux du Layon, Coteaux re la Loise, Saumur, Anjou-Saumur, Touraine, Vouvray; Alsace or Alsatian; Mosel-Saar-Ruwer, Mosel; Swiss or Suisse.

§ 4.25 Appellations of origin.

(a) A wine shall be entitled to an appellation of origin if (1) at least 75 percent of its volume is derived from fruit or other agricultural products both grown and fermented in the place or region indicated by such appellation, (2) it has been fully manufactured and finished within such place or region, and (3) it conforms to the requirements of the laws and regulations of such place or region governing the composition, method of manufacture and designation of wines for home consumption.

(b) Wines subjected to cellar treatment outside the place or region of origin under the provisions of § 4.22(c), and blends of wines of the same origin blended together outside the place or region of origin (if all the wines in the blend have a common class, type or other designation which is employed as the designation of the blend) shall be entitled to the same appellation of origin to which they would be entitled if such cellar treatment or blending took place within the place or region of origin.

Subpart D—Labeling Requirements for Wine

§ 4.30 General.

(a) Application. No person engaged in business as a producer, rectifier, blender, importer, or wholesaler, directly or indirectly or through an affiliate, shall sell or ship or deliver for sale or shipment, or otherwise introduce in interstate or foreign commerce, or receive therein, or remove from customs custody, any wine in containers unless such wine is packaged, and such packages are marked, branded, and labeled in conformity with this article. Wine domestically bottled or packed prior to Dec. 15, 1936, and imported wine entered in customs bond in containers prior to that date shall be regarded as being packaged, marked, branded and labeled in accordance with this article, if the labels on such wine (1) bear all the mandatory label information required by § 4.32, even though such information is not set forth in the manner and form as required by § 4.32 and other sections of this title referred to therein, and (2) bear no statements, designs, or devices which are false or misleading.

(b) Alternation of labels. (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to alter, mutilate, destroy, obliterate or remove any mark, brand, or label upon wine held for sale in interstate or foreign commerce or after shipment therein, except as authorized by Federal law, or except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph: Provided, That the Assistant Regional Commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax may, upon written application, permit additional labeling or relabeling of wine for purposes of compliance with the requirements of this part or of State law.

(2) No application for permission to relabel wine need be made in any case where there is added to the container, after removal from customs custody or from the premises where bottled or packed, a label identifying the wholesale or retail distributor thereof, and containing no reference whatever to the characteristics of the product.

CROSS REFERENCE: For customs warehouses and control of merchandise therein, see 19 CFR Part 19.

§ 4.31 Misbranding.

Wine in containers shall be deemed to be misbranded:

(a) If the container fails to bear on it a brand label (or a brand label and other permitted labels) containing the mandatory label information as required by this part and conforming to the general requirements specified in this part.

(b) If the container or any label on the container or any individual covering, carton, or other wrapper of the container used for sale at retail (other than a shipping carton, covering or wrapper of the container) or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying the container to the consumer buyer contains any statement, design, device, or graphic, pictorial or emblematic representation that is prohibited by this article.

(c) If the container is in an individual carton, covering, or other wrapper used for sale at retail (other than a shipping carton, covering, or wrapper of the container) displaying thereon any written, printed, graphic, or other matter, other than the name and address of the producer, importer, or person by whom bottled or packed (and in addition the name and address of the person for whom bottled or packed), and such individual covering, carton, or other wrapper obscures the mandatory label information required to be stated, and such individual covering, carton or other wrapper fails to reproduce on it, in the same manner, all information so obscured; or if any statement required by this section to appear upon the label, or upon such individual covering, carton, or other wrapper, is obscured in any other manner or is modified in any manner.

§ 4.32 Mandatory label information.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (c) of this section, there shall be stated on the brand label:

(1) Brand name, in accordance with § 4.33.

(2) Class, type, or other designation, in accordance with § 4.34.

(3) Name and address, in accordance with § 4.35.

(4) On blends consisting of foreign and domestic wines, if any reference to the presence of foreign wine is made, the exact percentage by volume of foreign wine.

(b) There shall be stated on the brand label, or on a separate label affixed in immediate proximity thereto on the same side of the container:

(1) Alcoholic content, or type designation in lieu thereof, in accordance with § 4.36.

(2) Net contents, in accordance with § 4.37.

(c) In the case of imported wine, the name and address of the importer need not be stated upon the brand label if it is stated upon any other label affixed to the container. In the case of domestic wine, bottled or packed for a retailer or other person under his private brand, the name and address of the bottler or packer need not be stated upon the brand label if the name and address of the person for whom bottled or packed appears upon the brand label, and the name and address of the bottler or packer is stated upon any other label affixed to the container.

§ 4.33 Brand names.

(a) General. The product shall bear a brand name, except that if not sold under a brand name, then the name of the person required to appear on the brand label shall be deemed a brand name for the purpose of this part.

(b) Misleading brand names. No label shall contain any brand name, which, standing alone, or in association with other printed or graphic matter, creates any impression or inference as to the age, origin, identity, or other characteristics of the product unless the Director finds that such brand name, either when qualified by the word "brand" or when not so qualified, conveys no erroneous impressions as to the age, origin, identity, or other characteristics of the product.

(c) Trade name of foreign origin. This section shall not operate to prohibit the use by any person of any trade name or brand of foreign origin not effectively registered in the United States Patent Office on August 29, 1935, which has been used by such person or his predecessors in the United States for a period of at least five years immediately preceding August 29, 1935: Provided, That if such trade name or brand is used, the designation of the product shall be qualified by the name of the locality in the United States in which produced, and such qualifications shall be in script, type, or printing as conspicuous as the trade name or brand.

§ 4.34 Class and type.

(a) The class of the wine shall be stated and such statement shall be in conformity with §§ 4.20 to 4.25 if the wine is defined therein, except that "table" ("light") and "dessert" wines need not be designated as such. In the case of still grape wine there may appear, in lieu of the class designation, any grape-type designation, semi-generic geographic type designation, or geographic distinctive designation to which the wine may be entitled. In the case of champagne, or crackling wines, the type designation "champagne" or "crackling wine" ("petillant wine", "frizzante wine") may appear in lieu of the class designation "sparkling wine." In the case of wine which has a total solids content of more than 17 grams per 100 cubic centimeters the words "extra sweet," "specially sweetened," "specially sweet" or "sweetened with excess sugar" shall be stated as a part of the class and type designation. The last of these quoted phrases shall appear where required by 26 CFR Part 240, on wines sweetened with sugar in excess of the maximum quantities specified in such regulations. If the class of the wine is not defined in §§ 4.20–4.25, a truthful and adequate statement of composition shall appear upon the brand label of the product in lieu of a class designation. In addition to the mandatory designation for the wine, there may be stated a distinctive or fanciful name, or a designation in accordance with trade understanding. All parts of the designation of the wine, whether mandatory or optional, shall be in direct conjunction and in lettering substantially of the same size and kind.

(b) An application of origin such as "American", "California", "Chilean", "New York State" or "Spanish", disclosing the true place of origin of the wine, shall appear in direct conjunction with and in lettering substantially as conspicuous as the class and type designation, (1) if a grape variety name having geographic significance is employed as the type designation of the wine pursuant to § 4.23, (2) if a semi-generic type designation of geographic significance is employed as the type designation of the wine pursuant to § 4.24(b), or (3) if the label bears any statement, design, device, or representation which indicates or infers an origin other than the true place of origin of the wine.

§ 4.35 Name and address.

(a) Domestic wine. On labels of containers of domestic wine, there shall be stated the name of the bottler or packer and the place where bottled or packed (or in lieu of such place, the principal place of business of the bottler or packer if in the same State where the wine was bottled or packed, and, if bottled or packed on internal revenue bonded premises, the internal revenue registry number of such premises) immediately preceded by the words "Bottled by" or "Packed by" except that:

(1) If the bottler or packer is also the person who made not less than 75 percent of such wine by crushing the grapes or other materials, fermenting the must and clarifying the resulting wine, or if such person treated the wine in such manner as to charge the class thereof, there may be stated, in lieu of the words "Bottled by" or "Packed by", the words "Produced and bottled by" or "Produced and packed by".

(2) If the bottler or packer has also either made or treated the wine, otherwise than as described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, there may be stated, in lieu of the words "Bottled by" or "Packed by", the phrases "Blended and bottled (packed) by," "Rectified and bottled (packed) by," "Prepared and bottled (packed) by," "Made and bottled (packed) by," as the case may be, or, in the case of imitation wine only, "Manufactured and bottled (packed) by."

(3) In addition to the name of the bottler or packer and the place where bottled or packed (but not in lieu thereof) there may be stated the name and address of any other person for whom such wine is bottled or packed, immediately preceded by the words "Bottled for" or "Packed for" or "Distributed by" or other similar statement; or the name and principal place of business of the rectifier, blender, or maker, immediately preceded by the words "Rectified by," "Blended by," or "Made by," respectively, or, in the case of imitation wine only, "Manufactured by."

(b) Imported wine. On labels of containers of imported wine, there shall be stated the words "Imported by" or a similar appropriate phrase, and immediately thereafter the name of the permittee who is the importer, agent, sole distributor, or other person responsible for the importation, together with the principal place of business in the United States of such person. In addition, but not in lieu thereof, there may be stated the name and principal place of business of the foreign producer, blender, rectifier, maker, bottler, packer, or shipper, preceded by the phrases "Produced by," "Blended by," "Rectified by," "Made by," "Bottled by," "Packed by," "Shipped by," respectively, or, in the case of imitation wine only, "Manufactured by."

(1) If the wine is bottled or packed in the United States, there shall be stated, in addition, the name of the bottler or packer and the place where bottled or packed immediately preceded by the words "bottled by" or "packed by" except that if the wine is bottled or packed in the United States for the person responsible for the importation there may be stated, in lieu of the above-required statements, the name and principal place of business in the United States of such person, immediately preceded by the phrase "imported by and bottled (packed) in the United States for" (or a similar appropriate phrase). If, however, the wine is bottled or packed in the United States by the person responsible for the importation there may be stated, in lieu of the above-required statements, the name and principal place of business in the United States of such person, immediately preceded by the phrase "Imported and bottled (packed) by" or a similar appropriate phrase.

(2) If the wine is blended, bottled, or packed in a foreign country other than the country of origin and the country of origin is stated or otherwise indicated on the label, there shall also be stated the name of the bottler, packer, or blender, and the place where bottled, packed, or blended, immediately preceded by the words "Bottled by", "Packed by", "Blended by", or other appropriate statement.

(c) Form of address. The "place" stated shall be the post-office address, except that the street address may be omitted. No additional places or addresses shall be stated for the same person unless (1) such person is actively engaged in the conduct of an additional bona fide and actual alcoholic beverage business at such additional place or address, and (2) the label also contains in direct conjunction therewith, appropriate descriptive material indicating the function occurring at such additional place or address in connection with the particular product.

(d) Trade names. The trade name of any permittee appearing upon any label shall be identical with the name in which his basic permit is issued by the Assistant Regional Commissioner.

§ 4.36 Alcoholic content.

(a) Alcoholic content shall be stated in the case of wines containing more than 14 percent of alcohol by volume, and, in the case of wine containing 14 percent or less of alcohol by volume, either the type designation "table" wine ("light" wine) or the alcoholic content shall be stated. Any statement of alcoholic content shall be made as prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Alcoholic content shall be stated in terms of percentage of alcohol by volume, and not otherwise, as provided in either subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph:

(1) "Alcohol ____% by volume." Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, a tolerance of 1 percent, in the case of wines containing more than 14 percent of alcohol by volume, and of 1.5 percent, in the case of wines containing 14 percent or less of alcohol by volume, will be permitted either above or below the stated percentage.

(2) "Alcohol ____% to ____% by volume." Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, a range of not more than 2 percent, in the case of wines containing more than 14 percent of alcohol by volume, and of not more than 3 percent, in the case of wines containing 14 percent or less of alcohol by volume, will be permitted between the minimum and maximum percentages stated, and no tolerances will be permitted either below such minimum or above such maximum.

(c) Regardless of the type of statement used and regardless of tolerances normally permitted in direct statements and ranges normally permitted in maximum and minimum statements, alcoholic content statements, whether required or optional, shall definitely and correctly indicate the class, type and taxable grade of the wine so labeled and nothing in this section shall be construed as authorizing the appearance upon the labels of any wine of an alcoholic content statement in terms of maximum and minimum percentages which overlaps a prescribed limitation on the alcoholic content of any class, type, or taxable grade of wine, or a direct statement of alcoholic content which indicates that the alcoholic content of the wine is within such a limitation when in fact it is not.

§ 4.37 Net contents.

(a) The net contents of wine for which a standard of fill is prescribed in §§ 4.70–4.72 shall be stated in the same manner and form in which such standard of fill is set forth in said article.

(b) The net contents of wine for which no standard of fill is prescribed in §§ 4.70–4.72 shall be stated as follows, except that net contents may be expressed in the metric system of measure for containers of ½ liter, 1 liter and 1½ liter:

(1) If 1 pint, 1 quart, or 1 gallon, the net contents shall be so stated.

(2) If less than a pint, the net contents shall be stated in fractions of a pint, or in fluid ounces.

(3) If more than a pint, but less than a quart, the net contents shall be stated in fractions of a quart, or in pints and fluid ounces.

(4) If more than a quart, but less than a gallon, the net contents shall be stated in fractions of a gallon, or in quarts, pints, and fluid ounces.

(5) If more than a gallon, the net contents shall be stated in gallons and fractions thereof.

(c) All fractions shall be expressed in their lowest denomination.

(d) The net contents need not be stated on any label if the net contents are displayed by having the same blown, etched, sand-blasted, marked by underglaze coloring, or otherwise permanently marked by any method approved by the Director, in the sides, front, or back of the bottle, in letters and figures in such manner as to be plainly legible under ordinary circumstances, and such statement is not obscured in any manner in whole or in part.

(e) Statement of net contents shall indicate exactly the volume of wine within the container, except that the following tolerances shall be allowed:

(1) Discrepancies due exclusively to errors in measuring which occur in filling conducted in compliance with good commercial practice.

(2) Discrepancies due exclusively to differences in the capacity of containers, resulting solely from unavoidable difficulties in manufacturing such containers so as to be of uniform capacity: Provided, That no greater tolerance shall be allowed in case of containers which, because of their design, cannot be made of approximately uniform capacity than is allowed in case of containers which can be manufactured so as to be of approximately uniform capacity.

(3) Discrepancies in measure due to differences in atmospheric conditions in various places and which unavoidably result from the ordinary and customary exposure of alcoholic beverages in containers to evaporation. The reasonableness to discrepancies under this paragraph shall be determined on the facts in each case.

(f) Unreasonable shortages in certain of the containers in any shipment shall not be compensated by overages in other containers in the same shipment.

§ 4.38 General requirements.

(a) Contrasting background. All labels shall be so designed that all the statements thereon required by §§ 4.30–4.39 are readily legible under ordinary conditions, and all such statements shall be on a contrasting background.

(b) Size of type. All statements (other than alcoholic content statements upon labels of containers having a capacity of 1 gallon or less) required on labels by this article, shall be in readily legible script, type, or printing not smaller than 8-point Gothic caps except that if contained among other descriptive or explanatory reading matter, the script, type, or printing of all required material shall be of a size substantially more conspicuous than such other descriptive or explanatory reading matter: Provided, That in the case of labels of containers having a capacity of less than one-half pint, such script, type, or printing thereon need not be in 8-point Gothic caps, but shall be readily legible under ordinary conditions. Alcoholic content statements, whether required or optional, on labels on containers having a capacity of 1 gallon or less shall be in readily legible script, type, or printing not smaller than 6-point Gothic caps, except in the case of containers having a capacity of less than one-half pint, in which case such script, type, or printing need not be as large as 6-point Gothic caps, but shall be readily legible under ordinary conditions. Alcoholic content statements shall not appear in script, type, or printing larger or more conspicuous than 8-point Gothic caps on labels on containers having a capacity of 1 gallon or less and shall not be set off with a border or otherwise accentuated.

(c) English language. All mandatory label information shall be stated on labels in the English language: Provided, That the brand name, the place of production, and the name of the manufacturer, producer, blender, rectifier, maker, bottler, packer, or shipper appearing on the label need not be in the English language if the words "Product of" immediately precede the name of the country of origin stated in accordance with customs' requirements. Additional statements in foreign languages may be made on labels, if no such statements in any way conflict with, or are contradictory to, the requirements of §§ 4.30–4.39.

(d) Location of label. No label, other than stamps authorized or required by the United States Government or any State or foreign government, shall be affixed over the mouths of containers of wine, and no label shall obscure any such stamps or be obscured thereby.

(e) Labels firmly affixed. All labels shall be affixed to containers of wine in such manner that they cannot be removed without thorough application of water or other solvents.

(f) Additional information on labels. Labels may contain information other than the mandatory label information required by §§ 4.30–4.39, provided such information complies with the requirements of such sections and does not conflict with, nor in any manner qualify statements required by, any regulations promulgated under the act.

(g) Representations as to materials. If any representation (other than representations or information required by §§ 4.30–4.39) is made as to the presence, excellence, or other characteristic of any ingredient in any wine, or used in the production thereof, the label containing such representation shall state, in print, type, or script, substantially as conspicuous as such representation, the name and amount in percent by volume of each such ingredient.

(h) Statement of contents of containers. Upon request of the Director, there shall be submitted to him a full and accurate statement of the contents of the containers to which labels are to be or have been affixed.

§ 4.39 Prohibited practices.

(a) Statements on labels. Containers of wine, or any label on such containers, or any individual covering, carton, or other wrapper of such container, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying such container to the consumer shall not contain:

(1) Any statement that is false or untrue in any particular, or that, irrespective of falsity, directly, or by ambiguity, omission, or inference, or by the addition of irrelevant scientific, or technical matter, tends to create a misleading impression.

(2) Any statement that is disparaging of a competitor's products.

(3) Any statement, design, device, or representation which is obscene or indecent.

(4) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to analyses, standards, or tests, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer.

(5) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to any guaranty, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer.

(6) A trade or brand name that is the name of any living individual of public prominence, or existing private or public organization, or is a name that is in simulation or is an abbreviation thereof, or any graphic, pictorial, or emblematic representation of any such individual or organization, if the use of such name or representation is likely falsely to lead the consumer to believe that the product has been endorsed, made, or used by, or produced for, or under the supervision of, or in accordance with the specifications of, such individual or organization; Provided, That this paragraph shall not apply to the use of the name of any person engaged in business as a producer, blender, rectifier, importer, wholesaler, retailer, bottler, or warehouseman of wine, nor to the use by any person of a trade or brand name that is the name of any living individual of public prominence or existing private or public organization, provided such trade or brand name was used by him or his predecessors in interest prior to August 29, 1935.

(7) Any statement, design, device, or representation (other than a statement of alcoholic content in conformity with § 4.36) which tends to create the impression that a wine is "unfortified" or has been "fortified", or contains distilled spirits, or has intoxicating qualities, except that a statement of composition, if required to appear as the designation of a product not defined in these regulations, may include a reference to the type of distilled spirits employed therein.

(8) Any coined word or name in the brand name or class and type designation which simulates, imitates, or which tends to create the impression that the wine so labeled is entitled to bear, any class, type, or permitted designation recognized by the regulations in this part unless such wine conforms to the requirements prescribed with respect to such designation and is in fact so designated on its labels.

(b) Statement of age. No statement of age or representation relative to age (including words or devices in any brand name or mark) shall be made, except that:

(1) In the case of domestic vintage wine bottled or packed in containers by the permittee who crushed the grapes, fermented the must, and clarified such wine, the year of vintage may be stated but only if there is likewise stated on the brand label, in direct conjunction with the class, type, or distinctive designation, and in lettering substantially as conspicuous as such designation, the name of the viticultural area in which the grapes were grown and the wine fermented.

(2) In the case of domestic vintage wine rebottled in containers of a capacity of 1 gallon or less by a person other than the producer thereof, the year of vintage may be stated but only if the container from which such wine is bottled is the original container of the permittee who produced such wine, and such container bears upon the brand label thereof a vintage date. If the year of vintage is stated up on the brand label of wine so rebottled, there shall also be stated the

[1] Under subparagraph (5) the Director has permitted the use of statements in substantially the following form: "We will refund the purchase price to the purchaser if he is in any manner dissatisfied with the contents of this package.

----------"
(Name of permittee making statement)

name of the viticultural area, and the class, type, or distinctive designation of the wine, in the same manner and form as such statements appear on the brand label of the original container.

(3) In the case of imported wine, the year of vintage may be stated if such wine was bottled prior to importation in containers of 1 gallon or less (except that the year of vintage may be stated in the case of champagne whether or not bottled in containers of 1 gallon or less), or, if such wine is bottled in the United States in containers of 1 gallon or less from the original container of the product and such container bears the vintage date upon the brand label thereof and the bottler possesses a certificate, issued by a duly authorized official of the country of origin of such wine, identifying that container as containing vintage wine as defined in § 4.1(h) and certifying (i) that the laws of such country regulate the appearance of vintage dates upon the labels of wine produced for consumption therein, (ii) that the wine in question has been produced in conformity with such laws, and (iii) that such wine would be entitled, under such laws, to bear the vintage date if sold in such country: Provided, That, in the case of imported wine bottled prior to importation in containers of 1 gallon or less, the year of vintage may be stated only when the invoice is accompanied by a certificate identical with that required above in the case of wine bottled in the United States in containers of 1 gallon or less, if the issuance of such a certificate with respect to such wine has been authorized by the foreign Government concerned.

(4) Truthful references of a general and informative nature relating to methods of wine production involving storage or aging, such as "This wine has been mellowed in oak casks," "Stored in small barrels" or "Matured at regulated temperatures in our cellars," may appear but only in an inconspicuous manner and then only on back labels or on other matter accompanying the container.

(c) Statement of bottling dates. The statement of any bottling date shall not be deemed to be a representation relative to age, if such statement appears in lettering not greater than 8-point Gothic caps and in the following form: "Bottled in ____" (inserting the year in which the wine was bottled).

(d) Use of the word "old." The use of the word "old" or other word denoting age, as part of the brand name, shall not be deemed to be a representation relative to age, if the word "brand" appears in direct conjunction with such brand name, in letters of equally conspicuous color and at least one-half the size of the lettering in which such brand name is printed.

(e) Statement of miscellaneous dates. No date, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section with respect to statement of vintage year and bottling date, shall be stated on any label unless in addition thereto and in direct conjunction therewith in the same size and kind of printing, there shall be stated an explanation of the significance thereof such as "established" or "founded in". If any such date refers to the date of establishment of any business or brand name, it shall not be stated, in the case of containers of a capacity of 1 gallon or less, in any printing, type, or script larger than 8-point Gothic caps, and shall be stated in direct conjunction with the name of the person, company, or brand name to which it refers if the Director finds that this is necessary in order to prevent confusion as to the person, company, or brand name to which the establishment date is applicable.

(f) Simulation of Government stamps. (1) No labels shall be of such design as to resemble or simulate a stamp of the United States Government or any State or foreign government. No label, other than stamps authorized or required by the United States Government or any State or foreign government, shall state or indicate that the wine contained in the labeled container is produced, blended, bottled, packed, or sold under, or in accordance with, any municipal, State or Federal Government authorization, law, or regulation, unless such statement is required or specifically authorized by Federal, State or municipal law or regulation, or is required or specifically authorized by the laws or regulations of a foreign country. If the municipal, State, or Federal Government permit number is stated upon a label, it shall not be accompanied by any additional statement relating thereto.

(2) Bonded wine cellar and bonded winery numbers may be stated but only in direct conjunction with the name and address of the person operating such wine cellar or winery. Statement of bonded wine cellar or winery numbers may be made in the following form: "Bonded Wine Cellar No. ____", "Bonded Winery No. ____", "B. W. C. No. ____", "B. W. No. ____". No additional reference thereto shall be made, nor shall any use be made of such statement that may convey the impression that the wine has been made or matured under Government supervision or in accordance with Government specifications or standards.

(3) If imported wines are covered by a certificate of origin and/or a certificate of vintage date issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government, the label, except where prohibited by the foreign government, may refer to such certificate or the fact of such certification, but shall not be accompanied by any additional statements relating thereto. The reference to such certificate or certification shall be substantially in the following form:

This product accompanied at the time of the importation by a certificate issued by the
---
(Name of government)
Government indicating that the product is

(Class and type as stated on the label) and (if label bears a statement of vintage date) that the wine is of the vintage of
---
(Year of vintage stated on the label)

(g) Use of the word "Importer", or similar words. The word "Importer", or similar words, shall not be stated on labels on containers of domestic wine except as part of the bona fide name of a permittee for or by whom, or of a retailer for whom, such wine is bottled, packed or distributed: Provided, That in all cases where such words are used as part of such name, there shall be stated on the same label the words "Product of the United States", or similar words to negative any impression that the product is imported, and such negative statements shall appear in the same size and kind of printing as such name.

(h) Flags, seals, coats of arms, crests, and other insignia. Labels shall not contain, in the brand name or otherwise, any statement, design, device, or pictorial representation which the Director finds relates to, or is capable of being construed as relating to, the armed forces of the United States, or the American flag, or any emblem, seal, insignia, or decoration associated with such flag or armed forces; nor shall any label contain any statement, design, device, or pictorial representation of or concerning any flag, seal, coat of arms, crest or other insignia, likely to mislead the consumer to believe that the product has been endorsed, made, or used by, or produced for, or under the supervision of, or in accordance with the specifications of the government, organization, family, or individual with whom such flag, seal, coat of arms, crest, or insignia is associated.

(i) Curative and therapeutic effects. Labels shall not contain any statement, design, or device representing that the use of any wine has curative or therapeutic effects if such statement is untrue in any particular or tends to create a misleading impression.

(j) Individual coverings and cartons. Individual coverings, cartons, or other wrappers of containers of wine, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying the container, shall not contain any statement or any graphic pictorial, or emblematic representation or other matter which is prohibited from appearing on any label or container of wine.

Subpart E—Requirements for Withdrawal of Wine From Customs Custody

§ 4.40 Label approval and release.

(a) Application. On or after December 15, 1936, imported wine shall not be released from customs custody for consumption, except pursuant to procedure and forms prescribed by this section.

(b) Certificate of Label Approval. No imported wine shall be released from customs custody unless there shall have been deposited with the appropriate customs officer at the port of entry the original or a photostatic copy of a "Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649). Such certificate shall be issued by the Director upon application made on the form designated "Application for Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649), properly filled out and certified to by the importer or transferee in bond.

(c) Release. If the original or photostatic copy of the "Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649) bears the signature of the Director, then the brand or lot of imported wine bearing labels identical with those shown thereon may be released from customs custody.

(d) Relabeling. Imported wine in customs custody which is not labeled in conformity with certificates of label approval issued by the Director must be relabeled prior to release, under the supervision and direction of the customs officers of the port at which such wine is located.[2]

§ 4.45 Certificates of origin and identity.

Imported wine shall not be released from customs custody for consumption unless the invoice is accompanied by a certificate of origin issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government, if the issuance of such certificates with respect to such wine has been authorized by the foreign government concerned, certifying as to the identity of the wine and that the wine has been produced in compliance with the laws of the respective foreign government regulating the production of such wine for home consumption.

Subpart F—Requirements for Approval of Labels of Wine Domestically Bottled or Packed

§ 4.50 Certificates of label approval.

(a) No person shall bottle or pack wine, other than wine bottled or packed in customs custody, or remove such wine from the plant where bottled or packed, unless upon application to the Director he has obtained and has in his possession a "Certificate of label approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649), covering such wine. Such certificate of label approval shall be issued by the Director upon application made upon the form designated "Application for certificate of label approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649), properly filled out and certified to by the applicant.

(b) Any bottler or packer of wine shall be exempt from the requirements of this section if upon application he shows to the satisfaction of the Director that the wine to be bottled or packed by him is not to be sold, offered for sale, or shipped or delivered for shipment, or otherwise introduced in interstate or foreign commerce. A "Certificate of exemption from label approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1650) shall be issued by the Director upon application upon the form designated "Application for certificate of exemption from label approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1648), properly filled out and certified to by the applicant.[3]

[2] Copies of Form 1649 may be secured from the Assistant Regional Commissioners, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, on request.

[3] Copies of Forms 1648 and 1649 may be secured from the Assistant Regional Commissioners, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, on request.

§ 4.51 Exhibiting certificates to Government officials.

Any bottler or packer holding an original or duplicate original of a certificate of label approval or a certificate of exemption shall, upon demand, exhibit such certificate to a duly authorized representative of the United States Government.

§ 4.52 Photoprints.

Photoprints or other reproductions of certificates of label approval or certificates of exemption are not acceptable, for the purposes of §§ 4.50–4.52, as substitutes for an original or duplicate original of a certificate of label approval, or a certificate of exemption. The Director will, upon the request of the bottler or packer, issue duplicate originals of certificates of label approval or of certificates of exemption if wine under the same brand is bottled or packed at more than one plant by the same person, and if the necessity for the duplicate original is shown and there is listed with the Director the name and address of the additional bottling or packing plant where the particular label is to be used.

Subpart G—Advertising of Wine

§ 4.60 Application.

No person engaged in business as a producer, rectifier, blender, importer, or wholesaler of wine, directly or indirectly or through an affiliate, shall publish or disseminate or cause to be published or disseminated by radio broadcast, or in any newspaper, periodical, or other publication, or by any sign or outdoor advertisement, or any other printed or graphic matter any advertisement of wine, if such advertisement is in, or is calculated to induce sales in, interstate or foreign commerce, or is disseminated by mail, unless such advertisement is in conformity with §§ 4.60–4.64: Provided, That such sections shall not apply to outdoor advertising in place on June 18, 1935, but shall apply upon replacement, restoration, or renovation of any such advertising: And provided further, That such sections shall not apply to the publisher of any newspaper, periodical, or other publication, or radio broadcaster, unless such publisher or radio broadcaster is engaged in business as a producer, rectifier, blender, importer, or wholesaler of wine, directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate.

§ 4.61 Definitions.

As used in §§ 4.60–4.64 the term "advertisement" includes any advertisement of wine through the medium of radio broadcast; or of newspapers, periodicals, or other publications; or of any sign or outdoor advertisement; or of any other printed or graphic matter, including trade booklets, menus, and wine cards—if such advertisement is in, or is calculated to induce sales in, interstate or foreign commerce; or is disseminated by mail; except that such term shall not include:

(a) Any label affixed to any container of wine; or any individual covering, carton, or other wrapper of such container or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying the container which constitutes a part of the labeling under §§ 4.30–4.39.

(b) Any editorial or other reading matter in any periodical or publication or newspaper for the publication of which no money or other valuable consideration is paid or promised, directly or indirectly, by any permittee.

§ 4.62 Mandatory statements.

(a) Responsible advertiser. The advertisement shall state the name and address of the permittee responsible for its publication or broadcast. Street number and name may be omitted in the address.

(b) Class, type, and distinctive designation. The advertisement shall contain a conspicuous statement of the class, type, or distinctive designation to which the product belongs, corresponding with the statement of class, type, or distinctive designation which is required to appear on the label of the product.

§ 4.63 Legibility of requirements.

Statements required under §§ 4.60–4.64 to appear in any written, printed, or graphic advertisement shall be in lettering or type of a size sufficient to render them both conspicuous and readily legible.

NOTE: Mandatory information should be stated at least in type or lettering which is the equivalent of eight-point type. The size of the type should be increased proportionately with the size of the advertisement, and should not be smaller or less conspicuous than promotional copy or other unrequired descriptive matter appearing in the advertisement. In the case of signs, billboards, and displays, the mandatory information should be conspicuous and readily legible from the distance at which the advertisement is intended to be and is customarily viewed.

Mandatory information should be so stated as to be clearly a part of the advertisement and should not be separated in any manner from the remainder of the advertisement.

Mandatory information for two products should not be stated in direct conjunction unless clearly distinguished.

Mandary information should not be buried or concealed by including it in unrequired descriptive matter.

In every case mandatory information should be stated so that it will come to the ttention of persons viewing the advertisement.

§ 4.64 Prohibited statements.

(a) Restrictions. The advertisement of wine shall not contain:

(1) Any statement that is false or misleading in any material particular.

(2) Any statement that is disparaging of a competitor's products.

(3) Any statement, design, device, or representation which is obscene or indecent.

(4) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to analyses, standards, or tests, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer.

(5) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to any guaranty, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer.

(6) Any statement that the wine is produced, blended, bottled, packed, or sold under, or in accordance with, any municipal, State, or Federal Government authorization, law, or regulations; and if a municipal, State, or Federal permit number is stated, the permit number shall not be accompanied by any additional statement relating thereto.

(7) Any statement of bonded winecellar and bonded winery numbers unless stated in direct conjunction with the name and address of the person operating such winery or storeroom. Statement of bonded winecellar and bonded winery numbers may be made in the following form: "Bonded Winecellar No. ----," "Bonded Winery No. ----," "B. W. C. No. ----," "B. W. No. ----." No additional reference thereto shall be made, nor shall any use be made of such statement that may convey the impression that the wine has been made or matured under Government supervision or in accordance with Government specifications or standards.

(8) Any statement, design, device, or representation which relates to alcoholic content or which tends to create the impression that a wine is "unfortified" or has been "fortified," or contains distilled spirits, or has intoxicating qualities, except that a statement of composition, if required to appear as a designation of a product not defined in these regulations, may include a reference to the type of distilled spirits employed therein.

(b) Statements inconsistent with labeling. The advertisement shall not contain any statement concerning a brand or lot of wine that is inconsistent with any statement on the labeling thereof.

(c) Statement of age. No statement of age or representation relative to age (including words or devices in any brand name or mark) shall be made, except that:

(1) In the case of domestic vintage wine bottled or packed and labeled in accordance with the provisions of § 4.39 (b) (1), (2), the year of vintage may be stated but only if there is likewise stated, in direct conjunction with the class, type, or distinctive designation of the wine, in lettering substantially as conspicuous as such designation and in the same manner and form as such statements appear on the brand label of the container, the name of the viticultural area in which the grapes were grown and the wine fermented.

(2) In the case of imported vintage wine bottled and labeled in accordance with the provisions of § 4.39(b)(3) the year of vintage may be stated.

(3) Truthful references of a general and informative nature relating to methods of wine production involving storage or aging, such as "This wine has been mellowed in oak casks," "Stored in small barrels" or "Matured at regulated temperatures in our cellars" may be made.

(d) Statement of bottling dates. The statement of any bottling date shall not be deemed to be a representation relative to age, if such statement appears without undue emphasis in the following form: "Bottled in ----" (inserting the year in which the wine was bottled).

(e) Use of the word "old." The use of the word "old" or other word denoting age, as part of the brand name, shall not be deemed to be a representation relative to age, if the word "brand" appears in direct conjunction with such brand name, in letters of equally conspicuous color and at least one-half the size of the lettering in which such brand name appears.

(f) Statement of miscellaneous dates. No date, except as provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, with respect to statement of vintage year and bottling date, shall be stated unless, in addition thereto, and in direct conjunction therewith, in the same size and kind of printing there shall be stated an explanation of the significance of such date: Provided, That if any date refers to the date of establishment of any business, such date shall be stated without undue emphasis and in direct conjunction with the name of the person to whom it refers.

(g) Flags, seals, coats of arms, crests, and other insignia. No advertisement shall contain any statement, design, device, or pictorial representation of or relating to, or capable of being construed as relating to, the armed forces of the United States, or of the American flag, or of any emblem, seal, insignia, or decoration associated with such flag or armed forces; nor shall any advertisement contain any statement, device, design, or pictorial representation of or concerning any flag, seal, coat of arms, crest, or other insignia, likely to mislead the consumer to believe that the product has been endorsed, made, or used by, or produced for, or under the supervision of, or in accordance with the specifications of the government, organization, family, or individual with whom such flag, seal, coat of arms, crests, or insignia is associated.

(h) Statements indicative of origin. No statement, design, device, or representation which tends to create the impression that the wine originated in a particular place or region, shall appear in any advertisement unless the label of the advertised product bears an appellation of origin, and such appellation of origin appears in the advertisement in direct conjunction with the class and type designation.

(i) Use of the word "importer" or similar words. The word "importer" or similar words shall not appear in advertisements of domestic wine except as part of the bona fide name of the permittee by or for whom, or of a retailer for whom, such wine is bottled, packed or distributed: Provided, That in all cases where such words are used as part of such name, there shall be stated the words "Product of the United States" or similar words to negate any impression that the product is imported, and such negating statements shall appear in the same size and kind of printing as such name.

(j) Curative and therapeutic effects. The advertisement shall not contain any statement, design, or device representing that the use of any wine has curative or therapeutic effects, if such statement is untrue in any particular, or tends to create a misleading impression.

(k) Confusion of brands. Two or more different brands or lots of wine shall not be advertised in one advertisement (or in two or more advertisements in one issue of a periodical or newspaper, or in one piece of other written, printed, or graphic matter) if the advertisement tends to create the impression that representations made as to one brand or lot apply to the other or others, and if as to such latter the representations contravene any provision of §§ 4.60–4.64 or are in any respect untrue.

Subpart H—Standards of Fill For Wine

§ 4.70 Application.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, no person engaged in business as a producer, rectifier, blender, importer, or wholesaler of wine, directly or indirectly or through an affiliate, shall sell or ship or deliver for sale or shipment, or otherwise introduce in interstate or foreign commerce, or receive therein, or remove from customs custody, any wine unless such wine is bottled or packed in the standard wine containers herein prescribed.

(b) Sections 4.70–4.72 shall not apply (1) to sake, or (2) to wine packed in containers of 5 gallons or more, or (3) to imported wine in the original containers in which entered in customs custody, or (4) to wine domestically bottled or packed, either in or out of customs custody, prior to the effective date of this article, if the container, or the label on the container, bears a conspicuous statement of the net contents thereof, and if the actual capacity of the container is not substantially less than the apparent capacity upon visual examination under ordinary conditions of purchase or use.

§ 4.71 Standard wine containers.

(a) A standard wine container shall be made, formed and filled to meet the following specifications:

(1) Design. It shall be so made and formed as not to mislead the purchaser. Wine containers shall be held (irrespective of the correctness of the net contents specified on the label) to be so made and formed as to mislead the purchaser if the actual capacity is substantially less than the apparent capacity upon visual examination under ordinary conditions of purchase or use; and

(2) Fill. It shall be so filled as to contain the quantity of wine specified in one of the standards of fill prescribed in § 4.72; and

(3) Headspace. It shall be so made and filled as to have a headspace not in excess of 6 percent of its total capacity after closure if the net contents of the container is ⅔ pint or more, and a headspace not in excess of 10 percent of such capacity in the case of all other containers.

§ 4.72 Standards of fill.

(a) The standards of fill for wine shall be the following, subject to the tolerances hereinafter allowed:

(1) For all wines:

4.9 gallons.	1 pint.
3 gallons.	⅘ pint.
1 gallon.	½ pint.
⅘ gallon.	⅖ pint.
½ gallon.	4 ounces.
⅖ gallon.	3 ounces.
1 quart.	2 ounces.
⅘ quart.

(2) In addition, for aperitif wines only: $15/16$ quart:

Provided, however, That the standards of fill for the ⅘ and ⅖ gallon shall be applicable only to wine contained in bottles of the traditional bordeaux or burgundy shapes, and the ½ pint standard shall be applicable only to wine contained in bottles of traditional chianti or round shapes.

(b) The tolerances in fill shall be the same as are allowed by § 4.37 in respect to statement of net contents upon labels.

Subpart I—General Provisions

§ 4.80 Exports.

The regulations in this part shall not apply to wine exported in bond.

PART 5—LABELING AND ADVERTISING OF DISTILLED SPIRITS

NOTE: Treasury Decision 6288 amended certain sections in part 5, as listed below, to become effective three years after April 3, 1958:

Subpart B—Definitions

§ 5.10 Meaning of terms.

As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meaning ascribed in this part. (a) "Act" means the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(b) Assistant Regional Commissioner. "Assistant Regional Commissioner" shall mean the Assistant Regional Commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, who is responsible to and functions under the direction and supervision of the Regional Commissioner.

(c) Director. "Director" shall mean the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C.

(d) Permittee. "Permittee" means any person holding a basic permit under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(e) Distilled spirits. "Distilled spirits" means ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, spirits of wine, whisky, rum, brandy, gin, and other distilled spirits, including all dilutions and mixtures thereof, for nonindustrial use.

(f) Bottle. "Bottle" means any container, irrespective of the material from which made, used for the sale of distilled spirits at retail.

(g) In bulk. "In bulk" means in containers having a capacity in excess of one wine gallon.

(h) Gallon. "Gallon" means United States gallon of 231 cubic inches of alcoholic beverage at 60° F. All other liquid measures used are subdivisions of the gallon as so defined.

(i) Brand label. "Brand label" means the label carrying, in the usual distinctive design, the brand name of the distilled spirits.

(j) Age. "Age" means the period during which, after distillation and before bottling, distilled spirits have been kept in oak containers, charred if for a whisky of American type other than corn whisky, straight corn whisky, blended corn whisky, or a blend of straight corn whiskies. In the case of American type whiskies produced on or after July 1, 1936, other than corn whisky, straight corn whiskies, blended corn whisky, and blends of straight corn whisky "age" means the period during which the whisky has been kept in charred new oak containers.

(k) United States. "United States" means the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia; the term "State" includes a Territory and the District of Columbia; and the term "Territory" means Puerto Rico.

(l) Interstate commerce. "Interstate or foreign commerce" means commerce between any State and any place outside thereof, or commerce within any Territory or the District of Columbia, or between points within the same State but through any place outside thereof.

(m) Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, joint stock company, business trust, association, corporation, or other form of business enterprise, including a receiver, trustee, or liquidating agent and including an officer or employee of any agency of a State or political subdivision thereof; and the term "trade buyer" means any person who is a wholesaler or retailer.

(n) Any other term defined in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and used in this part shall have the same meaning assigned to it by such act.

Subpart C—Standards of Identity for Distilled Spirits

§ 5.20 Application of standards.

The standards of identity for the several classes and types of distilled spirits set forth in this part shall be applicable only to distilled spirits for beverage or other non-industrial purposes. Nothing contained in these standards of identity shall be construed as authorizing the non-industrial use of any distilled spirits produced in an industrial alcohol plant, except that "alcohol" or "neutral spirits," as defined in this part, may be so used if produced pursuant to the basic permit requirements of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

§ 5.21 The standards of identity.

Standards of identity for the several classes and types of distilled spirits set forth in this part shall be as follows:

(a) Class 1; Neutral spirits or alcohol. "Neutral spirits" or "alcohol" are distilled spirits distilled from any material at or above 190° proof, whether or not such proof is subsequently reduced.

(1) "Vodka" is neutral spirits distilled from any material at or above 190° proof, reduced to not more than 110° proof and not less than 80° proof and, after such reduction in proof, so treated by one of the following methods as to be without distinctive character, aroma, or taste:

(i) By causing the distillate to flow continuously through a tank or a series of tanks containing at least 1½ pounds of charcoal for each gallon of distillate contained therein at any one time so that the distillate is in intimate contact with the charcoal for a period of not less than 8 hours, not less than 10 percent of the charcoal being replaced by new charcoal at the expiration of each 40 hours of operation, at a rate which will replace at least 6 pounds of charcoal for every 100 gallons of spirits treated;

(ii) By keeping the distillate in constant movement by mechanical means in contact for not less than 8 hours with at least 6 pounds of new charcoal for every 100 gallons of distillate;

(iii) By purifying or refining the distillate by any other method which the Director finds will result in a product equally without distinctive character, aroma or taste, and which has been approved by him.

After such treatment the distillate is stored in metal, porcelain or glass containers or paraffin-lined tanks, and bottled at not less than 80° proof. If any flavoring material is added to the distillate it shall be designated "flavored vodka" and may be further qualified with the name of the flavoring material used.

(b) Class 2; Whisky. "Whisky" is an alcoholic distillate from a fermented mash of grain distilled at less than 190° proof in such manner that the distillate possesses the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to whisky, and withdrawn from the distillery at not more than 110° and not less than 80° proof, whether or not such proof is further reduced prior to bottling to not less than 80° proof; and also includes mixtures of the foregoing distillates for which no specific standards of identity are prescribed in this part: Provided, That a maximum of 1,000 barrels of whisky per distillery, withdrawn prior to July 1, 1960, at above 110° proof for experimental storage but at not more than 160° proof may be designated as whisky or any type thereof to which it would have been entitled under these standards of identity but for the fact that it was withdrawn at over 110° proof. Those types of whisky specified in subparagraphs (1) to (10) of this paragraph shall be deemed "American type" whiskies.

(1) "Rye whisky", "bourbon whisky", "wheat whisky", "malt whisky", or "rye malt whisky" is whisky which has been distilled at not exceeding 160° proof from a fermented mash of not less than 51 percent rye grain, corn grain, wheat grain, malted barley grain or malted rye grain, respectively, and, if produced on or after March 1, 1938, stored in charred new oak containers, and also includes mixtures of such whiskies where the mixture consists exclusively of whiskies of the same type. "Corn whisky" is whisky which has been distilled at not exceeding 160° proof from a fermented mash of not less than 80 percent corn grain, stored in uncharred oak containers, or reused charred oak containers, and not subjected, in the process of distillation or otherwise, to treatment with charred wood, and also includes mixtures of such whisky.

(2) "Straight whisky" is an alcoholic distillate from a fermented mash of grain at not exceeding 160° proof and withdrawn from the distillery at not more than 110° and not less than 80° proof, whether or not such proof is further reduced prior to bottling to not less than 80° proof, and is:

(i) Aged for not less than 12 calendar months if bottled on or after July 1, 1936, and before July 1, 1937; or

(ii) Aged for not less than 18 calendar months if bottled on or after July 1, 1937, and before July 1, 1938; or

(iii) Aged for not less than 24 calendar months if bottled on or after July 1, 1938.

The term "straight whisky" also includes mixtures of straight whisky which, by reason of being homogeneous, are not subject to the rectification tax under the internal-revenue laws.

(3) "Straight rye whisky" is straight whisky distilled from a fermented mash of grain of which not less than 51 percent is rye grain.

(4) (i) "Straight bourbon whisky" is straight whisky distilled from a fermented mash of grain of which not less than 51 percent is corn grain.

(ii) "Straight corn whisky" is straight whisky distilled from a fermented mash of grain of which not less than 80 percent is corn grain, aged for the required period in uncharred oak containers or reused charred oak containers, and not subjected, in the process of distillation, or otherwise, to treatment with charred wood.

(5) "Straight wheat whisky" is straight whisky distilled from a fermented mash of grain of which not less than 51 percent is wheat grain.

(6) "Straight malt whisky" and "straight rye malt whisky" are straight whisky distilled from a fermented mash of grain of which not less than 51 percent of the grain is malted barley or malted rye, respectively.

(7) "Blended whisky" (whisky — a blend) is a mixture which contains at least 20 percent by volume of 100° proof straight whisky and, separately or in combination, whisky or neutral spirits, if such mixture at the time of bottling is not less than 80° proof.

(8) "Blended rye whisky" (rye whisky—a blend), "blended bourbon whisky" (bourbon whisky—a blend), "blended corn whisky" (corn whisky—a blend), "blended wheat whisky" (wheat whisky—a blend), "blended malt whisky" (malt whisky—a blend) or "blended rye malt whisky" (rye malt whisky—a blend) is blended whisky which contains not less than 51 percent by volume of straight rye whisky, straight bourbon whisky, straight corn whisky, straight wheat whisky, straight malt whisky, or straight rye malt whisky, respectively.

(9) "A blend of straight whiskies" (blended straight whiskies), "A blend of straight rye whiskies" (blended straight rye whiskies), "A blend of straight bourbon whiskies" (blended straight bourbon whiskies), "A blend of straight corn whiskies" (blended straight corn whiskies), "A blend of straight wheat whiskies" (blended straight wheat whiskies), "A blend of straight malt whiskies" (blended straight malt whiskies), and "A blend of straight rye malt whiskies" (blended straight rye malt whiskies) are mixtures of only straight whiskies, straight rye whiskies, straight bourbon whiskies, straight corn whiskies, straight wheat whiskies, straight malt whiskies, or straight rye malt whiskies, respectively.

(10) "Spirit whisky" is a mixture (i) of neutral spirits and not less than 5 percent by volume of whisky, or (ii) of neutral spirits and less than 20 percent by volume of straight whisky, but not less than 5 percent by volume of straight whisky, or of straight whisky and whisky, if the resulting product at the time of bottling be not less than 80° proof.

(11) "Scotch whisky" is a distinctive product of Scotland, manufactured in Scotland in compliance with the laws of Great Britain regulating the manufacture of Scotch whisky for consumption in Great Britain, and containing no distilled spirits less than 3 years old: Provided, That if in fact such product as so manufactured is a mixture of distilled spirits, such mixture is "blended Scotch whisky" (Scotch whisky—a blend), "Scotch whisky" shall not be designated as "straight."

(12) "Irish whisky" is a distinctive product of Ireland, manufactured either in the Irish Free State or in Northern Ireland, in compliance with their laws regulating the manufacture of Irish whisky for home consumption, and containing no distilled spirits less than 3 years old: Provided, That if in fact such product as so manufactured is a mixture of distilled spirits, such whisky is "blended Irish whisky" (Irish whisky—a blend). "Irish whisky" shall not be designated as "straight."

(13) "Canadian whisky" is a distinctive product of Canada, manufactured in Canada in compliance with the laws of Canada regulating the manufacture of whisky for consumption in Canada, and containing no distilled spirits less than 2 years old: Provided, That if in fact such product as so manufactured is a mixture of distilled spirits, such whisky is "blended Canadian whisky" (Canadian whisky—a blend). "Canadian whisky" shall not be designated as "straight."

(14) "Blended Scotch type whisky" (Scotch type whisky—a blend) is a mixture made outside Great Britain and composed of:

(i) Not less than 20 percent by volume of 100° proof malt whisky or whiskies distilled in pot stills at not more than 160° proof (whether or not such proof is subsequently reduced prior to bottling to not less than 80° proof) solely from a fermented mash of malted barley dried over peat fire and aged for not less than 3 years in new plain, or reused, oak containers, and

(ii) Not more than 80 percent by volume of whisky distilled at more than 180° proof (whether or not such proof is subsequently reduced prior to bottling to not less than 80° proof) aged for not less than 3 years in new plain, or reused, oak containers.

(c) Class 3; gins. (1) "Distilled gin" is a distillate obtained by original distillation from mash, or by the redistillation of distilled spirits, over or with juniper berries and other aromatics customarily used in the production of gin, and deriving its main characteristic flavor from juniper berries and reduced at time of bottling to not less than 80° proof; and includes mixtures solely of such distillates.

(2) "Compound gin" is the product obtained by mixing neutral spirits with distilled gin or gin essence or other flavoring materials customarily used in the production of gin, and deriving its main characteristic flavor from juniper berries and reduced at time of bottling to not less than 80° proof; and includes mixtures of such products.

(3) "Dry gin", "London dry gin", "Hollands gin", "Geneva gin", "Old Tom gin", "Tom gin", and "Buchu gin" are the types of gin known under such designations, and shall be further designated as "distilled" or "compound", as the case may be.

(d) Class 4; brandies. "Brandy" is a distillate, or a mixture of distillates, obtained solely from the fermented juice, mash or wine of fruit, or from the residue thereof, distilled at less than 190° proof in such manner as to possess the taste, aroma and characteristics generally attributed to the product, and bottled at not less than 80° proof; and shall also include such distillates, aged for a period of not less than 50 years, and bottled at not less than 72° proof, in cases where the reduction in proof below 80° is due solely to losses resulting from natural causes during the period of aging. Brandy, or mixtures thereof, not conforming to any of the following standards shall be designated as "brandy," and such designation shall be qualified by a truthful and adequate statement of composition in direct conjunction therewith.

(1) "Fruit brandy" is brandy distilled solely from the juice or mash of whole, sound, ripe fruit, or from standard grape, citrus, or other fruit wine, having a volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, not in excess of 0.20 gram per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.), with or without the addition of not more than 20 percent by weight of the pomace of such juice or wine, or 30 percent by volume of the lees of such wine, or both (calculated prior to the addition of water to facilitate fermentation or distillation), and shall include mixtures of such brandy with not more than 30 percent (calculated on a proof basis) of lees brandy. Fruit brandy, derived exclusively from grapes, shall be designated as "grape brandy" or "brandy": Provided, That in the case of any fruit brandy, other than neutral brandy, pomace brandy, marc brandy or grappa brandy distilled from the fermented juice, mash, or wine of grapes, or the residue thereof, which has been aged for less than two years, the statement of the class (and type, if any) shall be preceded by the word "immature" appearing in the same size and kind of type and as a part thereof, e.g., "immature brandy" or "immature grape brandy". Fruit brandy, other than grape brandy, derived exclusively from one variety of fruit, shall be designated by the word "brandy" qualified by the name of such fruit (e.g., "peach brandy," "apple brandy," "orange brandy"), except that "apple brandy" may be designated "applejack." Fruit brandy derived from more than one variety of fruit shall be designated as "fruit brandy," qualified by a truthful and adequate statement of composition (e.g., "fruit brandy—a blend of 90 percent grape brandy and 10 percent blackberry brandy").

(2) "Cognac" or "Cognac (grape) brandy," is grape brandy distilled in the Cognac region of France, which is entitled to be so designated by the laws and regulations of the French government.

(3) "Dried fruit brandy," is brandy that conforms to the standard for fruit brandy except that it has been derived from sound, dried fruit, or from the standard wine of such fruit. Brandy derived from raisins, or from raisin wine, shall be designated as "raisin brandy." Other brandies defined in this paragraph shall be designated in the same manner as fruit brandy from the corresponding variety or varieties of fruit except that the name of the fruit shall be qualified by the word "dried."

(4) "Lees brandy" is brandy distilled from the lees of standard grape, citrus, or other fruit wine, and shall be designated as "lees brandy," qualified by the name of the fruit from which such lees are derived.

(5) "Pomace brandy," or "marc brandy," is brandy distilled from the skin and pulp of sound, ripe grapes, citrus or other fruit, after the withdrawal of the juice or wine therefrom, and shall be designated as "pomace brandy," or "marc brandy," qualified by the name of the fruit from which derived. Grape pomace brandy may be designated as "grappa" or "grappa brandy."

(6) "Residue brandy" is brandy distilled wholly or in part from the residue of fruit or wine, and shall be designated as "residue brandy" qualified by the name of the fruit from which derived. Brandy distilled wholly or in part from residue materials which conforms to any of the standards set forth in subparagraphs (1), (3), (4) and (5) of this paragraph, may, regardless of such fact, be designated "residue brandy" by the distiller thereof; but the use of this designation shall be conclusive, precluding any later change of designation.

(7) "Neutral brandy" is any brandy distilled on or after July 1, 1941 at more than 170° proof. Brandy so distilled shall be designated in the same manner as if distilled at a lower proof, except that the designation shall be qualified by the word "neutral" in the same size and kind of type, e.g., "neutral brandy," "neutral grape lees brandy," or "neutral grape pomace brandy."

(8) "Substandard" brandy shall bear as a part of its designation the word "substandard," and shall include:

(i) Any brandy distilled from juice, mash, or wine having a volatile acidity, calculated as acetic acid and exclusive of sulphur dioxide, in excess of 0.20 gram per 100 cubic centimeters (20° C.); measurements of volatile acidity under this paragraph shall be calculated exclusive of water added to facilitate distillation.

(ii) Any brandy which has been distilled from unsound, moldy, diseased, or decomposed juice, mash, wine, lees, pomace or residue, or which shows in the finished product any taste, aroma, or characteristic associated with products distilled from such material.

(e) Class 5; rum. (1) "Rum" is any alcoholic distillate from the fermented juice of sugarcane, sugarcane sirup, sugarcane molasses, or other sugarcane byproducts distilled at less than 190° proof (whether or not such proof is further reduced prior to bottling to not less than 80° proof) in such manner that the distillate possesses the taste, aroma, and characteristics generally attributed to rum; and includes mixtures solely of such distillates.

(2) "New England Rum" is rum as above defined, except that it is produced in the United States and is distilled at less than 160° proof.

(3) Puerto Rico, Cuba, Demerara, Barbados, St. Croix, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, Jamaica, Martinique, Trinidad, Haiti, and San Domingo rum are not distinctive types of rum. Such names are not generic but retain their geographic significance. They may not be applied to rum produced in any other place than the particular region indicated in the name, and may not be used as a designation of a product as rum, unless such product is rum as defined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(f) Class 6; cordials and liqueurs. (1) Cordials and liqueurs are products obtained by mixing or redistilling neutral spirits, brandy, gin, or other distilled spirits with or over fruits, flowers, plants, or pure juices therefrom, or other natural flavoring materials, or with extracts derived from infusions, percolations, or maceration of such materials, and containing sugar or dextrose or both in an amount not less than 2½ percent by weight of the finished product.

Synthetic or imitation flavoring materials shall not be included.

(2) "Sloe gin" is a cordial or liqueur with the main characteristic flavoring derived from sloe berries.

(3) Cordials and liqueurs shall not be designated as "distilled" or "compound."

(4) The designation of a cordial or liqueur may include the word "dry" if the added sugar and dextrose are less than 10 percent by weight of the finished product.

(5) Rye liqueur, bourbon liqueur. "Rye liqueur", "bourbon liqueur" (rye, bourbon cordial) are liqueurs, bottled at not less than 60° proof, in which not less than 51 percent, on a proof basis, of the distilled spirits used are, respectively, rye or bourbon whisky, straight rye or straight bourbon whisky, or whisky distilled from a rye or bourbon mash, and which possess a predominant characteristic bourbon or rye flavor derived from such whisky.

(6) Rock and rye, rock and bourbon, rock and brandy, rock and rum. "Rock and rye", "rock and bourbon", "rock and brandy", "rock and rum" are liqueurs, bottled at not less than 48° proof, in which, in the case of rock and rye and rock and bourbon, not less than 51 percent, on a proof basis, of the distilled spirits used are, respectively, rye or bourbon whisky, straight rye or straight bourbon whisky, or whisky distilled from a rye or bourbon mash, and, in the case of rock and brandy and rock and rum, the distilled spirits used are all grape brandy distilled at not in excess of 170° proof or rum, respectively; containing rock candy or sugar syrup, with or without the addition of fruit, fruit juices or other natural flavoring materials, and possessing, respectively, a predominant characteristic rye, bourbon, brandy or rum flavor derived from the distilled spirits used.

(g) Class 7; imitations. Imitations shall bear, as a part of the designation thereof, the word "imitation" and shall include the following:

(1) Any class or type of distilled spirits to which has been added coloring or flavoring material of such nature as to cause the resultant product to simulate any other class or type of distilled spirits;

(2) Any class or type of distilled spirits (other than distilled spirits required under § 5.34 to bear a distinctive or fanciful name and a truthful and adequate statement of composition) to which has been added synthetic flavoring material;

(3) Any class or type of distilled spirits (other than distilled spirits required under § 5.34 to bear a distinctive or fanciful name and a truthful and adequate statement of composition) to which has been added a natural flavoring material which simulates or enhances, or is used by the trade or in the particular product to simulate or enhance, the characteristics of any other flavoring material, if the labeling of such distilled spirits creates the impression that such other flavoring material has been employed in the manufacture of the product: Provided, That the word "imitation" shall not be required to appear as a part of the designation of a cherry product by reason of the addition of a natural flavoring material derived from crushed cherry pits;

(4) Any class or type of distilled spirits (except cordials, liqueurs and specialties marketed under labels which do not indicate, or infer, that a particular class or type of distilled spirits was used in the manufacture thereof) to which has been added any whisky essence, brandy essence, rum essence or similar essence or extract which simulates or enhances, or is used by the trade or in the particular product to simulate or enhance, the characteristics of any class or type of distilled spirits;

(5) Any type of rum to which neutral spirits or other distilled spirits than rum have been added;

(6) Any type of brandy to which neutral spirits or other distilled spirits than brandy have been added; and

(7) Any brandy to the distilling material for which has been added any amount of sugar other than the kind and amount of sugar expressly authorized for the amelioration of standard wine.

(h) Class 8; geographical designations. (1) Geographical names for distinctive types of distilled spirits (other than names found by the Director under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph to have become generic) shall not be applied to distilled spirits produced in any other place than the particular region indicated by the name, unless (i) in direct conjunction with the name there appears the word "type" or the word "American" or some other adjective indicating the true place of production, in lettering substantially as conspicuous as such name, and (ii) the distilled spirits to which the name is applied conform to the distilled spirits of that particular region. The following are examples of distinctive types of distilled spirits with geographical names that have not become generic: Eau de Vie de Dantzig (Danziger Goldwasser), Ojen, Swedish punch, blended Scotch whisky, blended Irish whisky, blended Canadian whisky. Geographical names for distinctive types of distilled spirits shall be used to designate only distilled spirits conforming to the standard of identity, if any, for such type specified in §§ 5.20–5.21, or if no such standard is so specified, then in accordance with the trade understanding of that distinctive type. Such geographical names for distinctive types of distilled spirits shall not be used as the name or a part of the name for distilled spirits not of that distinctive type.

(2) Only such geographical names for distilled spirits as the Director finds have by usage and common knowledge lost their geographical significance to such extent that they have become generic, shall be deemed to have become generic. The following are examples of distinctive types of distilled spirits with geographical names that have become generic: London dry gin, Geneva gin, Hollands gin, Tequila.

(3) Geographical names that are not names for distinctive types of distilled spirits, and that have not become generic, shall not be applied to distilled spirits produced in any other place than the particular place or region indicated in the name. The following are examples of geographical names for distilled spirits that are not generic and are not names for distinctive types of distilled spirits: Cognac, Armagnac, Greek brandy, Pisco brandy, Jamaica rum, Kentucky straight bourbon whisky, Maryland straight rye whisky.

(4) The words "Scotch", "Scots", "Highland" or "Highlands" and similar words connoting, indicating, or commonly associated with Scotland, shall not (except for the use of the word "Scotch" in the type designation "blended Scotch type whisky") be used to designate any product not wholly produced in Scotland.

(i) Class 9; products without geographical designations but distinctive of a particular place. (1) The whiskies of the types specified in paragraph (b) (1)–(10) of this section are distinctive products of the United States, and if produced in a foreign country, shall be designated by the applicable designation prescribed in such paragraph, together with the words "American type" or the words "produced (distilled, blended) in _____", the blank to be filled in with the name of the foreign country. If whisky of any of these types is composed in part of whisky or whiskies produced in a foreign country there shall be stated, on the government label, the percentage of such whisky and the country of origin thereof. Such statement shall appear as a part of, or in direct conjunction with, any age or percentage statement which may be required under § 5.39.

(2) The name for other distilled spirits which are distinctive products of a particular place or country shall not be given to the product of any other place or country unless the designation for such product includes the word "type" or an adjective such as "American" or the like, clearly indicating the true place of production. This paragraph shall not apply to designations which by usage and common knowledge have lost their geographical significance to such an extent that they have become generic, provided the approval of the Director is obtained prior to using such designation. An example of a product which is a distinctive product of a particular place or country and which has not become generic is the following: Habanero. Examples of products which have lost their geographical significance to such an extent that they are no longer distinctive products of a particular place or country, but have become generic, are the following: Vodka, Slivovitz, Zubrovka, Aquavit, Arrack, and Kirschwasser.

§ 5.22 Alteration of class and type; harmless coloring, flavoring and blending materials.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the addition of any coloring, flavoring or blending materials whatsoever, to any class or type of distilled spirits shall be deemed to alter the class and type thereof. If the class or type of any distilled spirits shall be so altered, and if there is no class or type designation for the product as so altered, either specified in §§ 5.20 and 5.21 or in accordance with trade understanding, such distilled spirits shall be designated with a distinctive or fanciful name together with a truthful and adequate statement of composition in accordance with § 5.34. There may be added to any class or type of distilled spirits, without changing the class or type thereof, (1) such harmless coloring, flavoring or blending materials as are an essential component part of the particular class or type of distilled spirits to which added, and (2) harmless coloring, flavoring or blending materials such as caramel, straight malt or straight rye malt whiskies, fruit juices, sugar or wine, which are not an essential component part of the particular distilled spirits to which added, but which are customarily employed therein in accordance with established trade usage, if such coloring, flavoring or blending materials do not total more than 2½ percent by volume of the finished product.

(b) "Harmless coloring, flavoring and blending materials" shall not include (1) any material which would render the product to which it is added an imitation, or (2) any material whatsoever in the case of straight whisky or in the case of neutral spirits, or (3) any material, other than caramel and sugar, in the case of cognac brandy.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as in any manner modifying the standards of identity for cordials and liqueurs, or as authorizing any product which is defined in Class 7 as an imitation to be otherwise designated.

Subpart D—Labeling Requirements for Distilled Spirits

§ 5.30 General.

(a) Application. No person engaged in business as a distiller, rectifier, importer, wholesaler, or warehouseman and bottler, directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate, shall sell or ship or deliver for sale or shipment or otherwise introduce in interstate or foreign commerce, or receive therein, or remove from customs custody, any distilled spirits in bottles, unless such distilled spirits are packaged, and such packages are marked, branded, or labeled in conformity with §§ 5.30–5.41. Distilled spirits domestically bottled prior to August 15, 1936, and imported distilled spirits entered in customs bond in bottles prior to that date shall be regarded as being packaged, marked, branded, and labeled in accordance with §§ 5.30–5.41, if the labels on such distilled spirits (1) bear all the mandatory label information required by § 5.32, even though such information is not set forth in the manner and form as required by such section and the other sections referred to therein, and (2) bear no statements, designs, or devices which are false or misleading.

(b) Alteration of labels. (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to alter, mutilate, destroy, obliterate or remove any mark, brand, or label upon distilled spirits held for sale in interstate or foreign commerce or after shipment therein, except as authorized by Federal law, or except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph: Provided, That the assistant regional commissioner, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax, or the Internal Revenue officer, if any, assigned to the premises may, upon written application, permit additional labeling or relabeling of bottled distilled spirits with labels, covered by certificates of approval issued by the Director, which comply with the requirements of this part and with State law.

(2) No application for permission to relabel bottled distilled spirits need be made in any case where there is added to the bottle, after removal from customs custody or from the bottling premises, a label identifying the wholesale or retail distributor thereof, and containing no references whatever to the characteristics of the product.

§ 5.31 Misbranding.

Distilled spirits in bottles shall be deemed to be misbranded:

(a) If the bottle fails to bear on it a brand label (or a brand label and other permitted labels) containing the mandatory label information as required by §§ 5.30–5.41 and conforming to the general requirements specified herein.

(b) If the bottle or any label on the bottle, or any individual covering, carton, or other container of the bottle used for sale at retail, other than a shipping container, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying the bottle to the consumer buyer contains any statement, design, device, or graphic, pictorial, or emblematic representation that is prohibited by §§ 5.30–5.41.

(c) If the bottle is in an individual covering, carton, or other container used for sale at retail, other than a shipping container, displaying thereon any written, printed, graphic, or other matter, other than the name and address of the manufacturer, importer, or person by whom bottled (and in addition the name and address of the person for whom bottled), and such individual covering, carton, or other container obscures the mandatory label information required to be stated and such individual covering, carton, or other container fails to reproduce on it, in the same manner, all information so obscured; or if any statement required by §§ 5.30–5.41 to appear upon the label, or upon such individual covering, carton, or other container of the bottle, is obscured in any other manner or is modified in any manner.

§ 5.32 Mandatory label information.

There shall be stated:

(a) On the brand label:

(1) Brand name, in accordance with § 5.33.

(2) Class and type, in accordance with § 5.34.

(3) Name and address, in accordance with § 5.35, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) On the brand label or on a separate label (back or front):

(1) In case of imported distilled spirits, name and address of importer, in accordance with § 5.35.

(2) In the case of distilled spirits bottled for the holder of a permit or a retailer, the name and address of the distiller, blender, or bottler, in accordance with § 5.35.

(3) In the case of imported distilled spirits, the country of origin in accordance with § 5.35.

(c) On a separate label (for the purpose of this part to be known as the Government label), in such manner and form as shall be prescribed by the Director:

(1) Alcoholic content, in accordance with § 5.36.

(2) Net Contents, in accordance with § 5.37.

(3) Artificial or excessive coloring or flavoring, in accordance with § 5.38.

(4) Percentage of neutral spirits and name of commodity from which distilled, or in case of continuously distilled neutral spirits or gin the name of the commodity only, in accordance with § 5.38.

(5) Age of whisky and straight whisky, respective percentages of whisky, straight whisky and neutral spirits, and type of cooperage, in accordance with § 5.39: Provided, That no label shall bear any statement relative to age or period of storage for any American whisky (other than corn whisky, straight corn whisky, blended corn whisky, and blends of straight corn whisky) produced on and after July 1, 1936, and prior to March 1, 1938, unless such whisky has been stored in a charred new oak container.

(6) State of distillation of domestic types of whisky and straight whisky, except blends, in accordance with § 5.35.

The mandatory information required by any of the subparagraphs of paragraph (c) of this section to be stated on a separate label may, if desired, reappear or be restated on the brand label, in which event there shall also reappear or be restated all information required to be stated in conjunction therewith by such separate subparagraph and the section to which such subparagraph refers. If it is desired, all of the mandatory information required by paragraph (c) of this section may appear on the brand label in lieu of a separate label.

§ 5.33 Brand names.

(a) General. The product shall bear a brand name, except that if not sold under a brand name, then the name of the person required to appear on the brand label shall be deemed a brand name for the purpose of this part.

(b) Misleading brand names. No label shall contain any brand name, which, standing alone, or in association with other printed or graphic matter, creates any impression or inference as to the age, origin, identity, or other characteristics of the product unless the Director finds that such brand name, either when qualified by the word "brand" or when not so qualified, conveys no erroneous impressions as to the age, origin, identity, or other characteristics of the product.

(c) Trade name of foreign origin. This section shall not operate to prohibit the use by any person of any trade name or brand of foreign origin not effectively registered in the United States Patent Office on August 29, 1935, which has been used by such person or his predecessors in the United States for a period of at least five years immediately preceding August 29, 1935; Provided, That if such trade name or brand is used, the designation of the product shall be qualified by the name of the locality in the United States in which produced, and such qualification shall be in script, type, or printing as conspicuous as the trade name or brand.

§ 5.34 Class and type.

(a) The class and the type of the distilled spirits shall be stated in conformity with §§ 5.20–5.22 if defined in those sections. If the class is not so defined, then the class shall be stated in conformity with the trade understanding thereof, and if the type is not so defined, any reference to type shall be similarly stated, but no product shall be regarded as having a designation in conformity with trade understanding unless through established usage such product has become known to the trade and to the public under such designation. If the class is not defined in §§ 5.20–5.22, and there is no trade understanding as to the designation of the product, a distinctive or fanciful name, which shall be deemed the class designation for the purpose of these regulations, shall be stated on the brand label of the product. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the word "cordial" or "liqueur" need not be stated to indicate the class of distilled spirits which in fact are cordials or liqueurs, unless the Director finds that, without a designation of the class, the type designation is one which does not clearly indicate to the consumer that the product is a cordial or liqueur.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this part a truthful and adequate statement of composition shall appear upon the brand label of any product which, in conformity with paragraph (a) of this section, bears a distinctive or fanciful name or a designation in accordance with trade understanding. In the case of products such as highballs, cocktails, and similar prepared specialties, bearing, in conformity with paragraph (a) of this section, trade designations which adequately indicate to the consumer the general character of the product, a statement of the classes and types of distilled spirits used in the manufacture thereof shall be deemed a sufficient statement of composition. No statement of composition is required to appear upon products bearing designations in accordance with trade understanding if such designation, through general and established usage, in itself adequately indicates to the consumer the composition of the product. No highball, cocktail or other prepared specialty shall bear a designation, whether through trade understanding or otherwise, which indicates that it is composed of a certain class or type of distilled spirits, unless, in fact, the distilled spirits used in its preparation conform to such class or type.

(c) On labels of cordials and liqueurs, the type of distilled spirits used for mixing or redistillation, and the percentage of each type thereof, may, but need not, be stated. Any such statement shall be substantially in accordance with the following examples: apricot liqueur, the distilled spirits used are all apricot brandy; cherry cordial, the distilled spirits used are all grape brandy; pineapple liqueur, the distilled spirits used are 30 percent distilled London dry gin, 70 percent neutral spirits.

(d) In the case of whisky (as defined in § 5.21(b)) and American type whisky produced on or after March 1, 1938, and in the case of brandy produced on or after July 1, 1941, which, in whole or in part, is treated with wood chips through percolation or otherwise, during distillation, rectification, or storage, there shall be stated as a part of the class and type designation the phrase "colored and flavored with wood chips": Provided, That this paragraph shall not be construed as authorizing the treatment of any of the types of corn whisky with charred wood chips.

(e) In the case of whisky (as defined in § 5.21, Class 2) produced in the United States on or after March 1, 1938, and stored in reused cooperage, which has been distilled at not exceeding 160° proof from a fermented mash of not less than 51 percent rye grain, corn grain, wheat grain, malted barley grain, or malted rye grain, respectively, there shall be stated as a part of the class and type designation, in uniform lettering not greater than one-half the size of such designation, "Distilled from rye (or bourbon, wheat, malt or rye malt) mash", as the case may be: Provided, however, That any product conforming to the standard of identity prescribed for one of the types of corn whisky (§ 5.21(b)(1), (4)(ii), (8), (9)) shall, notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, be designated in accordance with such standard.

(f) All distillates (other than neutral spirits) produced in a foreign country from a fermented mash of grain, and possessing the taste, aroma and characteristics generally attributed to whisky, and all mixtures thereof, bottled at not less than 80° proof, which are not of a type defined in Class 2, § 5.21 shall be deemed to be "whisky" and shall be so designated. In the case of mixtures of whisky, the component parts of which were distilled in more than one country, there shall be stated in direct conjunction with the class designation "whisky" a truthful and adequate statement of the composition of the product. In the case of any of the types of whisky defined in any of the subsections of § 5.21 Class 2 which contains any whisky or whiskies produced in a country other than that indicated by the type designation, there shall be stated on the government label the percentage of such whisky and the country of origin thereof. If any age or percentage statement is required under § 5.39 the statement herein required shall appear as a part of, or in direct conjunction with, such age and percentage statement. All whisky (other than American type whisky and blended Scotch type whisky) manufactured in Scotland, Ireland or Canada, shall be deemed to be Scotch, Irish or Canadian whisky, and shall be so designated, in conformity with § 5.21(b)(11), (12) and (13), unless the application of such designation to the particular product will result in consumer deception, or unless such a product is not entitled to such designation under the laws of the country in which manufactured.

§ 5.35 Name and address.

(a) "Bottled by". On labels of domestic distilled spirits, there shall be stated the phrase "bottled by", immediately followed by the name (or trade name) of the bottler and the place where such distilled spirits are bottled. If the bottler is the actual bona fide operator of more than one distilled spirits plant engaged in bottling the same brand of distilled spirits, there may be stated immediately following the name (or trade name) of such bottler the addresses of the plants at which such product is bottled: Provided, That the State of distillation is stated as provided by paragraph (e) of this section: Provided further:

(1) That, where distilled spirits are bottled by or for the distiller thereof, there may be stated, in lieu of the phrase "bottled by", followed by the bottler's name (or trade name) and address, the phrase "distilled by", followed by the corporate name, or the trade name under which the particular spirits were distilled, or (except in the case of distilled spirits bottled in bond under section 5233, Internal Revenue Code) any trade name shown on the distiller's permit (covering the premises where the particular spirits were distilled), at the time the spirits were distilled, irrespective of the name under which they were actually distilled; and the address (or addresses) of the distiller;

(2) That, where distilled spirits are bottled by or for the rectifier thereof, there may be stated, in lieu of the phrase "bottled by", followed by the bottler's name (or trade name) and address, the phrases "blended by", "made by", "prepared by", "manufactured by", or "produced by" (whichever may be appropriate to the act of rectification involved), followed by the name (or trade name) under which the distilled spirits were rectified, and the address (or addresses) of the rectifier.

(b) "Imported by." (1) On labels of imported distilled spirits, bottled prior to importation, there shall be stated the words "imported by", "imported exclusively by", or a similar appropriate phrase, and immediately thereafter the name of the importer, or exclusive agent, or sole distributor, or other person responsible for the importation, together with the principal place of business in the United States of such person.

(2) On labels of imported distilled spirits bottled after importation by a person other than the person responsible for the importation, there shall be stated, in the manner and form prescribed above, the name and address of the person responsible for the importation, and in addition thereto the words "bottled by", and immediately thereafter, the name of the bottler and the place where bottled, except that if the distilled spirits are bottled in the United States for the person responsible for the importation there may be stated, in lieu of the above-required statements, the name and principal place of business in the United States of such person, immediately preceded by the phrase "imported by and bottled in the United States for" (or a similar appropriate phrase).

(3) On labels of imported distilled spirits bottled after importation by the person responsible for the importation, there shall be stated the words "imported and bottled by," "imported and bottled exclusively by," or a similar appropriate phrase, and immediately thereafter the name of such person and the address of the place where bottled or the address of such person's principal place of business.

(4) The statements provided for domestic distilled spirits by paragraph (a) of this section, if applicable, may, but need not, appear on labels of imported bottled distilled spirits, unless required by State or foreign law or regulation. If required by State or foreign law or regulation, they shall appear in accordance with the requirements thereof.

(c) "Bottled for". In addition to the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, there may also be stated the name and address of the person for whom the distilled spirits are bottled, immediately preceded by the words "bottled for" or "distributed by", or other similar statement.

(d) Post-office address. The "place" stated shall be the post-office address, except that the street address may be omitted. No additional places or addresses shall be stated for the same person, firm, or corporation, unless (1) such person or retailer is actively engaged in the conduct of an additional bona fide and actual alcoholic beverage business at such additional place or address, and (2) the label also contains, in direct conjunction therewith, appropriate descriptive material indicating the function occurring at such additional place or address in connection with the particular product.

(e) State of distillation. On labels of whisky and straight whisky there shall be stated the State of distillation of such whisky, if such whisky is not distilled in the State given in the address on the brand label. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 5.32(c), the statement of the State of distillation shall appear on the brand label in all cases where the Director finds that without such statement the label is misleading as to the State of actual distillation.

(f) Country of origin. On labels of imported distilled spirits there shall be stated the country of origin in substantially the following form "Product of ------", the blank to be filled in with the name of the country of origin.

(g) Trade names. The trade name of any permittee appearing upon any label shall be identical with the name in which his basic permit is issued by the Assistant Regional Commissioner.

§ 5.36 Alcoholic content.

(a) The alcoholic content by proof shall be stated for distilled spirits except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) The alcoholic content is percentage by volume or by proof shall be stated for cordials and liqueurs, and gin fizzes, cocktails, highballs, bitters, and such other specialties as may be specified by the Director from time to time.

§ 5.37 Net contents.

(a) The net contents of distilled spirits for which a standard of fill is prescribed in § 5.73(a) shall be stated in the same manner and form in which such standard of fill is set forth in said section.

(b) The net contents of distilled spirits for which no standard of fill is prescribed in § 5.73(a) shall be stated as follows:

(1) If one pint, one quart, or one gallon, the net contents shall be so stated.

(2) If less than a pint, the net contents shall be stated in fractions of a pint, or in fluid ounces.

(3) If more than a pint, but less than a quart, the net contents shall be stated in fractions of a quart, or in pints and fluid ounces.

(4) If more than a quart, but less than a gallon, the net contents shall be stated in fractions of a gallon, or in quarts, pints, and fluid ounces.

(c) All fractions shall be expressed in their lowest denomination.

(d) The net contents need not be stated on any label if the net contents are displayed by having the same blown, etched, sandblasted, marked by underglaze coloring, or otherwise permanently marked by any method approved by the Director, on the sides, front, or back of the bottle, in letters and figures in such manner as to be plainly legible under ordinary circumstances, and such statement is not obscured in any manner in whole or in part. The letters and figures shall be not less than one-quarter inch in height, except in case of bottles having a capacity of less than one-half pint, in which case the letters and figures shall be of such size as to be readily legible under ordinary conditions.

§ 5.38 Presence of neutral spirits and coloring, flavoring, and blending materials.

(a) In the case of distilled spirits (other than cordials, liqueurs, and specialties) produced by blending or rectification, if neutral spirits have been used in the production thereof, there shall be stated the percentage of neutral spirits so used and the name of the commodity from which such neutral spirits have been distilled. The statement of percentage and the name of the commodity shall be made in substantially the following form: "____% neutral spirits distilled from grain"; or "____% neutral spirits distilled from cane products"; or "____% neutral spirits distilled from fruit"; or "____% grain (cane products), (fruit) neutral spirits."

(b) In the case of neutral spirits or of gin produced by a process of continuous distillation, there shall be stated the name of the commodity from which such neutral spirits or gin has been distilled. The statement of the name of the commodity shall be made in substantially the following form: "Distilled from grain", or "Distilled from cane products", or "Distilled from fruit."

(c) If the aggregate amount of coloring, blending, smoothing, or flavoring materials in any distilled spirits other than cordials, liqueurs, gin, gin fizzes, highballs, bitters, and such other specialties as may be specified by the Director from time to time, is in excess of 2½ percent by volume of the distilled spirits contained in the bottle, then the name and amount in percent by volume of each of such materials shall be stated.

(d) There shall be stated the words "artificially colored" on the label of any distilled spirits containing synthetic coloring materials, or natural materials, other than caramel, the primary contribution of which is color, as well as upon the label of any distilled spirits, the labeling of which is such as to convey the impression that the color of the product is derived from a given source, if such color is, in whole or in part, not so derived. In the case of distilled spirits to which no coloring material other than caramel has been added the words "colored with caramel" or a substantially similar statement may appear in lieu of the words "artificially colored": Provided, That no such statement shall be required by reason of the use of caramel in any brandy or rum or in any type of whisky other than straight whisky: And provided further, That where such statement would be required by reason of the use of natural flavoring materials solely, there may be stated in lieu of "artificially colored" a truthful and adequate statement of the source of the color, such as "color derived from (name of fruit, plant, etc., the name of which the product bears) and other fruits (plants, herbs, etc., or the name of such other fruits, plants, or herbs)": And provided further, That where such statement would be required solely by reason of the use of coloring materials which have been certified as suitable for use in foods by the Food and Drug Administration, there may be stated, in lieu of artificially colored, the phrase "certified color added".

(e) The presence of beading oil in any type of whisky shall be stated.

§ 5.39 Statements of age and percentage.

(a) Statements of age and percentage for whisky. Except in the case of straight whisky bottled under the Bottling in Bond Act of the United States and foreign or domestic whisky (whether or not mixed or blended but containing no neutral spirits) all of which is four years or more old, there shall be stated the following:

(1) In the case of whisky defined in § 5.21(b)(1), (11), (12), (13), if not mixed, the age of the whisky; if mixed, the age of the youngest whisky. The statement of age in both cases under this paragraph shall be substantially as follows: "This whisky is _____ (years and/or months) old."

(2) In the case of any of the types of straight whisky the age of the straight whisky. The statement of age in cases under this paragraph shall be substantially as follows: "This whisky is _____ (years and/or months) old."

(3) (i) In case of any of the types of blended whisky as defined in § 5.21(b)(7), (8), the age of the straight whisky

(or if there be two or more straight whiskies, then of the youngest thereof) and the age of the other whisky (or if there be two or more other whiskies, then of the youngest of such other whiskies) together with the percentage by volume of straight whisky, other whisky, and neutral spirits therein.

(ii) The statement of age in cases under this paragraph shall be as follows, in accordance with the ingredients used. If only one straight whisky and one other whisky is in the blend, the statement of age shall read: "The straight whisky in the product is _____ (years and/or months) old; _____ percent straight whisky, _____ percent whisky _____ (years and/or months) old" or "_____ percent straight whisky _____ (years and/or months) old, _____ percent whisky _____ (years and/or months) old." The age blanks shall be filled in with the respective ages of the straight whisky and the other whisky. If more than one straight whisky and more than one other whisky is in the blend, the statement of age shall read: "The straight whiskies in this product are _____ (years and/or months) or more old; _____ percent straight whisky, _____ percent whisky _____ (years and/or months) or more old; _____ per-percent straight whiskies _____ (years and/or months) or more old; _____ per-cent whisky _____ (years and/or months) or more old." The age blanks shall be filled in with the ages of the youngest straight whisky and the young-est of the other whiskies. If neutral spirits have been used in the blend, the statement thereof shall appear in im-mediate conjunction with the statement of age and percentage amounts of straight whisky and other whisky (if any) and shall be in the form required by § 5.38(a).

(iii) In addition (but not as a substi-tute for the foregoing required state-ments) a statement may be made of the ages and percentages of all of the straight whiskies in the blend. Such statements, if made, shall read "_____% straight whisky, _____ years old, _____% straight whisky, _____ years old, and ____% straight whisky, _____ years old." The age and percentage blanks shall be filled in with the respective ages and percentages of all of the straight whis-kies in the blend.

(4) If the product is a blend of straight whiskies, the age of the youngest straight whisky. The statement of age under this paragraph shall be as follows: "The straight whiskies in this product are____ (years and/or months) or more old." Provided, That, if the product is com-posed of 51 percent or more, but less than 100 percent, of one type of straight whisky and the class and type designa-tion contains a reference to this predom-inant type, the required statement shall contain a statement of the percentage of this predominant type in the product as follows:

The straight whiskies in this product are _____ (years and/or months) or more old, _____ percent straight _____ whisky, the blanks to be filled in with the appro-priate age, percentage and type state-ments. The blank shall be filled in with the age of the youngest straight whisky in the blend. In addition (but not as a substitute for the foregoing required statement) a statement may be made of the ages and percentages of all of the whiskies and straight whiskies in the blend. Such statements, if made, shall read: "____% straight whisky, _____ years old, _____ percent straight whisky, _____ years old, and ____% straight whisky, _____ years old." The age and percentage blanks shall be filled in with the respective ages and percentages of all of the straight whiskies in the blend.

(5) In the case of spirit whisky, the age of the whisky or straight whisky (or, if there be two or more whiskies or straight whiskies, then the age of the youngest whisky or straight whisky, or, if there be both whisky and straight whisky, then the age of the youngest whisky) together with the percentage by volume of the whisky or straight whisky and the percentage by volume of neutral spirits. Such statements shall be as fol-lows: "The whisky (straight whisky) in this product is __ (years and/or months) old; ____ percent whisky (or ____ percent straight whisky and, if there be other whisky or whiskies, ____ percent whisky) and ____ percent neutral spirits" (con-tinuing in accordance with the require-ments of § 5.38(a) to state the commod-ity from which the neutral spirits is derived). If there be more than one whisky or (if there be no whisky) more than one straight whisky in the product, the statement of age shall read: "The whiskies (straight whiskies) in this product are ____ (years and/or months) or more old" followed by the statement of percentages and of the commodity from which the neutral spirits is derived. In addition (but not as a substitute for the foregoing required statements) a statement may be made of the ages and percentages of all of the whiskies and straight whiskies in the product. Such statement, if made, shall be in the fol-lowing form: "____ percent straight whisky, _____ years old, _____ percent straight whisky, _____ years old, _____ percent whisky, ____ years old and ____ percent whisky, _____ years old." The age and percentage blanks shall be filled with the respective ages and percentages of each of the straight whiskies and whiskies in the product.

(6) In the case of imported American type whiskies (as defined in § 5.21, Class 9) the labels shall state the ages and percentages in the same manner and form as is required for the same type of whisky produced in the United States.

(7) In the case of straight whisky bot-tled under the Bottling in Bond Act of the United States and foreign or domes-tic whisky (whether or not mixed or blended but containing no neutral spirits) all of which is four years or more old, statements of age shall be optional but, if made, shall appear in the form specified for the appropriate class and type.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provi-sions of this paragraph, in the case of whisky (as defined in § 5.21(b), Class 2), produced in the United States on and after March 1, 1938, and stored in reused cooperage, there shall be stated in lieu of the words "* * * is _____ (years and/or months) old", the words "* * * stored _____ (years and/or months) in reused cooperage", and in lieu of the words "* * * _____ (years and/or months) or more old", the words "* * * stored _____ (years and/or months) or more in reused cooperage": Provided, That this paragraph shall not apply to "blended Scotch type whisky" or to any whisky properly contained therein.

(b) Statements of age for rum and brandy. (1) Age may, but need not, be stated on labels of rums and brandies: Provided, That an appropriate state-ment with respect to age shall appear on the brand label in case of brandy (other than immature brandies) not aged for a period of at least two years.

(2) If age is stated, it shall be sub-stantially as follows: "This rum is ____ years old;" "This brandy is ____ years old;" the blanks to be filled in with the age of the youngest distilled spirits in the product.

(c) Statements of age and percentage for blended Scotch type whisky. (1) (i) In the case of blended Scotch type whisky, there shall be stated the age of the malt whisky (or if there be two or more malt whiskies, the youngest there-of) and the age of the other whisky (or if there be two or more other whiskies, the youngest of such other whiskies) to-gether with the percentages by volume of the malt whisky and of the other whisky therein. The statement of ages and percentages shall be in the following form: "The malt whisky in this product is ____ (years and/or months) old; ____ percent malt whisky, ____ percent whisky, ____ (years and/or months) old" or, if more than one malt whisky or more than one other whisky is in the blend, the relevant portion of such statement shall read "The malt whiskies in this product are ____ (years and/or months) or more old" and "____ percent whisky ____ years and/or months) or more old", as the case may be.

(ii) In addition (but not as a substi-tute for the statement in (i) of this sub-paragraph) a statement may be made of the ages and percentages of all of the malt whiskies and whiskies in the prod-uct. Such statement, if made, shall be in the following form: "____ percent malt whisky, ____ years old; ____ per-cent malt whisky, ____ years old; ____ percent whisky, ____ years old; and ____ percent whisky, ____ years old." The age and percentage blanks shall be filled with the respective ages and percentages of each of the malt whiskies and whis-kies in the product.

(d) Other distilled spirits. Age, ma-turity, or similar statements or repre-sentations as to neutral spirits, gin, liqueurs, cordials, vodka, cocktails, gin fizzes, highballs, bitters, and specialties are misleading and are prohibited from being stated on any label.

(e) Miscellaneous age representations. (1) If the age of any product for which age is required to be stated is in excess of 1 year, months in excess of a year may be omitted, and if the age is less than 1 month, the age shall be stated as "Less than one month" in lieu of "____ (years and/or months)."

(2) Age may be understated but may not be overstated.

(3) Any permissive additional state-ments as to age shall appear on the same labels as the required statements and only in direct conjunction therewith and in substantially the same size and kind of print. Any such additional permis-sive statements as to age not in direct conjunction with the required statements are prohibited, and all statements as to age other than the required statements, the additional permissive statements, and the optional statements for distilled spirits are prohibited. Additional per-missive age and percentage statements shall not be given prominence, either by position or color over required age and percentage statements.

(4) Variations in the form of the re-quired statements or the additional permissive statements as to age and per-centages are prohibited.

(5) If any age, maturity, or similar representation (including words or de-vices in any brand name or mark) is made relative to any distilled spirits (except neutral spirits, gin, liqueurs, cor-dials, vodka, cocktails, gin fizzes, high-balls, and bitters), the age shall also be stated on all labels where such represen-tation appears, and in script, type, or printing substantially as conspicuous as such representation: Provided, That the labels of such whiskies and brandies (ex-cept immature brandies) as are not re-quired to bear a statement of age on the label and the labels of rum which has been aged for not less than 4 years may contain general inconspicuous age, maturity or other similar representations even though the label does not bear the optional age statement. Age, maturity or similar representations as to neutral spirits, gin, liqueurs, cordials, vodka, cocktails, gin fizzes, highballs, and bit-ters, are misleading, and shall not appear upon any label, except that the use of the word "old" or other word denoting age, appearing as part of the brand name, shall not be deemed to be an age repre-sentation in the case of such distilled spirits, or in the case of distilled spirits bottled in bond under the Bottling in Bond Act of the United States, or in the case of whiskies and brandies (except immature brandies) as are not required to bear a statement of age on the label or in the case of rum which has been aged for not less than 4 years. As to all other distilled spirits the word "old" or other word denoting age, appearing as part of the brand name, shall be deemed to be an age representation unless the word "brand" appears in direct conjunction with such brand name in letters of equally conspicuous color and at least one-half the size of the type in which such brand name is printed.

§ 5.40 General requirements.

(a) Contrasting background. All la-bels shall be so designed that all the statements thereon required by §§ 5.30–5.41 are readily legible under ordinary conditions, and all such statements shall be on a contrasting background.

(b) Size of type. All statements re-quired on labels by §§ 5.30–5.41 shall be in readily legible script, type, or print-ing not smaller than 8-point Gothic caps, except that if contained among other descriptive or explanatory reading mat-ter, the script, type, or printing of all required material shall be of a size sub-stantially more conspicuous than such other descriptive or explanatory reading matter: Provided, That in the case of labels on bottles having a capacity of less than one-half pint, such script, type, or printing thereon need not be in 8-point Gothic caps, but shall be readily legible under ordinary conditions. All state-ments of the type of distilled spirits shall be in script, type, or printing substan-tially as conspicuous as the statement of the class to which it refers, and in direct conjunction therewith.

(c) English language. All the require-ments of §§ 5.30–5.41 shall be stated on all labels in the English language: Pro-vided, That the brand name, the place of production, and the name of the pro-ducer appearing on labels need not be in the English language if the words "product of" immediately precede the name of the country in which the dis-tilled spirits were produced in accordance with customs requirements. Additional statements in foreign languages may be made on labels, if no such statements conflict with, or are contradictory to, the requirements of §§ 5.30–5.41. Labels on bottles of distilled spirits bottled for con-sumption within Puerto Rico may, if desired, state the information required by §§ 5.30–5.41 solely in the Spanish lan-guage in lieu of the English language, ex-cept that the net contents, and if an imitation, the word "imitation" shall also be stated in the English language.

(d) Location of label. No label other than stamps authorized or required by the United States Government or any other government, shall be affixed over the mouths of bottles of distilled spirits, and no label shall obscure any govern-ment stamp or be obscured thereby, or obscure any markings or information re-quired to be blown in the bottle by regu-lations of the Secretary of the Treasury.

(e) Labels firmly affixed. All labels shall be affixed to bottles of distilled spir-its in such manner that they cannot be removed without thorough application of water or other solvents.

(f) Additional information on labels. Labels (other than the label to be known for the purposes of this part as the gov-ernment label) may contain information other than the mandatory label infor-mation required by §§ 5.30–5.41, provided such information complies with the re-quirements of §§ 5.30–5.41, and does not conflict with, nor in any manner qualify, statements required by any regulations promulgated under the act.

(g) Representations as to materials. If any representation (other than rep-resentations or information required by §§ 5.30–5.41) is made as to the presence, excellence, or other characteristic of any ingredient in any distilled spirits, or used in the production thereof, the label con-taining such representation shall state in print, type, or script, substantially as conspicuous as such representation, the name and amount in percent by volume of each such ingredient, except that percentages of whisky, where stated, shall be stated as provided in § 5.39. If only a portion of the materials used is of such higher grade, then the percentage thereof that is of such higher grade shall be stated in direct conjunction with such statement, in print, type, or script, sub-stantially as conspicuous as that used in connection with such statement.

(h) Contents of bottles. Upon request of the Director or Assistant Regional Commissioner there shall be submitted to him a full and accurate statement of the contents of the bottles to which labels are to be or have been affixed.

§ 5.41 Prohibited practices.

(a) Statements on labels. Bottles containing distilled spirits, or any labels on such bottles, or any individual cover-ing, carton, or other container of such bottles used for sale at retail, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying such bottles to the con-sumer shall not contain:

(1) Any statement that is false or un-true in any particular or that, irrespec-tive of falsity, directly or by ambiguity, omission, or inference, or by the addition of irrelevant, scientific, or technical mat-ter, tends to create a misleading impres-sion. Examples of such prohibited statements are:

(i) Reproductions of medals or fac-similes of awards, when no medals or awards have been given for the par-ticular product.

(ii) The statement that the product is "100% straight whiskies," when in fact the product is less than 100 proof.

(iii) The statement that "Fine fla-vored, genuine bourbon whisky is made only in Kentucky."

(iv) Domestic products containing the statement "Furnished to His Majesty, the King of _____."

(v) "Due to our method of storage, this product ages in half the time."

(vi) "This whisky is two months old. Due to our special aging process, how-ever, it has the taste and characteristics of a much older whisky."

(vii) "This whisky is four months old. Due to our special manufacturing proc-esses, this whisky has all the character-istics of a one year old whisky."

(viii) "Distilled from a scientifically controlled fermentation under labora-tory control."

(2) Any statement that is disparaging of a competitor's products. Examples of such prohibited statements are:

(i) "Contains no neutral spirits or alcohol."

(ii) "Matured naturally—not heat treated."

(iii) "Not a compound, but a delicious distilled dry gin."

(iv) "Should not be confused with im-itations that are made from neutral spirits."

(v) "Contains no headaches."

(3) Any statement, design, device, or representation which is obscene or in-decent.

(4) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to analyses, standards, or tests, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer. Examples of such statements are:

(i) "From 20 to 30 scientific deter-minations are required for each bottle tested."

(ii) "Analyzed by State laboratories and found to be pure and free from deleterious ingredients."

(iii) "Chemical analysis shows this whisky to contain the flavoring, aroma, and other characteristics of four year old whisky," when in fact such whisky is less than 4 years old.

(iv) "Before bottling it is subjected to the most rigid tests for its taste, bouquet, and aroma, by our technical staff, signed _____, B. Ch. E."

(v) The statement that "The _____ Laboratories, recognized expert authority, tests and judges _____ products."

(vi) The statement "Tested and approved," signed by The _____ Research Institute.

(vii) The statement "Tasted and tested to assure the highest quality flavoring and freedom from deleterious ingredients."

(5) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to any guaranty, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer. Nothing in this part shall prohibit the use of an enforceable guaranty in substantially the following form: "We will refund the purchase price to the purchaser if he is in any manner dissatisfied with the contents of this package.

_____."

(Blank to be filled in with the name of the permittee making guaranty)

Examples of such statements are:

(i) "Guaranteed to consumer by _____."

(ii) "Warranted to be the best product in its price range."

(iii) "Certified to be pure and free from deleterious matter."

(iv) "Guaranteed to be ten years old."

(v) "Guaranteed to be distilled in the State of _____."

(vi) "Attested to be made by modern, scientific manufacturing processes."

(6) A trade or brand name that is the name of any living individual of public prominence, or existing private or public organization, or is a name that is in simulation or is an abbrevation thereof, or any graphic, pictorial, or emblematic representation of any such individual or organization, if the use of such name or representation is likely falsely to lead the consumer to believe that the product has been endorsed, made, or used by, or produced for, or under the supervision of, or in accordance with the specifications of, such individual or organization: Provided, That this subparagraph shall not apply to the use of the name of any person engaged in business as a distiller, rectifier, blender, or other producer, or as an importer, wholesaler, retailer, bottler, or warehouseman, of distilled spirits, nor to the use by any person of a trade or brand name that is the name of any living individual of public prominence or existing private or public organization, provided such trade or brand name was used by him or his predecessors in interest prior to August 29, 1935.

(b) Simulation of Government stamps, etc. (1) No label shall be of such design as to resemble or simulate a stamp of the United States Government or any State or foreign Government. No label, other than stamps authorized or required by this or any other Government, shall state or indicate that the distilled spirits contained in the labeled bottle are distilled, blended, made, bottled, or sold under, or in accordance with, any municipal, State, or Federal authorization, law, or regulations, unless such statement is required or specifically authorized by Federal, State, or municipal law or regulations, or is required or specifically authorized by the laws or regulations of a foreign country. If the municipal, State, or Federal government permit number is stated upon a label, it shall not be accompanied by any additional statement relating thereto.

(2) If imported distilled spirits are covered by a certificate of origin or of age issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government, the label, except where prohibited by the foreign government, may refer to such certificate or the fact of such certification, but shall not be accompanied by any additional statement relating thereto. The reference to such certificate or certification shall, in the case of Cognac, be substantially in the following form: "This product accompanied at the time of importation by an 'Acquit Regional Jaune d'Or' issued by the French Government, indicating that this grape brandy was distilled in the Cognac Region of France"; and in the case of the other distilled spirits, substantially in the following form: "This product accompanied at time of importation by a certificate issued by the _____ government (name of government) indicating that the product is _____ (class and type as required to be stated on the label), and (if label claims age) that none of the distilled spirits are of an age less than stated on this label."

(3) The words "bond", "bonded", "bottled in bond," "aged in bond," or phrases containing these or synonymous terms, shall not be used on any label or as part of the brand name of domestic distilled spirits unless such distilled spirits were in fact bottled in bond under the Bottling in Bond Act of the United States.

(4) The words "bond," "bonded," "bottled in bond," "aged in bond," or phrases containing these or synonymous terms, shall not be used on any label or as part of the brand name of imported distilled spirits unless such distilled spirits, as to proof and age, and in all other respects, meet the requirements applicable to distilled spirits bottled for domestic consumption, under the Bottling in Bond Act of the United States (26 U.S.C. 5205, 5233) and unless the laws and regulations of the country in which such distilled spirits are produced authorize the bottling of distilled spirits in bond and require or specifically authorize such distilled spirits to be so labeled. All spirits labeled as "bonded," "bottled in bond," or "aged in bond" pursuant to the provisions of this subparagraph shall bear in direct conjunction with such statement and in script, type or printing substantially as conspicuous as that used on such statement, the name of the country under whose laws and regulations such distilled spirits were so bottled.

(c) Use of word "pure." The word "pure" shall not be stated in any manner on any labels, except as part of the bona fide name of a permittee or retailer for whom the distilled spirits are bottled.

(d) Use of "double distilled" or similar terms. No gin or other distilled spirits shall be labeled as "double distilled" or "triple distilled," or any similar term.

(e) Flags, seals, coats of arms, crests, and other insignia. Labels shall not contain, in the brand name or otherwise, any statement, design, device, or pictorial representation which the Director finds relates to, or is capable of being construed as relating to, the armed forces of the United States, or the American flag, or any emblem, seal, insignia, or decoration associated with such flag or armed forces; nor shall any label contain any statement, design, device, or pictorial representation of or concerning any flag, seal, coat of arms, crest or other insignia, likely to mislead the consumer to believe that the product has been endorsed, made, or used by, or produced for, or under the supervision of, or in accordance with the specifications of the government, organization, family, or individual with whom such flag, seal, coat of arms, crest, or insignia is associated.

(f) Curative and therapeutic effects. Labels shall not contain any statement, design, or device representing that the use of any distilled spirits has curative or therapeutic effects if such statement is untrue in any particular or tends to create a misleading impression.

(g) Individual coverings and cartons. Individual coverings, cartons, or other containers of bottled distilled spirits, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying the bottle shall not contain any statement or any graphic, pictorial, or emblematic representation or other matter which is prohibited from appearing on any label or bottle of distilled spirits.

Subpart E—Requirements for Withdrawal From Customs Custody of Bottled Imported Distilled Spirits

§ 5.45 Label approval and release.

(a) Application. On or after August 15, 1936, bottled distilled spirits shall not be released from customs custody for consumption, except pursuant to procedure and form prescribed by §§ 5.45, 5.46.

(b) Certificate of label approval. No bottled distilled spirits shall be released from customs custody unless there shall have been deposited with the appropriate customs officer at the port of entry the original or a photostatic copy of a "Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649). Such certificate shall be issued by the Director upon application made on the form designated "Application for Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649), properly filled out and certified to by the importer or transferee in bond.

(c) Release. If the original or photostatic copy of the "Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649) bears the signature of the Director, then the brand or lot of bottled distilled spirits bearing labels identical with those shown thereon may be released from customs custody.

(d) Relabeling. Distilled spirits in customs custody which are not labeled in conformity with certificates of label approval issued by the Director must be relabeled prior to release, under the supervision and direction of the customs officers of the port at which such distilled spirits are located.[1]

§ 5.46 Certificates of age and origin.

(a) Scotch, Irish, and Canadian whiskies, in bottles, whether blended or unblended, imported on or after August 15, 1936, shall not be released from customs custody for consumption unless the invoice is accompanied by a certificate of origin issued by a duly authorized official of the British, Irish, or Canadian Governments, certifying (1) that the particular distilled spirits are Scotch, Irish, or Canadian whisky, as the case may be, (2) that the distilled spirits have been manufactured in compliance with the laws of the respective foreign governments regulating the manufacture of the whisky for home consumption, and (3) that the product conforms to the requirements of the Immature Spirits Act of such foreign government for spirits intended for home consumption.

(b) If the label of any Scotch, Irish, or Canadian whisky, whether blended or unblended, imported in bottles on or after August 15, 1936, contains any statement of age for Scotch or Irish whisky in excess of 3 years, or Canadian whisky in excess of 2 years, the whisky shall not be released from customs custody unless accompanied by a certificate issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government certifying that none of the distilled spirits in the bottle are of an age less than that stated on the label. The age certified shall be the period during which, after distillation and before bottling, the distilled spirits have been kept in oak containers.

(c) If the label of any rum, brandy, or cognac, imported in bottles on or after August 15, 1936, contains any statement of age, the rum, brandy, or cognac shall not be released from customs custody unless accompanied by a certificate issued by a duly authorized official of the government of the foreign country in which the rum, brandy, or cognac was produced, certifying that none of the distilled spirits in the product are of an age less than that stated on the label. The age certified shall be the period during which, after distillation and before bottling, the distilled spirits have been kept in oak containers. Cognac in bottles, imported on or after August 15, 1936, shall not be released from customs custody unless the invoice is accompanied by a certificate issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government, certifying that the product is grape brandy distilled in the Cognac region of France and entitled to be designated as "Cognac" by the laws and regulations of the French Government.

(d) Whisky (as defined in § 5.21(b)) and American type whiskies, imported on or after August 15, 1936, shall not be released from customs custody in bottles unless there is presented at the time of entry or at the time of request for release, a certificate issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government certifying:

(1) In case of straight whisky, (i) the class and type (such as straight whisky, straight rye whisky, straight bourbon whisky, etc.) thereof, (ii) the American proof at which distilled, (iii) that no neutral spirits or other whisky has been added as a part thereof or included therein, whether or not for the purpose of replacing outage, (iv) the age of the whisky, and (v) the type of container in which such age was acquired (whether new or re-used, also whether charred or uncharred);

(2) In case of whisky and the distinctive types of whisky, (i) the class and type (such as whisky, rye whisky, bourbon whisky, etc.), (ii) the American proof at which distilled, (iii) that no neutral spirits has been added as a part thereof or included therein, whether or not, for the purpose of replacing outage, (iv) the age of the whisky, and (v) the type of container in which such age was acquired (whether new or re-used, also whether charred or uncharred);

(3) In case of blended whisky, (i) the class and type (such as blended whisky, blended rye whisky, blended bourbon whisky, etc.), (ii) the percentage of straight whisky, or any distinctive type thereof, used in the blend, (iii) the American proof at which the straight whisky was distilled, (iv) the percentage of other whisky, if any, in the blend, (v) the percentage of neutral spirits, if any, in the blend, and the name of the commodity from which distilled, (vi) the age of the straight whisky and the age of the other whisky, if any, in the blend, and (vii) the type of containers in which such age or ages were acquired (whether new or re-used, also whether charred or uncharred).

(e) Distilled spirits (other than Scotch, Irish and Canadian whiskies, and Cognac) in bottles shall not be released from customs custody for consumption unless the invoice is accompanied by a certificate of origin issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government, if the issuance of such certificates with respect to such distilled spirits has been authorized by the foreign government concerned, certifying as to the identity of the distilled spirits and that the distilled spirits have been manufactured in compliance with the laws of the respective foreign government regulating the manufacture of such distilled spirits for home consumption.

Subpart F—Requirements for Approval of Labels of Domestically Bottled Distilled Spirits

§ 5.50 Certificates of label approval.

(a) No person shall bottle distilled spirits, other than distilled spirits in customs custody, or remove such spirits from his distilled spirits plant unless upon application to the Director he has obtained, and has in his possession, a "Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649), covering such distilled spirits. Such certificate of label approval shall be issued by the Director upon application made on the form designated "Application for Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649), properly filled out and certified to by the permittee.

(b) Any bottler of distilled spirits shall be exempt from the requirements of §§ 5.50–5.51 if upon application he shows to the satisfaction of the Director that the distilled spirits to be bottled by him are not to be sold, offered for sale, or shipped or delivered for shipment, or otherwise introduced in interstate or foreign commerce. A "Certificate of Exemption from Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1650) shall be issued by the Director upon application made on the form designated "Application for Certificate of Exemption from Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1648), properly filled out and certified to by the permittee.

§ 5.51 Certificates of age and origin.

(a) Scotch, Irish, and Canadian whiskies, whether blended or unblended, imported in bulk on or after August 15, 1936, and bottled in the United States, shall not be labeled as Scotch, Irish, or Canadian whiskies respectively, unless the bottler possesses a certificate of origin issued by a duly authorized official of the British, Irish, or Canadian governments, certifying (1) that the particular distilled spirits are Scotch, Irish, or Canadian whisky, as the case may be, (2) that the distilled spirits have been manufactured in compliance with the laws of the respective foreign governments regulating the manufacture of the whisky for home consumption, and (3) that the product conforms to the requirements of the Immature Spirits Act of such foreign government for spirits intended for home consumption.

(b) If any Scotch, Irish, or Canadian whisky, whether blended or unblended, is imported in bulk on or after August 15, 1936, and bottled in the United States, no statement shall appear on the label thereof representing the age of such Scotch or Irish whisky to be in excess of 3 years, or Canadian whisky in excess of 2 years, unless the permittee authorized to bottle such distilled spirits possesses a certificate for such distilled spirits issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government certifying as to age of such whisky. The age certified shall be the period during which, after distillation and before bottling, the distilled spirits have been kept in oak containers.

(c) If any rum or brandy is imported in bulk on or after August 15, 1936, and bottled in the United States, no statement of age shall appear on the labels of such rum or brandy, unless the permittee authorized to bottle such distilled spirits possesses a certificate issued by a duly authorized official of the government of the foreign country in which the rum or brandy was produced, certifying as to the age of such rum or brandy. The age certified shall be the period during which, after distillation and before bottling, the distilled spirits have been kept in oak containers. Brandy imported in bulk on or after August 15, 1936, and bottled in the United States, shall not be labeled as "Cognac" unless the permittee authorized to bottle such distilled spirits possesses a certificate issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government, certifying that the product is grape brandy distilled in the Cognac region of France and entitled to be designated as "Cognac" by the laws and regulations of the French Government.

(d) Distilled spirits imported in bulk on or after August 15, 1936, and bottled in the United States with or without taxable rectification, shall not be labeled as whisky (as defined in § 5.21(b)), or as any type of American whisky, unless the permittee authorized to bottle such distilled spirits possesses a certificate for such whisky issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government certifying:

(1) In case of straight whisky: (i) the class and type (such as straight whisky, straight rye whisky, straight bourbon whisky, etc.) thereof; (ii) the American proof at which distilled; (iii) that no neutral spirits or other whisky has been added as a part thereof or included therein, whether or not for the purpose of replacing outage; (iv) the age of the whisky; and (v) the type of container in which such age was acquired (whether new or re-used, also whether charred or uncharred);

(2) In case of whisky and the distinctive types of whisky: (i) the class and type (such as whisky, rye whisky, bourbon whisky, etc.); (ii) the American proof at which distilled; (iii) that no neutral spirts has been added as a part thereof or included therein, whether or not for the purpose of replacing outage; (iv) the age of the whisky; and (v) the type of container in which such age was acquired (whether new or re-used, also whether charred or uncharred);

(3) In case of blended whisky: (i) the class and type (such as blended whisky, blended rye whisky, blended bourbon whisky, etc.); (ii) the percentage of straight whisky, or any distinctive type thereof, used in the blend; (iii) the American proof at which the straight whisky was distilled; (iv) the percentage of other whisky, if any, in the blend; (v) the percentage of neutral spirits, if any, in the blend, and the name of the commodity from which distilled; (vi) the age of the straight whisky and the age of the other whisky, if any, in the blend; and (vii) the type of containers in which such age or ages were acquired (whether new or re-used, also whether charred or uncharred); and unless the labels are in all particulars consistent with the facts stated in the certificate.

(e) Distilled spirits (other than Scotch, Irish and Canadian whiskies, and Cognac) imported in bulk may not be bottled in the United States unless the bottler possesses a certificate of origin issued by a duly authorized official of the appropriate foreign government, if the issuance of such certificates with respect to such distilled spirits has been authorized by the foreign government concerned, certifying as to the identity of the distilled spirits and that the distilled spirits have been manufactured in compliance with the laws of the respective foreign government regulating the manufacture of such distilled spirits for home consumption.

§ 5.52 Exhibiting certificates to Government officials.

Any bottler holding an original or duplicate original of a certificate of label approval or a certificate of exemption, shall, upon demand, exhibit such certificate to a duly authorized representative of the United States Government.

§ 5.53 Photoprints.

Photoprints or other reproductions of certificates of label approval or certificates of exemption are not acceptable, for the purposes of this article, as substitutes for an original or duplicate original of a certificate of label approval, or a certificate of exemption. The Director will, upon request of the bottler, issue duplicate originals of certificates of label approval or certificates of exemption if distilled spirits under the same brand are bottled at more than one plant by the same permittee, and if the necessity for the duplicate original is shown and there is listed with the Director the name and address of the additional bottling plant where the particular label is to be used.

Subpart G—Advertising of Distilled Spirits

§ 5.60 Application.

No person engaged in business as a distiller, rectifier, importer, wholesaler, or warehouseman and bottler of distilled spirits, directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate, shall publish or disseminate or cause to be published or disseminated by radio broadcast, or in any newspaper, periodical, or other publication, or by any sign or outdoor advertisement, or any other printed or graphic matter, any advertisement of distilled spirits if such advertisement is in, or is calculated to induce sales in, interstate or foreign commerce, or is disseminated by mail, unless such advertisement is in conformity with §§ 5.60–5.64: Provided, That such sections shall not apply to outdoor advertising in place on June 18, 1935, but shall apply upon replacement, restoration, or renovation of any such advertising: And provided further, That §§ 5.60–5.64 shall not apply to the publisher of any newspaper, periodical or other publication, or radio broadcaster, unless such publisher or radio broadcaster is engaged in business as a distiller, rectifier, importer, wholesaler, or warehouseman and bottler of distilled spirits, directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate.

§ 5.61 Definitions.

As used in §§ 5.60–5.64, the term "advertisement" includes any advertisement of distilled spirits through the medium of radio broadcast; or of newspapers, periodicals, or other publications; or of any sign or outdoor advertisement; or of any other printed or graphic matter, including trade booklets, menus, and wine cards, if such advertisement is in, or is calculated to induce sales in, interstate or foreign commerce, or is disseminated by mail; except that such term shall not include:

(a) Any label affixed to any bottle of distilled spirits; or any individual covering, carton, or other container of the bottle, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying the bottle, which constitutes a part of the labeling under §§ 5.30–5.41.

(b) Any editorial or other reading matter in any periodical or newspaper for the publication of which no money or other valuable consideration is paid or promised, directly or indirectly, by any permittee.

§ 5.62 Mandatory statements.

(a) Responsible advertiser. The advertisement shall state the name and address of the permittee responsible for its publication or broadcast. Street number and name may be omitted in the address.

(b) Class and type. The advertisement shall contain a conspicuous statement of the class to which the product belongs and the type thereof corresponding with the statement of class and type which is required to appear on the label of the product.

(c) Alcoholic content. (1) The alcoholic content by proof shall be stated for distilled spirits except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) The alcoholic content in percentage by volume or by proof shall be stated for cordials and liqueurs, and gin fizzes, cocktails, highballs, bitters, and such other specialties as may be specified by the Director from time to time.

(d) Percentage of neutral spirits and name of commodity. (1) In the case of distilled spirits (other than cordials, liqueurs, and specialties) produced by blending or rectification, if neutral spirits have been used in the production thereof, there shall be stated the percentage of neutral spirits so used and the name of the commodity from which such neutral spirits have been distilled. The statement of percentage and the name of the commodity shall be made in substantially the following form: "____% neutral spirits distilled from grain"; or "___% neutral spirits distilled from cane products"; or "___% neutral spirits distilled from fruit"; or "___% grain, (cane products), (fruit), neutral spirits."

(2) In the case of neutral spirits or of gin produced by a process of continuous distillation, there shall be stated the name of the commodity from which such neutral spirits or gin has been distilled. The statement of the name of the commodity shall be made in substantially the following form: "Distilled from grain", or "Distilled from cane products", or "Distilled from fruit."

§ 5.63 Lettering.

Statements required under §§ 5.60–5.64 to appear in any written, printed, or graphic advertisement shall be in lettering or type of a size sufficient to render them both conspicuous and readily legible.

§ 5.64 Prohibited statements.

(a) Restrictions. An advertisement of distilled spirits shall not contain:

(1) Any statement that is false or misleading in any material particular.

(2) Any statement that is disparaging of a competitor's products.

(3) Any statement, design, device, or representation which is obscene or indecent.

(4) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to analyses, standards or tests, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer.

(5) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to any guaranty, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the use of an enforceable guaranty in substantially the following form: "We will refund the purchase price to the purchaser if he is in any manner dissatisfied with the contents of this package.

_____ "

(Blank to be filled in with name of the permittee making guaranty.)

(6) Any statement that the distilled spirits are distilled, blended, made, bottled, or sold under or in accordance with any municipal, State or Federal authorization, law, or regulation; and if a municipal, State or Federal permit number is stated, such permit number shall not be accompanied by any additional statement relating thereto.

(7) The words "bond", "bonded", "bottled in bond", "aged in bond", or phrases containing these or synonymous terms, unless such words or phrases appear, pursuant to §§ 5.30–5.41 upon the labels of the distilled spirits advertised, and are stated in the advertisement in the manner and form in which they are required to appear upon the label.

(8) The word "pure" except as part of the bona fide name of a permittee or a retailer for whom the distilled spirits are bottled.

(9) The terms "double distilled", "triple distilled", or any similar term.

(b) Statements inconsistent with labeling. The advertisement shall not contain any statement concerning a brand or lot of distilled spirits that is inconsistent with any statement on the labeling thereof.

(c) Statements of age. The advertisement shall not contain any statement, design, or device directly or by implication concerning age or maturity of any brand or lot of distilled spirits unless a statement of age appears on the label of the advertised product. When any such statement, design, or device concerning age or maturity is contained in any advertisement, it shall include (in direct conjunction therewith and with substantially equal conspicuousness) all parts of the statement, if any, concerning age and percentages required to be made on the label under the provisions of §§ 5.30–5.41. An advertisement for any whisky or brandy (except immature brandies) which is not required to bear a statement of age on the label or an advertisement for any rum which has been aged for not less than 4 years may, however, contain general inconspicuous age, maturity or other similar representations even though the optional age statement does not appear on the label of the advertised product and in the advertisement itself.

(d) Curative and therapeutic effects. The advertisement shall not contain any statement, design, or device representing that the use of any distilled spirits has curative or therapeutic effects, if such statement is untrue in any particular, or tends to create a misleading impression.

(e) Place of origin. The advertisement shall not represent that the distilled spirits were manufactured in or imported from a place or country other than that of their actual origin, or were produced or processed by one who was not in fact the actual producer or processor.

(f) Confusion of brands. Two or more different brands or lots of distilled spirits shall not be advertised in one advertisement (or in two or more advertisements in one issue of a periodical or newspaper, or in one piece of other written, printed, or graphic matter) if the advertisement tends to create the impression that representations made as to one brand or lot apply to the other or others, and if as to such latter the representations contravene any provision of this article or are in any respect untrue.

(g) Flags, seals, coats of arms, crests, and other insignia. No advertisement shall contain any statement, design, device, or pictorial representation of or relating to, or capable of being construed as relating to the armed forces of the United States, or of the American flag, or of any emblem, seal, insignia, or decoration associated with such flag or armed forces; nor shall any advertisement contain any statement, device, design, or pictorial representation of or concerning any flag, seal, coat of arms, crest, or other insignia, likely to mislead the consumer to believe that the product has been endorsed, made, or used by, or produced for, or under the supervision of, or in accordance with the specifications of the government, organization, family, or individual with whom such flag, seal, coat of arms, crest, or insignia is associated.

Subpart H—Standards of Fill for Bottled Distilled Spirits

§ 5.70 Application.

No person engaged in business as a distiller, rectifier, importer, wholesaler, or warehouseman and bottler, directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate, shall sell or ship or deliver for sale or shipment, or otherwise introduce in interstate or foreign commerce, or receive therein or remove from customs custody any distilled spirits in bottles unless such distilled spirits are bottled in conformity with §§ 5.70–5.74. Distilled spirits domestically bottled prior to January 1, 1935, and imported distilled spirits entered in customs bond in bottles prior to March 1, 1935, shall be regarded as being in conformity with §§ 5.70–5.74.

(a) if the bottle, or the label on the bottle, contains a conspicuous statement of the net contents thereof, and (b) if the actual capacity of the bottle is not substantially less than the capacity it appears to have upon visual examination under ordinary conditions of purchase or use.

§ 5.71 Misbranding.

Distilled spirits shall be deemed to be misbranded:

(a) If the bottle is not a standard liquor bottle as prescribed by § 5.72 for such distilled spirits.

(b) If the amount of the distilled spirits contained in the bottle does not conform to one of the standards of fill in effect therefor under § 5.73.

(c) If the bottle is in an individual carton or other container, and the carton or other container is so made or formed as to mislead purchasers as to the size of the bottle.

§ 5.72 Standard liquor bottles.

(a) General. A standard liquor bottle shall be one so made, formed and filled as not to mislead the purchaser.

(b) Size. A liquor bottle shall be held to be so filled as to mislead the purchaser if the bottle holds distilled spirits in an amount other than one of the standards of fill in effect therefor under § 5.73.

(c) Headspace. A liquor bottle of a capacity of one-half pint or more shall be held to be so filled as to mislead the purchaser if it has a headspace in excess of 8 percent of the total capacity of the bottle after closure.

(d) Design. A liquor bottle shall be held (irrespective of the correctness of the net contents specified on the label) to be so made and formed as to mislead the purchaser, if its actual capacity is substantially less than the capacity it appears to have upon visual examination under ordinary conditions of purchase or use.

§ 5.73 Standards of fill.

(a) The standards of fill for distilled spirits in liquor bottles shall be the following, subject to the tolerances allowed in this section:

(1) For all distilled spirits, whether domestically manufactured, domestically bottled, or imported:

1 gallon	1 pint
½ gallon	½ pint
1 quart	⅛ pint
⅘ quart	1/10 pint

(2) In addition, for brandy, whether domestically manufactured, domestically bottled, or imported: 1/16 pint.

(3) In addition, for Scotch and Irish whisky and Scotch and Irish type whisky, and for brandy and rum: ⅘ pint.

(b) The following tolerances shall be allowed:

(1) Discrepancies due exclusively to erors in measuring which occur in filling conducted in compliance with good commercial practice.

(2) Discrepancies due exclusively to differences in the capacity of bottles, resulting solely from unavoidable difficulties in manufacturing such bottles so as to be of uniform capacity: Provided, That no greater tolerance shall be allowed in case of bottles which, because of their design, cannot be made of approximately uniform capacity than is allowed in case of bottles which can be manufactured so as to be of approximately uniform capacity.

(3) Discrepancies in measure due exclusively to differences in atmospheric conditions in various places and which unavoidably result from the ordinary and customary exposure of alcoholic beverages in bottles to evaporation. The reasonableness of discrepancies under this paragraph shall be determined on the facts in each case.

(c) Unreasonable shortages in certain of the bottles in any shipment shall not be compensated by overages in other bottles in the same shipment.

§ 5.74 Vintage spirits, cordials and liqueurs, and specialties.

Sections 5.70–5.74 shall not apply to:

(a) Distilled spirits imported as vintage spirits under permit issued by an Assistant Regional Commissioner pursuant to 26 CFR Part 175.

(b) Cordials and liqueurs, and cocktails, highballs, gin fizzes, bitters, and such other specialties as are specified from time to time by the Director.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 5.80 Exports.

The regulations in this part shall not apply to distilled spirits for export.

§ 5.81 Applicability of other regulations.

Nothing contained in this part shall be construed as, in any manner relieving any person from conforming with the requirements of 26 CFR Part 175.

AUTHORITY: §§ 6.1 to 6.31 issued under 49 Stat. 981, as amended; 27 U.S.C. 205.

Subpart A—Scope of Regulations

§ 6.1 Inducements furnished to retailers.

The regulations in this part, issued pursuant to section 5 of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 U.S.C. 205), contain the substantive requirements relative to the furnishing of inducements to retailers of distilled spirits, wine and malt beverages. No procedural requirements are prescribed.

§ 6.2 Territorial extent.

This part applies to the several States of the United States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

Subpart B—Definitions

§ 6.10 Meaning of terms.

As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meanings ascribed in this subpart.

(a) Retailer. "Retailer" shall mean any person engaged in the sale of distilled spirits, wine or malt beverages to consumers.

(b) Retail establishment. "Retail establishment" shall mean any premises where distilled spirits, wine or malt beverages are sold or offered for sale to consumers, whether for consumption on or off the premises where sold.

(c) Industry member. "Industry member" shall mean any person engaged in business as a distiller, brewer, rectifier, blender, or other producer, or as an importer or wholesaler, of distilled spirits, wine or malt beverages, or as a bottler, or warehouseman and bottler, of distilled spirits, but shall not include an agency of a State or political subdivision thereof, or an officer or employee of such agency.

(d) Product. "Product" shall mean distilled spirits, wine or malt beverages, as defined in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(e) Other terms. Any other term defined in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and used in this part shall have the meaning assigned to it by such act.

Subpart C—Unlawful Inducements and Exceptions

UNLAWFUL INDUCEMENTS

§ 6.20 Application.

Except as provided in this part, it is unlawful for any industry member to induce, by furnishing, giving, renting, lending, or selling any equipment, fixtures, signs, supplies, money, services, or other thing of value, directly or indirectly or through an affiliate, any retailer to purchase any products from such industry member to the exclusion in whole or in part of such products sold or offered for sale by other industry members in interstate or foreign commerce, if such inducement is made in the course of interstate or foreign commerce, or if such industry member engages in the practice of using such means to such an extent as substantially to restrain or prevent transactions in interstate or foreign commerce in any such products, or if the direct effect of such inducement is to prevent, deter, hinder, or restrict other industry members from selling or offering for sale any such products to such retailer in interstate or foreign commerce: Provided, That in the case of malt beverages, this part shall apply to transactions between a retailer in any State and a brewer, importer, or wholesaler of malt beverages outside such State only to the extent that the law of such State imposes requirements similar to the requirements of section 5 (b) of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 U.S.C. 205(b)), with respect to similar transactions between a retailer in such State and a brewer, importer, or wholesaler of malt beverages in such State, as the case may be: Provided further, That this part shall not operate to exempt any person from the requirements of any State law or regulation.

EXCEPTIONS

§ 6.21 General.

An industry member may furnish to a retailer, under the conditions and within the limitations prescribed, the equipment, signs, supplies, services, or other things of value specified in §§ 6.22–6.31: Provided, That such furnishing is not conditioned directly or indirectly on the purchase of distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages.

§ 6.22 Equipment.

Tapping accessories, such as rods, vents, taps, hoses, washers, couplings, vent tongues, and check valves may be sold to a retailer and installed in his establishment if such tapping accessories are sold at a price not less than the cost thereof to the industry member selling the same, and if the price thereof is collected within 30 days of the date of sale.

§ 6.23 Inside signs: wine and malt beverages.

Signs, posters, placards, designs, devices, decorations or graphic displays, bearing advertising matter and for use in the windows or elsewhere in the interior of a retail establishment, may be given, rented, loaned, or sold to a retailer by an industry member engaged in business as a rectifier, blender, producer, bottler, importer or wholesaler, of wine, or as a brewer, importer or wholesaler, of malt beverages, if they have no value to the retailer except as advertisements and if the total value of all such materials furnished by any industry member and in use at any one time in any retail establishment does not exceed $10, including all expenses incurred directly or indirectly by any industry member in connection with the purchase, manufacture, transportation, assembly, and installation of such materials and of accessories thereto: Provided, That the industry member shall not directly or indirectly pay or credit the retailer for displaying such materials or for any expense incidental to their operation.

§ 6.23a Inside signs: distilled spirits.

Signs, posters, placards, designs, devices, decorations or graphic displays, bearing advertising matter and for use in the windows or elsewhere in the interior of a retail establishment, may be given, rented, loaned, or sold to a retailer by an industry member engaged in business as a distiller, rectifier, blender, producer, importer, wholesaler, bottler, or warehouseman and bottler, of distilled spirits, (a) if they have no value to the retailer except as advertisements, (b) if the total value of all such materials furnished by any industry member and in use in any one retail establishment at any one time does not exceed $15 in the case of materials used in window displays, or does not exceed $30 in the case of materials used elsewhere than in the windows, and (c) if the cost of installation of such materials does not exceed that which is usual and customary in that locality: Provided, That the industry member shall not directly or indirectly pay or credit the retailer for displaying such materials or for any expense incidental to their operation.

§ 6.24 Supplies.

Carbonic acid gas or ice may be sold to a retailer, if sold in accordance with the reasonable open market price thereof in the locality where sold, and if the price thereof is collected within 30 days of the date of sale.

§ 6.25 Coil cleaning service.

Coil cleaning service may be furnished, given, or sold to a retailer of malt beverages.

§ 6.26 Advertising service.

The names and addresses of retailers selling the products of any industry member may be listed in an advertisement of such industry member, if such listing is the only reference to any retailer in the advertisement and is relatively inconspicuous in relation to the advertisement as a whole.

§ 6.27 Consumer advertising specialties.

Consumer advertising specialties, such as ash trays, bottle or can openers, corkscrews, paper shopping bags, matches, printed recipes, wine lists, leaflets, blotters, post cards, and pencils, which bear advertising matter, may be furnished, given, or sold to a retailer for unconditional distribution by him to the general public, if the retailer is not paid or credited in any manner directly or indirectly for such distribution service.

§ 6.28 Retailer advertising specialties.

Retailer advertising specialties, such as trays, coasters, beer mats, menu cards, meal checks, paper napkins, foam scrapers, back bar mats, tap markers, thermometers, clocks, and calendars, which bear advertising matter, and which are primarily valuable to the retailer as point of sale advertising media, may be furnished, given, or sold to a retailer if the aggregate cost to any industry member of such retailer advertising specialties furnished, given, or sold in connection with any one retail establishment in any one calendar year does not exceed $10.

§ 6.29 Samples.

Not more than 2 gallons of any brand of malt beverages, not more than 1 pint of any brand of distilled spirits, and not more than 1 gallon of any brand of wine, may be furnished or given as a sample to a retailer who has not previously purchased that particular product: Provided, That 2 quarts of any brand of distilled spirits may be furnished or given as a sample to any agency of a State or political subdivision thereof which has not purchased that particular product.

§ 6.30 Newspaper cuts.

Newspaper cuts, mats, or engraved blocks for use in retailers' advertisements, may be furnished, given, rented, loaned, or sold by an industry member to a retailer selling his products.

§ 6.31 Merchandise.

Merchandise, such as groceries and drugs, may be sold to a retailer, without limit as to quantity or value, by an industry member who is also engaged in business as a bona fide vendor of such merchandise, if such merchandise is sold in accordance with the reasonable open market price thereof in the locality where sold, and if such merchandise is not sold in combination with distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages and is itemized separately on the industry member's invoices and other records: Provided, That equipment, fixtures, signs, supplies, and consumer and retailer advertising specialties may be furnished only as provided elsewhere in this part.

§ 7.2 Territorial extent.

This part applies to the several States of the United States, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Subpart B—Definitions

§ 7.10 Meaning of terms.

As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meaning ascribed in this subpart.

(a) Act. "Act" means the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(b) Assistant Regional Commissioner. "Assistant Regional Commissioner" shall mean the assistant regional commissioner, alcohol and tobacco tax, who is responsible to and functions under the direction and supervision of the Regional Commissioner.

(c) Director. "Director" shall mean the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C.

(d) Malt beverage. "Malt beverage" means a beverage made by the alcoholic fermentation of an infusion or decoction, or combination of both, in potable brewing water, of malted barley with hops, or their parts, or their products, and with or without other malted cereals, and with or without the addition of unmalted or prepared cereals, other carbohydrates or products prepared therefrom, and with or without the addition of carbon dioxide, and with or without other wholesome products suitable for human food consumption.

(e) Container. "Container" means any can, bottle, barrel, keg, or other closed receptacle, irrespective of size or of the material from which made, for use for the sale of malt beverages at retail. The term "bottler" means any person who places malt beverages in containers of a capacity of 1 gallon or less; and the term "packer" means any person who places malt beverages in containers of a capacity in excess of 1 gallon.

(f) Gallon. "Gallon" means United States gallon of 231 cubic inches of malt beverages at 39.2° F. (4° C.). All other liquid measures used are subdivisions of the gallon as so defined.

(g) Brand label. "Brand label" means the label carrying, in the usual distinctive design, the brand name of the malt beverage.

(h) United States. "United States" means the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia; the term "State" includes a Territory and the District of Columbia; and the term "Territory" means Puerto Rico.

(i) Interstate commerce. "Interstate or foreign commerce" means commerce between any State and any place outside thereof, or commerce within any Territory or the District of Columbia, or between points within the same State but through any place outside thereof.

(j) Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, joint-stock company, business trust, association, corporation, or other form of business enterprise, including a receiver, trustee, or liquidating agent, and including an officer or employee of any agency of a State or political subdivision thereof.

(k) Any other term used. Any other term defined in the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and used in this part shall have the same meaning assigned to it by such act.

Subpart C—Labeling Requirements for Malt Beverages

§ 7.20 General.

(a) Application. Sections 7.20–7.29 shall apply to malt beverages sold or shipped or delivered for shipment, or otherwise introduced into or received in any State from any place outside thereof, only to the extent that the law of such State imposes similar requirements with respect to the labeling of malt beverages not sold or shipped or delivered for shipment or otherwise introduced into or received in such State from any place outside thereof.

(b) Marking, branding, and labeling. No person engaged in business as a brewer, wholesaler, or importer of malt beverages, directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate, shall sell or ship, or deliver for sale or shipment, or otherwise introduce in interstate or foreign commerce, or receive therein, or remove from customs custody any malt beverages in containers unless such malt beverages are packaged, and such packages are marked, branded, and labeled in conformity with §§ 7.20–7.29. Malt beverages domestically bottled or packed prior to December 15, 1936, and imported malt beverages entered in customs bond in containers prior to that date shall be regarded as being packaged, marked, branded, and labeled in accordance with §§ 7.20–7.29, if the labels on such malt beverages (1) bear all the mandatory label information required by § 7.22, even though such information is not set forth in the manner and form as required by § 7.22 and other sections of this part referred to therein, and (2) bear no statements, designs, or devices which are false or misleading.

(c) Alteration of labels. (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to alter, mutilate, destroy, obliterate, or remove any mark, brand, or label upon malt beverages held for sale in interstate or foreign commerce or after shipment therein, except as authorized by Federal law: Provided, That the Assistant Regional Commissioner may, upon written application, permit additional labeling or relabeling of malt beverages in containers if, in his judgment, the facts show that such additional labeling or relabeling is for the purpose of compliance with the requirements of §§ 7.20–7.29 or of State law.

(2) Application for permission to relabel shall be accompanied by two complete sets of the old labels and two complete sets of any proposed labels, together with a statement of the reasons for relabeling, the quantity and the location of the malt beverages, and the name and address of the person by whom they will be relabeled.

§ 7.21 Misbranding.

Malt beverages in containers shall be deemed to be misbranded:

(a) If the container fails to bear on it a brand label (or a brand label and other permitted labels) containing the mandatory label information as required by §§ 7.20–7.29 and conforming to the general requirements specified in this part.

(b) If the container, cap, or any label on the container, or any carton, case, or other covering of the container used for sale at retail, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying the container to the consumer buyer contains any statement, design, device, or graphic, pictorial, or emblematic representation that is prohibited by §§ 7.20–7.29.

(c) If the container has blown, branded, or burned therein the name or other distinguishing mark of any person engaged in business as a brewer, wholesaler, bottler, or importer, of malt beverages, or of any other person, except the person whose name is required to appear on the brand label.

§ 7.22 Mandatory label information.

There shall be stated:

(a) On the brand label:

(1) Brand name, in accordance with § 7.23.

(2) Class, in accordance with § 7.24.

(3) Name and address (except when branded or burned in the container) in accordance with § 7.25, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(4) Net contents (except when blown, branded, or burned, in the container) in accordance with § 7.27.

(b) On the brand label or on a separate label (back or front):

(1) In the case of imported malt beverages, name and address of importer, in accordance with § 7.25.

(2) In the case of malt beverages bottled or packed for the holder of a permit or a retailer, the name and address of the bottler or packer, in accordance with § 7.25.

(3) Alcoholic content, when required by State law, in accordance with § 7.26.

§ 7.23 Brand names.

(a) General. The product shall bear a brand name, except that if not sold under a brand name, then the name of the person required to appear on the brand label shall be deemed a brand name for the purpose of this part.

(b) Misleading brand names. No label shall contain any brand name, which, standing alone, or in association with other printed or graphic matter, creates any impression or inference as to the age, origin, identity, or other characteristics of the product unless the Director finds that such brand name, either when qualified by the word "brand" or when not so qualified, conveys no erroneous impressions as to the age, origin, identity, or other characteristics of the product.

(c) Trade name of foreign origin. This section shall not operate to prohibit the use by any person of any trade name or brand of foreign origin not effectively registered in the United States Patent Office on August 29, 1935, which has been used by such person or his predecessors in the United States for a period of at least 5 years immediately preceding August 29, 1935: Provided, That if such trade name or brand is used, the designation of the product shall be qualified by the name of the locality in the United States in which produced, and such qualification shall be in script, type, or printing as conspicuous as the trade name or brand.

§ 7.24 Class and type.

(a) The class of the malt beverage shall be stated and, if desired, the type thereof may be stated. Statements of class and type shall conform to the designation of the product as known to the trade. If the product is not known to the trade under a particular designation, a distinctive or fanciful name, together with an adequate and truthful statement of the composition of the product, shall be stated, and such statement shall be deemed to be a statement of class and type for the purposes of this part.

(b) No product shall be designated as "half and half" unless it is in fact composed of equal parts of two classes of malt beverages the names of which are conspicuously stated in conjunction with the designation "half and half".

(c) No product containing less than one-half of 1 percent of alcohol by volume shall bear the class designations "beer", "lager beer", "lager", "ale", "porter", or "stout", or any other class or type designation commonly applied to malt beverages containing one-half of 1 percent or more of alcohol by volume.

(d) No product other than a malt beverage fermented at comparatively high temperature, possessing the characteristics generally attributed to "ale," "porter," or "stout" and produced without the use of coloring or flavoring materials (other than those recognized in standard brewing practices) shall bear any of these class designations.

(e) Geographical names for distinctive types of malt beverages (other than names found by the Director under paragraph (f) of this section to have become generic) shall not be applied to malt beverages produced in any place other than the particular region indicated by the name unless (1) in direct conjunction with the name there appears the word "type" or the word "American," or some other statement indicating the true place of production in lettering substantially as conspicuous as such name, and (2) the malt beverages to which the name is applied conform to the type so designated. The following are examples of distinctive types of beer with geographical names that have not become generic: Dortmund, Dortmunder, Vienna, Wein, Weiner, Bavarian, Munich, Munchner, Salvator, Kulmbacher, Wurtzburger, Pilsen (Pilsener and Pilsner): Provided, That notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, beer which is produced in the United States may be designated as "Pilsen," "Pilsener," or "Pilsner" without further modification, if it conforms to such type.

(f) Only such geographical names for distinctive types of malt beverages as the Director finds have by usage and common knowledge lost their geographical significance to such an extent that they have become generic shall be deemed to have become generic, e.g. India Pale Ale.

(g) Except as provided in § 7.23(b), geographical names that are not names for distinctive types of malt beverages shall not be applied to malt beverages produced in any place other than the particular place or region indicated in the name.

§ 7.25 Name and address.

(a) Domestic malt beverages. On labels of containers of domestic malt beverages there shall be stated the name of the bottler or packer and the place where bottled or packed. If such malt beverages are bottled or packed for a person other than the actual bottler or packer there may be stated in addition to the name and address of the bottler or packer (but not in lieu thereof), the name and address of such other person immediately preceded by the words "bottled for," "distributed by," or some other similar appropriate phrase.

(b) Imported malt beverages. On labels of containers of imported malt beverages, there shall be stated the words "imported by," or a singular appropriate phrase, and immediately thereafter the name of the permittee who is the importer, or exclusive agent, or sole distributor, or other person responsible for the importation, together with the principal place of business in the United States of such person. In addition there may, but need not, be stated unless required by State or foreign law or regulation the name and principal place of business of the foreign manufacturer, bottler, packer, or shipper.

(c) Post-office address. The "place" stated shall be the post-office address, except that the street address may be omitted. No additional places or addresses shall be stated for the same person, unless (1) such person is actively engaged in the conduct of an additional bona fide and actual malt beverage business at such additional place or address, and (2) the label also contains, in direct conjunction therewith, appropriate descriptive material indicating the function occurring at such additional place or address in connection with the particular malt beverage.

§ 7.26 Alcoholic content.

The alcoholic content and the percentage and quantity of the original extract shall not be stated unless required by State law. When alcoholic content is required to be stated, but the manner of statement is not specified in the State law, it shall be stated in percentage of alcohol by weight or by volume, and not by proof or by maximums or minimums. Otherwise the manner of statement shall be as specified in the State law.

§ 7.27 Net contents.

(a) Net contents shall be stated as follows:

(1) If less than 1 pint, in fluid ounces, or fractions of a pint.

(2) If 1 pint, 1 quart, or 1 gallon, the net contents shall be so stated.

(3) If more than 1 pint, but less than 1 quart, the net contents shall be stated in fractions of a quart, or in pints and fluid ounces.

(4) If more than 1 quart, but less than 1 gallon, the net contents shall be stated in fractions of a gallon, or in quarts, pints, and fluid ounces.

(5) If more than 1 gallon, the net contents shall be stated in gallons and fractions thereof.

(b) All fractions shall be expressed in their lowest denominations.

(c) The net contents need not be stated on any label if the net contents are displayed by having the same blown, branded, or burned in the container in letters or figures in such manner as to be plainly legible under ordinary circumstances and such statement is not obscured in any manner in whole or in part.

§ 7.28 General requirements.

(a) Contrasting background. All labels shall be so designed that all statements thereon required by §§ 7.20–7.29 are readily legible under ordinary conditions, and all such statements shall be on a contrasting background.

(b) Size of type. Except as to statements of alcoholic content, all statements required on labels by §§ 7.20–7.29 shall be in readily legible script, type, or printing not smaller than 8-point Gothic caps. If contained among other descriptive or explanatory reading matter, the script, type, or printing of all required material shall be of a size substantially more conspicuous than such other descriptive or explanatory reading matter. All portions of any statement of alcoholic content shall be of the same size and kind of lettering and of equally conspicuous color, and such lettering shall not be larger than 8-point Gothic caps, except when otherwise required by State law.

(c) English language. All information, other than the brand name, required by §§ 7.20–7.29 to be stated on labels shall be in the English language. Additional statements in foreign languages may be made, if no such statements in any way conflict with, or are contradictory to, the requirements of §§ 7.20–7.29. Labels on containers of malt beverages packaged for consumption within Puerto Rico may, if desired, state the information required by §§ 7.20–7.29 solely in the Spanish language, in lieu of the English language, except that the net contents shall also be stated in the English language.

(d) Labels firmly affixed. All labels shall be affixed to containers of malt beverages in such manner that they cannot be removed without thorough application of water or other solvents.

(e) Additional information. Labels may contain information other than the mandatory label information required by §§ 7.20–7.29, provided such information complies with the requirements of §§ 7.20–7.29, and does not conflict with, nor in any manner qualify, statements required by any regulation promulgated under the act.

§ 7.29 Prohibited practices.

(a) Statements on labels. Containers of malt beverages, or any labels on such containers, or any carton, case, or individual covering of such containers, used for sale at retail, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying such containers to the consumer shall not contain:

(1) Any statement that is false or untrue in any particular, or that, irrespective of falsity, directly or by ambiguity, omission, or inference, or by the addition of irrelevant, scientific, or technical matter tends to create a misleading impression.

(2) Any statement that is disparaging of a competitor's products.

(3) Any statement, design, device, or representation which is obscene or indecent.

(4) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to analyses, standards, or tests, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer.

(5) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to any guaranty, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer.[1]

(6) A trade or brand name that is the name of any living individual of public prominence, or existing private or public organization, or is a name that is in simulation or is an abbreviation thereof, or any graphic, pictorial, or emblematic representation of any such individual or organization, if the use of such name or representation is likely falsely to lead the consumer to believe that the product has been endorsed, made, or used by, or produced for, or under the supervision of, or in accordance with the specifications of, such individual or organization: Provided, That this paragraph shall not apply to the use of the name of any person engaged in business as a producer, importer, bottler, packer, wholesaler, retailer, or warehouseman, of malt beverages, nor to the use by any person of a trade or brand name that is the name of any living individual of public prominence, or existing private or public organization, provided such trade or brand name was used by him or his predecessors in interest prior to August 29, 1935.

(b) Simulation of Government stamps. No label shall be of such design as to resemble or simulate a stamp of the United States Government or of any State or foreign government. No label, other than stamps authorized or required by the United States Government or any State or foreign government, shall state or indicate that the malt beverage contained in the labeled container is brewed, made, bottled, packed, labeled, or sold under, or in accordance with, any municipal, State, Federal, or foreign government authorization, law, or regula-

[1] Under (5) the Director has permitted the use of statements in substantially the following form: "We will refund the purchase price to the purchaser if he is in any manner dissatisfied with the contents of this package.

(Name of the permittee making statement)"

tion, unless such statement is required or specifically authorized by Federal, State, or municipal, law or regulation, or is required or specifically authorized by the laws or regulations of the foreign country in which such malt beverages were produced. If the municipal or State government permit number is stated upon a label, it shall not be accompanied by an additional statement relating thereto, unless required by State law.

(c) Use of word "bonded", etc. The words "bonded", "bottled in bond", "aged in bond", "bonded age", "bottled under customs supervision", or phrases containing these or synonymous terms which imply governmental supervision over production, bottling, or packing, shall not be used on any label for malt beverages.

(d) Flags, seals, coats of arms, crests, and other insignia. Labels shall not contain, in the brand name or otherwise, any statement, design, device, or pictorial representation which the Director finds relates to, or is capable of being construed as relating to, the armed forces of the United States, or the American flag, or any emblem, seal, insignia, or decoration associated with such flag or armed forces; nor shall any label contain any statement, design, device, or pictorial representation of or concerning any flag, seal, coat of arms, crest or other insignia, likely to mislead the consumer to believe that the product has been endorsed, made, or used by, or produced for, or under the supervision of, or in accordance with the specifications of the government, organization, family, or individual with whom such flag, seal, coat of arms, crest, or insignia is associated.

(e) Curative and therapeutic effects. Labels shall not contain any statement, design, or device representing that the use of any malt beverage has curative or therapeutic effects, if such statement is untrue in any particular or tends to create a misleading impression.

(f) Use of words "strong", "full strength", and similar words. Labels shall not contain the words "strong", "full strength", "extra strength", "high test", "high proof", "pre-war strength", "full oldtime alcoholic strength", or similar words or statements, likely to be considered as statements of alcoholic content, except where required by State law.

(g) Use of numerals. Labels shall not contain any statements, designs, or devices whether in the form of numerals, letters, characters, figures, or otherwise, which are likely to be considered as statements of alcoholic content, unless required by State law.

(h) Coverings, cartons, or cases. Individual coverings, cartons, cases, or other wrappers of containers of malt beverages, used for sale at retail, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying the container shall not contain any statement or any graphic, pictorial, or emblematic representation, or other matter, which is prohibited from appearing on any label or container of malt beverages.

Subpart D—Requirements for Withdrawal of Imported Malt Beverages From Customs Custody

§ 7.30 Application.

Sections 7.30 and 7.31 shall apply to withdrawals of malt beverages from customs custody only in the event that the laws or regulations of the State in which such malt beverages are withdrawn for consumption require that all malt beverages sold or otherwise disposed of in such State be labeled in conformity with the requirements of §§ 7.20–7.29.

§ 7.31 Label approval and release.

(a) Application. On or after December 15, 1936, imported malt beverages shall not be released from customs custody for consumption, except pursuant to the procedure and forms prescribed by §§ 7.30 and 7.31.

(b) Certificate of label approval. No imported malt beverages shall be released from customs custody unless there shall have been deposited with the appropriate customs officer at the port of entry the original or a photostatic copy of a "Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649). Such certificate shall be issued by the Director upon application made on the form designated "Application for Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649), properly filled out and certified to by the importer or transferee in bond.

(c) Release. If the original or photostatic copy of the "Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649) bears the signature of the Director, then the brand or lot of imported malt beverages bearing labels identical with those shown thereon may be released from customs custody.

(d) Relabeling. Imported malt beverages in customs custody, which are not labeled in conformity with certificates of label approval issued by the Director, must be relabeled, prior to release, under the supervision and direction of the customs officers of the port at which such malt beverages are located.[2]

Subpart E—Requirements for Approval of Labels of Malt Beverages Domestically Bottled or Packed

§ 7.40 Application.

Sections 7.40–7.42 shall apply only to persons bottling or packing malt beverages (other than malt beverages in customs custody) for shipment, or delivery for sale or shipment, into a State, the laws or regulations of which require that all malt beverages sold or otherwise disposed of in such State be labeled in conformity with the requirements of §§ 7.20–7.29.

§ 7.41 Certificates of label approval.

No person shall bottle or pack malt beverages, or remove such malt beverages from the plant where bottled or packed, unless upon application to the Director, he has obtained, and has in his possession, a "Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Act" (Form 1649) covering such malt beverages. Such certificate of label approval shall be issued by the Director upon application made on the form designated "Application for Certificate of Label Approval under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act" (Form 1649), properly filled out and certified to by the applicant.[2]

§ 7.42 Exhibiting certificates to Government officials.

Any bottler or packer holding an original or duplicate original of a certificate of label approval shall, upon demand, exhibit such certificate to a duly authorized representative of the United States Government or any duly authorized representative of a State or political subdivision thereof.

Subpart F—Advertising of Malt Beverages

§ 7.50 Application.

No person engaged in business as a brewer, wholesaler, or importer, of malt beverages, directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate, shall publish or disseminate, or cause to be published or disseminated by radio broadcast, or in any newspaper, periodical, or other publication, or by any sign or outdoor advertisement, or any other printed or graphic matter any advertisement of malt beverages if such advertisement is in, or is calculated to induce sales in interstate or foreign commerce, or is disseminated by mail, unless such advertisement is in conformity with §§ 7.50–7.54: Provided, That §§ 7.50–7.54 shall not apply to outdoor advertising in place on June 18, 1935, but shall apply upon replacement, restoration, or renovation of any such advertising: And provided further, That §§ 7.50–7.54 shall apply to advertisements of malt beverages intended to be sold or shipped or delivered for shipment, or otherwise introduced into or received in any State from any place outside thereof, only to the extent that the laws of such State impose similar requirements with respect to advertisements of malt beverages manufactured and sold or otherwise disposed of in such State: And provided further, That §§ 7.50–7.54 shall not apply to the publisher of any newspaper, periodical, or other publication, or radio broadcaster, unless such publisher or radio broadcaster is engaged in business as a brewer, wholesaler, bottler, or importer, of malt beverages, directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate.

§ 7.51 Definitions.

As used in §§ 7.50–7.54 the term "advertisement" includes any advertisement of malt beverages through the medium of radio broadcast; or of newspapers, periodicals, or other publications; or of any sign or outdoor advertisement; or of any other printed or graphic matter, including trade booklets, menus, and wine cards, if such advertisement is in, or is calculated to induce sales in, interstate or foreign commerce; or is disseminated by mail; except that such term shall not include:

(a) Any label affixed to any container of malt beverages; or any coverings, cartons or cases of containers of malt beverages used for sale at retail, or any written, printed, graphic, or other matter accompanying the container which constitutes a part of the labeling under §§ 7.20–7.29.

(b) Any editorial or other reading matter in any periodical or publication or newspaper for the publication of which no money or other valuable consideration is paid or promised, directly or indirectly, by any person engaged in business, as a brewer, wholesaler, or importer of malt beverages.

§ 7.52 Mandatory statements.

(a) Responsible advertiser. The advertisement shall state the name and address of the brewer, bottler, packer, wholesaler, or importer responsible for its publication or broadcast. Street number and name may be omitted in the address.

(b) Class. The advertisement shall contain a conspicuous statement of the class to which the product belongs, corresponding to the statement of class which is required to appear on the label of the product.

§ 7.53 Legibility of requirements.

Statements required under §§ 7.50–7.54 to appear in any written, printed, or graphic advertisement shall be in lettering or type of a size sufficient to render them both conspicuous and readily legible.

§ 7.54 Prohibited statements.

(a) General prohibition. An advertisement of malt beverages shall not contain:

(1) Any statement that is false or misleading in any material particular.

(2) Any statement that is disparaging of a competitor's products.

(3) Any statement, design, device, or representation which is obscene or indecent.

(4) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to analyses, standards, or tests, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer.

(5) Any statement, design, device, or representation of or relating to any guaranty, irrespective of falsity, which the Director finds to be likely to mislead the consumer.

(6) Any statement that the malt beverages are brewed, made, bottled, packed, labeled, or sold under, or in accordance with, any municipal, State, or Federal authorization, law, or regulation; and if a municipal or State permit number is stated, the permit number shall not be accompanied by any additional statement relating thereto.

(7) The words "bonded", "bottled in bond", "aged in bond", "bonded age", "bottled under customs supervision", or phrases containing these or synonymous terms which imply governmental supervision over production, bottling, or packing.

(b) Statements inconsistent with labeling. The advertisement shall not contain any statement concerning a brand or lot of malt beverages that is inconsistent with any statement on the labeling thereof.

(c) Alcoholic content. The advertisement shall not contain any statement of alcoholic content, or any statement of the percentage and quantity of the original extract, or any numerals, letters, characters, or figures, likely to be considered as designations of alcoholic content.

(d) Class. (1) No product containing less than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume shall be designated in any advertisement as "beer", "lager beer", "lager", "ale", "porter", or "stout", or by any other class or type designation commonly applied to fermented malt beverages containing one-half of 1 per centum or more of alcohol by volume.

(2) No product other than a malt beverage fermented at comparatively high temperature, possessing the characteristics generally attributed to "ale," "porter," or "stout" and produced without the use of coloring or flavoring materials (other than those recognized in standard brewing practices) shall be designated in any advertisement by any of these class designations.

(e) Curative and therapeutic effects. The advertisement shall not contain any statement, design, or device representing that the use of any malt beverage has curative or therapeutic effects, if such statement is untrue in any particular, or tends to create a misleading impression.

(f) Confusion of brands. Two or more different brands or lots of malt beverages shall not be advertised in one advertisement (or in two or more advertisements in one issue of a periodical or a newspaper or in one piece of other written, printed, or graphic matter) if the advertisement tends to create the impression that representations made as to one brand or lot apply to the other or others, and if as to such latter the representations contravene any provision of §§ 7.50–7.54 or are in any respect untrue.

(g) Flags, seals, coats of arms, crests, and other insignia. No advertisement shall contain any statement, design, device, or pictorial representation of or relating to, or capable of being construed as relating to the armed forces of the United States, or of the American flag, or of any emblem, seal, insignia, or decoration associated with such flag or armed forces; nor shall any advertisement contain any statement, device, design, or pictorial representation of or concerning any flag, seal, coat of arms, crest, or other insignia, likely to mislead the consumer to believe that the product has been endorsed, made, or used by, or produced for, or under the supervision of, or in accordance with the specifications of the government, organization, family, or individual with whom such flag, seal, coat of arms, crest, or insignia is associated.

Subpart G—General Provisions

§ 7.60 Exports.

This part shall not apply to malt beverages exported in bond.

[2] Copies of Form 1649 may be secured from the Assistant Regional Commissioners, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax.

PART 8—CREDIT PERIOD TO BE EXTENDED TO RETAILERS OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

Subpart A—Scope

Sec.
8.1 General.

Subpart B—Definitions

8.10 Meaning of terms.

Subpart C—Prohibited Extensions of Credit

8.20 Statutory provision.
8.21 Circumstances in which extension prohibited.
8.22 Calculation of period.

AUTHORITY: §§ 8.1 to 8.22 issued under 49 Stat. 981, as amended; 27 U.S.C. 205.

Subpart A—Scope

§ 8.1 General.

The regulations in this part specify circumstances in which the extension of credit is prohibited. No procedural requirements are prescribed.

Subpart B—Definitions

§ 8.10 Meaning of terms.

As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meaning ascribed in this part.

(a) Act. "Act" means the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(b) Distilled spirits. "Distilled spirits" mean ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, spirits of wine, whisky, rum, brandy, gin, and other distilled spirits, including all dilutions and mixtures thereof, for non-industrial use.

(c) Wine. "Wine" means (1) wine as defined in section 610 and section 617 of the Revenue Act of 1918, (U.S.C., title 26, secs. 441 and 444) as now in force or hereafter amended, and (2) other alcoholic beverages not so defined, but made in the manner of wine, including sparkling and carbonated wine, wine made from condensed grape must, wine made from other agricultural products than the juice of sound, ripe grapes, imitation wine compounds sold as wine, vermouth, cider, perry and sake; in each instance only if containing not less than 7 per centum and not more than 24 per centum of alcohol by volume, and if for non-industrial use.

(d) Malt beverage. "Malt beverage" means a beverage made by the alcoholic fermentation of an infusion or decoction, or combination of both, in potable brewing water, of malted barley with hops, or their parts, or their products, and with or without other malted cereals, and with or without the addition of unmalted or prepared cereals, other carbohydrates or products prepared therefrom, and with or without the addition of carbon dioxide, and with or without other wholesome products suitable for human food consumption.

Subpart C—Prohibited Extensions of Credit

§ 8.20 Statutory provision.

Pursuant to clause 6, subsection (b), section 5, Federal Alcohol Administration Act (27 U.S.C. 205(b)(6)), the credit period usual and customary to the industry is hereby ascertained to be thirty days from date of delivery in the case of all sales of distilled spirits, wine, and malt beverages.

§ 8.21 Circumstances in which extension prohibited.

The extension of credit to a retailer, by any person engaged in business as a distiller, brewer, rectifier, blender, or other producer, or as an importer or wholesaler, of distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages, or as a bottler, or warehouseman and bottler, of distilled spirits, for a period of time in excess of thirty days from date of delivery, is prohibited when the extension of such credit induces any retailer engaged in the sale of distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages to purchase any such products from such person to the exclusion in whole or in part of distilled spirits, wine, or malt beverages sold or offered for sale by other persons in interstate or foreign commerce, if such inducement is made in the course of interstate or foreign commerce, or if such person engages in the practice of using such means to such an extent as to substantially restrict or prevent transactions in interstate or foreign commerce in any such products, or if the direct effect of such inducement is to prevent, deter, hinder or restrict other persons from selling or offering for sale any such products to such retailer in interstate or foreign commerce.

§ 8.22 Calculation of period.

For the purpose of the regulations in this part, the period of credit shall be calculated as the time elapsing between the date of delivery of the merchandise and the date of full legal discharge of the retailer, through the payment of cash or its equivalent, from all indebtedness arising from the transaction.

[SEAL] DANA LATHAM,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: December 22, 1960.

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER B—SUGAR REQUIREMENTS AND QUOTAS

PART 819—REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO NON-QUOTA PURCHASE SUGAR FOR THE THREE-MONTH PERIOD ENDING MARCH 31, 1961

Sec.
819.1 Basis and purpose, and persons affected.
819.2 Definitions.
819.3 Non-quota purchases of sugar authorized.
819.4 Source of non-quota purchase sugar.
819.5 Requirements relating to importing non-quota purchase sugar.
819.6 Application by importer.
819.7 Release by a Collector of Customs.
819.8 Specific authorization for release.
819.9 Determination of quantities and time of effect.
819.10 Records and reports.
819.11 Delegation of authority.

AUTHORITY: §§ 819.1 to 819.11 issued under sec. 403, 61 Stat. 922, as amended, 933, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1101, P.L. 86-592, approved July 6, 1960. Presidential Proclamation 3383 (25 F.R. 13131)

§ 819.1 Basis and purpose, and persons affected.

(a) The regulations in this Part are issued under the authority contained in the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 922, as amended), and as further amended by Public Law 86-592, approved July 6, 1960, and the authority delegated under Presidential Proclamation 3383, (25 F.R. 13131). These regulations establish and set forth for the three-month period ending March 31, 1961, (1) the amount of non-quota purchase sugar which may be imported into the continental United States (including Alaska) for consumption therein from all foreign countries and (2) the procedures applicable to importing such sugar.

(b) Persons affected by the provisions of this part include importers, mainland refiners, shipping companies engaged in the transportation of sugar to ports in the continental United States, and persons otherwise engaged in the movement of sugar in interstate or foreign commerce.

(c) It is found that under the prevailing circumstances it is in the National interest to provide that the quantity of nonquota sugar hereby authorized for purchase from the Dominican Republic should be purchased at prices which are lower than those currently prevailing for sugar for the United States market. Accordingly, provision is made for a fee per pound, raw value, to be paid to the United States Government on all non-quota purchase sugar imported from the Dominican Republic. Provision is made for the payment of the fee by requiring that any person who applies for authorization to import non-quota sugar from the Dominican Republic must accompany his application with an initial payment which is equal to the estimated raw value pounds equivalent of the sugar to be imported multiplied by the effective fee. For the purpose of computing this initial payment, provision is made for estimating the raw value pounds equivalent of the sugar by multiplying the weight of the sugar to be imported as shown on the application by the factor 1.04, which is the factor applicable for determining the raw value equivalent of sugar polarizing approximately 98.2 degrees. Final settlement of the amount due the United States Government on each cargo or shipment of sugar is to be based on the raw value equivalent of the sugar imported pursuant to each authorization issued under § 819.8 determined as provided in Title I of the act on the basis of weights and tests of the sugar determined pursuant to Part 810 of this subchapter and reported in accordance with § 819.6(h).

(d) All of the countries named in § 819.4 are members of the International Sugar Agreement except Colombia and Ecuador. Recently these countries initiated action to become members of the International Sugar Agreement. Under the provisions of these regulations the quantity of non-quota sugar authorized for purchase from Colombia and Ecuador may be authorized for importation upon receipt of notice that they have become a participant in the International Sugar Agreement. Provision is made in Part 811 of this chapter for the importation of 21 short tons, raw value, of sugar from non-participating countries as a group which is the maximum quantity permitted to be imported from such countries pursuant to the International Sugar Agreement. Article 7 of the Agreement limits imports in any year from non-participating countries as a group to the total quantity imported from such countries as a group in any one of the years 1951, 1952, or 1953.

(e) To assure an orderly and adequate flow of sugar throughout the three-month period ending March 31, 1961, including the early days of January 1961, the persons who purchase and import sugar for continental United States consumption must make arrangements sufficiently in advance of the beginning of the year, not only to permit the physical movement of the sugar from the various countries and areas of origin to the United States, which requires from 1 to 7 weeks, but also to permit contracting for purchase of the sugar, contracting for ocean freight, loading time and other related arrangements. It is necessary that the persons who import non-quota sugar know the exact amounts which will be authorized for purchase and importation from the individual countries during the three-month period ending March 31, 1961, in order to make such arrangements in conformity therewith. It is, therefore, essential that the exact quantities of non-quota sugar which will be authorized for purchase and importation during the three-month period ending March 31, 1961, be established immediately so that persons who sell, purchase and import such sugar will have adequate foreknowledge to permit these necessary arrangements for purchase and shipment of non-quota sugar and provide for an orderly flow of such sugar in the early days of the year and throughout the three-month period. Accordingly, it is hereby found and determined that compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and this regulation shall become effective on January 1, 1961.

§ 819.2 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(a) The term "act" means the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 922, as amended).

(b) The term "person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, estate, trust, or other business enterprise or legal entity, and, wherever applicable, any unit, instrumentality, or agency of a government, domestic or foreign.

(c) The term "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture.

(d) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any officer or employee of the Department to whom the Secretary has lawfully delegated the authority or to whom authority may hereafter be delegated to act in his stead.

(e) The term "Sugar Division" means the Sugar Division of the Commodity Stabilization Service, of the Department, Washington 25, D.C., or any other organizational unit within the Department to which administration of the Sugar Act may hereafter be delegated.

(f) The term "Collector" means the Collector of Customs, U.S. Bureau of Customs, for the District in which the port of entry is located or any officer of the Bureau of Customs designated to act in his stead.

(g) The terms "import," "importation" and "importing" mean the act of bringing sugar into the continental United States (including Alaska) from a foreign country.

(h) The term "importer" means any person who brings or imports sugar into the continental United States (including Alaska), including but not limited to the owner, consignor, consignee, transferee or purchaser of such sugar or the broker acting on behalf of such person.

(i) The term "refiner" means any person who subjects offshore sugar to processes as provided in Part 810 of this subchapter.

(j) The terms "sugars," "sugar," and "raw sugar" have the meanings ascribed to each in section 101 (b), (c), and (d), respectively, of the act subject to the provisions of Part 810 of this subchapter which are hereby made applicable to non-quota purchase sugar.

(k) The term "non-quota purchase sugar" means sugar purchased pursuant to the provisions of section 408(b) of the act.

§ 819.3 Non-quota purchases of sugar authorized.

Non-quota purchases of sugar, in accordance with section 408(b) of the act, are authorized to be made in accordance with the provisions of this part. Such non-quota purchases must be made after July 6, 1960, from the producer of such sugar or from a citizen, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity, or Government agency, of the country in which the sugar was produced, for shipment to the United States, or after shipment to the United States. Pursuant to section 408(b) of the act, the President by Proclamation No. 3383 established the amount of the quotas for sugar and for liquid sugar for Cuba for the three-month period ending March 31, 1961 at zero. At a level of consumption requirements for consumers in the United States of 10,000,000 short tons, raw value of sugar for 1961, the amount of the quotas that otherwise would have been provided for Cuba under the terms of Title II of the act for the three-month period ending March 31, 1961, are 824,299 tons, raw value of sugar and 1,992,640 wine gallons of liquid sugar, 72 per centum total sugar content, which amounts represent the quantities that may be caused or permitted to be brought or imported into or marketed in the United States pursuant to section 408(b) of the act. The quantities of non-quota sugar authorized in § 819.4 for purchase from countries having quotas under section 202(c) of the act are allocated in accordance with section 408(b) of the act to the extent of the ability of each such country to supply such sugar based on advice received from such countries. Quantities are also authorized for purchase from China and from countries not having quotas under section 202(c) of the act, pursuant to the proviso in section 408(b)(2)(iii) of the act.

§ 819.4 Source of non-quota purchase sugar.

Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section the amounts of non-quota purchase sugar that may be permitted to be imported into the continental United States for consumption therein from individual foreign countries for the three-month period ending March 31, 1961, are as follows:

Country:	Short tons, raw value
Netherlands	1,463
China (Formosa)	11,505
Panama	1,505
Costa Rica	1,508
Republic of the Philippines	122,683
Peru	215,000
Dominican Republic	222,723
Mexico	191,168
Haiti	433
Nicaragua	16,000
Canada	1,266
United Kingdom	1,034
Belgium	361
British West Indies and British Guiana	10,168
Hong Kong	8
El Salvador	2,000
Guatemala	2,000
Brazil	11,474
Ecuador	6,000
Colombia	6,000
Total	824,299

The 1,992,640 wine gallons of liquid sugar, 72 per centum total sugar content is not authorized for purchase at this time.

(b) It is hereby found that raw sugar is not reasonably available in sufficient quantity to supply our requirements during the three-month period ending March 31, 1961. Accordingly, nonquota purchase sugar testing in excess of 99 degrees polarization is authorized for importation from Mexico to be further refined or improved in quality in the United States, and sugar imported from any country for which the total permitted quantity of nonquota purchase sugar, as established in paragraph (a) of this section, is 2,500 short tons, raw value, or less may be released for direct-consumption. All other nonquota purchase sugar is limited to raw sugar as defined in Part 810 of this Chapter.

(c) To give effect to Article 7 of the International Sugar Agreement which limits total importations in any year from nonparticipating countries, no sugar may be authorized to be imported from any country named in paragraph (a) of this section while such country is not a participant in the International Sugar Agreement.

§ 819.5 Requirements relating to importing nonquota purchase sugar.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Part 817 of this chapter, nonquota purchase sugar may be imported from the country where produced in accordance with the provisions of this part. The provisions of this part apply only to nonquota purchase sugar.

(b) Nonquota purchase sugar shall be imported only at Customs ports of entry.

(c) A copy of the ship's manifest, bills of lading, or other shipping documents covering all sugar in a shipment must be submitted to the Collector within 72 hours after the beginning of unlading of the sugar.

(d) The Collector shall take custody of such sugar and shall retain custody, at the risk and expense of the consignee or owner, until authorized to permit release thereof in accordance with § 819.7. In taking and retaining custody pursuant to these regulations, the Collector shall be governed by the provisions of §§ 4.37, 4.38, 19.1 to 19.9 and 19.12 of Chapter I, Title 19, Code of Federal Regulations, which are made applicable to such custody by reference as fully as if set forth in full herein.

§ 819.6 Application by importer.

(a) A separate application must be submitted as specified in paragraph (c) of this section on appropriate copies of a form prescribed by the Secretary entitled "Sugar Quota Clearance Record," with the changes hereinafter specified, not more than 10 days prior to the departure date stated thereon, showing the following information regarding the sugar to be delivered to a single refinery or importer from each cargo:

(1) Port and date of arrival. If the port is not known when the application is submitted, this information must be supplied before a Collector will be authorized to release the sugar.

(2) Name of the vessel or other specific identification of the carrier.

(3) Name of the producing area, the port of lading and the date the carrier is expected to depart from such port.

(4) Name and address of the person to whom delivery is to be made from the importing carrier. If not known when an application is submitted to the Sugar Division, this information must be supplied before a Collector will be authorized to release the sugar.

(5) Quantities, in pounds, to be imported as shown on the application; if in bags, identified by marks, quantities should be shown separately for each mark. The designation of separate quantities within the total to be imported which are identified by separate marks shall be shown on the report required pursuant to paragraph (h) of this section, if such information cannot be shown at the time the application is submitted.

(6) Name, address and authorized signature of the applicant.

(b) Any application made pursuant to this section constitutes a representation by the applicant that at the time the application is made:

(1) He has control of the quantity of sugar which is subject to shipment as specified;

(2) Firm commitment has been made by the shipping company for shipment as described on the application; and

(3) The date of departure of the vessel or carrier stated on the application is (i) the date specified to the applicant or shipper by the Master, Owner or Agent of such vessel or carrier as the expected departure date, or (ii) the date the shipper expects the vessel to depart based on the date the vessel or carrier will be available for loading as specified by the Master, Owner or Agent of such vessel or carrier plus the normally required loading time.

(c) The application specified in paragraph (a) of this section shall be submitted to the Sugar Division for the issuance of an authorization by the Secretary to the appropriate Collector for the release of sugar as provided in § 819.7.

(d) The specific authorization by the Secretary required pursuant to § 819.7 may be issued prior to the receipt of an application on appropriate copies of the "Sugar Quota Clearance Record" provided all of the information required pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (e) of this section is transmitted to the Sugar Division by telegram and such advance authorization is necessary to avoid delay in the delivery of the sugar.

(e) Any application made pursuant to this section shall contain over the signature of the applicant, the following certification:

This application is made under Sugar Regulation 819 for importing non-quota purchase sugar and is subject to all of the provisions of such regulation. The applicant certifies that he is either (1) the producer of the sugar, or (2) a citizen, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity, or government agency, of the country in which the sugar is produced, or (3) has purchased such sugar after July 6, 1960, from_____, the producer of such sugar, or from _____, a citizen, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity, or government agency, of the country in which the sugar was produced, for exportation to the United States.

(f) As a condition for the importation of any quantity of non-quota purchase sugar from the Dominican Republic a fee of $0.0225 per pound, raw value, shall be paid as provided in this paragraph and paragraph (g) of this section by the person applying to the Secretary for release of such quantity of sugar. With each application submitted as provided in paragraph (a) of this section covering sugar to be imported pursuant to § 819.4 from the Dominican Republic, the applicant shall make an initial payment in an amount determined by multiplying the quantity of sugar stated in pounds as shown on the application by 1.04 and multiplying the result by $0.0225 per pound. Upon receipt of such an application and initial payment, the Secretary may issue an authorization for release by a Collector as provided in § 819.8 of the quantity of sugar covered by the application. The fee per pound shall be subject to change by amendment of these regulations effective when filed for public inspection in the Office of the Federal Register, and any payment with respect to an application shall be based upon the fee per pound effective at the time such application first becomes eligible for authorization as provided in § 819.8(b). The payment required under this paragraph shall be made to the Sugar Division in the form of a certified check payable to the Commodity Stabilization Service. Any application submitted for the purpose of changing the person to whom delivery is to be made or the port of arrival as shown on the original application, shall be considered as an amendment to the original application, and no initial payment is required to accompany the amendatory application. The applicant may request the cancellation of an application submitted with an initial payment as provided for in this paragraph to take advantage of a decreased fee or for other reasons, by notifying the Sugar Division in writing of such request prior to the release by the Collector of any of the sugar covered by the application, and thereafter such applicant may submit a new application covering all or a part of the quantity of sugar covered by the cancelled application, provided an initial payment as provided for in this paragraph accompanies the new application.

(g) If, prior to the release by the Collector of sugar covered by an application with which payment was submitted as required under paragraph (f) of this section, the Sugar Division receives a written request from the applicant to cancel from such application all or a specified part of the quantity of sugar covered thereby, refund will be made to the applicant of all or a part of the payment made with such application in the same proportion that the quantity of sugar requested to be canceled bears to the quantity of sugar stated on the application. In making final settlement a determination will be made of the quantity of sugar in terms of raw value as provided in § 819.9(b)(2) with respect to the quantity imported pursuant to each application governed by paragraph (f) of this section, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any further payment by the applicant or any refund to the applicant is required. Upon such determination, further payment shall be made by the applicant in the amount by which the product of the quantity of sugar, raw value, imported multiplied by the effective fee per pound provided for in paragraph (f) of this section exceeds the amount of the initial payment made pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section after deducting the amount of any refunds made of such initial payment; or refund to the applicant shall be made in the amount by which the product of the quantity of sugar, raw value, imported multiplied by such effective fee per pound is less than the amount of the initial payment made pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section after deducting the amount of any refunds made of such initial payment.

(h) Within 30 days after release of the sugar by the Collector pursuant to § 819.7 the results of weights, samples and tests and the name of the person retaining the reserve portion of each sample as provided for in Part 810 of this subchapter shall be reported to the Sugar Division on the applicable copy of the "Sugar Quota Clearance Record" or a duplicate of such copy, together with information specified in paragraph (a) of this section. The period within which the report required pursuant to this paragraph must be made may be extended for good cause shown with respect to a specified shipment upon request to and approval by the Secretary.

§ 819.7 Release by a Collector.

A Collector of Customs may release sugar imported from any country for any purpose only pursuant to Part 817 of this chapter or upon specific authorization by the Secretary pursuant to § 819.8 with respect to each application required under § 819.6.

§ 819.8 Specific authorization for release.

(a) Time of issue and duration of validity. Specific authorizations by the Secretary for release by a Collector will be issued no more than 5 days prior to the stated date of departure of the vessel or other carrier on which the sugar is to be shipped. The authorization shall be valid for the period specified thereon, subject to extension by the Secretary for good cause, and shall be cancelled only if mistakenly issued, a misrepresentation was made, the shipment does not depart within 3 days of the date stated on the application, or importation does not occur during the period specified. In case the port of arrival or the name of the receiver is not known when the application becomes eligible pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, the authorization will not be transmitted to the Collector until all the information required by paragraph (a) of § 819.6 is received in the Sugar Divison.

(b) Order of eligibility for authorization. An application on file with the Sugar Division for the release of sugar shall become eligible for authorization at 12:01 a.m., on the fifth calendar day prior to the date stated on the application as the date of departure of the shipment of sugar from the country of origin or at the time of receipt of the application, whichever time occurs later. The Secretary shall authorize the release of sugar by the Collector within the unfilled portion of the amount of non-quota purchase sugar authorized to be imported from a country in the same order in which the applications pertaining to such country become eligible for authorization: Provided, That, if two or more applications pertaining to the same country become eligible for authorization at the same time, such applications shall be authorized in the order of their stated date of departure (earliest first), and in such case if two or more such applications have the same date of departure and the quantity which may be authorized within the unfilled amount of non-quota purchase sugar assigned to such country is less than the sum of the applied-for quantities, the quantity authorized for each application shall be in the same proportion to the quantity which may be authorized within the unfilled portion as the quantity requested on each such application is to the sum of the quantities requested on all such applications.

(c) Extent of authorizations. No authorization shall be issued when the quantity of non-quota purchase sugar released for consumption in the continental United States, together with the quantity covered by valid authorizations issued hereunder but not yet released, equals the amount of non-quota purchase sugar assigned to the country.

(d) Denial of authorizations. Authorizations on applications otherwise eligible may be denied if the applicant has failed to report in the manner and within the time prescribed in this part with respect to shipments previously imported.

§ 819.9 Determination of quantities and time of effect.

(a) Non-quota purchase sugar imported shall be subject to the amount authorized to be imported from the country in which the sugar was produced.

(b)(1) Each quantity authorized for release pursuant to § 819.8 shall be effective for filling the amount of non-quota purchase sugar at the time the applicable authorization is issued. For this purpose the raw value of the authorized quantity shall be estimated by considering the relationship between other authorized quantities for recent shipment from the same country and the raw values thereof determined as provided in Title I of the act on the basis of weights and tests determined pursuant to Part 810 of this subchapter and such other factors as the Secretary deems applicable.

(2) Upon receipt of and on the basis of the report required pursuant to § 819.6 (h) covering an application initially given effect pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the quantity effective for filling the amount of non-quota purchase sugar shall be the quantity of sugar imported pursuant to the authorization to the extent of its raw value, as defined in Title I of the act and as finally computed from the weights and tests determined pursuant to Part 810 of this subchapter.

§ 819.10 Records and reports.

(a) For the purposes of this part, any quantities of sugar imported as crystalline sugar which are subsequently converted into and marketed as liquid sugar shall be reported subsequent to such conversion as the quantities of crystalline sugar so converted and the raw value thereof shall be determined as prescribed in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of section 101(h) of the act, applicable to the crystalline sugar so converted. Liquid sugar for which the quantities of converted crystalline sugar are unknown shall be reported in terms of the total sugar content and the raw value thereof shall be determined by multiplying the total sugar content by the factor 1.07.

(b) Each person subject to the provisions of this part shall keep and preserve, for a period of two years following the end of the calendar year in which the sugar was imported into the continental United States, an accurate record of the receipt, processing and movement of such sugar and of all tests and weights pertaining thereto. Upon request by any authorized employee of the Department, such records shall be made freely available for examination by such employee during the regular working hours of any business day.

(c) Each person subject to the provisions of this part shall make application for authorizations provided for in this part and shall report information as and when required by the Secretary on forms specified by him and approved by the Bureau of the Budget under the Federal Reports Act of 1942. In addition to the applications, authorizations and reports otherwise specifically referred to in this part, this requirement shall include, but is not necessarily limited to, the information prescribed on Form SU-73, Form SU-74 or Form SU-75.

§ 819.11 Delegation of authority.

The Director, or Deputy Director, of the Sugar Division, or the Chief or Acting Chief of the Quota and Allotment Branch thereof, Commodity Stabilization Service of the Department, is hereby authorized to act for and on behalf of the Secretary in administering §§ 819.1 to 819.10.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 22d day of December 1960.

CLARENCE L. MILLER,
Acting Secretary.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Navel Orange Regulation 197, Amdt. 1]

PART 914—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 14, as amended (7 CFR Part 914), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act by tending to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for such oranges as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow of the supply thereof to market throughout the normal marketing season to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices, and is not for the purpose of maintaining prices to farmers above the level which it is declared to be the policy of Congress to establish under the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California.

(b) Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (i) and (iii) of § 914.497 (Navel Orange Regulation 197, 25 F.R. 12941) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(i) District 1: 500,000 cartons;
(iii) District 3: 50,000 cartons.

PART 938—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN THE RED RIVER VALLEY OF NORTH DAKOTA AND MINNESOTA

Limitation of Shipments

Section 8e (7 U.S.C. 608e) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674) provides that whenever two or more marketing orders regulating the same agricultural commodity produced in different areas of the United States are concurrently in effect, the importation of any such commodity shall be prohibited unless it complies with the grade, size, quality, and maturity provisions of the marketing order which, as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, regulates the commodity produced in the area with which the imported commodity is in most direct competition.

In compliance with this requirement and determinations made pursuant thereto, comprehensive regulations governing the importation of Irish potatoes have been issued (7 CFR 1066.1; 24 F.R. 7809, 25 F.R. 2659). Such regulations determined, among other things, that each marketing season from October 1 through the following June 30, imports of red skinned round varieties of potatoes are in most direct competition with the same varieties produced in the Red River Valley of North Dakota and Minnesota and regulated by Order No. 38, and required that potato imports meet the grade, size, quality, and maturity requirements applicable to red skinned round varieties under Order No. 38. Therefore, the grade, size, quality, and maturity requirements applicable to red skinned round varieties of potatoes set forth in the limitation of shipment regulations, § 938.302 (7 CFR 938.302), issued under Order No. 38, effective August 8, 1960 through June 30, 1961 (25 F.R. 7238) became applicable to imports of such potatoes for the period October 1, 1960 through June 30, 1961.

In order that information pertaining to requirements applicable to potato imports occasioned by requirements applicable to domestically produced potatoes may be more readily disseminated to interested persons, this amendment, through cross reference, incorporates such import requirements in the currently effective domestic regulation by the addition of a new paragraph (i) to § 938.302. Accordingly, § 938.302 is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph (i) as set forth below.

* * * * *

(i) Applicability of import regulations. Pursuant to section 608e of the act and 7 CFR 1066.1 (24 F.R. 7809 and 25 F.R. 2659), it has been determined that, each season from October 1 through the following June 30, potato imports of red skinned round varieties are in most direct competition with the same varieties produced in the Red River Valley of North Dakota and Minnesota and regulated by this subpart and it is required that such potato imports meet the grade, size, quality and maturity requirements applicable to the same varieties regulated under this subpart. Therefore, importation of red skinned round variety potatoes during the period October 1, 1960, through June 30, 1961, are required to meet the grade, size, quality and maturity provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, namely, U.S. No. 2, or better, grade, 2 inches minimum diameter, or U.S. No. 1, or better, grade, size B.

* * * * *

Coincident with the issuance of import regulations applicable to Irish potato imports, § 1066.1 (7 CFR 1066.1) and issuance of the currently effective limitation of shipments regulations, § 938.302 (7 CFR 938.302) under Order No. 38, the requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) with respect to notice of rule making, public procedure thereon, and effective date were complied with or appropriate findings in lieu thereof were made. Therefore, it is unnecessary to again comply with the same requirements.

(Secs. 1019, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Effective date, dated December 22, 1960, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 957—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN IDAHO AND MALHEUR COUNTY, OREGON

Limitation of Shipments

Section 8e (7 U.S.C. 608e) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674) provides that whenever two or more marketing orders regulating the same agricultural commodity produced in different areas of the United States are concurrently in effect, the importation of any such commodity shall be prohibited unless it complies with the grade, size, quality and maturity provisions of the marketing order which, as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, regulates the commodity produced in the area with which the imported commodity is in most direct competition.

In compliance with this requirement and determinations made pursuant thereto, comprehensive regulations governing the importation of Irish potatoes have been issued (7 CFR 1066.1; 24 F.R. 7809, 25 F.R. 2659). Such regulations determined, among other things, that each marketing season from October 1 through the following June 30, imports of long varieties of potatoes are in most direct competition with the same varieties produced in certain designated counties in Idaho and Malheur County, Oregon, and regulated by Order No. 57, as amended, and required that potato imports meet the grade, size, quality and maturity requirements applicable to long varieties under Order No. 57, as amended. Therefore, the grade, size, quality and maturity requirements applicable to long varieties of potatoes set forth in the limitation of shipments regulation, § 957.319(7 CFR 957.319), issued under Order No. 57, as amended, effective July 18, 1960 through June 30, 1961 (25 F.R. 6745) became applicable to imports of such potatoes for the period October 1, 1960 through June 30, 1961.

In order that information pertaining to requirements applicable to potato imports occasioned by requirements applicable to domestically produced potatoes may be more readily disseminated to interested persons, this amendment, through cross reference, incorporates such import requirements in the currently effective domestic regulation by the addition of a new paragraph (i) to § 957.319. Accordingly, § 957.319 is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph (g) as set forth below.

§ 957.319 Limitation of shipments.

* * * * *

(g) Applicability of import regulations. Pursuant to section 608e of the act and 7 CFR 1066.1 (24 F.R. 7809 and 25 F.R. 2659), it has been determined that, each season from October 1 through the following June 30, potato imports of long varieties are in most direct competition with the same varieties produced in certain designated counties in Idaho and Malheur County, Oregon, and regulated by this subpart and it is required that such potato imports meet the grade, size, quality and maturity requirements applicable to the same varieties regulated under this subpart. Therefore, importations of long potatoes during the period of October 1, 1960 through June 30, 1961, are required to meet the grade, size, quality and maturity provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, namely, U.S. No. 2, or better, grade, 2 inches minimum diameter, or 4 ounces minimum weight, "generally fairly clean" and not more than "slightly skinned."

* * * * *

Coincident with the issuance of import regulations applicable to Irish potato imports, § 1066.1 (7 CFR 1066.1) and issuance of the currently effective limitation of shipments regulations, § 957.319 (7 CFR 957.319) under Order No. 57, as amended, the requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) with respect to notice of rule making, public procedure thereon, and effective date were complied with or appropriate findings in lieu thereof were made. Therefore, it is unnecessary to again comply with the same requirements.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Effective date, dated December 22, 1960, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 970—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN MAINE

Limitation of Shipments

Section 8e (7 U.S.C. 608e) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674) provides that whenever two or more marketing orders regulating the same agricultural commodity produced in different areas of the United States are concurrently in effect, the importation of any such commodity shall be prohibited unless it complies with the grade, size, quality and maturity provisions of the marketing order which, as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, regulates the commodity produced in the area with which the imported commodity is in most direct competition.

In compliance with this requirement and determinations made pursuant thereto, comprehensive regulations governing the importation of Irish potatoes have been issued (7 CFR 1066.1; 24 F.R. 7809, 25 F.R. 2659). Such regulations determined, among other things, that each marketing season from October 1 through the following June 30, imports of round white varieties of potatoes are in most direct competition with the same varieties produced in the State of Maine and regulated by Order No. 70, and required that potato imports meet the grade, size, quality and maturity requirements applicable to round white varieties under Order No. 70. Therefore, the grade, size, quality and maturity requirements applicable to round white varieties of potatoes set forth in the limitation of shipments regulation, § 970.307 (7 CFR 970.307), issued under Order No. 70, effective September 19, 1960 through June 30, 1961 (25 F.R. 8942) became applicable to imports of such potatoes for the period October 1, 1960 through June 30, 1961.

In order that information pertaining to requirements applicable to potato imports occasioned by requirements applicable to domestically produced potatoes may be more readily disseminated to interested persons, this amendment, through cross reference, incorporates such import requirements in the currently effective domestic regulation by the addition of a new paragraph (i) to § 970.307. Accordingly, § 970.307 is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph (i) as set forth below.

§ 970.307 Limitation of shipments.

* * * * *

(i) Applicability of import regulations. Pursuant to section 608e of the act and 7 CFR 1066.1 (24 F.R. 7809 and 25 F.R. 2659), it has been determined that, each season from October 1 through the following June 30, potato imports of round white varieties are in most direct competition with the same varieties produced in the State of Maine and regulated by this subpart and it is required that such potato imports meet the grade, size, quality and maturity requirements applicable to the same varieties regulated under this subpart. Therefore, importations of round white variety potatoes during the period of October 1, 1960 through June 30, 1961, are required to meet the grade, size, quality and maturity provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, namely, U.S. No. 1, or better, grade, 2¼ inches minimum diameter, 4 inches maximum diameter, and at least 90 percent fairly clean.

* * * * *

Coincident with the issuance of import regulations applicable to Irish potato imports, § 1066.1 (7 CFR 1066.1) and issuance of the currently effective limitation of shipments regulations, § 970.307 (7 CFR 970.307) under Order No. 70, the requirements of § 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) with respect to notice of rule making, public procedure thereon, and effective date were complied with or appropriate findings in lieu thereof were made. Therefore, it is unnecessary to again comply with the same requirements.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Effective date. Dated December 22, 1960, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Title 10—ATOMIC ENERGY

Chapter I—Atomic Energy Commission

PART 2—RULES OF PRACTICE

Commission Review of Intermediate Decisions

In order that the Commission may more adequately review intermediate decisions of hearing examiners when no exceptions thereto have been filed by the parties, the rules of procedure are being amended to provide that the Commission shall have 10 days after the period permitted for the filing of exceptions in which to make its own review.

Because of the procedural nature of these rules, the Commission has found that general notice of proposed rule making and public procedure thereon are unnecessary, and that good cause exists why these rules should be made effective without the customary prior notice.

Pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, the following rules are published as a document subject to codification, to be effective upon publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

1. Section 2.751 (a), (b), and (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 2.751 Intermediate decisions and their effect.

(a) After hearing, the Presiding Officer will ordinarily render an intermediate decision, which decision shall become final unless exceptions are taken in accordance with § 2.752, or the Commission has directed that the record be certified to it for final decision. An order that the record be certified to the Commission for final decision may be made not later than 10 days after the expiration of the period fixed pursuant to § 2.752 for the filing of exceptions by a party.

(b) However, in any case involving an application for an initial license the Commission may direct that the presiding officer certify the record to it without an intermediate decision. In such case the Commission may:

(1) Direct a responsible officer to prepare an intermediate decision which will not become final until the Commission acts upon it; or

(2) Prepare its own intermediate decision, which shall become final unless exceptions are taken in accordance with § 2.752; or

(3) Omit an intermediate decision upon a finding on the record that due and timely execution of the Commission's functions imperatively and unavoidably so require.

(c) Each intermediate decision shall be in writing and shall contain:

(1) Findings and conclusions, with the reasons or basis therefor upon all material issues of fact, law, or discretion presented on the record;

(2) The ruling upon each proposed finding or conclusion filed by a party;

(3) All facts officially noticed pursuant to § 2.750, relied upon in the decision;

(4) The appropriate rule, order, sanction, relief, or denial thereof, with the effective date;

(5) In the case of an intermediate decision which may become final unless exceptions are filed, or the Commission directs that the record be certified to it for final decision, the date when such decision will become final in the absence of exceptions thereto or an order of the Commission that the record be certified to it.

Dated at Washington, D.C., this 27th day of December 1960.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

Secretary.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER A—CIVIL AIR REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 614; Amdt. 60–20]

PART 60—AIR TRAFFIC RULES

Definitions of Prohibited Area and Restricted Area

Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations comprises the air traffic rules and certain definitions pertaining thereto. Section 60.13a provides that the Administrator will establish Restricted Areas when he finds such action necessary. Section 60.60 defines certain terms, among which are Prohibited Area and Restricted Area.

The Federal Aviation Act of 1958, Title III, section 307(a), authorizes and directs the Administrator to "assign by rule, regulation or order the use of navigable airspace." Prior to the enactment of this statutory authorization, the authority to designate prohibited areas and restricted areas, with provision for subordinate delegation of this authority, was contained in the Air Commerce Act of 1926 and the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938. This authority is variously cited in §§ 60.13a and 60.60 in the definitions of Prohibited Area and Restricted Area.

The Air Commerce Act of 1926 and the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 were repealed by the Federal Aviation Act of 1958. This repeal rendered § 60.13a and the citations of the authority of these acts obsolete.

It is deemed advisable to rescind §60.-13a of Part 60 and to amend the definitions of Prohibited Area and Restricted Area in § 60.60 to remove reference to obsolete authorities.

Inasmuch as this action is editorial in nature and imposes no additional burden upon any person, compliance with the notice, public procedure and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, Civil Air Regulations Part 60 (14 CFR Part 60) is hereby amended as follows:

1. By rescinding § 60.13a.

2. By amending §60.60 as follows:

§ 60.60 Definitions.

• • • • • •

Prohibited Area. Airspace identified by an area on the surface of the earth within which the flight of aircraft is prohibited.

• • • • • •

Restricted Area. Airspace identified by an area on the surface of the earth within which the flight of aircraft, while not wholly prohibited, is subject to restrictions.

This amendment shall become effective December 23, 1960.

(Sec. 307; 72 Stat. 752; 49 U.S.C. 1354)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 23, 1960.

Administrator.

SUBCHAPTER A—PROCEDURAL REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 609]

PART 406—CERTIFICATION PROCEDURES

Part 406, Regulations of the Administrator, has been extensively altered by amendment and much of its terminology has become obsolete. Without integration of the fifteen amendments to date and usage of current terminology in the basic regulation, confusion and misuse can result. For these reasons a complete restatement of the part is necessary. This revision incorporates the outstanding amendments, up-dates terminology and deletes obsolete material.

Inasmuch as this revision is procedural only and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 406 of Chapter III of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby revised, effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, to read as follows:

Subpart A—Introduction

Sec.
406.1 Definitions of terms.
406.2 Use of forms, etc.

Subpart B—Issuance of Certificates

AUTHORITY: §§ 406.1 to 406.31 issued under secs. 313(a), 501-505, 601-608, 72 Stat. 752, 771, 772, 774, 775, 776, 778, 779; 49 U.S.C. 1354, 1401, 1402, 1403, 1404, 1405, 1421, 1422, 1423, 1424, 1425, 1426, 1427, 1428.

Subpart A—Introduction

§ 406.1 Definitions of terms.

As used in this part:

(a) "Act" shall mean Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended.

(b) "Agency" shall mean Federal Aviation Agency.

(c) "Administrator" shall mean the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency.

(d) "Board" shall mean Civil Aeronautics Board.

(e) "Aviation medical examiner" shall mean a licensed physician designated by the Administrator to perform appropriate medical examinations and to issue or deny medical certificates prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations.

(f) "Medical certificate" shall mean an acceptable evidence of an airman's physical fitness issued by the Administrator or his authorized representative within the Agency, or by an aviation medical examiner.

§ 406.2 Use of forms, etc.

Forms and other documents prescribed in this part which contain references to specific units of organization will not be affected by any change in the titles of the units. Such forms and documents will continue in use until they have been superseded or revoked.

Subpart B—Issuance of Certificates

§ 406.11 General.

(a) Application. Except as otherwise indicated in this subpart, an application for a certificate may be obtained from, and shall be submitted to, a representative of the Agency or to one of its regional, district, or field offices.

(b) Examination. A medical examination where required will be given by an aviation medical examiner as indicated in this subpart. A theoretical or written examination where required will be given by a representative of the Agency except that a student pilot may be examined on the Civil Air Regulations by a certificated flight instructor. Written examinations will be conducted at selected recognized airports. Itineraries of agents will be posted at such airports.

(c) Issuance. Requirements concerning the issuance of a certificate are set forth in Chapter I of this title, or in this part.

§ 406.12 Medical certificates.

The following medical certificates will be issued by the Agency to qualified applicants: (a) First-class medical certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate must be obtained by an applicant for, or the holder of, an airline transport pilot rating.

(2) Examination. An examination for this certificate will be given by an aviation medical examiner specifically designated for this purpose. A list of these aviation medical examiners in any area may be obtained by addressing a request to the Regional Manager of the region in which the area is located.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a "Medical Certificate," Form FAA-1004.1 with the appropriate class entered in the space provided.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 29 of Chapter I of this title.

(b) Second-class medical certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate must be obtained by an applicant for, or holder of, a commercial pilot certificate, air-traffic control-tower operator certificate, flight navigator certificate, flight engineer certificate, or commercial lighter-than-air pilot certificate.

(2) Examination. An examination for this certificate will be given by an aviation medical examiner. A list of the aviation medical examiners in any area may be obtained by addressing a request to the Regional Manager of the region in which the area is located.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a "Medical Certificate", Form FAA-1004.1 with the appropriate class entered in the space provided.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 29 of Chapter I of this title.

(c) Third-class medical certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate must be obtained by an applicant for, or holder of, a student pilot certificate, private pilot certificate, student lighter-than-air pilot certificate, private lighter-than-air pilot certificate, free balloon pilot certificate, and flight radio operator certificate.

(2) Examination. An examination for this certificate will be given by an aviation medical examiner. A list of the aviation medical examiners in any area may be obtained by addressing a request to the Regional Manager of the region in which the area is located.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a "Medical Certificate," Form FAA-1004.1, with the appropriate class entered in the space provided.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 29 of Chapter I of this title.

(d) Delegation of authority. The authority vested in the Administrator to issue or deny the issuance of medical certificates by section 602(a) and 602(b) of the Act is delegated to the Civil Air Surgeon and his authorized representatives within the Agency to the extent necessary (1) to examine applicants for and holders of airman medical certificates for compliance with the medical standards applicable to the issuance or renewal of airman medical certificates; and (2) to issue, renew, or deny issuance or renewal of airman medical certificates to applicants or holders of such certificates based upon compliance or noncompliance with the applicable medical standards. Subject to such limitations as may be provided by rules or regulations of the Agency, the authority delegated above is also delegated to aviation medical examiners.

The authority vested in the Administrator by section 609 of the Act to reexamine any civil airman to the extent necessary to amend, suspend, or revoke a medical certificate, is delegated to the Civil Air Surgeon or his authorized representative within the Agency.

(e) Reconsideration of denial of medical certificate by aviation medical examiner. Any action of an aviation medical examiner denying issuances of a medical certificate shall be subject to reconsideration by the Civil Air Surgeon or his authorized representative. Denial of issuance of a medical certificate by an aviation medical examiner shall not constitute a denial by the Administrator under section 602, Federal Aviation Act of 1958. Any person whose application for issuance of a medical certificate has been denied by an aviation medical examiner may apply for reconsideration of such denial pursuant to section 314(b) of the Federal Aviation Act by application made in writing and addressed to the Civil Air Surgeon, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C., together with a copy addressed to the respective medical examiner. In the event no application for reconsideration is made within thirty days of the action of the aviation medical examiner, the applicant will be deemed to have acquiesced in the action and to have withdrawn his application for medical certificate. Denial by the Civil Air Surgeon, or his representative, upon application for reconsideration, shall constitute a denial by the Administrator under section 602, Federal Aviation Act.

(f) Reconsideration of denial by the Civil Air Surgeon of medical certificate. Any denial by the Civil Air Surgeon or his authorized representative within the Agency shall constitute a denial by the Administrator under section 602 of the Act. Any person whose application for issuance of a medical certificate has been denied initially or upon reconsideration by the Civil Air Surgeon or his authorized representative within the Agency may petition the Administrator pursuant to 14 CFR 405.32 for exemption from Part 29 of the Civil Air Regulations, or he may appeal from such a decision to the Civil Aeronautics Board.

(g) Medical certification by senior flight surgeons of the military services. In accordance with agreements entered into by the Civil Air Surgeon on one hand and his counterpart in each of the military services on the other hand, the FAA has designated as aviation medical examiners for the Agency, senior flight surgeons on specified military posts, stations and facilities. These specially designated aviation medical examiners are authorized to perform the physical examination of applicants for FAA medical certificates who are on active duty or others who are eligible under Department of Defense medical programs for FAA medical certification as civil airmen. Furthermore, they have the authority to issue or deny the issuance of appropriate FAA medical certificates in accordance with the rules, regulations and established policies of the Agency. A list of military posts, stations and facilities in which the senior flight surgeon has been designated as aviation medical examiner for the FAA may be obtained from the various Surgeons General of the different services or from the Chief of Medical Certification Division, AM-30, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C.

§ 406.13 Airman certificates.

The following airman certificates will be issued by the Agency to qualified applicants:

(a) Student pilot certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to pilot in solo flight, aircraft of a type, class, and model specified on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate will be made on an "Application for Student or Private Pilot Certificate," Form FAA-355.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA-340.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Parts 20 and 43 of Chapter I of this title.

(b) Pilot certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to pilot aircraft in accordance with limitations prescribed on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate with ratings shall be made on an "Application for Commercial Pilot or Flight Instructor Certificate or Rating," Form FAA-342, or an "Application for Student Pilot or Private Pilot Certificate," Form FAA-355, if for initial certification as a civilian pilot.

(3) Issuance. This certificate with ratings will be issued on a Form FAA-1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Parts 20 and 43 of Chapter I of this title.

(c) Airline transport pilot certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to exercise the privileges of an airline transport pilot in accordance with the limitations prescribed on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Airline Transport Pilot Certificate or Rating Thereon," Form FAA-342A.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA-1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 21 of Chapter I of this title.

(d) Lighter-than-air pilot certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to exercise the privileges of a lighter-than-air pilot in accordance with the limitations prescribed on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Student Pilot or Private Pilot Certificate," Form FAA-355.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA-1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 22 of Chapter I of this title.

(e) Mechanic or repairman certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to inspect, maintain, or repair aircraft and aircraft engines and appliances in accordance with the limitations set forth on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Airman Mechanic, Repairman, or Parachute Rigger Certificate or Rating," Form FAA-363.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA-1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 24 of Chapter I of this title.

(f) Parachute rigger certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to inspect, pack, repair, or construct parachutes in accordance with the limitations prescribed on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Airman Mechanic, Repairman, or Parachute Rigger Certificate or Rating," Form FAA-363.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA-1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 25 of Chapter I of this title.

(g) Air-traffic control-tower operator certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to control air traffic in accordance with the limitations prescribed on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Control-Tower Operator or Aircraft Dispatcher Certificate and Rating," Form FAA-374.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA-1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 26 of Chapter I of this title.

(h) Aircraft dispatcher certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to act as an aircraft dispatcher for a certificated air carrier in accordance with the limitations prescribed on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Control-Tower Operator or Aircraft Dispatcher Certificate and Rating," Form FAA-374.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA-1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 27 of Chapter I of this title.

(i) Flight radio operator certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to exercise the privileges of a flight radio operator in accordance with the limitations prescribed on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Flight Radio Operator Certificate," Form FAA–1863B.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA–1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 33 of Chapter I of this title.

(j) Flight navigator certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to exercise the privileges of a flight navigator in accordance with the limitations prescribed on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Flight Navigator Certificate," Form FAA–1863.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA–1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 34 of Chapter I of this title.

(k) Flight engineer certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to exercise the privileges of a flight engineer in accordance with the limitations prescribed on the certificate.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Flight Engineer Certificate," Form FAA–1863A.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on Form FAA–1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 35 of Chapter I of this title.

§ 406.14 Aircraft certificates.

The following aircraft certificates will be issued by the Agency to qualified applicants:

(a) Type certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will certify that an aircraft, aircraft engine, propeller, or appliance specified in the Civil Air Regulations as eligible for a type certificate is of proper design, material, specifications, construction, and performance for safe operation, and meets the minimum requirements of the Civil Air Regulations.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Type Certificate," Form FAA–312. This application form may be obtained from, and shall be submitted to the Engineering and Manufacturing Branch of the regional office serving the area in which the manufacturer's plant is located.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA–331.

(4) Reports. Upon the initial transfer of title to any aircraft manufactured in accordance with Agency standards and requirements for United States registry, and where such aircraft has been manufactured under the terms of a type certificate only, i.e., without benefit of a production certificate, the holder of the type certificate or of a current right to the benefits of a type certificate under a licensing arrangement shall submit a "Statement of Conformity," Form FAA–317, to a duly authorized representative of the Administrator.

(5) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 1 of Chapter I of this title.

(b) Production certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize duplicates of a product for which a type certificate has been issued, to be manufactured at designated places.

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate and a production limitation record, shall be made on an "Application for Production Certificate," Form FAA–332. The application form may be obtained from, and shall be submitted to, the Engineering and Manufacturing Branch of the regional office serving the area in which the manufacturer's plant is located. If an amendment is desired, application shall be made to such regional office.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a "Production Certificate," Form FAA–333. It will include a "Production Limitation Record," Form FAA–333A, which will set forth the applicable type certificate.

(4) Reports. The holder of this certificate shall notify the Regional Office which issued the certificate, of any changes in organization, methods, procedures, facilities, or location of the manufacturing facilities which affect the product for which the certificate was issued.

(5) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 1 of Chapter I of this title.

(c) Aircraft registration certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will satisfy the provisions of the act requiring that an aircraft be registered by its owner before it may be operated or navigated.

(2) Application and fee. An application for this certificate shall be made on a Form FAA–500. This form will contain three parts: Part A, "Certificate of Registration"; Part B, "Application for Registration"; and Part C, "Bill of Sale." An applicant for a certificate of registration shall mail the original and a duplicate of Part A, an original of Part B, an original of Part C or another bill of sale or other form of conveyance described in § 501.4(b)(2) of this chapter, and a registration fee of $4 to the Federal Aviation Agency, Aircraft and Airman Records Branch, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. If a contract of conditional sale is submitted, an additional fee of $4 shall be enclosed to record it. The applicant shall retain the duplicate of Part B in the aircraft as a temporary registration pending receipt of the certificate of registration, Part A of Form FAA–500, and in the event later notification from the FAA authorizes continued temporary operation of the aircraft pending receipt of such certificate of registration, the applicant shall also retain such notification in the aircraft.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on the original "Certificate of Registration," Form FAA–500, Part A.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 501 of this Chapter.

(d) Dealer's aircraft registration certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will provide an alternate form of registration permitting the operation, demonstration, and merchandising of civil aircraft moving in ordinary trade channels from a manufacturer, distributor, or dealer to an ultimate purchaser.

(2) Application and fee. (An application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Issuance of Dealer's Aircraft Registration Certificate(s)," Form FAA–1706. It will require a statement of the dealer's citizenship and certain data concerning his status as a bona fide dealer in aircraft. An application containing current data shall be submitted each time certificates are requested, and may cover as many certificates as are desired at that time. This application may be obtained from, and shall be submitted to, the Engineering and Manufacturing Branch of the Regional Office serving the area in which the applicant's business is located. A fee of $5 will be charged for the first certificate, and $1 for each additional or subsequent certificate issued to the same dealer.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a "Dealers' Aircraft Registration Certificate," Form FAA–1707. It will be valid for 12 months from the date of issuance. Duplicates will not be issued.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding the issuance and use of this certificate are contained in Part 502 of this chapter.

(e) Aircraft airworthiness certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate is issued for an aircraft which complies with the airworthiness requirements of the Civil Air Regulations (Subchapter A of Chapter I of this title). (In addition to an airworthiness certificate, the Civil Air Regulations require that there be carried in the aircraft an approved airplane flight manual which sets forth the limitations for safe operation; or placards or listings or combination of both, containing operating limitations, insofar as they may have been prescribed by the Administrator for a particular aircraft.)

(2) Application. A single application for this certificate and an aircraft operation record shall be made on an "Application for Airworthiness Certificate and/or Annual Inspection of an Aircraft," Form FAA–305. Usually, the manufacturer obtains the certificate, which thereafter shall remain with the aircraft. If no airworthiness certificate has been issued for the aircraft, an application for such a certificate may be made by the registered owner of the aircraft, or his agent.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a "Certificate of Airworthiness," Form FAA–1362 or Form FAA–1362A whichever is applicable.

(4) Inspections. An annual inspection of all certificated aircraft by an authorized representative of the Administrator is required unless the aircraft is being maintained and inspected by a continuous maintenance and inspection system. The aircraft and engine records must be maintained and kept available for inspection. (See Part 43 of Chapter I of this title.)

(f) Ferry permit—(1) Purpose. This permit will authorize the flight of a civil aircraft of United States registry between two specified points for the purpose of repairing, or obtaining certification of, an aircraft, or it will authorize an aircraft to be delivered via fly-away to a border of the United States or to some other point within the United State from which the aircraft is to be exported. (See § 43.10(b) of Chapter I of this title.)

(2) Application. An application for this permit shall be made on an "Application and Authorization for Ferry Permit," Form FAA–1779. The applicant shall furnish evidence identifying the aircraft, reveal the points between which the aircraft will be flown, estimate duration of the flight, and furnish a statement giving the reasons why an aircraft airworthiness certificate is not applicable.

(3) Issuance. Normally, this permit will be issued on an "Application and Authorization for Ferry Permit," Form FAA–1779, but in some instances may be authorized by wire or telephone.

(g) Certificate of airworthiness for export—(1) Purpose. This certificate will certify that the type-certificated product involved meets certain general and special requirements for export to particular foreign citizens or foreign countries.

(2) Application. An application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Export Certificate of Airworthiness," Form FAA–306.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a "Certificate of Airworthiness for Export," Form FAA–26.

§ 406.15 Air carrier certificates.

The following air carrier certificates will be issued by the Agency to qualified applicants: (a) Air carrier operating certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will describe the operations authorized, and prescribe such operation specifications and limitations as may reasonably be required in the interest of safety. It is required for all air carriers engaged in scheduled and irregular operations.

(2) Application. (i) An application for a scheduled air carrier operating certificate shall be made by letter to the regional office of the Agency serving the area in which the principal office of the air carrier is located.

(ii) An application for an irregular air carrier operating certificate shall be made on an "Application for Certificate under CAR 42, 45, or 47," Form FAA–1602, to the regional office serving the area in which the principal office of the air carrier is located.

(3) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Parts 40, 41, 42 and 47 of Chapter I of this title.

§ 406.16 Air agency certificates.

The following air agency certificates and ratings will be issued by the Agency to qualified applicants:

(a) Basic ground school rating—(1) Purpose. This rating will authorize the holder to operate as a basic ground school.

(2) Application. An application for this rating shall be made on an "Application for Airman Agency Certificate and Rating, and Inspection Report," Form FAA–387. A new application shall be submitted at least every two years.

(3) Issuance. This rating will be issued on an "Air Agency Certificate," Form FAA–390.

(4) Reports. The holder of this rating shall submit an "Air Agency Activity Report," Form FAA–1784, whenever it is able to report on 32 students, or at least every six months.

(5) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this rating are contained in Part 50 of Chapter I of this title.

(b) Advanced ground school rating—(1) Purpose. This rating will authorize the holder to operate as an advanced ground school.

(2) Application. An application for this rating shall be made on an "Application for Airman Agency Certificate and Rating, and Inspection Report," Form FAA–387. A new application shall be submitted at least every two years.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on an "Air Agency Certificate," Form FAA–390.

(4) Reports. The holder of this rating shall submit an "Air Agency Activity Report," Form FAA–1784, whenever it is able to report on 32 students, or at least every six months.

(5) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this rating are contained in Part 50 of Chapter I of this title.

(c) Primary flying school rating—(1) Purpose. This rating will authorize the holder to operate as a primary flying school.

(2) Application. An application for this rating shall be made on an "Application for Airman Agency Certificate and Rating, and Inspection Report," Form FAA–387. A new application shall be submitted at least every two years.

(3) Issuance. This rating will be issued on an "Air Agency Certificate," Form FAA–390.

(4) Reports. The holder of this rating shall submit an "Air Agency Activity Report," Form FAA–1784, whenever it is able to report on 32 students or at least every six months.

(5) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this rating are contained in Part 50 of Chapter I of this title.

(d) Commercial flying school rating—(1) Purpose. This rating will authorize the holder to operate as a commercial flying school.

(2) Application. An application for this rating shall be made on an "Application for Airman Agency Certificate and Rating, and Inspection Report," Form FAA–387. A new application shall be submitted at least every two years.

(3) Issuance. This rating will be issued on an "Air Agency Certificate," Form FAA–390.

(4) Reports. The holder of this rating shall submit an "Air Agency Activity Report," Form FAA–1784, whenever it is able to report on 32 students, or at least every six months.

(5) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this rating are contained in Part 50 of Chapter I of this title.

(e) Instrument flying school rating—(1) Purpose. This rating will authorize the holder to operate as an instrument flying school.

(2) Application. An application for this rating shall be made on an "Application for Airman Agency Certificate and Rating, and Inspection Report," Form FAA–387. A new application shall be submitted at least every two years.

(3) Issuance. This rating will be issued on an "Air Agency Certificate," Form FAA–390.

(4) Reports. The holder of this rating shall submit an "Air Agency Activity Report," Form FAA–1784, whenever it is able to report on 32 students, or at least every six months.

(5) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this rating are contained in Part 50 of Chapter I of this title.

(f) Flight instructor school rating—(1) Purpose. This rating will authorize the holder to operate as a flight instructor school.

(2) Application. An application for this rating shall be made on an "Application for Airman Agency Certificate and Rating, and Inspection Report," Form FAA–387. A new application shall be submitted at least every two years.

(3) Issuance. This rating will be issued on an "Air Agency Certificate," Form FAA–390.

(4) Reports. The holder of this rating shall submit an "Approved Air Agency Activity Report," Form FAA–1784, whenever it is able to report on 32 students or at least every six months.

(5) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this rating are contained in Part 50 of Chapter I of this title.

(g) Repair station rating—(1) Purpose. This rating will authorize the holder to operate as a repair station.

(2) Application. An application for this rating shall be made on an "Application for Repair Station Certificate and Rating," Form FAA–394.

(3) Issuance. This rating will be issued on an "Air Agency Certificate," Form FAA–390.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this rating are contained in Part 52 of Chapter I of this title.

(h) Mechanic school rating—(1) Purpose. This rating will authorize the holder to operate as a mechanic school.

(2) Application. An application for this rating shall be made on a "Mechanic School Application and Inspection Report," Form FAA–614.

(3) Issuance. This rating will be issued on an "Air Agency Certificate," Form FAA-390.

(4) Reports. The holder of this rating shall submit a Mechanic School Report," Form FAA-392, in January and July of every year.

(5) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this rating are contained in Parts 50 and 53 of Chapter I of this title.

(i) Parachute loft rating—(1) Purpose. This rating will authorize the holder to operate as a parachute loft.

(2) Application. An application for this rating shall be made on an "Application for Parachute Loft Certificate and Rating," Form FAA-1371.

(3) Issuance. This rating will be issued on an "Air Agency Certificate," Form FAA-390.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this rating are contained in Part 54 of Chapter I of this title.

(j) Ground instructor certificate and rating—(1) Purpose. This certificate and rating will authorize the holder to serve as a ground instructor.

(2) Application. An application for this certificate and rating shall be made on an "Application for Ground Instructor Certificate or Rating," Form FAA-360.

(3) Issuance. This certificate and rating will be issued on a Form FAA-1710.

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate and rating are contained in Parts 50 and 51 of Chapter I of this title.

(k) Commercial operator certificate—(1) Purpose. This certificate will authorize the holder to serve as a commercial operator.

(2) Application. An application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Certificate under CAR 42, 45, or 47," Form FAA-1602.

(3) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a Form FAA-1603, "Air Carrier Operating Certificate."

(4) Additional requirements. Further provisions regarding this certificate are contained in Part 45 of Chapter I of this title.

§ 406.17 Air navigation certificate and notices.

The following air navigation certificate will be issued by the Administrator to qualified applicants: In addition, the following air navigation notices are required for the construction or alteration of certain structures and landing areas.

(a) Authorization to operate true light—(1) Purpose. Upon certification by an applicant that a light will be established, maintained and operated as an aid to air navigation in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Agency, the Administrator will issue an authorization to the applicant authorizing him to operate such light as a "true light."

(2) Application. The application shall be submitted on Form FAA-114, "Certification and Lawful Authority to Operate a True Light."

(b) Notice of construction or alteration—(1) Purpose. The purpose of this notice is to advise the Administrator of the construction or alteration of certain structures and landing areas along or near civil airways for which a notice is required under Part 625 of this chapter.

(2) Submittal of notice. Notice shall be submitted to the Administrator in accordance with the provisions of Part 625 of this chapter on Form FAA-117, "Notice of Proposed Construction or Alteration."

§ 406.19 Crew member certificate.

(a) Purpose. This certificate will be issued to facilitate the entry and clearance into ICAO contracting states of United States citizens employed by scheduled air carriers as flight crew members or crew members on U.S.-registered aircraft engaged in scheduled international air transportation, as provided in Annex 9, as amended, to the Convention on International Civil Aviation.

(b) Application. An application for this certificate shall be made on an "Application for Crew Member Certificate," Form FAA-2116, and submitted to the Air Carrier District Office in charge of the air carrier by whom the applicant is employed.

(c) Issuance. This certificate will be issued on a "Crew Member Certificate," Form FAA-2116.1.

(d) Surrender. This certificate will be surrendered for cancellation by the air carrier or the certificate holder to the nearest Air Carrier District Office upon termination of the holder's assignment in scheduled international air transportation with the air carrier.

Subpart C—Medical Records

§ 406.31 Availability of medical history.

If the Administrator or his authorized representative finds that additional medical history is necessary to determine whether any person who applies for or holds a medical certificate meets the physical standards therefor, such person will be requested to authorize any clinic, hospital, doctor or other person to release to the Administrator or his authorized representative any available information or records concerning such medical history. Refusal or failure to provide the requested authorization may be cause for denial, suspension, modification, or revocation of the medical certificate.

Issued in Washington, D.C. on December 22, 1960.

JAMES T. PYLE,
Acting Administrator.

[Reg. Docket No. 611]

PART 410—DELEGATION OPTION PROCEDURES FOR CERTIFICATION OF SMALL AIRPLANES, GLIDERS, ENGINES, AND PROPELLERS

The language contained in Part 410, Regulations of the Administrator, has become obsolete. Without usage of current terminology, confusion and misuse can result in the application of this regulation. This revision incorporates the outstanding amendment, up-dates terminology, and deletes obsolete material.

Inasmuch as this revision is procedural only and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 410 of Chapter III of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby revised, effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, to read as follows:

PART 410—DELEGATION OPTION PROCEDURES FOR CERTIFICATION OF SMALL AIRPLANES, GLIDERS, ENGINES, AND PROPELLERS

Subpart A—General

410.1 Definition of terms.
410.2 Basis and purpose.

Subpart B—Delegation Option Authorization

410.11 Application.
410.12 Authorization.
410.13 Eligibility.
410.14 Designated manufacturer's certification representative (DMCR).
410.15 Duration.
410.16 Maintenance of eligibility.
410.17 Transfer.
410.18 Inspections.

Subpart C—Delegation Option Procedures

410.31 Limits of applicability.
410.32 Type certificates.
410.33 Production certificates.
410.34 Airworthiness certificates.
410.35 Certificates of airworthiness for export.
410.36 Service difficulties and noncompliance.
410.37 Maintenance, repair, and alteration of products.
410.38 Data and records.

AUTHORITY: §§ 410.1 to 410.38 issued under secs. 313, 314, 603, 72 Stat. 752, 754, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354, 1355, 1423.

Subpart A—General

§ 410.1 Definition of terms.

As used in this part:

(a) "Administrator" shall mean Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency.

(b) "FAA" shall mean Federal Aviation Agency.

(c) "DMCR" shall mean Designated Manufacturer's Certification Representative.

(d) "Product" shall mean an airplane, a glider, an aircraft engine, or propeller.

§ 410.2 Basis and purpose.

(a) Section 603 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 776; 49 U.S.C. 1423) authorizes the Administrator to conduct inspections and tests necessary to the issuance of type, production, and airworthiness certificates, and to issue such certificates. Section 314 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 754; 49 U.S.C. 1355) authorizes the Administrator to delegate the functions to properly qualified private persons.

(b) Under delegation option procedures, type, production, and airworthiness certification of airplanes and gliders having maximum weight of 12,500 lbs. or less, and type and production certification of piston engines of less than 1,000 cubic inches piston displacement and propellers for use on such engines, may be accomplished by manufacturers utilizing a DMCR. Standard procedures will be used by manufacturers who are not eligible to use, or do not elect to use, the delegation option procedures.

Subpart B—Delegation Option Authorization

§ 410.11 Application.

Application for an authorization from the Administrator to use the delegation option procedures shall contain the information specified in appendix A [1] to this part, and shall be submitted to the FAA regional office for the region in which the manufacturer is located.

§ 410.12 Authorization.

Upon receiving an application and finding that the applicant meets the eligibility requirements, the Administrator will issue an authorization to the applicant to use the delegation option procedures in accordance with the provisions of this part. A sample authorization is shown in appendix B [1] to this part.

§ 410.13 Eligibility.

To be eligible for an authorization to use the delegation option procedure, the applicant shall:

(a) Hold a current type certificate under the same part of the Civil Air Regulations and a production certificate, issued to the applicant under the standard procedure,

(b) Employ a competent staff of engineering, flight test, production, and inspection personnel adequate to maintain compliance with the applicable certification requirements of Parts 1, 3, 4a, 5, 8, 13, and 14 of this title, and

(c) Have requested the appointment of an individual by the Administrator as a Designated Manufacturer's Certification Representative in accordance with § 410.14.

§ 410.14 Designated manufacturer's certification representative (DMCR).

(a) A Designated Manufacturer's Certification Representative is an individual who:

(1) Holds a responsible position in a manufacturer's organization with respect to the design and manufacture of the pertinent product; and

(2) Upon request by the manufacturer, has been issued a certificate by the Administrator, and has been listed on the delegation option authorization issued to the manufacturer.

(b) The Designated Manufacturer's Certification Representative may be replaced by another individual upon request by the holder of the delegation option procedure authorization and the listing of such replacing individual by the Administrator on the authorization.

(c) A DMCR will be furnished FAA forms, and instructions on the use thereof, under the delegation option procedures.

§ 410.15 Duration.

An authorization to use the delegation option procedure shall remain in effect for 1 year unless suspended, canceled, or revoked by the Administrator. An authorization may be renewed upon application if the Administrator finds the record of the applicant to be satisfactory. (See § 410.16.) The holder of such authorization shall request the FAA to cancel it if he no longer desires to use the delegation option procedure.

§ 410.16 Maintenance of eligibility.

The holder of an authorization to use the delegation option procedure shall continue to comply with the initial requirements for issuance. To be eligible for renewal the holder must have a record over the previous year which shows he is competent, willing, and able to carry out the responsibilities delegated.

§ 410.17 Transfer.

An authorization to use the delegation option procedure is not transferable.

§ 410.18 Inspections.

At any time, upon request, the applicant for a delegation option procedure authorization or the holder of such authorization shall permit authorized employees of the Administrator to inspect his organization, facilities, product, and records.

Subpart C—Delegation Option Procedures

§ 410.31 Limits of applicability.

(a) The delegation option procedures shall be applied only to products which are manufactured by the holder of a delegation option authorization, and which:

(1) Are eligible for certification under the type, production, and airworthiness requirements of Parts 1, 3, 4a, 5, 8, 13, or 14 of this title, and

(2) Are airplanes or gliders having a maximum weight of 12,500 pounds or less, or

(3) Are piston engines having less than 1,000 cubic inches piston displacement, or

(4) Are propellers designed for use on engines having less than 1,000 cubic inches piston displacement.

(b) Within the limitations prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the delegation option procedure may be applied to:

(1) Type certification.

(2) Changes in the type design of products for which the manufacturer holds or obtains a type certificate.

(3) The amendment of the production certificate held by the manufacturer, to include additional models or additional types for which he holds or obtains type certificates.

(4) The issuance of airworthiness certificates for airplanes and gliders of any type for which the manufacturer holds a type certificate and holds or is in the process of obtaining a production certificate. For this privilege to be continued, the production certificate shall be obtained within 6 months from the date of issuance of the type certificate.

(c) The delegation option procedures may be applied to one or more types as selected by the manufacturer, who shall notify the FAA of each model, and the first serial number of each model manufactured by him under the delegation option procedures. Other types or models may remain under the standard procedures.

§ 410.32 Type certificates.

(a) When a manufacturer desires to obtain a type certificate for a new type under the delegation option procedures:

(1) The DMCR for such manufacturer shall submit to the FAA an application for Type Certificate (Form FAA-312) together with a statement listing particular airworthiness requirements of this title by part and date, which the DMCR considers applicable, plus a three-view drawing, a description of the salient characteristics of the design, an outline of the method to be used to substantiate compliance, and an estimated time schedule involved. After reviewing the application, the FAA will notify the DMCR in an acceptance letter that the Administrator finds such requirements, or other specified requirements, applicable.

(2) The FAA will verify compliance with standards, rules, and regulations for unconventional designs and/or design features having a substantially significant effect on safety, and will determine that there are no apparent unairworthy features. An initial review will be made by the FAA of new type designs including discussions with the manufacturer concerning any unconventional design features, interpretations of the regulations, or means of determining compliance. Following this review the FAA will notify the manufacturer concerning the extent to which the FAA will verify compliance, and the extent to which the FAA will participate in test programs. Also, the FAA will counsel and advise manufacturers upon request or indicated need.

(3) After determining that the applicable airworthiness requirements are met, the DMCR shall request the Administrator to issue a type certificate. The request shall include a Statement of Compliance and the information prescribed in appendix C [1] to this part. The proposed specification and, if required by the applicable airworthiness requirements, a copy of the Airplane Flight Manual as approved by the DMCR, or if an airplane flight manual is not required, a summary of the required DMCR approved operating limitations information, and performance, shall be transmitted with the request. If the results of his own participation in the process of determining compliance with the regulations have revealed no failure of compliance, the Administrator will issue the type certificate which includes the Type Certificate Data Sheet.

(b) Under these delegation option procedures, the manufacturer may change the type design for which he holds a type certificate, when the DMCR finds that the changes comply with the applicable airworthiness requirements. If such changes would alter the information in the specification or Airplane Flight Manual, the manufacturer shall promptly submit proposed specification revisions or Airplane Flight Manual revisions to the FAA.

[1] Not filed with the Federal Register Division.

(1) The DMCR shall furnish a statement to the FAA, briefly describing major changes to the type design and listing the particular airworthiness requirements of this title which the DMCR considers applicable. Upon receiving such a statement, the FAA will notify the DMCR that the Administrator finds such requirements or other specified requirements applicable. The FAA will verify compliance as considered necessary and will counsel and advise manufacturers upon request or indicated need.

(c) As a part of determining compliance with the applicable airworthiness requirements, the DMCR shall conduct a type inspection and complete a Type Inspection Report using an acceptable form or format which he shall sign and include in the manufacturer's technical data file.

(d) The manufacturer or the DMCR may request the advice of the FAA concerning interpretation of the certification requirements in Parts 1, 3, 4a, 5, 8, 13, and 14 of this title. The DMCR shall request the advice of the FAA on any interpretation which requires application of the equivalent safety provisions contained in the certification requirements. FAA rulings will be confirmed in writing.

(e) The manufacturer shall prepare and maintain a technical data file for each product type under the delegation option procedure, in accordance with § 410.33(a)(1). Authorized employees of the FAA shall have access to the file at any time. In the event the manufacturer goes out of business or no longer operates under the delegation option procedure the file becomes the property of the FAA.

§ 410.33 Production certificates.

(a) When a manufacturer desires to list a new model or new type certificate on his production certificate, the DMCR for such manufacturer shall, after finding that the manufacturer meets the production certificate requirements of Part 1 of this title with respect to the new model or type, submit a request therefor to the Administrator. (See § 410.31(b)(4).) This request shall be accompanied by:

(1) A Statement of Compliance containing the information prescribed in appendix D [1] of this part, and,

(2) A properly executed application for an amendment to the manufacturer's production certificate (Form FAA–332).

Upon receipt of these documents the Administrator will add the new model designation and/or type certificate number to the production certificate and forward to the manufacturer an amended production limitation record.

(b) In determining that the manufacturer meets the applicable production certificate requirements, the DMCR shall, for each new model or type added to the production certificate under the delegation option procedure, conduct an inspection of the manufacturer's organization, facilities, methods, and procedures for manufacturing and controlling the quality and conformity of the product. The FAA shall be notified in advance of such inspections and will participate as considered necessary. The DMCR shall complete and sign a Manufacturing Inspection Report (Form FAA–314) for inclusion in the manufacturer's records.

(c) At least once each year while the manufacturer holds a delegation option procedure authorization, the DMCR shall conduct an inspection of the manufacturer's facilities, methods, and procedures. The FAA will participate as considered necessary. The DMCR shall make a report to the FAA on each annual factory inspection, using form FAA–314.

(d) The manufacturer shall prepare and maintain a production certification file and make reports covering changes in organization and procedures and special processes, as required by the production certificate requirements of Part 1 of this title. He shall include such reports and inspection records for each model produced uder the delegation option procedure in his records as specified in § 410.38(a)(2).

§ 410.34 Airworthiness certificates.

(a) A DMCR shall issue an airworthiness certificate for an airplane or glider manufactured under the delegation option procedure when he finds, on the basis of the inspection and production flight check, that the aircraft conforms to a type design for which the manufacturer holds a type certificate and is in a condition for safe operation.

(b) The DMCR may authorize other employees of the manufacturer to sign such airworthiness certificates for him, over his name and designee number: Provided, That:

(1) Such employees perform or are in direct charge of the inspections specified in paragraph (a) of this section. and

(2) Such employees have been listed on the manufacturer's application to use the delegation option procedures (see appendix A [1] to this part), or on amendments thereto.

(c) A DMCR shall issue and attach an approval tag, Form ACA–186, to each new engine or propeller manufactured under the delegation option procedure when he finds, on the basis of the inspection and operational tests, that the engine or propeller conforms to a type design for which the manufacturer holds a type certificate and is in condition for safe operation.

After the new model has been included on the Production Limitation Record, the production certification number shall be stamped on the engine or propeller identification data plate in lieu of the issuance of the approval tag, Form FAA–186.

§ 410.35 Certification of airworthiness for export.

A certificate of airworthiness for export may be issued on the same basis as an airworthiness certificate, as specified in § 410.34.

§ 410.36 Service difficulties and noncompliance.

Service difficulties and questions of compliance on articles produced under the delegation option procedures will be handled as follows:

(a) Reports. When service difficulties are deemed of sufficient importance, FAA will forward copies of the reports to the manufacturer for his information and any action he deems appropriate. The FAA will not request replies or action on any report except as indicated in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Serious defects. If FAA investigation of accident or service difficulty reports indicates unsafe features or characteristics caused by defect in design or manufacture, the FAA will request the manufacturer to report the results of his investigation, and also to report the action, if any, taken or proposed by him (e.g., service bulletins, design changes, etc.). If the nature of the defect is of such importance that mandatory corrective action by the user of the product is necessary for safety, the FAA will require the manufacturer to submit the information necessary for the issuance of an airworthiness directive.

(c) Investigation of data, products, or manufacturing facilities. The manufacturer shall, at any time upon request, permit the FAA to inspect and test his product, and investigate his technical data files and manufacturing facilities (see §§ 410.18 and 410.38).

(d) Maintenance of files. The manufacturer shall maintain a file of information on service difficulties received from all sources, which will be available to the FAA at all times.

(e) Noncompliance. When investigation is made by the FAA, and the findings indicate that a serious safety hazard exists because of the manufacturer's failure to comply with Parts 1, 3, 4a. 5. 8, 13, or 14 of this title, the FAA will take such action as is deemed necessary to require correction of the defect in existing models and to assure compliance in articles subsequently produced.

(f) Revocation of delegation option authorization. If the number or importance of established cases of noncompliance warrants, or if the manufacturer is found not to comply with the requirements of this part, the FAA may request the manufacturer to show cause why his privileges under the delegation option procedures should not be withdrawn. These privileges may be withdrawn until the manufacturer reestablishes his eligibility to the satisfaction of the Administrator.

(g) Suspension and revocation of certificates. Any action against type or production certificates held by the manufacturer will be processed in accordance with the standard procedures.

§ 410.37 Maintenance, repair, and alteration of products.

Aircraft, engines, and propellers manufactured under the delegation option procedures shall be maintained, repaired, and altered in accordance with Part 18 of this title and the following provisions:

(a) Approval of major repairs and alterations performed by the manufacturer. For types included under the manufacturer's delegation option authorization:

(1) The DMCR may, after finding that the major repair or alteration complies with the applicable requirements, approve such repair or alteration under the provisions of § 18.11 of this title.

(2) A completed Repair and Alteration Form (Form FAA–337) shall be furnished to the owner and a copy forwarded to the FAA in accordance with established procedures. Technical data covering the design change shall be included in the manufacturer's records. The Form FAA–337 shall contain a description of the repair or alteration and a statement that it was accomplished under the delegation option procedures.

(3) The DMCR may authorize other employees of the manufacturer to execute and sign Forms FAA–337 and make required logbook entries over his name and designee number: Provided, That:

(i) Such employees perform or are in direct charge of inspecting the repair or alteration, and

(ii) They have been listed on the manufacturer's application for the delegation option (see appendix A [1] to this part), or on amendments thereto.

(b) Approval of major repairs and alterations performed by agencies other than the manufacturer. Anyone performing a major repair or alteration to a product certificated under the delegation option procedure must either:

(1) Obtain the necessary technical data or advice from the manufacturer, or

(2) Conduct the technical investigations and tests necessary to demonstrate compliance with the applicable airworthiness requirements.

§ 410.38 Data and records.

(a) A manufacturer shall maintain at his factory, for all models certificated under the delegation option procedures, current records containing the following:

(1) A technical data file for each type. This data shall include the type design drawings, specifications, and reports on tests prescribed by Parts 1, 3, 4a, 5, 8, 13, or 14 of this title, the original type inspection report (Form FAA–283), and amendments thereto. This file shall be retained for the duration of the manufacturer's operation under the delegation option procedure.

(2) A complete inspection record for each model produced according to serial number and data covering the processes and tests to which materials and parts are subjected. These records shall be retained for 2 years.

(3) The report required to be submitted with the original application for the production certificate and amendments thereto. This report shall be retained for the duration of the manufacturer's operation under the delegation option procedure.

(4) The factory inspection reports specified in § 410.33 (b) and (c). These factory inspection reports shall be retained for 2 years.

(5) A record of all major repairs and alterations performed under the delegation option procedure. This record shall be retained for the duration of the manufacturer's operation under the delegation option procedure.

(6) A record of all reported service difficulties. These records shall be retained for 2 years.

(b) The records and data specified in paragraph (a) of this section shall be:

(1) Made available, upon request, for examination at any time by authorized employees of the Administrator,

(2) Identified and transferred to the FAA in the event the manufacturer goes out of business or no longer operates under the delegation option procedure.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 22, 1960.

JAMES T. PYLE,
Acting Administrator.

PART 418—REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ADMINISTRATOR

Revision of Part

The language contained in Part 418, Regulations of the Administrator, has become obsolete. Without usage of current terminology and integration of the outstanding amendments, confusion and misuse can result in the application of this regulation. For these reasons, a complete restatement of the part is necessary. This revision incorporates the outstanding amendments, up-dates terminology, deletes obsolete material and rearranges certain of the sections where necessary.

Inasmuch as this revision is procedural only and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 418 of Chapter III of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby revised, effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, to read as follows:

Subpart A—Introduction

Sec.
418.1 Basis and purpose.
418.2 Definitions of terms.
418.3 Use of forms, etc.

Subpart B—Certification

418.10 Selection.
418.11 Certificates.
418.12 Duration.
418.13 Reports.

Subpart C—Types of Designations and Privileges

418.20 Medical examiners.
418.21 Pilot examiners.
418.22 Technical personnel examiners.
418.23 Designated aircraft maintenance inspectors (DAMI).
418.24 Designated engineering representatives (DER).
418.25 Designated manufacturing inspection representative (DMIR).

AUTHORITY: §§ 418.1 to 418.25 issued under sec. 314, 72 Stat. 754, 49 U.S.C. 1355.

Subpart A—Introduction

§ 418.1 Basis and purpose.

This part describes the requirements under section 314 of the act for the issuance of designations to private persons to act as representatives of the Administrator, in the examination, inspection, and testing necessary for the issuance of airman and aircraft certificates by the Administrator. It also delineates the privileges of such persons and establishes basic rules for the exercise of such privileges.

§ 418.2 Definitions of terms.

As used in this part:

(a) "Act" shall mean Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended.

(b) "Administrator" shall mean Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency or his authorized representative.

(c) "Inspector" shall mean Bureau of Flight Standards Inspector or Advisor.

(d) "FSDO" shall mean Flight Standards District Office.

(e) "Board" shall mean Civil Aeronautics Board.

(f) "FAA" shall mean Federal Aviation Agency.

(g) "District" shall mean Flight Standards District over which the local Flight Standards District Office has jurisdiction.

(h) "Local Flight Standards Inspector" shall mean the inspector who has been assigned by the FAA to supervise the Flight Standards Designated Representative to whom any powers or duties are delegated under this part.

(i) "Medical certificate" shall mean an acceptable evidence of an airman's physical fitness which is a part of, but has a separate entity from an airman certificate.

(j) "Senior Regional Flight Surgeon" shall mean the aviation medical officer in each region who has been assigned the duty to supervise the person to whom any power or duties related to the examination and medical certification of airmen has been delegated.

§ 418.3 Use of forms, etc.

Forms and other documents prescribed in this part which contain references to specific units of organization will not be affected by any changes in the titles of the units. Such forms and documents will continue in use until they have been superseded or revoked.

Subpart B—Certification

§ 418.10 Selection.[1]

Aviation Medical Examiners are selected by the Civil Air Surgeon or his authorized representative, from qualified physicians who have submitted application, Form FAA–861. Except for Engineering and Manufacturing Inspection Representatives, Flight Standards Designated Representatives are selected by the local Flight Standards Inspector upon a determination by such Inspector that the need for such designation exists. Designated Engineering Representatives and Designated Manufacturing Inspection Representatives are selected by the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Division, or his authorized representative from those qualified persons whose requests for appointment have been initiated by letter. This letter must be accompanied by a Statement of Qualifications of Designated Engineering Representative, Form FAA–1599, or a Statement of Qualifications for Designated Manufacturing Inspection Representative, Form FAA–1381. Air Traffic Control Tower Operator Examiners are selected by the Director, Bureau of Air Traffic Management.

[1] Not filed with the Federal Register Division.

[1] Inquiry may be made to any FAA Regional Office or Flight Standards District Office for information concerning methods of selecting designees.

§ 418.11 Certificates.

An official "Certificate of Authority", Form FAA–1382, specifying the type or types of designations for which a designee is qualified is issued to all Flight Standards Designated Representatives. In addition all designees of Flight Standards are issued a "Certificate of Designation," Form FAA–2001, for display purposes, designating the holder as a Flight Standards Representative and specifying the particular type of designations for which he is qualified. A "Certificate of Designation," Form FAA–2001, is issued to Aviation Medical Examiners along with an identification card on Form FAA–2680.1.

§ 418.12 Duration.

(a) Unless otherwise terminated under the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, a designation as a Flight Standards Designated Representative shall be effective for one year from the date of issuance. Thereafter it may be renewed for additional periods of one year at the discretion of the Administrator. The "Certificate of Authority", Form FAA–1382 specifies the expiration date for each designation.

(b) An Aviation Medical Examiner "Certificate of Designation" is of indefinite duration subject only to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, except that each such certificate must be revalidated on or before the beginning of every calendar year by a letter of designation and an identification card issued by the Civil Air Surgeon which specify the year in which the designation is valid.

(c) A designation shall terminate: (1) At the written request of the designee; (2) at the written request of the employer when the recommendation of such employer is required for issuance of the designation; (3) upon the separation of the designee from the employment of the employer who recommended him for the designation; (4) upon a finding by the Administrator or his authorized representative that the designee has not properly exercised or performed the privileges of such designation; (5) when the assistance of such designee is no longer required by the Administrator; or (6) for any other reason which the Administrator deems appropriate.

§ 418.13 Reports.

A designee shall submit such reports[2] as are prescribed by the Administrator or his authorized representative.

[2] Reports required by the Administrator are prescribed in detail in instructions issued to each designee upon his designation.

Subpart C—Types of Designations and Privileges

§ 418.20 Medical examiners.

(a) A person designated as an aviation medical examiner may accept applications for, and conduct under the general supervision of the Civil Air Surgeon, or the appropriate senior regional flight surgeon, physical examinations required for the issuance of medical certificates prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations. Such examiners may also issue or deny issuance of medical certificates pursuant to the applicable regulations and procedures. As requested, aviation medical examiners may be called upon to participate in the investigation of aircraft accidents.

(b) A qualified forensic pathologist may be designated by the Civil Air Surgeon to assist in the medical investigation of aircraft accidents. Each consultant forensic pathologist is issued an appropriate "Certificate of Designation" on Form FAA–2001 and identification card, Form FAA–2680.1. When on duty these consultants will be on fee basis at the expense of the government.

§ 418.21 Pilot examiners.

(a) Types. The types of pilot examiner designations issued by the FAA are: Pilot Examiner, Instrument Rating Examiner, and Airline Transport Pilot Examiner.

(b) Privileges. A person designated as a pilot examiner may accept applications for, and conduct under the general supervision of the local Flight Standards Inspector, flight examinations and tests required for the issuance of pilot certificates and ratings prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations. Such examiner may also, at the discretion of the local agent, issue temporary pilot certificates and ratings to qualified applicants.

§ 418.22 Technical personnel examiners.

(a) Types. The types of technical personnel examiner designations issued by FAA are: Mechanic Examiner (Airframe and Powerplant), Parachute Rigger Examiners, Air Traffic Control Tower Operator Examiner, Air Crew Examiners (Flight Radio Operator Examiner, Flight Navigator Examiner, Flight Engineer Examiner).

(b) Privileges—(1) Designated mechanic examiners (DME). A person authorized to act as a DME may accept applications for and conduct mechanic oral and practical examinations required for the issuance of mechanic certificates prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations. Such examiner may also, at the discretion of the local inspector, issue temporary mechanic certificates to qualified applicants.

(2) Designated parachute rigger examiners (DPRE). A person authorized to act in the capacity of a DPRE may accept applications for and conduct parachute rigger oral and practical examinations required for the issuance of a parachute rigger certificate prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations. Such examiner may also, at the discretion of the local Flight Standards Inspector, issue temporary parachute rigger certificates to qualified applicants.

(3) Air traffic control tower operator examiners. A person designated as an air traffic control tower operator examiner may accept applications for, and conduct the written and practical examination for a control tower operator's certificate. Such examiner may also at the discretion of the Director, Bureau of Air Traffic Management, process the necessary airman record forms for the issuance of the certificate, but is not authorized to issue the certificate.

(4) Air crew examiners—(i) Designated flight engineer examiner (DFEE). A person authorized to act as a DFEE may accept applications for and conduct flight engineer oral and practical examinations required for the issuance of flight engineer certificates prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations. Such examiner may also, at the discretion of the local inspector, issue temporary flight engineer certificates to qualified applicants.

(ii) Designated flight navigator examiner (DFNE). A person authorized to act as a DFNE may accept applications for and conduct flight navigator oral and practical examinations required for the issuance of flight navigator certificates prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations. Such examiner may also, at the discretion of the local inspector, issue temporary flight navigator certificates to qualified applicants.

(iii) Designated flight radio operator examiner (DFROE). A person authorized to act as a DFROE may accept applications for and conduct flight radio operator oral and practical examinations required for the issuance of flight radio operator certificates prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations. Such examiner may also, at the discretion of the local inspector, issue temporary flight radio operator certificates to qualified applicants.

§ 418.23 Designated aircraft maintenance inspectors (DAMI).

A person authorized to act as a DAMI may approve maintenance on civil aircraft used by U.S. military flying clubs in foreign countries.

§ 418.24 Designated engineering representatives (DER).

(a) Types. The types of engineering representative designations issued by FAA are: Structural engineering, powerplant engineering, systems and equipment engineering, radio engineering, engine engineering, propeller engineering, flight analyst, and flight test pilot.

(b) Privileges—(1) Structural engineering representative. A person designated as a structural engineering representative may approve structural engineering data and other structural considerations within limitations prescribed by and under the general supervision of the Administrator or his authorized representative, when such data and other structural considerations have been determined by him to comply with pertinent Civil Air Regulations.

(2) Powerplant engineering representative. A person designated as a powerplant engineering representative may approve data relating to powerplant installations within limitations prescribed by and under the general supervision of the Administrator or his authorized representative, when such data have been determined by him to comply with pertinent Civil Air Regulations.

(3) Systems and equipment engineering representative. A person designated as a systems and equipment engineering representative may approve engineering data relating to equipment and systems other than those of a structural powerplant, or radio nature within limitations prescribed by and under the general supervision of the Administrator or his authorized representative, when such data have been determined by him to comply with pertinent Civil Air Regulations.

(4) Radio engineering representative. A person designated as a radio engineering representative may approve engineering data relating to the design and operating characteristics of radio equipment within limitations prescribed by and under the general supervision of the Administrator or his authorized representative, when such data have been determined by him to comply with pertinent Civil Air Regulations.

(5) Engine engineering representative. A person designated as an engine engineering representative may approve engineering data relating to engine design, operation, and service within limitations prescribed by and under the general supervision of the Administrator or his authorized representative, when such data have been determined by him to comply with pertinent Civil Air Regulations.

(6) Propeller engineering representative. A person designated as a propeller engineering representative may approve engineering data relating to propeller design, operation, and maintenance within the limitations prescribed by and under the general supervision of the Administrator or his authorized representative, when such data have been determined by him to comply with pertinent Civil Air Regulations.

(7) Flight analyst representative. A person designated as a flight analyst representative may approve flight test data within the limitations prescribed by and under the general supervision of the Administrator or his authorized representative, when such data have been determined by him to comply with pertinent Civil Air Regulations.

(8) Flight test pilot representative. A person designated as a flight test pilot representative may conduct flight tests, and prepare and approve flight test data relating to compliance with Civil Air Regulations within limitations prescribed by and under the general supervision of the Administrator or his authorized representative.

§ 418.25 Designated manufacturing inspection representative (DMIR).

A person designated as a DMIR may issue original airworthiness and export certificates for aircraft, engines, propellers, and other type certificated products which are found to conform with approved type design data; issue export ferry permits; conduct station and conformity inspections; and make such additional examinations as may be necessary to ascertain that prototype and production articles are airworthy and safe for operation. Such authorization is limited to the manufacturing plant in which the designee is employed.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 22, 1960.

JAMES T. PYLE,
Acting Administrator.

SUBCHAPTER B—AIRMAN REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 608]

PART 450—INTER-AMERICAN AVIATION TRAINING GRANTS

Revision of Part

The language contained in Part 450, Regulations of the Administrator, has become obsolete. Without usage of current terminology, confusion and misuse can result in the application of this regulation. This revision updates terminology and deletes obsolete material.

Inasmuch as this revision imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, Part 450 of Chapter III of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby revised, effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, to read as follows:

Sec.
450.1 General.
450.2 Types of training.
450.3 Qualifications.
450.4 Award of training grants.
450.5 Types of training grants.
450.6 Allowances and expenses.
450.7 Duration of training grants.
450.8 Official notification.

AUTHORITY: §§ 450.1 to 450.8 issued under sec. 313, 72 Stat. 752, 49 U.S.C. 1354.

§ 450.1 General.

Training grants may be awarded to qualified male applicants from other American republics.

§ 450.2 Types of training.

Training grants may provide instruction, observation, study and practical training, in one or more of the following categories:

(a) Air traffic control and communications training, comprising such special courses of study as may be prescribed by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency on the basis of the qualifications and needs of the trainee and the purpose of the training as indicated by his government, in one or more of the various specialized technical branches of aviation, including airway communications, airway traffic control, airport traffic control, aviation meteorology, aviation navigation, aeronautical charting, and airline dispatching. The special courses of study scheduled over a period not to exceed one year will consist of (1) preliminary orientation, during which the trainee may receive intensive instruction in English, (2) physical education, (3) general and observational meteorology as related to airway service; International Continental Morse Code, teletypewriting, and radio telegraph; radio telephone, interphone, broadcast and teletype communications, procedures, practices and phraseologies; Civil Air Regulations relating to air traffic rules; dead reckoning, navigation, radio navigation, radio aids to air navigation, and radio range monitoring; airport traffic control tower operation, procedures, practices and phraseologies; airway traffic control procedures, practices and phraseologies; organization, structure, and principal functions of the Federal Aviation Agency, and (4) assignment to one or more of the various offices and installations of the Federal Aviation Agency for practical on-the-job training in airport traffic control, airways communications, and airway traffic control, and assignment to United States Weather Bureau Station for practical on-the-job training in aviation meteorology. Upon satisfactory completion of the training course, a trainee is eligible to take examinations for Federal Aviation Agency airport traffic control tower operator and aircraft communicator certificates.

(b) Aviation industry training provides practical on-the-job training for a period of not to exceed 10 months in a special field in the aviation industry of the United States selected according to the background and qualifications of the individual trainee and the special needs of his country in aviation. Such training is available in airline operations; airline maintenance; aircraft, and aircraft engine, maintenance and overhaul; maintenance and overhaul of aircraft accessories; production and maintenance of single-engine aircraft; and airline traffic and administration. One month of preliminary orientation, including intensive instruction in English, may be given each trainee.

(c) Civil aviation official training provides an opportunity for high-level government and private civil aviation officials, during an eight-week period, to study and observe the organization, administration, and operation of civil aviation as developed in the United States and/or the methods and techniques in specialized fields of aviation in which they are primarily interested. This type of training is available to government and private civil aviation officials who are already experienced in their field of specialization, but who would make further contributions to civil aviation if they were afforded this opportunity to observe advanced operations.

§ 450.3 Qualifications.

Each applicant selected for an aviation training grant shall meet the following requirements:

(a) Age. (1) An air traffic control and communications trainee shall be in the age range of 21 to 31, inclusive, as of the closing date for receipt of applications;

(2) An aviation industry trainee shall be in the age range of 21 to 35, inclusive, as of the closing date for receipt of applications;

(3) A civil aviation official trainee shall be at least 21 years of age, as of the closing date for receipt of applications.

(b) Citizenship. A trainee shall be a bona fide citizen of one of the American Republics other than the United States.

(c) Language. (1) An air traffic control and communications trainee and an aviation industry trainee shall be able to speak, read, write, and understand the English language, and make a satisfactory score in an English written examination prescribed by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency;

(2) A civil aviation official trainee should have a fair knowledge of English or an available interpreter, furnished at no expense to the Government of the United States.

(d) Physical requirements. (1) An air traffic control and communications trainee shall be in a satisfactory physical condition as evidenced by a Federal Aviation Agency medical certificate (Form FAA-1004.1) issued by a designated aviation medical examiner attesting compliance with Federal Aviation Agency Second Class physical requirements and shall furnish a satisfactory laboratory report of blood test:

(2) An aviation industry trainee shall be in a satisfactory physical condition as evidenced by a statement of a physical examination issued by a licensed physician within 60 days of the date of application, describing the applicant's physical condition and stating that he is free from any communicable disease or disability that would interfere with any activity incidental to the training grant and he shall furnish a satisfactory laboratory report of blood test;

(3) A civil aviation official trainee shall be in a satisfactory physical condition.

(e) Education. (1) An air traffic control and communications trainee shall possess a diploma attesting the successful completion of a course of study with a degree of "Bachillerato" (or the equivalent at a recognized institution of learning):

(2) An aviation industry trainee shall have completed at least six years of schooling and have sufficient training or experience in practical mathematics and mechanics to enable him to make a satisfactory grade in a written examination prescribed by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency;

(3) A civil aviation official trainee shall have attained a high-ranking position in civil aviation, either commercial or government.

(f) Purpose. (1) An air traffic control and communications trainee or an aviation industry trainee shall have expressed in an original composition in Spanish or Portuguese, a sincere desire and intention to engage in civil aviation in the country of which he is a citizen and in that branch of aviation for which application for a training grant is made. The original composition shall constitute a part of the application papers:

(2) A civil aviation official trainee is not required to express a purpose.

(g) Character. (1) An air traffic control and communications trainee or an aviation industry trainee shall furnish the names of at least three responsible persons residing in the republic of which he is a citizen, who can testify to his dependability, spirit of initative, industry, stability, honesty, perserverance, and aptitude in that branch of aviation for which application for training grant is made;

(2) A civil aviation official trainee is not required to furnish references.

(h) Sponsor. Preference will be given to an applicant who has at least one sponsor willing and able to employ him in that branch of aviation for which the training grant has qualified him upon his return to the republic of which he is a citizen.

(i) Endorsement. A trainee shall have received the endorsement of the United States Embassy in the country from which he applies.

§ 450.4 Award of training grants.

Training grants will be awarded by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency with the approval of the Secretary of State of the United States or their duly authorized representatives, upon the recommendation of the Inter-American Aviation Selection Committee appointed by the government of the American republic wherein the applicant resides. No applicant will be considered in the awarding of training grants unless his application and supporting papers shall have been submitted by such Selection Committee through the Department of State to the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency for the elimination of unqualified applicants prior to the final recommendation of the Inter-American Aviation Selection Committee. After the elimination of any unqualified applicants by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency, the Inter-American Aviation Selection Committees of the respective countries shall make final recommendations from those qualified applicants remaining.

§ 450.5 Types of training grants.

Three types of training grants may be offered: Type A wherein the total cost of the training grant is paid for by the United States Government, Type B wherein the total cost of the training grant is paid for by an American republic other than the United States or by an aviation industrial concern, and Type C wherein a portion of the cost of the training grant is paid for by the United States Government and the remainder of the cost of the training grant is paid for by an American republic other than the United States or by an aviation industrial concern.

§ 450.6 Allowances and expenses.

An applicant awarded a Type B training grant will not be entitled to any allowances and expenses paid from funds appropriated by the United States Government. An applicant awarded a Type A or a Type C training grant may be paid the appropriate allowances and expenses as provided in 22 CFR Part 65, as interpreted, modified, or altered by the Department of State.

§ 450.7 Duration of training grants.

Air traffic control and communications training grants will be awarded for periods of one year; aviation industry training grants will be awarded for periods of 10 months; and civil aviation official training grants will be awarded for periods of 2 months. Subject to the availability of appropriations, training grants may be extended by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency not to exceed four months. Training grants may be canceled for cause by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency with the approval of the Secretary of State, or their duly authorized representatives.

§ 450.8 Official notification.

Each applicant selected for a training grant shall be notified of his award through diplomatic channels by a letter of award, which shall describe the training, state the duration and type of training grant and the allowances authorized. The amounts originally specified for allowances and expenses may be amended by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency or his duly authorized representative, if necessary, provided that such amounts are kept within the maximum limits specified by regulations of the Department of State. The Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency may amend the types of training or duration of training grants in the interest of obtaining instruction better suited to the needs and capabilities of trainees than those prescribed in the original letter of award.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 22, 1960.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 60-NY-89]

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Modification of Control Zone

On September 14, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 8825) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the Westover, Mass., control zone. On October 22, 1960, a modification of proposal was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 10105) which proposed a further modification to the control zone.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice, § 601.2276 (14 CFR 601.2276) is amended to read:

§ 601.2276 Westover, Mass., control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of the Westover AFB (Lat. 42°11'40" N., Long. 72°32'15" W.), within 2 miles either side of the Westover TACAN 028° True radial extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 10 miles NE of the TACAN and within 2 miles either side of the NE course of the Westover ILS localizer extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles NE of the ILS OM.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., February 9, 1961.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Modification of Control Zone

On October 13, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 9814) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio, control zone.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice, § 601.2265 (14 CFR 601.2265) is amended to read:

§ 601.2265 Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio, control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of Patterson AFB (Lat. 39°49'25" N., Long. 84°02'55" W.) and within a 5-mile radius of Wright AFB (Lat. 39°46'35" N., Long. 84°06'35" W.); within 2 miles either side of the 039° True radial of the Patterson TVOR extending from the Patterson AFB 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles NE of the TVOR; and within 2 miles either side of the 054° True radial of the Patterson TACAN extending from the Patterson AFB 5-mile radius zone to 8 miles NE of the TACAN, excluding that portion which coincides with the Springfield, Ohio, control zone (§ 601.2266).

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., March 9, 1961.

[Airspace Docket No. 60-WA-184]

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Modification of Control Zone

On September 16, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 8911) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) proposed to modfy the Abilene, Tex., control zone.

As stated in the notice, the Abilene control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of the Abilene Municipal Airport, within 2 miles either side of the north course of the Abilene radio range extending from the radio range station to a point 10 miles north; within 2 miles either side of a direct line extending from the Abilene radio range station to and including a 5-mile radius of Dyess Air Force Base; within 2 miles either side of the 292° and the 112° True radials of the Abilene VOR extending from the Abilene Municipal Airport 5-mile radius zone to a point 5 miles northwest of the VOR; within 2 miles either side of the 354° True radial of the Abilene VOR extending from the VOR to a point 10 miles north; and within 2 miles either side of the centerline of Dyess AFB north/south runway 16_{34} extending to a point 10 miles south of the end of the runway. An ILS is being installed at the Abilene Municipal Airport to serve the north/south runway. The ILS outer marker will be located at Lat. 32°18'50" N., Long. 99°41'04"W. The FAA is modifying the Abilene control zone by designating an extension 2 miles either side of the ILS localizer south course extending from the 5-mile radius zone of the Abilene Municipal Airport to the ILS outer marker; revoking the control zone extension northwest of the Abilene VOR; extending the present north extensions based on the north course of the Abilene radio range and VOR to 12 miles north of the radio range and VOR; and extending the present south extension based on the Dyess radio beacon to 12 miles south of the Dyess radio beacon. These modifications would provide protection for aircraft executing the prescribed instrument approach procedures at Abilene Municipal Airport and Dyess AFB.

The Department of the Air Force concurred in the proposed modification. However, the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA) questioned the need for a control zone extension between the Abilene radio range station and Dyess AFB, since no published instrument approach to Dyess AFB utilizing the radio range station appears to exist. The AOPA further questioned the need for the control zone extension south of Dyess AFB which would extend 12 miles south of the Dyess radio beacon.

The FAA concurs with the first point of the AOPA's comments and action is taken herein to eliminate the extension between the Abilene radio range and Dyess AFB from the description of the modified control zone. However, with regard to the second comment, the extension south of Dyess AFB extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles south of the Dyess radio beacon is considered necessary because aircraft executing the ADF instrument approach procedure are maneuvering less than 1,000 feet above the surface south of the radio beacon due to terrain features. If the instrument procedure required aircraft to maintain 3,400 feet MSL until crossing the radio beacon, an excessive rate of descent would be required for landing aircraft. Therefore, the FAA is modifying the Abilene control zone as proposed with the exception of the extension between Dyess AFB and the Abilene radio range station.

This action will result in the Abilene control zone being designated within a 5-mile radius of Abilene Municipal Airport (Lat. 32°25'10" N, Long. 99°41'20" W); within 2 miles either side of the Abilene ILS localizer south course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the ILS outer marker; within 2 miles either side of the north course of the Abilene radio range extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles north of the radio range; within a 5-mile radius of Dyess AFB (Lat. 32°25'10" N, Long. 99°51'15" W); within 2 miles either side of the 112° True radial of the Abilene VOR extending from the Abilene Municipal Airport 5-mile radius zone to the Abilene VOR; within 2 miles either side of the 354° True radial of the Abilene VOR extending from the Dyess AFB 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles north of the VOR and within 2 miles either side of the 168° and 348° True bearings of the Dyess AFB RBN extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles south of the RBN.

No other comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated herein and in the Notice, § 601.2247 (14 CFR 601.2247) is amended to read:

§ 601.2247 Abilene, Tex., control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of Abilene Municipal Airport (Lat. 32°25'10" N., Long. 99°41'20" W.); within 2 miles either side of the Abilene ILS localizer

S course extending from the Abilene Municipal Airport 5-mile radius zone to the ILS OM; within 2 miles either side of the N course of the Abilene RR extending from the Abilene Municipal Airport 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles N of the RR; within 2 miles either side of the 112° True radial of the Abilene VOR extending from the Abilene Municipal Airport 5-mile radius zone to the Abilene VOR; within a 5-mile radius of Dyess AFB (Lat. 32°25'10" N., Long. 99°51'15" W.); within 2 miles either side of the 354° True radial of the Abilene VOR extending from the Dyess AFB 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles N of the VOR and within 2 miles either side of the 168° and 348° True bearings of the Dyess AFB RBN extending from the Dyess AFB 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles S of the RBN.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., February 9, 1961.

[Airspace Docket No. 60-WA-270]

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Modification and Revocation of Reporting Points

The purpose of these amendments to §§ 601.4020 and 601.7001 of the regulations of the Administrator is to revoke designated reporting points that the Federal Aviation Agency has determined are no longer required for air traffic management purposes and modify the location of an existing designated reporting point. Flight progress reports over designated locations, automatically initiated by pilots, will facilitate air traffic management and assist the controller in the performance of his duties. However, due to the continuous modernization of the airway structure of the United States, the need for reporting points at particular locations is constantly being revised. Thus the actions taken herein reflect this changing need on the part of air traffic control.

Since these amendments are of a procedural nature and do not assign or reasign the use of navigable airspace, compliance with the notice and public procedure of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary. However, since it is necessary that sufficient time be allowed to permit appropriate changes to be made on aeronautical charts, these amendments will become effective more than 30 days after publication.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), the following actions are taken:

1. In the text of § 601.4020 (14 CFR 601.4020) "Gooding, Idaho nondirectional radio beacon;" is deleted.

2. In the text of § 601.7001 (14 CFR 601.7001; 25 F.R. 7489) the following changes are made:

(a) "Eagle INT: The INT of the Thermal, Calif., VORTAC 069° True and the Blythe, Calif., VOR 288° True radials." is deleted and "Eagle INT: The INT of the Twentynine Palms, Calif., VORTAC 154° True and the Blythe, Calif., VOR 288° True radials." is substituted therefor.

(b) "Petersburg, INT: The INT of the Elkins, W. Va., VOR 077° and the Grantsville, Md., VOR 191° radials." is deleted.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. February 9, 1961.

[Airspace Docket No. 60-LA-82]

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.20 of the regulations of the Administrator is to modify the Arco, Idaho, Restricted Area (R-500) (Pocatello Chart).

The Arco Restricted Area is designated for use by the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) from the surface to unlimited. The AEC has advised that the ceiling of R-500 can be safely lowered from unlimited to 20,000 feet MSL. Therefore, the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) is modifying R-500 herein to reflect this change.

Since this amendment reduces a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary, and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 8005), the following action is taken:

In § 608.20 Idaho, the Arco, Idaho, Restricted Area (R-500) (Pocatello Chart) (23 F.R. 8580), "Surface to unlimited." is deleted and "Surface to 20,000 feet MSL." is substituted therefor.

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 307(a), 72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 21, 1960.

Title 18—CONSERVATION OF POWER

Chapter I—Federal Power Commission

SUBCHAPTER G—APPROVED FORMS, NATURAL GAS ACT

[Order No. 231; Docket No. R-191]

PART 260—FORMS

Statement of Sales and Revenues of Independent Producers

In this proceeding the Commission has under consideration the amendment of Part 260, entitled "Statements and Reports (Schedules)" of Subchapter G, Approved Forms, Natural Gas Act, Chapter I—Federal Power Commission, Title 18—Conservation of Power, Code of Federal Regulations (18 CFR, Part 260), by the revision of § 260.5 (18 CFR 260.5) and the addition of a new section, § 260.6, so as to prescribe FPC Forms No. 301-A and No. 301-B,[1] both entitled Independent Producers Report.

Section 260.5 and the reporting requirements thereof were first prescribed by Commission Order No. 187, Docket No. R-152, issued May 11, 1956, 21 FR 3146, 15 FPC 802, prescribing FPC Form No. 301, Independent Producers Report of Natural Gas Transactions for the year ending December 31, 1955. By Order No. 198, Docket No. R-162, issued November 19, 1957, 22 FR 9385, 18 FPC 662, § 260.5 was amended to prescribe a Form 301 for the year 1956 with somewhat enlarged reporting requirements. By Order No. 214, Docket No. R-176, issued July 15, 1959, 24 FR 5755, 22 FPC 81, § 260.5 was further amended to prescribe simplified and slightly revised Forms Nos. 301 for 1957 and 1958. The forms prescribed herein are essentially the same as Form No. 301-1957 or Form No. 301-1958. Proposed Form No. 301-A corresponds to Part I of the 1957 or 1958 form, with a minor revision of format. Form No. 301-B corresponds to Parts II and III of the 1957 or 1958 form.

Forms Nos. 301-A and 301-B are prescribed hereinafter to be filed annually. Forms Nos. 301-1957 and 301-1958 were intended for use in reporting for the years 1957 and 1958, respectively. The report forms for the years 1955 and 1956 were similarly intended to cover the years 1955 and 1956, respectively.

The Commission's regulations exempt independent producers from compliance with the comprehensive accounting and reporting requirements of the Commission's regulations under the Natural Gas Act. This exemption is still continued, but the Commission's experience in the regulation of producers convinces it of the necessity for continuing to require at least the minimum data called for in the forms prescribed herein in order that the regulatory responsibilities of the Commission may be viewed in relation to the relative importance and financial effects of such regulation on the regulated producers.

General public notice of the hereinafter ordered amendment was given by publication of Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 28, 1960 (25 F.R. 10358) and by the mailing of copies of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to interested parties including State and Federal regulatory agencies; that Notice being accompanied by copies of the forms as proposed. In giving notice of the proposed amendment, the Commission invited all interested parties to submit data, views, or comments not later than November 14, 1960. The several responses to that invitation included in principal part: various suggestions for revision of the formats of the forms; allegations that there is an undue reporting burden on certain signatory producers; objection to requirement that residue gas and liquid hydrocarbons be reported separately for sales under standard casinghead agreements; objection to the furnishing of information about liquid hydrocarbons; objection to requiring certain small producers to file the proposed forms; suggestion that small operators be required to report in less detail; requests for more time to file for reporting year 1959. All responses have been considered by the Commission.

The Commission finds:

(1) In view of the foregoing and upon consideration of all relevant matters presented, the amendment of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act hereinafter adopted and promulgated, including the forms approved and prescribed therein (as attached hereto), is necessary and appropriate to carry out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act; all in the manner as hereinafter provided.

(2) Good cause exists that the amendment of the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act as hereinafter adopted and promulgated including the forms approved and prescribed therein, shall become effective as hereinafter provided.

The Commission, acting pursuant to authority granted by the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 10 and 16 thereof (52 Stat. 826, 830; 15 U.S.C. 717i, 717o) orders:

(A) Part 260 of the Commission's regulations entitled "Statements and Reports (Schedules)" of Subchapter G, Approved Forms, Natural Gas Act (18 CFR, Part 260), is hereby amended by the amendment of § 260.5 thereof (18 CFR 260.5) and the addition of a new section thereto, § 260.6, both to read as follows:

§ 260.5 Form No. 301-A, Statement of sales and revenues of independent producers.

(a) FPC Form No. 301-A Independent Producers Report, being a statement of sales of natural gas made during the reporting year (calendar year or fiscal year ending prior to July 1 next following the calendar year) under rate schedules filed with the Commission pursuant to §§ 154.92 or 154.94 of this chapter, including the instructions and schedules therein contained, is hereby approved and prescribed.

(b) Each independent producer as defined in § 154.91 of this chapter who had a rate schedule on file with the Commission, pursuant to §§ 154.92 or 154.94 of this chapter, as of the end of the reporting year, shall (1) beginning with reporting year 1960 hereafter annually prepare and file with the Commission on or before the last day of the sixth month following the close of the reporting year one copy of such FPC Form No. 301-A; and (2) for the reporting year 1959 prepare and file with the Commission on or before March 31, 1961, one copy of such FPC Form No. 301-A.

§ 260.6 Form No. 301-B, Statement of sales and revenues of independent producers.

(a) FPC Form No. 301-B Independent Producers Report, being a statement of sales of natural gas totaling two million or more Mcf made during the reporting year (calander year or fiscal year ending prior to July 1 next following the calendar year) under rate schedules filed with the Commission pursuant to §§ 154.92 or 154.94 of this chapter, including the instructions and schedules therein contained, is hereby approved and prescribed.

(b) In addition to complying with the provisions of § 260.5 of this chapter, each independent producer as defined in § 154.91 of this chapter who had a rate schedule on file with the Commission, pursuant to §§ 154.92 or 154.94 of this chapter, as of the end of the reporting year and whose sales of natural gas totaled two million or more Mcf during the reporting year shall (1) beginning with reporting year 1960 hereafter annually prepare and file with the Commission on or before the last day of the sixth month following the close of the reporting year two copies of such FPC Form No. 301-B; and (2) for the reporting year 1959 prepare and file with the Commission on or before March 31, 1961, two copies of such FPC Form No. 301-B.

(B) Forms Nos. 301-A and 301-B, as approved and prescribed in paragraph (A) above, are attached hereto.

(C) The amendment of the regulations under the Natural Gas Act as adopted and promulgated herein, including the forms approved and prescribed therein, shall become effective 30 days after the issuance of this order.

Issued: December 21, 1960.

By the Commission.

Title 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

[T.D. 6523]

SUBCHAPTER A—INCOME TAX

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

Foreign Corporations and Estimated Income Tax Filing Requirements for Individuals

In order to make provision in the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) for the use of Form 1120F by foreign corporations, and in order to conform such regulations to the amendments made to section 6015(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 by section 5 of the Act of September 14, 1960 (Public Law 86-779, 74 Stat. 1000), the regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Subparagraphs (1) and (2) of § 1.6012-2(g), are amended to read as follows:

§ 1.6012-2 Corporations required to make returns of income.

* * * * * * *

(g) Returns by foreign corporations—(1) Nonresident foreign corporations—(i) In general. A nonresident foreign corporation is not required to make a return of income if the tax liability of the corporation is fully satisfied at the source. A nonresident foreign corporation shall, however, make or have made a return with respect to that portion of its income described in § 1.881-2 upon which the tax has not been fully satisfied at the source, including such income upon which the tax is limited by tax convention. Such return shall be made on Form 1120NB for taxable years ending before December 31, 1960, and on Form 1120F for taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1960. The tax liability of a nonresident foreign corporation is not fully satisfied at the source in any case where, if it were not for the allowance of deductions to such corporation, it would be liable for tax. For example, the tax liability of a nonresident foreign corporation which is a personal holding company (as defined in section 542) is not fully satisfied at the source

PART 168—DIRECTORY OF INTERNATIONAL MAIL

Nicaragua Import Prohibitions

In § 168.5 Individual country regulations, the country "Nicaragua", under Parcel Post, is revised by amending the last paragraph of the item Prohibitions, as added by Federal Register Document 60-11601, 25 F.R. 12884-12885, by deleting "boots" where it appears therein. As so amended, the last paragraph reads as follows:

Prohibitions. * * *

Footwear, including shoes, slippers, and rubbers, except when sent as personal gifts.

if such corporation would be liable for the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541 if it were not for the fact that it may be allowed a deduction for dividends paid (as defined in section 561). See section 545, relating to the definition of undistributed personal holding company income, and section 882 (c)(1), relating to allowance of deductions only if a return is filed.

(ii) Claim for refund. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, a nonresident foreign corporation shall include on its return its entire income described in § 1.881–2, whether or not the tax has been fully satisfied at the source upon a portion thereof, if a claim for refund of an overpayment of tax is made in accordance with section 6402 and §§ 301.6402–2 and 301.6402–3 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration). However, if the overpayment to be refunded consists solely of tax deemed to have been paid under section 852(b)(3)(D), relating to undistributed capital gains of a regulated investment company, it is not necessary to include on the return the entire income described in § 1.881–2.

(iii) Inconsistent regulations. All regulations inconsistent with the provisions of this paragraph shall be deemed to have been modified accordingly.

(2) Resident foreign corporations. Every resident foreign corporation shall make or have made a return of all its income described in § 1.882–1, including such income upon which the tax is limited by tax convention. Such return shall be made on Form 1120 for taxable years ending before December 31, 1960, and on Form 1120F for taxable years ending on or after December 31, 1960.

PAR. 2. Section 1.6015(a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.6015(a)–1 Statutory provisions; declaration of estimated income tax by individuals; requirement of declaration.

SEC. 6015 Declaration of estimated income tax by individuals—(a) Requirement of declaration. Every individual (other than a nonresident alien with respect to whose wages, as defined in section 3401(a), withholding under chapter 24 is not made applicable, but including every alien individual who is a resident of Puerto Rico during the entire taxable year) shall make a declaration of his estimated tax for the taxable year if—

(1) The gross income for the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed—

(A) $5,000, in the case of—

(i) A single individual other than a head of a household (as defined in section 1(b)(2)) or a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(b));

(ii) A married individual not entitled under subsection (b) to file a joint declaration with his spouse; or

(iii) A married individual entitled under subsection (b) to file a joint declaration with his spouse, but only if the aggregate gross income of such individual and his spouse for the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed $10,000; or

(B) $10,000, in the case of—

(i) A head of a household (as defined in section 1(b)(2)); or

(ii) A surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(b)); or

(2) The gross income can reasonably be expected to include more than $200 from sources other than wages (as defined in section 3401(a)).

Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, no declaration is required if the estimated tax (as defined in subsection (c)) can reasonably be expected to be less than $40.

[Sec. 6015(a) as amended by sec. 5, Act of Sept. 14, 1960 (Pub. Law 86–779, 74 Stat. 1000)]

PAR. 3. Paragraph (a) of § 1.6015(a)–1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.6015(a)–1 Declaration of estimated income tax by individuals.

(a) Requirement—(1) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1960. With respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1960, a declaration of estimated income tax by an individual is not required if the estimated tax (as defined in section 6015(c)) can reasonably be expected to be less than $40. In all other cases a declaration shall be made by every citizen of the United States, whether residing at home or abroad, every individual residing in the United States though not a citizen thereof, every nonresident alien who is a resident of Canada, Mexico, or Puerto Rico and who has wages subject to withholding at the source under section 3402, and every nonresident alien who has been, or expects to be, a resident of Puerto Rico during the entire taxable year, if—

(i) The gross income for the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed—

(a) $5,000, in the case of—

(1) A single individual other than a head of a household (as defined in section 1(b)(2)) or a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(b));

(2) A married individual not entitled under section 6015(b) to file a joint declaration with his spouse; or

(3) A married individual entitled under section 6015(b) to file a joint declaration with his spouse, but only if the aggregate gross income of such individual and his spouse for the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed $10,000; or

(b) $10,000, in the case of—

(1) A head of a household (as defined in section 1(b)(2)); or

(2) A surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(b)); or

(ii) The gross income can reasonably be expected to include more than $200 from sources other than wages (as defined in section 3401(a)).

(2) Taxable years beginning before January 1, 1961. With respect to taxable years beginning before January 1, 1961, a declaration of estimated tax shall be made by every citizen of the United States, whether residing at home or abroad, every individual residing in the United States though not a citizen thereof, every nonresident alien who is a resident of Canada, Mexico, or Puerto Rico and who has wages subject to withholding at the source under section 3402, and every nonresident alien who has been, or expects to be, a resident of Puerto Rico during the entire taxable year, if—

(i) The gross income for the taxable year can reasonably be expected to consist of wages (as defined in section 3401(a)) and of not more than $100 from sources other than such wages, and can reasonably be expected to exceed—

(a) $5,000, in the case of a single individual other than a head of a household (as defined in section 1(b)(2)) or a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(b)) or in the case of a married individual not entitled to file a joint declaration with his spouse;

(b) $10,000, in the case of a head of a household (as defined in section 1(b)(2)) or a surviving spouse (as defined in section 2(b)); or

(ii) The gross income can reasonably be expected to include more than $100 from sources other than wages (as defined in section 3401(a)) and can reasonably be expected to exceed the sum of—

(a) The amount obtained by multiplying $600 by the number of exemptions to which he is entitled under section 151 plus

(b) $400.

Because this Treasury decision makes only technical and procedural changes, it is hereby found that it is unnecessary to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4(c) of that Act.

SUBCHAPTER B—ESTATE AND GIFT TAXES

[T.D. 6522]

PART 20—ESTATE TAX; ESTATES OF DECEDENTS DYING AFTER AUGUST 16, 1954

Miscellaneous Amendments

On October 1, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 9408), with respect to conforming the Estate Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 20) to sections 66(c) and 206 (a), (c), and (e) of Public Law 85–866, approved September 2, 1958, relative to the rate at which interest is to be paid on estate tax and to the payment in installments of the estate tax attributable to inclusion in the gross estate of an interest in a closely held business. After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the rules proposed, the regulations as so published are hereby adopted, subject to the changes set forth below. Such regulations supersede the temporary regulations in Part 24 relating to Certain Estate Tax Matters under Small Business Tax Revision Act of 1958 (26 CFR 24.1–1).

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 20.6166–1 is revised by changing paragraphs (a) and (d) and by inserting a new paragraph (e)(3).

PAR. 2. Section 20.6166–4 is revised by changing paragraphs (a) and (b).

(68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7605)

[SEAL] CHARLES I. FOX,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: December 23, 1960.

DAVID A. LINDSAY,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

In order to conform the Estate Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 20) to sections 66(c) and 206 (a), (c), and (e) of Public Law 85–866, approved September 2, 1958, relative to the rate at which interest is to be paid on estate tax and to the payment in installments of the estate tax attributable to inclusion in the gross estate of an interest in a closely held business, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Paragraph (b) of § 20.6151–1 is amended by inserting new subparagraph (3) to read as follows:

§ 20.6151–1 Time and place for paying tax shown on the return.

* * * * * * *

(b) Extension of time for paying. * * *

(3) Interest in a closely held business. For provisions relating to payment in installments of the estate tax attributable to inclusion in the gross estate of an interest in a closely held business, see §§ 20.6166–1 through 20.6166–4.

PAR. 2. Section 20.6161 is amended by revising subsection (a)(2) of section 6161 and by adding a historical note to read as follows:

§ 20.6161 Statutory provisions: extension of time for paying tax.

SEC. 6161. Extension of time for paying tax—(a) Amount determined by taxpayer on return. * * *

(2) Estate tax. If the Secretary or his delegate finds—

(A) That the payment, on the due date, of any part of the amount determined by the executor as the tax imposed by chapter 11,

(B) That the payment, on the date fixed for the payment of any installment under section 6166, of any part of such installment (including any part of a deficiency prorated to an installment the date for payment of which had not arrived), or

(C) That the payment upon notice and demand of any part of a deficiency prorated under the provisions of section 6166 to installments the date for payment of which had arrived, would result in undue hardship to the estate, he may extend the time for payment for a reasonable period not in excess of 10 years from the date prescribed by section 6151(a) for payment of the tax.

* * * * * * *

[Sec. 6161 as amended by sec. 206(c), Small Business Tax Revision Act 1958 (72 Stat. 1684)]

PAR. 3. Paragraph (a) and (c) of § 20.6161–1 are amended to read as follows:

§ 20.6161–1 Extension of time for paying tax shown on the return.

(a) In any case where the district director finds that payment on the due date of any part of the tax shown on the return, or payment of any part of an installment under section 6166 (including any part of a deficiency prorated to an installment the date for payment of which had not arrived) on the date fixed for payment thereof, would impose undue hardship upon the estate, he may extend the time for payment for a period or periods not to exceed one year for any one period and for all periods not to exceed more than 10 years from the date prescribed in section 6151(a) for payment of the tax. See paragraph (a) of § 20.6151–1. In addition, if the district director finds that payment upon notice and demand of any part of a deficiency prorated under the provisions of section 6166 to installments the date for payment of which had arrived would impose undue hardship upon the estate, he may extend the time for payment for a similar period or periods.

* * * * * * *

(c) An application for such an extension must be in writing and must contain, or be supported by, information in a written statement declaring that it is made under penalties of perjury, showing the undue hardship that would result to the estate if the requested extension were refused. The application, with the supporting information, must be filed with the district director. When received, it will be examined, and, if possible, within 30 days will be denied, granted, or tentatively granted subject to certain conditions of which the executor will be notified. The district director will not consider an application for such an extension of time for payment of the tax or of an installment under section 6166 (including any part of a deficiency prorated to an installment the date for payment of which had not arrived) unless the extension is applied for on or before the date fixed for payment of the tax or the installment. Similarly, the district director will not consider an application for such an extension of time for payment of any part of a deficiency prorated under the provisions of section 6166 to installments the date for payment of which had arrived, unless the extension is applied for on or before the date prescribed for payment of the deficiency as shown by the notice and demand from the district director. If the executor desires to obtain an additional extension of time for payment of any part of the tax shown on the return, or any part of an installment under section 6166 (including any part of a deficiency prorated to an installment), it must be applied for on or before the date of the expiration of the previous extension. The granting of the extension of time for paying the tax is discretionary with the district director and his authority will be exercised under such conditions as he may deem advisable. If, in the mistaken belief that an estate satisfies the requirements of section 6166, the executor, within the time prescribed in paragraph (e) of § 20.6166–1, files a notification of election to pay estate tax in installments, the notification of election to pay tax in installments will be treated as a timely filed application for an extension, under section 6161, of time for payment of the tax if the executor so requests, in writing, within a reasonable time after being notified by the district director that the estate does not satisfy the requirements of section 6166. A request that the election under section 6166 be treated as a timely filed application for an extension under section 6161 must contain, or be supported by, information in a written statement declaring that it is made under penalties of perjury, setting forth the period of the extension requested, and showing the undue hardship that would result if the requested extension were refused.

PAR. 4. Paragraph (a) of § 20.6161–2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 20.6161–2 Extension of time for paying deficiency in tax.

(a) In any case in which the district director finds that payment, on the date prescribed therefor, of any part of a deficiency would impose undue hardship upon the estate, he may extend the time for payment for a period or periods not to exceed one year for any one period and for all periods not to exceed four years from the date prescribed for payment thereof. However, see § 20.6161–1 for extensions of time for payment of the part of a deficiency which is prorated to installments under the provisions of section 6166.

PAR. 5. Immediately after § 20.6165–1 the following new sections are inserted:

§ 20.6166 Statutory provisions; extension of time for payment of estate tax where estate consists largely of interest in closely held business.

SEC. 6166. Extension of time for payment of estate tax where estate consists largely of interest in closely held business—(a) Extension permitted. If the value of an interest in a closely held business which is included in determining the gross estate of a decedent who was (at the date of his death) a citizen or resident of the United States exceeds either—

(1) 35 percent of the value of the gross estate of such decedent, or

(2) 50 percent of the taxable estate of such decedent,

the executor may elect to pay part or all of the tax imposed by section 2001 in two or more (but not exceeding 10) equal installments. Any such election shall be made not later than the time prescribed by section 6075(a) for filing the return of such tax (including extensions thereof), and shall be made in such manner as the Secretary or his delegate shall by regulations prescribe. If an election under this section is made, the provisions of this subtitle shall apply as though the Secretary or his delegate were extending the time for payment of the tax. For purposes of this section, value shall be value determined for Federal estate tax purposes.

(b) Limitation. The maximum amount of tax which may be paid in installments as provided in this section shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the tax imposed by section 2001 (reduced by the credits against such tax) as the value of the interest in a closely held business which qualifies under subsection (a) bears to the value of the gross estate.

(c) Closely held business. For purposes of this section, the term "interest in a closely held business" means—

(1) An interest as a proprietor in a trade or business carried on as a proprietorship.

(2) An interest as a partner in a partnership carrying on a trade or business, if—

(A) 20 percent or more of the total capital interest in such partnership is included in determining the gross estate of the decedent, or

(B) Such partnership had 10 or less partners,

(3) Stock in a corporation carrying on a trade or business, if—

(A) 20 percent or more in value of the voting stock of such corporation is included in determining the gross estate of the decedent, or

(B) Such corporation had 10 or less shareholders.

For purposes of this subsection, determinations shall be made as of the time immediately before the decedent's death.

(d) Special rule for interests in two or more closely held businesses. For purposes of subsections (a), (b), and (h)(1), interests in two or more closely held businesses, with respect to each of which there is included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate more than 50 percent of the total value of each such business, shall be treated as an interest in a single closely held business. For purposes of the 50-percent requirement of the preceding sentence, an interest in a closely held business which represents the surviving spouse's interest in property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as community property shall be treated as having been included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate.

(e) Date for payment of installments. If an election is made under subsection (a), the first installment shall be paid on or before the date prescribed by section 6151(a) for payment of the tax, and each succeeding installment shall be paid on or before the date which is one year after the date prescribed by this subsection for payment of the preceding installment.

(f) Proration of deficiency to installments. If an election is made under subsection (a) to pay any part of the tax imposed by section 2001 in installments and a deficiency has been assessed, the deficiency shall (subject to the limitation provided by subsection (b)) be prorated to such installments. The part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has not arrived shall be collected at the same time as, and as a part of, such installment. The part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has arrived shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate. This subsection shall not apply if the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax.

(g) Time for payment of interest. If the time for payment of any amount of tax has been extended under this section, interest payable under section 6601 on any unpaid portion of such amount shall be paid annually at the same time as, and as a part of, each installment payment of the tax. Interest, on that part of a deficiency prorated under this section to any installment the date for payment of which has not arrived, for the period before the date fixed for the last installment preceding the assessment of the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate. In applying section 6601(b) (relating to the application of the 4-percent rate of interest in the case of certain extensions of time to pay estate tax) in the case of a deficiency, the entire amount which is prorated to installments under this section shall be treated as an amount of tax the payment of which is extended under this section.

(h) Acceleration of payment—(1) Withdrawal of funds from business; disposition of interest—(A) If—

(i) Aggregate withdrawals of money and other property from the trade or business, an interest in which qualifies under subsection (a), made with respect to such interest, equal or exceed 50 percent of the value of such trade or business, or

(ii) 50 percent or more in value of an interest in a closely held business which qualifies under subsection (a) is distributed, sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of,

then the extension of time for payment of tax provided in this section shall cease to apply, and any unpaid portion of the tax payable in installments shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate.

(B) In the case of a distribution in redemption of stock to which section 303 (or so much of section 304 as relates to section 303) applies—

(i) Subparagraph (A)(i) does not apply with respect to withdrawals of money and other property distributed; and for purposes of such subparagraph the value of the trade or business shall be considered to be such value reduced by the amount of money and other property distributed, and

(ii) Subparagraph (A)(ii) does not apply with respect to the stock redeemed; and for purposes of such subparagraph the interest in the closely held business shall be considered to be such interest reduced by the value of the stock redeemed.

This subparagraph shall apply only if, on or before the date prescribed by subsection (e) for payment of the first installment which becomes due after the date of the distribution, there is paid an amount of the tax imposed by section 2001 not less than the amount of money and other property distributed.

(C) Subparagraph (A)(ii) does not apply to an exchange of stock pursuant to a plan of reorganization described in subparagraph (D), (E), or (F) of section 368(a)(1) nor to an exchange to which section 355 (or so much of section 356 as relates to section 355) applies; but any stock received in such an exchange shall be treated for purposes of such subparagraph as an interest qualifying under subsection (a).

(D) Subparagraph (A)(ii) does not apply to a transfer of property of the decedent by the executor to a person entitled to receive such property under the decedent's will or under the applicable law of descent and distribution.

(2) Undistributed income of estate. (A) If an election is made under this section and the estate has undistributed net income for any taxable year after its fourth taxable year, the executor shall, on or before the date prescribed by law for filing the income tax return for such taxable year (including extensions thereof), pay an amount equal to such undistributed net income in liquidation of the unpaid portion of the tax payable in installments.

(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A), the undistributed net income of the estate for any taxable year is the amount by which the distributable net income of the estate for such taxable year (as defined in section 643) exceeds the sum of—

(i) The amounts for such taxable year specified in paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 661(a) (relating to deduction for distributions, etc.);

(ii) The amount of tax imposed for the taxable year on the estate under chapter 1; and

(iii) The amount of the Federal estate tax (including interest) paid by the executor during the taxable year (other than any amount paid pursuant to this paragraph).

(3) Failure to pay installment. If any installment under this section is not paid on or before the date fixed for its payment by this section (including any extension of time for the payment of such installment), the unpaid portion of the tax payable in installments shall be paid upon notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate.

(i) Transitional rules—(1) In general. If—

(A) A deficiency in the tax imposed by section 2001 is assessed after the date of the enactment of this section, and

(B) The estate qualifies under paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a), the executor may elect to pay the deficiency in installments. This subsection shall not apply if the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax.

(2) Time of election. An election under this subsection shall be made not later than 60 days after issuance of notice and demand by the Secretary or his delegate for the payment of the deficiency, and shall be made in such manner as the Secretary or his delegate shall by regulations prescribe.

(3) Effect of election on payment. If an election is made under this subsection, the deficiency shall (subject to the limitation provided by subsection (b)) be prorated to the installments which would have been due if an election had been timely made under this section at the time the estate tax return was filed. The part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which would have arrived shall be paid at the time of the making of the election under this subsection. The portion of the deficiency so prorated to installments the date for payment of which would not have so arrived shall be paid at the time such installments would have been due if such an election had been made.

(4) Application of subsection (h)(2). In the case of an election under this subsection, subsection (h)(2) shall not apply with respect to undistributed net income for any taxable year ending before January 1, 1960.

(j) Regulations. The Secretary or his delegate shall prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to the application of this section.

(k) Cross references—(1) Interest. For provisions requiring the payment of interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum for the period of an extension, see section 6601(b).

(2) Security. For authority of the Secretary or his delegate to require security in the case of an extension under this section, see section 6165.

(3) Period of limitation. For extension of the period of limitation in the case of an extension under this section, see section 6503(d).

[Sec. 6166 as added by sec. 206(a) Small Business Tax Revision Act 1958 (72 Stat. 1681)]

§ 20.6166–1 Extension of time for payment of estate tax where estate consists largely of interest in closely held business.

(a) In general. Section 6166 provides that where the value of an interest in a closely held business, which is included in the gross estate of a decedent who was a citizen or resident of the United States at the time of his death, exceeds either (1) 35 percent of the value of the gross estate, or (2) 50 percent of the taxable estate, the executor may elect to pay part or all of the Federal estate tax in installments. The election to pay the tax in installments applies to deficiencies in tax as well as to the tax shown on the return, unless the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax. Except as otherwise provided in section 6166(i) and § 20.6166–4, the provisions of section 6166 and this section apply only if the due date of the return is after September 2, 1958. See § 20.6166–4 for special rules applicable where the decedent died after August 16, 1954, and the due date of the return was on or before September 2, 1958. See also § 20.6075–1 for the due date of the return, and § 20.6166–2 for definition of the term "interest in a closely held business". Since the election must be made on or before the due date of the return, the provisions of section 6166 will not apply to a deficiency in a case where, for whatever reason, no election was made to pay in installments the tax shown on the return. However, see paragraph (e)(3) of this section concerning a protective election. The general administrative provisions of subtitle F of the Code are applicable in connection with an election by the executor to pay the estate tax in installments in the same manner in which they are applied in a case where an extension of time under section 6161 is granted for payment of the tax. See paragraph (a) of § 20.6165–1 for provisions requiring the furnishing of security for the payment of the tax in cases where an extension is granted under section 6161.

(b) Limitation on amount of tax payable in installments. The amount of estate tax which the executor may elect to pay in installments is limited to an amount A, which bears the same ratio to B (the gross Federal estate tax, reduced by the credits authorized by sections 2011 through 2014 and any death tax convention) as C (the value of the interest in a closely held business which is included in the gross estate) bears to D (the value of the gross estate). Stated algebraically, the limitation (A) equals

$$\frac{\text{Value of interest in a closely held business which is included in the gross estate (C)}}{\text{Value of gross estate (D)}} \times \text{Gross Federal estate tax reduced by the credits authorized by sections 2011 through 2014 and any death tax convention (B).}$$

The executor may elect to pay in installments an amount less than the amount computed under the limitation in this paragraph. For example, if the total estate tax payable is $100,000 and the amount computed under the limitation in this paragraph is $60,000, the executor may elect to pay in installments some lesser sum such as $30,000, in which event the executor must pay $73,000 to the district director on or before the date prescribed by section 6151(a) for payment of the tax. Of such payment, $70,000 represents tax which the executor either could not elect to pay in installments or did not choose to so elect, and $3,000 represents a payment of the first installment of the tax which the executor elected to pay in installments.

(c) Number of installments and dates for payment. The executor may elect to pay part or all of the tax (determined after application of the limitation contained in paragraph (b) of this section) in two or more, but not exceeding 10, equal annual installments. The first installment shall be paid on or before the date prescribed by section 6151(a) for payment of the tax (see paragraph (a) of § 20.6151–1), and each succeeding installment shall be paid on or before the date which is one year after the date prescribed for the payment of the preceding installment. See § 20.6166–3 for the circumstances under which the privilege of paying the tax in installments will terminate.

(d) Deficiencies. The amount of a deficiency which may be paid in installments shall not exceed the difference between the amount of tax which the executor elected to pay in installments and the maximum amount of tax (determined under paragraph (b) of this section) which the executor could have elected to pay in installments on the basis of a return which reflects the adjustments which resulted in the deficiency. This amount is then prorated to the installments in which the executor elected to pay the tax. The part of the deficiency prorated to installments not yet due shall be paid at the same time as, and as a part of, such installments. The part of the deficiency prorated to installments already paid or due shall be paid upon notice and demand from the district director. At the time the executor receives such notice and demand he may, of course, prepay the portions of the deficiency which have been prorated to installments not yet due. See paragraph (h) of this section.

(e) Notice of election—(1) Filing of notice. The notice of election to pay the estate tax in installments shall be filed with the district director on or before the due date of the return. However, if the due date of the return is after September 2, 1958, but before November 3, 1958, the election will be considered as timely made if the notice is filed with the district director on or before November 3, 1958. See § 20.6075–1 for the due date of the return.

(2) Form of notice. The notice of election to pay the estate tax in installments may be in the form of a letter addressed to the district director. The executor shall state in the notice the amount of tax which he elects to pay in installments, and the total number of installments (including the installment due 15 months after the date of the decedent's death) in which he elects to pay the tax. The properties in the gross estate which constitute the decedent's interest in a closely held business should be listed in the notice, and identified by the schedule and item number at which they appear on the estate tax return. The notice should set forth the facts which formed the basis for the executor's conclusion that the estate qualifies for the payment of the estate tax in installments.
